

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3154

Grandma May: I will only pamper my great-grandson.

When the elevator went down to the first floor, Zachary hugged Sonny again. “Let him go.”

Serenity said, “You dote on him too much.”

Sonny hugged Zachary’s neck and said in a sweet voice, “My uncle likes me the most. My aunt is just envious of me.”

Serenity smiled and pinched his little face. She said, “Yes, yes, your uncle dotes on you the most. Who doesn’t dote on you?”

Whether it was the York family’s elders, Stone family members, or Lewis family members, they all doted on Sonny.

To keep Sonny from becoming spoiled, Serenity and Liberty should be more strict with him.

Zachary was cold, but he really loved his children.

After the child in Serenity’s belly is born, she still doesn’t know how doted Zachary will be. Sonny said he was his little brother.

Although her husband’s family hopes that she will have a daughter, they will be equally happy if it is a son. After all, he is the first of his grandchildren (great-grandchildren).

The couple is used to going to the Wiltspoon Hotel for dinner.

Zachary had already arranged to go there in advance.

When they went to the hotel, they didn't have to wait too long before the waiter started serving the food.

Sonny was still young and ate by himself. Rice grains often fell all over the table. Occasionally, he expressed a desire for adult feeding.

When he couldn't take more than two bites, he pushed the small bowl in front of Serenity and said, "Auntie, feed me."

Serenity said to him, "Eat it by yourself first, and then I'll feed you when your aunt is full."

Sonny said, "I eat very slowly and can't finish it. Auntie, you nourish me. I want my aunt to feed me. I want my aunt to feed me."

Serenity looked at her aunt.

Watch quietly.

Sonny looked at Serenity, then at Zachary.

Zachary was still watching the performances of the aunt and nephew. When Sonny looked at him, he quickly picked up a chopstick of food and ate it gracefully, pretending not to notice.

It was impossible for Sonny to expect Zachary to help him.

Sonny wisely pulled back his small bowl and said honestly, "I'll eat it myself."

Serenity gave him some food, which he put in his bowl.

Sonny: "Thank you, auntie."

Serenity: "eat slowly."

She gave Sonny some extra vegetables.

Sonny said disgustingly, “Auntie, I don’t want green vegetables. Green vegetables don’t taste good.”

Serenity said, “You have to eat something if it doesn’t taste good. Children can’t be picky eaters.”

Sonny looked at Zachary again, who still pretended not to see or hear.

Sonny pouted and muttered in a low voice, “It’s my mother and aunt who want me to eat vegetables.”

No one else would ask him to eat vegetables. If he doesn’t like eating them, he doesn’t have to.

“Just eat a little. Auntie, please don’t bring me more vegetables. I want to eat lobster meat.” Sonny compromised.

Who told Zachary to fear Serenity and not support Sonny?

Sonny could only eat some vegetables that he didn’t like. When he grew up, he would definitely not be afraid of his wife!

Serenity: “First finish the food in your bowl, and also eat some rice. You can’t just eat the food.”

Sonny pursed his lips and then started eating the food honestly.

While eating, he looked at Zachary with contempt in his eyes.

Uncle Zachary looked majestic outside. He was followed by his bodyguard uncle wherever he went, and he acted like an emperor. As a result, he was not impressive at all in front of Aunt Serenity.
