

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3156

Kathryn, on the other hand, was the biological daughter of the Farrell family head. If the current head of the Farrell family killed the previous one, it was inevitable that Serenity and others would have a hostile relationship with Kathryn.

After Liberty was silent for a short time, she asked, “Where is Sonny?”

Serenity: “After we came back, he practiced the piano. Now he’s painting.”

Liberty: “There are no homework assignments in kindergarten?”

Serenity said with a smile, “Whatever homework he has now, it doesn’t take a minute to complete it. He just takes a pen, circles, and draws a line. At his current age, in kindergarten, he mainly focuses on having fun.”

Sonny wanted to write, which was a task assigned to Sonny.

Although children were having fun in kindergartens, those children who entered the most expensive and best kindergartens in Wiltspoon were from rich or noble families. Many of them would later become family heirs, and their families would hire one-on-one tutors for them.

Any one of Sonny’s classmates knew a lot of words.

Even at a young age, he was already versatile.

Serenity didn’t want Sonny to lose at the starting line, so she naturally assigned some tasks to Sonny, including writing a red book and learning music, chess, poetry, and painting.

Sonny was also interested in those things. He was quite artistic and could draw quite beautifully. His art teacher said that he was very courageous and pursued innovation.

Serenity: "Do you want to ask Sonny to answer the phone?"

Liberty said, "I'll ask him to answer the phone later. Serenity, in the evening, do you have anything to talk to me about?"

"It's nothing. I just want to remind you to watch out for Brother Duncan and make sure he doesn't disappear. After I picked up Sonny, I took him to Lewis & Co. Sonny returned from school every day and enjoyed visiting Lewis & Co. Brother Duncan stated that he was going to the York Corporation to discuss a project with Zachary, so he went there with us.

When we were going out, we met Ms. Girard. Her husband passed away many years ago. She took over all his business. She also has a son. The son is about eight or nine years old now. Ms. Girard entered into marriage at a relatively young age, and her current age is not excessive. At most, she is two or three years older than you.

I noticed that Ms. Girard had a bright look in her eyes when she looked at Brother Duncan. It was different. She may like Brother Duncan. Of course, this is just my personal guess. It may be that I am too sensitive.

Sister, you're not in Wiltspoon right now, and you can't leave because of the situation in Jensburg. I'm worried: What if Ms. Girard really likes Brother Duncan, and you're not here, and Brother Duncan is snatched away?"

Serenity feared that others would steal or ruin her sister's happiness.

The first marriage ended in divorce.

With great difficulty, Liberty was willing to marry again.

Duncan was also a man worthy of Liberty's trust for life. He was also very good to Sonny, treating her like his own son.

Serenity felt relieved after leaving Liberty, the mother, and the son in Duncan's hands.

Liberty was a little surprised. She didn't expect Serenity to come to her and talk about this.

Liberty said confidently, “Duncan’s family background and his personal wealth and assets are impressive enough. It’s not surprising that some people like him. But I believe Duncan will not betray me. If he is snatched away, it is not my true love, so just let me go. I didn’t want to remarry in the first place. It was Duncan who gave me the idea of remarrying.”

If someone else truly snatched Duncan away, she wouldn’t want to get married again.

Even Duncan couldn’t trust her, so who else could she trust?

Her previous marriage’s pain lingered on. It was Duncan’s deep affection that moved her and made her willing to try marriage again.

Therefore, if Duncan does not marry her, she will never marry again.

Earn her own money, raise her son, and train him well. Once her son marries and has children, she will have the opportunity to retire. While she can still move around, travel around, appreciate places of interest, and taste delicious food everywhere,.
