

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3196-Serenity said to Zachary, "Let's wait until Abby arrives before ordering."

"Yes. You can make arrangements." Zachary doesn't care.

Abby was the wife chosen by Grandma for Evan. If nothing unexpected happened, she would become her future sister-in-law. There was nothing wrong with meeting her in advance.

She just didn't know who Evan would choose in the end.

That was Evan's business. Evan had to deal with it on his own.

Serenity instructed Sonny to wash his hands first.

Zachary sat down on the sofa.

Evan was waiting at the room's door, wondering who else Serenity had invited to dinner.

He sent messages to Elian, but Elian didn't reply to him.

"D*mn it, I heard that I got into trouble, but you didn't even reply to the message. Are you afraid that I will drag you into trouble or that I will implicate you?"

Evan scolded Elian in a low voice. Soon, he heard the footsteps of high heels, which sounded familiar to him.

Seems to be...

Evan thought for a while and then remembered.

The footsteps sounded like Abby's.

It couldn't be her, right?

Abby was far away in Hiribaty, and she didn't know Serenity. How could Serenity invite Abby to dinner?

Evan must have heard wrong. Or maybe that person's footsteps were very similar to Abby's.

Evan suspected that he had heard wrongly, but Abby's figure appeared in his sight, and he could no longer deceive himself.

That was Abby.

He heard it right.

Evan looked at Abby blankly.

Looking at Abby getting closer and closer, he suddenly seemed to have enlightened himself and figured it out.

No wonder Serenity said Evan did something wrong. Zachary said again that he had disgraced the York family.

Abby must have gone to Serenity to file a complaint against him, right?

Why did this woman come to Wiltspoon?

She came without saying a word, leaving him completely unprepared.

"Evan."

When Evan came to his senses, Abby was already standing in front of him.

"Miss Du, long time, no see." After Evan collected his thoughts, he greeted Abby calmly and politely.

"Long time, no see." Abby had something to say.

Evan smiled warmly and said, "Miss Du, When did you come to Wiltspoon? Why didn't you tell me that you were coming to Wiltspoon, so that I could pick you up at the airport and do my best to help you with my duties as a landlord?"

Abby retorted, "If you don't answer my calls or reply to my messages, you might have put me on the blacklist. What should I tell you? Seriously, can I visit Wiltspoon? Perhaps Fourth Young Master York will stop me on my way.

Evan was criticized by Abby, but his expression remained unchanged, and he said with a smile, "Miss Du, you're joking; how could I do such a thing? It's not like I didn't answer your call. When I returned to Wiltspoon, the mobile phone number I used was different from the one in Hiribaty. That mobile phone was left in Hiribaty, and I didn't take it back to Wiltspoon, so I didn't know you contacted me."

Evan was telling lies with open eyes.

It was true that he used another number in Hiribaty, but he also had that mobile phone with him.

Abby had sent so many messages, and Evan read them but did not reply. When Abby called, he let his phone ring and didn't answer it.
