

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2767-The three of them stood above the Misty Forest.

The thick fog blocked Isa and Evie's vision, but it did not affect David.

He could clearly see the Vingeans' lair below.

The Vingeans were moving about.

The fog was very strange. A river separated the Elven Forest and the Misty Forest, but the environment on both sides differed completely.

David took a breath and mouthed one word.

"Leave!"

Buzz!

A huge force emanated from David and spread out.

The surrounding thick fog quickly dissipated as if it had encountered an enemy.

In just a moment, the thick fog shrouding the Misty Forest disappeared without a trace, revealing the true face of the Misty Forest.

Since the place was always shrouded in fog, it was difficult for sunlight to penetrate.

Therefore, the vegetation growing in the Misty Forest was much worse than in the Elf Forest. They looked malnourished.

The dissipation of the fog also confused the Vingeans and animals living in the Misty Forest.

Just like a person who was suddenly illuminated by sunlight after adapting to the darkness, they were very uncomfortable!

They also felt very uneasy.

At this time, David's voice suddenly sounded.

"What the Vingeans did was against the law of heaven.

Today is the time for you to atone for your actions. From now on, I will limit the cultivation of the Vingeans, so no matter how hard you work in the future, you will never be able to reach Eternal Realm!"

After he said that, David waved his hand.

A golden rune appeared in the air before turning into starlight. Before the Vingeans could react, it entered their bodies and merged into their blood.

Those Vingeans with strength less than Eternal Realm were not affected.

On the other hand, the strong Vingeans, who were Eternal Realm and above, spat out mouthfuls of blood essence after the starlight entered their bodies.

Their bodies instantly became sluggish, and their strength declined rapidly.

In just a few seconds, they fell below the eternal realm.

One by one, they looked up blankly at the sky at three figures, two women and a man.

The person who just spoke was obviously that man.

Although they had not yet figured out what was happening, they could speculate.

Not long ago, the head had taken the Vingeans to intercept the Elves collecting the Water of Life.

They still had not returned; now, another powerful enemy was here.

Obviously, the head and others had encountered something unexpected.

However, didn't the head intercept mere Elves?

Why did he provoke such a powerful enemy?

"Your head has been captured and is being tried. He will pay the price for his actions. As for you, his accomplices, I will let you go for now. However, you are exempt from death but not from punishment. The Vingeans' bloodline seal will last for a hundred million years. You will all be trapped under Eternal Realm for this hundred million years!"

After David finished speaking, he did not give the Vingeans any time to react.
