

A WARRIOR UNDEFEATABLE/

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3751-Alastair, on the other hand, was standing off to the side, watching Jared with a cold sweat covering his entire body!

He was well aware of what Jared was capable of. He's only a Third Level Tribulator cultivator, yet he has the gall to speak to a Ninth Level Tribulator cultivator like that! Is he courting death?

Suppressing the anger welling up within him, Leighton addressed Jared. "Brat, show me what you've got. Let's see if you have the chops to back up your words!" If Jared truly possessed the cultivation level of a Ninth Level Tribulator cultivator, perhaps Leighton would have been more restrained.

"Why should I show off my abilities? Flaunting my wealth is enough. If you're capable, outbid me. If you're out of money, then stop chattering away here!" Jared stated bluntly!

He had nearly been killed by Selma, so naturally, he would not be polite when dealing with the Mueller family!

"Brat, you're asking for trouble..." Unable to hold back any longer, Leighton instantly moved toward Jared, his claw slashing through the air.

He was trying to push Jared into action. In doing so, Jared's aura would be exposed, revealing the latter's true strength!

Just as Jared was about to make his move, a figure suddenly stepped in front of him!

Immediately following a thunderous roar, two forces collided in an instant, causing the void to tremble. The entire house collapsed in a blink of an eye!

As the house collapsed, the barriers that everyone had put up vanished. Their true selves, including their appearances, were laid bare for all to see!

Thankfully, those people were all cultivators, so the collapse of the house didn't result in any casualties. However, the auction was definitely not going to continue!

However, when everyone saw Jared, realizing he only possessed the power of a Third Level Tribulator cultivator, they were all stunned!

They couldn't believe a Third Level Tribulator cultivator could utter such arrogant words and stand his ground against a Ninth Level Tribulator cultivator calmly.

Thus, they wondered if Jared had a powerful backer.

Even Wilson was somewhat taken aback when he saw Jared's capabilities!

Leighton was livid, his face a mask of rage. He couldn't believe he had been played by a Third Level Tribulator cultivator!

Wilson addressed Leighton. "Mr. Mueller, I hope you can do me a favor and refrain from any actions here!" Leighton shook his somewhat numb arm, glaring fiercely at Jared. "Brat, I'll be waiting for you outside. Let's see if you can hide hi in here forever!" Since he had already seen Jared's true face, he was not afraid that Jared would run away!

From his perspective, a Third Level Tribulator cultivator could be squashed like a bug with just a flick of his finger!

However, he had to show respect to Wilson. After all, Wilson was a Top Level Tribulator cultivator, whom he was not a match for.

With a flick of his sleeve, Leighton turned around and left!

Wilson had given the hand fan to Jared, who, in turn, happily paid for it!

He urged Jared to leave as soon as possible as he certainly didn't want to offend the Mueller family because of Jared!

"What should we do?" Alastair asked with a hint of fear. Leighton must have been waiting for us outside. If we leave now, Jared will be done for!

Alastair was also afraid of getting himself involved, after all, he was with Jared!

"Don't worry. That guy won't be able to kill us, especially when I have this precious item in my possession!” Jared casually flicked the hand fan in his hand!

There was no doubt that this hand fan could easily ward off Leighton’s attack!

The Novel will be updated daily. Come back and continue reading tomorrow, everyone!

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3752-“Even if it could save my life just once, it would be worth it!” Jared didn’t really care about how long that hand fan could still be used!

Jared followed Alastair as they departed. Accompanied by a sudden shift beneath his feet, the surrounding scenery transformed in an instant!

They had already emerged from that shopping district!

Originally, Alastair was afraid that Leighton would be waiting outside for Jared.

However, when they came out, they did not see any sign of Leighton!

Thankfully, that guy was all talk! Inwardly, Alastair breathed a sigh of relief!

Jared directed his order at Alastair! “Let’s go. Come with me to Snow River Valley. I’ve already paid you, after all.” Alastair nodded, saying, “No problem. Once you leave Southedge City, keep heading east. You’ll find Snow River Valley right at the foot of Demonica Mountain.” Jared and Alastair took off, heading toward Snow River Valley!

No sooner had they left Southedge City than a frown creased Jared’s forehead!

“What’s wrong?” asked Alastair.

“We are being followed!” Jared said!

“What? Who’s been following us? Is it someone from the Mueller family?” Alastair was somewhat flustered!

“I don’t know yet. Let’s keep moving forward and ignore it!” Jared only felt a sense of being watched, completely unaware of the other party’s identity!

“Let’s head back. If we’re in Southedge City, I bet the Mueller family wouldn’t dare lay a finger on us.” Alastair was scared and wanted to go back!

“What’s the point of going back?” Jared grabbed Alastair’s shoulder firmly, then executed the Blazing Stride.

In an instant, their figures vanished, only to reappear in the far distance!

The pace of the two escalated significantly as though they were leaping through space!

Leighton, upon witnessing the speed of Jared and Alastair, was left utterly dumbfounded!

“Darn it, he’s only a Third Level Tribulator cultivator. How can he run so fast?” Leighton held his breath, focusing intently as he began to chase with all his might!

At that moment, Alastair’s face was as pale as a sheet. He had no idea that Jared could move so swiftly, reaching several kilometers away in the blink of an eye!

Before long, Jared and his companions found themselves at the base of Demonica Mountain. The place was entirely blanketed in pristine white snow, and the sound of the wind howled around them!

After hitting the ground, Jared concealed himself, pulling Alastair with him!

At the same time, Jared’s spiritual sense suddenly spread out, encompassing several kilometers around!

Regrettably, Jared’s spiritual sense had discovered nothing!

“He’s not following anymore?” Jared’s brow slightly furrowed!

Actually, it wasn’t that Leighton had stopped following Jared. It was just that Jared was moving too fast!

At that moment, Leighton was panting heavily, chasing from behind!

Chasing and cursing at the same time, he exclaimed, “D*mn, did they use some kind of aircraft? They’re too fast!” While Leighton was grumbling and complaining, suddenly, a figure darted toward him out of nowhere!

It was Jared. He had discovered Leighton and decided to strike first to gain the upper hand!

Leighton was too preoccupied and flustered in his pursuit, and as a result, he didn't immediately notice the hidden Jared.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3753-Jared was skillfully executing the Blazing Strides, continuously evading the incoming attacks!

Jared's figure flickered in and out of sight, causing all of Leighton's attacks to miss their mark!

Leighton watched as two demonic fire flickered beneath Jared's feet, his eyebrows furrowed in concern.

"What kind of technique is this?" Leighton couldn't comprehend how Jared could possibly achieve instant teleportation just by relying on two balls of fire!

"Why ask me? Isn't your Mueller family famous for fire techniques? Go ahead, keep trying. I'm not afraid of fire at all!" Jared gave a cold laugh, his gaze filled with disdain!

Leighton was seething with rage. He, a Ninth Level Tribulator cultivator, was being toyed with by Jared, a mere Third Level Tribulator cultivator. Thankfully, they were not in Southedge City, where there were fewer onlookers. Otherwise, he would have disgraced the Mueller family!

"Today, I'll show you the true power of the Mueller family's fire techniques!" With a low growl, Leighton suddenly swung both his hands toward the open air!

Waves of heat suddenly converged in mid-air. The immense heat wave caused the surrounding snow to melt instantly, revealing the brown earth beneath!

Those heatwaves were continuously tumbling in mid-air, and then Leighton cast a spiritual spell. Instantly, those heatwaves erupted into fierce flames!

The flames roared as they rushed toward Jared!

Boom!

A sea of flames engulfed everything, leaving Jared with absolutely no chance of escape!

In no time, Jared was utterly engulfed by the sea of flames. His figure vanished into thin air!

Leighton's lips curled into a smirk. "You're too green to compete with me..." Upon witnessing the scene, Alastair, who was standing nearby, was flabbergasted. He plopped down onto the ground, his eyes glued to the sight of Jared being engulfed by the sea of flames. Inside his mind, he was fraught with anxiety!

Jared's dead! Is Leighton going to target me next? Alastair was consumed with worry about his own fate, and while he wanted to flee, his legs simply wouldn't obey him!

When Leighton didn't hear Jared's scream, he couldn't help but speak out! "This guy's tough, capable of enduring the scorching flames for such a long time without uttering a single cry!" However, it didn't take long for Leighton to become dumbfounded, as he discovered that the kilometers-wide sea of fire was diminishing at a pace visible to the naked eye!

Jared's figure gradually emerged, completely engulfed in flames. The fire from the inferno around him seemed to be converging toward him as if he was absorbing them.

"What... What's going on here?" Leighton's face drastically changed!

Alastair also widened his eyes, looking on in disbelief!

A moment later, the sea of fire had vanished, leaving Jared with a look of pure enjoyment on his face!

Jared gave a faint smile and said, "Thank you for your passion. It has indeed brightened my nascence star!" "Nascence star? Don't tell me you've grasped fire nascence?" Leighton was greatly startled!

"Yep!" With a wave of his hand, Jared unleashed the fire nascence, a ball of flame pulsating in the palm of his hand!

The aura radiated by that flame was significantly more powerful than that of Leighton!

Even that small burst of flame produced such a wave of heat that it caused the stones on the ground to ignite!

Unfortunately, his skills were based on fire, but Jared had mastered the fire nescence, rendering the latter completely immune to flames!

Given the circumstances, Leighton, despite his superior status and strength, found himself at a loss on what to do with Jared for a moment!

“Did you think you could leave without my permission?” Jared hurled the ball of demonic fire he held in his hand at Leighton in an instant!

Upon seeing the situation, Leighton casually waved a hand, and a shield of fire appeared!

However, Jared, with his intense determination, easily breached the fiery shield and struck Leighton

A Man Like None Other Chapter 3754-Leighton staggered in mid-air, nearly plummeting down!

Though he hadn't sustained many injuries, his clothes had caught on fire!

Leighton was in a desperate scramble, simultaneously fleeing and attempting to extinguish the flames engulfing his body. His situation was utterly chaotic!

Watching Leighton flee, Alastair was left dumbfounded.

Initially, he was contemplating how to escape, yet unexpectedly, Jared, a Third Level Tribulator cultivator, managed to scare off a Ninth Level Tribulator cultivator.

If others were to heard of it, they would think it was a joke, but it was the truth!

Jared did not pursue Leighton. Instead, he headed to Snow River Valley to assist Vermilion Demon Lord in the latter's search for the remains.

“All right, stop spacing out. Let's go check out Snow River Valley!” Observing Alastair's dumbfounded expression, Jared gave a nonchalant smile.

“All right, all right, all right...” Alastair kept nodding, daring not to offend even in the slightest at that moment!

After all, if he offended Jared, the latter could probably kill him with a flick of a finger.

After following Alastair for about ten minutes, Jared arrived at a canyon.

There, towering mountains loomed, blanketed everywhere in pristine white snow!

Surprisingly, nestled within that canyon was a gently flowing brook!

The temperature there was extremely low, and the place was blanketed in white snow, yet there was a pristine and clear stream with no fish in sight.

Snow River Valley was incredibly serene. There were no signs of any demon beasts, only small creatures occasionally emerging to drink water by the creek.

“This is Snow River Valley, a name derived from the ever-flowing creek itself. No matter how low the temperature gets here, this stream never freezes. It’s quite remarkable,” Alastair said.

Jared bent down, dipping his hand into the stream. To his surprise, the water was warm.

“Who would have thought there’d be a hot spring here? The water bubbles up from underground, so of course it doesn’t freeze.” Jared rose to his feet, speaking in a nonchalant manner. With a hot spring around, obviously, the stream won’t freeze.

“This isn’t a hot spring, nor is it something that’s bubbled up from underground.

It’s all formed from the melting of accumulated snow,” said Leighton.

“It’s form from melted snow? Then why would the stream be warm? Could there be fire of the Earth’s core here?” Jared couldn’t comprehend how the accumulated snow could possibly melt!

Only if there was a fire from the earth’s core there that the ground temperature would be high, causing the snow to melt!

However, if that were the case, there wouldn’t just be a stream. The accumulated snow there would all melt, leading to a torrential flood!

Jared, along with Alastair, followed the stream upstream, wanting to find out where the source of this stream was!

As Jared and Alastair ventured deeper into the Snow River Valley, out of the blue, Vermilion Demon Lord spoke up! “Kid, I’m certain my remains are still here. I can feel it!” Upon hearing that, Jared was instantly filled with immense joy!

If all of Vermilion Demon Lord’s remains could be found there, it would be possible to bring Vermilion Demon Lord back to life!

There were no hot springs bubbling up there. It was all thanks to the melting of accumulated snow!

In the area where the accumulated snow had melted, the ground’s stones surprisingly radiated a reddish-brown hue, as if they had been scorched!

Jared reached out to touch the stone on the ground, only to find it surprisingly hot to the touch!

“This is the place. My remains should be here!” The voice of Vermilion Demon Lord echoed once again!

“Give me some space. There’s definitely something beneath us. Otherwise, it wouldn’t be like this.” Jared gestured for Alastair to step aside.

Then, gripping the Dragonslayer Sword, he fiercely struck down on the stone!
