

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3244-It was not easy to take care of Sonny before he was two years old.

When it came to the topic of children, Abby couldn't get in the middle of the conversation. She hadn't even married yet.

She had a goal, but she might not be able to get married.

After everyone chatted for a while, the students left kindergarten.

Sonny was sitting at the cashier and playing, while the three adults were busy.

They were so busy that it got dark, and the students had evening classes again. Serenity said to the two of them, "Let's go to dinner together."

"I want to eat hot pot." Jasmine made a request.

Serenity said to Jasmine, "Eating hot pot again? Have you been craving hot pot lately?"

Jasmine: "I always like to eat hot pot in the winter."

Serenity looked at Abby, and Abby said, "I'm free to do it. I'll eat whatever you want me to eat."

The big belly lady has the final say: "Let's go eat hot pot."

Jasmine smiled. "It sounds like you are not a big-bellied woman. The one in your belly is just over a month younger than mine."

"A little more than a month is still small. When your baby is born, my baby will still be in my belly."

Serenity picked up Sonny's small schoolbag and called to him, "Sonny, let's go; let's go eat hot pot."

Sonny was happy; he also liked to eat hot pot. There were many people, and it was lively.

“Auntie, my uncle Zack, Uncle Josh, and Uncle Duncan will come over to have hot pot together.”

Sonny walked around the checkout counter and instinctively opened his arms to let Serenity hug him. Remembering that Serenity had his little brother in her belly, he couldn't be held by Serenity when he grew up. It would tire her, so he immediately put down his arms.

Immediately, his feet flew into the air, and it was Abby who picked him up.

Serenity: “Your uncle and the others are not free, so the four of us are going to eat.”

Sonny groaned, feeling that the number of people was still a little small, but there were only four people now, just four people.

After closing the door of the bookstore, they met the owner of the store next door. Serenity and Jasmine said hello to them or stopped to chat for a few words. Then they got in the car and left quickly, under the smiling eyes of others.

The shop owners here had not changed; they were still the same ones as before.

He was the one who witnessed Serenity entering a wealthy family.

A landlady sighed and said, “Jasmine and Serenity are really lucky, especially Serenity; they are so enviable and jealous.”

Jasmine's family was a demolition household, and there were many houses and shops. The monthly rent collected was more than many people could earn in a lifetime. She was a woman who was not short on money.

When Serenity married into the York family, in addition to opening a bookstore, she also knitted knickknacks and sold them online to earn more money. Even though her monthly income at that time was very good for Wiltspoon, compared with the rich, she was still among the poor.

But if she couldn't stand it, her life would be fine.

She suddenly flew up a branch and turned into a phoenix, becoming the eldest mistress of the largest and most wealthy family in Wiltspoon. Now she is pregnant again. As long as she gives birth to a son, it is equivalent to giving birth to an heir for the York family. The position will be more solid.

The young boss's wife said, "Husband, you have already said that people are born with wealth and honor. No one can envy such wealth in their destiny. There is a time in life that must be there, but there is no time in life. Don't force it. You have already learned two brushes. I asked you to help me take a look. You always smiled and said, Just let me settle for the status quo. Is this what I will do all my life?"

The young boss said to his wife, "Are you bad at this? Our family has a house, a car, a deposit, and a house in the center of Wiltspoon City, which puts us ahead of many people. Now we only need to worry about the studies of our two children."

When her husband said this, the landlady was immediately speechless. Also, their little life cannot be compared with Serenity, but it also surpasses many people.

Be content.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3245-On the way to eat hot pot, Serenity received a call from Jane.

After Serenity answered the call, the first thing she heard was Enzo's voice.

"Jane, what is Enzo doing?" Serenity asked with a smile.

Jane was holding Enzo in one hand and her mobile phone in the other. She said, "When he saw me using my mobile phone to make calls, he wanted to snatch my mobile phone. If I didn't give it to him, he would yell and ask me to give him my mobile phone to play with."

Serenity smiled and said, "Buy him a toy phone that rings."

Jane said, "Yes, he quite likes to play. He just likes to play. When he saw me taking my phone, he wanted to grab it. He probably thought that my phone belonged to him."

"Seren, have you eaten?" Jane asked Serenity one more question and seemed to be talking to someone else. "Take Enzo and go out for a walk, so as not to cause trouble to death here."

Enzo either yelled or cried loudly. He was really a crybaby, comparable to Tim's son, Fabian.

The nanny took Enzo away, and Avah, who didn't like crying very much, was taken away by an unknown elder.

An obedient, well-behaved baby is very lovable.

The main reason was that the Johnson family had a few girls. Currently, there is only one girl, Avah, and the others are boys.

Serenity: "We are going to eat hot pot on the way to the hot pot restaurant. You are so free; call me; you miss me."

Jane smiled and said, "Think about it; since you don't come to see me, I would rather go see you. But when I go out with my two little tails, I'm not as convenient and free as when I'm alone."

Avah was very clever.

When Jane wanted to go out, Avah would cry a few times, or she would always kick Enzo until he cried.

Avah was only a few months old and couldn't speak yet, but she knew how to lure her mother over.

After many times, Jane knew that whenever Avah cried, she would want to follow her out. If she takes a pair of children with her when she goes out, the daughter will not cry.

Under normal circumstances, whenever it is convenient, she will bring her two children with her so that the nanny can help with them. However, it is not as convenient and comfortable as going out alone.

Jane: "Is Sonny by your side?"

Serenity: "Here, are you looking for him? Titus is back?"

Jane would ask about Sonny's current situation with concern but would not go out of her way to find Sonny. Unless Titus came back and wanted to talk to his friends on the phone, Jane would go out of her way to find Sonny.

Jane: "Titus just came back. His winter vacation started a little earlier than Sonny's. It's already winter vacation, so he can't wait to follow his master back."

The old miracle doctor was also thinking about Fabian, so as soon as Titus went on winter vacation, he and Fabian packed up and flew back to Annenburg and moved into FC Manor.

Jane: "Titus said he wanted to talk to Sonny."

Serenity smiled and said, "Okay, I'll give Sonny my phone and let them chat. Sonny won't have winter vacation until next week. He said I would take him to your place to play for a while."

Only when Liberty returned to Wiltspoon for the annual vacation would Sonny want to go home and celebrate the New Year with Liberty.

"I told Titus, and he was very happy. He said that he would let me take him to buy gifts tomorrow. When Sonny comes over, he will give gifts to Sonny." Jane said that and gave the phone to Titus beside her.

Titus heard Serenity's voice, and he greeted Serenity politely. Serenity responded and gave the phone to Sonny, leaving the two children to talk on the phone.

The two children chatted all the way to the hot pot restaurant.

Sonny reluctantly said to Titus, "My aunt, Aunt Jasmine, and Sister Abby brought me to have hot pot. Titus, I'm getting off the car. I won't talk to you now. When I go on winter vacation, my aunt and I will go to your house to play, my uncle promised me."
