

Married At First Sight

Chapter 3253

Married At First Sight Chapter 3253-Sonny asked, "Dad, have you eaten?"

Hank responded warmly, "I haven't eaten yet, and I'm not hungry yet. If we take two more orders, I will go to eat. Sonny, you must have eaten."

Sonny responded, "After eating, my aunt and aunt Jasmine took me to eat hot pot. I met Aunt Chelsea and the others at the hot pot restaurant. Brother Lucas greeted me, but my aunt covered his mouth. I don't know why. Lucas's grandparents were also there, and many of them were eating hot pot.

I only have my aunt, aunt Jasmine, and sister Abby; there are only four of us."

Hank didn't care at first; he smiled and said, "Sonny, you also met your aunt Chelsea; did you say hello to her?"

"No." Sonny answered honestly, "Brother Lucas called me, and Auntie Chelsea covered brother Lucas's mouth. Dad, what does Auntie mean?"

Hank: "She ignores you."

He finally reacted.

When Chelsea saw Sonny, she didn't let Lucas and Sonny say hello. Was it because she was afraid that when Serenity went over to say hello, they would eat hot pot together?

Having been siblings for decades, Hank understood Chelsea.

"Well, my aunt took me away." Sonny didn't feel like he was complaining at all; he just told Hank what he saw.

Sonny said, "Dad, I like to eat hot pot. My aunt gave me a lot of my favorite food. It's delicious. While we were eating, Aunt Chelsea came. She told my aunt that she didn't bring her mobile phone, but I clearly saw her using her mobile phone to make a call and said, 'Mom, please transfer $2000 to me.'"

Hank's face turned dark on the other side of the phone.

He finally understood.

The son followed Serenity to eat hot pot and met Chelsea and her family in the hot pot restaurant.

Chelsea took her husband and son to eat hot pot, as well as her parents-in-law. Then Lucas saw Sonny and wanted to say hello. Chelsea was afraid that Sonny would eat hot pot together, so she wouldn't let Lucas say hello to Sonny.

As a result, Chelsea went to Serenity shamelessly and said that she didn't bring her mobile phone. Sonny only said a few words, but Hank had already guessed what Chelsea wanted to do when she found Serenity.

Perhaps Chelsea wanted Serenity to lend her money or help her settle the bill.

Hank knew Serenity would refuse, and then Chelsea actually called her mother and asked her to transfer $2,000 to her.

He was so angry that he was half dead.

In the past, his parents had been helping Chelsea take care of the children and living in her home. The money he gave to his parents and his parents' pension were all subsidized to Chelsea, while the income of Chelsea and George, her husband, was saved and not spent.

He had a high income, and she was Chelsea, so he didn't care about it.

After that, he worked as an online taxi driver and made a lot less money each month than before. He had to pay Sonny alimony even though Sonny didn't follow him.

In addition, when he was stabbed by Jessica and was hospitalized, he spent a lot of money, and his family had already been depleted.

His parents' pension was okay for living in rural areas, but it was really not that much for living in big cities.

Therefore, he saved one-third of the money he earned every month to give to Sonny in the future, spent one-third himself, and gave one-third to his parents for household expenses.

After winter, his parents often said they wanted to go out for a hot pot meal, but he didn't have the time and was reluctant to take them out because he thought it would cost too much.

As a result, Chelsea actually asked her parents for money.
