

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3254-George's business was still decent, and Chelsea was definitely not short of money. It's okay for the whole family to eat hot pot without calling his parents. After eating, Chelsea still has to ask her mother to pay the bill. It's strange that Hank is not angry.

Hank said, "Sonny, Daddy knows. Next time I'm free, I will take you to eat hot pot. I'm busy and won't talk to you anymore. You must listen to your aunt."

"Dad, I am very obedient. Dad, you go to work." Sonny had finished her complaint and ended the call with Hank happily.

Serenity listened from beginning to end.

After Sonny handed the phone back to Serenity, Serenity tapped Sonny's forehead and said, "Sonny, you have learned how to complain."

However, Chelsea really went too far.

It had nothing to do with serenity, and she didn't care.

If Sonny wanted to file a complaint, it would be the Brown family's business.

If Serenity told Hank, Hank might suspect that she deliberately set up Chelsea. If Sonny said it, Hank would not have any doubts.

Sonny blinked his big eyes and asked Serenity, "Auntie, am I complaining? I told dad what I saw and heard, so why am I complaining?"

Serenity smiled and pinched his little face. "Yes, Sonny is telling the truth. That aunt Chelsea of yours is also too much, but the people who caused your aunt to be like this are your grandparents and your father. They are all responsible because they pampered your aunt Chelsea to be like that."

If Hank's parents and Hank did not help Chelsea unconditionally from the beginning, would Chelsea get used to sucking blood from her natal family?

Serenity said, "As long as your father pays child support every year and doesn't owe you child support, we have no control over how their family spends their money."

Sonny said, "Dad said it was very tiring for him to earn money by driving. Every time I went to my dad's place, he would tell me to study hard and be a good person. In the future, I will be a big boss and work in an office. I could make a lot of money. Don't be like Dad does that."

Serenity brought Sonny over, and she let him sit in her arms. She said, "Then you should study hard and be a good person."

Sonny said, "Auntie, I will."

Serenity said, "Your father treats you quite well. You are his only child, after all. If he raised you when you were young, you will have to support him when he is old."

Sonny nodded in understanding.

Serenity hugged Sonny and said no more.

No matter how good the Brown family was, Hank always tried to denigrate Duncan in front of Sonny, but he was always Sonny's father. He paid child support on time, cared about Sonny, and fulfilled the basic responsibilities of a father.

Serenity didn't want to criticize Hank in front of Sonny.

She also hoped that Sonny would be an optimistic and broad-minded person when he grew up.

Abby returned to the Wiltspoon Hotel.

She met Evan on the first floor of the hotel.

She stopped, looked at Evan, and raised her eyebrows. "Evan, are you waiting for me here?"

Evan said, "Abby, you're overthinking. I am eating here."

Abby smiled and said, "Then I won't chat with you. Sister Seren invited me to eat hot pot. I'm a little full. I want to go back to the room to rest."

Evan said, "You're too stuffed to eat. Shouldn't you go for a walk to relieve yourself? Sister-in-law, treat you to a hot pot. My sister-in-law is so kind to you."

Abby replied, "I don't want to move around anymore. Sister Seren is very good. I came here hoping to find a boyfriend to go back to. Maybe I will be disappointed, but it's good to have two more sisters."

Evan said, "We've only met a few times, and the elder sister is the younger sister. Abby, I only now know how good you are at flattering."