

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3259-After waiting for several minutes, Evan's driver drove over.

The driver pulled over and parked the car. Evan told him not to get out of the car, opened the door, and got in the car.

The driver turned his head and looked around and asked instinctively, "Fourth Young Master, weren't you going out with a young and beautiful girl?"

After Evan sat down, he said, "There is no need to look for it. I called a taxi for her and took her back to the hotel. Let's drive, go home, and go back to my home."

He had a small home in the city instead of returning to Wildridge Manor.

He just returned to Wildridge Manor during the day.

The driver said while driving, "I thought that girl was the Fourth Young Master's girlfriend."

Evan said, "No, she's a friend of your eldest mistress. I've only known her for a few months. I don't know where your future fourth mistress is yet."

He really didn't know where his future wife was. He didn't even know where the fox lived.

Fox had been to Wiltspoon and went to York's Corporation to find him. When Zachary said that Evan was not working at York's headquarters, Fox left.

At that time, Zachary called him, and he lied and refused to admit that he had provoked others. But as soon as the phone hung up, he immediately went to look for the fox, but unfortunately, he could not find her.

He didn't know where she stayed when she came to Wiltspoon.

He missed her very much. He didn't know when they could meet again.

Evan leaned on the back of the car seat and turned his head to look at the street scene outside, imagining the scene where he and the fox would go shopping and visit the park together.

He didn't have time to spend time with Abby, but if Fox asked him to spend time with her, he would have plenty of time.

Work was important, and finding the fox was more important to him than his job.

Abby came, and Evan didn't have time to entertain her. He said he was very busy. If he were a fox, Evan would be very free. In fact, this is the difference between love and not-love.

The driver smiled and said, "As long as the Fourth Young Master wants to look for her, it will be easy to find the Fourth Young Mistress for us."

He had been a full-time driver for Evan since Evan entered society. He could be regarded as an old driver who had worked for the York family for many years and knew that the young masters of the York family were all excellent.

As long as they wanted to marry, there were many women who wanted to marry them.

The driver said, "The second young master and the third young master have their spouses. Fourth, young master, you should hurry up. We are all waiting for the young masters to marry the young mistresses. We can have a wedding wine and get a big red envelope."

When Zachary and Serenity held their wedding, everyone who worked in the York family, regardless of their position, received a big red envelope and could also have a meal at the villa.

Although Callum and Camryn had received their marriage certificate, they had not held a wedding ceremony yet, so they had not had the wedding wine yet.

Kevin heard that he would get married after the New Year. Maybe the two young masters' weddings would be held together, which would make it lively. They, as workers, were just looking forward to a happy event in the master's family, and they could get red envelopes.

The amount in the red envelope was worth ten days' salary.

Evan laughed, "You are here to eat and get red envelopes. Don't you really hope that I will find happiness?"

"Sincerely, very sincerely. Fourth, Young Master, I have driven for you for several years. You're very good to me. You give me a raise every year and give me many vacations. I'm very satisfied with this job, and I can't thank you enough. Yes, I sincerely hope that you will find happiness as soon as possible."

The driver was very loyal. He added, "You have to hurry up at your age, Fourth Young Master. When I was around your age, my daughter was already in kindergarten."
