

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3211-Tatum said, "I want to speak with facts."

Tinsley raised her eyebrows and said with a smile, "Mr. York, you are full of confidence."

Elora glanced at Tinsley and asked Tatum, "Mr. York, when can you come to work?"

Tatum said, "I came here for this position and can work at any time."

Elora smiled and said, "Then you can officially join the job tomorrow. Uncle Joly must have arranged a dormitory for you. We will calculate your salary starting tomorrow. There will be a one-month probation period. We will calculate your salary daily during the probationary period. You cannot leave."

For everyone who comes here, it's like this. They'll get one day's wages for one day's work.

Tatum said, "Uncle Joly arranged the dormitory for me yesterday. I don't have any problem with calculating the salary. I came here for the challenge, but I don't care about the salary issue."

He was not short of money. All he needed was a wife.

"Okay, you can go back to the dormitory to rest now. Uncle Joly will tell you when to eat three meals a day at home. Except for breakfast, the time for lunch and dinner remains the same."

Everyone woke up at a different time in the morning, so breakfast was irregular.

Tatum said, "Okay, I will ask Uncle Joly for advice."

He nodded to everyone again before getting up and leaving.

After he left, Elora also stood up. She said to everyone, "I still have things to deal with, so I won't stay with my parents. "I'll tell Alonzo later that I'll take him out to play on the weekend."

Alonzo was twenty years younger than Elora, and she took care of him like a son.

Alonzo was afraid of her, but he loved to cling to her.

Tinsley also followed Elora: "I have to be busy too."

Mrs. Ormond warned Elora: "Don't drink so much wine when socializing. Drinking too much wine will harm your health."

"Don't worry, Mom, I am not the same person I was five years ago." Elora spoke without looking back.

When she first took over the company, many people made things difficult for her.

She had no dignity or experience at that time, and she was afraid of offending others and affecting the company, so she would swallow her anger. Now that she has secured her position as president and is gradually gaining authority in the company, who dares to make things difficult for her? When socializing, she can drink two drinks if she wants to. If she doesn't want to drink, no one can let her.

Mrs. Ormond was still quite worried. She got up and escorted Elora out of the house. She saw Elora's bodyguard waiting outside, followed by bodyguards. She was more or less relieved.

No matter how capable Elora was, she was a girl.

Tinsley squeezed into Elora's car.

Elora said to Tinsley, "You don't drive?"

Tinsley said, "I just ask the driver to drive and follow. I'm sitting with you now."

"It's all as you wished. Tatum has been admitted. Is there anything else you want to say?" Elora deliberately teased Tinsley and then reached out to help her straighten her suit jacket.

Tinsley: "Sister, as I said, I only admire Tatum. When we see a handsome guy, it's normal for us to appreciate him as a painting. I'm really not interested in him."

Elora said, "It's not interesting now; what about in the future? I believe that Tatum is not a suitable candidate for this position. He has already started his own business and has a good career. He is a successful person, but he is still motivated and ambitious. If you give him a few more years, he will definitely become a leader in the catering industry."
