

Married At First Sight Chapter 3223

Married At First Sight Chapter 3223-Grandma May used one hand to hold the bouquet, freeing up another to pick up the freshly grilled fish. She then handed it to Evan and said, "This type of small fish tastes best when grilled, not when it's cold." Eat it while it's hot."

"Thank you, grandma." Evan took the grilled fish from his grandma and ate it unceremoniously.

While eating, Evan took out his mobile phone and took a photo to send to Elian.

Evan was about the same age as Elian. When he was a child, he liked to play with Elian the most. When he grew up, he also had the best relationship with Elian.

When he had something to do, he always liked to show off to Elian.

Elian received the photo from Evan and immediately sent a voice message to the family. He said, "Grandma, you went fishing? You also baked it for consumption; how much is it? I want to eat too, so I'll go back now."

Evan said deliberately, "No more. Grandma left it for me, especially. It's not your share. Aside from that, did you come all the way back to eat grilled fish? The loss is huge."

Elian said, "I can make money at any time, but I can't eat grandma's brand grilled fish at any time."

Grandma was very wild-minded and often ran away. She would be at home in the morning and wander off to some city in the afternoon.

Even Zachary couldn't control Grandma.

Not to mention the parents' generation, they have been controlled by grandma for decades, shrouded in the shadow of grandma's majesty, they only dare to coax grandma, but dare not control grandmother. That is to say, Zachary will take care of it, but often he can't.

Grandma was an old, naughty child. At this moment, she was in the villa. When Elian rushed back, Grandma might have slipped away again.

Grandma May smiled and said, "I didn't catch many fish today, so I left a few skewers for Evan. I've finished eating the rest. You guys like to eat it. It's the annual holiday. You can catch it by yourself and bake it by yourself. It will taste delicious when you eat it."

Elian could only regret missing out.

After Evan finished two skewers of grilled fish and picked up two more skewers, Grandma May stood up and said, "I have been sitting for a long time. "Let's go for a walk with me."

She handed the bouquet to Sam, asking him to hold it for her first.

"good." Evan readily agreed. He came back just to have a showdown with Grandma.

Grandma May also knew why Evan came back.

If it weren't for Abby's matter, this kid wouldn't know when he would be willing to go home.

Evan took the grilled squid, mutton skewers, and grilled shrimp.

"Grandma, do you want it?" Evan asked.

"Bring me the roasted chicken legs with more meat. My teeth are bad, and I can't chew anything else."

Evan helped grandma get two more roasted chicken legs and grilled chicken wings and said with a smile, "Grandma's teeth are very good."

Most old ladies will have their teeth fixed if they fall out, not to mention the York family's Lafayette. Grandma May will undoubtedly be able to consume meat and, if desired, even chew the bones.

Sam reminded Evan to pack it in food bags, which made it difficult to hold in his hand.

Evan said, "Put it in a bag. Let me get more. I'm hungry, and I didn't eat much for breakfast."
