Married At First Sight Chapter 3233-“Sister Seren, was it also Grandma York who fell in love with you and then asked Young Master York to pursue you?”

Serenity smiled. “Zachary and I had a flash marriage. No one pursued the other. The relationship was cultivated later. It’s typical to marry first and love later. However, we really can’t escape our relationship with Grandma.”

Abby knew a little bit about Serenity and Zachary’s flash marriage.

Serenity briefly explained the reason for her and Zachary’s flash marriage. It was only later that Serenity discovered that the old lady had completely forced Zachary to marry her.

She also knew that the old lady had been targeting her for a long time, and the reason was ridiculous. The master said that she and Zachary would have a lifelong relationship, and he also said that Zachary would be a bachelor for the rest of his life if he didn’t marry her.

The old lady loved Zachary the most. How could she let Zachary be a bachelor for the rest of his life? So she took advantage of Zachary’s filial piety and used both soft and hard tactics to force Zachary to marry her. Only then can the couple live a happy life today.

Abby: “Then why did Grandma York choose me? I can say with certainty that I have never met Grandma York. “Could it be that Grandma York also knew my birth date and calculated it, thinking that Evan and I were a couple?”

Serenity smiled and said, “You have to ask Grandma about this. I don’t know. However, as far as I can tell, the master no longer wants to see Grandma. He declared that fate was over.

I think it’s not because of the master’s fortune-telling, but because Grandma often travels around to find out about your character. If she believes it’s appropriate for her grandchildren, let them pursue the girl she likes.

Grandma frequently expresses her dissatisfaction with the Zachary brothers, claiming that despite their superior qualities and upbringing, they lack maturity in matters of love. The main thing is that they don't fall in love, let alone get married.

They reportedly raised a few pigs who couldn't handle cabbage. If someone asks grandma to help introduce girls to their children and grandchildren, grandma always says that there are still a few pigs in her family that can't do cabbage. How can she have the energy to take care of other people's homes? Pigs don't have cabbage crowns."

Abby didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Mrs. York was the funniest old lady she had ever heard of.

Serenity continued, "I heard from my family that grandma was very powerful when she was young and was all-powerful. Zachary's brothers were trained by Grandma. You see how good they all are now, and you know how powerful Grandma is.

No one in the York family has thought about fighting Grandma. If they can't fight, then they are the old fox. Grandma identified a suitable candidate for everyone, and they promptly pursued them, thereby saving them a great deal of trouble. They all have an unwavering faith in Grandma."

Abby couldn't understand why Old Mrs. York chose her.

Serenity looked at her expression and said with a smile, "Abby, you don't have to think about why. There are many things we can't understand. If we don't understand, simply don't think about it and let nature take its course.

You just need to cultivate a good relationship with Evan, and you don't have to worry about your husband's family. My husband's family still has a very good reputation in Wiltspoon. I can tell you from personal experience that if you marry into the York family in the future, you will only be happy."

She whispered to Abby in a low voice, "The daughter of a famous family in Wiltspoon dreams of marrying into the York family. In this materialistic society, whether in a wealthy family or an ordinary family, the York family is a clear stream."

Abby said softly, "I also wonder if I will be lucky enough to become a sister-in-law with you."

Serenity: "You have worked hard and fought for it. No matter what the outcome is, just don't regret it."

Serenity knew that Evan was struggling. It was unknown whether he would choose Abby, but it could be seen that Abby was attracted to Evan.

Abby nodded. "Yes, just don't let myself regret it."

Serenity: "Eating, no matter when, is the most important thing."

Abby smiled. "The sky is big and the earth is big; eating is the biggest thing."

The two of them had a working meal in the cafeteria. Serenity also chatted with everyone about work matters before taking Abby back to her office.

"Want to go for a walk this afternoon?" Serenity asked Abby.
