Married At First Sight Chapter 3300-If Carrie is not a good person, does that mean Camryn and Serenity are good people?

If Camryn was a good person, she should be generous enough not to argue with her and give her all her parents' property. That would be a good person.

Trenton said, "Second sister, I didn't mean that. I didn't. In my heart, you and the eldest sister are both my sisters. I just think that you should be independent and self-reliant now, stand up on your own, and know how to assess the situation. We can't always live under the protection of our parents. Our parents can't help us now. We have to rely on ourselves.

The eldest sister is not as bad as you think. If she is really cruel, you can't sit here and scold her now. The eldest sister did not occupy our property. She just took back the property left to her by her second uncle. If it is distributed according to the law, a share of the property in mom's name will also be given to her. After all, she is also mom's biological child.

I'm still studying and can't distract myself from managing the company and taking care of business matters, so I left it to my eldest sister. I believe that my eldest sister will not covet our property."

Trenton explained and defended Camryn.

"Second sister, you're always like this. Even if I really hand over my parents' wealth to you, can you keep it? You will lose it all in a few moments. And those two eldest aunts and their whole family, as long as you have money, will definitely suck your blood. Look, you have no benefits for them now. They have disappeared without a trace and have not contacted you anymore.

Second sister, I'm a few years younger than you, and I can understand things, but why can't you?"

He really had nothing to do with Carrie. He didn't want the siblings to quarrel every time they met.

It was all his parents' fault for spoiling Carrie.

Children: it is difficult to teach them well, but it is easy to spoil them. It takes three years to learn well and only three minutes to learn badly.

"Stop, stop, stop telling me this again." Carrie wiped her tears with a tissue and choked with sobs. "You drank her magic soup. You can't listen to anything I say. On the contrary, you blame me. I don't want to argue with you every time.

I'm living in such a miserable state now. You can rent me a better apartment to live in, help me pay the rent for a year, and transfer the water and electricity bills to me every month, and I'll pay it myself."

Labbe

Camryn and Serenity both sent people to investigate her, suspecting that she was Mrs. Labbe.

Mr. Labbe said that she could not live without a fixed residence. As long as the enemy could see her often, their suspicion could be dispelled. Only then can she truly integrate into Serenity's circle of friends. And can she complete the tasks assigned to her by Mr. Labbe little by little?

Mr. Labbe called her last night and told her that the winter vacation would begin soon. It was estimated that during the winter vacation, the two children would play together.

Let her seize the time to gain Serenity's trust and integrate into the circle of ladies in Wiltspoon.

Carrie was not short on money, but she didn't want to spend money to rent a house. She asked Trenton to rent a house for her.

Anyway, Trenton has money, and Carrie also has a share of Trenton's money.

She was neither white nor flowery.

“When I get healthy and after the New Year, I will find a job. However, I have no work experience. Even if I find a job, my income will not be very high. You have to give me living expenses every month. Don’t just give me $3000; at least $5000 or $8000, preferably $10,000. Trenton, I have a share of the money in your hands. I’m just spending my own money.

Do you have money with you now? Transfer $10,000 to me. My body needs to be recuperated, and I need some nutrition. I have no money and can’t bear to buy nutritional supplements. My face has always been ugly.”

After Trenton was silent, he took out his mobile phone and transferred $20,000 to her. After transferring the money, he said, “If you have not eaten, I will take you to eat. After eating, we will go find a house. After renting the house, I will accompany you to buy some daily necessities.”

“I will help you pay the rent for one year. I will pay the water and electricity bills every month. After the New Year, you will quickly find a job.”
