

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3306-Tatum said, "Grandma chose the wife for me. I don't have other women like my brother Evan. Elora will definitely become my wife in the future. Of course I will protect her."

Grandma chose a wife who knew how to eat for me. Isn't it because I like cooking and my wife likes to eat? It's a perfect match. Otherwise, if no one finds fault with the food I cook, how can I make progress?"

Zachary chuckled. "That makes sense. That's what grandma thought, so she chose someone with a special mouth for you. She takes you with her on business trips, which shows that she still trusts you. Take good care of her and let her see The better you are, the easier it will be to catch up."

Tatum said, "I only take care of her three meals a day. I don't need to take care of other things. Don't worry. We've only known her for a few days, and I haven't found the feeling yet."

He didn't fall in love at first sight with Elora.

Just knowing that she was the wife chosen by his grandma, he automatically and consciously took her into the role of his wife, giving full play to his true nature of doting on his wife.

Zachary asked, "Can't you come back for the New Year?"

Tatum said, "I don't think so. Look, she has to take me with her on business trips. What will she do if I go home for the New Year?"

He looked helpless. In fact, he enjoyed it.

After Zachary was silent, he said, "You should go there after the New Year."

Tatum said, "After the New Year, her family's private chef will not be missing. Brother, I will not be at home during the New Year this year, so my parents will ask you and my sister-in-law to accompany me during the New Year."

Zachary asked, "You will come back to attend your second brother's wedding, right?"

Tatum said, "That's natural. Didn't the wedding of the second brother and the third brother say that it would be held after the new year?"

It was originally said to be held before the year, but both sisters-in-law said they were too busy at the end of the year, so they decided to postpone the wedding to the end of the year, in March, when the weather is neither cold nor hot.

Zachary said, "Well, you can come back early and see if Elora is willing to follow you back."

March is not far away.

Tatum couldn't guarantee this. By that time, he probably hadn't developed feelings yet.

Without feelings, Elora wouldn't go home with him.

Tatum said, "Brother, the fourth brother also sent me a message. You should go and rest quickly. Don't stay up late. I'll ask the fourth brother."

Zachary also said, "You have to get up early tomorrow to prepare breakfast for Elora and go to bed early."

The brothers ended the voice chat.

Zachary did not return to the bedroom immediately. Instead, he stood on the balcony and looked into the distance. In fact, what he saw was his territory.

The big villa the couple lived in was so big that he only looked from the balcony, and all he saw was his own yard. He had to stand on the top floor and look far away to see the real distant scenery.

After standing for more than ten minutes, Zachary quietly returned to the bedroom.

After thinking for a while, he went out again and went to the children's room next door.

Sonny kicked off the quilt and huddled up. She knew it was cold, but she just didn't know how to find a quilt.

Serenity was afraid that Sonny would catch a cold while kicking the quilt in the middle of the night, so she specially helped Sonny sleep in two pieces of clothing and closed the window. However, the children's room was very large, so it would still be cold even if the window was closed.

"Kicking the quilt again." Zachary helplessly covered Sonny with a quilt and helped him adjust his sleeping position.

He sat down on the edge of the bed and reached out to touch Sonny's little face. He really cared for this little guy as if it were his own.

He leaned down and kissed Sonny's little face, then sat upright, took the remote control of the air conditioner, and turned on the heating.

This way, even if Sonny kicks the quilt again, he won't catch a cold.

After everything was done, Zachary returned to the room and slept with his beloved wife.
