

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3309-The old miracle doctor and the others repeatedly prevented the old assistant from returning to exact revenge on the current Matriarch Farrell.

Who will inherit the role of family head if he returns, even if he manages to exact revenge?

If they fail to locate the daughter of the former matriarch Farrell,

This year, the old assistant only learned about the daughter of the current matriarch Farrell.

Knowing the whereabouts of the Matriarch Farrell's daughter, the old assistant wanted to find her anxiously, but he was in poor health and couldn't go out for a while.

It took the old miracle doctor a lot of time to nurse him back to better health. He felt that he was getting older. He hoped to see the young lady from back then as soon as possible and put what he knew and a small part of the evidence into the young lady's hands.

He was sorry for them and failed to avenge Current Matriarch Farrell. He could only leave this burden to Audrey.

Friends told him that one of the two daughters of the Farrell family owner died in a car accident more than ten years ago. He also left two daughters behind. The husband's family was cruel and kicked out the two children after taking away a lot of compensation money.

Fortunately, God takes pity on the two children, and they are living a good life now.

One of them (Serenity, married into the most wealthy family in Wiltspoon. The other one (Liberty) was also in love with the fourth young master of the Lewis family (Duncan), and if nothing unexpected happened, she would also be the fourth young mistress of the Lewis family.

The eldest daughter of the Farrell family owner (Audrey) married a businessman and is now a grandmother.

The old assistant was very relieved to know that all the descendants of the family owner had turned around.

The Stones's butler quickly opened the door of the villa. These old men were several hundred years old together. He always kept people out. If anything happened to the old people, he was also responsible.

When opening the door to let a few old men in, the butler also called Clive.

The first person in the Stone family to wake up was usually Clive.

Especially after becoming a father, the baby was still so young and naturally followed his parents.

The baby needed to drink milk and change diapers in the middle of the night. Clive felt sorry for Alice. He got up in the middle of the night to prepare milk powder for his son. By eating milk powder, the little one could sleep longer. If he drinks breast milk, he will wake up hungry soon.

As long as the baby is eating, he falls asleep. When he falls asleep, he thinks he is full, but he wakes up hungry within an hour. Feeding him milk powder and eating enough at one time can help him sleep for several hours before waking up.

After becoming a father, Clive slept deeply. He would wake up if his son hummed twice.

Alice sometimes laughed at Clive. When she was pregnant, Clive wanted her to abort the child. After the child was born, he gradually became a slave to the child, and he loved the child the most.

When he went to work every day, he held his son in his arms and kissed him again and again before he could leave the house.

He rushed home as soon as he got off work and put off all the social activities.

He was originally relaxed and doing what he liked to do.

After Alice gave birth to a baby, Clive wanted to spend more time with her and his son, so he captured his younger brother and put him in the company to help so that he could go home and hold the baby as soon as he got off work.

It was the second young Master Stone who went to socialize. He couldn't complain yet. Because the eldest brother, Clive, has endured for so long, he has also been free for so long.

The Stone Group also has his share, so he should help share the burden.

Even Elisa would help sometimes. She became her own boss and let her parents and brothers see her grow. If she wanted to help, Clive would not stop her.

Clive knew Elisa was the best.

Zachary didn't like Elisa because he didn't know the goods.

Remy knew the best.

Clive sometimes resented Zachary for rejecting Elisa for so many years.

He said that as long as Zachary and the York family dared to give Serenity any grievance, he would be absolutely welcome.

If he has an excuse, let's count it together.
