

Chapter 142 Relationship With Women So Messy

Camila was somewhat conscious but in a daze, and her eyelids were too heavy to open. She couldn't flee from the shackles of darkness but fell asleep again.

Isaac was relieved to see that she had not awoken. She wouldn't have been as calm if she had awakened.

Isaac's face gradually darkened as he reflected on this.

The wedding gown on her stung his eyes.

She had dressed so beautifully to throw herself into the arms of another man. His face turned horrifyingly pale at the thought of this.

He bent down and tore her wedding gown. His eyes darkened as he gazed at her naked body. He couldn't help but lower his head to kiss her lips before pulling the quilt to cover her.

He took the wedding gown, shut the door, walked over to the guard, and handed it to him. "Throw it away."

"All right." Instantaneously, the guard took it away.

Isaac returned to the room and showered. He then lifted the quilt, and lay on the bed.

He turned to cuddle Camila. He relished the sensation of her lying quietly in his arms.

It was late at night. Isaac rarely fell asleep so quickly!

He arose early in the morning and gave the orders to restrict Camila from leaving the room.

The guards who were in charge of keeping watch also followed the orders.

On the other side, Jaylen was not having any peace.

Aldrin and Rowena came to him looking for Camila because she had gone missing.

His expression became enraged.

"I'm also looking for her!" He spent the entire day without eating, drinking, or resting. He had looked all over for her!

He was also worried when she went missing.

Who could he ask about her?

"You picked her up from the Haynes family. We don't care. You must return her!" Aldrin ordered firmly.

He had matured since Marvin's passing and Trudy's incarceration. And, with Camila's confession and trust, gradually, he began to accept this sister of his.

He no longer desired to exact revenge secretly, as she had anticipated.

He understood that the Haynes family would truly be destroyed if they caused harm to each other. In addition, he would be homeless!

As a result, he began to accept Camila and worked hard. He had done exactly as she had instructed him.

He wasn't actually a fool. Simply put, he erred because of Trudy's provocation and instigation. Now he got wiser after he realized what was going on.

It didn't matter if Camila had been kidnapped or had fled; this was the ideal opportunity to get Joe back from Jaylen!

That was why he teamed up with Rowena to visit Jaylen!

"She isn't here!" Jaylen was furious.

He had already been troubled by this matter, and now Aldrin and Rowena was here to get Camila back. They were clearly adding fuel to the fire!

"Did you manage to catch Joe? Even if you can't return my daughter, you must now return Joe to us!" Rowena shouted.

"That's impossible!" Jaylen sneered.

Without Joe, he couldn't frighten Camila.

If he gave them Joe back, could Camila still marry him after she was found and learned that the child had been returned to the Haynes family?

It was clearly impossible.

"You kidnapped Camila and Joe, Jaylen. You don't give them to us anymore. Do you believe our Haynes family is vulnerable to bullying?" Aldrin glared at him.

Despite his maturity, he was no match for Jaylen.

In any case, Jaylen had more experience in the business than he did, causing him smarter and more knowledgeable than Aldrin.

At this point, he calmed down and negotiated, "If you want me to hand back Joe, you must find out where Camila is, or I will never give the child to you!"

He knew that if he didn't let go of Joe, the Haynes family members would be helpless and assist him in finding Camila.

"You want us to help you find her when you were the one who lost her? We were polite enough not to get even with you!" angrily, Aldrin reprimanded.

Jaylen kept persuading, "Camila has been kidnapped, believe it or not. If you want to take back Joe as soon as possible, you must assist me in finding her. Otherwise, I will not return the child to you. I also have an idea. I think Isaac may have taken her away, but I don't have any evidence. If you can find any clues or evidence from Isaac, I'll return the child to you once I find her. What are your thoughts?"

"Do you think she'll like someone who forced her to get married, Jaylen? She is a mother and would do anything for her child. She only hates you because you kidnapped her child!" Rowena yelled bitterly.

However, Jaylen didn't seem to mind.

In any case, he had considered the consequences from the beginning!

To achieve his objective, he was willing to do anything. He had learned this from Isaac.

"I'll keep looking for her." Jaylen then ordered his men, "See them out!"

Rowena and Aldrin were kicked out!

"Jaylen, you kidnapped someone else's child! You will die horribly!" Aldrin shouted.

Jaylen, however, chose to disregard him and didn't take his curse seriously.

"That's enough," Rowena interrupted Aldrin and said, "It's pointless to scold him. He is such a heartless man. How could he be afraid of being chastised after daring to do such a thing? It's just a waste of breath."

Aldrin did it on purpose.

"I purposefully took advantage of the situation to reprimand him."

Rowena gave him a look. Camila had disappeared, and the only person who had helped and stayed with her was the son of the woman she had once despised.

What an unpredictable world!

You never know what might happen tomorrow!

"Do you really think Mila escaped on her own?" Rowena asked.

"I think so," Aldrin replied.

He thought so, and he also wanted to console Rowena.

Rowena would be very concerned if Camila had been caught.

He couldn't handle it.

Employees at the company were eager to take action in the absence of Camila. If he and Rowena panicked, the Haynes family would be doomed!

"How about I go meet with Isaac?" Rowena asked anxiously. She was tensed.

Her daughter's whereabouts were unknown. What if she was in danger?

Jaylen still had control over Joe. He intended to marry Camila. For now, he would not harm the child before he could wed her.

"I'll accompany you," said Aldrin.

Rowena nodded in agreement.

They took a taxi to the Paramount Corporation.

When the taxi came to a halt, Aldrin paid and alighted.

He hadn't dared to drive since the previous accident. When he went out, he typically used a taxi. Fortunately, taking one at this time was convenient.

Rowena took a deep breath as she gazed at such a magnificent building. Although she was aware of her insignificance compared to Isaac, for the sake of her daughter, she was compelled to know whether Isaac had indeed kidnapped Camila.

They were about to enter when they noticed a woman standing at the door and stopping a car that was about to drive to the underground garage.

It was Fidelia. She became enraged when Willie informed her that she was going to the branch company.

If she went there, she could no longer see Isaac.

If they two didn't communicate, how could they grow closer?

Isaac arrived after she had been waiting at the company gate since early in the morning. She brought the car to a complete stop without hesitation.

"Why?" she asked, her eyes welling up.

Isaac raised an eyebrow. He didn't even get out of the car, but instead called the security guards and ordered them to take her away.

But she sobbed loudly that she clutched the car's bumper and wouldn't let go.

Rowena and Aldrin were not far away, both watching the scene unfolding in front of them.

"Is Isaac's relationship with women so messy? No wonder Camila divorced him," Aldrin said, raising an eyebrow.

"Let's leave," Rowena said, looking at Aldrin.

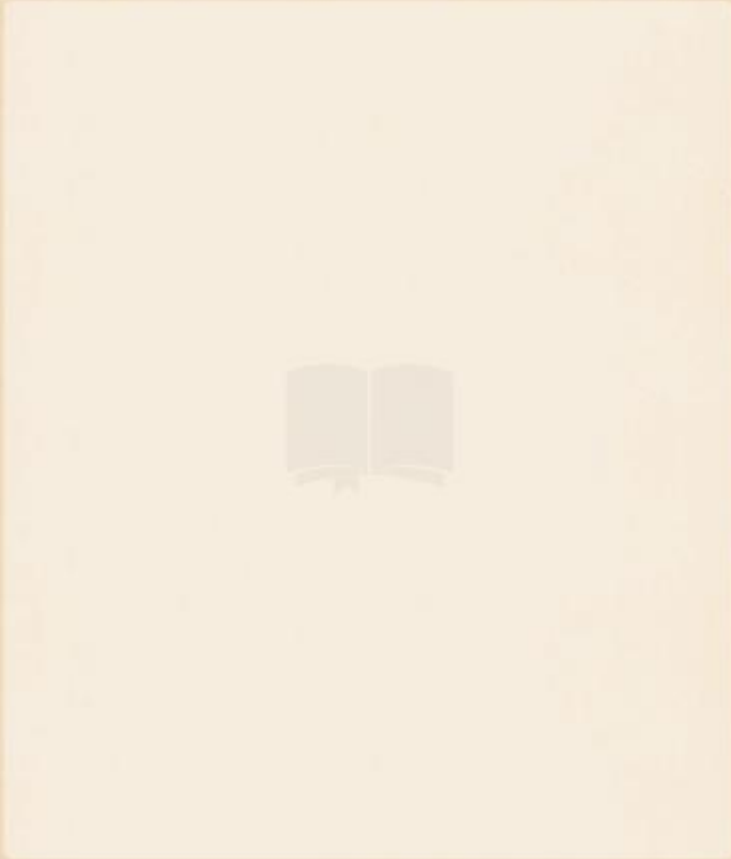

"Why should we leave?"

Aldrin was puzzled. They had already arrived. How could they

Chapter 142 Relationship With Women So Messy  +120 Points at most leave without asking Isaac?

Haga clic en el anuncio para ayudar gratis a los autores.

 I want no ads >

15:39

100,0%

