Chapter 2911

After waiting for these people to leave the scene, towards the prince made a wink, the latter will secretly nod then special followed quietly slipped out of the venue.

“Well, since the ones who should go are gone, take us to talk, what’s next.”

“This is the planning book, everyone look at it first, any questions can be raised at any time.”

When he finished, the service staff of the venue, the information was all handed down.

The crowd just looked at it for a while and then they talked to each other.

“Isn’t this revitalization of the Great Mountain a little too big a plate.”

“Yes, there is one third of Da Shan’s population in Da Qu, the money needed is an astronomical figure.”

According to the content of the plan, all the villages and cottages in the mountains in Daqu Province should be developed.

And Lin Mo also recognized this point, so he intended to use the power of the merchant alliance.

Shortly after, someone stood up and asked, “Young Lin, I want to know, what benefits can we get from this?”

Hearing this, all the members froze in their tracks, and then gave a secret thumbs up in unison, how brave!

Of course this is also what they want to ask.

Lin Mo still kept this smile: “To be honest, the public welfare nature of this project is the main part.”

He did not get angry, businessmen are not profit first, even ordinary people are the same, this is the nature.

“When it comes to benefits.”

Lin Mo pondered for a while before listing them all.

“One of the fame, all the bridges and roads and other public construction once completed, the merit monument will leave the name of the injector.”

“The second specialties, the mountain atmosphere is not lacking in all kinds of agricultural and sideline products as well as mountain goods, when everyone can participate in the purchase and sale.”

“The third management, according to the share of how much funding, the management of the village in the mountain, everyone here can submit a recommendation candidate, after the inspection of the Martial Union, divided into areas of management.”

The first two points, the crowd was not much moved, until after Lin Mo proposed the last one, everyone's face then revealed a look of intent.

This is a channel to promote the manager of the Martial Union ah, although the rights are very small, but only a few villages, but is the possibility of promotion.

"All of you think about it first, this is all voluntary principle, those who have ideas can communicate with Miss Song."

After Lin Mo finished speaking, he and Song Zhilan looked at each other.

"These things will be hard for you!"

Lin Mo gave an explanation and then glanced down at his phone before quickly leaving the venue. After he arrived at the low point agreed with the crown prince, the several members of the business alliance who had originally embodied leaving the meeting had all been brought under control.

As soon as Lin Mo showed up, several people faced angry accusations.

"Lin Mo you are not trustworthy, clearly let us leave, and privately detained us exactly what is the meaning?"

Lin Mo face cold: "Humph, a group of heartless people, also have the nerve to talk to me about credit."

"Say, where is the source of this night vine, or no one will leave today.

If it weren't for the fact that you have aided the merchant alliance, I wouldn't be so polite."

Sensing Lin Mo's strong killing machine, several people's faces changed, this person in front of him is the Lord who even dares to kill General Hai, is not arguing with him seeking death?

"Lin Shao, is it true that if we say so, we can be let go today?"

"Oh, you think you have the right to mention conditions, give you one last chance, if you don't say, the forces behind you, I'll pick them up together."

For this kind of trash who trafficked in night vine gra*s, Lin Mo would not give them a good look at all.

The crowd was directly pressed by Lin Mo's aura and couldn't breathe, under the face, finally someone still stood out.

"Lin Shao, in fact, where exactly the source of goods is we do not know"

Chapter 2912

Lin Mo heard a few people back after the road frowned up, according to the news, the other party is very cautious all transactions are done on the high seas, and a few people in front of you every time the object of the transaction is changed.

"Boss, do you want me to send someone to pretend to be the object of the transaction and take the other party down."

Hearing the prince's opinion, Lin Mo directly shook his head: "Can engage in this industry, which one is not a desperate man, want to force out the most fundamental source is difficult, and this will alert the snake."

"This matter first put aside, the focus is still the development and construction project of the big mountain."

"Okay big brother, by the way that black-hearted businessman how to deal with?"

"Let's follow the rules of the Martial Union, let's try it how it should be tried, just leave this matter to the Martial Union."

After the explanation, Lin Mo turned his head and returned to the basement of the villa, although the latest developed pills can not completely eradicate the medicinal properties of the night vine, but already has a good suppression effect, time waits for no one, they have to act as soon as possible.

"Watanabe, let's stop before the medicine, I've already arranged the production line, we can ma*s produce it then."

"We will enter the mountain early tomorrow morning, our seize the time to act."

The previous preparations were not perfect, but this was already the limit, Lin Mo's original scheduled time was just a week, and now it was beyond.

If they move one day later, the village of Tuzhai will have to suffer one more poison.

The next morning, Lin Mo will be with the Prince and a number of disciples of the Martial Union first set off, as for the direction of the southwest of Hanoi Province, the north is poor but the night vine has not yet reached there, the east is close to China, which the conscience of the merchants do not dare to approach, only the west and east of the mountains, the most serious victims.

"Big brother, in front of Baiyun Mountain is our first stop, only there is no place in the mountain where we can stop, we can only go in on foot."

After the helicopter stopped, the crown prince and said loudly.

"It's okay, hurry up and get going!"

In order to hurry up, Lin Mo rushed over directly by helicopter.

Business Alliance side as he expected, after the release of the big move, there has been a steady stream of funds injected into it, just one day is the time, there have been tens of billions of funds injected into the project, the biggest head of which is naturally Song Zhilan's Yunchuang Group and Tong Haihai's Shipping Group.

Other members of the group, including construction companies, infrastructure equipment companies, building material companies, transportation companies, and so on, have already started to mobilize their resources and are rushing to their first stop, Baiyun Mountain.

"Where should we go?"

The prince looked at the overgrown mountain road in front of him and complained with a frown.

“At this point, record it first, and wait until the support troops behind arrive, and have them open up the road first.”

“Understood!”

The one who spoke was none other than Elder Gan, and after answering, he hurriedly took out a pen and paper and started recording.

Since he had a unique talent in construction, and since he had recommended himself, Lin Mo included him as one of the advance surveyors.

When he finished recording, Lin Mo spoke again.

“Gan Lao time is short, we are not going to hike, your bones can still bear it?”

Gan Lao first flinched for a moment, glanced at everyone beside him and instantly understood in his heart.

“No problem, although old man I am old, but hopping a few steps is not a problem.”

“Good then, let’s set off!”

The words fell, Lin Mo’s figure instantly disappeared, leaving only a light breeze in place, and when he reappeared had appeared just already at the top of a large tree, and after a few flashes, he arrived at the halfway point of the mountain.

Prince and others also did not hesitate, using the same method, flying after them.

“Suffered an old sin, the young people nowadays is really remarkable.”

After a lament, he silently put away the paper and pencil, after serving his body body, he hands and feet to fly up the tree, although the appearance of funny, but the speed is indeed extraordinary, a few leaps under the body, it caught up with the large forces ahead.

A few minutes later, Lin Mo and the others arrived at the top of the mountain, and as far as the eye could see, under the foot of the mountain on the other side, was a huge village with a chaotic layout that dazzled the eye.

“Big brother, this is Baiyun village, according to Fei’s side of the survey, this village has about three thousand families and a population of almost ten thousand or so.”

Lin Mo squinted his eyes and observed a bit, the location of Baiyun Village is actually good, although surrounded by mountains, but there is not a lot of arable land, the farmland outside the village alone, there are about three or four times the area of the village, plus there is a need to reclaim the wasteland, if developed properly, it is also considered a paradise.

Just when Lin Mo look around, the farmland simply can not see how many people farming, see here he already have a number in mind.

“Let’s go to the village to understand the situation!”

A command a group of people once again moved.

The village of Baiyun is now considered a large village, however, after Lin Mo walked in, found that this place seems extraordinarily l’ m cold, each family can hardly see any people in front of the door.

The farmers who should have been cultivating in the heat of the day were mostly nestled at home, as to what they were doing, no need to guess to know.

“Prince, you go find someone to ask about the situation.”

“Okay!”

After the prince answered, he stopped a middle-aged uncle carrying a hoe.

“Old folks ask for directions!”

The prince handed out a wazi, and the other party’s eyes glowed, and the caution in his eyes dissipated.

“Little brother is not a local, right!”

“Yes, uncle really sharp eyes, by the way I want to ask, why so big village how not to see what people.”

“Eh, this thing ah, it is to blame for which God D*mn outsiders”

The two talked for almost half an hour or so, and the Prince knew the general situation.

“Uncle, I see that the time is not early, I will not bother you.”

“What disturbing or not, you youngsters talk politely sometimes.”

The whole process of talking, the Prince’s Huazi did not stop, the middle-aged uncle pumped that is a cool, just half an hour, became speechless, if not for the Prince’s words to interrupt, the middle-aged uncle are going to the family gave birth to a few pigs and the Prince nagging side.

And the conversation between the two ended after the prince stuffed two packets of Huazi in the past.

“Little brother, that earthen house in front is my house, come to my house for lunch ha.”

“Okay, okay!”

After the prince answered, he once again returned to Lin Mo’s side.

“Big brother, the situation is not optimistic, almost every family in the village is infected with this night vine gra*s, and the family’s money has basically been emptied.”

“Some families, the wailing little baby are unattended, let him cry fainting past.”

“And listen to that uncle said, the village went out of many people, and after that have never seen.”

Speaking here, the prince stopped talking, those people's downfall present all know it by heart.

Since Lin Mo came here, the tight frown has not been loosened, he can think of the situation is not good, but still underestimated the danger of the night vine.

Today's situation has been urgent, and if this just continues, within a month this village will become a dead village.

Lin Mo adjust breathing to suppress the anger and hostility in his heart, and only then began to arrange the task.

Chapter 2914

"Gan Lao, you observe the surrounding terrain first, and when the support troops arrive from behind, you will be in charge of the construction of the pan mountain road."

"Prince you will go to the village later to recruit people for the mountain construction, men as labourers, and women if you are, to cook and do odd light jobs for the construction team."

"Also push the troops behind you and tell them to think of ways to hurry up.

If Fei's side is concerned, transfer another group of men over there, so that they can continue to investigate clearly."

After Lin Mo had finished arranging several people's tasks, Du Qi walked up to Lin Mo with a difficult look on his face.

"Master Lin, I'm afraid that the pills we brought are not enough."

"How many are there?"

"Less than two thousand!"

This quantity was indeed somewhat insufficient to deal with the situation at hand, and Lin Mo was also at a loss at this moment, the situation was far more dire than he had imagined, ah, after pondering for a while, he made a decision.

"Let's first allocate them to those who have children at home. The rest, I'll have the people behind me rush out as soon as possible."

One night vine had almost destroyed the entire Baiyun village, and the effort it would take to rebuild it was immeasurable.

In the evening, as the sun was setting, the infrastructure team from the back arrived early, and while it was still dark, Gan Lao took several experts in exploration and testing to check the terrain and soil quality.

The Prince's side had recruited a lot of people after an afternoon of recruitment, about three to five hundred labourers, but most of these labourers were flimsy and had sunken eyes, and their apparently sturdy bodies looked weak.

After one of them saw Lin Mo, his eyes immediately lit up.

“Boss, what do you want from us? When will the wages be paid?”

The man who asked the question asked while snorting and swaying, and when he saw that Lin Mo did not answer, he even came up to him cheaply.

“Boss, I’m telling you, as long as you can afford to pay, five hundred how to raise, tonight I’ll let my mother-in-law wash clean

Not waiting for him to finish, the prince’s on the side lifted his foot with a flying kick, kicking the man out of the way.

“f*ckin’ scum!”

Seeing this scene, Watanabe closed his eyes uncomfortably.

“Amitabha Buddha, Master Lin, this person has been poisoned quite deeply!”

Such a person was almost hopeless, the body could be healed if it was broken, but the spirit had fallen and it was impossible to save it.

Medicine can cure an undead disease, but Buddha can help those who are destined to die!

Lin Mo squeezed his fists and trembled slightly, and then slowly let go of them.

“Do your best! He is not a special case.”

It was also the first time he felt so powerless, from the thick calluses on the palms of this man’s hands, he could tell that before he was infested by the night vine, he should also have still thought he was a hardworking and simple farmer, but now there was no bottom line to speak of.

Just as he was lamenting, there was a commotion inside the crowd.

“Aren’t I a holy monk?”

As a cry of alarm rang out, many people rubbed their eyes and stared at Du Qi for a moment in death, and in a moment many of them knelt down.

“O holy monk, save us, this feeling is too unbearable, my wife has given me away.”

“Holy monk, save us!”

“If I had known about this thing, I would not have touched it even if it was so bad.”

The holy name of Watari Sickness was very high among the great mountains, as soon as they saw him, the crowd felt like they had seen a saviour, all sorts of pleading voices were heard, and their heads were even banging their sticks straight into the ground, while many people’s wives were still holding their wailing little babies, falling to their knees and constantly begging.

Even Lin Mo couldn’t bear this scene and turned his head away.

“Du Qi, take care of it, I’ll go press the logistics side again and have them send the other pills over as soon as possible.”

After saying that he directly left the place, if he carried on a little longer, he was afraid that he would storm off as well.

The person behind this should be D*mned!

Lin Mo's palm that was squeezing Tai Ah was appearing deformed at this point!

Chapter 2915

In the early morning, the sun does not even rise, only a little light from the sky shines on the earth, and with this little light, many villagers have already gone out with their tools.

This is their daily routine, simple and industrious, without the appearance of the night vine.

Those villagers who had taken the pills sent out by the disease, after a night's rest, could already clearly feel the changes in their bodies, the pain like ants had receded for a large part.

When they came to the designated place with their farming tools, they talked to each other in twos and threes, mostly about trivial family matters, as they had done for decades.

After nibbling on the buns they had brought from home, the sun finally rose and the sun shone once more on the earth.

On the hill, Lin Mo stood at the top of a tree, he hadn't slept all night, it was the first time he had trouble sleeping because of something on his mind, looking at the simple villagers at the foot of the hill, a smile finally appeared on his gloomy cheeks.

The dark night would always pa*s, and with a glance up at the gentle sunrise in the sky, a new day began.

Even the sleepy Prince had risen extraordinarily early today, and by the time he arrived at the start of the work, all the village women who had been recruited yesterday were already there, and he had instead become the last one.

It was a habit and a quality that they always came earlier than the managers.

The first day's task was not heavy, it was mainly to clear all the trees along the route of the building map that had been made overnight on Master Gan's side, and part of these trees were used, for building bridges, and the other part Lin Mo did not say, only that it would be of great use to keep.

Under the Prince's arrangement, all of them took their respective roles and started to toil hard, although their body essence lost a lot and their physical strength dropped a lot, but everyone was gritting their teeth and persevering, and those who were tired were carried to the side of the ferry disease for treatment.

"Big brother, isn't this a bit too harsh, after all, none of their bodies have recovered yet."

Lin Mo shook his head, "It's fine, just carry it out like this, if you want to get rid of the after-effects of the night vine for good."

“Tired they don’t have the heart to think about anything else, after a while they will be able to adapt and their bodies and spirits will be healed.”

The prince didn’t know that much, but since his elder brother had said so, he chose to beckon to do just that.

In the distance, a pair of eyes were watching the scene of labour in full swing, and this man spat darkly before turning around and gunning for the village.

In Baiyun village, Sun Dafu was the richest landlord, bar none, and after working with the foreign merchants during this period, he had made a lot of money.

He was in a happy mood, lying in the courtyard, enjoying the service of his maids while humming a little song, living a good life.

However, just as his salty hand was on his maid’s slippery thigh, there was a rush of footsteps outside the door.

“My lord, my lord it’s not good, it’s not good!”

Sun Dafu was naturally displeased at being disturbed from his elegant pleasure.

“What’s the matter, panicking without any rules at all!”

“What’s happened?”

The reprimanded subordinate then raised his head and spoke in a panic.

“Master, a group of strangers has come to the village, and I have heard that they seem to be building a bridge and a road for the village.

Now many of the strong men in the village have gone to work for him.”

Sun Dafu snorted with laughter, “Oh, it’s good enough that even that group of sick people have the strength to work and not come begging me to buy goods.”

Even if he only took 30%, it would be a huge amount of income.

Chapter 2916

Only after the man stammered for half a day did he recount what he had seen with his own eyes.

After hearing this, Sun Dafu immediately sat up in shock.

“bd, how dare you cut off grandpa’s money, you go and bring some men, I want to see who is not afraid of death.”

Soon after, under the leadership of Sun Fu Gui, a group of people rushed to the construction site in a frenzy.

When Sun Dafu saw the experience in front of him, his heart burst with anger, originally he had scoffed at what his men had said about the elixir, but now when he looked around, those villagers who should have been kneeling in front of his house, wagging their tails and praying for food, were chopping down the big trees with high spirits, there was still the appearance of the sick ghost before.

“Doggone it!”

If he cured this group of sick ghosts, wouldn't his fortune be cut off?

“Master it was that group of people, they were the ones who gathered the village together.”

Sun Dafu glanced at the few teenagers halfway up the hill, a contemptuous smile suddenly appeared at the corner of his mouth,, he chose to make a direct move but instead approached with a disdainful tone.

“Yo yo yo yo, where is this great kind man from, to help our Baiyun village, building bridges and repairing roads.”

“Tsk, tsk, tsk, such a big project, compared to not having tens of millions or hundreds of millions is not able to take it down.”

“You people are really foolish, they want to use you to open up the mountain for logging, they are not even hairy kids, they can get so much money.”

“Where are your brains?”

When Sun Dafu encouraged them to do so, the villagers who were still hard at work stopped moving their hands.

Only after a short hesitation, many people's faces sank.

“People, don't listen to the dog's bullsh*t, if it wasn't for his meddling, we wouldn't have caught that sh*t.”

“That's right, this f*cking son of a b*tch's goods are no good, bah!”

The prince's gaze flinched at these words, “F*ck! So this fat f*ck is in on it, I'll f*cking kill him!”

Just as he was about to step forward and make his move, Lin Mo beside him pulled him back.

“Don't be impulsive! It's just a small fish, it's fine to teach a lesson but don't kill it.”

The prince froze in thought and instantly understood: “Don't worry boss, I'll definitely leave her half alive.”

Sun Dafu's side heard the villagers' insults and his face instantly darkened.

“You bunch of untouchables, how dare you scold me!”

“Give me Old Zhang Tau, Old Li Zi, take him down, he's the one with the foulest mouth!”

At a word of command, several thugs behind him stepped forward in a rage, and seeing the other villagers trying to copy their weapons and try to make a move, the thugs directly pulled out the pistols on their belts.

“Are you f*cking tired of living? Get out of my way or I'll take you all with me.”

When the villagers were confronted with such a fierce weapon, their strength was weakened, and their bodies instinctively shrank back.

“A bunch of goons, how dare they be in our way.”

One of the fighters stepped forward, but none of the villagers dared to step forward for a moment because they were afraid of the black muzzle of the gun, so they watched in disbelief as the other side grabbed Old Zhang’s collar.

“You’re the one shouting the most, right? After we finish you, we’ll go after those hairless little brats.”

He raised his arm and raised his slap high, looking like it was about to land on Old Zhang’s face, but then suddenly a figure suddenly appeared behind the hitman and took hold of his wrist.

“You mean to clean us up, do you?”

After saying that, the prince increased the strength of his fingers, causing the batterer to wail in pain.

“Ah, brat, you f*cking let go, I’m going to get you killed.”

However, the more he threatened, the heavier the force on the Prince’s hand became, and in a short while the beater’s palm turned purple and black.

Chapter 2917

The other three thugs, seeing that this companion was clamped to death by the Crown Prince, immediately turned their guns towards him.

“b*d, let go of my hand, or I’ll shoot you.”

The prince was not moved at all: “Heh, when I have no one, right!”

Before the Sanmin hitmen could react to what he meant by identity, they suddenly caught a breeze sweeping by, and the next second Lin Mo’s voice appeared beside them.

“The gun is not even that stable, and you still learn to fight like others, you don’t know what to do.”

As his words fell, the fighters suddenly wailed, the palms of the three men who were still holding their guns had fallen to the ground, and beyond their wrists were already empty, only bright red blood kept spurting out straight.

Seeing this scene, the villagers were all horrified, they did not expect Lin Mo’s young age to be so terrifying, no one saw how he struck, and the strike was also decisive.

Sun Dafu’s eyes were also rounded, obviously he was also stunned by the bloody scene in front of him.

The prince raised one hand and threw the beater out of his hand a dozen metres away before craning his neck towards Sun Dafu.

“D*mn fatty, you were the one who was just fooling around and leading people to make trouble, weren’t you!”

He said as he chuckled his rattling fingers.

“Hey, hey, little brother, it’s all a misunderstanding, it’s all a misunderstanding, let’s talk properly.”

Seeing that Sun Dafu was no match for his opponent, his original arrogance was suddenly withdrawn and his face instantly showed a pleasing meaning, but even if he did, the prince had no intention of letting him go.

“Misunderstanding, is it?”

“Yes, yes, little brother, this is all a misunderstanding, we will leave now, we will not hinder you from doing great things.”

The prince smiled coldly, “Stop right there, did I tell you to leave, little master?”

As soon as the words left his mouth, he rushed up with one healthy step.

Sun Da Fu’s thugs didn’t even react, so they watched as their master was kicked up into mid-air and then smashed heavily into the mud.

“Get lost, next time you come to cause trouble, I’ll rip your heads off for you, young master.”

The prince had just kicked and reined in the force, otherwise he would have kicked Sun Dafu to death.

The remaining few beaters did not dare to resist, and could only bitterly lead their companions and their own lord out of the place in a huff.

“Good! Good fight, these motherf*ckers, they know how to oppress us.”

“What a relief that they have had their day too.”

All the villagers who were working at once could not help but applaud, so it was clear how bad Sun Da Fu’s reputation in Baiyun Village really was.

When the prince heard the applause, he felt a little fluttering in his heart, this is what it feels like to be a warrior.

However, if he was happy, he still had to do what he had to do.

“Let’s all be quiet for a while, they don’t have to take the fat man’s words to heart.

We’ll pay all the money we need to, but for convenience’s sake, we’ll pay monthly.”

In order to completely remove the villagers’ doubts, the Prince also asked his men to fetch a leather case, and after opening it full of hundred yuan bills filled the case to the brim.

“Boss, it’s okay, you guys are the ones who gave us a new life.”

“Yes, if it wasn’t for you guys, we, the people, wouldn’t know how much more we’d have to suffer.”

The group of simple villagers expressed their enthusiasm one after another, which certainly had the impact of money, but more so because of the elixir Lin Mo had sent out to help them dissolve most of the poison of the Night Vine Gra*s.

However, at this moment of merriment, several of the older elders among the villagers approached Lin Mo with faces full of worry.

“Boss Lin, this Fatty Sun has a good relationship with the head of the security group in the mountain.

If we mess with Fatty Sun today, I’m afraid it won’t be easy to give an account on that security group’s side.”

Hearing about this new civic organisation, Lin Mo’s originally good mood instantly sank back down.

Chapter 2918

When Sun Dafu woke up, all he felt was a huge pain coming from his stomach, and the thought of being kicked away from him made his teeth itch with hatred.

“I’ve lived in Baiyun Village for so many years, and there’s the first time someone has dared to make a move on me.”

“Da Fool, take a thought of gold over to Brother San Bao and say I asked him for help to get back the scene.”

With that, Sun Dafu took out a long wooden box from the safe at the end of the bed, and opened it with ten gold bars neatly visited inside.

After receiving them, Dafu secretly weighed them and found that they were about ten pounds.

When Dafu left the village in the morning, a large number of people arrived at Baiyun Village that afternoon.

Lin Mo’s side, after Sun Dafu’s hiccup, did not receive any impact and the project continued as it should.

But just as the work was about to be finished, a group of people suddenly walked in the distance.

The villagers, who were packing up their tools, recognised each other at once.

The security group had come!

“Boss Lin, it’s not good, that Brother Sambo is here.”

Lin Mo was planning the later stages of the work, when he heard this strange name, he suddenly froze, and looking at the villagers’ anxious and panic-filled faces, they seemed to be very afraid of this person ah.

“Jin Sanbao? What’s his name?”

After a few villagers’ explanation, Lin Mo then understood.

The original Jin Sanbao, who had almost a thousand fighters under him, usually roamed between villages, ostensibly to protect everyone’s safety, but in reality, he was the one who caught the chickens and shooed the dogs, but whoever had something good at home, could not escape being robbed.

The villagers' words suggest that this man has something to do with the sale of night vine gra*s in the mountains.

"Elder Gan, Prince, go with me to see who this village bully really is!"

Said Lin Mo's and led a few people out of the makeshift tent together.

When they arrived at the scene, the room was already filled with people.

"That eyeless dog, dare to touch my Da Fu brother? Give me death to come out."

In the face of Jin Sanbao's shouting, the villagers who had gathered did not dare to go forward. This Sanbao brother was not like Sun Dafu, although he had a pistol, he usually just relied on this object to scare people, and at most he would receive a severe beating.

But this Jin Sanbao has a lot of desperate men under his command, and the cold open swords in his palms have seen blood.

"These bds, they're here to cause trouble again, they're not giving me a chance to live."

"It's not easy for a good man to come, eh, these people must not die, they are totally not giving us a chance to live."

The voices of the people complained, but they were also full of worry, their lives had been going well for a while, but now it looked like they were going to suffer again.

At the thought of this, there was an outpouring of sighs.

"You, you, you, yes, just you, come here."

Jin Sanbao raised his palm with his cigar in it and hooked his finger towards the villager, that condescending look as if he was calling a dog, just about starting to whistle.

He waited for the other man to approach before reaching out and patting the man on the cheek.

"Honestly, say it, who touched my brother Dafu.

If you don't say, then I'll a*sume it was you."

However, when he had waited for a while, this villager's had not moved in the slightest, and Jin Sanbao laughed even louder.

"Hahahaha, righteousness, old man, I appreciate people like you."

After the words he came the smile closed and his face pulled down.

"Come on, remove a leg off him, then ask the next one, if you can't, keep removing it."

As soon as the words fell, a few strong men behind Jin Sanbao easily took control of the villager.

Chapter 2919

When Lin Mo and the others passed through the crowd, they only saw an old man being pinned down on the ground, while the strong man beside him had already raised his mountain-opening knife high, and if it fell, that leg was designated to be saved.

“Do it!”

The prince didn't wait for him to say anything, he had already rushed up with one healthy step.

The fighter who had raised his sword found someone interfering and unceremoniously swung his sword across the room, seeing that the blade was about to land on the Prince's shoulder.

Many people in the audience closed their eyes, not daring to look directly at the bloody scene.

When the crowd opened their eyes again, the prince was still in the flying kick position, while the fighter with the knife had already flown a long way away and fell motionless on the ground.

The other two strong men saw their companion fight, how could they give up in peace, and just as they let go of the old man with the intention of making a move, Jin Sanbao behind them spoke.

“Stop it!”

After stopping his men, he then smiled and spoke to the Prince.

“This brother, he has extraordinary skills.”

Originally, when Jin Sanbao looked at Lin Mo's few people with extraordinary auras, he thought of feeling them out before making a move, only he didn't understand the Crown Prince's temper.

“I don't know if it's extraordinary or not, but if I beat a trash like you, I won't even take a breath if ten of them come together.”

“Uh”

Such arrogant words, Jin Sanbao can't catch it for a while, while a few close guards beside him, their faces darkened as they directly pulled out their pistols.

“p*ssy brat, how do you talk to my brother San Bao?”

This time Jin Sanbao did not stop, and his face was not very good at this time, hitting people without hitting their faces, since the other party does not give face, there is nothing to say, even if the body can be higher than the bullet can not.

In this area of Baiyuan Village, he, Jin Sanbao, was the king!

The prince faced the guns, and the corner of his mouth gently hooked.

“It's true that they're not a power on the stage, they dare to be arrogant and show off with just a few guns.

Do you know what happened to the last person who pointed a gun at me now?”

“Fatty, if not you talk to them.”

After speaking, the crown prince then looked at Sun Dafu with a mocking gaze, that icy look directly made Sun Dafu's sweat stand up, now his stomach was still vaguely aching, and at this moment, his mind couldn't help but to recall, Lin Mo's terrifying stance.

When he thought of that ghostly body speed, he couldn't help but feel a secret panic in his heart.

"Brother San Bao, you have to be careful, they have an expert over there, he's very fast."

Jin Sanbao only laughed dismissively when he heard this, "Expert huh, how fast can he be faster than a bullet?"

Without waiting for Sun Dafu to reply, Jin Sanbao raised his hand and pointed at the Crown Prince.

"Brother Dafu, don't worry, today your brother San Bao is designated to get you back.

Even if the King of Heaven came today, I, Jin Sanbao, would exterminate him."

With this last sentence, he thought that he had already pulled all the stops, and those villagers had also lowered their heads in fear, not daring to look at him.

After saying this he was about to order his men to start robbing, only his afterimage was to inadvertently sweep up a familiar figure.

"Elder Gan, why is he here!"

Jin Sanbao's not only has many men, but also a large circle of connections, especially in Hanoi province, many of which he has more or less unique friendships with, including Master Gan and Guan Yao.

Of course, to say that it is pretentious is just licking the outside family forces, after all, he is only in the big mountain can only show off just, in the face of real strength, his a few swords and guns simply can not get on stage.

Now that he not only saw Elder Gan, but also looked at the way Elder Gan was nodding and bowing to that teenager, Jin Sanbao froze in his tracks.

He vaguely felt that he might have kicked the iron bench this time, and beads of sweat seeped out from his forehead.

Chapter 2920

Lin Mo actually came to the scene very early, just that he has not made a move, even if the crown prince was pointed at with a gun, he did not have the slightest reaction, because while he knew in his heart, not far away on the high mountain, Tong Jun and others have already set up the sniper gun.

As long as the crown prince gave peace, Jin Sanbao's men who were holding the gun said that there was no chance of pulling the trigger.

The only thing that surprised Lin Mo was that the originally murderous Jin Sanbao had somehow suddenly withdrawn his murderous spirit, and his aura fell at once, and after looking at himself, he could clearly feel the look of scorn in the other party's eyes.

There was no need to observe any further.

Lin Mo took a gentle step, and the next second he appeared beside the prince.

Such a swift speed startled Jin Sanbao, and he could not help but open his eyes wide, at this moment he used to appreciate how fast Sun Dafu was talking about. Looking at Elder Gan, who was following closely behind, Jin Sanbao's aura instantly wilted to the extreme.

At the same time, he began to curse Sun Dafu in his heart for being such an ungrateful dog, what kind of a big shot had he offended?

Lin Mo did not know what was in this man's mind, he just skimmed the imposing big hands in front of him, and then calmly said.

"Put the guns away, today is an auspicious day for the start of the work, I don't want to see too much blood."

The opponents were too many, although they couldn't do him any harm, but there were still many villagers with ears on the scene, so if anything happened, they would probably be injured by mistake.

As soon as Jin Sanbao heard this, he hurriedly asked his men to put away all their weapons.

And the prince was not yet finished having fun: "You just said that even if the king of heaven came, you would destroy him, didn't you?"

Jin Sanbao's face changed and he glanced at Lin Mo good old Master Gan, opened his mouth but did not dare to say anything more, he could only silently lower his head.

Although the prince did not know why this Jin Sanbao had suddenly softened, but the matter had already come to this point the playfulness in his heart had also dissipated.

"Why, what are you still doing here, do you want us to keep you for dinner?"

"As a security group, just stick to your guns and don't stretch your hands too far or I'll chop him up.

This is the first and last time, do you understand?"

Jin Sanbao's expression froze in his heart despite his anger, but a smile spread across his face.

"Yes, yes, yes, I understand I understand."

"A few masters, this is a presumptuous intrusion on my part, there is absolutely no next time."

After a nod and a bow, he left the place in a panic with all his men.

The prince stared at their departing backs, and a murderous look flooded his eyes.

"Boss, should I lead the men to finish them off!"

"Don't rush first, the villagers' words may not be 100% correct, let's send someone to find out more about them first.

If the information is true, we are considering making a move."

Lin Mo wasn't afraid of the black hands behind these night vines coming out hard, what he feared most was that they had suddenly gone into hiding.

He couldn't stay in Da Qu United Province for the rest of his life, so he had to find the source of the Night Vine Gra*s before he could take action to settle this matter once and for all.

After the crown prince understood, he shrugged helplessly, it was so hard to find something hot to do, but he couldn't even do it.

Lin Mo looked at the crown prince's appearance and naturally knew what he was thinking.

"Alright, you'll have plenty of opportunities to strike later, for now, let's just take care of the matter at hand."

Having said that he then spoke towards the group of villagers.

"Alright, alright, everyone, let's disperse, go back to dinner and rest early, we'll continue tomorrow.

Don't worry, from now on Jin Sanbao won't come back to cause trouble."

If he gets tired of living!
