

Genius 2921

Chapter 2921

The main clan of the Ding family.

Ever since Ding Li returned from Hoa San City, many eyes in the family have been on him.

The reason for this is very simple: before, Ding Li had done the family a great service by uncovering the traitorous branch of the Ding family in Hanoi province, and now he has followed the wind of the destruction of the Kong family and collected hundreds of millions of dollars in property for the family.

Nowadays, many people are getting red in the eyes that a wild child with a small mother's body is so capable, and this side is starting to upset many of the brothers within the main clan.

The main thing is, not long ago, the Hanoi branch of the major managers for collusion with outsiders, the theft of family wealth, have been taken down, not yet finalized to take over the personnel, the clan will have many people began to focus on this hot position, and this Ding Li has become a lot of people's eyes rival.

The gossips gradually revealed that Lin Mo had blown up the Ding family's docks, kidnapped him and taken many of the Ding family's jewels from the sea.

If everyone did the same, then where would his family's face be, and who would respect the Ding family in the future?

Some even went to the extreme and complained to the Ding Family Council, asking for Ding Li to be punished so that the rest of the clan could learn from his mistakes.

The only reply they received was two words: "To be determined!"

Naturally, Ding Li himself was aware of all this bullsh*t, and although it didn't affect him much, it was like a swarm of flies buzzing around your ears all the time, and anyone would be distracted.

"D*mn, a bunch of trash, they are useless themselves but still blame the female for not having a seam, all day long they know how to play such disgusting tricks."

Ding Li grumbled distractedly after walking out of the elders' meeting, just smashing just now a few elders even called him in for questioning, wanting to probe his relationship with Lin Mo.

His answer was also very simple, there were no permanent enemies, only permanent interests, although he and Lin Mo had had unpleasant things before, but as long as Lin Mo could bring benefits to the Ding family, the previous matters could be held high and light.

Such a reply was naturally to the liking of those old men, and several elders gave him a long lecture on loyalty to the family, the interests of the family first, etc., before letting him go.

The Ding family is too big, so big that even the Elders' Council cannot manage some things.

Some branches of the family advocate pro-Wanxiang, using outside forces to unify Daqu.

Some felt that the Ding family was so powerful that they could rely on their own power to unify the United Provinces of Daqu.

Of course, there were also some who felt that since they had attached themselves, they should do so honestly and not make any fuss.

In short, one side knew what to do and the other side was factional, even the Council of Elders, all appeared to be different gods of courage.

Ding Li walked back to his room while analysing the form of disorder in the family.

After lying down on the bed, he couldn't help but sigh.

"Hey, how annoying, if I were the Ding family head, I would first remove his council of elders and directly expel the blind bishops."

Of course this was just a complaint under his annoyance, with his ability to become the head of the family, it was simply a fantasy, he still had this point of self-knowledge.

The main thing was that, although he had secretly developed a lot of staff, they were all reckless people who could fight and f*ck, but had no talent in strategy.

When Ding Li thought of this, he couldn't help but miss Wen Qiang and Lin Mo. With their big brains, they could definitely help him understand the situation.

The only thing was that Wen Qiang had not been able to get in touch with him since the last time we parted.

Lin Mo also, called once or the prince answered the phone, so he was scared that he hung up, and then it was heard that Lin Mo was invited to go to Bashar God Mountain.

Chapter 2922

The more Ding Li thought about it, the more annoyed he felt in his mind.

"Why don't we try it again?"

Looking at the mobile phone beside his bed, he hesitated for a moment before picking him up.

On the other side, in the middle of the great mountain.

Before the revitalisation project was implemented, he was still confident. After all, he had restarted a large business alliance from scratch, so what was so difficult about a village of 10,000 people?

It was only after he had really started that he realised he had been hasty.

Every aspect of Baiyun Village had to be re-planned, from food, drink, food, shelter and transport, to economy, spirituality, faith, medicine and so on.

And this is just one Baiyuan village. According to the information passed back by Fei, they have already discovered no less than thirty such villages, and have also found, traces of the night vine.

Not only that, there were hundreds of small villages and dozens of earth cottages.

Although Baiyun Village, after the Jin Sanbao affair a few days ago, has seen people coming from several small villages around it, wanting to apply for labour, what about the other villages further away.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

The thought of all this made Lin Mo's scalp tingle, and he alone would not be able to do these things last night.

"Think I Lin someone also have such a rash day."

Of course he knew in his heart that this matter had come too quickly, otherwise if he had been given time to plan and prepare in advance, everything would not have been so haphazard, but time waited for no man.

And just as he was getting annoyed, the WeChat phone on his desk rang brightly, and after glancing at the caller, Lin Mo's gaze suddenly lit up and he had a plan in mind.

"Lin Mo, I've managed to get in touch with you."

"Brother Ding Li, how come it's so rare that you would call me, how about getting rich this time?"

Ding Li was originally thinking of spitting out that Lin Mo was so hard to contact, but at this moment, once he heard the tone of Lin Mo's speech, he paused in his words.

I don't know if it was an illusion, he always felt that Lin Mo was a little too enthusiastic.

"Er The main reason I contacted you this time was because I encountered some difficult things and I was a bit overwhelmed.

All I want is to ask you to help me out."

"The actual fact is that you'll be able to get a lot more than just a few of these.

Ding Li's eyes glared, at this moment he could already hammer Lin Mo's abnormality, his enthusiasm had gone too far.

However, since the person had agreed, Ding Li did not dwell on it much after telling him about the Ding family's chaos, he asked.

"How do I break the situation instead, ah, one side of the opinion one side of the power, how do I stand in line, in order to better develop?"

When he finished, Lin Mo's side was first silent for a moment before he sighed faintly.

"Eh, are you a pig, why do you need to stand in line, just let them dog bite dog and you watch the show from the sidelines?"

"But if I do that, they will all each side will target me now, the Ding family's situation is very messy."

"Little Ding Ding Li brother ah, what are you thinking, you also think too much of yourself, what strength of others, what strength of you.

Isn't targeting you a great use of material?"

If Lin Mo didn't have something to ask, he would have spewed out.

You little piece of trash are just thinking about fart eating!

After thinking about it for a while, Ding Li also felt that Lin Mo's words had some truth to them.

"Yeah oh, it doesn't seem like they need to, targeting a little person like me all the time."

"Not bad for you, ah Lin Mo, the brain just works."

"Right, in that case, my next step, what should I do?"

Hearing this, Lin Mo felt relieved, isn't this coming, the young man is on the right track!

"Now that you've accumulated almost all your men and have some strength, it's time to create some fame next."

Chapter 2923

After Ding Li hung up the phone, the annoyed look on his face had dissipated.

"Come on, men!"

After his men walked in, Ding Li sent his mission down.

The next day, a piece of news began to spread slowly within the Great Qu Province.

"Have you heard, that Lin Mo has recently taken the Da Qu Merchant Alliance to revitalise the Great Mountain."

"It seems that they are building roads, bridges and houses for the people of the Great Mountains!"

"Is this what people do? Those big families and powers, they just know how to squeeze us."

"Look at them, although they are not from Daqu, they are always thinking of us.

You don't know, that nook and cranny of the city of Heshan is now as prosperous as a super city in Lin Mo."

"My first cousin over there, who used to rely on us for a living, has now bought a car and a house, and just because he's caught the wave of benefits, I'm now considering whether to emigrate to Heshan City."

Although a few people were secretly trying to discredit Lin Mo and suppress this wave of momentum, the facts were in front of them and the discrediting could not make a big difference, so they were quickly drowned out and disappeared.

On the contrary, Lin Mo's deeds were spread more and more widely, and the shares of many companies that participated in the revitalisation of Dasan were soaring one after another just because of this.

For a while, many outsiders began to feel moved, but they didn't have the time, experience or channels to do so. Even if they wanted to imitate it, no one would buy it, and they would even be ridiculed for doing what they had done long ago.

Against this background, Lin Mo received a phone call from a representative of the Ding family, Ding Yuliang.

The caller's intention was clear: he wanted to join Lin Mo's project, and they would take care of all the funding, personnel and equipment, but his only request was that Lin Mo add the Ding family to his list of partners.

Lin Mo naturally agreed, but he specified that Ding Li must be the one to interface with him on this cooperation.

After a few words of exchange between the two sides, the matter was settled.

In the afternoon of the same day, Ding Li arrived at Baiyun Village.

"D*mn, Lin Mo, you're too awesome, I just put out the news about this side, and our Elders' association really chose to cooperate with you?"

Lin Mo shrugged, "It doesn't count for much, but it's just that you, the great clans, are too unconcerned about your reputation at the bottom."

"Now that we've discovered this, we naturally have to find ways to remedy it as well."

"In addition, your Ding family, at the moment, hasn't escaped suspicion, and I suspect that within your family, there are also people secretly involved in this matter."

Few forces could resist in the face of Night Vine's staggering profits, and the same was true of their Ding family.

The reason he had asked Ding Li by name to come out and deal with him was because he had this meaning. He could not trust other Ding family members, but he could see that Ding Li could not escape his eyes if he had something in mind.

When Lin Mo finished speaking, Ding Li's eyes glared.

"This kind of unconscionable thing, there is even someone from our Ding family involved?"

"No, at this point I'm going to report this matter to the Elders' Council."

If this really happened, once it was exposed, their Ding family's reputation would be completely tarnished.

Only before he could act, Lin Mo stopped him.

"You don't need to rush first, I only have suspicions, there is no tangible evidence at the moment.

And don't you think about it, what if someone from your Elders' Council was also involved?"

At these words, Ding Li instantly blushed.

Yes, if there were elders involved in the night vine matter, his situation would not be good.

When Ding Li thought of this, he couldn't help but swallow his saliva.

"Lin Mo, then what should I do now?"

Chapter 2924

"What else can be done, just like this, surprisingly I lift you out, just you do a good job."

"Mobilize all the manpower you can, and do your best to develop the villages in the mountains, build roads and bridges where you can."

"In addition, now within some villages, although they don't consume night vetch, many people have seen the wealth and have started to grow it.

This, you see this handling, soft and hard to try not to make a human life on it, must speak this point to correct."

Night vine gra*s can bring the profit is too big, planting an acre of night vine gra*s can bring the value, completely is the ordinary crops dozens of hundreds of times, many people have moved, but these profits are completely built on other people's lives and corpses, the simple point is that in sucking the blood of others to earn.

This trend must be corrected.

Thinking of this Lin Mo's eyes flashed a murderous look: "If someone is obsessed and unrepentant, you'll see what you can do!"

Some things must be seen in blood.

Ding Li knew that Lin Mo's heart was set on killing, and he agreed with him that a woman's mercy would only make things more difficult.

The night went on without a word.

The next day, Ding Li followed Gan Lao and studied the whole thing from start to finish.

"Young Ding, this is our general White Cloud Village rectification paperwork."

"I already know the general process, when the time comes I will follow your way, your template to rectify the other villages again."

Ding Li took Elder Gan's document, "I won't be meeting Lin Mo's side, you can pa*s on the message for me."

After saying that he directly left Baiyun Mountain, his destination was the Triangle Walled Village, which was more than three hundred kilometres away from here.

The two sides were moving forward in tandem, striving for the fastest possible time to completely eliminate the hidden danger of the night vine.

However, what Ding Li did not know was that he was being watched from the moment he set off from the Ding family.

At this moment, Ding Li was sitting in the helicopter handing out documents to the Ding family's construction team when suddenly his cold hairs exploded and a fear of death spread directly in his heart.

"It's going to happen!"

This thought flashed through Ding Li's mind and he subconsciously arched his back, just as a bullet whistled past his scalp.

He didn't have time to think about it and warned loudly, "An ambush! Take cover!"

When he looked up at the cockpit, the pilot of the helicopter had already been shot through the chest, and although his hands were still holding the lever, he had lost his breath.

Ding Li only felt a tremor under his feet, and the whole helicopter suddenly shot straight towards the ground. In just three to five seconds, a violent explosion was heard between the mountains and the forest, and countless mutilations flew everywhere, leaving only a burning flame behind.

This side of Baiyun Village.

"Lord Lin, Ding Li has just left, he asked me to pass on a message."

"So urgent? But it's good to finish dealing with it as early as possible, so that peace can be restored to Dasan as soon as possible."

After Lin Mo finished gathering the documents on his desk, he looked up at Elder Gan.

"Elder Gan, this side of Baiyun Village has almost been dealt with, so I'm going to discuss some follow-up plans with you."

After these few days of hard work, most of the villagers in Baiyun Village had been healed and would not relapse if they did not touch the night vine again.

With the support of hundreds of members of the merchant alliance, the speed of construction was naturally fast, and the construction of the mountain road was basically coming to an end, leaving the rest to the village name and the engineering team.

Lin Mo has also discussed with some of the members of the business alliance and plans to establish a long-term cooperation with Baiyun Village for agricultural products and mountain specialties, which is a win-win situation.

Chapter 2925

Gan Lao had been in society for decades, he was already a human being, at this time he intended to listen to Lin Mo's plan before answering, otherwise it would not be awkward if his ideas ran counter to Lin Mo's.

“Lord Lin, I wonder what you have in mind?”

“This side of Baiyun Village is almost at the finishing stage, and there’s no need to use so many people for these jobs.”

“So I intend to continue pushing into the mountains, and for Baiyun Village and the surrounding villages of all sizes within 50 kilometres, I intend to let Gan Xing take charge, I don’t know what you mean, Elder Gan

At this point Lin Mo stopped, and the meaning was obvious, this area would be handed over to the Gan family to take full charge, he had seen all of Elder Gan’s performance during this period of time.

Now it was Lin Mo’s move to return the favour, and at the same time, he was also taking the opportunity to give Elder Gan an explanation that as long as he followed Lin Mo’s work, he would definitely not let the Gan family suffer.

At the beginning of the relaunch of the Martial Union, all the members of the merchant union were eager to pave the way for their children, but he, Gan Lao, was the only one who did not make any move.

It wasn’t that he didn’t want his children to join the Martial Union, on the contrary he was more eager than anyone else, and in order not to give Lin Mo a hard time, he had sent his granddaughter Gan Wei to study abroad, in order to smooth out the vendetta against Lin Mo everywhere.

Now all his efforts had finally paid off, and it was a sign that it was his son Gan Xing who had entered the Martial Union.

“Thank you, Lord Lin, for the promotion, our Gan family will definitely not let Lord Lin down.”

He shook his body in excitement, his hands didn’t know how to place them, if he wasn’t too old for the rules, he would have wanted to give Lin Mo a kowtow.

The opportunity for the Gan family to rise to power had finally come.

“You should know clearly in your heart that this is the first place allocated out by the Dasan Development, and at the same time he is also a pressure.

Those people in the Commercial Union are watching you, if you don’t do well, I will appoint other clans or forces as well.”

In terms of strength and scale, his Gan family was only a middle to lower level of existence within the Commercial League, so Lin Mo naturally took on the pressure by allocating the first management slot to their Gan family.

“Lord Lin, don’t worry, if the construction is not good, my Gan family will take the initiative to step down, and definitely won’t let Lord Lin be embarrassed.”

Lin Mo nodded, it was easy to talk to smart people.

“Alright, let’s talk about the subsequent planning next, this is the information that Fei pa*sed back.

Baiyun Village is fine to deal with, but the deeper we go into the mountains, the more complicated the form will become.”

After Gan Lao quickly flipped through the documents, he immediately had a plan in mind.

“We might as well let those small villages, relocate and converge directly into one big village, so that it is also easy to manage.”

“Also the youths from those Tuzhai villages, we can let them go out to work in the mountain process.

Although they are huge in number, a factory enterprise like the Merchant Union is fully capable of eating them.”

“As for, those villagers who have switched to growing night vetch, this

This is the big head, there is no concept of standardization in the mountains, they just swarm to do whichever is profitable, for those involved in the sale of night vine gra*s is easy to deal with, but these growers are in trouble, according to the rules specified is not feasible, the number is too large, it is very likely to cause a big turmoil.

As the two men were struggling with this matter, there was a rush of footsteps outside the door.

“Brother, it’s not good, Ding Li’s helicopter has been ambushed and crashed!”

Chapter 2926

After Lin Mo heard the news, he directly stood up from his seat and his face became extremely ugly.

“Is Ding Li alright?”

Ding Li was an extremely important part of Lin Mo’s layout, not only did he currently need to be responsible for a*sisting in the development of the Great Mountain and destroying the night vine industry, but there were even many places down the road that needed this person.

The prince shook his head with a heavy face, “It’s not clear yet, when our men went over there, they only found the wreckage of the helicopter.”

“But there was only the pilot’s body at the scene, and no Ding Li was found.”

Hearing this news, Lin Mo was slightly relieved, at least Ding Li still had the possibility of surviving.

“Hurry up and send someone to search and rescue!”

After waiting for the Crown Prince to leave, Lin Mo contacted Chen Jin the first time.

“Has there been any movement from the Guan family?”

“Back to Your Excellency, the Guan family has not made any movements during this period of time, and Guan Yao has not left the house.”

“Is there any personnel that can, going in and out of the Guan family.”

“No!”

“Continue to keep an eye on them!”

After saying that, Lin Mo hung up the phone, Guangyao was his first suspect, so before he entered the mountain, he sent Chen Jin to implement twenty-four hour round-the-clock surveillance on Guanji.

But now, it seemed that no abnormalities were found.

Lin Mo rubbed his brow and tapped his fingers on the table. There were too many forces in the eight provinces of Da Qiu, and they were complicated, and there were also two other countries, Wanxiang and True Wax, who were involved.

After thinking for a while, Lin Mo was still a bit uneasy about Ding Li.

“I’m going out! Elder Gan, you look after this side first.”

With those words, Lin Mo disappeared in front of the table.

.....

On the other hand, Ding Li, who had been attacked, did not die, and before the helicopter crashed, he agilely escaped, barely saving his life with the cushion of the pool of water.

Ding Li crawled to the shore with his heart in his throat.

“Motherf*cker, don’t let me know who you are, or I’ll f*ck you up sooner or later.”

After complaining, Ding Li knew in his heart that, as a member of the Ding family, the other side had dared to ambush him and must have come with the intention of eliminating his roots.

He was not safe now!

With this in mind, Ding Li hurriedly took off his soaked clothes, wrapped them around a boulder and threw them into the pool of water. The heavy clothes did not give him any warmth, but on the contrary, they would exacerbate his physical energy loss and prevent him from escaping.

Leaving only his thin shirt behind, he shivered before diving headlong into the woods.

Shortly afterwards, several figures appeared at the waterhole.

The leader, a man, crouched down and touched the wet mud on the ground.

“He should be nearby, give me chase!”

With a command, a dozen black-robed men around them leapt straight up onto the branches of a tree and searched around.

When they disappeared, Ding Li, who was hiding in a stone crevice not far away, couldn’t help but sigh with relief. Although he had some skills, he wasn’t confident enough to dodge bullets, so instead of running around like a headless fly, he should have stayed in place and waited for help.

If something happened to him, Lin Mo’s side would soon receive the news, and once Lin Mo’s men arrived, he would be safe.

And the most dangerous place was the safest place, they would never expect him to stay hidden in the same place.

Just as Ding Li was secretly impressed by his own cleverness, he suddenly felt a chill run down his back and the smug smile on his face froze instantly.

“As expected of you, young Ding, you almost had me fooled.”

The hoarse rawness was as cold as the scythe of death stabbing at Ding Li’s heart, at this moment he only felt his limbs go limp and he could hardly breathe.

It’s over, Barbie Q!

Chapter 2927

By the time Ding Li stiffened and twisted his head, the group of black-robed men in front of him had already surrounded him, and from their auras, each of them was an expert whose strength crushed his.

Ding Li swallowed: “You... Who are you people?”

“Young Ding is really a noble man who forgets things, haven’t we met before? How could you forget an old acquaintance like that?”

Ding Li, who had slowed down, finally remembered that this group of people were the fighters beside Grand Prince Jiawen at the Gan Family banquet.

“I am a direct descendant of the main clan of the Ding family, if you guys dare to touch me today, our Ding family has decided not to spare you.”

At this moment, Ding Li could only hope that the prestige of the Ding Clan would be able to subdue the other party, while secretly praying in his heart for the arrival of Lin Mo and the others.

Only the black-robed man only smiled disdainfully at his threat.

“Young Ding, the world is a big place, your self-righteous Ding family is only able to show off its power in the Great Qu Province.

If you put it on a bigger stage, it would only be a third-rate power.”

“And look, if you die here, who will know it was us who did it!”

As soon as the words left his mouth, a cold dagger suddenly appeared in the black-robed man’s hand.

“Young Ding, let me borrow your head for a moment!”

The hoarse voice carried a biting murderous intent.

“Wait a minute!”

Ding Li saw the other party slowly walking towards him and hurriedly reached out to stop him.

“What’s the matter, do you have any last words, but we don’t have the grace to deliver them for you!”

Although Ding Li could not see the black robed man’s expression, he could guess the mocking face beneath the black robe.

“Before I die, I want to know, I have no enmity with the Grand Prince, why do you want to put me to death?”

Or did a few of my clan brothers, hire you to come?”

These people were the only ones Ding Li could think of behind the scenes.

Only the black-robed man was shaking his head, “As I said, this world is big.”

“Whether it’s your Ding Clan or the Wanxiang Royal Family, we don’t put it in our eyes, trying to command us to do something, think again.”

“It’s just that your Ding Family has too much contact with Lin Mo, which is not good!”

Hearing this, Ding Li suddenly realized, “Gra*s, you’re framing Lin Mo for my death!”

As long as he died here, it was absolutely impossible for the Ding family and Lin Mo to be working together, and they would even make direct moves because of this.

“You are very smart, if you are allowed to grow up, you might still have the possibility to compete for the future, as the Ding Family’s family head.

Unfortunately, there is no chance, young Ding, you can now rest in peace.”

With these words, the black-robed man’s dagger crossed his face and made a move to understand Ding Li.

When Ding Li saw the stance, his heart was suddenly filled with ashes, and in despair, he said, “Lin Mo, my God! If you don’t come to save me, I’m going to be a fart!”

And this performance of his directly caused a group of people to snort with laughter.

“How dare you expect someone to come and save you! Give me hell!”

With a twist of his dagger, the black-robed man stabbed straight towards Ding Li’s neck.

That though simply made Ding Li unable to react and could only close his eyes in despair.

At this moment of life and death, a clear metal clanging sound suddenly came out of his ears.

When he opened his eyes, Lin Mo, who was beside him with a calm face, was holding up his long sword and took the fatal blow for him.

Saved!

The eyes of Ding Li, who had escaped death for a moment, were suddenly moist.

The black-robed man on the other side of the room was astonished, he had fought with Lin Mo not long ago, but now he had not seen him for half a month or so, and Lin Mo’s speed had increased by several notches.

Lin Mo looked around and struggled to nuzzle his mouth, “Hello again!”

As the words fell, he flicked his wrist, directly shaking the opponent away from his dagger while the Tai Ah in his hand stabbed directly at him like a running thunder.

Chapter 2928

The black-robed man also did not expect that Lin Mo's stance had not only become stronger, but his strikes were also more swift.

After the two sides pulled apart, the black robe reached out and touched the wound, although it was only a superficial wound, it had already started to bleed.

"I didn't expect your strength to grow so rapidly after a trip to the Divine Mountain."

"Hehe, there's a lot more you didn't expect!"

After Lin Mo finished his reply, he made a sword splash and pinned Tai Ah to his back, "The last time we fought, we still haven't split the result, so how about taking this opportunity to split the difference?"

If it were in normal times, Lin Mo would not even talk nonsense and just bring his sword to cut down the other party, but now he still had a dagger behind him, and the dozen people in his eyes were all of extraordinary strength, so he could not guarantee that he could report Ding Li in the course of the exchange of blows.

The black-robed man in the lead, who also seemed to see Lin Mo's intentions, skimmed a glance at Ding Li before agreeing to do so.

"It's fine, the last time there were outsiders present, the fight held me back."

Said the black robed man then raised his hand and waved, a dozen of his men around him instantly retreated to a distance, but still maintained this huddled position to prevent Ding Li from escaping.

After Lin Mo raised his hand to retrieve Tai Ah, Price Tai Ah, along with the scabbard, plunged directly into the rock.

"You stay back!"

Ding Li nodded and hurriedly retreated to a distance, leaving the battlefield to them.

"Originally, I was thinking of killing Ding Li and making a complete break with the Ding Clan, but since you've shown up, I've just saved myself the trouble."

Everything he had planned was just to deal with Lin Mo, and now that the person in question was even present, then he would just kill him.

Lin Mo just shrugged his shoulders, "I don't know how confident you brought it, if you had played a trick last time, I would have hammered you to death long ago."

"Is that so?"

After the black-robed man sneered and asked back, he took the lead in attacking, accompanied by a tiger's whistle, and the black tiger's silhouette once again appeared behind him.

But Lin Mo could clearly feel that this person's aura was significantly stronger than the last time they fought, and just as he was distracted, the black-robed man moved, his figure flickering as he instantly arrived in front of Lin Mo, his single hand turning into a claw and heading straight for Lin Mo's chest.

In the face of this move, Lin Mo only calmly turned his body sideways and easily avoided it.

The second time they fought, he could clearly feel that the gap between the two sides was a notch lower, before he was afraid of his opponent's agile stance, but now he could easily dodge it.

Of course it wasn't that his opponent had become weaker, but that he, Lin Mo, had become stronger.

And at this time the black-robed man saw his own moves being dodged, and was not extremely surprised, a twist of the wrist, between the fingers instantly flooded with black light like five sharp daggers at the same time, once again attacked towards Lin Mo, only this time the speed of the move was more rapid.

The sudden change also made Lin Mo notice a hint of abnormality, but at this time he did not have time to think about it, the opponent had not yet made one move, but the next move came up again, one hand turned into a claw and the other into a fist, both moves came together.

At such a close distance, coupled with the sudden speed of the black-robed man, Lin Mo could only wait to cross his arms in front of his chest.

With a stinging sound, his clothes were directly scratched, followed by a burst of stinging pain on his arms.

Without thinking about it, Lin Mo stepped forward and threw a top knee, using this move to pull away from his opponent again.

Lin Mo didn't care about the blood that was oozing out of his arm, he just looked at the black robed man in front of him with a frown on his face.

"You're not from the Basha Divine Mountain!"

Previously, after he had sensed the similar aura in the black-robed man's stance from You Li, he had always thought that this person was from the Basha Divine Mountain, but after a short exchange of blows just now, he had discovered that this black-robed man was hiding this other kind of martial art.

He had a feeling that he had seen this martial art somewhere before, but he could not recall it for a while.

Chapter 2929

"How clever!"

The black-robed man shook his hands "When I fought with you before, there were outsiders present and I was wary of having my bottom moves recognized."

Lin Mo asked with interest, "What, now you're not afraid."

“If I’m not wrong, you should be the scout lurking in the Basha divine Mountain, how well you hide your shadow.”

The person in front of him did have some ability to infiltrate the divine mountain and not be discovered by the people in the mountain.

“It’s alright, no one will know if I kill you.”

If Lin Mo died in Da Qiu Province, there would be a big move on our side.

“Then let’s try!”

Said Lin Mo as he set up his stance, ready to attack again, after returning from God Mountain, he hadn’t fought anyone of comparable strength yet, so he could use this to see how far his strength had grown.

As soon as the words left his mouth, the two of them charged at each other.

Outside the field, Ding Li could only see a series of residual shadows that intertwined back and forth, whether it was the black robe or Lin Mo, he could no longer see the movements of the strikes.

The most intuitive feeling was the cracking rocks beneath their feet and the constant sound of fists and feet clashing in their ears.

At this moment, the more he fought, the more frightened he became. He had hidden his methods at the banquet, allowing him to use less than half of his strength, but now that he was at full power, he still couldn’t help Lin Mo by half, and he was even gradually falling into a disadvantage.

“How is it possible, how could you have become so strong.”

“It’s not that I’m too strong, it’s that you’re too weak, little trash.”

After Lin Mo sneered, his right arm was instantly raised, and with a tremor in his arm, dark energy instantly gathered.

The black-robed man also felt the terrifying power at this moment, and for a moment he only felt his body’s cold hairs explode, this kind of physical instinctive fear was beyond reason’s control.

And just as he was about to dodge, the thunderous fist was already falling.

The black-robed man had no choice but to clench his fist and resist head-on, but when the fists met, a heaven-destroying dark energy instantly rushed in.

At this moment he recalled the fear he had felt at the Gan family when he was dominated by Elder Zhao’s fist.

The black-robed man’s figure was blown far away from the scene, and it was only after breaking a two-man tree that the black-robed man stopped flying backwards.

At this point, his arm had taken on a bizarre twist, and the bones of his broken hand had pierced through his skin, showing straight into the air, and the black robe of the divine mountain had been torn into rags, looking as wretched as it could be.

“This can’t be, a yellow-haired boy can’t be this strong, this is absolutely impossible!”

The black robed man hissed in disbelief as he struggled to stand up with one hand propped up on the ground, clearly the failure of this encounter had caused him to begin to break down emotionally.

At this moment, several other black-robed men around him saw the leader in such a miserable state and also instantly made their moves, part of them striking out at Lin Mo, while part of them rushed towards Ding Li, working quite well together.

Lin Mo was waiting for the moment when they gathered at everything, the only way to solve them all at once and to ensure that Ding Li was not hurt.

As the blades of several black-robed a*sa*sins approached quickly, Lin Mo instantly disappeared from his spot, and when he reappeared, he was already beside Ding Li's body.

As an invisible sword Qi flashed past, the six black-robed a*sa*sins attacking Ding Li directly stopped in mid-air.

Under the blood in the sky, all six of them were broken at the waist.

But when Lin Mo looked at the leader of the black-robed men again, he had already disappeared, obviously saved.

And Ding Li, who had slowed down, hurriedly urged on.

"Lin Mo you go after them and f*ck them up!"

Lin Mo directly rolled his eyes.

"You think I don't want to? If I wasn't afraid that they would turn the tiger away from the mountain and turn back to kill you, the dragger, I would have gone after them long ago."

Although it was the truth, it was more or less solid.

A lot of mountain wind blew by, dragging oil bottle Ding Li more or less messy.

Chapter 2930

This time while waiting for help Ding Li then repeated what the black-robed people had heard with him.

Lin Mo's face also revealed a pensive look after listening to them. Based on their conversation, he was basically completely sure that this group of black-robed people were not from Da Qu.

This person was so arrogant and arrogant that even the Ding family and the Wanxiang royal family did not look at each other, so it could be seen that the power behind him must be a huge one.

However, after Lin Mo had gone through all the rival forces in his mind, he still had no clue, except that during his fight with the black-robed man, he found that he had a vague impression of his opponent's moves and his breath was somewhat familiar, but he could not recall it for a while.

Just as he was pondering and analysing, he suddenly felt a tug on his trouser leg.

Lin Mo turned his head to look at Ding Li behind him, who was already shivering from the cold.

“Lin Mo, lend me your jacket, I’m freezing to death.”

It was winter and he was soaked to the bone, so he was already freezing.

Lin Mo smiled gently: “No, my daughter-in-law bought it, there’s only one in the world.”

Ding Li sucked his nose: “It’s such a cold day, what if I catch a cold?”

Lin Mo’s face also looked serious at this time.

“It’s okay, the divine doctor of China understands, even if you half foot him into the coffin I can save you back.”

Ding Li’s face crossed, “sh*t, before when you didn’t let me help you spread the glorious deeds within the great mountains, you were a mouthful of Ding Li’s brother.”

“Now you’re actually treating me like this, do you want to be so realistic?”

The more he said the more Lin Mo wrapped up the jacket on his body, what a joke this is Xu Hanxia personally bought for him, insulation properties plus fifty percent, warmth properties pull full of magic, how can give others to wear.

“What reality is not realistic, I also saved your life!

I’ve taken time out of my busy schedule to help you. If I wasn’t afraid you’d be slaughtered by the return of the horse, I’d have gone back long ago.

It’s worth it to freeze here with you.”

The cold wind in the mountains was extraordinarily biting.

“If you are feeling cold, here, go pick them up on the bar, look at the material is good, it must be real silk.”

Ding Li said as Lin Mo’s gaze looked away, and his defenses were instantly broken.

“Holy crap, Lin Mo you can be a f*cking human being, asking me to pickpocket is people’s clothes to wear.”

“Then there’s no way out, you’ll just have to freeze.”

“We’re friends, you can’t bear to see me freeze.”

“Put up with it, and you’re not my friend, you little piece of sh*t.”

“f*ck ………”

The tossing of words between the two also brought a hint of life to the empty mountain forest.

Half an hour later, the crown prince, who had received the news, sent someone over in a helicopter to take away Ding Li, while as for Lin Mo, he chased after the black robe alone in the direction it had disappeared.

Lin Mo searched for a fistful of black robes, but there was still no sign of them, so he rushed back to Baiyun Village.

As soon as Lin Mo entered the door, Gan Lao came forward and asked.

“Lord Lin, what’s wrong with young Ding?”

With that he pointed to Ding Li who was wrapped in three or four layers of blankets on the bed and sneezing hard.

“It’s nothing, this one is cold and afraid of the cold, plus he’s been blown by the mountain wind for too long, he just caught a cold, just drink more hot water and he’ll be fine.”

Subconsciously, Elder Gan wanted to say, “Isn’t Lin Mo a medical saint, why isn’t he treating him?”

However, when he noticed the bad smile at the corner of Lin Mo’s mouth, he immediately dispelled this curiosity, he should not ask what he should not ask.

“Lin Mo, Ah Qiu ~ Ah Qiu”

After Ding Li sneezed several times in a row, he looked at Lin Mo with a grumbling gaze.

“Didn’t you say, Ah Qiu~, I half foot him into the coffin can be saved?”

“Hurry up and give me a cure for this D*mn cold.”
