Chapter 2971

After the loud gunshot, Gan Xing stood stunned, not daring to move, and his forehead was drenched in sweat.

He could clearly feel that the bullet had grazed his sideburns.

He was one step away from death.

At this moment, all the guards also took out their pistols from their waists and aimed at Lin Mo and the two of them in unison.

Only the crown prince, facing all this, had only disdain in his eyes, spun a gun splash and gently blew away the smoke.

“Don’t mean the young master of the Gan family, the poor marksmanship scared you.”

“Next time, I promise to be accurate!”

The icy gaze looked at the Gan family father and son as if they were two corpses again.

“You

Gan Xing was just about to retort when the sound of chiding came from beside him.

“Shut up, you accomplished and defeated thing.”

Elder Gan lifted his foot and kicked Gan Xing directly, to the ground, then he turned his head towards Yes For and chided.

“And you guys hurry up and take your guns back, get out!”

Once all the guards had left the scene, Elder Zhao immediately changed into a warm smile again.

“Young Lin come and have a seat!

The youngest child doesn’t know any better, so you are kind enough not to treat him in general.”

Saying this he personally broke over the tea and brought it to Lin Mo and the Crown Prince.

After accepting the tea, the Prince raised his eyebrows and gave Gan Xing a look, “Learn more from your father, so that you can live longer.”

Gan Xing was old enough to be the Crown Prince’s father, and now that he was being lectured by a junior, a sulk appeared on his face.

Only when he got to his father’s angry warning, he shrank back his neck again resentfully, lowering his head and no longer making only a sound.

All this Lin Mo saw in his eyes and smiled coldly.

How could such a shrewd man as Elder Gan have given birth to such a rash young man.

“The Gan family has developed rapidly this time!”

“Nowadays, the entire market of Heshan City is almost eaten up by you!”

Old man Gan’s face changed and he glared at Gan Xing with anger.

You’re the only one who’s grown a mouth, aren’t you!

“Lin Shao is overpraised, it’s all thanks to your residual light that our Gan family has been able to achieve such success.

Otherwise, on our own, we wouldn’t have reached this point even if we developed for fifty years.”

Said Elder Gan, his face written with flattery, his pale hands rubbing back and forth restlessly.

Lin Mo raised his hand and nodded at the table, “Elder Gan, you don’t need to be nervous, we are purely just paying a visit to the house.”

“After all, the office space, accommodation and other aspects of the Commerce and Martial Arts Dual Alliance are all provided by your Gan family.”

Lin Mo’s tone was sincere and did not mean to mock anything.

It was just that the more he was like this, the more Master Gan’s heart was unsettled.

That the matter of the night vine had just petered out?

When Elder Gan thought of this, he immediately dispelled this childish thought from his mind.

With a worried look, he tentatively mentioned a word.

“Young Lin, the matter of the Night Vine Gra*s, it was my momentary demons, I swear that in the future our Gan family will resolutely not touch these harmful things.”

Lin Mo smiled faintly, “I’m glad that Elder Gan has such an awareness.”

“Right, since Elder Gan mentioned the matter of the Night Vine Gra*s, I also remembered something.”

“Can Old Man Gan tell me about this Night Vine Gra*s chain of interest and exactly what forces are involved in it?”

At these words, Old Man Gan instantly blushed with embarrassment.

Seeing this, Lin Mo directly stood up, “Elder Gan is fine, only the four of us know about it at this time, I won’t let it out.”

After saying that he turned his body sideways and put his ear to it.

After a while, seeing that Elder Gan did not say anything, Lin Mo surprisingly did not have any intention of getting angry, but instead had a delighted smile.

“Alright, I understand, since Elder Gan doesn’t want to say anything, I won’t make it difficult.”

“The reason I came over today was to visit in time, since Elder Gan is unharmed, then we should also leave.”

Chapter 2972

The prince was also a little surprised at this point, originally he had thought that Lin Mo had come to the Gan family to knock them around.

He didn't expect it to end like this?

When Elder Gan received such a result, he burst into joy and smiled, and a big stone in his heart was released.

It was just that this fantastic result made him look somewhat unreal.

In particular, the calm smile on Lin Mo's face crept him out, and he felt vaguely uneasy in his heart.

“Thank you, Young Lin, for your understanding!”

Although he knew quite a few of the forces involved, he didn't dare to say anything.

The price of being a traitor was too great!

“I'll see you off, young Lin!”

Gan Lao also wished that Lin Mo had left earlier at this point, staying with him for one more second made Gan Lao feel hairy all over.

He always felt as if there was a huge butcher's knife raised high behind him, about to fall at any moment.

The three of them had not taken more than a few steps out when Lin Mo stopped in his tracks.

“Elder Gan just send it here, nowadays the development of the city of Heshan still needs to rely on your planning.”

“When the Martial Alliance office is built, I hope you can cut the ribbon with me.”

If it were in the past, Gan Lao would have been overjoyed to hear this, but now he was more just worried.

“Thank you, Young Lin, for giving our Gan family such an honour.”

When the two Lin Mo had left.

The look of surprise on Elder Gan's face instantly retracted, and was replaced by a strong look of worry.

“Father, I told you, our Gan Family is now the number one family in Heshan City.”

“And our Gan family is also the birthplace of the Double Alliance set up, so you shouldn't worry about it.”

The more Gan Xing spoke, the more proud he became, almost about to jump up and stand on the table to speak.

However, Elder Gan just glanced at him with a face full of disappointment.

“Shut up, our Gan family has gotten to where we are today by relying on the Business and Martial Arts Dual Alliance.”

“Standing on the wind, even pigs can take off.”

“You have to be clear, it wasn’t the Gan Family that made the Dual Alliance, but the Dual Alliance that made us.”

After Old Man Gan had ranted, the annoying anger in his heart was only slightly relieved.

“In the next few days, you will transfer some of the family’s property out.”

Gan Xing looked stunned, “Why?”

“You don’t need to know that much, just do as you are told.”

Gan Xing looked at such a serious face of his father and did not dare to pursue the matter, and nodded sensibly.

On the other side.

After the prince left the Gan family, he finally couldn’t hold it in anymore.

“Big brother, this old man Gan was hoarding night vine again before, and tried to set us up.

Is this matter just going to be forgotten?”

Lin Mo smiled coldly, “Count it? How can we just forget about it?”

The prince asked uncertainly, “Then why didn’t we just take action just now.”

“Just those few trash bodyguards of his, I could have killed them all by myself!”

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders and twisted his head to glance back in the direction of the Gan family.

“This Gan Family is the birthplace of our Twin Alliance after all.

If we were to overthrow them directly, it would be a bit like unloading a donkey, and it wouldn’t look good on our faces.”

“Jianghu isn’t about fighting and killing, there’s still the world of human kindness!”

The prince scratched his head, not knowing what Lin Mo was talking about at all.

“Big brother, what do you mean? So are we going to move the Gan family or not!”

This is killing and not killing again, rapacious!

“Move ah, naturally we have to move ah, just not us to make a move.”

“Forget it, I can’t explain it clearly to you in a moment, this way you help me to do a few things.”

After saying that Lin Mo then with a face full of deep meaning, he came up to the crown prince’s and whispered a few words.

The latter’s eyes grew brighter and brighter as he listened, “Crap, big brother you’re just too sinister.”

“Hey, hey, but I like it.”

A biting cold aura flashed from the prince’s eyes.

And their visit to the Gan family this time soon caused an uproar!

Chapter 2973

Ever since the Gan family formed a conflict with Lin Mo over the matter of the night vine, the eyes of many powers hit the Gan family.

Many people were waiting for Lin Mo’s attitude.

Only to their disappointment, Lin Mo did come out from inside the great mountain and did visit the Gan family in person.

However, there was no conflict, and both sides were even talking and laughing, not seeing anything unusual at all.

“This Lin Mo is really generous, being set up like this and still being able to face it so openly.”

“Yes, I mean, I originally you thought he was going to destroy the Gan family in a fit of rage.”

“It’s better to wait and see what happens, people are the masters of killing when General Hai says so.”

Along with all the chatter from the outside world, another explosive piece of news exploded.

Lin Mo’s beloved prince had just terminated four companies, all of which were over a billion in size, and the few people behind the stewardship would be sent to the Martial Union in the next few days for trial on the charge of selling night vine gra*s.

And Lin Mo directly issued a news announcement, for these four companies latest he still has sufficient information on hand.

For a while Da Qu was once again in an uproar.

Some people ridiculed Lin Mo for not measuring up to himself and trying to fight a huge chain of interests with his own strength.

Some felt that he was courageous, simply put, brave!

At the same time, Lin Mo’s mobile phone never stopped ringing, from inexplicable threatening calls, to well-meaning persuasion, to disdainful ridicule.

Even Old Master Zhao himself called.

“Lin Mo ah, you’ve made the wrong move!”

“Wealth understands people’s hearts, the night vines involve too many forces, the only way to get on board is to make a move slowly.

You are undoubtedly declaring war with them.”

As far as Zhao Nan Yue knew, the night vine matter was not only a matter of power within the Da Qu United Provinces, but even Wan Xiang, Zhen La and other neighbouring countries were involved.

Even Zhao Lao didn’t dare to harden his steel head on, but it was Lin Mo who did just that.

“Old Zhao, you don’t have to worry, don’t you still feel at ease with my work?”

“You’ll know the purpose of my move by this afternoon, well without further ado, there’s a call from Grand Elder Xuan Yuan’s side.”

After Lin Mo’s hurried call, he got through to Xuanyuan Ming again.

Without waiting for the other party to open his mouth, he snatched it up and spoke first.

“Grand Elder, you don’t need to worry about me.

It’s fine, there’s no need for additional staff, I can handle it.

Hang up hang up, another call!”

Throughout the morning, Lin Mo hadn’t put his phone down.

“Brother, why don’t I ask the newspaper to put the news out!

I just received news that some killer groups have received a bounty on your head.”

“Sister-in-law’s side has even called to ask.”

The prince suggested worriedly.

Although Lin Mo had the backing of Ambassador Zhen Yue’s identity, those heartless killers didn’t care about that.

As long as the price was given in place, they would even dare to charge the China Martial Alliance.

Lin Mo sat up as soon as he heard this proposal from the Crown Prince.

“No, let the news fester for a while, I want not only all the powers in Da Qu to know about this news.”

“Let the newspaper press them to suppress it, and release it at 5pm as agreed.”

“It’s hard to find someone to take the bullet, so we should make good use of it.”

Under the dark tide, many forces that hated Lin Mo or looked at him with displeasure began to prepare for the champagne feast.

It was only after the afternoon that a news report instantly flipped the direction of public opinion.

The Gan family.

Ever since Lin Mo had visited the Gan family once, he had become even more worried and the gloom in his heart had become thicker and thicker.

Especially when he heard that Lin Mo had taken out the four banks, that strong uneasiness was instantly pushed to the extreme.

It was like a knife blade in the back.

“What the hell is this Lin Mo up to on the ground?”

After muttering a sentence, he slowly lifted his cup of tea with a frown, yet just as he was about to bring it to his mouth, the sound of hurried footsteps suddenly came from within the corridor.

“Father, something’s wrong.”

Chapter 2974

Old man Gan’s face instantly fell as he looked at the news that had been topped within his phone.

The content was simple, but the two photos within that news were like two sharp knives stabbing viciously into the heart of the Gan family.

One was a scene of two people exchanging words, while the other was a scene of Gan Lao’s excited face as he sent Lin Mo off.

“Good, good, good!”

“Good for you Lin Mo, good move to kill the heart.”

Old man Gan stared at his phone with a deadly gaze, his body trembling uncontrollably.

At this moment, his red face coupled with that thick breathing was like that of a wild wolf on the verge of death.

The Gan Xing next to him was also the first time he had seen his old man look like this, and for a while he was also a little overwhelmed by the shock.

“Father Father?”

After old man Gan heard the call, he gradually slowed down.

After looking at his foolish son, and then at the Gan family which was as strong as ever, he exhaled a foul breath helplessly.

His expression also changed from anger to despondency.

After sitting back down in despair, his face was full of remorse and helplessness.

“The Gan family is finished!”

.....

Once this piece of news report came out, it immediately triggered endless reverie among the crowd.

“So it was the Gan family that leaked the news of those four companies selling Night Mantle.”

“I just said, the Gan family has set up Lin Mo like this, but the Double Alliance hasn’t even kicked him out.

It turns out that the Gan family was the mole!”

“It seems that the Gan family has completely submitted to Lin Mo, so the other forces associated with Night Mantis will have a hard time sleeping and eating.”

“I think the Gan family is going to be cold by then, this kind of anti-water move will definitely be retaliated against.”

All of a sudden the winds of public opinion fell in favour of the Gan family.

The main reason was that the timing of Lin Mo’s strikes against those four companies was too ambiguous, and coupled with Lin Mo’s attitude towards the Gan family’s handling of the situation, one had to wonder about the hidden agenda.

In the meantime, Lin Mo was leisurely enjoying Elder Zhao’s compliments.

“Good boy, you’re really something.

In this way, you are both deterring those forces and showing the butcher’s knife.

And at the same time shifted the conflict to the Gan family.”

“Amazing, I was almost fooled by you.”

Zhao Nan Yue finally knew why Lin Mo had the backbone to suddenly strike out at Night Mamoru.

By portraying the Gan family as an informer, the hatred of those forces in the chain of interests associated with Night Mamoru towards the Gan family must have beaten Lin Mo.

Lin Mo smiled lightly, “Old man Zhao has overstated his case, if I don’t make use of the fact that people have come up to me, I would be doing them a disservice.”

This was the reason why he didn’t move the Gan family, and even welcomed them with a smile.

What a good shield!

And after this incident since then, the Gan family had become a completely unreliable wallflower.

Shortly after hanging up the phone, the Crown Prince brought news again.

“Big brother, there are already quite a few forces in the outside world that are now targeting the Gan family.

Many of the forces that had previously worked with them are slowly starting to clear their ties with the Gan Family.”

This Gan Family first made false accusations against Lin Mo, and then betrayed other peers, this kind of person who has one thing on the surface and another behind the scenes, who would dare to work with him, there was no guarantee that he would sell you out that day.

“In addition, many people among the merchant alliance have started to propose that the Gan family should withdraw from the double alliance.

And change the handling of all cooperation projects with the city of Shan.”

“Big brother, what do you think?”

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders, “What do I think? Just sit back and watch.”

“All the proposals were all knocked back, now the Gan family is a loyal partner of our Martial Alliance.

Not only should they not be allowed to withdraw, but if you can, increase your support for the Gan family.”

“We treat our friends in an extremely friendly manner!”

The prince grinned, “I understand, big brother.”

The friendlier they were to the Gan family, the more outsiders would think that the Gan family was a mole.

If they didn't use this good shield, would they keep it for the New Year?

Chapter 2975

It can be said that Lin Mo's operation has completely hammered the Gan family into the dirt, the kind that will never be reversed.

The reputation of a traitor had already been branded on the Gan family's body.

Ninety per cent of the companies that had been working with the Gan family withdrew in just one night.

But the twin alliances continue to support the Gan family, and almost all of the infrastructure projects in the city of Heshan have fallen to the Gan family.

And for the sake of the family's interest in development, Master Gan had to take on these projects even if he didn't.

Even though he knows that this is a process of boiling a frog in warm water, it is a deadlock, and he simply cannot break free.

On the other hand, Lin Mo does have a good reputation of being open-minded and broad-minded, so this is a very nice thing to do!

At the same time, a grand banquet was being held thousands of miles away in Wanxiang.

The Hillingdon Hotel, as one of the top hotels in the Vientiane Country, has been completely love scene tonight.

As night fell, the starry coloured lights on the façade of the one hundred other storey high building were lit up, echoing the bright moon hanging high in the sky.

Downstairs, hundreds of formally dressed receptionists were ready and lined the red carpet.

All of them were handsome and beautiful.

As the lights flickered, a top-of-the-range luxury car slowly drove in to the awe of pa*sers-by.

“What’s up with this Hillingdon Hotel today, it’s so luxuriously decorated.”

“It seems to say that the Grand Prince is hosting a dinner party and ordered the hotel to be cleared out half a month ago.”

“Wow look guys, superstar Milly eh, so beautiful.”

“And my love Dals, so handsome.”

“Dals we love you

Under a burst of enthusiastic shouting, several of Vientiane’s most popular superstars either waved enthusiastically in greeting, lifted their skirts in salute, or flew a kiss in response, which immediately drew a burst of screams.

However, at that moment, a purple flowing dress got out of the car.

Seeing this noisy scene, she couldn’t help but frown, and when she pa*sed a few superstars, she deliberately slowed down her pace.

Although her face and figure were no match for the several popular actresses, her noble aura was one that suppressed several people to death.

“Mind your status, inviting you over is purely to give you face.

It’s not for you to come here for a fan meeting!”

“Drum roll!”

The whole time she just gave a few people a cold glance, with a look of disdain and disgust written all over her face.

Dals’ eyes narrowed and his brow revealed a few wisps of pique.

But just as he was about to make a sarcastic remark, his eyes suddenly caught sight of the pendant on the woman’s chest.

The royal star, a piece of jewellery that only members of the royal family are entitled to wear.

When Dals saw it, the anger in his heart disappeared and he smiled fawningly.

“Sorry Your Highness, this is a matter that we have been abrupt.”

He bent down in a gentlemanly manner to apologise, but the other party did not respond to him, leaving a cold snort before stepping away.

“Who is this ugly woman? Such an arrogant attitude.”

Millie asked with a face full of atmosphere after the woman had walked away.

Dals looked back at her and with a sullen look on his face he spoke towards a few of his companions.

“The royal family, I have a number of degrees in my mind, except for this one I have not met.

If I’m not wrong, she is the hot new crown princess Yin Xiao Anaconda that has been rumoured recently!”

Waiting for such an answer, since the face instantly turned white.

Even if they lived out of the sky, they could fall from the top of the mountain to the bottom of the valley with just one word from this royal concubine.

And they also understood that they had been invited purely for the sake of appearances.

Who are the people who come and go, who are not rich and powerful?

With this in mind, several of the biggest stars walked resentfully into the splendid Hillingdon Hotel.

Chapter 2976

When Yin Xiao Anaconda stepped into the hotel, the Grand Prince, the Third Prince, the Sixth Prince and a few other big names were already waiting here.

Yin Xiao Anaconda was the highest presence at this banquet, both in terms of seniority and status.

“Greetings to the Queen Mother!”

“Greetings, Your Highness!”

After Yin Xiao Anaconda and the Grand Prince exchanged a glance, the corners of their mouths slightly curled up.

“Just make yourselves comfortable, I’m just a guest of His Highness Jia Wen today too.

Everyone doesn’t need to be so polite.”

With an arrogant air, she waved her hand towards everyone.

Since the only daughter of that broken family, the Yin family, had now become an unparalleled royal concubine, even most of the mega-rich and powerful people at the scene were not even qualified to come forward to say hello, and could only admire from afar.

It was at this moment that Yin Xiaoran scanned the room before suddenly settling her gaze on a man.

This man was very tall and stout, especially his pectoral muscles, which looked as if they were about to burst out of his clothes.

Unfortunately due to the fact that the man’s general cheeks were covered by a mask, only half of his handsome cheeks could be seen.

Of course this was not the focus of Yin Xiao Anaconda's attention, what caught his attention the most was the man's peculiar gaze.

There was a strong tenderness in his attachment, and his eyes were filled with tears, making him look extraordinarily sad.

Yin Xiao Anaconda's unusual behaviour naturally attracted the attention of the others as well.

The First Prince coughed lightly to ease the embarrassment.

"Mother's dinner is not far off, let's go up."

After Yin Xiao Anaconda returned to her senses, she withdrew her gaze and nodded lightly.

After stepping into the lift, the Grand Prince skimmed her and introduced her with an intentional tone.

"That man is the son of the Minister of Border Affairs, Zat Baiha."

"This man was previously on good terms with his second sister, but later thought that he had lost a fight with Da Quo Lin Mo, and his face was attacked by snake poison, disfiguring half of his face."

Mentioning this matter he could clearly feel Yin Xiao Boa's body tremble and his face turned iron blue.

"What's wrong?"

The Grand Prince mentioned it knowingly.

He knew of Yin Xiao Anaconda's deep blood feud with Lin Mo, and at this moment, he deliberately mentioned this matter just to tell Yin Xiao Anaconda that this Zat Baiha was someone who could be used.

Yin Xiao Anaconda closed her eyes and shook her head indifferently, "It's fine."

The reason why she paid special attention to Zat Baikha was purely because of the different feelings in this man's eyes.

How can I put it, the feeling was like a child seeing a long-lost relative.

And after a twinkle in his eye, the Grand Prince added with a playful face.

"This person had a good relationship with the second sister before, you know, that kind of relationship."

At these words, Yin Xiao Boa instantly blushed.

She already knew all the members of the royal family, as well as the information of the important ministers.

The meaning of the Grand Prince's words was certainly clear to her.

"Jiawen, you can eat your food, but you can't talk nonsense.

I am not that hungry second sister of yours, I hope you will mind your manners."

Yin Xiao Anaconda's thought to herself that even if she had to commit herself to another man of the King of Kings, it would only make Wen Qiang.

Beside her, the Grand Prince glanced at her indifferently, the corners of his mouth lifting slightly while his eyes slowly narrowed.

“Who gave you the courage to call me by my real name?”

“I can give you the peerless glory of throwing you into the abyss.”

With that he reached out his fingers and gently cupped Yin Xiao Anaconda’s chin.

“Recognize who you are! Lady Yin Xiao Anaconda!”

Although his face was calm, the hostility was already revealed in his gaze.

However, Yin Xiao Anaconda did not even show the slightest fear and directly shook off the Grand Prince’s palm.

“Is that so?”

“Then I also hope you are clear that we are gra*shoppers on the same rope.”

“I am in partnership with you, not your puppet.”

Chapter 2977

With a slight sway, the lift arrived at the top floor ballroom.

When the lift doors opened, the dreary atmosphere within it instantly dissipated.

The two of them, Yin Xiao Boa and the Grand Prince, also once again changed into false smiles.

“Mother, a million thanks for coming to my banquet, please!”

Yin Xiao Anaconda nodded with a gentle smile, and then elegantly walked out of the lift.

Behind her, the Grand Prince’s gaze suddenly deepened as he looked at her back.

It was true that a woman who could be so favoured by her father must not be simple.

But that was good, he preferred the smart and decisive Yin Xiao Anaconda to a stupid woman.

In one corner of the banquet, Zatvanliu hastily pulled his son down into the common room.

“You’re crazy, staring at the princess like that in public, if the king knew about it, you,, you,,”

At the end of his sentence he suddenly stuttered, but Zat Baikha did not notice this.

“Father, this new princess looks like my late mother, don’t you see that?”

“This

Zatvanliu suddenly paused, having been mentioned by his son like that, his face also slowly surfaced in his mind, except that more than twenty years had pa*sed and the memory was completely blurred.

Zat Baiha felt even more perverse when he looked at him like this.

“Father can you tell me exactly how my mother died?”

The tears in Zat Baiha’s eyes could no longer be stretched and instantly broke down, his body trembling and sobbing slightly.

And by now he had an additional photograph in his hand.

The woman in the photograph was young, a first-class beauty at the time.

And the most coincidental thing was that this woman was indeed a seventh acquaintance of Yin Xiao Anaconda.

And that was why Zat Baikha was staring straight at Boa.

“You,,, where did you get this from?”

A look of disbelief was written all over Zat Wanliu’s face.

Hadn’t all of this woman’s information been destroyed?

Zat Baikha did not answer positively, but just told herself.

“Ever since the day I understood, whenever I asked about my mother, my father always put the question off by saying that she died in childbirth.”

“But while I searched all the files for any information on my mother at all, he was surprised to find that all information on her identity seemed to have evaporated, as if the person had never existed in the world.”

“Father, how on earth did my mother die?”

At the end of his sentence, his glazed eyes were already covered with blood, and his fierce eyes looked as if they were about to eat someone, full of violence and anger.

If he hadn’t seen Yin Xiao Boa he would have buried this moment in his heart, but now that emotion had inexplicably exploded.

Under his step-by-step pressure, Zat Wanliu knew he could not avoid it and could only let out a long, helpless sigh, the wrinkles at the corners of his eyes deepening a little.

If Zat Baikha was left to search for information on his own, even if he found the truth, he would still be dead for a day, so it would be better to tell him the truth instead.

“Hey, originally I thought I could hide it from you for the rest of my life, but you found out anyway.”

“Let me tell you a story!”

“Once upon a time there was a lady-in-waiting who, because of her good looks, was taken in by His Majesty today.

After a night of clouds and rain, the matter was supposed to be over.”

“But unfortunately, the maid became pregnant, which may have been good news for the princess, but for the maid, it was a disaster.”

It was a tragedy that a servant girl with no power and no backing was pregnant with a royal heir.

If it was a daughter, it would be no big deal, but if it was a prince, it would be the end of the maid and her child.

Chapter 2978

Zat Baiha's mind had already made a guess when he heard this.

"And then?"

Zatvanliu closed his eyes feebly, "Then His Majesty could not bear to have his own bloodline killed, or perhaps His Majesty had an invitation for the maid."

"And so it came to pass that I was sent to protect the lady-in-waiting until after the successful birth of an heir, and then His Majesty would receive her back to the palace."

"However, the world is unpredictable, and that year, after a bloody battle, His Majesty was seriously injured and the princes, taking advantage of the situation, sent a large number of experts to kill the lady-in-waiting."

"I was limited in my ability, and with many attempts at pressure could only secretly make a swap of my newborn child with them."

"Unfortunately, in the end, the royal bloodline was preserved, but the maidservant finally did not escape this fate."

After hearing this Zat Baiha's body slowly trembled.

"So, I am the child of that maid of honour, am I?"

Zatvanliu nodded with a complicated expression.

"Yes, you are the fourth prince who died young!"

"I would not have wanted to tell you if I had not been afraid that you would invite calamity upon yourself by investigating deeper."

Zat Baiha's pupils instantly dilated several times, and his face had a complicated expression, one of excitement and grief, both happy and sad.

It was also at that moment that a silhouette suddenly flashed in his mind.

At that moment, his aura became violent and his expression became incomparably fierce, just like a demon from hell.

"If that's the case, why are you still trying to fool me into approaching the Second Princess, that is my half-sister."

With a roar, Zat Baikha grabbed the other man by the collar and lifted him in mid-air.

The thought of it made him feel sick to his stomach.

Yet Zatvanliu only smiled slightly in the face of Zatbaiha's rage.

"This is for your protection, you have been watched by countless eyes from the time you were born.

As you grew older, your face gradually began to resemble that of His Majesty."

"In order to ease their concerns and to protect you, I could only do this.

His Majesty's decree at the beginning was simply that I should protect you well as you grew up and live a million lives in abundance!"

Hearing this, Zat Baikha's expression calmed down considerably, and after he had put Zat Wanliu down, he straightened his clothes again.

"I'm sorry father, I was too impulsive!"

The sound of a father had said a lot.

Zatvanliu also wore a look of surprise.

"Your Highness, you also want to fight for the throne?"

A confident smile appeared on Zat Baikha's face, and a seed of ambition instantly broke through the ground in his heart.

"Since I have an entrance ticket to the throne, it is only natural that I should fight for it!

Whether it's for revenge or for that supreme glory, I'll have to fight for it."

"So, Father, you will help me, won't you?"

In a calm tone, Renzatvanliu felt a shiver run down his spine.

Was this the power of the royal bloodline, once the heart of power was awakened it was at his fingertips.

He looked into Zat Baikha's deep and violent eyes and knelt down without any hesitation.

"I am willing to serve Your Highness in the form of thorns and briars!"

He knew that if he refused, he would only die.

Zat Baiha laughed and immediately held the other man's arms: "Father, what are you doing, we are father and son."

"Even if I ascend the throne in the future, you will still exist as the father of the nation."

Zatvanliu felt that a huge pie was forming before his eyes, but it was a pie he had to eat.

After standing up he pondered for a moment, organising himself quickly in his mind, and then spoke out.

"Your Highness, you are now too far behind the other princes, but we also have an advantage, we are then in the dark they are in the light, we can slowly gather strength and develop peacefully"

Chapter 2979

After arriving at the banquet again, Zat Baikha's aura had completely changed.

After Zat Wanliu's analysis, he had understood his future direction.

Moreover, the disfigured face that had been a source of pain for him had now become a life-saving talisman.

"Grand Prince, the main purpose of today's banquet is to bring down Lin Mo."

The Minister of Boundary Affairs reminded him of this and then put on a warm smile and joined in the mingling banquet.

This was also a time of good cheer.

Sometimes the nobler the venue, the nastier the underbelly.

Of course, a deal is often struck.

Zat Baikha used to love these dinners, and after a few glasses of wine, it was time to find his prey, sometimes getting several noblewomen or ladies in one night.

Now he had no such intention, and after a distant glance at Yin Xiao Anaconda in the main guest seat, a deep smile appeared on his lips.

"Life is supposed to be colourful."

After murmuring a few words, he politely declined an invitation to the dance floor from an actress and turned around to follow his nominal father into the social circle.

When the dancing stopped, the Grand Prince took a golden spoon and tapped it against the glasses.

The whole party fell silent for a moment.

"I thank you all for your kindness in attending the King's dinner, and ask for your understanding if you have been poorly entertained."

These were all just cosmetic words, and under the watchful eyes of the crowd and may, the Grand Prince coughed lightly before he began to speak formally.

"I believe that everyone has already heard a little about the matter of Lin Mo releasing this dog, the Gan family, or disrupting the market and falsely accusing good merchants."

He did not mention the slightest bit about the matter of night vines, and the reason for his condemnation was righteous.

Once these words were spoken, many people present instantly understood and their brows could not help but frown slightly.

"Hmph, just a yellow-haired kid, relying on the Martial Alliance to back him up to act recklessly."

"He's just a mantis, if he dares to set foot in Da Qu, I'll make him die without a burial place."

“When I come with empty hands, I will hire killers to make the brat stay in Da Qu forever.”

The few people who were shouting were all profiteers of the night vine, and profiteers at that.

The original perfect leek harvesting market had seen their profits shrink with some of Lin Mo’s suppression initiatives.

The Daju market, in particular, has seen no small shakeup.

Cutting off people’s money was like killing their parents, so they were naturally filled with ill feelings towards Lin Mo.

On the other hand, Tege was just about to say something, but he was directly stopped by Third Prince Jiadre.

“It’s just a dirt dog and a wild chicken barking wildly, don’t mind them.”

Lin Mo’s identity as the Amba*sador of Zhen Yue, even the Grand Prince did not dare to act rashly, this group of wealthy merchants rely on having a few money, and justifiably have their tails up in the air.

They don’t think they are capable of doing anything.

“They are just a bunch of dogs for big brother, let’s just watch the show and see what my big brother has to say!”

With a sneer on his lips, Eye Bijadre closed his eyes again, unconcerned with the commotion around him.

After a moment of shouting on the floor, the Grand Prince raised his hand to gesture.

“Everyone settle down for a moment, I have called everyone here for this matter.”

“He, Lin Mo, has gone so far as to destroy the market for no reason, so naturally, those of us in business cannot just ignore it.”

Here we go!

At these words, everyone pricked up their ears and waited intently for what the Grand Prince would say next.

After the prince looked around the group, a murderous look emerged on his face.

“This time, I intend to send a brigade of armed forces towards the border of the Great Qu United Province to seal off the transportation of building materials from Lin Mo.”

As the words fell, the whole room was silent, and as they looked at each other, a look of surprise appeared on the faces of the people.

The power of one brigade seemed to be a bit petty.

Chapter 2980

“Grand Prince, isn’t that just a little too many men?”

The 8,000-strong brigade was indeed an extremely strong battle force for the people on the spot.

But when placed at the border, it was a bit petty.

The Grand Prince looked stunned, but then there was a bite of his head.

“It can’t be helped, although my father has agreed to my operation this time, all the funds have to be spent by myself.”

“As you all know, this is the only meal I have under my name here at the Hillingdon Hotel, so , , , , , ”

Although the words were only half spoken, the meaning of them was already clear, just short of reaching out for money.

Facing each other, the crowd instantly stopped talking.

It’s fine to watch the fun, but talking about money would hurt your feelings.

Although the Grand Prince only had one super five-star hotel under his name, the plutocrats behind him were all giants with assets in the tens of billions.

No money? You’re kidding!

In an instant, the whole party fell into an awkward silence.

The Grand Prince had obviously anticipated this scene, and as he flicked his gaze, a bloated wealthy businessman stepped forward in the crowd.

As soon as the others saw him, they felt bad, wasn’t this the Grand Prince’s loyal lapdog?

“Your Highness, we, the Wanxiang Rubber Group, would like to offer 300 million in cash to fill in a small amount for Your Highness’s operation.”

The words fell the major wealthy businessmen present instantly blackened their faces.

This dog was really up to no good.

The Grand Prince, on the other hand, smiled brightly.

“The Fanst family is certainly generous, this favour is noted by this king.”

The Sixth Prince, who was watching the show from the side, couldn’t stop sneering.

“Humph, what an ugly face to eat.”

The one who gives money is remembering the favour, and the one who doesn’t is holding a grudge.

Some of them went forward to express their feelings, while others looked at the Sixth Prince and the Third Prince, and only after receiving instructions did they go forward to speak.

The only exception was Kells, son of the Minister of Finance, and a few other companions.

They were laughing and joking with their red wine, but they didn't take his words to heart as they glanced at the movement of the Grand Prince.

These people hold the super plutocrat family of the Wanxiang Kingdom with hundreds of years of history, the super predator that holds the economic lifeline of this Wanxiang Kingdom.

Even many financial matters under the kingdom's name had to look at the faces of these families.

Naturally, the Grand Prince did not dare to offend them, and after glancing at each other, a trace of coldness flashed across his gaze, which he then concealed.

The money collection operation continued in an orderly manner.

In just ten minutes, over ten billion dollars of 'support' funds were received.

The Grand Prince also generously said that he would send three majestic brigades to the border at all times to carry out operations to stifle Lin Mo's development.

"Rest assured, gentlemen, this time I will definitely make Lin Mo go back to China in disgrace."

The scarlet wine glass was raised high, and the crowd echoed.

A plan against Lin Mo was tentatively set in motion, and the banquet came to an end.

"Your Highness, the Grand Prince knows that we have a good relationship with Lin Mo, why did he invite us?"

Tege asked, holding the steering wheel with both hands, towards the latter's Gadre.

Normally this kind of thing was done quietly, but the Grand Prince had gone the other way, with a high profile.

"Showing off his muscles, and trying to knock the other princes around by the way.

And haven't you noticed, he looks at me as if he wants to eat us up."

"He's still holding a grudge from the Haikou Island thing!"

Tege nodded before asking again, "This matter should not be notified to Mr. Lin Mo."

"It's too late for that now, my third brother is much more diligent than us!"

"But a little superficiality is still in order, give Lin Mo a call!"
