

Genius 3021

Chapter 3021

Lin Mo Yi then listened to Song Zhilan's explanation as he flew through the thick material.

As he folded his hands, his face turned iron blue.

"They're trying to fight a blitzkrieg to disrupt the market along the coast of our country of China and reap huge profits from it."

Song Zhilan nodded in agreement, "That's right!"

"First, they are using the name of the construction and development projects in the Wanxiang country to smash orders like crazy."

"And these companies will not only expand their factories in order to meet the orders, but what they don't know is that those equipment manufacturers labeled as Western names are actually Wanxiang Guo in disguise."

This is still only the first move of the Vientiane Country's transnational agency.

As the major enterprises frantically broaden their production, a steady stream of products will be wildly exported from the assembly line.

Enterprises as well as manufacturers have put their fortunes into expanding production, and as long as those multinational agents stop purchasing, a large amount of products will then be backlogged in the warehouse.

This side is a thunderstorm.

That's when the stagnation pattern will be completely formed.

And when they can't support themselves, the multinational agents change their identities and buy the stagnant products at ultra-low prices.

It's a double whammy!

The more Lin Mo thought about it, the more he felt his scalp tingling, this was a completely desperate plan, not giving those companies a chance to live at all.

"Is there any way to quietly go and contact those enterprises without the knowledge of the Wanxiang country side?"

Song Zhilan cringed without, first nodding and then shaking her head.

"It's possible, but you know that."

Those people have already earned red eyes, plus many of their personal families have pressed on."

"It's hard to get them to stop and it's too inefficient."

People who are in business are actually no different from gamblers, once they get on top, they are the kind that won't stop until they die.

As Lin Mo listened to Song Zhilan's analysis, the speed of his fingers tapping on the desktop became more and more intensive.

The atmosphere in the office also became increasingly dull.

After contemplating for a while, he exhaled a heavy breath of turbid air.

"Then hurry up and put this news out, and these evidential materials are posted up in one go."

"Since they're not willing to stop we'll force them to do so."

If it was possible Lin Mo didn't want to make this kind of decision of a fish death net, but one more day of delay in today's form, the more businesses would fall when the thunderstorm hit.

"Also summon everyone from the Da Qu Commercial Union online and call a video conference!"

Song Zhilan made a hand signal and then immediately made contact.

Five minutes later, Song Zhilan had the news at hand, after the propaganda from the Cloud Creation Group as well as the newspaper.

The news of the smashed bill forgery quickly spread through the industry.

When some perceptive entrepreneurs learned of this news, they made an immediate decision and immediately called a halt to production and dumped all the stock on hand.

The multinational agents were not stupid either, and were outwardly pulling the wool over the eyes of their Chinese suppliers, explaining themselves one by one.

At the same time, they have stepped up their foolishness to continue production.

But secretly, they had already terminated all cooperation.

By the next day, those hesitant, hindsight manufacturers, only then found out that they had really been fooled.

Looking at the mountains of products in the warehouse, their hearts were ashes.

Song Zhilan had an extra copy of the new material on her hands.

"They're fast! Our message was released, and those who crossed the border to bring away, then acted quickly."

Lin Mo shook his head, facing this kind of capital war, the slightest inattention would be blood and treasure!

"How's the situation?"

"It's not good, the companies that have been counted to be affected currently number two hundred and sixty-seven."

Of these, only twenty-nine are running fast and making profits.”

“The rest are all those who have been pitched, and if we estimate conservatively, those agents in the Wanxiang country have made nearly twenty billion dollars from this transfer.”

“And that’s even if we call a halt to it!”

Chapter 3022

March 28, 2022

The economic blitzkrieg was fought very quickly, and in a little over half a month’s time, Wanxiang’s multinational agent had implemented the mine-laying plan completely.

Although Song Zhilan revealed it in time, many manufacturers as well as enterprises were considered to have stopped their losses.

However, in the face of the piles of banks, a group of entrepreneurs were also crying out for help.

Bashar Divine Mountain, White Dew Plain.

Immediately after Lin Mo had instructed his wife on her cultivation, he came to Song Zhilan’s office.

“Sister Zhi Lan, how is the situation?”

When Song Zhilan heard the movement, she slowly lifted her head, and above her haggard cheeks, faint dark circles under her eyes were very obvious!

When Lin Mo saw her appearance, his face was pulled back: “You didn’t sleep all night yesterday?”

“I was lost for a little while, let’s not dwell on that first, pour me a cup of coffee to refresh my mind.”

Song Zhilan said, while snorting.

Lin Mo shook his head helplessly and turned towards the coffee machine.

“Why do you have to work so hard? It’s fine to leave some things to your subordinates.”

“And you’ve only just healed from this.”

The grey-brown coffee fell slowly through the guide and into the porcelain cup.

“Here, be careful of the heat!”

Song Zhilan took the cup and directly rolled her eyes, “Sister is still young still can survive for a few more years.”

After saying that, she gently blew the foam on the surface and after taking a few sips, her face was full of enjoyment.

“It’s true that staying up late and coffee go best together.”

“Is this stuff that good?”

Lin Mo asked suspiciously as he watched Song Zhilan's expression, driven by curiosity, he also took a cup.

After entering his mouth, the burnt and bitter taste went straight to his brain.

"Yuck!"

"Hahahaha, this stuff is for adults to drink, what's the hilarity for a little kid like you to get involved."

Lin Mo had nothing to say in the face of such ridicule, perhaps he really wasn't suited for this stuff.

"Nuo, this is a Qing Ling Dan, although it can't refresh your mind, it can detoxify the toxins accumulated in your body from staying up all night.

It also has the effect of whitening and removing dullness."

As soon as Song Zhilan heard this, his eyes lit up, yet just as he was about to reach out to take it, Lin Mo quickly retracted his arm again.

"Let me first state haha, although there is this elixir, you don't want to stay up all night all the time."

"Che!"

Song Zhilan nudged her mouth and took advantage of Lin Mo's speech to get up and directly snatch the small porcelain vial over.

"Bring it to you!"

Of course this was deliberate on Lin Mo's part!

"Sister asked you, if the Martial Union were to suffer a big change right now, and if the Martial Union had to be disbanded if it wasn't dealt with within three days, would you stay up all night?"

Lin Mo subconsciously nodded his head.

If there was a major crisis in the Martial Union, being said to stay up all night, staying up for his life he would be on.

"That's not it, you're afraid that you're not a Chinese Chinese-famous double standard.

You can do this yourself, but not me, you can't be too double standard."

Although Song Zhilan was making a joke, Lin Mo heard a different meaning.

"Is the situation already this serious?"

At the mention of this matter, Song Zhilan's face also became serious.

"It's not really serious, I guess, only that the means of completion are a bit disgusting."

"The Wanxiang country's side had already started laying out half a year ago.

Including my Yunchuang Group, hundreds of companies of all sizes have been infiltrated by them into the funds."

Song Zhilan tapped her ten fingers on the keyboard quickly, and after pressing the enter key, a huge and complicated chart appeared on top of the screen.

“The way they finished the set is very dirty!”

“For those powerful enterprises, they choose to hold their ground, and as the share price rises, they can make a fortune.”

“And for those sunset companies, they choose to smash the market and play them completely to collapse.

Eventually buying them out at a low price!”

“So that means forehandedly and backhandedly they all make a profit!”

Lin Mo looked at a large piece of data in front of him, and his brows gradually furrowed.

His mind raced to think of a way to break the game.

Chapter 3023

There is a time when people are at the end of their rope.

The more Lin Mo thought about it, the deeper his frown became.

Song Zhilan at the side saw him looking like this and hurriedly spoke up.

“This matter, you don’t need to worry too much.”

“China’s financial market has been stable for so many years, so it naturally has its roots in place.

If it is really stirred up by those plutocrats in the Wanxiang country, then it is also because they are incompetent.”

“Those family forces, the Chamber of Commerce Alliance will have a way to deal with it.”

“You won’t have to think much about it!”

Lin Mo also felt some sense after hearing this, even if he was strong, he was only one person after all.

General against general, soldier against soldier!

In a serious and severe form, someone would naturally go back to deal with it.

There was still a whole lot of things that had not been dealt with in the Da Qu United Provinces in front of one’s own eyes.

“By the way, is there any follow-up action from those transnational agents of Wanxiang?”

“Yes, how could there be none!”

Xu Hanxia finished the coffee in her hand in one gulp and drew out a document in her hand.

“They’re arrogant as hell, approaching the door openly and planning to make purchases at a super low tenth of the price.”

After a cursory glance, Lin Mo asked doubtfully, “Those merchants can agree?”

“What can they do if they don’t agree, such a large inventory is simply too big for their own people to eat.

Either they smash it into their own hands and wait for it to close down, or they will meekly agree.”

“The form is forced, this is also a lesson!”

Lin Mo nodded, “That’s true!”

“Let me contact Jiade Lie later!”

“Their Wanxiang Kingdom has made such a big fuss, there must be someone behind it!”

This matter was resolved, but since there was the first time going forward, there must be other schemes and tricks.

Da Qu could be chaotic, but the market could not collapse.

However, before he could make a call, the Sixth Prince contacted him first.

“How are you doing these days, young Lin?”

I haven’t seen you for a long time, let’s have some tea sometime!”

Hearing the other party’s joyful tone, Lin Mo’s eyes twinkled: “Princess Baiina, pregnant?”

“Hahahaha, that’s not true?”

“You didn’t see the wonderful expressions of big brother, third brother and the rest of them, it’s simply perfect.”

“Besides, Father is overjoyed to learn that he is going to be a grandfather.

When the time comes, you must come to the child’s full moon reception too!”

Rambling on for half a day.

Lin Mo could feel Jia De Lie’s heart full of joy even through the phone.

“Congratulations!”

“By the way, let me ask you something!”

Without waiting for him to open his mouth, Jiade Lie spoke directly, “Do you want to ask about the night vine, or the recent big move in the market.”

“What do you think! Children only make choices!”

“Brother Lin, it’s not that I don’t want to tell you!”

The Sixth Prince's originally joyful tone suddenly began to turn sullen.

"The water here is too deep, let's just put it to you like this."

"The Wanxiang royal family today is in chaos! It's either get to the top or die!

The various camps have entered a tug-of-war."

"So anyone who is qualified to fight for the throne has started hoarding their strength like crazy, including my father too.

Do you understand what I mean?"

As the words fell, both of them fell silent.

Only after a long time did Lin Mo's calm voice ring out again, "I understand!"

"Brother Lin, I will always remember your kindness, and I will definitely help out if I need to provide assistance."

The phone, hung up!

Lin Mo looked at the phone in his hand and did not look up for a long time.

Jia De Lie's was also already very obvious.

Whether it was the business of the night vine or the recent chaos in the market, the entire royal family, the entire Wanxiang Zaibatsu and the family forces were all involved in it, both explicitly and implicitly.

Including Jiade Lie as well.

Of course Lin Mo could understand that, as the Sixth Prince had said, it was either get to the top or die.

But understandable, not unexpectedly acceptable!

"Looks like there's going to be an adjustment to the plan!"

Chapter 3024

March 29, 2022

The top of the sacred mountain, along the cliff.

A green shadow in a long green dress crosses her knees, her eyes gently closed!

In front of her is a ten-thousand-foot cliff, and in the distance are the rolling hills.

In contrast, Green Shadow's back looked a little lonely, with only a cactus for company at her trial.

"Lin Mo brother, come all come why turn back again!"

Between the trees, Lin Mo's face was embarrassed, and after some hesitation he still walked out.

"Is there something brother Lin Mo wants to see me about?"

After Green Shadow got up, she looked at Lin Mo with a crooked head with two little dimples and a smile on her face.

All her happiness seemed to be reserved for this man in front of her, including all the smiles.

Lin Mo looked at the familiar yet unfamiliar face in front of him and for a moment did not know what to say.

The two of them just stared at each other in silence, as if they both had something to say and didn't know how to say it.

"I'm going to take a trip out of the mountain!"

"Will it take long to get out of the air?"

"It'll take a few days, I guess, and I've recently been invited by members of the Business Alliance and a large group of wealthy businessmen over in China to go ahead and host a meeting?"

"You can skip it!"

The green shadow looked straight at Lin Mo, with a different kind of emotion in his eyes.

Lin Mo sighed and shrugged his shoulders helplessly, "I know what they're inviting me for."

"But ah, there are still some things that someone has to step in."

"Da Qu can be chaotic, but it can't fall apart!"

Green Shadow suddenly puffed out a smile as she listened, "Hee hee, brother Lin Mo, just say what you have to say."

"Back in the day, when you were at the Morrow Street Inn, you had at least saved my life!"

Just talking about this matter, her original smiling face appeared a little darker.

At that time, hers was still in the state of a little green shadow, and at that time, although she was seriously injured, she was able to burrow into Lin Mo's arms and pamper him with impunity.

Lin Mo scratched his head, "That counts, even without me back then, you wouldn't have been in any danger."

"That's not true, brother Lin Mo did save me!"

"Er"

Lin Mo originally thought of explaining a few words, but seeing Green Shadow's eager and serious expression, he stopped his words.

"Then it is the grace of saving your life!"

Green Shadow's eyebrows arched and a bright smile appeared on her face once again, as happy as a child who had acquired a new toy.

Lin Mo actually wanted to tell her clearly!

But he was afraid that if he opened his mouth, he would completely hurt the other party!

He had never understood this before, but now that he did, he didn't know how to deal with it.

"Green Shadow, after I go down the mountain, can I trouble you to help take care of my people?"

"Does brother Lin Mo mean, sister Hanxia?"

She was smart enough to instantly guess what Lin Mo had in mind.

"Don't worry, the uncles and uncles on the mountain and the grandfathers are very kind-hearted and won't hurt Sister Hanxia."

"Of course, father won't either, I don't think he will."

Said she, her eyes skimming absently deep into the woods!

"Little girl, what kind of person uses her own father to make a stand!"

You Li, who had been watching this side, turned around with an effort to nuzzle and disappeared from the place. At that moment

At the same time, You Li also withdrew his gaze and quietly looked at Lin Mo now.

"Thank you, then! I'll be back as soon as I can!"

The person Lin Mo was most uneasy about getting up was You Li.

This awful old man was holding back his badness every day.

If he had a nonsense talk with Xu Hanxia, it would be a bad day for himself.

And, he was also afraid that his wife would think too much about it!

Green Shadow still returned with a sweet smile.

"Brother Lin Mo's affairs are my affairs then, there's no need to be polite."

"I understand, it's getting late, go back early and rest!"

There were many words in my heart, but I didn't know how to speak, just like then, that moon, that back mountain.

I still vaguely remember the silent silhouette.

Chapter 3025

March 29, 2022

At the White Dew Plain, the construction has entered its final stages after working overtime.

The buildings of the War Hall, the Medicine Hall, the Intelligence Hall and other institutions of the Martial Union have all been laid out perfectly.

The entire White Dew Plain has now been filled to the brim, and a wall has been built around the Deadland Mountain Range to prevent people from inadvertently breaking in.

The medicinal field that Lin Mo had been longing for was also opened up, not much more than 20 acres, but the soil was fertile and the aura was abundant, so it was a rare feng shui treasure.

Although Lin Mo had mentioned this to his wife about his goddaughter, Xu Hanxia did not know what to do.

But Xu Hanxia did not know what to decide.

So Lin Mo simply put the matter on hold.

Lin Mo touched his wife's face with a gentle smile, "I'll be back soon, and you can ask Green Shadow about martial arts training."

"And if you really encounter any difficult matters, you can also look for her."

Although Xu Hanxia understood tightly in her heart, she didn't say anything on her lips.

"You wouldn't have to worry about me!"

"There's no danger for us to speak of at all right now."

Without waiting for her to finish, Lin Mo wrapped her in his arms.

"I'm leaving haha, I've prepared a lot of medicinal dictionaries and medical books for you in the room.

If you're bored, you can look through them, or of course you can go and have afternoon tea with sister Zhi Lan or something."

Xu Hanxia didn't know whether her husband was really stupid or a fake whatever.

Letting his wife have tea with a woman who was interested in him, wasn't he afraid that Cha would get up?

The three women's hearts were clear, but no one named them!

It was as if nothing had ever happened.

The years were quiet!

Before he left, Lin Mo looked for Song Zhilan again, but she had been busy with various matters within the Yun Chuang Group and the Business Alliance recently.

So Lin Mo didn't have the heart to bother her much, and after leaving a message he was ready to go back to Heshan City once again.

"Big brother, woo, we're going out, woo!"

Lin Mo was still shocked to see the Prince's bruised nose and swollen face.

"What's wrong with you? You got caught stealing from someone's husband?"

The prince almost jumped up in anxiety, "You're the one who stole! The people on this mountain are a little bit stronger, but each one"

He was about to spit out a complaint about the rustic atmosphere of the people in the mountain when he suddenly felt a gust of coldness coming from around his body.

The emptiness was like a pair of terrifying eyes staring deadly at him.

"One and all, handsome and extraordinary, as beautiful as a fairy falling to earth."

A mad rainbow of farts.

The gazes focused on the crown prince dissipated into thin air at that, and he couldn't help but secretly sigh in relief.

Lin Mo could only shake his head helplessly when he saw this, "Come on, stop talking poorly, what's going on."

"It wasn't this Tong Jun who did it!"

He raised his hand and pointed directly at Tong Jun, who was not far away, "He seems to be high on drugs and his strength has increased like crazy."

"I originally thought of sparring with him, and then this old kid didn't even strike lightly.

Hiss, good to hear!"

His Tianwei was overly excited and the rich expression on his face pulled at the wound all of a sudden.

This was something Lin Mo had heard the Crown Prince mention before, only before he hadn't taken it too seriously, but now that he looked at it he would still underestimate the power of this Karma Fire Red Lotus, the power of blessing when it bloomed.

And it had gone far beyond what Lin Mo knew from his medical skills.

The red lotus can change a person's system, that much is certain, but the nine colours of dazzling light emitted can make a person's strength soar.

This

Tong Jun saw that Lin Mo had been silent for a long time and only thought that he had hurt the Crown Prince and upset Lord Lin.

Only just as he opened his mouth to admit his mistake though, Lin Mo suddenly acted and nodded his head.

"Not bad, it's also your Yuan Qi to have such a chance!"

"Alright, let's not talk about that."

"Tong Jun's side remains in your hands!"

"Prince let's go!"

Chapter 3027

March 29, 2022

"It's all left over from our previous play, if it wasn't for this Lin Mo meddling, we would have made more for sure."

"Heart, old Liu you are eating seven factories in one breath, in not satisfied."

"Doing business and making money, there is no such thing as satisfaction."

The laughter of Liu Qing's group drew sideways glances from outsiders.

Although they did not know why they were laughing, they were inexplicably a little envious.

As businessmen, they were so much worse.

Sun wrist ho shook his head, "The market still needs to be stable, a little chaos every now and then, we'll just make a small fortune."

"If they get a wave from time to time from time to time, it's like killing the chicken to get the egg."

Several people agree on this point.

That was why they had come to this convening of the Chamber in person.

By noon!

Most of them had already arrived, and when they saw that Lin Mo had not arrived for a long time, the faces of many of them gradually became ugly.

"What's going on, since everyone has arrived, why hasn't this Lin Mo shown up?"

"Hardly does he really think he's a big shot, making so many of us wait for him!"

Under the guidance of a few people, there were more and more voices of discontent on the scene.

"How long do we have to wait until the ground falls down? Which one of the people present is not an existence of hundreds of thousands of dollars a minute.

Are we just going to keep on consuming like this?"

When Tong Xiaohe heard this, his eyes glimmered with an unkind look.

If it wasn't for them contacting him jointly and asking Lin Mo to step in as their representative, he wouldn't have bothered with these matters.

Now that the convening had come to fruition, they were complaining about it all over again.

It was annoying as hell!

"Here it comes, here it comes!"

Just when the atmosphere was annoying, someone suddenly shouted in surprise.

The crowd raised their eyes and saw Lin Mo walking into the venue with the Crown Prince in slow steps!

“Young Lin is here!”

“Young Lin, long time no see!”

“Mr. Lin Mo has heard a lot about you.”

Apart from a few representatives of the big groups, everyone present rose to greet Lin Mo, giving him considerable respect.

Lin Mo also nodded his head in return while walking through the crowd.

He greeted Tong Xiaohe first before turning to look at the crowd before walking to the main seating.

As he swept his eyes across the room, Lin Mo was able to take in the attitudes of the crowd, whether they were eager, anxious, or disdainful.

“Before coming here, your purpose General Manager Tong has already spoken to me.”

“I will take the lead in setting up the capital club, no problem, but my out of people, the funding side of my business, you guys figure it out yourselves.”

Said he with a deep meaningful smile, slowly do down.

This

The people present also did not expect Lin Mo to be so direct.

Between the looks on their faces they actually didn't know how to answer.

The scene was instantly silent.

Sun Wanhao and Liu Qing glanced at each other, their eyes sending signals.

“Since we are looking for Mr. Lin Mo's help, it is natural for us to take care of the financial matters ourselves.”

“Yue Yue Cultural Media Group has no comment!”

He said as he turned around and spoke towards the others.

“The funding club was set up to prevent those multinational agents in the Wanxiang country from messing things up for us.”

“For the establishment of the funding aspect, we will all pool together and do the distribution of equity according to the amount of contribution.

I wonder if everyone agrees?”

This motion was already known to everyone on the way here.

If they didn't agree, they wouldn't have appeared at the scene.

Once this was said, most of the people at the scene nodded their heads in succession.

The prince looked at Sun Wanhao's swaggering appearance and was discontented.

"Who is this person, big brother? So arrogant, as if this council was convened for him?"

Lin Mo smiled and knocked on the table, "Put as if it went, it was convened for him!"

"No need to ask more questions, just watch."

"The good show is still to come!"

Lin Mo looked at Sun Wanhao's back, a playful smile appearing at the corner of his mouth.

Chapter 3028

March 30, 2022

Indeed as Lin Mo said, right now everyone out of the Tong Xiaohe, the highest value enterprise scale is Sun Wanhao, Liu Qing and other people colluded with the small group, accustomed to the feeling of the top, even if the convening of the meeting, several people are also with the leadership of the faction.

"..... These are the guidelines that I have proposed for this Chamber of Commerce.

As long as we fund the Chamber once it is established, everyone can get a share and have a stable back-up in times of corporate crisis."

The words fell and applause broke out.

The general flow of the program was perfectly in line with the corporate culture.

Sun Wanhao greeted the applause by slightly straightening his table, "Thank you!" He bent slightly at the waist.

"Mr. Lin Mo, I've finished, do you have anything to add?"

The smile on his face was standard, as if he had practiced it for a decade or even decades.

The tone was also quite polite, yet the entire process was only after he had arranged to play everything.

The entire time, Lin Mo was like a cloud of air in his eyes, he didn't even glance over.

"Big brother, I'll go up and give her a mortar and pestle!"

Lin Mo shook his head speechlessly and said, "I want to too!"

"Chairman Sun or?"

Lin Mo got up and Sun Wanhao nodded with a smile, "Mr. Lin, if you have anything you want to say or add, just mention it."

"If the suggestions are reasonable, we will also consider them."

He was already completely treating himself as the protagonist of this chamber.

However, the others would give him face purely because they thought of his business status, but Lin Mo didn't care about that.

“Have you finished?”

Lin Mo’s tone slowly became lower, only Sun Wanhao didn’t notice and was still responding there in a fake polite manner.

“Since you’ve finished, then shut up!”

“And you guys!”

The slap that landed heavily on the table was like a shocking log.

The whole room was instantly silent, the change had come so quickly that everyone was a bit overwhelmed.

One second it was fine, everyone was talking and laughing, how could they turn on each other in the next second.

Naturally, Sun Wanhao did not expect Lin Mo to dare to rebuke him in front of such a crowd, and his warm and smiling face immediately turned gloomy.

“What do you mean?”

He stared at Lin Mo with a faintly threatening intent in his gaze, as if he dared to turn his back if the other party dared not give face.

This was the case with people who had been in high positions for a long time, the longer they stood, the less respect they had.

They have forgotten what it means to judge the situation.

For such people, Lin Mo would never be spoiled.

“I said it very clearly and told you to shut up, how is it that my Mandarin is not standard enough, or is it that Sun understands that his ears are out of order.”

At these words, Sun Wanhao’s face was so gloomy that water was dripping out of it.

“You

It had been many years since anyone had dared to speak to him like that, and for a moment he was so angry that he actually trembled a little.

“Insolence, Lin Mo how can you talk to Chairman Sun like that! No big and no small.”

“Why don’t you hurry up and apologise to Chairman Sun.”

Xie Qijun, who was also in the same circle, stood up as soon as he could, intending to be trying to teach Lin Mo how to behave.

Lin Mo’s gaze was cold as he twisted his head to look directly at this person.

As soon as the two sides locked eyes, Xie Qijun was actually instantly defeated, at this moment he was like staring at a fierce lion, he only felt shivers.

Lin Mo narrowed his eyes and spoke coldly, "I didn't look for it, but you jumped out on your own."

"Some time ago, the person who strangled my construction materials in the interior of China had a part in you, right, General Xie!"

At the mention of this, Xie Qijun's face suddenly changed.

"You're talking nonsense, I didn't, don't you bleed."

A hint of panic could not help but flash across his eyes.

Chapter 3030

March 30, 2022

When Lin Mo finished speaking, everyone's eyes, too, looked towards Sun Wanhao.

As Lin Mo had said, the existence of the Funding Council was very necessary.

As in the case of the vine incident this evening, many bigwigs' eyes were on Lin Mo, and again on the side of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

As long as the funding association is established in Lin Mo's name, their attention will naturally shift to Lin Mo when the time comes.

Whether it's to draw them in or to threaten them!

As long as Lin Mo comes forward, they can then develop their own industry without fear.

Yes, to be more honest, it is to shift the battle to Lin Mo.

And they could sit back and fish and control the situation from the back.

This was clear to all present, but they just didn't make it clear.

This was also the purpose of this gathering.

Sun Wanhao's face was like the weather in summer, constantly shifting back and forth.

But after some hesitation, he agreed.

"We can agree to your request, but the institution set up by the capital club must be a bank or other financial type of institution."

This was something Lin Mo did not refute and readily agreed to.

"No problem!"

"Since everything is said and done, let's call it a day for the rally!"

Just as everyone was preparing to disperse, Liu Qing suddenly stepped forward and asked, "Mr. Lin, I wonder when you will start preparing for the establishment of this project?"

"Whenever your funds are available, I'll act."

Lin Mo stood up and patted his clothes, "I'm not in a hurry, if you guys aren't in a hurry either then take your time!"

Just how could they not only.

Nowadays, the domestic market of Wanxiang was already in chaos, and foreigners could not get out without shedding their skin.

In addition, those multinational agents are still eyeing the surrounding markets.

Naturally, the people at the rally wanted the sooner the better, as the Chinese market was already large enough and they did not need to think about expanding abroad.

A stable market was what they needed most.

"Let's do it as soon as possible!"

After saying this, Liu Qing, Sun Wanhao and the others formed a small group and left the place in a hurry.

The others also gradually dispersed.

"General Manager Tong, wait for a moment, let's have a meal together!"

After Lin Mo stopped Tong Xiaohe, he brought the Crown Prince along to the dining floor of the Business Alliance Building.

"Mr. Lin Mo, to be honest, I don't mind you taking over this in the funding club."

"These people are just thinking of using you as a frontline battlefield to provide them with a buffer."

However Lin Mo did not agree with this statement, "It's not that serious, we're just using each other."

"I own 51% of the capital club, and I am in charge of all matters big and small."

"Doesn't Heshan City, today, happen to be short of funds to continue developing projects?"

The threat of Zat Baikha has scared off many people.

This also led to the development of the city of Heshan coming to a standstill.

Now with the injection of 50 billion dollars, compared to how long it would take, the city of Heshan would be able to develop in leaps and bounds again.

"Moreover, I have been obstructing the expansion of the night vine market, and the Anshui Zaibatsu has long hated me to the bone.

It doesn't really make much of a difference whether or not this receives a funding session, it's just a matter of moving the conflict to the surface to resolve it."

After hearing this, Tong Xiaohe stopped persuading, the two sides were in different situations, so naturally their attitudes towards problems were different.

“In addition, before Hanoi province is completely purged, I don’t intend to let Song Zhilan come out of the mountain.

That’s why I still need your help to look after this funding club matter.”

“For the specific operation, we will contact later.”

Tong Xiaohe would naturally not refuse to such a request, after all, the two sides were their own people on a united front.

Tong Hai Hai had already given a clear order that the Grand Qu branch of the Ocean Group would fully cooperate with Lin Mo’s development.
