Chapter 3081

One only has to look for a stalk of the king's hair to verify the authenticity of such a thing!

There is no need for the other party to lie to himself.

"This kind of thing This kind of thing"

Avis looked at the test report in her hand and stood in a daze.

Wen Qiang only thought that this matter was too much of a shock to the Second Princess, so he comforted her.

"Not many people know about this matter, and after the future fourth prince ascends the throne, the world will only praise that the king and princess are talented and beautiful."

"So"

However his words of did not speak, Avis eyes instantly light up.

"This kind of thing is also too exciting."

"This princess can't help but want to eat Zat Baiha right now!"

With that she subconsciously gulped, that horny look scaring Wen Qiang into rushing to flee the place.

And his information had been delivered, the b*tch knew what to do!

Even if he didn't know, he didn't bother to care.

From now on, he would never come into contact with the Second Princess in private.

This b*tch was too scary!

Early the next morning, Wen Qiang pretended that nothing had happened and went to the palace of the First Prince as usual to start a new round of scheming.

Since Zat Wanliu wanted to force the divine mountain to hand over Rilin Mo's wife, in order to prevent accidents, he also needed to increase his firepower and send extra men to reinforce him.

The snake will not die but will be harmed!

Now that his mind was made up, and with the king's tacit approval of the matter, it was only natural that he would hammer the divine mountain into the dirt once and for all.

When Wen Qiang arrived, there was an additional elderly man in a naval uniform in this room.

Although half his head was white and deeply wrinkled.

But his stalwart face exuded this strong murderous aura.

His sharp gaze was like a sharp sword piercing straight through the heart, as if he could see through everything.

“Mr. Communication, you’ve come just in time!

Grandpa, let me introduce to you, this is the Mr. Wen I’ve been telling you about!”

“I can take a large part of the credit for my current achievements, Mr. Wen.”

“Wen Qiang, this is my grandfather Navy Commander Tama Xiong!”

Although the Grand Prince’s attitude was warm, there was always a sense of nervousness between his hands and feet.

It was obvious that the unbeatable Grand Prince was also very afraid of his grandfather.

Although Wen Qiang had heard of this Domo Xiong, it was the first time he had seen him, even though he had been here for such a long time.

“My junior, Wen Qiang, has met the Lord Commander!”

His posture was extremely low and his attitude was humble.

He did not dare to be reckless in front of this legendary figure, even Jiayuan I had to be courteous in front of him.

Such a position was not only due to his status as Abbot, but also to the great maritime power of his men.

The reason why the Maple Kingdom did not annex Wanxiang, but instead acted as an ally of the upper kingdom.

This could not help but have a great deal to do with this Commander Tama Xiong.

For a while, Wen Qiang could not help but feel a little rushed.

In front of such a figure, his every move was much more cautious, lest his identity should be exposed.

After skimming a glance at Wen Qiang, Domo Xiong withdrew his gaze.

“a*sist the Grand Prince well, and you will not be treated badly in the future!”

“If you have second thoughts, even if you flee to the ends of the earth, you will be thrown to the bone.”

“Do you remember?”

Wen Qiang flew down and bent his back.

“My junior will remember it and a*sist the Grand Prince with all my heart and soul!”

“Hm!”

After Domo Xiong coldly replied, he simply stood up.

“Little Wen, I’m going to check on your mother, if there’s anything, feel free to contact me!”

“Thank you Grandpa, Grandpa I’ll see you off!”

After waiting for the Grand Prince to leave with this Navy Commander, Wen Qiang secretly sighed in relief.

At the same time his back was already soaked!

What a terrible man!

After just a few verbal knocks on him, Wen Qiang almost couldn’t support himself.

“Looks like I’ll have to be more cautious in the future!”

The Grand Prince may be a waste, but he can’t help having someone behind him!

Chapter 3082

The Grand Prince sent off his grandfather back to the palace again, by now Wen Qiang had also readjusted and returned to the way he was before he came.

“Mr. Wen need not care, my grandfather is like this, contact all you will find other is a cold-faced and warm-hearted person.”

Wen Qiang repeatedly said yes, but in his heart he despised.

You are scared to death of yourself, and you still have the f*cking face to fool me!

The Grand Prince naturally did not know what was in Wen Qiang’s mind, his thoughts were all focused on dealing with Bashar God Mountain.

“Mr. Wen, do you have an opinion on this move by the Minister of Border Affairs?”

Now that the army has been pressed into service, the arrow is on the string and has to be fired.

So many eyes from neighbouring countries were watching their every move, and if this plan failed, the Wanxiang Kingdom would be reduced to a joke.

But if they succeeded, not only would they be able to showcase their power, but through this, the Grand Prince’s prestige would reach a peak.

At that point, it would be a foregone conclusion that he, Jiawen, would succeed to the throne.

No subject would refuse the accession of a powerful new king, let alone his firstborn son.

When Wen Qiang looked at the eldest prince’s giggling face, he said that the man was thinking of farting.

“Your Highness, Your Highness!”

“Ah What’s wrong?”

“Did you hear everything I just said?”

The Grand Prince blushed, he had been so engrossed in his beautiful dream he hadn't heard anything Wen Qiang had said at all.

"Mr. Wen, do you want you to say it again?"

Wen Qiang went straight to numb.

I've been talking so much, but you haven't listened to a single word!

If not for the other party being the Grand Prince, Wen Qiang would have gone up and slapped him twice.

"Your highness, want to will want to force the divine mountain, hand over Lin Mo's wife, we do two-handed preparation."

Since the king's had already tacitly approved of the Border Affairs Minister's actions, he didn't need to waste that mind to delay anything.

Their next plan could also be let go.

So Wen Qiang proposed to reinforce the troops in Zatvanliu.

Even if there were more divine mountain experts in the face of absolute artillery fire, it would be useless.

Unless they abandoned the foundations they had built for centuries.

There was no turning back, all eyes were on them, the trip to God Mountain had to be followed through to the end.

"All right, Grandfather that I will go and get Mother's help."

"You take care of the rest, remember my trip to God Mountain can only be a success, not a failure!"

The Grand Prince finished, his eyes filled with determination.

This battle was about his future.

Right now, God Mountain had a strong attitude and was strongly protecting Lin Mo and his wife, that could only mean that their vibrant deterrent was not yet in place.

.....

The anxiety in Zat Wanliu's side was instantly washed away when he received the information from Wen Qiang.

This gave him even more time to prepare.

"Old fellow it seems you are ambitious yet!"

He clearly remembered the scene when Jiayuan I had joined forces with God Mountain and that supreme genius from China to kill the Japanese evil cultivator together.

That battle had left a sickness in his heart, and he also held a grudge against the divine mountain.

The main reason for this was that a divine object was taken away by the Bazaar God Mountain, which Jiayuan I had coveted beforehand.

But Yuli did not give him any face.

Zatmanliu originally thought that Jiayuan I had chosen to forget the matter.

But now it seemed he was holding a grudge!

With this in mind, Zat Wanliu felt even more confident about this operation.

Without any worries he became more relaxed and calm.

“Pa*s on my orders to deploy the border guard fire.”

“Also, summon my son to mobilise his entire brigade of 25,000 majestic soldiers here.”

With a single order, the huge war machine instantly began to operate in an orderly manner.

The border troops in the rear, having already received the order, countless heavy thermal weapons began to be loaded at speed.

Chapter 3083

The peak of the Basha divine Mountain.

You Li grew on top of a thousand-year-old tree and looked into the distance with a frown.

Beside him, Lin Mo thought hard for a long time before making up his mind.

“Senior, I intend to go down the mountain!”

You Li could also vaguely guess Lin Mo’s intention.

“It’s very dangerous down there nowadays yet their intelligence agents have already ambushed the troops and surrounded the entire divine mountain.”

“If you go out now, there’s a good chance they’ll find you! You’ll be facing a thousand troops then.”

In order to prevent the people on the mountain from secretly sending Lin Mo and his wife away, Zat Wanliu had already arranged countless spies behind the divine mountain.

Once the enemy was discovered, a constant stream of artillery fire would cover the area and concentrate the strike.

It was just that Lin Mo knew in his heart that the situation was deteriorating.

Now that the other side had slowed down the pace of their press, they must be preparing a more powerful arrangement of firepower.

“Senior, if the other side fires at full strength, how long can the mountain’s forbidden grand formation resist?”

You Li sighed faintly, "Eh, it should only last for three days!"

If the Karma Fire Red Lotus was intact, he had absolute confidence that the divine Mountain would not be breached.

Disregarding other hazards, even if the place used nuclear weapons, it would still be able to withstand a fatal attack.

But because of Xu Hanxia, the Red Lotus had now fallen into a period of slumber, and the power of the Great Mountain Guarding Formation was already ten to one.

The claim of resisting for three days already carries an element of exaggeration.

The main thing is that Zat Wanliu is a disgusting person.

His troops were stationed just beyond the border of the divine mountain, and if they went any further than 10 metres, Yuli would have had reason to extinguish their hands.

Apart from the first provocation, there was no further action, except to use the excuse of acting to keep placing surveillance officers around the divine mountain.

The rules of the divine Mountain Establishment could not be broken, so You Li could only watch as the other side kept moving people around.

When Lin Mo heard this answer, his determination to go down the mountain became even stronger.

If the two sides really started to fight, the top experts of the divine Mountain would be safe and sound, and they could even wipe out the enemy.

But what about the rest of the people.

Lin Mo couldn't do anything to make them sacrifice for himself!

"It's not a good sign that they're holding back nowadays!

I have a friend in Wanxiang who told me that the people behind this Zat Wanliu are increasing their troops."

If they were still just dealing with this Six Kings' Border Guard in front of them, Basha Shenshan would still have confidence.

But what if the other side was sending more troops and increasing their firepower?

"Senior You Li, there is a time when the force is exhausted, and I don't want to put the divine mountain at such a great risk because of me and my husband and wife.

So I have to go down to the mountain to gather men!"

You Li understood the reasoning behind this, but there were just some things he could not let go of, such as face.

It was just that the current situation still did not allow him to hold on.

"If you go out like this, it's very threatening! They won't be able to let you go easily."

You Li reminded Lin Mo worriedly.

“No harm, just because they want to hurt me isn’t enough!

Besides, I have the Zhen Yue Envoy at my side, they wouldn’t dare to kill me.”

After saying that, Lin Mo took out a hideous mask from his pocket.

After seeing this object, a look of surprise appeared on You Li’s face.

“The Lan Ling Ghost Mask?”

“Originally, I thought this object had been destroyed, but I never thought it would fall into your hands!”

He said with a sudden turn of the painting, “It’s just that this object is considered by outsiders to be unknowable and rumoured to grasp the Lord’s.”

“You are hostile at heart, and this Lan Ling Ghost Mask is even more of a life-threatening talisman for you.”

It was rumoured that every owner of this mask did not end well!

However, Lin Mo did not feel the slightest bit of worry, the corners of his mouth lifted with a confident expression.

“Hahahaha, that only means they are not strong enough to master this object!”

Chapter 3084

Only those who have used this object in person know that although the Lan Ling Ghost Face will intensify the hostility in the human body and devour the mind, it can also wildly increase the host’s strength.

Now, after his strength had increased greatly, Lin Mo had not yet used this object again.

Right now was a good time to do so.

“I’ll trouble senior to look after my wife!

The day I return will be the day I purge Xiao Xiao!”

With a loud laugh, Lin Mo’s entire body flew out like a sharp arrow.

The next second, a fierce and fierce aura came towards You Li, and he felt it in his heart.

Looking at the remnant shadow, worry was written all over his face.

If once the opponent slowed him down, the subsequent support troops would come in a steady stream, and then using the tactic of the sea of people, it would likely slow down Lin Mo.

At this moment, the wind was sweeping and countless leaves were falling.

The moonlight scattered the glimpses of brightness on the ground.

Occasionally, moonlight would penetrate through the dense foliage, but it was also extraordinarily illusory, as if it had been swallowed up by the pitch-black layers of forest.

A few scouting guards, disguised among them, lay still and listened sideways, catching any hint of suspicious movement.

As the drifting dark clouds completely obscured the moonlight.

A dark shadow came flying through.

By the time Lin Mo stepped into the woods, his blood-red pupils skimmed over the surroundings.

However, the darkness did not cause any obstruction.

Those scouts hiding among them turned into humanoid red lights and appeared in his eyes one by one.

Under the influence of Lan Ling's ghostly face, the murderous feeling in his mind also became more and more serious.

It seemed that only killing could calm his restless mind.

"Those who stand in my way, kill!"

The gloomy roar was like the hiss of a ferocious beast, echoing throughout the layer forest for a while.

Such a loud commotion also attracted the attention of Zat Wanliu not far away.

"What is that sound."

"Report, my lord, our scouts have found a breakout!"

Zatvanliu sneered and gave the order, "Shoot this man outright!"

Just as the adjutant was about to carry out this order, Zatvanliu suddenly called out to him again.

"Wait, first determine the identity of the other party, if this person is Lin Mo then make sure to capture him alive."

"Yes, my lord!"

Between the layers of forest, the hundreds of scouts and other combatants lurking around were already shivering with fear.

The man in front of them was enveloped in a scarlet light, and the oozing red light slowly coalesced into a fang-faced demon in front of them.

The red light was slowly coalescing in front of them into a fang-faced demon with a huge height of three feet, which, at a mere glance, made people feel powerless.

As the other side slowly approached, the dense aura of fierce fury pressed them so hard that they could not lift their heads and could not breathe.

For a moment, it was as if hundreds of people were being held by someone holding their hearts.

One of them gulped, fear already written all over his face, and his eyes glazed over.

If he hadn't had his rifle in his hand and his companions present, he would have run for his life.

This was too scary!

"Captain, what do we,,, what do we do?"

His voice began to tremble with fear.

And the captain of the combat unit had a blank face at this point, with only one question constantly echoing in it.

With the rifles in their hands, could they really do any damage to such a fierce beast on earth?

The body's instinctive fear was uncontrollable by reason, and a voice in the back of their heads kept telling them to hurry and run.

And just as the crowd was in a state of panic, a sudden command came from above.

"Attention all squads, make clear the identity of the visitor, if it is Lin Mo, capture him alive.

Everyone else, kill him on the spot!"

When the captain saw this character command, he just wanted to pull the adjutant from above over to take a good look at the scene in front of him.

Clearly? I'm clear!

I just want to run away now, if anyone can dare to go up and take off this man's mask, he can just kneel down and call his father.

Chapter 3085

No matter how much one complained, what had to be faced still had to be faced.

As he watched the fierce man walk slowly towards him, the captain's legs involuntarily began to sway.

At the same time, the cold hairs on his body continued to explode.

It no longer mattered to them who the man in front of them was.

They all doubted whether they could or would get out of these woods!

"Brothers, shoot me!"

Forcing down the fear inside him, he finally hissed out.

With this voice, he likewise gave the rest of his companions a glimmer of courage.

In a flash, dozens of tongues of fire poured out bullets frantically towards Lin Mo.

However, strangely enough, the bullets suddenly stopped in mid-air before they got close to Lin Mo.

It was as if there was an invisible wall that stopped all the bullets.

How was this possible?

Seeing this scene, the ambush team was immediately shocked.

Was this still a human being?

If the enemy was invulnerable to swords and spears, or if he was agile, the combat team would have been able to accept it.

After all, they had seen martial arts masters before, and ordinary firearms could hardly do any real damage to them.

But this was the first time they had encountered such a situation.

Dense stagnant bullets, coupled with that demonic shadow running out of hell.

Someone finally broke down.

"I ... I ... I don't want to do it . , old me wants to go home, I don't want to die here!"

After stammering, this person simply dropped the rifle in his hand, then with a face full of panic, he panicked and began to run towards the distance.

With the first man leading the way, the rest of the team began to follow suit.

This was no longer a battle, it was a death sentence.

At this point, only the captain was a little calmer, and when he looked at his subordinates who were fleeing, his face became even colder.

Without saying a word, he raised his pistol and aimed it at the subordinate who was leading the way.

After the gun went off, the man fell to the ground as he ran.

"All listen to the order, those who run away without permission will be killed."

He spoke so loudly that it was as if he was carrying a loud speaker, which carried all around.

And when he had finished with the fifth subordinate who had escaped, everyone then stopped that and turned their heads, looking in horror.

The captain only thought that they were shocked by his own.

He was just about to open his mouth in triumph when he suddenly felt a chill in his back.

His body was like a charge and his limbs instantly stiffened.

Cold sweat also continued to pour out of his back like a fountain.

After a stiff twist of the neck, he others a hideous mask directly into the eyes.

Through those blood-red eyes, he saw a boundless sea of blood that seemed to be drowning him.

"Who the hell are you, don't you come any closer or I'll shoot."

Although this captain had already seen the horror of Lin Mo, but in the current situation, only the gun in his hand could bring a too a trace of security.

Lin Mo did not reply, at this moment he only had killing in his mind.

After craning his neck, there was less of a human glow in his eyes and more of a murderous chill.

And growing this moment, the captain quickly took out his dagger and stabbed towards the small of Lin Mo's back, fiercely.

Feeling that slight resistance, his face suddenly flushed with joy.

It had worked!

As he watched the hilt of the dagger disappear directly into his opponent's body, he only felt a surge of relief.

"Hahahaha, so you're just an out-and-out loser, scaring the hell out of me.

So you can die and bleed even if you are stabbed Blood"

When he looked down at the other man's wound, he rubbed his eyes in disbelief.

After double checking, he found a horrible truth.

Although the dagger had pierced into the other party's body, not a trace of blood could be seen.

Chapter 3086

As the captain watched, the wound healed at an alarming rate, returning to its initial appearance in the blink of an eye.

Only the torn hole in his shirt showed that this one area had been wounded.

"You You Not human! Er"

Without waiting for him to finish his sentence, Lin Mo raised his hand and squeezed this captain's neck.

In the next second, the fist cannon blasted out directly.

Just like smashing a watermelon, the captain's head instantly exploded in front of the eyes of the combat squad members.

Vomit!

The bloody scene caused many people to kneel down and vomit furiously.

But Lin Mo was indifferent.

On the contrary, there was a flicker of excitement, if anything, in his eyes.

"Everyone, run! He's not human, he's a demon."

After a miserable scream landed, everyone desperately tried to flee in the distance, but before they could take a few steps, a tiny silver needle went straight through their skulls.

One after another, one after another, they began to fall to the ground paralyzed.

At this moment, Lin Mo was like a god of death, and all the living beings that appeared in his sight became his target of slaughter.

On Zatvanliu's side, he saw that a long time had passed since he had given the order.

But the forest ambushers, however, had not moved in the slightest.

This was beginning to make him feel impatient.

"Ask about the personnel of the forty-fourth group!"

Not long after, the departing adjutant hurriedly returned within Zatvanliu's war camp.

"My lord, it's not good, the members of Group 44 have all been reunited!"

"What?"

Zatvanliu's first reaction was, Impossible!

Hundreds of people had suffered a sneak attack, it was impossible that they were all dead without any news coming through.

"Send someone to check the scene!"

By the time the followers arrived, there was no movement here.

Bodies were scattered all over the place, limbs and arms were everywhere, and there were even bloody entrails hanging from the branches of trees.

The whole scene was like a hell on earth.

"Oh, no!"

The troops who had come to scout saw this scene, and no matter how strong they were at heart, they couldn't help but vomit furiously while holding on to the trunk of the tree.

Immediately after hearing this news, Zat Wanliu sent out an intercepting force.

He had a hunch in his heart that the person who had broken through the encirclement should be Lin Mo.

Thousands of combat troops raced away.

But whether it was the armored vehicles on the ground or the helicopters in the air, they searched an area of fifty kilometres in circumference and found no trace of Lin Mo at all.

"A bunch of trash"

.....

And hundreds of kilometres away from the Basha God Mountain, a human figure swept past.

After stepping over a tree branch, he fell straight down from mid-air.

After running upside down to the small river, Lin Mo saw his current appearance through the river water.

His body was covered in blood, as if he had crawled out of a pool of blood, and his black hair was beginning to clump together.

In a trance, the reflection in the water began to distort, turning into a green-faced and fanged demon.

“Kill, only killing is your martial path.”

With that the reflection in the water actually magically opened its arms.

“Ah, die and open for me!”

After Lin Mo heard the compelling voice, his face struggled and his hands clasped the mask in a deadly attempt to remove it.

However, it was as if the Lan Ling Ghost Mask was growing into the flesh, no matter how hard he tried, the Lan Ling Ghost Mask would not move at all.

At this moment the seductive voice once again rang out in his mind.

“Give up, why do you want to abandon me when you want to use me to gain more power.”

“I can make you stronger, I can make you stand at the top of the world, come and throw yourself into my arms.”

Gradually the only trace of clarity left in Lin Mo’s eyes began to slowly dissipate.

His feet uncontrollably began to walk towards the water.

Just as his toes touched the surface of the water, the Tai Ah in Lin Mo’s hand suddenly gathered and trembled.

The sword qi shook and the surrounding grasses and trees instantly snapped off.

Chapter 3087

A biting sword qi appeared out of thin air, emitting this dazzling light as it coalesced towards Lan Ling’s ghostly face.

With a miserable hiss, a black light lingered on the mask, and a resigned roar resounded through the valley.

“Damn it, ancient divine weapons, how could they possibly reappear!”

In the next second, the Lan Ling Ghost Mask directly fell off from Lin Mo’s face, turning into the flatness of it after falling to the ground.

At this moment, Lin Mo's pale cheeks also slowly emerged with blood, and his bloodshot eyes also regained their calmness.

At this moment, he was already drenched in sweat as he lay on his back by the river, his heart palpitating.

"Rash!"

Originally, he only wanted to break out of the encirclement laid by Zat Wanliu with the fastest speed through the increase of Lan Ling's ghost face.

But what he hadn't expected was that this Lan Ling Ghost Face had unexpectedly become stronger and stronger in its ability to devour minds as his strength increased.

Especially after the frenzy of killing, this devouring power as well as the fury grew geometrically.

If it wasn't for Tai Ah, he would have almost sunk into it and turned into a merciless killing machine.

After cleaning himself of his filth, Lin Mo walked up the bank and once again glanced at the Lan Ling Ghost Face on the side.

After much hesitation, he still chose to pick it up.

Although this was a dangerous moment, the strength boost it brought was also huge.

Through the experience he had just had, after he had brought the Ghost Face with him, his strength was straight up to match that of a Zong Shi powerhouse, and even if he couldn't beat a Zong Shi, he wouldn't be killed in seconds.

After packing up the Ghost Face, Lin Mo took another look back before continuing his journey once again.

And when he had just arrived at his villa in the city of Heshan, a glance at his mobile phone already showed dozens of unseen calls.

The main one of them was Master Zhao's.

After tapping on the callback, the phone instantly rang with the anxious voice of the old man looking for him.

"Finally I was able to contact you, I thought you had been trapped to death in the divine mountain by Zat Wanliu."

Lin Mo shook his head with a bitter smile, "There's no way, the other side blocked the signal, we can't contact the outside world at all."

Elder Zhao Laozi, also aware of the urgency of the situation, didn't say much nonsense and directly turned the topic to business.

"Our Zhao family, we have gathered 40,000 Tiger Guards, ready to support you.

Nowadays, the sea is not peaceful and our manpower is rather tight."

Lin Mo instantly caught the point upon hearing this.

“Elder Zhao, did they, Wanxiang, also put pressure on you guys?”

Lin Mo didn't dislike Old Zhao for being petty, sending only 40,000 of the hundreds of thousands of Zhao Family Tiger Guards.

Rather, he was worried about the Zhao family's situation.

The overall power of Da Qu was then going to fall a section behind the Wanxiang Kingdom, and besides, the gap between the major powers within the United Provinces of Da Qu were all fighting on their own, which was further widened.

Even if the Zhao family is strong, it is still only one of the forces in Da Qu.

Now, hearing the tone of Elder Zhao's voice, Lin Mo's heart immediately became worried.

The old man did not answer Lin Mo, but only said that the sea was not peaceful nowadays, so he should be careful.

He then told Zhao Yu to take the 40,000 Zhao family guards he had scraped together and run to the Basha God Mountain.

Lin Mo could only take this matter to heart as he was now in a difficult position to protect himself, and then he contacted Fei.

It was just that the 60,000 Martial Alliance combat troops needed to maintain order in Hanoi Province, and it was not possible to take them all with him.

The direct scrapping of the troops from east to west could only bring together a force of more than 20,000.

The 60,000 troops that could barely be assembled were equal to the number of troops of Zat Wanliu, but they were still a long way behind in terms of combat equipment.

In addition to the possible follow-on reinforcements from the other side.

Without saying a word, Lin Mo approached Wu Daoyi again.

“Brother Lin, what brings you here?”

While Wu Daoyi greeted him warmly, his heart was also surprised.

Didn't they say that Lin Mo had been besieged in the Basha God Mountain!

Lin Mo was too lazy to talk nonsense to him and directly explained his purpose for coming.

“Clan Master Wu, can you get heavy firepower, the heavier the better, the price is not a problem.”

Chapter 3088

Although Wu Daoyi's heart was filled with joy at the request made by Lin Mo, his face showed a difficult look.

"What? No?"

Lin Mo asked indifferently, and Wu Daoyi hurriedly shook his head.

"Brother Lin, as you know, the goods I've been working with over at Zhenla are all some basic guns.

If I want heavy firepower, I still need to ask the other side for their opinion."

"Go ahead!"

After receiving Lin Mo's approval, Wu Daoyi hurriedly went to contact the cargo owner.

Ten minutes later, he walked into the hall with a face full of joy.

"Brother Lin, good news, they originally refused flat out.

But when they heard it was something you needed, Brother Lin, they agreed without saying a word."

"Hey, hey, it's still your face that's great!"

Faced with this kind of boasting Lin Mo only smiled lightly.

It was unlikely that Jinla's side would be so kind, the reason they were so generous with their supplies was simply to let God Mountain and Zat Wanliu fight to the death, so that they could reap the benefits when the time came.

"I know, hurry up on your side, then when the goods arrive, help me transport them to God Mountain's side at the first opportunity."

"Just contact him when the time comes."

After Lin Mo left Fei's contact and a huge cheque, he hurriedly left the Wu family.

Now that the personnel and combat equipment were basically complete, he was next ready to contact another powerful friend.

Only just after he pulled out his mobile phone, the other party called before him.

"Young Lin, we need your help!"

.....

Wanxiang King's Palace.

With the arrival of Tama Xiong, Jiayuan I immediately ordered that he intended to give a banquet to the legendary general of the sea, and that all those invited were members of the royal family.

"Your Highness, this is an invitation from the royal palace, His Majesty is hosting a banquet for Commander Tama Xiong tonight."

Although the Grand Prince had known the news for a long time, he still pretended to be oblivious when Wen Qiang delivered the invitation.

“Eh, my grandfather was supposed to come to visit us both, mother and son.

It’s surprising that Father took the trouble to do so.”

“Don’t you know that my grandfather doesn’t like such scenes, and father is really the same.”

Said the smug smile on his face that could no longer be concealed.

Wen Qiang also knew his urbane nature and pretended to worship and flattered the Grand Prince a few times.

“Your Majesty you are as powerful as ever now.”

“With Lord Commander Tamao in the navy and the Minister of Border Affairs in the army, the future throne is just around the corner!

After this trip to the sacred mountains, I’m sure Your Majesty will have that self-knowledge.”

This was a treacherous remark, but it sounded very good to the Grand Prince.

Only when he thought of the old king, who was half dead and had been hogging the throne, his original smiling face suddenly turned gloomy.

“Hahahaha, I don’t know what the old man is thinking, his health is getting worse by the day, and he won’t give up the throne by decree.

And not to set up a successor.”

“The older he gets, the more confused he becomes!”

On this point, the First Prince was a rare and wise man.

The culprit for the chaos in the royal family of Wanxiang Kingdom was indeed the old King Jiayuan I.

Normally, his health condition was clear even for ordinary people, and he was not guaranteed to die a sudden and violent death.

However, he is still holding on to the throne and will not appoint a successor to the throne.

The princes felt that they had a chance, and had never been able to compete with each other.

It is no exaggeration to say that because of this incident, the economy of the country has shown negative growth, and this trend will become more and more serious.

“Perhaps His Majesty the King also has his hardships!”

Although Wen Qiang said so, in his heart he was expecting the more chaotic the country was, the better.

This was the only way to fish in troubled waters!

If the Wanxiang Kingdom was peaceful and the princes and kings were working in unison he would have slipped away long ago.

Chapter 3089

Just as the Grand Prince and Wen Qiang were talking, a silhouette suddenly barged in here.

“Big brother, when will you gather Zat Baiha back!”

When Wen Qiang heard this familiar voice his body couldn't help but appear to shiver, and his uncertain hands actually had nowhere to rest for a while.

Why had this terrible woman suddenly come over?

In the midst of Wen Qiang's slightly nervous eyes, the second princess Avis twisted her delicate body and walked in.

The Grand Prince was also only a little baffled by her arrival.

What was the point of summoning that trash back?

Besides, the two of them were the perfect pair to force God's mountain, so what was the point of recalling them?

The corners of the eldest prince's mouth suddenly curled in mockery as he thought about it.

“Second sister, is this what you're thinking of Duke Zat?”

Originally he had planned to remind, after all, the two had already had a breakup, and it was the second princess who had boarded Zat Baiha.

Who would have thought that Avis would have just adulated with his hands on his hips.

“Yeah, I'm up to him!”

“Cut the crap and hurry up and recall him!”

Ever since he had learned of Zat Baikha's true identity, he had wanted to bring Zat Baikha back to the royal capital at all hours of the day.

The thoughts in her simple mind were also simple.

Only by returning to the centre of power would he have a chance to fight for the throne.

The main thing was that not only was he quite the queen, but he also wanted an exciting and wild ride.

It was like nothing she had ever experienced before, and the thought of it made her tremble and her legs clench.

The Grand Prince had only looked at Avis before because she was well loved by her father, and had only befriended her to gain more resources.

Now that his grandfather had returned to the capital, the Grand Prince was in his prime.

After being reprimanded by Avis, he was instantly displeased and refused outright.

“Second sister, brother Zat is on an important mission right now.

If you're thinking of him go to the border and find him yourself!"

"You"

Avis blushed, he also didn't expect the First Prince to refuse decisively.

"Good for you, I'll think of something on my own!"

After saying this she turned her head and was about to leave, except that as she squinted her gaze, she suddenly spotted a familiar figure.

"Haven't I seen you somewhere before?"

Avis walked up to Wen Qiang's body and her eyes narrowed.

Wen Qiang was straightened by the aggressive look in her eyes and forced himself to calm down as he pretended to act as if nothing was wrong.

"Your Highness, don't we see each other all the time?"

"You know what I'm talking about!"

Avis brought her lips to the former's ear, "A man's eyes don't lie, and besides, have you forgotten what I do?"

"Prey that I have set my sights on, unless they stay out of my presence for the rest of their lives.

Otherwise"

Before she finished her words, she twisted her head and left a lip mark on Wen Qiang's face, then walked out of the hall with a smile on her face.

The deep meaningful smile at the corner of her mouth before she left already said it all.

Wen Qiang was also regretting at this point.

If he had known that he should have let the four maids go and meet this Second Princess.

Right now, if he was right, he was probably going to get hitched.

The secret message that Avis had given him before he left was an invitation to spend the night together.

At this moment, Wen Qiang only felt a headache.

At this moment, the voice of the Grand Prince interrupted Wen Qiang's contemplation.

"Mr. Wen, I always thought that you did not like women.

I didn't expect you to like the likes of second sister!"

"This is really your taste" Hahahaha!"

He said and laughed out loud straight away, a playful look written all over his face.

And Wen Qiang could only shrug his shoulders helplessly.

How should I explain this, should I blow my own cover and tell the First Prince that I had informed the Second Princess about the Fourth Prince?

How could he have done such a stupid thing without a ten-year brain clot?

Chapter 3090

After Lin Mo received the call from Tong Xiaohe, he immediately flew to Ryuk Island.

This was the home base of the famous Pao family within the ship as well.

As soon as the plane landed, Tong Xiaohe had personally brought someone to meet him.

“Young Lin, I am very sorry, I know you are busy with important matters, but my cousin’s health can’t wait any longer.”

Lin Mo saw his anxious expression and knew the seriousness of the situation.

“Let’s talk about it in the car, Mr. Tong!”

After getting into the limousine, Tong Xiaohe also recapped his cousin’s matter with Lin Mo.

What Lin Mo didn’t expect was that the same top ten shipping industry, the Pao Navigation Group, was actually related to their Tong family’s Oceanwide Group.

And it was a relationship that was still very collateral.

Tong Xiaohe’s cousin Bao Longxing is the eldest master of the Bao family, and this man is the main character of this incident.

It all started a few years ago.

Under the leadership of the head of the Pao family, the Pao family’s maritime group had grown by leaps and bounds, and in just 20 years had become one of the top 10 maritime companies in the world.

He was not only a powerful man, but also a business magnate of his generation.

It is rumoured that the Pao family, under the leadership of Pao Chingtian, has the strength to become the world’s ship king.

Born into such a family, Pao Longxing was full of ambition.

On one of his outings, he met a disciple of a Taoist family.

Both of them came from famous families and, being young and frivolous, they got into a fight over a woman’s words.

As Pao Lung Hing lost to his opponent in fisticuffs and kicks, he was not convinced and started to compete in a wine contest.

“Originally, my cousin was known as the little god of wine above Ryukyu Island.

However, although he won the contest, he fell victim to a stubborn disease.”

“In the old days it was fine, at most he would only get drunk suddenly from time to time without drinking.

But as he got older, his symptoms got worse.”

“Just two days ago, he suddenly collapsed and his heartbeat and pulse as well as his blood pressure started to drop continuously.

My aunt’s husband has asked an unknown number of famous doctors, but everyone is at their wits’ end.”

“I was at my wit’s end, so I could only seek your help.”

Although Tong Xiaohe had not seen Lin Mo’s hands with his own eyes, a world problem like the night vine herb could be solved by him, plus the various miraculous pills that flowed from Lin Mo’s hands.

These were enough to prove Lin Mo’s medical skills.

Lin Mo listened while taking note of each of these symptoms in his mind.

“I’ll do my best.”

Without seeing the patient with his own eyes, Lin Mo could not only make a judgement.

After the car stopped, inside the opulent castle, thought the white-headed butler rushed out in a hurry.

“Young Tong, they are already waiting for you.”

“Good!”

Time is urgent Tong Xiaohe and did not say anything more, after getting out of the car immediately led Lin Mo into the castle.

Through the various long corridors, Lin Mo had already seen countless security personnel.

And through his senses, he found that there were many experts hidden within the castle.

However, out of courtesy, he didn’t observe too much and just followed Tong Xiaohe and the butler as they flew along.

After getting on the duplex lift, the three of them went straight to the top floor, where there were already people standing around.

A few of them were gorgeously dressed middle-aged men, and after seeing Tong Xiaohe, a flash of joy suddenly sprang to their anxious faces.

One of them, a delicately maintained noblewoman, stepped forward and directly shook Tong Xiaohe’s hands.

“Xiao He, you’ve finally come!”

“Auntie Aunt, I’ve brought the man, this is the Chinese medical saint I was talking about.”

However, after their eyes fell on Lin Mo, Lin Mo could clearly perceive the look of loss in their expressions.
