

Genius 3111

Chapter 3111

“What!!!”

Zhao Nan Yue and You Li were like lightning strikes, their voices both amplified by eight hundred yards.

Such a young Patriarch-level powerhouse, and an ambassador of the Huaxia Martial Union Zhen Yue, would definitely be the top powerhouse of Huaxia in the future.

“Lin Mo ah, I think that the marriage between you and Little Green Shadow can be discussed again.”

You Li rubbed his fingers together wrongly, a bitchy smile on his face as he looked at Lin Mo with a fiery gaze.

A Patriarch level powerhouse in his twenties, ah, he must be dragged into my Basha Divine Mountain’s camp.

“Senior You Li, I’m single-minded about Halfsia, you’d better not flirt with me.”

Lin Mo smiled helplessly, how come your Basha divine Mountain is not only kidnapping people for marriage but also kidnapping people for marriage.

As the troops of the Wanxiang Kingdom retreated, Lin Mo took a group of people back to the Basha Divine Mountain, next he had to focus on refining the Mirror Breaking Pill to break through to the Patriarch realm.

Inside Mr. Pill’s medicinal garden, he looked at his medicinal garden with a look of reluctance in his eyes.

“Kid, this time my medicinal garden is probably or not coming down, remember, you owe me a big favour.”

There were extremely many precious medicinal herbs in the Basha divine Mountain, especially in the medicinal garden cultivated by Mr. Pill, and even better medicinal herbs were everywhere.

Lin Mo naturally came to Mr. Pill’s medicinal garden to select herbs for his alchemy, and although he was reluctant to do so, the old man still gave it to Lin Mo and said such words as you can use it as you wish.

“Senior’s kindness is in my heart.”

After Mr. Pill left, Lin Mo recalled the ingredients needed for the Patriarchal Mirror Breaker Pill from his memory.

“Fire Spirit Spike, Broken Gut Grass, Thousand Year Grass Ginseng, Dragon Blood Fruit, Bodhi Seed .....”

Lin Mo looked at the yard full of herbs and went up to identify them one by one, there were spiritual pills that could prolong life and also poisonous pills that could kill a person with one plant.

One of the ways of medicine is that even poisonous medicines can be turned into life-saving ones, and as long as the pharmacology is well matched, a perfect mirror-breaking pill can be refined.

Mr. Pill was worthy of being the first person to cultivate medicinal herbs, and Lin Mo had never seen so many genius treasures until now.

After happily picking a bunch of herbs, Lin Mo ignored the mess in the courtyard and walked inside the house, controlling his spiritual power to start a flame.

“Fire spirit spike burned with blazing fire until powdered, put in the dragon blood fruit whose colour is already red small fire to force out the moisture, again put in the broken heart gra*s .....”

Without the use of a side dan furnace, Lin Mo directly used his spiritual power to control the herbs suspended in mid-air, constantly put in a variety of herbs, a faint medicinal fragrance also gradually appeared in the room.

As time pa*sed little by little, a golden liquid was suspended in mid-air in front of Lin Mo.

Looking at the liquid in front of him, Lin Mo’s expression was grave, the Mirror Breaking Pill was now only missing the final step, the condensation of the pills.

The last herb on the ground flew up. It was said to be a medicinal herb, but it looked very strange, like a stone, cold and hard in the hand.

This is the most difficult of all the world’s famous herbs to find, the stone herb, which is as hard as a stone, but will gradually soften when it meets a hot fire, and has the effect of making flesh and bone of the dead.

The golden liquid began to shrink and shrink, and the fragrance of the medicine in the room became stronger and stronger, and even spread out through the door.

Outside, Mr. Pill walked back and forth as if he had seen his daughter-in-law enter a hotel with another man.

Suddenly, a strong medicinal scent came from the room, and Mr. Pill just took a careful sniff and his face changed dramatically.

“Fire Spirit Spike, Broken Gut Gra*s,, Thousand Year Gra*s Ginseng, Dragon’s Blood Fruit, Bodhi Seeds, and my most precious stone herbs, ah! My courtyard!”

Mr. Pill quickly ran to the door and opened it to catch a glimpse of the wreckage in the courtyard, and his eyes instantly turned black.

“You Li, you old b*****d don’t stop me, I’m going to beat him to death!”

Chapter 3112

“Yes, you are noble, you are great, you let me suffer alone, look at what my medicine field has become, and so many herbs, in case it fails .....”

Mr. Medicine looked at the group of old shameless behind him, his face was red with anger to the old man, although he was heartbroken about the herbs, but not so much that he did not share the big picture.

The next moment, a riot of aura, the aura of a hundred meters around instantly converged towards the house.

Mr. Pill looked at the fluctuation, his eyes filled with excitement as he muttered.

In the room, Lin Mo’s face also showed a look of relaxation as he looked at the green coloured nine-stripe pills suspended in front of him.

A nine-transformation level Mirror Breaking Pill was definitely enough for him to break through to the realm of Patriarch.

He quickly put the pills away in the fine white jade bottle that he had prepared in advance.

The potency of the elixir was still very fast, so if it was put into an ordinary wooden box, it would probably become an ordinary elixir in the morning.

Just as he opened the door to the house, Lin Mo saw Mr. Pill answer up excitedly, grabbing his arm and shaking it constantly.

“Mr. Lin, how many lines of mirror-breaking pills did you refine? With your medical skills, seven or eight ripples?”

The grain of a pill represented the medicinal power it contained, and even with Lin Mo’s superior medical skills, Mr. Pill did not dare to say if it had nine grains.

“Not to be outdone by Mr. Medicine’s medicinal garden, I have refined a nine-stripe Mirror Breaker Pill.”

With that said, Lin Mo handed the jade bottle containing the pill to Mr. Pill, who was definitely very eager to observe it.

“No, once you open it the medicinal properties will be lost, you will be breaking through soon, this matter is not allowed.”

Mr. Pill directly pushed back the jade bottle that Lin Mo had handed to him, and then turned around to leave, he was afraid that he would not be able to resist the temptation of the pills if he stayed any longer.

Lin Mo looked at the pills that had been pushed back and his heart warmed, although Old Master Pill was cursing and swearing, he was indeed a nice person.

You Li came up and looked at Lin Mo with a heavy face.

“Lin Mo, where do you plan to break through next?”

The heaven and earth disturbance of breaking through the sect master was very obvious, if other countries saw it, they would definitely not let Lin Mo break through peacefully, then it was estimated that several sect masters from other countries would join hands.

Lin Mo pondered for a while, and finally thought of a place.

“Senior You, if it’s possible junior would like to borrow the forbidden land where the Karma Fire Red Lotus is located to make a breakthrough.”

You Li’s expression moved, the place where the Karma Fire Red Lotus was located was the deepest cave in the Ba Mountain Divine Mountain, covered with various prohibitions and guarded by guardian divine beasts, it was indeed the best place.

“Magnanimous Nephew Lin, that forbidden place is the most important place on my Ba Sha Divine Mountain, it’s not very convenient for you to go in as an outsider, is it?”

Before Yuli’s voice broke, he spoke again “Of course, if you take the Green Shadow, then you will be the aunt of my Basha divine Mountain, and the next mountain lord can be given to you.”

Lin Mo helplessly rubbed his brow, this old senior was good at everything, but he liked to introduce marriages to himself, a married man.

“Elder You, Halfsia is your goddaughter and I’m his husband, that’s one of your own, right?”

You Li, who was looking like he was getting his way with his treacherous plan, froze, forgetting that he had previously taken Xu Hanxia as his goddaughter.

In the end, You Li had no choice but to compromise and lead Lin Mo towards the cave in the back of the mountain.

“The divine beasts guarding the forbidden land are left behind by my old ancestor of the Basha divine Mountain, so if you follow me closely and don’t say anything in a while, which divine beast senior won’t give us a hard time.”

Lin Mo nodded honestly, after all, going to someone’s forbidden place to break through, even if you don’t give benefits, you can’t still disturb them.

After sending Lin Mo to the cave, You Li left, Xu Hanxia was still cultivating in the cave, and it was too embarrassing for the young couple to be here by themselves.

Without disturbing Xu Hanxia, Lin Mo sat himself in the corner, took out the nine lines of pills in the jade bottle, and swallowed them directly into his mouth.

However, Lin Mo did not know that there was a very dark and obscure pattern etched into the nine patterns.

This elixir had already taken half a step into the tenth grain!

Chapter 3113

The half-step ten-stripe pills were twice as strong as the nine-stripe pills, and the raging medicinal power exploded unhindered in Lin Mo's body.

The medicinal power rampantly impacted Lin Mo's meridians and blood .....

Outside, Lin Mo's body was red, unable to suppress the medicinal power for a moment.

"Poof!"

A mouthful of blood spurted out, not because of injury, but because Lin Mo had added too many genius treasures to it.

Herbs that could not even be sought for a few hundred million on the market could only be considered ordinary in Mr. Pill's medicinal garden.

An ordinary Mirror Breaking Pill only required ninety-nine herbs, but Lin Mo had added as many as two hundred when he had refined it before.

Sensing that the spiritual energy in his body was somewhat uncontrollable, Lin Mo quickly concentrated his mind and guarded his Qi, and began to run the Creation Dictate with all his might.

"Give me melting!"

In front of Lin Mo's majestic spiritual energy, the Mirror Breaking Dan could only be slowly eaten away like a small sheep.

Just when Lin Mo thought he could break through, an internal fire rushed up to his heart and soul from within.

"This is ..... the fire spirit spike and the bodhi seed working against each other ....."

A golden flame flared up on Lin Mo's body, instantly waking up Xu Hanxia who was cultivating at the side.

"Lin Mo, what's wrong with you Lin Mo."

When Xu Hanxia took a look at Lin Mo's body on fire, he was instantly anxious.

"Half ..... Xia, hand me my ..... mask ....."

Lin Mo had difficulty even opening his mouth at this point, and it took all his strength to utter a broken sentence.

Before Lin Mo broke through, he had put aside the items on his body, including the silver needles and the Lan Ling Ghost Mask.

Xu Hanxia directly handed the Lan Ling Ghost Face over and gently mmed it on Lin Mo's face.

Lin Mo's spiritual power as well as his spiritual power surged again, and the flames on his body were suppressed a little, but they still didn't go down completely.

The next moment, the flames that had just been suppressed once again flared up, even more violently than earlier.

Anxiously, Xu Hanxia dug out a bit of water from the pool and hurriedly poured it over Lin Mo's body, but it was evaporated before it could get close.

Lin Mo painstakingly held on to his brow to keep his spiritual mind from becoming confused.

The residual medicinal power within his body actually united with the flames at this point, and Lin Mo's sanity was directly rushed into chaos at this point.

"Lin Mo, how are you doing?"

Xu Hanxia looked at Lin Mo's eyes were glowing red at this time, gasping for air, just like ..... just like being drugged.

Xu Hanxia's voice caught Lin Mo's attention, and he directly raised his hand to use his spiritual power.

The majestic suction force came out from Lin Mo's hand, and Xu Hanxia, who was only a few meters apart, was directly held into Lin Mo's arms.

Feeling the soft and delicate body in his arms, the red in Lin Mo's eyes intensified.

The flames burned away their already thin clothes, leaving only two bodies facing each other openly.

Xu Hanxia's forehead emerged with a pattern of red lotus flames, and in the next moment.

The flames on Lin Mo's body were wildly absorbed by the Red Lotus Flame, and the red lotus pattern on Xu Hanxia's forehead gradually blossomed.

"Lin Mo you ....."

At this moment, Xu Hanxia was being held by Lin Mo to death, her face was covered in red and she hurried to hold down Lin Mo's unfaithful hands.

Xu Hanxia was ashamed to even do this kind of thing at home, let alone let her outside.

But Xu Hanxia obviously couldn't stop Lin Mo who was already on fire with lust at this point, his hands were still moving wildly and then he kissed Xu Hanxia's lips.

"Well ....."

Xu Hanxia had just tried to open her mouth to struggle when her mouth was taken advantage of by Lin Mo, and she was unable to speak at once.

Faced with the teasing of Lin Mo, one of China's top medical saints, Xu Hanxia looked at the side of Lin Mo's handsome face and directly began to turn the tables on him.

A pattern of red lotus karmic flame appeared in the void, and the golden flames it had absorbed earlier were turned red by it.

At this moment a wisp of red flame was like silk, slowly wrapping Lin Mo as well as Xu Hanxia, the two crazy people, into it.

Perhaps the Red Lotus Karma Flame couldn't even look at it anymore .....

Chapter 3114

In the early morning, Lin Mo opened his eyes and saw Xu Hanxia, who was resting in his arms.

“Hanxia, it’s time to get up.”

Xu Hanxia opened her eyes tiredly and saw Lin Mo’s handsome face, and the events of last night came back to her mind one by one.

Instantly, Xu Hanxia’s cheeks were as translucent as red apples.

Suddenly, she touched a spot on Lin Mo’s body and immediately covered her face in shame.

With a heated smile, Lin Mo got up and let Xu Hanxia go, taking out a spare set of clothes from the side and handing it to Xu Hanxia.

“They’re men’s, but you can barely wear them.”

Soon after, Lin Mo led Xu Hanxia out of the forbidden place and saw You Li who was outside.

“Lin Mo, how was it, did you break through?”

Due to the layers of forbidden formations in the Bashar God Mountain Forbidden Land, this caused You Li to not be able to feel whether Lin Mo had made a breakthrough at all.

“Not to be outdone, still broke through to Zong Shi.”

Lin Mo smiled as he waved his palms together towards the sky, and a hundred-metre sword qi rushed towards the sky, shaking the entire Barsha divine Mountain.

“It’s the direction of the back mountain, it seems that Lin Mo has made a successful breakthrough.”

Inside the medicinal garden, Mr. Pill was tidying up his yard and had been some new herbs coming in, when he saw the rushing sword qi in the direction of the back mountain, some relief came out of his eyes.

“Congratulations to Young Master Lin.”

A black-clothed figure stepped out behind You Li, and he arched his hand at Lin Mo and congratulated him.

“It was thanks to your help that the army of the Wanxiang Kingdom could be destroyed so smoothly this time, this kindness is remembered by Lin Mo.”

Lin Mo looked at the black-robed figure in front of him and said seriously.

The black robe waved his hand with a smile, “I had the honour of spending some time with your father, the King of the North, Lin Xiao, back then, you are also considered my own son and nephew, so what else is there to say about favours.”

“Worthy of being one of the eighteen envoys of the Hongmen.”

The black robe, faced with You Li’s compliments, hastily returned the compliment and said.

“No, no, no, you are the mountain lord of the Basha divine Mountain, the world’s top great figure now.”

“Little friend Lin, can my Zhao family come in time this time.”

Not far away Zhao Nan Yue walked over with a dragon stride, his clothes still stained with a bit of blood.

“Why are you here too, you hidden-headed person?”

As Zhao Nan Yue approached, he spotted the black robe standing next to You Li, and was immediately on guard, and shouted.

“You Li Mountain Master, this fellow is not well intentioned, be careful.”

“You reckless man, bullsh*t! Didn’t I get seen by you once before, how come I’m hiding my head.”

The black robe was also emotional when he saw Zhao Nan Yue, he had never been so untouched in all his life.

“People who hide their heads and hide their tails!”

“Brainless reckless man!”

Lin Mo watched as the two cursed at each other, and was instantly frozen in his tracks.

No, why were these two getting into a feud again.

“D*mn you!”

“Come on, I’ll just beat the hell out of you and take your Ollie!”

Naturally, Zhao Nan Yue could not say that the two men had moved their hands, so naturally he just changed his excuse.

Seeing that the two strong men were about to clash together in a fist fight, Lin Mo came forward helplessly to stop them.

“Two seniors, you should stop fighting, stop it!”

Zhao Nan Yue and Black Robe simultaneously snorted coldly and turned their heads away.

“If it wasn’t for Lin Mo’s face, I’d absolutely beat you to death! x2”

The next moment, both of them twisted their heads and roared at the same time.

“You’re still f*cking talking like me!”

In the end, it was only after Lin Mo went up and pulled the black robe and You Li tugged Zhao Nan Yue that the matter ended.

At lunchtime, Lin Mo looked at the two people sitting on opposite sides of the large round table, still staring at each other with a deadly stare, and helplessly rubbed his brow.

Why did it feel like when the two of them were together, even the picture was out of place?

When the food came up, the chopsticks of the two men were like swords tangling and fighting, and the others simply changed tables to eat.

Chapter 3115

In the palace of the Wanxiang Kingdom, Jiayuan I was lying on his bed while Yi Xiaochi was attentively feeding him medicine.

Jia Yuan I Shi swallowed the medicine in his mouth with great effort, and with all his strength he could barely speak.

“Little girl, how is the news from the border ..... cough cough ..... side?”

Yi Xiaochi tenderly scooped up a spoonful of Chinese medicine again and fed it to Jiayuan I before speaking.

“Everything is going well at the border now, the Basha divine Mountain has been taken down, Your Majesty, don’t worry.”

I Xiaochi did not dare to tell the truth to Jiayuan I. If he knew that his army had been defeated and only tens of thousands of remnants remained at the border, he would probably have to hastily call off his troops.

“That is very good, cough cough ..... very good.”

A smile appeared on Jiayuan I’s face, even his condition felt to be that much better.

Lin Mo’s elixir only had a few last pills left, and Jiayuan I hadn’t swallowed them, he would only swallow them when it was most important to appear in the outside world.

“Unbridled you bunch of b*tchy maids dare to stop me? Don’t you know who I am?”

Noisy voices rang out from outside, and a look of displeasure appeared on Jiayuan I’s face.

“Outside ..... cough cough ..... who is making a loud noise?”

Yi Xiaochi immediately said, “Your Majesty, I will go out and take a look.”

Jiayuan I nodded, his eyes slightly closed, showing only a slit, not knowing what he was thinking about.

Yi Xiaozhi pushed open the door of the hall, and the Second Princess was yelling outside the door, and the maids who were blocking her only dared to kneel on the ground and let her whip them.

“Second Princess, His Majesty is resting, what is the reason for your visit?”

Yi Xiaochi had a smile on her face and her tone was full of tenderness, as if she were really the Second Princess’s mother.

The Second Princess looked at Yi Xiaozhi in disgust and questioned in a cold voice.

“Did you hide the news of your army’s defeat from my father?”

A look of shock appeared on Yi Xiaochi's face as she spoke, "Second Princess, who has been blowing pillow talk in your ears? The words of those unscrupulous people cannot be trusted, I naturally would not conceal it from Your Majesty."

The Second Princess' face appeared angry, first she said that someone had whispered in her ears, and then she said something about unscrupulous people, this was completely saying that he slept with unscrupulous people all day long.

"Yi Xiaozhi, you dare to mock me even for a vase, if it wasn't for this look of yours, you would probably have fallen to the level of a man by now!"

The Second Princess spoke viciously, directly causing Yi Xiaochi's originally tiny face to gradually turn gloomy, before she was pushed away and the Second Princess was about to walk towards the bedroom.

"Second Princess, you can't go in, His Majesty is resting."

Yi Xiaochi panicked a little inside, how dare she let the Second Princess see Jiayuan I, then what she had been doing for so long would be a direct loss.

"Unbridled, you b*tch full of my father every day, if not how could he have allowed tens of thousands of warriors to prowl the border line!"

"It's Avis, isn't it? Come in and speak."

Jiayuan I's tired voice rang out from inside the house, and Second Princess Avis gave Yi Xiaochi a fierce glare as she pushed the door open and walked in.

Upon entering the room the strong smell of herbs made Avis cringe in discomfort, but she still walked over respectfully in the face of her ever doting father.

"Avis, have you run out of money on you again? Wait and go and get five hundred million from the finance minister to spend first."

Jiayuan I looked at Avis with a sense of doting in his gaze; in the past, when Avis had taken the initiative to run over to him, he must have run out of money, so he had directly asked him to go and get it from the Finance Minister.

"Father, I'm not here for money this time, I'm here to talk to you about matters of state!"

Avis, looking at Jiayuan I who was still looking at him as if he were a child, took his hand and said sharply.

"Is that so? It seems our little Avis has grown up, tell it to Father."

Chapter 3116

Yi Xiaochi walked in at that moment, interrupting what Avis was about to say.

"Your Highness the Second Princess, it's getting late, why don't we have our meal and talk about it?"

If it was Wen Qiang or Ding Liangzhu again, they would probably have directly struck out at Jiayuan I and the Second Princess, followed by falsely passing on the holy decree to withdraw the power of the various imperial sons, and finally, one by one, secretly eliminate the loyal subjects and completely usurp the throne.

But at this point, Yi Xiaochi actually had the presumption to delay the Second Princess, and her fate was already sealed down.

Jiayuan I saw Yi Xiaochi look like he didn't want Avis to talk, as if he also guessed what was going on, and said directly.

"Lone say ..... cough cough ..... let Avis speak!"

Jiayuan I no longer ignored Yi Xiaochi, but turned his gaze to Avis, who was kneeling in front of the window, and said softly, "Tell Father, what has happened?"

Seeing the way Jiayuan I knew nothing, Avis understood at once that Yi Xiaochi had not revealed the defeat to his own father at all.

"Father, the Chinese healer saint Lin Mo went on a killing spree when our army was sent to besiege, and has already touched the threshold of the Patriarch, and is now said to have broken through to the Patriarch."

"Even our 100,000-strong army as well as the tank brigade were heavily damaged, but Border Minister Zat Wanliu has delayed bringing them back and instead stationed them at the border!"

"Boom boom boom!"

Avis' words made Jiayuan I's heart feel like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, and the figure that was originally lying on the bed instantly sat up, and his eyes that had been slightly narrowed instantly widened.

The lion that had gradually fallen, Jiayuan I, opened his eyes once again, his fangs dulled but still capable of killing.

The domineering aura made both Avis and Yi Xiaozhi pale, and Jiayuan I stared deadly at Yi Xiaozhi, his eyes revealing a bit of sadness as well as ruthlessness!

"Someone, send the Crown Princess to the Cold Palace for a few years first."

In an instant, two black shadows appeared in the depths of Jiayuan I. They were dressed in exquisitely crafted golden armour with a roaring lion carved in gold trim.

One of them was also carrying a black-clad figure in his hand, none other than Mei, the deadly warrior sent by Ding Liang Zhu.

Just now she saw that the situation was not good and tried to kill Jiayuan I directly, but was taken down by the two men who sensed that they had directly ruined both arms.

Yi Xiaochi's face was miserable and tears spurted out as she knelt in front of Jiayuan I and wept bitterly, begging for forgiveness.

“Your Majesty, I know I was wrong Your Majesty, I was coerced.”

“Your Majesty, you don’t look at the merits but also at the hard work, for the sake of all the days I have worked so hard to brew your medicine, forgive me this time.”

Jiayuan I looked at Yi Xiaochi begging for mercy, the woman’s appearance at the beginning came to his mind, just when he wanted to speak.

“Didn’t my father say it all? Pull her down and ‘calm down’ in the cold palace!”

Jiayuan I closed his eyes in exhaustion after seeing Yi Xiaozhi being dragged away; perhaps, he was really getting old.

It was only after swallowing the few pills that Jiayuan I felt his body gain some strength.

Slowly opening his eyes and seeing Avis, who was still kneeling in front of him, Jiayuan I slowly said.

“Avis, go and tell the Minister of Military Affairs to inform Zatvanliu to withdraw his troops immediately, or else send an army forward to kill them, and then put everyone of the Zat I clan under guard.”

“Yes, my daughter is on her way.”

Looking at Avis as he thundered out, a different colour flashed in Jiayuan I’s eyes, perhaps Avis could be a good emperor too?

At the Minister of War in the royal capital, Avis shouted just as he walked in.

“Where is the Minister of War? Come out quickly.”

The Minister of War said as he trotted all the way out of the house and looked at the Second Princess with a humble smile on his face.

“Why is Your Highness the Second Princess free to come to my military administration office?”

“The Minister of Military Affairs receives the decree!”

Chapter 3117

The Minister of Military Affairs knelt down at once, thinking in his heart that this Second Princess, who normally went out of sleep to have fun, would actually bring a decree from His Majesty.

Could it be that she had taken a fancy to the man in the Military and Political Academy? But the Military and Political Courts were all middle-aged men in their forties and fifties on average.

“His Majesty dictates that the army at the border be recalled immediately, while troops are sent to control the clan lands of the Zat clan.”

“I obey the order.”

The Minister of Military Affairs was in a state of shock at this time, the Zat Wanliu clan far away from the border of the Wanxiang Kingdom was about to be brought under control and also recalled immediately, the Zat Wanliu were in danger.

“Minister of Military Affairs, His Majesty has high hopes for you, your ability is in His Majesty’s eyes, don’t let Him down.”

The Second Princess squatted down and patted the War Minister’s shoulder, her tone somewhat meaningful.

A line of cold sweat ran down the neck of the Minister of Military Affairs, as a veteran of officialdom, he naturally understood what the Second Princess meant.

Your ability is in the eyes of His Majesty, and His Majesty knows all the things you have done.

A fierce look flashed in the Minister of War’s eyes as he took out his phone and quickly dialled the Chief of the Royal Capital Security Service.

“I don’t care what method you use, immediately arrest all the members of the Zat clan within half an hour, if there is a single fish that has slipped through the net, you will go and feed them to the fish!”

The Minister of Military Affairs, who had just been obsequious, now spoke in a cold and ruthless tone, giving an urgent order to the Chief of the Security Service.

At the same time, he said to all the ministers of the Military and Political Council, “Now immediately announce the news of the withdrawal of the army nationwide, and if there are any accidents, everyone will die together!”

Soon, the news reached the desks of the Grand Prince and the Third Prince.

“Pah!”

The vase on the tabletop was smashed directly onto the floor by the Grand Prince, making a crisp sound and expressing the Grand Prince’s anger at the moment.

With Zat Baiha dead and the Minister of Border Affairs transferred out of the royal capital, his own two major aids to the throne were now gone, and Jiayuan I wanted a truce at this point?

“Mr. Wen Qiang, what should we do at this point?”

The Grand Prince’s gaze turned to Wen Qiang on the side and asked the other party.

“Your Highness, don’t worry, although we have lost the help of the Minister of Border Affairs at this time, the Third Prince’s air force has also been defeated, now if we can make a big noise to earn our fame.”

“Only you, Your Highness, are qualified to take the throne, the Third Prince is not prestigious enough, and the Sixth Prince is not prestigious or powerful enough.”

At that moment, the Grand Prince was touched by Wen Qiang’s words and looked at him with great curiosity.

“I implore you, sir, to help me obtain the throne, and then you will be the Minister of Military Affairs, no, higher than the Minister of Military Affairs, and the position of Chancellor will be created specifically for you!”

Wen Qiang smiled faintly and spoke.

“Now that everyone has a shadow of Lin Mo’s invincibility, as long as you can inflict damage on Lin Mo, then prestige and face you have it all.”

The Grand Prince froze at his words, if I could have beaten him I wouldn’t have let him run wild until now.

“Your Highness listen to me carefully, behind the sacred mountain of Basha, there is a sea called Bali Sea, we just need to lead the navy to it quietly and then fire all the cannons.”

“With all this commotion Mount Basha will not be able to hide it, and when we come back, we will directly create momentum, saying that you saw the Lin Mo bandits running wild, led your army to the battle and returned home with a draw.”

The Grand Prince’s eyes lit up, as long as he returned and quickly created momentum, he could even create momentum and say that he was Lin Mo’s nemesis, as long as he was on top, Lin Mo would naturally be solved.

At that time, the great prince could even fantasize about many ministers looking at him respectfully and praising him.

His Highness the Grand Prince ..... is really frugal, loves the people, has a magnificent temperament, can inspire and rule in literature, and can trample the world in martial arts!

Chapter 3118

As Wen Qiang watched the Grand Prince fall into a fantasy of hemming and hawing, a look of contempt flashed in his eyes, it was true that the princes of the Wanxiang Kingdom were all a bunch of trash, only capable of mindless rage.

But for the sake of his plan, Wen Qiang still said respectfully.

“Congratulations to His Highness, ah no, the future Majesty.”

“How dare you, thanks to Mr. Wen Qiang being by my side, it’s almost like Han King Liu Bang with Xiao He.”

The Grand Prince smiled as he walked down and grabbed Wen Qiang’s hand, the two were like close friends at the moment.

But both of them knew very well that if the other had not still had use for them, they would probably have been cast aside immediately.

As Wen Qiang watched his hand being grabbed by the Grand Prince, a look of disgust flashed across his eyes.

Even such a person dared to call himself Liu Bang.

Soon after, the Grand Prince gathered a large number of his naval forces to head for the Bali River behind the sacred mountain of Pasha.

In order to conceal himself from the public, the Grand Prince ordered his men to lower the national flag on board the ship and replace it with the flag of the Great Qu Merchant Alliance.

The Royal Palace of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

Avis knelt respectfully at the window to report the news to his father, Jiayuan I.

At times Jiayuan I frowned, at others he nodded slightly, a smile on his face.

Looking down at Avis, who was a little rusty but still reporting word for word, Jiayuan I waved his hand for her to come over a little.

The second princess Avis was always a brat to anyone, and only in front of Jiayuan I was he as good and quiet as a girl.

“Avis, if you were to become the king of the Wanxiang Kingdom, would you have confidence?”

Avis froze and looked at Jiayuan I, his father, who was already dying of old age, with some disbelief.

“My son, I have no confidence.”

Avis bowed her head and said the words, she was just a second generation who ate and drank and did not have to worry about anything, she did not know how to rule the country.

“No harm, no harm ..... you still have enough time to learn all this .....”

Avis looked up at Jiayuan I with some incredulity.

“Father, let’s not talk about whether I can do it or not, the eldest brother, the third prince .....”

Avis did not say the sixth prince, even in her opinion, the sixth prince had no possibility of winning at all in front of the great and third prince.

“Avis, I am still the emperor, your brother and the others will not be able to turn over the sky!”

Jiayuan I’s words were full of confidence, the confidence of a monarch in himself.

“One of these days you will now be in the middle of the palace looking at the memorials that are being presented from all over the world.”

Avis nodded silently at Jiayuan I’s words, not knowing when the young girl had begun an inexplicable transformation, the bloodline of the Jiayuan clan was gradually awakening.

Sooner or later, she would become an emperor comparable to Jiayuan I.

In the midst of the piles of folders, Avis, somewhat rustily, began to tally the taxes, the situation of the inhabitants, and the damage caused by natural disasters and so on.

Jiayuan I looked at Avis with joy in his eyes, feeling that he had found a suitable successor.

The Bali River behind the sacred mountain of Pasha, the Grand Prince had not even thought that when he went out, he would be stolen from his home by his most unexpected second sister.

“Mr. Wen Qiang, we have reached the back of the Basha Divine Mountain, what do we do next?”

Wen Qiang responded as he looked at the large mountain towering in front of him.

“Have all naval forces aim all of their main guns as well as their secondary guns at twenty-four degrees south latitude, and fire in three minutes in unison.”

Wen Qiang’s orders were passed down the line in an orderly fashion, and the main guns on dozens of battleships were aimed at a point on the sacred mountain of Basha.

Thirty seconds .....

Twenty seconds .....

Last ten seconds .....

“All hands, fire!”

Wen Qiang’s yell rang out through the intercom, and in an instant the ear-splitting, disorienting sound of cannon fire rang out as the upper white rounds headed towards the God of Basha.

The attack was on!

Chapter 3119

In an instant, hundreds of cannonballs gathered in the sky above the Basha divine Mountain.

A stream of light flashed, and the great mountain protection formation, which was normally hidden and passively defended, was revealed, and the power of the hundreds of cannonballs exploded above the mountain protection formation, a ripple spreading continuously.

“Your Highness, it’s time to go.”

Wen Qiang looked at the Grand Prince, if they didn’t leave at this time later the other side would react and it would not be good for them to leave.

“Withdraw .....

“Why is the Grand Prince in a hurry to leave, there are friends coming from afar.”

A voice like a nightmare appeared in the ear of the great prince.

A dozen warships slowly appeared not far away, the flag of the Pao family hanging overhead.

Lin Mo as well as the black robe stood at the very front of the ships with amiable smiles on their faces.

The Grand Prince and Wen Qiang’s faces suddenly changed, their own and others’ whereabouts had actually been exposed.

The Great Prince's face gave a little ugly as he looked towards Wen Qiang, what should they do at this point.

"Force a breakthrough."

Wen Qiang lowered his voice and said to the Grand Prince.

The Grand Prince looked at the group of ships surrounding himself and the others, and a helpless look flashed across his face.

"All generals, listen to my military orders and break out!"

The two dozen or so Wanxiang Kingdom warships turned their full power directly towards the front, revealing a desperate attempt to fight for their lives.

However, naturally, the Pao's ships would not watch them crash into them, and the main guns on board fired directly.

The East Wind torpedoes from China could be considered a devastating blow to the Wanxiang ships.

With a single shot, a ship would basically be incapacitated.

Lin Mo was now leaping towards the Grand Prince's ship, Windward, with his black robe.

Seeing the duo getting closer, Wen Qiang hurriedly pulled the Grand Prince to take him away.

"Mr. Wen, you can't lose the Windward Sword."

"Your Highness," Wen Qiang looked at the Grand Prince and spoke coldly, "If we wait for Lin Mo to come up, we don't even have to leave."

The Grand Prince had no choice but to follow Wen Qiang quickly to another ship as well as the one that broke out and sailed towards the Wanxiang Kingdom in it.

Bao Longxing looked at Lin Mo who was walking up and said with a smile, "Mr. Lin, we captured thirteen of the twenty-five search warships this time, broke eleven, and the remaining one ran away."

Lin Mo nodded and spoke, "Young Master Bao, if it wasn't for your help this time, it wouldn't have gone so smoothly, so take this bottle of medicine to Old Master Bao for me."

A small jade bottle appeared in Lin Mo's palm, inside it was a specially made version of the Longevity Pill, which could delay the natural life span by twenty years.

"Grandpa's condition has healed, this is?"

Bao Longxing took the small jade bottle in Lin Mo's hand and looked at him with some confusion.

"This bottle of ammunition is called the Longevity Pill, and it can delay organ failure for almost twenty years."

Bao Longxing's eyes instantly lit up, if his own grandfather lived for another twenty years, the Bao family could definitely become the number one in the maritime world.

“Then I will write over Mr. Lin Mo on behalf of grandfather, next time if there is something, my Pao family will never refuse.”

Bao Longxing turned around and left with great joy, going back to tell the old man the happy news.

Lin Mo commanded the men to moor the thirteen battleships in the middle of the docks of the Bashar God Mountain.

Poor Wen Qiang and the Grand Prince would not even know that the Basha Divine Mountain had arranged scouting teams in a hundred-mile radius.

As soon as they arrived, they were directly discovered by the scouting team, and it just so happened that the young master of the Pao family was also there, directly responding to them from the inside.

Standing on the Grand Prince’s Windward Sword, Lin Mo’s mind kept thinking.

The power of both the Grand Prince and the Third Prince had been traumatised, and he wondered if the Gadrei would be able to take advantage of the situation and rise to power.

At King Vientiane’s Palace, Avis, who was approving documents, saw a special document.

On it was none other than the Grand Prince’s application for a naval departure two days ago and the proof of it, which gave Avis a bad feeling.

He hastened to bring the article to Jiayuan I to hear his opinion.

Just listening to Avis’ words, anger flashed in Jiayuan I’s eyes.

“This rebellious son!”

Chapter 3120

Under the rage of Jiayuan I, a mouthful of crimson bruised blood spurted out directly, and his face suddenly turned as white as paper.

“Father!”

Avis was immediately frightened out of her wits and hurriedly stepped forward to use a spoon to feed the last pill to Jiayuan I.

Jiayuan I soothed for a moment, and a look of intense disappointment passed over him severely.

He had not expected the most outstanding Grand Prince, as well as the Third Prince, to be so foolish.

“Avis, summon your ..... cough cough ..... elder brother and third brother, as well as all the ministers to come to the court meeting”

Jiayuan I’s somewhat weary words rang out, and Avis hurried forward.

In just half an hour, the first prince, who had just returned dusty, as well as the third prince, who was reading in his mansion, and all the ministers, were all standing in the courtroom.

This naturally included Zat Wanliu, who had returned from the border, and who seemed to have predicted his end, standing motionless with his eyes closed.

“Today, all of you have been summoned here mainly for three matters, the first of which, Minister of Border Affairs, you speak.”

Jiayuan I’s eyes, full of majesty, looked towards Zat Wanliu, who was standing in the crowd with his eyes closed.

The latter stepped out step by step without the slightest panic and did not even kneel down to Jiayuan I.

“My humble servant believes that Lin Mo’s killing of my Wanxiang Kingdom’s leftover prince, Jia De Baiha, is a heinous crime and must be crushed.”

Instantly, the originally quiet courtroom exploded as everyone looked incredulously at Zat Wanliu as well as Jia Yuan I.

Jiayuan I looked down at Zat Wanliu who was gazing at him, and at this moment, he actually revealed a smile.

“Hahahaha, the Border Minister seems to have been dumbed down by fighting in the war, someone, send the Border Minister to a retirement home to spend his old age in peace, don’t let him toil anymore.”

In a few words, the Minister of Border Affairs was removed from his position and placed under house arrest.

Zat Wanliu was dragged out by the guards, but he didn’t struggle, he just stared into the eyes of Jiayuan I in silence.

Those eyes contained so many emotions, pity, hatred and friendship for Kaewon I, all of which eventually turned into chaos.

“Third Prince.”

When the Third Prince heard Jia Yuan Yi Shi call for himself, he walked out and knelt on the ground.

“My son is here.”

“Your air force is really great and powerful, hand it over to the military ministry so that everyone can learn from your training methods, I have found a job for you at Cold Mountain Temple, go and report for duty.”

The third prince’s face went pale, he was being kicked out of Jiayuan I.

The Grand Prince stood at the front of the crowd, unable to suppress the feeling of stolen joy on his face, all the Third Prince had to do was pour his cards, then his position as Crown Prince was almost certain.

Jiayuan I did not linger too much on the Third Prince, but switched his gaze to the Grand Prince.

“Grand prince.”

“My son is here.”

The Grand Prince walked out full of joy, ready to receive the addition of honour.

“I heard that you took the navy out? Can you tell me where you went?”

The Grand Prince froze, this was not the right tone for Jiayuan I, but gritted his teeth and said.

“My son took the navy out for some practice so that I can protect my Wanxiang territory in the future.”

“Good, truly worthy of being my good son, hand over the navy to the military ministry, my father has also found you a job at the Jing Xin Temple that covers food and accommodation.”

At once, the Grand Prince’s face was as pale and powerless as the Third Prince’s.

He could only watch as the guards dragged him out of this centre of power.

“Minister of Military Affairs.”

The Minister of Military Affairs walked out with his forehead covered in cold sweat, today Jiayuan I had punished three people in quick succession, he wasn’t going to be cut from his post too, was he?

“Prepare the vehicles and arm the military forces along the way immediately.”

“The widow is going to visit Lin Mo personally at the sacred mountain of Ba Shan.”
