

Genius 3161

Chapter 3161

As the sound of the water in the bathroom stopped, Lin Mo walked upstairs and picked out a plain black suit from the wardrobe in his bedroom.

This suit was still one that Xu Hanxia had insisted on having made for himself earlier, saying that it was called something like Stuart Hughes, and Lin Mo had never cared for it.

The black suit perfectly complimented Lin Mo's figure, giving his handsome face the feel of a successful man.

Casually, he took out a Patek Philippe arm from the watch box on the side and brought it on top of his wrist.

Since he was taking Xu Hanxia out to have fun, in order not to be hara*sed by those so-called rich kids, Lin Mo had no choice but to dress a little better.

To save those guys with water in their brains from thinking they were another toad eating swan's flesh, and then coming up and hitting on Xu Hanxia in front of him.

Walking down the stairs, Lin Mo stood quietly at the door waiting for Xu Hanxia to come out.

"Click."

The bathroom door was gently opened and Xu Hanxia peeked out from inside.

The top was a long white shirt and the bottom was a pair of jeans, highlighting Xu Hanxia's youthful beauty.

Seeing Lin Mo standing at the door in a suit, Xu Hanxia couldn't help but faintly stare, thinking inwardly.

Although this guy was a big bad guy, he was really good looking.

"Let's go, aren't you hungry?"

Upon hearing this, Xu Hanxia immediately patted her already hungry stomach and happily ran towards Lin Mo, finally able to eat.

In the underground garage, there were all sorts of sports cars parked, none of which were under ten million.

Lin Mo helplessly held his forehead as the Prince's smug cheeks surfaced in Lin Mo's mind.

Picking and choosing, Lin Mo as well as Xu Hanxia got into a silver and white sports car.

The moment the engine started, the humming sound of the engine came at once, and Lin Mo gripped the steering wheel tightly and began to reverse.

The handsome silver supercar sped through the neighbourhood, the dominating humming sound resonating throughout the neighbourhood, causing everyone to pop their heads out in curiosity.

A wealthy businessman was walking down the road with his freshly serviced college student when he saw the silver supercar in motion.

Instantly, the wealthy businessman froze in place, his mouth open as if he could have stuffed a goose egg into it.

“Aston Martin valkyrie this is not a car launched by Aston Martin and Red Bull Racing this year, limited to one hundred units worldwide, the actual market price now starts at around twenty-five million...”

The rich merchant did not expect that a place like Panyang City would still have such a bullying big shot.

In the car, Xu Hanxia looked at the surprised eyes of the passengers and said somewhat sheepishly.

“Aren’t we attracting too much attention like this?”

Lin Mo shook his head with a smile and said lightly.

“If we don’t do this, that fatal mood thing this afternoon will definitely not be missing tonight.”

Xu Hanxia smiled and nodded obediently, sitting on the passenger side and staring blankly at the scenery outside the window.

Lin Mo glanced at Xu Hanxia’s side face and felt guilty inside.

He had been busy during this period of time and had not been able to spend time with Xu Hanxia.

The supercar slowly stopped in front of a restaurant in the city centre, and Lin Mo stepped out of the main driver’s seat and went to the passenger side to open the door for Xu Hanxia.

The arrival of the silver supercar also drew the attention of many people, and everyone’s eyes were drawn to it.

When they saw Lin Mo in a black suit and Xu Hanxia in a young and beautiful car, envy flashed in their eyes.

Handing over the keys to the service staff who came to greet him, Lin Mo directly took Xu Hanxia’s soft palm, not giving her a chance to resist, and walked straight to the restaurant.

“Welcome to three Michelin stars.”

Chapter 3162

Declining the waiter’s request for a private room, Lin Mo led Xu Hanxia to a table by the window.

“Raw beef tartare, foie gras and black truffle, veal shank with modena flavoured sauce, lobster real wax and fish roe mash salad...two of these, and two Coca Cola’s for me if you can, the three piece kind.”

The waitress stood to the side listening to the dishes Lin Mo quoted, taking a quick note with her pen, only for the last two bottles of three dollar Coke to bring a slight smirk to her face.

It wasn’t mockery, but because Lin Mo’s previous order was almost the same for a thousand dollars, and at the end he didn’t expect a three dollar cola to pop up.

“Yes sir, going to prepare it for you now.”

The waiter went down and in no time brought out two tall gla*ses, as well as two bottles of coke, and poured them respectfully for Lin Mo and Xu Hanxia.

Soon, one by one, the exquisitely plated dishes were brought up by the waiters and placed in front of Lin Mo and Xu Hanxia.

Looking at the table of dishes, Xu Hanxia quietly said to Lin Mo.

“There are so many, what if we can’t finish them?”

Lin Mo smiled and pointed to his stomach and spoke.

“Don’t worry, these are exquisitely plated, but there aren’t many of them, and I’m very hungry.”

During the entire meal, it was as if Xu Hanxia had been eating with her head buried in her mouth, and Lin Mo was feeding him like a piglet, cutting up everything and putting it on Xu Hanxia’s plate.

A girl on the other side stomped her foot in anger when she saw how gentle Lin Mo was towards Xu Hanxia, and then looked at her boyfriend who was doing nothing but looking at his mobile phone.

Her boyfriend also noticed the way she looked and put down the phone in his hand, pointing his finger quietly at Lin Mo.

“Look at that suit he’s wearing, Stuart Hughes’ last public price was nine hundred thousand dollars, and that watch on his hand.”

Said the man, sighing helplessly, his tone full of envy.

“That’s the latest model from Patek Philippe, the official website price is $3.52 million, how can I compete with a man of that stature.”

He was just a small rich second generation in the city of Panyang, there was no way to compare with a man like Lin Mo who had tens of millions of dollars for a single outfit, okay?

Hearing her boyfriend’s words, her girlfriend was instantly stunned as well, not expecting that man to be so rich.

At once, her eyes were filled with a feeling of envy and jealousy towards Xu Hanxia.

“Burp, big bad, I’m full.”

Xu Hanxia leaned back in her chair somewhat contentedly, her face filled with a look of comfort.

Clearly the three Michelin starred dishes still gave him a good sense of freshness and strange textures and pairings.

Lin Mo picked up a folded tissue from the table and wiped the still somewhat oily corners of Xu Hanxia’s mouth clean, then stood up.

“Then let’s go to the next location.”

As he walked to the door, he handed a bank card to the waitress and told her to take it to the checkout, while Lin Mo as well as Xu Hanxia waited quietly at the door.

“Sir, you’ve spent a total of 7825 this time, here’s your card.”

Lin Mo smiled slightly and took the bank card as well as the small ticket together, going back to open an invoice for the office supplies to take the Wu Meng money bank.

When he walked out the door, Lin Mo’s Aston Martin was already parked at the door, the car boy respectfully handed the keys to Lin Mo with an envious glint in his eyes.

The humming sound rang out and the supercar drove off like a beast towards the distance.

“Lin Mo, where are we going next?”

Xu Hanxia now had two names for Lin Mo, one was Big Bad, and the other was directly calling the protagonist by his name.

Lin Mo slightly turned his head sideways, looked at Xu Hanxia and said with a bad smile.

“Take you to a very healing place to play.”

With those words, Lin Mo handed his phone to Xu Hanxia and looked at the reviews on it, super suitable for couples to go play together.

Xu Hanxia immediately blushed, who was a couple with this big bad guy.

Chapter 3163

At the entrance of the Super Healing Escape Room, Lin Mo looked at the eight big words above, and then looked at the comments about the phone, gradually suspecting that these people could not be a water army, right?

The scope of this escape room covers an extremely large area, and it is said that just one copy alone is as big as several hundred square meters.

Pushing open the door, Lin Mo pulled a curious Xu Hanxia inside, surrounded by posters of various scripts plastered on the walls.

The most lowly ones were human meat barbecue buns, women’s colleges, and a bit larger ones like the tomb of Qin Shi Huang.

The surrounding area was exquisitely decorated, and Lin Mo followed the directions to the middle of the lobby.

“Hello, welcome, is this the first time you two have come here?”

The receptionist was a young girl who was quite pretty, and when she saw Lin Mo, who was dressed in a slim suit, and Xu Hanxia, who was being dragged along, she had some clarity about their relationship.

“Hello, I’ve heard that your escape room here is very healing?”

Lin Mo looked at the front desk lady with some doubt, wanting to ask if the news on the internet was true.

The front desk lady's face covered in smiles suddenly froze, and then the eyes she looked at the two of them even contained a hint of pity as well as excitement.

It seemed that the frightened guests had gone out and spread the word like crazy, and another white rabbit had come to their door.

"That's right sir, our secret rooms are all particularly healing, there are two good recommendations over here, one is the Tomb of Qin Shi Huang and the other is the Death of Xuan Wu Men."

Lin Mo thoughtfully took the two detail sheets, both of which were ancient-themed secret rooms.

After looking at them for half a day, Lin Mo felt that it was still this secret room in the Mausoleum of Qin Shi Huang that was a bit interesting, as the introduction read.

The team of experts in the tomb of the First Emperor of Qin had no news, and the state sent a search and rescue team with no news, so the tomb of the First Emperor was temporarily sealed.

However, according to the nearby residents, there are eerie sounds inside the tomb of the First Emperor and private explorers have been commissioned by the state to explore it.

Seeing the details sheet, Xu Hanxia's face showed excitement, this girl hadn't shown any interest in escape rooms before.

After paying the money and leaving the phone at the front desk, Lin Mo and Xu Hanxia were taken to a room where there were already a dozen people inside.

The front desk lady looked at everyone and instructed once again.

"Everything inside are props, everyone must not destroy them at will and must not make a move against the staff."

Lin Mo silently gave up on the idea of taking Tai Ah, in case a staff member scurried out and didn't pay attention himself, wouldn't that be the end of the game.

The door to the room opened and a dozen people entered and then closed with a bang.

At first it was a graveyard-like thing, and everyone eventually worked together to find the entrance.

Lin Mo's gaze glanced to the side inside a small cubicle where a staff member was leaping forward, presumably coming out soon.

After watching everyone go in, Lin Mo pulled Xu Hanxia who was about to go in. In the dimness Xu Hanxia could not see Lin Mo's cheeks and could only hear his voice.

"Wait a moment."

Straight to the door of the small compartment, Lin Mo directly held the hidden door handle and then pulled the door straight open.

Behind the door, a staff member with a holster holding a toy machete came to a stare-down with Lin Mo, looking at him somewhat dumbfounded.

“That, I would like to ask, how does this healing method of yours heal?”

Seeing that the staff member didn’t say anything, Lin Mo directly took out a hundred yuan bill from his pocket and stuffed it into his hand, and muttered in his ear for a while.

“Okay big brother, you’ll see it’s done.”

The staff member looked at the hundred yuan in his hand, and his whole spirit suddenly lifted, and he even gave a salute.

In the darkness, Xu Hanxia could only see that Lin Mo had pulled open one of the guys, and then he didn’t know what he was doing.

“It’s alright, that’s just a disabled washroom in there.”

Lin Mo walked over and told Xu Hanxia to go down first, and he himself broke off at the back.

Chapter 3164

During the rest of the journey, Xu Hanxia was lucky enough to collide with the staff dressed as various ghosts and monsters.

Then Xu Hanxia fled frantically, Lin Mo appeared in time, Xu Hanxia got into Lin Mo’s arms, and then Lin Mo led Xu Hanxia to a perfect exit.

However, after each evacuation, there were more or less one or two hundred dollar bills left on the floor.

After the escape room was over, Lin Mo walked out full of experience, Xu Hanxia still hugged Lin Mo’s arm with some fear.

The front desk lady has a computer on her desk, which contains the various monitors of the escape room.

When she saw Lin Mo and Xu Hanxia come out, the lady looked at Lin Mo with a strange look in her eyes.

She had witnessed Lin Mo and the staff get together and conspire for half a day before handing over the red banknotes to each other.

Poor Xu Hanxia would probably never know this truth in her life.

Escaping from the secret room, Lin Mo took Xu Hanxia into his sports car and ran in another direction.

“Lin Mo, these guys are really all big liars, they are obviously so scary yet they say something about it being very healing.”

Lin Mo had a matching expression on his face as well, nodding his head repeatedly.

He himself definitely couldn't say that he knew the estimate was scary just by looking at the comments, wouldn't that be a direct reveal.

"Lin Mo, aren't you scared of these things?"

Xu Hanxia looked at Lin Mo with some doubts, just now in the secret room escape, Lin Mo showed that he was not scared at all and was very calm.

Lin Mo did not answer, but only smiled slightly at Xu Hanxia.

In terms of frightening, how could the silicone residue inside the escape room be as real as the broken limbs on the battlefield?

The blood flowing into rivers and the scene of soldiers lying on the ground with their eyes bulging out was incomparably scary.

Even the appearance of Lan Ling's ghostly face is incomparably hideous and terrifying.

In the Amusement Park, Lin Mo and Xu Hanxia bought two vip tickets and walked in.

Xu Hanxia was like a small child, looking here and there, even going so far as to touch the ears of the two bears.

"Lin Mo, I want to eat candyfloss."

Lin Mo walked up and bought Xu Hanxia a white candyfloss that was as white as a cloud.

"Lin Mo, let's go play on the roller coaster!"

Lin Mo smiled and nodded, he was like a parent, quietly following behind Xu Hanxia and accompanying her.

As the roller coaster descended, Xu Hanxia didn't dare to open her eyes to look down, her hands clinging to Lin Mo's arms.

Roller coasters, jumpers, merry-go-rounds, pirate ships and so on.

Lin Mo accompanied Xu Hanxia to play almost all the time until people closed the park.

This time Lin Mo took Xu Hanxia back to Panyang City, one is to let Xu Hanxia recuperate his injury, the second is to accompany Xu Hanxia properly.

Just when Lin Mo was accompanying Xu Hanxia to relax and have fun, problems had already started to arise in the international arena at this time.

The daughter of a count of the Maple Leaf country named Ziobiero had issued several international articles against Lin Mo.

He said that he was a madman who only knew how to provoke wars and killings, and had meddled in the royal families of other countries, causing irreparable damage such as economic turmoil.

Neither the Chinese side nor Gadrei bothered to pick up on Ziobiero, a woman who has wider control than even the Pacific police.

Gadrei even went so far as to call a press conference and started making statements in front of the entire world.

The so-called Count's daughter, Ziobiero, said that Lin Mo was meddling in other people's family affairs, but was she not meddling in other people's family affairs?

Please think about this when you publish your article, is there any difference between the person you yourself are berating and yourself?

Some impassioned rebuke from Gadrei flew over the international.

"PONG!"

There was a loud bang at the Earl's residence in Maple Leaf country.

Chapter 3165

Ziobiero, the daughter of the count who had posted an international article denouncing Lin Mo, was at that moment smashing things with a furious face.

Looking at the phone on which Gadrei's sentences were all mocking words to himself, Ziobiero cursed angrily.

"It's just a royal son with a bit of luck, and he dares to humiliate me like that!"

On a couch to one side, the late Third Prince Ciabriello was currently flipping through books and did not speak.

The servants heard the noise and came in quickly, clearing all the debris out.

Only when Ziobello was completely silent did Gabriele speak in a quiet voice.

"Miss Ziobillo, you will not die even if you are angry at Lin Mo."

At that time, when it was rumoured that Gabrielle and the Grand Prince had thrown themselves into the well together and died, that stupid woman Avis did not have the slightest doubt.

She didn't even think about it, if the Grand Prince and the Third Prince didn't even have any of their beloved men, then wouldn't they have lived all these years in vain.

At that time, the men Avis had sent to murder Jia Bailiou were the men he had secretly trained.

So they sent Gabrielle directly to the Maple Country and found a condemned prisoner to replace her.

Naturally, Avis could not visit their bodies and took the sacks directly to the ground with him.

When he arrived in Maple Leaf country, Carpenter first went through the list of all the top people.

This Ziobillo in front of her had not high eyesight, but had a very high self-esteem and felt that no man in the whole world was good enough for her.

Even a top genius like Lin Mo was out of her league, a fact that Gabriella admired.

With the help of a party, Gabriele succeeded in getting in touch with the Count's daughter, who had such a high opinion of herself.

After a series of exchanges, she was able to become a partner.

"Gabrielle, you're still in the mood to flirt with me here, now the outside world is calling your brother some kind of iron-blooded monarch, when the time comes, once the throne is secure, you won't stand a chance."

Gabrielle laughed, not caring about Ziobello's mockery, but said lightly.

"The biggest taboo in the Vientiane Kingdom right now is who the heir is really going to be, before there was Avis, and now there is Gadreau."

"Tomorrow we will also hold a press conference, and then I will directly announce that the true heir to my father, Jiayuan I, is me."

"At that time, the whole country of Vientiane will be in turmoil again because they are afraid that war will break out again."

A bright light appeared in Ziobello's eyes and an excited smile appeared just inside his face.

The next morning, the press conference that had shocked the entire United Nations began.

The third prince of the Vientiane Kingdom, who had thrown himself down a well, appeared gracefully before the long guns of the journalists.

"Prince Gabriel, according to previous news from the Vientiane Country, didn't you throw yourself into the well out of grief long ago?"

Gabriella, dressed in a decent suit and with a warm smile on his face, replied to the reporters.

"At first I thought I was going to die too, I was actually sent to be a*sa*sinated by my own sister."

With a shocked look, the reporter asked again.

"And how did you escape your sister's murder?"

Gabrielle smiled and her originally smiling face turned grey as she choked up and said.

"I was able to escape thanks to the Black Eagle guards who were ordered by my father to protect me, who knew that was a*sa*sinated by Avis and died."

These words are with real evidence, according to Jia Bai Luo know, Jia Yuan I really have two black eagle personal guards around.

If they hadn't shown up after his father's death, then something was probably wrong.

Therefore, the name of the Black Eagle guards was used to explain why he was still alive.

At the same time, it proved that he was valued by Jia Yuan I.

Chapter 3166

Remembering that the launch was over, the third prince walked off the high stage and came to Ziobillo's side.

"Next time don't get such a stupid journalist as an actor who won't even give him the questions to ask in advance."

Ciabriello was full of negative impressions of the jotter from earlier.

The question and answer between the two of them was obvious to anyone with a clear face that it was a posed shot and the actual effect was not that good at all.

Ziobello, who was sitting on the side leisurely eating a snack, raised his head at the words, a look of displeasure on his face.

"Are you resenting my inability to find people?"

Looking at Ziobiro's condescending look, a bit of anger surfaced in the Third Prince's eyes.

A smelly green tea whore, if he didn't need her help now, this kind of woman the Third Prince wouldn't even be bothered with.

But years of experience as a prince allowed Gabrielle to quickly suppress her inner discontent and put a gentle smile on her face.

"Miss Ziobillo is joking, how could I mean to blame you."

Ziobello looked at Gabrielle's smile and ground a grimace, she had seen many men like Gabrielle.

One by one, they were showing gentleness in front of them, trying to win their favour as well as their attention.

Ziobello had never been one to turn her nose up at such things.

No man could be relied on when it came to the moment of truth, only when he was strong was he really strong.

Back in Ziobillo's castle, she looked again at the Third Prince.

"Are you sure that this press conference, when broadcast, will shake up the Wanxiang Kingdom?"

"Fifty percent sure."

Jiabailiu shook his head and spat out two words.

He himself had no idea what the situation in the Wanxiang Kingdom was really like right now, if that sixth brother of his really used even thunderbolts to bloodily cleanse the imperial court.

Then at least half of the current courtiers would have to die, and the whole court would be filled with Jia De Li's beloved.

The press conference will be suppressed by them and will be reduced to an after-dinner gossip at best.

“But it doesn’t really matter if this ploy succeeds or not, we have a new one next.”

Ziobillo looked suspiciously at Carballo, what else can you do at this time out of international public opinion as well as pressure.

Gabrielle glanced at Ziobello, really wondering if such a brain was worthy of looking down on all men?

“There’s a flight from the Maple Leaf country over the Vientiane country that will happen to pa*s through there, we just need that plane to crash and then accidentally crash on top of Gabrielle’s palace.”

“You’re crazy!”

Ziobillo was horrified to hear this very crazy plan of Gabriele’s.

A plane crashing and crashing on top of the Vientiane King’s palace, killing the King, would then be investigated frantically by the Maple Leaf Kingdom as well as the Vientiane Kingdom.

Once this was revealed, Gabriel, himself and even his father, Count Elson, would be stripped of their titles by the king and sent to prison.

With his gaze fixed on Ziobillo, Gabriele said in a cold tone.

“A plane crashes and crashes into the ground, by then all clues will have gone up in smoke, and with the death of Gadrei and the chaos in the Vientiane Kingdom, I can take advantage of the chaos and go back, and with the feathers I have built up over the years, it will not be difficult to ascend to the throne.”

There was a temptation in Gabrielle’s tone that made Ziobello waver a little.

Gabriele continued, “As long as I go back and become king, I can promise you anything at that time.”

“Good!”

Ziobello agreed with a clench of his teeth.

He then got up and went to contact the captain of the nearest flight and his co-pilot, which was nothing more than a bullying tactic.

As Gabriele watched Ziobello leave, a sneer appeared at the corners of her mouth, that stupid woman.

Once she managed to get back on her feet, the first thing she would do would be to kill her.

Chapter 3167

The next day, a tired-looking Ziobillo arrived at Gabriele’s place and yawned.

“Things have been arranged, and you had better be really sure.”

“Don’t worry, Miss Ziobillo.”

Above King Vientiane City, a plane was coming in fast overhead.

The captain in the C*ckpit, as well as the co-pilot, were white with pain in their eyes.

Just last night, a woman had come running to their house with a few strong men.

And said that if they let this plane go down today, they would each be paid $10 million in settlement money.

Of course the two men would not agree, how could 10 million be as important as their own lives.

Then the woman actually went after their own family

When they thought of their family members wailing, a look of intolerance flashed through the eyes of the two.

Seeing that the kingdom of Wanxiang was getting closer and closer, a look of determination flashed in the captain's eyes.

His own family, even without himself, could live happily as long as they had which money was around.

The captain looked at the position given to him by Ziobillo, which was approaching fast, and his hand directly controlled the plane to fall fast.

At once, the entire plane above the pa*sengers as well as the flight attendants let out a scream.

“Why is the plane going down, what’s happening?”

“Great God, please bless your believers.”

“Go and check the C*ckpit!”

All sorts of voices rang out, but none of them had the slightest effect.

Because of the rapid descent of the plane, all the pa*sengers were now unable to stand up, let alone the stewardesses in their low heels.

The captain was now fully focused on piloting the plane to coincide with the dot on the monitor.

Soon, as the plane descended rapidly, a palace appeared in front of the captain, beautifully crafted in gold.

At this moment, Gadre was in the middle of the palace, warming up with his own surviving consort, Princess Fireyina.

Fire Inna's belly was already slightly rumbling, and Gadrei pressed his ear gently to it, listening to the rhythm of his heart's life.

“Your Majesty, it's not good, the plane in the sky has crashed!”

The guards outside ran in quickly, and Gadrei's face changed at the words and he quickly ran out.

Above the sky, a plane was falling diagonally from the sky and was aiming at his own location.

Gadre flew back, grabbed Fire Ina and ran towards the exit at the back of the palace.

On top of the plane, the captain had by now let go of his hands and took out a bottle of good wine from one side and poured it straight into his mouth.

Then from his arms he took out a small family portrait with his wife, his two daughters.

Tears appeared in the captain's eyes as he looked at his wife and the smiles of his daughters.

I won't be able to accompany you in the future, you must be well

Finally, the plane came into hard contact with the Row House, and a ball of rushing fire shot straight up into the sky, attracting the attention of everyone in the Vientiane Country.

The two of them, who had just run out of the palace with Fire Ina, were instantly blown away by the power of the explosion and landed five or six meters away.

Jiadre's originally noble and elegant yellow robe was now dirty directly after rolling around on the ground a few times.

"Your Majesty, the child my child."

Gadre's gaze instantly looked away and his pupils snapped shut, Fire Ina's originally charming face was filled with pain as blood continued to seep out of her lower body.

"Princess Ai!"

Enduring the pain in her body, Jia De Lie barely managed to stand up from the ground and quickly walked over to Fire Ina's side and bailed her out.

"Your Majesty, our child is gone"

Fire Ina's eyes were filled with tears, and one hand kept stroking the small of her back.

"Someone, summon the eunuch doctor! Pa*s the eunuch doctor!"

Looking towards the guards who were rapidly arriving in the distance, Jiadre roared out in defiance of his image.

A torrent of anger flared up in Jiadre's heart.

There was only one person who could do such a thing now, Gabriel!

"Gabrielle, I swear that I will kill you!"

Chapter 3168

In Panyang City, Lin Mo got up early to wash up and start preparing breakfast for Xu Hanxia.

When the phone suddenly rang, Lin Mo, who was only wearing a shirt, hurriedly put the pot down in his hands, shoveled out the eggs inside and sprinkled a little sugar on them before turning to answer the phone.

"Hey Lin Mo, I've arrived at the airport in Panyang, come and pick me up."

Fang Hui's somewhat shrill voice rang out from it, and Lin Mo silently held the phone in his hand a little further away.

After placing the sandwich and the egg and milk on the dining table, Lin Mo changed into the suit he had worn last night when he went out with Xu Hanxia and drove a Maybach towards the airport.

This mother-in-law of his was very dignified, if he didn't dress better, he would probably have to talk about it again.

At the airport in Panyang, Fang Hui was standing at the departure gate, carrying a small suitcase in her hand, with a sun*gl*ses covering half of her face and a round hat on her head.

"Big sister, do you need a ride, we are cheap and comfortable."

When a man saw Fang Hui standing here, he came up and said.

"No, my son-in-law is a big shot, he's coming to pick me up later, I don't want to take one of your sh*tty cabs."

Fang Hui's problem was still the same, she spoke of Lin Mo with a proud face, not thinking at all of the hate she used to feel when she saw him.

"Big sister, don't blow it off, I see you've been standing here for ten minutes, if your son-in-law was really a big shot, would he make you wait so long?"

The driver looked at Fang Hui's appearance, he didn't feel like a successful person at all, that's all he was pretending to be here.

It was fine if the driver didn't say anything, but once the driver said it, Fang Hui was inwardly annoyed, she had been waiting here for ten minutes, how come Lin Mo was still not here.

She didn't even consider the fact that the airport was 30 to 40 kilometres away from the city centre where Lin Mo was, so even if the car was driving fast, it couldn't have arrived in such a short time.

"If you have the guts to wait here, my son-in-law will probably arrive in a while, so don't be afraid."

Fang Hui threw down these words and went straight to sit on a chair in the shade.

When the driver looked at Fang Hui, he did not say anything, but just sat on the chair on the other side.

He wanted to see what the son-in-law of the big shot Fang Hui was talking about looked like and what kind of three heads and six arms he had.

Time pa*sed by, and the sun gradually beat up, the driver took a look at the time, and twenty-five minutes had pa*sed looking.

"Big sister, it's been almost half an hour, why hasn't that so-called big shot son-in-law of yours come yet, he's not afraid of losing face, is he?"

The driver's voice with an unconcealable laugh rang out, his tone was full of ridicule, he despised these people who had no money and still pretended hard.

Fang Hui's face gradually became ugly, how come Lin Mo hadn't arrived yet, whether he had his mother-in-law in his heart or not.

"Buzz!"

A deafening car humming sounded, a car that looked like a black beast stopped in front of Fang Hui.

The Maybach logo on the huge front of the car was so shiny under the sunlight that the taxi driver couldn't even look straight at it.

The car door opened and Lin Mo, who was dressed in a black slim suit, stepped down from the car and said after seeing Fang Hui.

"Mom, sorry, the road was a bit congested just now, my car is rather expensive, and they didn't dare to come near me."

At this moment, Fang Hui had a smile on her face, there was still a little bit of blame for Lin Mo, this kind of Maybach was not cheap at first sight.

Lin Mo put Fang Hui's luggage in the trunk and then got into the driver's seat.

Fang Hui opened up the back seat and glared at the driver sitting there as she sat on it.

The car took off, leaving only the driver still sitting there dumbfounded for a long time before he slowly spat out a sentence.

"D*mn, I've met a real tycoon today."

Chapter 3169

When the Maybach was on the road, the surrounding cars avoided it and feared it like a tiger, if it accidentally rubbed against it, a lifetime of effort would be lost.

Fang Hui was very satisfied with the effect and looked at it for a while before speaking to Lin Mo.

"Lin Mo, Hanxia insisted on coming to you at that time, is she alright?"

At that time, Xu Hanxia insisted on coming to Lin Mo, and Fang Hui and Xu Jiangong were unable to stop her.

Speaking of Xu Hanxia, Lin Mo was suddenly silent, although he thought that Xu Hanxia's current appearance was not bad, dull and cute.

But the fact that Xu Hanxia had lost her memory was definitely something he had to tell Fang Hui.

After a moment of contemplation, Lin Mo organized his words and spoke to Fang Hui.

"Mom, Hanxia she went to the Basha divine Mountain at that time, by the time I found her she had already fallen off the cliff, although she was not hurt in any way, but she had lost her memory."

After hearing Lin Mo's words, Fang Hui was worried for a moment at first, but directly afterwards, she waved her hand without a care.

To her, Xu Hanxia's daughter's identity was obviously not as important as holding Lin Mo's identity.

"It's alright, aren't you a divine doctor, Lin Mo, just treat it directly."

Lin Mo looked at Fang Hui's unconcerned look, his heart was filled with speechlessness and he could only speak up here.

"Hanxia's condition has been studied by me and Mr. Medicine from the Basha Divine Mountain for several days, it belongs to asymptomatic memory loss, there is nothing that can be done yet?"

A feeling of nervousness appeared in Fang Hui's heart, Xu Hanxia now had no memory, so the time spent with Lin Mo must not be as happy as before.

If there was some little wannabe who seduced Lin Mo at this stage, and half-xia didn't care.

As if Fang Hui had already seen the scene of her own family going back to live on a large flat after losing Lin Mo, she hurriedly spoke up.

"So there's really no way to recover at all now?"

Lin Mo shook his head, if there was any way that could be quickly treated, he himself wouldn't have waited to put back the enquiry, he would have given it to Xu Hanxia long ago.

"The best thing to do at the moment is to spend a period of weekdays with Hanxia first, perhaps one day he will suddenly regain his memory."

Lin Mo's words also made Fang Hui's heart, which had been a little worried, drop, and inwardly she was secretly pleased.

It was true, her daughter was already naturally beautiful and charming, even if she had lost her memory, Lin Mo would still be charmed to death.

Lin Mo's car was very fast, and after just a short conversation, he had already driven into the city.

There were so many more people in the city than in the suburbs that Lin Mo's Maybach could not pick up speed at all.

The vehicle was full of dominance and was the prettiest boy everywhere it went, which really gave Fang Hui's vanity a strong sense of satisfaction.

"Look, that car is so handsome."

"That's a Maybach, a million to start with, one like that can't be taken down without ten million."

The voices outside chattering with envy filled Fang Hui's face with a strong smile.

It took a full half hour before the Maybach slowly arrived at the entrance of the villa area.

When the security guards saw the Maybach's license plate, they didn't even ask for its identity and directly raised the barricade, and bowed respectfully.

"Lin Mo, how much did you spend on the house here?"

Fang Hui looked at the various flowers and trees along the way as well as the cleaners and security guards everywhere and asked Lin Mo curiously.

Lin Mo thought back for a moment, who had given him this villa in the first place?

"I'm not too sure, at first they transferred it directly to my name privately in order to please me, and only told me afterwards."

Lin Mo's words shocked even Fang Hui.

Such a location and environment, to say that it was a gift, what kind of family was it.

Chapter 3170

The Maybach drove all the way to the underground garage.

Lin Mo opened the door and took Fang Hui's luggage down from the trunk.

"Mom, go this way."

Above the underground garage was the villa where Lin Mo lived, and for convenience there was a door directly connected to it.

Walking up from the ground floor and putting Fang Hui's luggage aside for the time being, Lin Mo looked at the already empty dinner plate on the table and a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

"Mum, you do it first, I'll clear the table."

Lin Mo picked up the plates on the table and put them in the kitchen dishwasher before he turned around and walked out of the kitchen.

When he came to Xu Hanxia's room on the first floor, Lin Mo reached out and knocked on it.

There was no sound, so Lin Mo knocked again, and his ears heard a slight chuckle, and the corners of his mouth curled up in a smile.

"Is our little friend Hanxia still not up yet? Looks like I'll have to go eat the delicious food I bought for her myself."

He shouted twice at Xu Hanxia's door in a very exaggerated manner, and as expected, there was a sudden movement from inside the house.

There seemed to be the sound of something falling on the floor.

The door handle was unscrewed straight away and Xu Hanxia scurried straight out, who knew that Lin Mo hadn't moved at all at the door and had directly bumped into him.

Xu Hanxia looked up at Lin Mo, who was emitting heavy testosterone, and instantly reflected.

Lin Mo watched Xu Hanxia's cheeks quickly turn red and immediately laughed out loud.

"Lin Mo, you big bad egg!"

Xu Hanxia directly bit on Lin Mo's wrist with a bite, staring at him fiercely.

Looking at Xu Hanxia's appearance, Lin Mo couldn't help but rub her head with his other hand.

"Halfsia, your mother is here, do you want to go take a look?"

Xu Hanxia, who was viciously tearing at Lin Mo, froze abruptly.

Speaking of his mother, the first thing that surfaced in his heart was actually a feeling of helplessness.

When Xu Hanxia first saw Lin Mo, it was a feeling of trust from the bottom of his heart, so even when he was carried away by Lin Mo, Xu Hanxia only said a few words viciously.

After some hesitation, Xu Hanxia still nodded her head.

Lin Mo gently took Xu Hanxia's wrist and flashed her a sunny smile, which drew many blank looks from Hanxia.

Walking downstairs with Xu Hanxia, Fang Hui was sitting there eating an orange.

"Hanxia, quickly let mum take a look and see if there's anything hurt on your body."

Fang Hui hurriedly stood up from the sofa and turned around Xu Hanxia's side, lifting Xu Hanxia's arm one moment to take a look and touching her body the next.

Xu Hanxia, on the other hand, was dumbfounded as Fang Hui fiddled around, then threw a save-me look towards Lin Mo at the side.

Lin Mo smiled and didn't bother to offer Xu Hanxia a helping hand, just sitting on the sidelines watching the drama while plucking the oranges.

Finally, after Fang Hui made sure that Xu Hanxia didn't have any injuries on her body, she then looked at Xu Hanxia and said.

"Hanxia, I'm mum, do you remember me?"

Xu Hanxia shook her head weakly, to be honest as far as the other side was concerned, she was looking at this and that, and even moving her hands every now and then.

If it wasn't for the fact that Lin Mo was sitting right next to her and was also her mother before, Xu Hanxia would have to give her a shoulder slam to show her what it means.

"Okay mum, let Hanxia sit down first."

Lin Mo looked at Fang Hui and the bewildered Xu Hanxia, and handed the peeled orange to Xu Hanxia.

Seeing the yellow tangerine in Lin Mo's hand, Xu Hanxia's throat involuntarily swallowed, and obediently took the tangerine from Lin Mo's hand and sat down to eat it.

As the juice of the orange burst forth in the end, Xu Hanxia's face could not help but reveal a look of satisfaction.

For some reason, Xu Hanxia was particularly interested in these sweet and sour things today.

She had already eaten several oranges inside her room.
