Chapter 3201

"I dare to ask you, little friend, who is from that side, appearing in the middle of my Wanxiang Kingdom late at night."

Instead of directly throwing out his olive branch, Wushan Xue Lao asked tentatively.

Yu Huatian was silent for a while, and finally spoke reluctantly.

"I am alone"

A hint of joy flashed in Wushan Xue Lao's eyes, and he said with a kind smile on his face.

"In that case, would little friend Yuhua Ti'an be willing to return to the Witch House with me, and everyone will treat you like family."

It could be that he was really impressed by the words of the Wushan Xue Lao, or that he really had nowhere else to go.

"Good for that."

Seeing Yuhua Tyan agree so easily, a trace of surprise flashed in Wushan Xueluo's eyes.

But inwardly, he didn't think much of it, and led Yu Huatian towards the direction he came from.

Not far away, there was a shadow.

Xu Hanxia gently covered her lips with a flirtatious face.

"Aiyaaah, just dumb enough to be led away by the heat."

It was as if something had occurred to her.

Xu Hanxia suddenly took out a red and white fox mask from her own bosom and put it on her face.

In the middle of the Witch House in Wanxiang King City.

Wushan Xueluo had rushed back in the night with Jihua Ti'an.

After Clementine was woken up by Wushan Xue Lao in the middle of the night, she found that a man with skin like white jade and a somewhat feminine look was actually standing behind her.

"Elder Snowman, this is?"

Clementine pointed at Yu Huatian with a strong look of confusion on her face.

"His name is Yu Huatian, I met him outside tonight, from now on he is a member of my Wushan Mountain."

The unquestionable words of the Wushan Snowman caused a look of shock to flash across Clementine's eyes.

A man who could be joined to Wushan Mountain by a Wushan Snowman for the first time without question.

The slightest hint of wariness rose in Clementien's eyes towards Yu Huatian.

But this was broken by the next words of the Witch Mountain Snowman.

"And he is also a master of the clan level, I will take him to meet His Majesty later."

Until after Wushan Xueyao had left with Yu Huatian, who did not say a word, Clementine's mind was still in shock.

That was a clan master level expert, why did he talk like a cabbage.

In the middle of the night, Wushan Yukiro brought Yu Huatian into the palace to face the saint.

Jiadrei, who was already hugging Fire Ina beautifully under the covers, was woken up.

"Your Majesty, I have come here to present a man of great talent."

Wushan Xueluo reached out and pointed to Yu Huatian, who was standing in a daze.

Hearing the words of Wushan Xue Lao, Jiade Lie also looked at Yu Huatian with great interest.

His skin was as white as white jade, his face was feminine, his eyebrows were slightly arched and his lips were thin, so for a moment he could not tell whether he was a man or a woman.

"Where are you from? Why don't you kneel when you see the King?"

The lion-like eyes of Jiade Lieh looked at Yu Huatian with a deadly gaze, trying to find some panic in his eyes.

"Your Majesty, Yu Huatian's strength has already reached that of a Patriarch, he can be of great use."

Wushan Xueluo's words caused a pensive look to appear in Jiade Lie's eyes.

A clan master powerhouse was so willing to be reduced to a hawk and dog under his own command?

"Bang!"

Just as Jiad Lie was hesitating slightly, Yu Huatian's knees, which had been standing straight, abruptly dropped to his knees.

He knelt down on one knee to look at Jiadrei and said in a somewhat gloomy tone.

"I, Yu Huatian, wish to serve Your Majesty."

The corners of Jiade Lie's mouth curled into a smile as he watched Yu Huatian kneel with a respectful face.

"Good, Yu Huatian, from now on you are the governor of the new direct widow's power flying armor organization, after tomorrow come to me in the imperial study and I will personally select members for you."

A smile appeared on Jade Hwa Teean's face, and his somewhat feminine voice rang through the room once more.

"I, Yu Huatian, thank Your Majesty for your kindness!"

Chapter 3202

The following morning, Yu Huatian attacked early and met with Gadrei in his study.

"I, the Flying Armour Governor Yu Huatian, meet Your Majesty, long live Your Majesty, long live Your Majesty."

Dressed in a long white robe, Yu Huatian knelt before the desk, his eyes downcast to the ground and unblinking.

"Do you know why I dared to reappoint you after seeing you once?"

Gadrei sat behind the desk, occasionally taking a grape from the table and putting it in his mouth.

His gaze revealed a strong interest in Yu Huatian.

He wanted to see what kind of a man this inexplicable patriarch was.

The first time he saw him last night, Gadre felt that this man must be something extraordinary.

Or, to put it differently, Gadre felt the ambition within Yu Hua Thian.

For such a double-edged sword, used well it was a knife, used badly it would play itself to death.

"I do not know, and I would like to ask Your Majesty to enlighten me."

As the short evening pa*sed, Yu Hua Ti An's words were indeed fully official.

It would not cause dissatisfaction in Jiadrei's mind, but would also give him a stepping stone to move down.

The smile in Jiadrei's eyes increased as he looked at Yu Huatian, it seemed that the minister had taught him a lot last night.

"I feel a strong ambition in your heart, you are not a man who is willing to be ordinary."

"Tell the widow what kind of person you are, Yu Hua Tiuan?"

With his posture unchanged, as if he did not hear the trap in Gadrei's tone, Yu Huatian replied directly.

"What kind of person you wish me to be, Your Majesty, then I am what kind of person I am."

Jia De Lie stood up from the table and slowly walked over to Yu Hua Ti An's side and gently patted his shoulder.

"Aiji Yuhua is truly a blessed star and a vastness of bone for my Wanxiang Kingdom."

"I dare not."

Jia De Lie stood beside Yu Hua Ti An and gently clapped his hands, a clear “pop” sound sounded.

At once, behind the screens to the left and right of the study, a man in a black turtledove uniform emerged.

“Yu Hua Aiqing, these are the backbone of the Black Hatchet members, how about giving them to you as your men?”

Only then did Yu Hua Tien raise his head, sweeping his gaze around the members who looked just as powerful on either side of him, and spat out a soft sentence.

“A bunch of vain trash.”

At once, a look of anger appeared on the faces of the personnel standing on either side.

“Hahahaha, Yuhua Aiqing really has excellent eyesight, so you guys should stand down.”

As if he had guessed that this would happen, Jiade Lie simply told all these people to stand down.

Another new group of men in Black Hatchet uniforms came forward.

They were of varying heights, with no hint of intimidation all over them, just like ordinary people.

“Yuhua Aiqing, I wonder if this group of people might be as good as your eyes?”

Yu Hua Ti An returned directly this time without looking up.

“It’s not very strong, but it’s barely usable.”

“In that case, take your men and retire.”

“My humble servant excuses himself.”

Yu Huatian respectfully fell backwards and walked out, followed by the hundreds of former Black Hatchet members.

The doors of the Great Hall were once again closed by the servants, and the smile on Gadre’s face narrowed, instead revealing an expression of anticipation.

“Yu Huatian, you must not let the widow down.”

The respectful look on Yu Huatian, who had exited the study, was no longer there.

With a shake of his snow-white cloak, he headed straight outside.

Hundreds of members looked at you and I looked at you, but eventually followed.

But soon, they realised that Yu Huatian’s route was very familiar.

“Why do I get the feeling that this route is going to Black Hatchet’s mansion.”

“Not like, Titus is almost at the door

“Titus isn’t going to get into trouble, is he?”

Black Hatchet had a courtyard in the middle of the king's city that sat north to south in a five-entry building and had everything in it.

Yu Hua Tian walked up to the entrance of Black Hatchet's residence.

He looked at the sign above which was the residence of Black Hatchet's agents and waved his sleeve.

"Boom!"

Only to see the wooden sign that was still hanging on the door instantly turn into pieces and fall to the ground.

The Black Hatchet members who were drawn out by the sound were instantly enraged and looked at Yu Huatian and shouted angrily.

"How dare you, you dead woman, destroy our Black Hatchet's sign!"

Chapter 3203

After hearing the words of the Black Hatchet member, a bit of killing intent emerged from the black eyes beneath his willow brows.

His orchid fingers that were folded in front of him flicked slightly, and a huge force burst out.

"Poof!"

The Black Hatchet member who had angrily rebuked Yu Huatian earlier instantly flew backwards out.

Blood and pieces of internal organs spurted out of his mouth as he lay on the ground twitching incessantly.

"For the sake of this being your first time, this Teean teaches you a lesson, if there is a next time, you won't just be lying there."

There was a commotion among the Black Hatchet members, all standing in a huddle at the entrance to the mansion.

But not one of them dared to rush up.

With a toss of his cloak, Yu Huatian took a step forward.

The members of the Black Hatchet took a collective step backwards.

"Since you don't dare to stop them, are you still here, do you want me to give you a ride?"

As the words were spoken, the members of the Black Hatchet who had gathered at the entrance scattered like birds and beasts.

They went to inform their superiors.

Jade Teean did not look back at the original Black Hatchet members behind him.

Instead, he walked through the courtyard alone and unhurriedly.

Outside the mansion, the original Black Hatchet members looked at each other, hesitating for a moment.

But soon, they gritted their teeth and walked straight in after Yu Hua Ti An.

They had already been transferred out of the Black Hatchet by His Majesty and had come under the Flying Armour Organisation.

Now that their Titian had gone in, they naturally could not watch from the outside.

“You are not as wasteful as I thought.”

Yuhua Teean, who was walking at the front, suddenly opened his mouth with his back to the crowd and uttered a sentence.

A look of joy appeared on the faces of the former Black Hatchet members.

Somehow, it was nice to hear a kind word from the mouth of this Titian.

It even made them happier than even being praised in the past.

Inside a living room in the deepest part of the residence, all the senior members of Black Hatchet were gathered together.

Even Wen Qiang, who had once been a member of the Grand Prince’s staff and later defected to the Sixth Prince, was there.

The two brothers, Dupont and Duka, sat at the head of the table at the front, with a row of chairs to the left and right of them.

Wen Qiang sat on Dupont’s left hand side with a gentle smile on his face.

They were discussing the way forward for Black Hatchet next.

“Lord Commander, it’s not good, someone is fighting their way in!”

A member of the Black Hatchet ran in panting and reported to Du Peng.

“What do you mean, someone has fought their way into the mansion?”

Du Peng’s gaze froze, and Du Ka’s face beside him also turned gloomy.

Right now, among the entire Wanxiang Kingdom, Black Hatchet could be said to have a hand in the sky.

Now that someone had actually fought their way in directly, this was a fierce slap in Black Hatchet’s face.

“Lord Commander, shall I go and take a look?”

A senior member of Black Hatchet on the right hand side asked to Du Peng.

“Good, you go and see that

“No need, I’m already here.”

Before Dupont could finish his words, a somewhat ebullient and soft voice rang out.

The curtain over the door was lifted straight away, and Yuhua Tiyan, draped in a white cloak, walked in.

Behind him was a group of members dressed in black turtledove costumes.

Yu Huatian did not care in the slightest when he saw that there were no empty chairs.

One of the flying armour members had the good sense to run underneath him and propped himself up on all fours as a chair.

Yu Huatian sat firmly on top of the body of the Black Hatchet member, his somewhat feminine face looking towards Dupont at the top.

Dupont saw that the men in Black Hatchet uniforms were actually respectfully using Yu Huatian as a chair.

A look of anger instantly appeared on his face.

“What are you, how dare you barge into my Black Hatchet residence, destroy my residence sign and injure my men!”

A disdainful expression appeared on Yu Huatian’s face when he saw Du Peng questioning him.

Willow leaf thin eyebrows gently furrowed as Yu Hua Ti An spoke.

“You ask what I am, I will tell you now, I am today’s Emperor himself appointed as the Flying Armor Organization Governor, the same rank as the Black Hatchet Commander.”

“Pfft hahahaha, what did he say he was?”

Du Peng originally thought that Yuhua Tiyan was some kind of powerful mission, but he didn’t expect a tiny organization that His Majesty had just set up.

It dared to come right up to his head and take the P*ss.

Chapter 3204

“You don’t even take a P*ss and look at yourself, your Flying Armour has only been established for less than a day.”

“You dare to come to my Black Hatchet residence to cause trouble, don’t even look at yourself.”

Du Peng slapped his palm on the table, and a jade pot above the table flew up directly.

Under the wrapping of Du Peng’s power, it directly transformed into a residual shadow and attacked Yu Huatian.

Seeing the jade pot getting closer and closer, Yu Huatian remained indifferent.

The senior members of the Black Hatchet began to jeer wantonly.

“This guy can’t be a fancy fighter, he was directly stunned by this move of the commander.”

“No, no, no, I don’t think that’s right, it’s obvious that he couldn’t react.”

“Hahahaha, such a little yakuza dares to come and barge into our Black Hatchet, look at his p*ssy face!”

Just as the jade pot flew within half a metre of the jade Teean.

“Bang!”

The jade pot shattered with a loud bang, the pieces falling to the ground, and bringing the mockery of the Black Hatchet senior to a grinding halt.

“You ask me what my flying armour counts as?”

The ground shattered directly under Jade Teean’s feet with a slight force, and his toes shook slightly.

A stone went straight through the hat on Dupont’s head at a speed that no one saw.

It punched the wall directly behind Dupont and a ray of sunlight shone through the small hole.

Dupont reached out and moulded his hat, and there was already a small hole in it, and his eyes were instantly filled with a look of fear.

If that stone had just been lowered a few centimetres further down, I was afraid that a bloody hole would now have appeared in his own brow.

“Now I’ll tell you, those who cannot be killed by Black Hatchet will be killed by me, the Flying Armour.”

Jade Huatian stood up from the flying armour member and turned towards the door with a toss of his cloak.

“And listen up.”

Jade Huatian’s luxuriant hand rested on top of a chair with a slight movement of her arm.

All the senior executives felt the chair beneath their hips tremble.

The chair beneath the Black Hatchet senior on Duka’s right suddenly shattered.

He reacted in time so that he didn’t sit on his buttocks directly on the ground.

“I will kill those you Black Hatchet dare not kill, and I will manage what Black Hatchet dare not manage.”

“One word.”

“I will manage what the black turtledoves can manage, and I will manage even more what the black turtledoves cannot manage!”

“First to kill, then to charter by royal authority!”

“This, then, is the flying armour.”

“Is that clear enough?”

“Move out of the mansion by tomorrow, or else, don’t say I didn’t give face to my colleagues!”

With a shake of his white cloak, Yu Huatian led the respectful members of the flying armour towards the outside.

Walking out of the room, Dupenduka's teeth clenched in anger.

But the feeling of helplessness in their hearts left them standing in the doorway.

The powerful strength of the Jade Hwa Teean made everyone understand that this courtyard was too much for them and others to stay in.

Clenching his fists tightly, Dupont turned to his brother and said.

"Brother, why don't we go and report to His Majesty and ask him to do it for us?"

Dukka gave Dupont a cold glare and reprimanded.

"Report to His Majesty and say what, that you are not as skilled as others and can't beat them, and that they are taking over the courtyard?"

If Dukka really went to report to Gadre, Gadre would instead think that he was not capable and his heart was unbearable.

"So are we just going to move out in disgrace and let those people from the flying armour move in?"

At this moment, a smiling Wen Qiang came out and said to the two men.

"There is no need for the commander to worry, if it is given, it is given."

"Our Black Hatchet can have such a large courtyard, that's a credit laid out."

"They Flying Armour moved into the midst of such a large courtyard for no reason, but again, not an inch of credit can stand."

Dukka's as well as Dupont's eyes lit up, yes.

The Black Dove had a huge staff as well as power, and that was why they had the peace of mind to live in this courtyard of thousands of square metres.

They, the flying armour, with just that few people, could make any great achievements.

In a few days' time, Black Hatchet will be able to move back in.

Chapter 3205

In the middle of the Duan family fortress, at this moment, Duan Sanshui was reporting the situation to Duan Dashan.

"Boss, Black Hatchet's group of sons of b*tches are now out there every day robbing other fortresses of their fields, food and property, and even"

Duan Sanshui's fists were clenched and his face was filled with indignation.

Duan Dashan, who was sitting at the side, also had a very heavy face.

Nowadays, the members of the Black Hatchet are in wild turmoil against the Thousand Walled Villages.

We all understood the principle of the coldness of the teeth.

It was estimated that in a few days, Black Dove would come to mess with Duan Family Cottage.

“Brother, it’s not good, the outside of the fortress is all filled with Black Hatchet’s people!”

A villager from the Duan Family Cottage ran over from outside in a panic and reported to Duan Dashan.

Duan Dashan’s simple face instantly became angry, and he directly got up and walked outside.

Outside the Duan family fortress, thousands of Black Dove members stood there, setting up camp.

Originally, when they had planned to attack by force, they found that the Duan family fortress was like a bronze wall at the moment.

The walls of the fortress were littered with all sorts of heavy firepower.

They could not help but feel a tremor in their eyes.

Ever since the last time Duan’s fortress was destroyed by Ding Zihu’s mercenaries.

Duan Dashan’s heart had suffered from a disease.

Insufficient firepower phobia!

So after building the Duan Family Fortress from scratch.

Duan Dashan went crazy and bought all kinds of weapons and equipment.

Whatever could be bought with money on the market, the Duan Family Fortress must have.

Duan Dashan climbed the parapet wall and at a glance, he saw the dense crowd of Black Dove members surrounding outside.

“Horn.”

Duan Sanshui hurriedly took the trumpet from the side and handed it to Duan Dashan.

“Gentlemen, what is the reason why you are surrounding the entrance of my Duan Family Cottage?”

Duan Dashan’s words were quite polite.

After all, there were so many people with firearms in their hands, just surrounding the outside.

Anyone could tell what the other side wanted.

A cold smile appeared on the face of Dupeng, who was standing at the front, and he also reached out for a loudspeaker.

“Duan Dashan, we at Black Hatchet now seriously suspect you of secretly planting Night Vine Gra*s.”

“Now come out immediately and cooperate with our inspection, or we will take strong measures.”

Dupont looked at the heavy firepower on top of the parapet wall, his face not showing the slightest worry.

The Duan family fortress simply did not dare to fire at themselves and the others, and as long as they did, even if they did not hurt anyone.

Black Hatchet would have gone straight to Jia De Lie and asked him to send his troops straight to trample down Duan's fortress.

A look of worry flashed across Duan Dashan's eyes.

Although the Duan family fortress nowadays did not fear these annoying flies of Black Dove at all.

Even if he gave the order, most of the Black Doves would be killed or injured.

But what they represented behind them was the Wanxiang Kingdom as well as the Jia De Lie.

Seeing no more sound from Duan Dashan on top of the parapet wall, Du Peng flicked his palm.

A man who had been tied up all over was escorted to the front.

"Duan Dashan, you should know this man, right?"

"Fu Rui!"

Duan Dashan's eyes were wide with rage when he saw the man who was so bruised and battered that he couldn't even find a single piece of good flesh on his body.

"Son of a b*tch, Black Hatchet, is this the only underhanded tactic you can use?"

A disdainful smile appeared on Dupeng's face when he heard Duan Dashan's angry cursing voice.

Lifting his leg directly, he put a foot on Duan Furei's knee.

Duan Furei, who was originally standing straight, was under Dupeng's hands.

He was fiercely pinned to the ground with both knees down.

Duan Dashan shivered his lips and roared in anger, "Dupeng, do you really want to break the net with a fish dead?"

"What are you talking about, Duan Zai Lord, as long as you are willing to come out and cooperate with the inspection, naturally nothing will happen."

Du Peng clapped his hands, looked at the exasperated Duan Dashan, his face showed a hypocritical look haha and laughed.

"Boss, I am fine, let the doggone black turtledove see that our Duan family stronghold's sons and daughters are so weak from time to time!"

Duan Furei, blood flowing from the corner of his mouth, raised his head to the sky and shouted.

Duan Dashan's eyes were slightly red, and his palms gripped the protective wall with a deadly grip, even leaving a palm mark on it.

“Did I tell you to speak?”

Dupeng’s face suddenly changed, his fake smile no longer, and he looked at Duan Furei, who was kneeling on the ground, and said in a cold voice.

Chapter 3206

“He-tui!”

A thick mouthful of bloody spit was viciously spat on top of Du Peng’s cheek.

Du Peng wiped the bloody phlegm off his face and said with a resentful look on his face.

“Since you want to die so badly, I’ll make it happen!”

Dupeng put a fierce foot on top of Duan Furei’s stomach.

“Poof!”

Fresh blood accompanied by pieces of internal organs spurting out from Duan Furei’s mouth.

His gaze straightened towards Duan Jia Zhai, and the light in his eyes gradually dimmed.

“Ka.”

A stone in Duan Dashan’s hand instantly turned into shattered pieces.

His eyes were bloodshot and bloodthirsty as he looked towards Du Peng.

A hoarse sound came out from his throat, and at this moment, Duan Dashan really wanted to directly let everyone launch an attack.

He wanted to directly dismantle the teasing Du Peng, leaving him dead.

“Master Duan, it’s fine if you don’t come out, as long as you guys cower inside for a day, then I’ll wait outside for a day.”

“All of you, set up camp in place!”

One by one, the Black Hatchet members pulled out all sorts of equipment from their backpacks and began to assemble their tents together.

As Duan Dashan watched their movements, his heart was filled with rage.

But a deep sense of helplessness lingered within Duan Dashan’s heart.

He couldn’t make a move, once he did, all the thousands of villagers in Duan’s cottage would suffer from extinction.

“Big brother, all our partners and suppliers outside have unilaterally torn up their contracts.”

Duan Sanshui came hurriedly at this moment, with a strong look of anger on his face, as well as worry.

Duan Dashan was not surprised, when he saw the black turtles surrounding the outside, his heart had already expected it.

“Has our water and electricity all been cut off?”

Duan Sanshui nodded, the electricity as well as the running water of the entire Duan family cottage had all been cut off just now.

“Tell everyone to use candles as well as stream water from now on, and filter as well as precipitate the stream water before drinking.”

“I’ll go now.”

After Duan Sanshui left, Duan Dashan leaned against the parapet wall and picked up his mobile phone to call Lin Mo.

Before it was too late, Black Hatchet hadn’t had anyone install signal isolators around the area.

Duan Dashan needed to seek help from Lin Mo, as the Duan Family Cottage was now on thin ice.

If Duan Dashan made one wrong move, the entire Duan Family Cottage would be doomed.

“Dashan, is it the Black Dove that has started targeting the Duan Family Cottage?”

As soon as the phone call was connected, Lin Mo seemed to have guessed Duan Dashan’s purpose straight away and spoke directly.

“That’s right boss, now the black turtles have surrounded the outside of the fortress and have cut off the water and electricity.”

Lin Mo on the other end of the phone did not speak immediately, but responded after a while.

“Good, Dashan you take the villagers first and hold on for a while, I am currently restricted by the black turtles and cannot enter Wanxiang.”

“I will get the Duan Family Cottage back to regularity as soon as possible.”

Hanging up the phone, Duan Dashan leaned back against the city wall somewhat exhausted.

Even Lin Mo was restricted from entering the Wanxiang Kingdom by the Black Dove.

The Duan Family Cottage was now in an isolated and helpless stance.

Lin Mo was at home at the moment planning his next plan.

Early this morning, Lin Mo’s men in the Wanxiang Country called to tell Lin Mo.

His own pill houses in the Wanxiang Country that had been renovated had been directly seized by Black Hatchet’s men.

Even some people did not escape and were directly captured back by Black Hatchet.

And Black Hatchet has now evolved to the point of catching everyone in sight.

No matter who they see, they want to go up and bite them.

The whole of the Wanxiang Kingdom is now in a state of panic.

There were even rumours that the king of the Wanxiang Kingdom had been hollowed out by the black turtledove and was now only a name.

Lin Mo did not believe that Jia De Lie would be so idiotic, so he was still indifferent.

Was he biding his time, or was he waiting for other forces to come down.

Lin Mo's gaze went to the video of Third Prince Jia Bailiou who was dressed up on top of his phone.

Chapter 3207

A fortress less than a kilometre away from the Duan family fortress.

All the villagers were kneeling on the ground at the moment, and in front of them was a heavily armed Black Hatchet agent.

Their gazes ran wildly over all the villagers.

The aggressive gaze was as if they were looking at an object.

There were still a few bloody bodies still where the villagers were at the forefront.

They could only kneel on the ground with fear on their faces, afraid that if they moved they would fall under their guns.

"These are all the men of that most criminal Lin Mo, they secretly colluded to try to plant the night vine before we shot them down."

Duka said with a straight face as he looked at the group of people in front of him.

Of course, it might have been a little more believable if they hadn't been on their knees on the ground.

"But all the rice, wheat, fruit and vegetables you have produced this year could have been crossed with night vetch."

"So we need to take it all away to go back and have it tested, you don't have a problem with that do you?"

Although Duka's tone was inquisitive, it was a proper threat to the discerning eye.

"If you take all the food away, what will all of us eat?"

"Please let us go, we really can't live without this grain."

An old man in his flowery armour grabbed Du Ka's calf, tears running down the corners of his wrinkled eyes, and begged bitterly to Du Peng.

The entire villagers of the fortress. Basically, they were all in a yellow and thin state.

Everyone was counting on the newly produced grain to get them through the year.

It could even be said that these grains were the lifeblood of these villagers.

A look of impatience appeared on Duka's face, and he kicked the old man to the ground and angrily rebuked him.

"Good you old thing, did I give you face by talking to you properly?"

"What are you eating, I saw some chilli sauce in your house just now, eat chilli sauce!"

The old man was fiercely thrust to the ground and the back of his head ruthlessly collided with a stone on the ground.

Instantly blood flowed out along the stone and a look of indignation came out of the faces of the villagers kneeling on the ground.

A strong man rushed to the old man's side and shouted forlornly.

"Dad, don't scare me Dad, Third Ancestor, save my dad, save my dad!"

The strong man rolled and crawled to the other old man in the crowd of kneeling people.

He was the only one in the whole fortress who knew a little bit of medicine, and was usually known as Third Ancestor to everyone.

"Feng Cai, your father he"

The Third Agong shook his head helplessly, and the expression on his face filled the strong man's heart with coldness.

Black Hatchet's soldiers left with the hopes of the future of the whole fortress on their toes.

Without a word, the strong man picked up his father, who was no longer breathing, and went home.

Such scenes were not only seen inside this one fortress.

Some were even more tragic.

Women of some beauty, whether they were budding girls or women who had already become wives, were all killed as if they had fallen into the hands of this group.

All of them were abused by the Black Doves, who seemed to have been reduced to animals.

In the past they would take the women to their rooms.

Nowadays, the Black Dove members no longer have any qualms about it, and they even do it in front of everyone.

In front of their parents, children and husbands, they ravaged them.

Tears streamed down the corners of their eyes and their pleas for mercy only made the members of the Black Hatchet even more frantic.

Even after it was all over, the Black Hatchet members would be disgusted and just kill them.

Thinking that they had polluted their bodies so that they could pamper them.

It was simply a blessing that these country bumpkins had cultivated in their last life.

Nowadays, women of slight beauty do not dare to appear on the streets of the entire Wanxiang Kingdom.

Once they were targeted by the black turtles, they would be dragged straight back and reduced to playthings.

After being played with, they would be sold directly to the underground dark places of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

This was the greatest period of panic in the years since the founding of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

Some literati privately called this turmoil the Death of Wanxiang.

Chapter 3208

“Gentlemen, nowadays, the people in the Vientiane Kingdom are discontented and stormy, so it is a good time for us to strike!”

In the middle of Earl Elson’s residence in the Maple Leaf Kingdom.

Third Prince Gabriel was standing in front with a high face, constantly speaking to the dignitaries below him.

“So, Your Highness, the Third Prince, is it your wish that we take this moment to help you to the throne?”

A wealthy man from the Maple Kingdom below asked with his arm around a scantily clad lady-in-waiting in his arms?

“No, no, no, Mr Ellis you misunderstand, you are a top investor in the Maple Kingdom, naturally I could not come to amuse you.”

“Of course, it is only natural that I would not talk such nonsense to those gathered here today, but rather have a huge amount of profit at hand.”

Gabriele’s voice was full of temptation, but the various wealthy businessmen at the bottom were unmoved.

Each of them had come out of a brutal business battle.

If they could not see the exact prospect, they would not agree even if they said more.

“Gentlemen, I have already analysed the situation within Wanxiang at this moment; right now, Black Hatchet is the only one and is frantically collecting money.”

“At the same time, because of Black Hatchet’s oppression and turmoil, the interior of the Wanxiang Kingdom is bound to be incomparably chaotic at this moment.”

“As long as we join forces, we can completely take advantage of this to short Wanxiang!”

Gabrielle's words were like a bolt from the blue, instantly giving the financial giants sitting below a slight hint of intent.

But these words alone were not enough to convince them of the feasibility of the plan.

"Then, Your Highness, the Third Prince, you should know the basic requirements needed to short a country, right?"

"Of course."

A look of confident smile appeared on Gabriella's face.

"Firstly, the situation of the Vientiane Kingdom today is sufficient for us to make a move, and secondly, I still have various properties under the names of my old ministers in the Vientiane Kingdom."

"I will inform them to mortgage these properties to the bank or sell them cheaply for less than half, or even less than a third of the original price."

"By then we will have at least one billion Wanxiang Tongbao in our hands, so there is no need for me to say more about what happens next, right?"

Jia Bailiou did not finish his words, but the financial predators below all understood the feasibility of this plan.

As long as they had enough Wanxiang Tongbao in their hands.

There was a quota for the Wanxiang Tongbao printed by the Wanxiang Kingdom every year.

As long as a large amount of Wanxiang Tongbao appeared on the market.

The purchasing power of that Wanxiang Tongbao as well as the quota would drop drastically.

Then all they had to do was to create a wave.

That is, the Wanxiang Tongbao will soon be worthless, while the jadeite than will not depreciate in value.

By then there will be many Wanxiang nationals who will come to exchange their Jadeite coins.

Even then, the Emerald Coins will be needed for purchases and purchases within the Vientiane Kingdom.

After all, no one knows what the price of the Vientiane Treasure will fall to tomorrow.

Maybe today it's five dollars for a dollar of jade coins.

Then maybe tomorrow it will take 10 yuan of Wanxiang Tongbao to exchange for one jade coin.

And they can take advantage of this opportunity to use the jade coins in their hands to buy oil fields, mansions and so on in the Wanxiang Kingdom.

The old party of the Third Prince had originally pledged to the Bank of Vientiane in exchange for one billion Vientiane circulars.

In this case even three or four hundred million would be enough to redeem all those things.

And depending on what continues to happen behind the scenes, even in the end the people of Vientiane buy a loaf of bread.

A piece of bread that used to cost three dollars might take three million elephant circulars to buy a piece by then.

And the hundreds of millions or even billions of emerald coins of one's own and others can be multiplied dozens or even a hundred times in the purchasing power group of the Wanxiang country.

The huge benefits gained at that time are even for these world-famous financial giants who are worth billions.

They are not able to suppress their greed completely.

Chapter 3209

The eyes of these so-called financial giants were directed towards the front of the line.

In their hearts, they all understood that the most indispensable part of the plan was Gabriel.

His old party had enough assets in Vientiane, and this was the key to the plan.

If the Third Prince was left behind, no one would be able to acquire assets worth billions in a short period of time.

"Then what is your plan, Your Highness the Third Prince?"

Unknowingly, these financial predators sounded a little better to Gabrielle.

For them, if you want me to earn fifty percent, that's a buddy.

If you let me earn one hundred per cent of the profits, then it is a blood brother.

If the interest reaches two hundred percent after that, father, what are you calling me for.

The corners of Gabrielle's mouth slightly curled up into a molded smile, and she slightly shook the goblet carrying red wine in her hand.

"I'm hoping that you can all join forces to form a chamber of commerce, with me as the apparent president."

"Then together we will put together a large amount of Emerald Coins, enter the Vientiane Kingdom in the name of the Maple Leaf Country investors and wait for my people to start moving."

"Once the operation begins, we will buy the depreciated fields, oil fields and so on with the emerald coins in our hands."

A financial predator stood up at this point and asked a question to the Third Prince.

"Then Your Highness the Third Prince, you have also said that the Wanxiang Kingdom is being stirred up by that Black Hatchet organisation."

“So when we, the investors, go in, will Black Hatchet leave it alone?”

Gadre narrowed his own eyes as he swept his gaze around the entire room.

There was a vague look of anticipation above everyone’s gaze.

“This gentleman is quite right, so I will tell you how Black Hatchet will be handled.”

“First of all, we as investors of the Maple Leaf Country are qualified to enter Vientiane to meet the King.”

“Based on the analysis of the current situation it was Black Hatchet who hoodwinked that foolish man from Gadre, but as long as you guys have met Gadre.”

“That group will naturally not dare to touch you, and they do not want to shatter the beautiful illusion they have created for Gadrei over this.”

Gadrei’s gaze swept directly across the room this time and exclaimed.

“If you all have any further questions you can speak up directly, I, Jiabailiou, will know everything and say everything.”

“Your Highness, I have one more question, and that is how will the benefits be divided after the matter is completed?”

“The benefits that you all receive from this plan will be your own, which means that the more money you take out, the more you all will turn.”

Just as Jia Bailiou’s voice fell, the whole room rang out in an uproar.

“Your Highness, the Third Prince, forgive my inability, my family’s small child has fallen into the water and I have to rush back to rescue him.”

“Yes, you take your time.”

All eyes in the room gathered on Andy’s body.

f*ckin’ shame, just go back to the bank and get a mortgage.

What the f*ck are you doing, waiting for your own kid to fall into the water, waiting for you to go back and get the body?

No, if you let this motherf*cker go crazy and mortgage your own property at the bank.

Then I guess by the time he and the others go to mortgage, the amount the bank will give will be much less.

“Your Highness, the Third Prince, my eldest son got into a fight with a giant lizard at home, and I need to go back quickly to take a look.”

“Your Highness the Third Prince, my son actually got into a fight with a giant lizard too, I need to go back quickly or it will amount to a big disaster.”

The Third Prince looked at the two men who had risen at the same time and hesitated for a moment to speak.

“Did the two of you have a son who got into a fight with a giant lizard?”

The two looked at each other heartily and then began to nod frantically.

“Ah yes, yes, Your Highness the Third Prince’s guess is really accurate.”

“The situation is urgent, so I will not continue with the small talk, farewell!”

Soon, almost everyone within the entire hall had left.

The smile on the Third Prince’s face grew thicker and thicker.

Jiade Lie, you were lucky with the plane crash last time.

Let’s see how you can stop it this time.

Chapter 3210

Compared to the chaos in the Wanxiang Kingdom and the machinations of the Maple Leaf Country.

Lin Mo and Wang Laosan in Panyang City are now getting up earlier than a chicken and sleeping later than a dog.

Every day, there are endless documents to correct, and even requests for materials from other places.

Lin Mo also needs to keep an eye on what’s going on in Wanxiang and Jia Biluo.

Until today.

A promotional message suddenly appeared on Lin Mo’s mobile phone.

“Many financial giants from the Maple Leaf Country have formed an alliance and will be investing in the cause of the Wanxiang Country on a large scale

Lin Mo narrowed his eyes slightly, and the brow that had been furrowed due to business suddenly stretched out.

A poisonous snake is most frightening when it is not moving in the shadows.

When its purpose and its target all come out into the open.

Everything was simpler.

Turning his mobile phone on, he found the number in his address book with the note Zhao Lao and called it.

The call was soon answered.

“Lin Mo, what is it that you are looking for old man?”

Zhao Nan Yue's mid-toned voice came from the other end of the phone.

It caused Lin Mo to subconsciously hold the phone away from his ear.

"Old man Zhao, I need your help on my side."

"Oh?"

Zhao Nan Yue's voice came out filled with doubt.

In his opinion, there were too few things in this world that Lin Mo couldn't handle.

It seemed unusual that he would call himself this time.

"Elder Zhao, this matter may not be clear over the phone for a while, you should come to Pan Yang and we will talk face to face."

"Okay, I'll go there now."

Zhao Nan Yue did not refuse and nodded his head in response.

Hanging up the phone, Lin Mo once again looked at the news about the merchant alliance formed by the Maple Leaf Country.

A smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

He understood what Jia Delieu was waiting for by not stepping in to purge Black Dove of complete control of Wanxiang until now.

He was waiting for the so-called financial predators to come down.

Then he would use his own hand to crush them.

The financial predators who have lost a lot of money will then put all their anger on Gabriel.

Even

Lin Mo felt that Jia Del Lie had already gathered monstrous amounts of emerald coins in secret.

The amount of that monstrous huge amount of emerald coins was at the very least a billion upwards.

It was enough to quell everything with stone-cold power without making a move himself.

Gadrei will not be a king who sits back and is literally blinded by the illusion created by Black Hatchet.

Gadrei has long since matured.

Growing from the debauched royal son he was to the one he is now.

He would do anything for his own ends, allowing Black Dove to wreak havoc and kill innocent people in the Wanxiang Kingdom.

The current Jiadrei is brutal yet merciful, despicable yet full of wisdom.

By virtue of his own power he has left no one else in the entire Wanxiang Kingdom other than the Black Dove.

There was no other voice that could raise its voice.

And when this is over.

The time will come to liquidate Black Hatchet.

The time will come when Black Hatchet, who is hated by everyone in the country, will be removed by Jiadre.

Then his prestige and prestige will be in a flash.

He will have leapt from being a hollow king who was blinded by Black Hatchet.

He will become a king who is holding back in secret and building up his strength to eradicate Black Hatchet.

At that time, even Jiayuan I, who had ruled the Wanxiang Kingdom for decades, would have no way to compare with Jiadre.

And the Wanxiang Kingdom, which had been scourged by Black Hatchet's purge regardless, would not have any forces that could come out against Jia De Lie.

He will have a truly centralised system of power over the Vientiane Kingdom.

The king himself would have complete control over every blade of grass and every tree in the country.

The previous Jia De Lie was unable to take complete control of Wanxiang because there were other voices.

So he decided to take a gamble and not break it.

Lin Mo's gaze faintly looked in the direction of the Wanxiang Kingdom.

At this moment, was this supremely honourable king's majesty secretly unifying the big picture, or was he constantly laying out his plans.

A heavenly net that would make it impossible for Black Hatchet to escape from heaven and earth.
