Chapter 3331

Seeing Lin Mo's icy voice, He Er nodded his head in a hurry.

After a moment's hesitation, He Er inquired to Lin Mo.

"Lord Zhen Yue, then do we still need to continue to have people surround and seal off the Willow Leaf Lane side?"

"Just leave a few people behind to keep an eye on it, and let the rest withdraw back."

He walked out from inside Kazuji's office.

Lin Mo suddenly thought of the children in the martial arts training room on the first floor.

He wondered how they had eaten in the past two days, and whether they had made any progress.

With a slight expectation, Lin Mo arrived at the door of the martial arts training room.

Just after opening the door was a flurry of voices.

Lin Mo walked to the entrance and saw the children.

They stood straight and neatly one by one, reciting under their breath.

"Cultivate virtue before you practice martial arts, those who are short of virtue must not be studied with; literature can secure the state, martial arts can"

The children's somewhat tender voices caused a slight smile to appear on Lin Mo's face.

These people are the future hope of a country, and also the future hope of the Martial Union.

Without bothering to speak, Lin Mo gently retreated.

He might disturb his teacher's lesson if he went there now.

Returning to the hotel where he was staying, Lin Mo, who had just opened the door to his room, saw a respectful figure.

"Big brother welcome home!"

Looking at the respectful Shen Mianfang and the water he was holding in his hand.

Lin Mo silently turned his gaze towards the Crown Prince in the distance.

The latter still had a very confident and proud smile on his face, as if he was saying to Lin Mo.

"Boss, look how well I have trained this boy.

Lin Mo took the water from Shen Extraordinary's hand and sighed inwardly as he looked at the expression on the child's face.

“This kid seems to have been played out of his psyche by the Crown Prince.”

It hadn't been so long since he himself had been around, what had the crown prince done to Shen Extraordinary.

It was amazing that he had made a middle-aged teenager in his rebellious stage obey.

“Teacher, you're back.”

Little Black quickly ran out from inside the house on one side.

Upon seeing Lin Mo, a delighted smile appeared on his little face.

To him, apart from his mother, his teacher was the closest person to him.

His teacher had given him a new creation and allowed him to practise martial arts.

Lin Mo's kindness was deeply engraved in Little Black's heart.

“Well, what did the Prince teach you in the past two days?”

Lin Mo squatted down and rubbed Little Black's head as he inquired at him.

“Brother Prince has taught me how to quickly make a female ooooooh!”

Little Black was about to report to Lin Mo the results of his learning over the past few days.

A cold sweat quickly seeped above the prince's forehead, as if he saw the king of hell tiny beckoning to him.

At once, he ran to Little Black with a sliding shovel and directly covered his little mouth.

Lin Mo looked at the Prince's sweaty appearance all over his body and said suspiciously.

“Prince, what's wrong with you, why are you sweating so much in a few minutes?”

The crown prince wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and said with a forced smile.

“It's too hot today big brother, I just tend to sweat.”

Lin Mo looked outside at the howling gale and suddenly fell silent.

“You wouldn't have taught Little Black something bad, would you?”

Lin Mo's words caused the Prince's heart to jump subconsciously and he hurriedly opened his mouth to explain.

“Boss, you know me, I definitely won't teach such nonsense to little kids.”

Lin Mo looked at the crown prince's forced smile and a strong look of suspicion surfaced in his eyes.

In the end, he nodded and did not pursue this matter any further.

The crown prince instantly let out a sigh of relief.

This was if Lin Mo knew about the blind teaching he had given to Little Black in the past few days.

Next year's today might be the anniversary of his own death.

"Is the secret erotic book you taught Little Black complete?"

"That's natural, it's a collection of many years."

The Prince who finished subconsciously was suddenly stiff

Chapter 3332

Late at night, the resting place of the construction team in the Happy Community.

For the convenience of the construction team a sheet was laid out to rest directly inside a large room.

A soft sound of footsteps suddenly came to mind in the midst of the pitch blackness.

Several men in black, dressed in night clothes, walked quietly in the middle of the building.

They exchanged hand signals through the faint moonlight.

"Boss, should we?"

A team member traced a finger on his neck and looked to the man in black at the front of the group.

The man in black at the front had a quick flicker in his hand.

Presumably it meant no killing, first wreaking havoc.

But under the influence of the darkness, the team member read it as.

Kill, then wreak havoc.

A ruthless look appeared in his eyes as he pulled a dagger from his waist.

The captain in front of him had his pupils flinch and quickly ran over to hold his hand down.

At the same time, he cursed angrily in a low voice at his team member.

"You idiot, I said no killing!"

The captain in black suppressed his voice and slapped the team member on the head.

A look of resignation appeared on the team member's face behind the black cloth.

It was so dark, didn't I just not see clearly.

The captain arrived at the door where the construction team was resting and took out a wire from among his hair.

Inserting the wire inside the keyhole, the captain's brow furrowed.

He kept controlling the wire, but never heard the door open.

One of the team members behind the captain quietly felt his way up and whispered into his ear.

“Captain, is there a possibility that this door is not locked at all and needs to be opened manually

The team member’s hand was placed on top of the door handle and pushed down hard.

“Ga-”

The door was opened by him right through a crack.

The captain silently hid the wire he was holding in his hair.

No longer bothered to look into the smug eyes of his team members.

He vowed that the next time there was anything dangerous.

He would make sure the team member was the one to be the f*cking scout.

A few people crept quietly into the house.

The darkness made it a little hard for the men to see, but they didn’t dare speak.

Their eyes went to the piles of building materials in the house.

The construction crew sleeping in front of the building materials did not attract their attention.

“Is everyone due?”

A calm voice suddenly sounded in the darkness.

“Six men are here.”

“Keep your f*cking voice down!”

The captain jumped at the sound, afraid of waking the construction men.

He then quickly turned his head and squeezed his voice and yelled angrily behind him.

“The men are here then, close the net!”

The calm voice checked behind the captain and there were indeed five men.

Then he shouted directly.

At once, the house, which had been dark, was suddenly as bright as day.

The six members of the team in night clothes consciously shielded their eyes from the glare of the light.

With a cold smile on their faces, He Er stood behind them with a dozen members of the Martial Alliance.

After seeing the six men, the members of the Martial Alliance pounced on them directly like tigers and wolves.

The nylon ropes in their hands spun and jumped rapidly, tying up a member of the team dressed in night clothes.

Kazuo’s fat face was filled with anger as he looked at these guys.

He knew that these dogs would never settle down.

The members of the Martial Alliance forcefully broke open the mouths of the six men and pulled out their innermost teeth.

Blood immediately flowed out and all six of them revealed a look of pain.

The teeth had been yanked off raw, and there was even blood and flesh on them.

After observing them for a while, a puzzled look appeared on the faces of the members of the Martial Alliance.

“Lord Vice President, there is no poison hidden inside their teeth.”

A look of resignation appeared in the eyes of the six people who were tied to the ground in a deadly manner.

They were just some ordinary household servants!

At most, they would bully ordinary people.

Chapter 3333

Three days disappeared in the blink of an eye.

During these three days Lin Mo dealt with the six underlings that He Er had captured.

Under some coercion with torture instruments, they quickly confessed.

Several of them were evens of the Wang family and had been ordered by the Wang family head this time.

It was to come and destroy these building materials.

Lin Mo asked He Er to hold them in the Martial Union first.

And personally instructed Little Black some more.

Prince

He had just gotten up from bed yesterday.

He had been beaten up by Lin Mo earlier.

And Lin Mo still wouldn't give him treatment.

So it was miserable lying in bed for two days.

“Boss, do you want me to go cheer you up.”

The prince heard that Lin Mo was going out to have a medical competition with a witch doctor.

He immediately ran over and said excitedly to Lin Mo.

Lin Mo looked at the prince's appearance with a look of suspicion in his eyes.

He doubted that the Crown Prince would take a machine gun while he was cheering to help.

As long as all the ones cheering for the opposite side were swept straight to death.

"There's no need, I'll be back before noon."

Lin Mo shook his head and just led Little Black outwards.

Little Black was still young now, so it was okay to take it out for a long time.

The prince wailed inwardly as he watched Lin Mo's back as he pulled Little Black out.

Sure enough, he had been abandoned after all

Shen Extraordinary silently cleared up the table after all three had left.

At this moment, it was as if he was a different person.

Silent and reticent, he said less and did more.

This also stems from the poisonous chicken soup for his soul that the crown prince had

That day after Lin Mo left.

The crown prince pulled Shen extraordinary into the house and talked alone for a full hour.

When Shen Extraordinary came out again, he was very heavy.

The whole person's original unruly and untamed aura had also disappeared without a trace.

No one knew exactly what things the Crown Prince had said to Shen Extraordinary.

When Shen Qianqian saw Shen Extraordinary, he also shouted in shock, "This absolutely can't be my son!"

.....

A crowd of people had gathered outside Willow Leaf Lane at the moment.

Under the middle-aged witch doctor's performance, that crowd of people were running to tell each other.

The middle-aged witch doctor's pitiful image was widely publicized.

At the same time ruthlessly smearing Lin Mo's reputation as a challenger.

The sea of people outside Willow Leaf Lane were all here to cheer for the middle-aged witch doctor.

"That challenger is here!"

"Is he the guy who wants to step on Lord Witch Doctor's reputation to get to the top?"

"This kind of person actually looks so good-looking, but underneath his skin is so vicious."

Lin Mo walked slowly and unhurriedly from a distance with Little Black in tow.

The vicious words and even personal attacks from the surrounding crowd did not move Lin Mo in the slightest.

A group of guys who were blinded were not so blinded as to make Lin Mo angry.

But Little Black, whom Lin Mo was holding, looked around at so many guys who cursed Lin Mo.

His fleshy little face was all red from anxiety.

"I forbid you to talk about my teacher!"

Little Black's yell stopped the chattering crowd around them for a second or two.

The next moment, the main character of their words changed from Lin Mo to Xiao Hei.

"Look at that kid, at his young age he actually calls you a shameless man teacher."

"If such a little thing were me, I would have just thrown it into the pit when it was born."

"I know this boy, he's the son of a widow on the outskirts of town."

"A widow?"

"Yes, his father was killed early by his mother's plague."

"No wonder he worships this shameless man, do you think his mother would"

"Then who knows, bringing up a child by herself, taking into account that it has long been unclean."

"It's true that people and people will get together, and trash and trash will get together!"

The harsh discussions of the surrounding crowd caused tears to gradually appear in Kuro's eyes.

Chapter 3334

Tears flowed down Xiaohei's cheeks and dripped onto Lin Mo's hand.

Lin Mo, who was originally carrying Little Black forward, felt the warm touch on his hand.

He found that Little Black's face was all filled with aggression.

Those big soulful eyes also gradually dulled.

Lin Mo placed a hand gently on Little Black's head and tenderly rubbed his head.

"Little Black, don't be sad because of the words of such people, because"

Lin Mo's gaze swept around and his eyes went icy cold.

"This group of guys, ah, are just a bunch of pitiful eggs who have been blinded."

Lin Mo's killing intent penetrated his body.

The casual white clothes rose up without wind.

Behind him it was as if a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood had appeared

And Lin Mo was the lone monarch sitting high above the mountain of corpses and blood!

Under the sweep of Lin Mo's gaze.

Everyone's face turned pale.

The ones whose hearts were close to their hearts directly went limp low and P*ssed themselves.

"A group of adults mouthing off at a little kid."

"Aren't you the shameless people you speak of!"

Lin Mo's words silenced them one by one.

Looking at none of them who dared to speak, Lin Mo's finger gently wiped on top of Little Black's cheek.

He then continued to lead him towards within Willow Leaf Lane.

Within the alleyway, a group of men in coloured clothes stood in two rows.

A stern and murderous aura emanated from their bodies.

These were men who had seen blood.

Lin Mo did not stop, but calmly took Little Black with him and walked towards the inside.

Suddenly, Lin Mo spoke again and said to Little Black.

"Little Black, teacher is teaching you a lesson today."

"A dog that bites people will not bark."

"Dogs that only snarl and bark do not dare to bite people because they are afraid of death."

A dumbfounded expression appeared on Black's face.

Although he couldn't understand what the teacher was saying.

But Xiaohei nodded his head obediently.

You can go back and ask the teacher again if you don't know.

But you can't fall in the teacher's face outside.

The faces of the witch clan hans standing on either side had a green and red flush.

How could they not hear Lin Mo say them again.

If they wanted to make a move, they should just go ahead.

If not, don't stand here like a fool.

In the end, the Witch Han standing at the front said reluctantly in a deep voice.

“Let’s all go back.”

Even though everyone’s hearts were filled with reluctance.

But no one bothered to question the decision of the leader’s man.

Amongst the clan environment of the Witch Clan, rules were the greatest.

Lin Mo led Little Black to pace up and down to the door of the Witch Hall.

Various tables and chairs had long been prepared at the entrance.

The middle-aged witch doctor had long stood at the entrance of the Witch Hall, waiting for Lin Mo with his hands behind his back.

“You’re here.”

“Hmm.”

“You shouldn’t have come.”

“But I’ve come after all.”

Faced with the middle-aged witch doctor’s words, Lin Mo responded indifferently.

“Tell me, how do you want to compare.”

The middle-aged witch doctor looked towards Lin Mo.

“A civil fight, a martial fight, or a practice?”

The literary battle that the middle-aged witch doctor was referring to was when the two people compared their theoretical knowledge of herbs and the mastery of their conditions.

The martial arts competition was when two people worked together to heal, and the one who healed more and had better results would be considered the winner.

The practice is to invite a patient with a difficult disease, and whoever cures him first will be considered the winner.

Lin Mo looked at the middle-aged witch doctor and said with a light smile.

“Then let’s have all three together, so that I’m not bullying you.”

The middle-aged witch doctor’s face instantly showed anger at his words.

A yellow-mouthed child dared to be so arrogant, he had only studied medicine for a few years and he thought he was better than Hua Tuo.

Randomly, the middle-aged witch doctor sneered and said.

“Fine, I just hope you, the great man of the Martial Union, won’t lose afterwards! “

Chapter 3335

Outside Willow Lane, a dozen large Witch Clan men came out carrying several tables.

They placed the tables in a row.

Lin Mo and the middle-aged witch doctor stood opposite each other.

“Lord Witch Doctor has finally come out!”

“Lord Witch Doctor, you will definitely be able to outwit this shameless man!”

“A rash youth still wants to challenge Lord Witch Doctor.”

“Go back to your mother’s womb and study for another 500 years, don’t come out to rubbish the reputation of Lord Witch Doctor.”

“I don’t think you’ve studied medicine for half as long as Lord Witch Doctor, so what’s the point of fighting for medicine!”

A tsunami of mocking voices kept ringing out.

If it wasn’t for the fact that Lin Mo’s killing intent had scared them earlier.

At this moment, those rotten eggs and rotten cabbages would have come like rain.

Although Little Black, who was standing beside Lin Mo, was a little angry at them for insulting his beloved teacher.

But he also kept Lin Mo’s words close to his heart.

Don’t argue with these big fools who were blinded by people.

“High Priestess, since I am the one who challenged this time, you will be the one to come up with the questions.”

The way the two adopted was the most classic one question, one answer.

Both sides would lose if either could not answer.

“Good, then you don’t lose if you can’t answer the first question straight away.”

A cold smile appeared on the middle-aged witch doctor’s face after hearing Lin Mo’s words, and then he shouted.

“How do you treat a kidney yin deficiency and a hyperactive heart fire, such that the heart and kidneys do not intermingle?”

This question was a test for the middle-aged witch doctor.

He wanted to see how Lin Mo’s medical skills were.

“Diarrhea of the south to supplement the north can treat this symptom.”

The question asked by the middle-aged witch doctor was so straightforward that Lin Mo did not even have to think about it.

Such simple questions would only go to embarrass those so-called medical students.

Even some experienced doctors would know.

Next it was Lin Mo's turn to ask a question.

"Will the boiling of Thousand Gold Seeds, Strychnine Seeds, Heavenly Fairy Seeds, Grass Crow Leaves plus the antidote herbs kill anyone?"

Lin Mo's question caused the middle-aged witch doctor to freeze.

He had expected Lin Mo to ask something difficult and complicated, but he did not expect it to be herbology.

The first four herbs, such as Thousand Gold Seed, were all highly poisonous plants.

An ordinary person who tasted even a little bit of the juice would have to foam at the mouth and have his heart and veins severed.

Lin Mo had combined the four poisons and boiled them together, which was enough to poison a person for fear of the smell.

But then he put the antidote herbs in the middle of the remedy.

This caused the middle-aged witch doctor to lose his mind for a moment.

Sweat gradually seeped from his forehead as his mind raced through the simulations.

But even though the middle-aged witch doctor had practiced medicine for so many years, he had never experienced such an odd case before.

Lin Mo's addition of the antidote herbs in the last place must have had his own intentions.

If these four kinds of highly poisonous things were to meet the antidote herbs together.

Could it be that they could really turn decay into magic and reverse the innate nature?

"No poison!"

In the end, the middle-aged witch doctor spoke his answer in a deep voice.

It was really because there were too many cases in the history of Chinese medicine that proved it.

Poison is not always poison, as long as the pharmacology is matched properly.

Then the poison could also be instantly transformed into a holy medicine that saved lives.

Lin Mo heard the middle-aged witch doctor's answer and shook his head at his incredulous gaze.

"It's impossible for the antidote herbs to unlock even one of these four flavours of poison."

“Not to mention the four flavours of poison fused together, no amount of antidote herbs put in would be useful.”

“Then why did you add the antidote herbs to that!”

The middle-aged witch doctor glared at Lin Mo furiously.

If Lin Mo hadn't deliberately added the antidote herb in there.

And he himself used his usual thinking to consider Lin Mo's answer.

Only then did he come back with the conclusion that there was no poison.

If Lin Mo hadn't added the antidote to the poisonous herb, he would definitely not have gotten the answer wrong!

“Since when is it not possible to add the wrong thing to a question for confusion.”

Lin Mo calmly looked at the middle-aged witch doctor and said coldly.

Chapter 3336

The middle-aged witch doctor's face turned green for a moment.

“Lord Witch Doctor, he is just relying on logic to deceive you.”

“That's right, it's just one loss, we support you!”

The voices of the surrounding crowd once again rang out, causing a confident look to appear on the middle-aged witch doctor's face once again.

“Good, a loss in this game is a loss.”

“But I will definitely not give in to you again in the following martial duel as well as practice.”

The middle-aged witch doctor deliberately added the words “I won't give in to you anymore” in his words.

To show that the reason why he lost just now was only because he deliberately gave way to Lin Mo.

The surrounding crowd once again erupted in cheers.

“Go for Lord Witch Doctor, you can definitely win over this despicable person.”

“Just now, it was only because Lord Witch Doctor gave him a little bit.”

“That's right, if Lord Witch Doctor hadn't deliberately given way to him, how could he have answered Lord Witch Doctor's question correctly!”

The noisy voices caused Lin Mo's brow to frown slightly as his gaze swept around.

Everywhere Lin Mo's gaze went, the crowd that had just been cheering and shouting was directly mute.

The two men sat down on two chairs on either side, and the surrounding ma*ses walked out in discomfort.

“Lord Witch Doctor, I have been feeling tight in the chest and have difficulty breathing lately.”

“Lord Witch Doctor, you help me take my pulse, I have been having nosebleeds lately.”

“Lord Witch Doctor, you

Compared to the crowd’s scramble at the middle-aged witch doctor’s place.

Before Lin Mo’s table only a few young men walked over with cold faces.

The young man at the head of the table looked at Lin Mo with disdain in his eyes.

If the Lord Witch Doctor’s side was not already full, he would not have come to Lin Mo’s side.

A half-baked kid wants to step on Lord Witch Doctor for the sake of fame.

It’s really not too shameful!

He just wanted to sit down, Lin Mo’s voice rang out directly.

“You are kidney deficiency, go back and tonic more will be good, less indulgence, more cultivation.”

The young man’s face instantly froze.

It was as if he could already feel the strange gazes of his companions behind him and around him.

“You didn’t even take a pulse, what makes you say I have kidney deficiency!”

The young man shouted at Lin Mo.

As long as he was sure he was talking nonsense, his reputation was still intact.

“The gods are tired, the bags under the eyes are deep, the spirit is weak, and most importantly, you started sweating after standing for just a short while.”

“If you continue like this, you will completely screw up your body.”

Lin Mo sat on the chair and looked at the young man and said without hurry.

Chinese medicine is most concerned with the four methods of looking, smelling, asking and cutting.

Lin Mo simply took a look at the young man and saw that he had a serious kidney deficiency.

“Big brother, no wonder you don’t go out with us every night

“Thanks to us treating you as a big brother, there are women you don’t even tell us!”

The companions behind the young man rang out in righteous indignation.

The young man’s face reddened and he gave Lin Mo a hateful look.

Then he quickly turned around and ran towards the distance.

He originally thought that Lin Mo was just a rash young man who knew nothing about anything.

I didn't expect to have such behind-the-scenes learning now.

Not only did he not reveal Lin Mo's true nature, but he lifted a stone and smashed his own feet.

Lin Mo sat in his chair, his eyes swept a cursory glance over the rest of the people, opened his mouth and said quietly.

"You also do not look, the first you Yang fire is too strong, easy nosebleeds, go back to drink more herbal tea."

"The second you kidney deficiency is just a little lighter than the one just now."

"The third you kidney deficiency than both of them are serious."

One by one, the three people were pointed out by Lin Mo, immediately no longer have the face to stay here.

The afterglow of the witch doctor beside Lin Mo saw that Lin Mo was actually so powerful.

Just a simple glance would tell the condition of the other person's body.

This is even the practice of medicine for decades of old Chinese doctors are very that do!

Chapter 3337

The middle-aged witch doctor's eyes carried a look of shock.

Could it be that Lin Mo was not a fledgling rash youth.

Rather, it was a genius with an extremely strong artistic talent?

The sounds of shock from the surrounding crowd caused the middle-aged witch doctor's movements to speed up.

"You have kidney deficiency."

"You have stomach problems."

"You stayed up late causing liver deficiency."

"....."

Every person who came to Lin Mo's position was told exactly what their problems were.

Lin Mo and also gave them various solutions.

Basically, it took less than a minute to look after a person.

The middle-aged witch doctor not only needed to carefully ask various symptoms.

Even have to take off some clothes in front of a large crowd to watch carefully.

Such a contrast was established down, and the voices in the crowd gradually changed direction.

“How does the Lord Witch Doctor look not as fast as that young man

“Could it be that young man is really sure?”

Although they were guided by An on top of their spirit.

But that only made them not believe in Lin Mo’s medical skills.

But at this moment, Lin Mo’s posture and the certainty that the holy family was in control made everyone’s heart a little shaken.

The long incense that was just inserted by the witch man on the table was already about to burn out at this moment.

The middle-aged witch doctor’s eyes showed a strong look of reluctance.

Ruthlessness flashed in his eyes and he made a gesture towards the alley behind him.

The long incense burned out and went out.

“This must be Lord Witch Doctor’s bad form today!”

“We demand to do it again on another day!”

The inner faith of the spectators surrounding the event was broken by Lin Mo one after another.

The few people who were most affected by the middle-aged witch doctor had shouted anxiously.

The middle-aged witch doctor’s grim eyes glanced at the alley behind him and nodded quietly and silently.

In the middle of Willow Leaf Alley stood a short, old woman at the moment.

In her hand she held a small ancient worm.

The name of this insect was the Perishing Compulsion.

As long as it could enter the enemy’s body.

No matter how strong the opponent is, he or she will die in an instant.

Only after each use of the extermination compulsion will also die with it.

So the number of extermination compulsions is extremely rare.

The old woman’s palm lifted up, and a force shot the extermination compulsion towards Lin Mo quickly.

The original still calm Lin Mo suddenly felt a hint of crisis behind him.

The slender right hand directly took out Tai Ah, and the sword aura rushed up to the sky.

A small black insect was directly turned into ashes under this overwhelming sword mane.

Lin Mo’s originally calm face ice-cold down.

The heavenly killing intent came out through his body.

One by one, the originally arranged members of the Martial Union outside of Willow Leaf Alley immediately gathered around.

“Everyone leave!”

A small red dot appeared above the forehead of the middle-aged witch doctor.

The already piercing pain in his brow was frantically sending a message to the middle-aged witch doctor.

The feeling of death was swarming over him.

The middle-aged witch doctor looked at the members of the Martial Union who had completely surrounded Willow Leaf Lane in just a few seconds.

It was immediately clear that they had long been prepared.

The middle-aged witch doctor also knew that he had completely and utterly lost.

“Bang!”

“High Priestess!”

“No, High Priestess!”

The middle-aged witch doctor didn’t bother to take care of the witch clan members behind him.

He knelt down to Lin Mo with a bang, his head on the ground.

Putting all his posture to the lowest level.

“Lord of the Martial Alliance, all of this is at the behest of me, a fellow who is controlled by his desires!”

“I only beg you to let the people behind me leave, and I am willing to cut myself off to thank you for my crime!”

The middle-aged witch doctor’s voice was filled with sadness.

Perhaps he was himself when he first opened that book of secrets.

He had already ceased to be himself.

Rather, it was a walking corpse controlled by desire

The witch clans within Willow Leaf Lane looked at the appearance of the middle-aged witch doctor, and one by one, they fell silent.

“I know my mistake is very serious.”

“But they don’t know anything.”

Chapter 3338

The middle-aged witch doctor probably felt that he was at the end of his rope.

His voice, which had been somewhat sad, also calmed down.

Lin Mo, holding Tai Ah, paced up and down to the middle-aged witch doctor's body.

The tip of Tai Ah's sword was placed on one spot of the middle-aged witch doctor's body, and Lin Mo blandly said.

"This is the right place, right?"

The middle-aged witch doctor raised his head in some dismay, and his gaze met with Lin Mo's calm eyes.

"Ugh!"

In the next moment, the tip of Tai Ah's sword plunged directly into the middle-aged witch doctor's body.

The pain caused the middle-aged witch doctor to let out a low roar of pain.

The witch clans within Willow Leaf Lane saw this and one by one, their eyes were suddenly wide eyed.

Their high priest was being tortured with a sword at this moment. Yet they could only watch from here.

"Stop the bleeding yourself."

Lin Mo pulled out Tai Ah, which was not stained with the slightest bit of blood.

His deep eyes looked at the middle-aged witch doctor who was kneeling on the ground.

"You should be thankful that you haven't hurt a single person up to now."

"Today I abolish your meridians so that you cannot perform your kung fu again."

"Take all the witch clansmen out of Hai Fang City by tomorrow."

Lin Mo's slightly bland words nevertheless caused the middle-aged witch doctor's body to tremble.

He did not expect that Lin Mo would actually be willing to let himself go.

He also let himself take all the clan members and leave safely.

Wasn't he afraid that he would come back for revenge after he left?

Lin Mo's figure kept enlarging in the middle-aged witch doctor's eyes.

He fiercely snapped his head at Lin Mo and said loudly.

"Your kindness today will be repaid a hundred times by my witch clan in the future!"

He knew that he and Lin Mo were simply not of the same level.

Lin Mo's eyesight, strength, and heart were not comparable to his own.

He himself had been arrogant enough to not put Lin Mo in his eyes.

The scene of the middle-aged witch doctor kowtowing to Lin Mo caused the witch clan behind him to be stunned.

“That man hurt the High Priestess and the High Priestess actually kowtowed to him?”

“Look guys, that man has taken everyone away.”

“He didn’t kill the high priest, the high priest is still alive!”

A group of witch clans found out that the middle-aged witch doctor was not dead.

They immediately rushed up excitedly and carefully helped the middle-aged witch doctor up.

“High Priestess, how are you doing?”

The strong man in the lead looked at the middle-aged witch doctor and asked carefully.

The middle-aged witch doctor nodded to the crowd and opened his mouth to command.

“There is nothing serious about me, you guys quickly go back and pack your things, we will leave Hai Fang City tonight overnight.”

The middle-aged witch doctor’s words immediately caused everyone to freeze for a moment.

“High priest, we have lived here for decades, why do we have to leave?”

“Yes High Priestess, we have lived here for so long, I don’t want to leave

Middle-aged witch doctor face some pale white look around the familiar everything, said in a deep voice.

“Must go tonight, hurry back to pack things.”

Under the middle-aged witch doctor’s serious and heavy words, everyone with reluctant faces went back to pack their things.

The middle-aged witch doctor sat at the entrance of the witch house, gently stroking the door that he pressed on with his own hands.

He also did not want to leave his hometown, leaving this city where he had lived for decades.

But he had made a mistake and had to admit his punishment.

Even he had thought he would not live through today.

But did not expect that Lin Mo only abolished one of his meridians.

It is just unable to use that witchcraft again.

.....

The other side of the street.

Little Black pulled Lin Mo’s hand and asked with some curiosity.

“Teacher, he made such a big mistake, and we just let him go?”

In Little Black’s opinion, such a big mistake should go to a small black house!

Lin Mo gently stroked the top of Little Black’s head and said gently.

“Little Black, all things are not just viewed from the surface.”

Chapter 3339

It’s raining

It was raining rapidly above the sky of Hai Fang City.

The rain drops hit the pedestrians, making their pace more hurried.

The ants crawling around on the ground were washed away one by one, making them homeless.

They had begun to doubt their senses.

It suddenly rained when they obviously didn’t feel any moisture.

The big trees along the roadside seemed to exude new life under the rain.

A bird with bright feathers landed on the branches of the trees to escape the rain.

On top of the long street paved with green stone tiles.

Lin Mo, dressed in white, was wearing a black umbrella and pulled Little Black by his side.

“Ta-da-da

The crisp sound of rain hitting above the darkness.

Little Black looked at the thin curtain of rain outside and somewhat happily stretched out his hand to grab it.

The cold touch of the fleshy little hand in contact with the rain made him shrink back again.

“Teacher, we won’t live somewhere?”

Little Black found out that Lin Mo was leading himself in the wrong direction.

Raising his head to look at his teacher, he asked curiously.

Lin Mo’s gaze looked at the rain falling in the sky and responded.

“The teacher still has important things to do to make a trip to the Martial Union.”

“When that time comes, Little Black, you have to be good and stay inside the Martial Union, oh.”

Little Black nodded obediently.

He knew that if he followed his teacher, his teacher would definitely have scruples.

Not only would he not be able to help the teacher, but he would drag the teacher's feet.

The smell of rain on the street gradually thickened.

The light rain in the air is also gradually getting bigger.

Even they seem to sense a great battle that will soon come

.....

"Why!"

"Why does Lin Mo always win!"

"Why are all the favorable conditions on his side!"

"You're all a bunch of losers who can't become anything!"

"A bunch of trash who can only rely on the family business passed down from their ancestors to bully the soft and hard!"

Hysterical roars of rage resounded in the Murong family's mansion at this moment.

Murong Jianghe looked crazy, and his right hand pointed at all the family heads present one by one.

"You Wang family, a burgeoning family, also want to be among the great families of Hai Fang City? Ugh!"

"Your Li family is a mess of garbage, the new generation is full of wine bags and rice bags, after your death the Li family collapsed."

"You"

Murong Jianghe rebuked all the family heads one by one.

Not the slightest concern for their long-ago ugly to the extreme face.

"Your Wang family's underlings are all a bunch of trash too!"

"Going to mess up a small matter will be caught!"

The sound of the rain that was gradually getting louder outside also made Murong Jianghe's mood even more irritable.

"You guys tell me now, what to do!"

Murong Jianghe's red and irritable eyes stared deadly at the Wang family head.

"You tell me, will your group of waste subordinates prefer to die and not reveal your news?"

What was buried at the bottom of Murong Jianghe's scarlet and violent eyes was a fear that went deep into the marrow of his bones.

He was afraid, he had already been afraid for a long time.

He no longer wanted to go on fighting with Lin Mo.

When his last bottom card.

The person sent by the Xie family in China heard what Murong Jianghe said.

Without the slightest hesitation, he directly turned around and left.

The only sentence left was.

“You will lose now, wait for death.”

In the midst of Murong Jianghe’s dumbfounded figure, he directly turned around and left.

The Wang family head looked at Murong Jianghe’s bloodshot eyes.

It was as if his lips were firmly welded together, unable to open them.

He knew very well what virtues his own men were.

The day-to-day take their own money to work for themselves.

But if you really encounter any life and death crisis.

Those underlings will definitely be the first time they will be the so-called family head left behind.

This is the disadvantage of having too thin a foundation.

There is no completely safe to use the manpower.

It is estimated that those guys have now talked themselves and others clean.

Chapter 3340

Murong Jianghe saw the Wang family head did not speak.

Even if the inner anger is like hitting on top of cotton.

Looking at the dozen family heads sitting in the room, Murong Jianghe’s face showed a look of exhaustion.

“Gentlemen, now there is only one last solution left”

Murong Jianghe’s tone was filled with a strong look of resignation.

If not for the fact that the situation had now become a dead end.

Lin Mo’s hands did not only hold that subordinate as well as Murong Yi.

Even the subordinate that the Wang family head sent out to wreak havoc is now in Lin Mo’s hands.

All the evidence of himself and others are now in the hands of Lin Mo.

The sense of crisis that could not be dispersed for a long time inside had to make Murong Jianghe make this decision.

His gaze looked far towards the Murong family's back mountain.

That was the place where the Murong family's family head, Murong Hai, was in seclusion.

Murong Hai had spoken to Murong Jianghe before he went into seclusion.

When the Murong family or the Martial Union was hit by something that could not be solved.

You can go to the cave behind the Murong family to call him out of seclusion.

The situation at this moment was no longer something Murong Jianghe could continue to control.

"I will go back to the family's back mountain to wake up my family brother, this is also our silver lining."

"Until then, I hope you all can sit here honestly."

"Even if Lin Mo kills in and puts the knife on your necks."

"None of you are allowed to move!"

After saying that, Murong Jianghe walked straight into the rain.

He didn't bother with an umbrella.

He let the rain that had turned into a torrential downpour hit his body.

One of the family heads in the room looked at each other.

But in the end, they chose to listen to Murong Jianghe's words and sat there.

.....

Today's Hai Fang City even though it was raining.

The air is much fresher than usual.

But it is vaguely implied with the heavy air of jingo and iron horse.

The children who were able to play at the door before were called back home by the adults.

A group of people came in unison on the long green stone street.

They were wearing straw raincoats, carrying long knives at their waists and guns wrapped in rain-proof cloth behind their backs.

The large martial characters on their clothes under the straw coat revealed their identities.

Martial Alliance!

They walked in the heavy rain.

Straight towards their destination, the Murong family.

Outside the various streets of the Murong family ancestral home.

Every street had to be guarded by members of the Martial Alliance dressed in straw raincoats.

The entire Murong family has been surrounded on all fronts.

And still brightly, everywhere surrounded.

The atmosphere in the heavy rain was even heavier after the arrival of the members of the Martial Alliance.

At this moment, the Murong family ancestral house is like ants on a hot pot.

Everyone saw outside the ancestral home standing straight, with swords at the waist.

Even if they do not speak, just stand there quietly.

The pressure was like a mountainous tsunami.

With the sky more and more heavy and majestic rain curtain.

No one in the Murong family can be quiet at all.

The oldest senior member of the Murong family, Murong Jianghe as well as Murong Hai's eldest grandfather, Murong Zhou, came out trembling from inside a hut.

His brother was the last previous head of the Murong family.

It is also the father of Murong Hai and Murong Zhou's father.

Murong Zhou walked to the Murong family's main courtyard with the winged support of his subordinates.

Since the death of his brother, Murong Zhou stopped meddling in the affairs of the Murong family a long time ago.

Now that Murong Jianghe was nowhere to be found, the Murong family was suddenly without a head.

In desperation, everyone could only invite Murong Zhou, the oldest person in the generation, out.

"Where is Murong Jianghe!?"

Murong Zhou looked at Murong Chi, who was standing at the side, and asked in a deep voice.

Murong Chi also had a bewildered look on his face.

"Eldest grandfather, I don't know where father has gone."

Murong Chi shook his head at Murong Zhou, indicating that he was not sure either.
