Married At First Sight Chapter 3361-“I’m sorry. I saw a lot of people standing in front of the hotel, and I got nervous for a moment, so I stepped on the accelerator instead of braking.”

After the driver of the second car parked her car, she got out and kept saying sorry.

It was a young girl, and she looked really nervous.

Her eyes crossed the crowd and fell on Liberty, who was being helped up. She asked with concern and apology, “Are you okay? I’m sorry. I’m really sorry. I just got my driver’s license for half a month, and it’s my first time driving out. I still can’t help but feel nervous when there are a lot of people.”

The driver of the first car had already driven into the underground parking lot and disappeared.

Liberty saw that she was young and nervous. She was indeed nervous when she drove out just after getting her driver’s license. She was fine, so she said, “I’m fine, but you have to be careful. It’s best to practice your driving skills in a place with fewer people. Don’t mistake the brake for the accelerator like you did just now. It’s easy to bump into people.”

She and her group dodged in time and were not hit. Otherwise, at the speed the car was going, if it hit someone, the consequences would be disastrous.

“I know. I’m really sorry for what happened just now. Fortunately, you are all okay.” The girl apologized again and again.

The security guards also lectured her and then had someone help her park the car.

When the young girl entered the hotel, she passed by Liberty and apologized to her repeatedly.

The first car that accelerated and rammed into Liberty entered the underground parking lot and found an empty parking space to stop temporarily. The driver was on the phone in the car. She lowered her voice and said, “Young master, you didn’t succeed. She was hiding from you.”

The person on the other side: “If you don’t succeed, just withdraw. If you are stopped, just say what I taught you.”

Two young girls were specially arranged to drive to Liberty. They had just obtained their driver's licenses. It is easy to understand that they tend to get nervous when seeing crowds of people and mistakenly press the brake instead of the accelerator.

If Liberty wasn't followed by several bodyguards wherever she went, her car would often be protected by two bodyguard cars in front and back, so it wouldn't be easy to cause a car accident on the road.

The main reason was that the last time the Farrell family hosted a banquet for Liberty, Liberty had a car accident on the way back to the hotel. After that, Liberty's bodyguards became more vigilant.

When out on the road, it was difficult for other vehicles to get close to the car where Liberty was sitting.

The girl: "I'm now in the hotel's underground parking lot, and she's been stopped."

The person on the other side: "It's okay. She won't be suspected for the time being. Just let her deal with it calmly. If you can leave right away, leave as soon as possible. If you can't leave, it's okay. They can't get evidence. At most, they will accuse you."

The girl: "Okay, young master, we understand."

After hanging up the phone, the girl started the car again, drove out of the parking space, and headed towards the exit.

But she was stopped at the exit.

Her car was not stopped just now, and she was allowed to drive it into the underground parking lot. However, the security captain immediately checked the surveillance camera at the door and saw the license plate number, so he stopped the car.

However, the security captain could not do anything except ask the equally young female driver to apologize to Liberty and reprimand her.

Liberty didn't argue with the two young female drivers. After she got in the car, she asked Jim, who was sitting in the passenger seat, "Jim, what do you think?"

Jim said, "I don't think it's an accident."

Liberty nodded. "If there was only one car that suddenly accelerated and hit us, it could be considered an accident. But if two cars happen in succession, it's not an accident; it's intentional."

“It’s just the words of the two young female drivers that prevented us from finding any flaws. They said they were friends. They had just obtained their driver’s licenses not long ago. Their family bought them a new car, and they took them out for a ride.”

“She says she gets nervous when she sees a lot of people and mistakenly presses the brake instead of the accelerator. Are both of them like this? Or did the car behind her see her friend suddenly speed up, so she also accelerated? But just now, she said that she mistakenly stepped on the brake instead of the accelerator. The two people’s statements are consistent. That makes people suspicious.”
