

Married At First Sight

Chapter 3363

Married At First Sight Chapter 3363-“Kathryn, are you free now?” Liberty asked.

Kathryn replied, “As long as you need my help, I’m always available.”

Liberty: “Then let’s meet somewhere.”

“You arrange the place.” Kathryn nodded and asked again, “What happened?”

“I just came out of the Fortress Hotel and was almost hit by two cars at the hotel entrance. The other party said that they were nervous because there were so many people and they mistook the accelerator for the brake, but there was a flaw, so I don’t think it was an accident.”

Kathryn understood, and she said, “Do you suspect that my mom arranged for someone to drive a car to hit you? My mom is away on a long trip, so that shouldn’t be the case.”

Knowing that her biological mom was not a good person, Kathryn still didn’t want her mom to do such a thing.

Liberty said, “I don’t think it’s your mom. Your mom is very cunning. Even if she wanted me dead, she wouldn’t use such a low-level trick that I could see through it so easily.”

Last time, she, Kevin, and Hayden went to the Farrell family for a banquet. On the way back, they had a car accident. She guessed that it was the work of Clarissa, but there was no evidence to prove that it was hers.

The arrangement was too reasonable.

Today’s incident also seemed reasonable, but it was very strange that two drivers of two cars in a row said that they stepped on the accelerator instead of the brake. Even if they say they are friends, do they share the same brain?

Doing exactly the same thing.

Kathryn: “How about this? I’ll send you an address. You go there now, and I’ll be there right away.”

Liberty: “Okay.”

Kathryn hung up the phone and sent the address of her private company to Liberty. The address of her private company was far from the center of Jensburg City, and it took half an hour to drive there. It was in the same district as Jensburg but in a different district.

It was safer to talk about things there.

That was completely her territory.

After sending the address to Liberty, Kathryn called Pedro Fraser again. After Pedro answered the phone, she told Pedro what Liberty had just encountered and instructed Pedro: "Mr. Fraser, go and investigate whether the incident was an accident or man-made. "Did my mom do it or did my brothers or my dad do it?"

Kathryn didn't think it was her mom who did it. She guessed it might have been her elder brother, Marco.

Pedro responded, "Okay, I'll go check it out."

Kathryn said, "As soon as possible, I'm going to go out and meet Liberty and talk to her in person. Send me the results when you find them so I can give Liberty an explanation."

Pedro knew that although Kathryn and Liberty were competing for each other's business, they also admired each other. If it weren't for the issue of their identities, they would definitely become good friends.

Kathryn asked him to investigate what happened to Liberty, so he went to investigate it personally.

After notifying Pedro to check, Kathryn asked the secretary and found out that Marco was in the company and did not go out.

However, there was no need for Marco to go out for that kind of thing; all he needed was a phone call.

If Marco couldn't take over the power, he could still cultivate some connections and confidants of his own. However, he couldn't expand his own team because Clarissa would not allow it.

Clarissa had to ensure that after Shiloh took over, power would be concentrated in Shiloh's hands as the head of the family. But he never expected that Shiloh, whom Clarissa had devoted all her efforts to cultivating, was not a child of the Farrell family.

Kathryn wondered: If Clarissa knew that Shiloh was not her biological daughter, would she allow her three brothers to become more powerful?

It was impossible to ask Clarissa to give the position of head of the family to other girls in the clan.

If Kathryn, the biological daughter, couldn't be found, Clarissa would definitely forcibly change the family rules and support Marco taking the throne.

Kathryn could more or less understand why her three brothers and her dad disliked her after she returned to the Farrell family.

They really loved Shiloh.