

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3317-Zachary said with a smile, "Okay, as long as you don't compete with your aunt for favor, you will actually feel that you are very happy. There are too many people who love you."

"Hurry, brush your teeth, wash your face, then carry your schoolbag and head downstairs for a snack." I'll ask the driver uncle to take you to kindergarten later. Your aunt and I have something to do, and we can't take you to kindergarten."

Sonny pouted again, but in the end, he didn't say anything. He went to wash his face and brush his teeth silently.

Zachary returned to the master room, woke up Serenity, and told her that the old miracle doctor had come with the old assistant.

Serenity immediately changed her clothes as quickly as possible, finished washing, and hurried downstairs with Zachary.

Clive over there called his parents.

Knowing that several elderly people had arrived, one of whom was Dr. Carden's master, Audrey was about to go out. She was grabbed by her husband, Darrell.

Darrell said, "Wifey, you haven't changed your clothes yet. Since they have arrived at the door, they will be waiting downstairs. At least you should change your clothes and wash your face before going downstairs."

Audrey turned around and walked to the bathroom.

Darrell said to his son, "Clive, wake up your brothers and sisters. Those old seniors are here. "You all go meet the old seniors."

Clive asked his father, "Dad, have you seen them?"

Darrell said, "I don't have the honor to meet them. I just heard their stories. Those seniors are very old. They don't look old. That's because they take good care of themselves. Leaving aside their identities, even if so many elderly people come to visit us, our family must receive them well. Alice has to take care of the baby. If it's inconvenient for her, let her have a good rest."

Considering that his daughter-in-law, Alice, was very tired from taking care of the children, Darrell reminded Clive that there was no need to wake her up.

His younger son and daughter must scream.

After instructing his eldest son, Clive, to mate the two children, Darrell quickly tidied himself up to look more energetic.

ten minutes later.

Everyone in the Stone family went downstairs, including Alice and her son.

Clive told Alice that she insisted on taking her son downstairs to meet the elderly people. This was an opportunity that no one could ask for.

How could she miss it?

Remy had arrived.

When Clive came downstairs, Remy nodded to him.

It signified that the old miracle doctor was real.

“mom.”

When Audrey went downstairs, Clive and others stood up and called their mother.

When the sitting old assistant saw Audrey, he was stunned at first and then slowly stood up, his expression changing from stunned to excited.

“Miss Audrey.” The old assistant was called Audrey.

Audrey had not heard anyone call her ‘Miss Audrey’ for decades.

She didn’t have a deep impression of the old assistant, but when she saw him now and heard him calling her name with a trembling voice, Audrey couldn’t help but blush.

“Uncle Jimenez”

Audrey shouted in a choked voice, and people walked over quickly.

She didn’t remember the old assistant’s name. She only knew that she called him ‘Uncle Jimenez’ when she was a child, but that was not Uncle Jimenez’s name. She would call him ‘Uncle Jimenez’. Her mother told her that Uncle Jimenez was the most loyal person, and everyone would do it. Only Uncle Jimenez would not betray her mother.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3318-As a result, Audrey preferred to call him 'Uncle Jimenez' because he was loyal to her mother.

Her name was Uncle Jimenez, and her sister also called him 'Uncle Jimenez'.

Only her sisters would call him 'Uncle Jimenez', and he would respond with a smile every time.

In Audrey's vague memory, her parents and her uncle were very busy, and her mother was not in good health, so she often asked her second aunt to do things.

She contemplated the situation; her mother's ailing health frequently required her to rely on her second aunt for assistance in managing the company and family matters, which fueled her desire to take control.

Her second aunt must have felt that despite her significant contributions, everyone still looked up to her mother, leading her to desire her replacement. She believed that only when she became the family head would everyone completely turn to the second aunt.

"Why—"

Audrey called him 'Uncle Jimenez', and the old assistant sighed with tears in her eyes.

The two of them didn't have a deep impression of each other, but Audrey took good care of him. She bore similarities to both her mother and her father. When Uncle Jimenez saw her, he seemed to see the head of the family and her husband.

With an apprentice's repeated confirmation, as well as the affirmations from Lilian, Sariah, and others, the old assistant had long known that Audrey was the eldest daughter of the previous matriarch, Miss Audrey Farrell.

Miss Harlow Farrell died in a car accident more than ten years ago. Fortunately, she left behind two children, and Miss Audrey Farrell also had children and grandchildren. The previous matriarch finally has a descendant.

The old assistant was so excited that he held Audrey's hand. He tried to speak several times but was speechless. His throat seemed to be blocked. Only the old tears continued to fall.

Perhaps due to being too excited, coupled with his age and poor health, the old assistant's vision turned black, and he fainted.

"Uncle Jimenez." Audrey supported the old assistant's limp body, turned pale with fright, and shouted loudly, "Clive, call the ambulance quickly."

“There is no need to send him to the hospital. My brother is just too excited, and his emotions fluctuate too much. He is the oldest among us, so it is not appropriate for him to be overjoyed or sad.”

After checking the old assistant’s pulse on the ground, the miraculous doctor motioned to Audrey and the others to help the old assistant lie down on the sofa. He pinched the old assistant’s body. After a while, the old assistant slowly woke up.

Elisa poured a glass of warm water. Audrey took the glass of warm water from her daughter’s hand and carefully fed the old assistant a drink.

After drinking a few sips of warm water, the old assistant sat up.

Audrey quickly stopped him.

“Uncle Jimenez, if you feel uncomfortable, lie down first and don’t sit up.”

“Uncle Jimenez, I didn’t think we could meet again. You have to take care of your health. Can we all control our emotions? Uncle Jimenez, don’t get too excited. Your health is important.”

Audrey, with tears in her eyes, successfully persuaded the old assistant. She could understand the old assistant’s excitement.

She also knew that the old assistant had a lot to say to her, but even if they meet again decades later, even if there are thousands of words, she can’t say a single word now.

It was better to comfort Uncle Jimenez first and let the old man calm down before talking slowly.

Uncle Jimenez nodded gently and held Audrey’s hand tightly.

Audrey patted the back of his hand and said warmly, “Uncle Jimenez, I won’t leave; don’t worry.”

The old miracle doctor also said to him, “Brother, if you don’t control your emotions, if it happens again like last year, even if I try my best to learn all my life, I won’t be able to pull you back from Yama.”

Everyone called him a miracle doctor, but he was not really a god. He was also an ordinary man and an ordinary old man. He didn’t have the ability to reach heaven.

If it weren’t for the master’s and apprentice’s excellent medical skills and their cultivation of many precious medicinal materials, Uncle Jimenez would definitely not be alive today.

Uncle Jimenez narrowly avoided death when they rescued him back then.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3319-Last year, the old assistant had a near-death experience.

He tried hard to calm himself down. He nodded to his old friends and then said to Audrey, "Miss Audrey, I will try my best to live until you avenge the matriarch of the Farrell family and let her be punished; otherwise, I will not be able to rest in peace even after I die.

It's also my fault. For so many years, I have not been able to avenge the matriarch, nor can I find the whereabouts of you and your sisters."

If he had gotten news about Audrey and Harlow earlier, Harlow would not have died so early.

He failed to protect the previous matriarch, and he failed to protect her two daughters.

He felt guilty toward the previous matriarch.

After special training, he came to the previous matriarch, Farrell and did a lot of things for her. However, he did not do the two most important things well.

He didn't even have the face to meet the current matriarch Farrell, in the underworld.

The base where he was trained immediately arranged for a new assistant to serve the current matriarch Farrell after the death of the previous matriarch, and the current matriarch Farrell took over her sister's position.

All the connections that he used to have access to are now used by the current matriarch Farrell's assistant.

The network of contacts he had cultivated did not betray him. But when they were being chased by the current matriarch Farrell, they died one by one in order to protect him.

The current matriarch Farrell really wanted to kill them all.

Shw was so cruel to kill her older sister (previous matriarch Farrell) and her younger sister, and she was also very cruel to her two nieces. How could he spare their lives?

He would be hunted down if he escaped, but there was still a glimmer of hope.

If he didn't escape, he would die.

The current matriarch Farrell had one thing in common with her hatred towards him, which was that she had once confessed her love to him, but he rejected her.

He was the assistant of the previous matriarch Farrell, and would never marry. If he wanted to get married, the previous matriarch Farrell had to marry him. But she had someone she loved, and she gave birth to two daughters for the man she loved.

The moment the previous matriarch Farrell, got married, he knew that he could only be her assistant for the rest of his life. Being able to stay with her and see her happy, he felt content and very happy.

If there hadn't been that seemingly accidental car accident...Everything everything would have been so beautiful.

"Uncle Jimenez, this is not your fault. It's because that woman is too cruel. She must have planned it all a long time ago. My mother trusted her so much. She was also raised by her. An elder sister is like a mother. My mother did it, but she took her life and her father and grandparents."

It could be said that the car accident planned by the current matriarch made her and her sister orphans.

When the two sisters were sent to the orphanage, they had already experienced all the ups and downs of life.

She was also bullied in the welfare home because her younger sister was too young, and she had to protect her younger sister. As a child, she had to take care of her younger sister like an adult and protect her. She often fought with other children for her younger sister.

She was both happy and sad to have the chance for her sister to be adopted by a good family.

The good news was that her sister was adopted by a good family and will be able to live a stable life with the love of adoptive parents.

The sad thing was that her parents and family were all gone, and she only had her sister as a relative. Now that they are separated, she doesn't know if she will be able to see them again in this life.

If Audrey had known that her sister would suffer so much harm if she was adopted, she would not have agreed to let her sister be adopted.

When she grew up and became capable, she looked for her sister everywhere. After many years, she only saw her sister's grave.

At that time, she didn't remember much about her childhood, and her understanding of her own life experience was also very vague. She only felt that her only family from her mother's side was gone.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3320-In front of her sister's grave, Audrey cried so hard that she couldn't bring her sister back to life. She could only love her two nieces, Serenity and Liberty, even more.

The two sisters had a tragic childhood. Later, when the sisters were separated, they knew the cause of the deaths of their parents and family members. Audrey hated the current matriarch with all her teeth.

The old assistant said bitterly, "If others don't know, unless she doesn't do anything, she will pay the price for what she has done."

Audrey said, "Yes, Uncle Jimenez, she will pay the price for what she did."

"It's just that I'm useless. I don't have much evidence in my hand. It's just this little evidence, and because all the people in the past are dead and there is no corroboration, it is difficult to prove her." The old assistant said, blaming himself until he burst into tears.

Audrey said coldly, "I don't care whether I have evidence or not; I will take back the power of the Farrell family. If I am not the head of the family, I will let my niece sit on it. No matter how much she does or how much she loses, in the end, it's better to return it to my mother's family.

She has also received retribution now, and her life is not good. Her son, daughter-in-law, and adopted daughter are making trouble every day. Oh, and the adopted daughter is dead. Her biological daughter did not grow up by her side. It is difficult for mother and daughter to truly be united."

"Give me the evidence in Uncle Jimenez's hand, and I will prepare a copy and send it to Kathryn to ensure that her mother and she can no longer be of the same mind."

Kathryn, the young head of the Farrell family, had a very hard job. She also told Audrey that if there was evidence to prove that her aunt died at the hands of her mother, she would return the position of heir to Audrey.

If Audrey wanted to train Liberty to rise to the top, that was also Audrey's business.

Kathryn didn't care. She just wanted to leave the Farrell family and be herself.

The Farrell family had too many bad habits and too many unkind family rules.

Kathryn couldn't adapt and was suffering inside.

The old assistant also learned about the current situation of the Farrell family. He said, "The current matriarch deserves it! It would be best if she died at the hands of the person closest to her. That would be true retribution."

The current matriarch Farrell, used to cruelly kill her eldest sister, her family, and then her younger sister.

They were all murderous to their loved ones.

If the close relatives of the Farrell family, such as her three sons, were to kill her, whether they died or not, it would be retribution for the Farrell family.

The old assistant added, "I have kept all the evidence, but I didn't bring it with me when I came here this time. I came here mainly to see with my own eyes. Miss Audrey, you're doing well now, and I am relieved."

But the old assistant hasn't met Miss Harlow's two daughters, Serenity and Liberty, yet. When he saw Miss Audrey's children, they were all the best among people.

Audrey's husband, Darrell, could be seen at a glance as a doting wife. Without Darrell's favor, Audrey would not have been able to flourish in the Stone Group.

The excellent genes of the family master were passed down to Audrey and were not lost. There were already successors. This was the most gratifying thing for the old assistant after seeing Audrey.

After the old assistant's mood stabilized a lot, Audrey introduced her family members to the old assistant one by one.

The old assistant showed a rare smile and praised Clive and others.

Elisa was Audrey's only daughter. According to the rules of the Farrell family, Elisa was the orthodox successor.

Even though the old assistant knew that Audrey was going to train Liberty to take over the Farrell family, he couldn't help but look at Elisa a few more times.

The old assistant didn't say a word about Audrey's decision.

Miss Harlow's two daughters had experienced ups and downs, were tough-minded, and were well-nurtured. They had an advantage over Miss Audrey's only daughter.

Elisa was used to being willful and had never endured hardship. Letting her take over the Farrell family would simply cost her her life.

She also clearly refused. She did not want to take over the Farrell family in place of her mother.

She was not suitable to be a master.