

Married At First Sight

Chapter 3329

Married At First Sight Chapter 3329-Tania continued, “Our York family has not had a daughter for several generations. If we can have a daughter, everyone will love her. I hope she can live a carefree life and do whatever she wants. Just do whatever she wants; we don’t want to put the burden of the family on her. There are many brothers who help her carry heavy loads and hold umbrellas to ensure that no matter the storm, she cannot be affected.”

Serenity thought for a while and said with a smile, “Mom, you’re right. For such a heavy job as taking over, it’s better to let your son pick it up.”

It was enough to know the attitude of her husband’s family.

Serenity also didn’t want her daughter to take the lead in the future. In other words, if she could only think about such things after giving birth to a daughter,.

Sonny always said that the baby in her belly was a younger brother, and her intuition was that he was also a son.

Even if Serenity could really have both children, she would probably have to have a second or even third child to give birth to a daughter.

“Dad’s not at home?”

When Serenity entered the house and didn’t see Liam, so she asked.

Tania replied, “He should go to your second uncle’s place. I don’t go out, and he rarely goes out. He is already a grandfather, and he still likes to follow me as much as he did when he was young.”

Serenity smiled and said, “Dad and Mom, you have been like first love for decades. You are so happy that others envy the two of you. Mom, let’s go to Versailles. Mom, when I reach your age, if Zachary still treats me like he does now, I will be so happy that I can wake up from my dreams with a smile.”

Before Tania could speak for his son, Zachary came in and took over. He said, "Wifey, I will definitely inherit the excellent genes of my parents. My parents' relationship has been like first love for decades, and we will do the same."

Tania also laughed, "Well, don't worry. The best thing about their men is this. They are loyal to their families and loyal to their marriages, and they only love their wives for the rest of their lives."

Unlike her old friends, whose husbands had lovers outside, they just turned a blind eye. As long as they don't create illegitimate children to divide the property of the original spouse's children.

If there are illegitimate children, the first wife will unite with the children and find a way to get the family property bit by bit and transfer it to their names. Or force the husband to write a will so that the family property cannot be divided among the illegitimate children.

In short, there are many things to worry about.

Some of them accompanied their husbands through hardships, worked hard, and spent decades of their youth in exchange for a prosperous life. However, their husbands despised them for being old and keeping their mistresses outside, which was very annoying.

How many first wives were so angry that they had physical problems?

Tania was the envy of all the ladies. It should be said that the wives of the Yorks were all enviable.

The rules of the Yorks were there. Once they got married, they had to live with their wife for the rest of their lives. Divorce was not allowed, and cheating was not allowed. If they cheat, they will never get a share of the family property.

Not only would they not get a share of the family property, but they would also be publicly severed by the family so that they could no longer rely on the Yorks's reputation outside.

In addition to the constraints of family rules, it was also important for elders to educate younger generations.

In the words of the old lady and her daughters-in-law, it was a matter of character.

She had raised her children and grandchildren well, and even if there were no family rules, her children and grandchildren would not be ungrateful, heartless, or heartless people.

Tania said, "Seren, sit down first. I will make you some soup to replenish your body. Look at you; you have lost weight. Others gain weight during pregnancy, but you have lost weight. Zachary, you still said you would. Take good care of Seren; you are about to have a belly, but my daughter-in-law is being made thin; you must have eaten all my daughter-in-law's nutritional supplements."

Zachary: "Mom, where do I have a belly?"

Tania said that he could do anything, but she couldn't say that he had grown into a fat man.

Married At First Sight Chapter 3330-Was Zachary fat? impossible!

Zachary insisted on exercising every day, and his diet remained the same as before marriage. He was not fat!

His weight didn't change much and basically stayed at the same number.

"I... I ate a little of your daughter-in-law's nutritional supplements, but Seren couldn't finish them. I ate them only if I had to help her eat some."

Zachary wanted to say that he would not take his wife's nutritional supplements.

Remembering that he had to help his wife with the nutritional supplements that she couldn't finish eating almost every day, Zachary didn't dare to say that he didn't eat them.

He was more concerned about his body image and quickly asked his wife, "Seren, look at me, have I gained weight? Do I have a belly?"

Serenity also pinched his belly, and she laughed so hard that she hugged her belly.

She was amused by her husband's reaction.

It turned out that he cared so much about his handsome image.

“Husband, you haven’t gained weight, and you don’t have a belly. Your figure is still in great shape, and you maintain it very well. Seriously, I’m not going to lie to you; mom is just teasing you.”

Serenity laughed to death.

Zachary ran into the bathroom and looked in the mirror again and again before coming out.

As he walked, he complained to Tania: “Mom, every time I come back, you tell me I’ve gained weight, which can easily hit me. Seren has taken good care of me.”

Zachary’s words were full of helplessness.

Tania used to feel that serenity was not good enough for him. Fortunately, her cultivation prevented her from doing anything to hurt Seren. Outside, she also protected Serenity very much, and she was not as good as the best mother-in-law, but it is better than many people who are mothers-in-law.

Later, Seren was ranked first in Tania’s heart, Liam was ranked second, and he and his brother were fighting to be ranked last.

Zachary: “Always calling me fat, calling me fat.”

Tania smiled and said, “Okay, okay, I won’t say you are fat; I won’t say you are fat; that’s enough.”

Serenity also smiled and said, “Mom, please don’t say he is fat next time. He maintains his figure very well. I am not thin either. When I went for a prenatal check-up, I weighed myself and found that I was overweight. During the video chat with my sister, my sister says, I’m mellow now.”

Tania said, “You’ve gained weight. That’s because you’re pregnant. I’ll go ask the kitchen to make you some soup. Are you having dinner at home today?”

Tania looked Serenity up and down and felt that it was time to make up for it, as her daughter-in-law was still a little thinner.

“Mom, we have lunch at home. We are going to pick up Sonny in the afternoon and then go to my sister-in-law’s house for dinner. There are distinguished guests at my sister-in-law's house, and she invites us over for dinner."

Serenity was said honestly.

Tania was a little disappointed. She was looking forward to her son and daughter-in-law staying at home for a few more days.

When she heard that she was going to Stones for dinner, Tania didn't know what to say. She asked, "When will Sonny's winter vacation take place? It should be soon, right?"

Serenity said, "Winter vacation starts next week. He should go to school on Monday, but he won't have to go to kindergarten on Tuesday or Wednesday."

Tania was happy again and said hurriedly, "Send Sonny home during the winter vacation. I will help you take care of him so that you and your husband can live in a world of two people before the baby is born."
