

Married At First Sight

Married At First Sight Chapter 3335-EVYK LIMITED. It was a company run by Evan himself. It was not affiliated with the York Corporation and had no business dealings. The main reason was that his company was involved in an industry that was not related to the York Corporation, so there were no business dealings.

Evan heard a familiar but irate shout as he was making his way to the office door after returning from a meeting.

“Evan.”

Fox was coming.

Evan looked along the sound and saw that Fox was still dressed in red. The style of the clothes had changed, but the red color remained the same.

He saw her in red at night and thought she was absolutely beautiful.

Looking at her during the day, he was even more shocked.

Her beauty was very flamboyant.

That’s right, that temper was not very good. However, he liked her like this.

“Mr. York, this lady must see you. We can’t stop her.”

Following Fox was the security captain, with several security guards, as well as the front desk and his secretary.

The security guards were still limping when they walked, as if they had been taught a lesson by Fox.

How could these people stop Fox?

Even Evan himself was not sure he could stop her.

This girl’s skills were a bit unfathomable.

Evan said, "I understand; you go and do the work. If this lady comes to see me in the future, just let her in. I owe her something, and she is here to collect the debt."

Everyone: "..."

Their boss also owed someone else's debt?

Was there something wrong with the company's operations?

But it looked like business was going well, and wages could be paid on time.

Furthermore, their boss was the fourth young master of the Yorks. He was backed by the Yorks and was also responsible for some small companies and projects under the Yorks.

If something really happened to the company, their boss would ask Zachary for help so that he wouldn't be chased for debt. This girl in red was so powerful that even though there were so many of them, they couldn't stop her.

The security guards were also given a lesson.

"Captain Li, you all go get some medicine. This month, your bonuses will be doubled as compensation for your injuries on the job."

The injuries to the security guards were not serious; they were just walking with a limp, and they would probably need a few days of rest to recover.

Fox would take action without being too cruel; after all, these people were innocent.

If she has any complaints or anger, she will always turn to him.

Several security guards suddenly felt that the two kicks were worth it, and the bonuses were doubled.

Their basic salary was the lowest basic salary in Wiltspoon. When combined with other benefits, especially bonuses, their income would be high.

Evan waited for Fox to approach, and he thanked her, "Thank you for showing mercy to my employees."

Everyone who came to the stairs: "..."

Was this still considered merciful?

Was this beauty in red so skilled?

Were they those martial arts coaches?

“Please come in. And have a seat.”

Evan opened the office door and invited Fox in.
