

An Understated Dominance Chapter 2381

Chapter 2381

Conor died right then.

His headless body fell to the ground, splattering a lot of blood.

The members of the law enforcement team looked grim and had no sympathy.

Conor was indeed an elite disciple trained by the Celestial Alliance before, but from the moment he colluded with the pantheon of gods and betrayed the sect, he was destined to have a bad end.

He was stubborn, especially now, and intended to hurt the daughter of the sect master, Noemi.

All kinds of crimes accumulated, and there was only one way to die in the end.

Even if Fenley didn't kill him, he couldn't escape the sect's punishment upon returning.

"Conor, this be*st deserves to die!"

Looking at Conor's body, Cassidy spat on the ground with disgust on her face.

As the saying goes, the deeper the love, the deeper the hatred.

She had treated Conor like a senior brother of the same sect, believing that he was a good person.

Unexpectedly, he turned out to be a hypocrite who did all kinds of evil.

For his own selfishness, he did not hesitate to collude with foreign enemies and betray the sect in order to succeed in his promotion.

Not only did he not repent after exposure, but he also held Noemi as a hostage.

Conor, who was worse than a dog, deserved to die!

“Alas... I didn’t expect that the eldest brother would go astray and embark on this road of no return. The human heart is really unpredictable!”

Noemi sighed lightly with a complicated expression.

Conor’s actions were indeed repugnant, but it’s important to remember that he was a senior brother who grew up alongside her.

Now that they’ve reached this point, they can’t help but sigh.

“Pack up Conor’s body and take it back to the sect to report!”

Fenley looked at the headless body on the ground, threw down a word coldly, and turned away.

The law enforcement team soon packed up the headless Conor and took him away.

Although he was dead, the crimes he committed still need to be investigated one by one to achieve the effect of killing the chicken to scare the monkey.

“Brother Fenley, thanks to you; otherwise, my sister would have been in danger just now.” Cassidy looked grateful.

If it weren’t for Fenley’s amazing strength and a direct palm to severely injure Conor, it is unknown what serious consequences would have occurred.

“This is all my responsibility; it’s nothing. To be honest, it was my negligence that caused Noemi to fall into danger. Fortunately, nothing happened; otherwise, I don’t know how to explain it to my adoptive father.” Fenley shook his head, blaming himself.
