

An Understated Dominance

Chapter 2429

“Hmm?” Looking at the hair falling from the air, Rivka couldn’t help but frown slightly.

Kassidy’s spinning slash just now was indeed unexpected. She lacked caution just now, nearly sustaining a hit.

Fortunately, she reacted quickly and ducked her head in time to avoid it. If she hadn’t reacted quickly and ducked her head in time, it would have been more complicated than just losing her hair.

Although the opponent was young, her strength should not be underestimated.

Thinking of this, Rivka’s eyes became serious.

“You reacted quickly enough.”

Kassidy raised her hand and took back her weapon.

The combo she just used was a unique skill of hers. If caught off guard, people who have never seen it would find it difficult to resist.

Unexpectedly, Rivka’s perception was so sharp that she withdrew and dodged in time, narrowly avoiding the attack.

This made her feel a little regretful.

“Good kung fu, but it’s still a little bit lacking.” Rivka spit out a few words coldly.

If Kassidy’s trembling kung fu was more powerful just now, so that she couldn’t get away, perhaps the result would be different now.

“Really? Then I’d like to see if you’re ready enough!” Kassidy snorted coldly and rushed forward again.

With a flick of her hand, the double-edged sword in her hand once again spun and flew towards Rivka. This time, the double-edged swords spun faster and flew more fiercely.

Good-sighted audiences can see that a thin steel wire pulled on the handle after the double-edged swords flew out.

The steel wire extended from the handle to Cassidy's palm. If you don't look closely, you can't find it at all.

"Are you using the same trick again?" Rivka's eyebrows and eyes condensed, and the sword in her hand sprang out like a spirit snake, stabbing the handles of the double-edged swords accurately.

"Clang!" There was a slight noise.

Rivka immediately picked up the double-edged swords that Cassidy had thrown.

As if she had expected it, Cassidy flipped and pulled her palm, and the flying double-edged swords circled around her body and slashed towards Rivka at a faster speed.

At the same time, her palms turned into swords, stabbing Rivka's shoulders on the left and right, respectively.

She was proficient at the art of breaking bones and tendons.

As long as she hit with both palms, she could instantly dislocate and twist the opponent's shoulders, making them lose their fighting power.

"Sword Swinging Style!"

Facing Cassidy's continuous attacks, Rivka no longer held back. She stepped hard and suddenly flew into the air, somersaulting.

Head down, feet up, while avoiding Cassidy's attack, the sword in her hand had already been ejected, like a whip, hitting Cassidy's back fiercely.
