Chapter 2721

Lin Mo flung the locator disguised as a watch before throwing it directly onto the hospital bed.

“This kind of high technology is pretty good!”

He had been guessing where the mysterious black box had gone since he had seen it in the investigation report, and when he was checking Ding Li’s pulse for his injuries, he suddenly noticed that the watch on his wrist kept flashing.

When Ding Li reached out and picked up his watch, and then looked at the counterfeit watch in his hand, a million gra*s horses raced through his heart.

“I’ll open it up first to see what’s inside that can make so many huge businessmen and tycoons scramble to grab it.”

The prince brought the toolbox and then tried to open the black box in front of him, but still by his tossing and turning, the tightly sealed black box did not respond at all, even with the use of an axe as well as a chainsaw only popped out countless sparks, while the black box was intact.

“Big brother this”

“Why are you guys looking at me, this is also the first time I’ve come across this thing.”

When Lin Mo finished speaking, all the eyes in the room were then focused on Ding Li’s body.

“It’s useless for you guys to look at me, every term’s mysterious black box is different, even their Kong family’s doesn’t know how to open it.”

The crown prince frowned and asked rhetorically with a questioning tone, “Then how did all the people who obtained this before open it.”

Ding Li couldn’t help but be honest in the face of the Crown Prince, his natural nemesis.

“No one knows this except the people involved, it is said that it all depends on chance, some people have not opened the black box after getting it and keeping it at home for more than ten years.”

“But some people have taken it apart with violence!”

He was telling the truth, this was indeed a power that had spent huge sums of money to have a clan master violently dismantle it, only that although the black box was opened, a valuable ancient martial art kept inside it was also completely destroyed.

And this family as well as the clan master became the joke of Daju, because at this point, that clan master even seemed to have completely flipped out with the power.

If Lin Mo had really resorted to the violent dismantling then the fun would have been great.

“Besides, if I knew how to open it, I wouldn’t have just thrown it into the sea.”

Lin Mo saw that Ding Li didn't look like he was telling a lie, so he just drew out his Tai Ah.

"Come on, everyone move back a little!"

After Lin Mo swung his sword, the entire table was instantly blasted into a cloud of powder, and the huge rebounding force also shook Lin Mo's arm, while the black box remained intact.

"sh*t, so hard?"

When Ding Li saw his stance, he despised it in his heart, a black box that couldn't be broken by bullets or bombs, but he tried to cut it open with a broken sword.

It was a fool's errand!

The prince had a good idea of the sharpness of Tai Ah, which had been given to Lin Mo by his hand, but this black box in front of him was so hard that even the ancient divine weapons could not cut through it.

"I'll try again, you guys hide far away!"

After saying this, Lin Mo mobilised his body's spiritual energy and gathered it into his palm in a steady stream.

With a cold flash, a deafening sound shook up, and the house couldn't stop shaking, as if an earthquake had occurred.

When the ashes dispersed, a crater more than a ten feet in diameter appeared on the ground, and within this half-metre deep crater, the indestructible black box was finally split in two.

"What kind of strength is this!"

Ding Li looked at Lin Mo in front of him with dumbfounded eyes, was this his true strength? What the hell is this sword, it's so sharp! When he looked at the longsword in Lin Mo's hand again, a hot light burst out of his eyes!

Ding Li's heart was sore and shocked, and the only thing that could give him comfort was the violent dismantling, so I guess the items inside the black box had already been destroyed to the core.

Chapter 2722

At this point, everyone had their necks stretched out to see what this priceless treasure really was.

However, the black box did not surprise the crowd with anything other than some broken ancient jewellery, only a mask made of some unknown material.

With curiosity, Lin Mo picked it up. The mask as a whole was forged from an unknown black metal. On the front was a hideous fanged ghostly face.

When Lin Mo looked closely, he was suddenly surprised to find that this ghostly face was the appearance of one of the Ten Hades Kings, Taishan King, and he was not the Taishan Envoy of the Five Envoys of the Martial Alliance, as if it was destined to be!

Under Lin Mo's gaze, golden threads appeared on the inside of the mask, and under the continuous flow, the word "Lan Ling" was slowly outlined, and he ghostly brought the mask closer to his cheek.

"Big brother!"

The prince originally wanted to remind Lin Mo to be safe, after all, who knew if this kind of ghostly thing from unknown sources would be dangerous, but as soon as he spoke, the Lan Ling mask had already been completely pressed against Lin Mo's cheek.

In an instant, a wave of dream tears swept around, and with Lin Mo as the centre, all the objects in the room instantly flew out and only stopped after they smashed into the wall.

When the crowd looked at Lin Mo again, they were instantly shocked, the Lin Mo in front of them was like turning into a supreme emperor, just by looking at him, they felt their breath stagnate and their hearts stopped beating at this moment.

Lin Mo himself was handsome, with an upright posture. Combined with the mask, he showed his kingly demeanour, making the crowd want to bend over and worship him.

Lin Mo was surprised to find that after he put on this mask, his soul power soared, and with a thought, the nine Xuan Needles in his arms took off.

These nine Xuan Needles were completely like a part of his own body, using them at ease.

"How miraculous!"

Lin Mo couldn't help but exclaim in awe, the Nine Xuan Needles had extremely high requirements for the power of the divine soul, before that he was already at the limit of controlling four Xuan Needles.

When he looked at the Crown Prince and the others, he actually saw their hearts directly through their bodies, only at this moment, the heartbeats of several people were unusually slow, and before he could reflect, a loud and furious cry suddenly rang out in his ears.

"Kill!"

The murderous aura in Lin Mo's heart was suddenly aroused under the impact of this voice, and he hurriedly took off his mask after sensing this shocking change.

And in front of him, the pale faced Prince and his party, as if they had escaped back from hell, were lying on the ground in a sweaty heap, panting heavily.

Lin Mo's looked at the prince's half-dead appearance and asked, "What's wrong with you guys!"

The prince's eyes straightened and he looked at Lin Mo in a daze.

"Older brother, you are a bit good looking Come smile and give me a look!"

Lin Mo's eyebrows darkened, seeing his demented appearance, he raised his foot and gave a flying kick.

"Get lost, douchebag!"

Lin Mo had a clear idea of what the mask could do since he had practiced it himself.

When the prince saw that he was planning to put on the mask again, he immediately stopped when he thought of the horrible experience he had just had.

“Big brother, you can’t do the whole thing, these few of us aren’t even enough for you to Hoover.”

“Don’t worry, there will be no surprises this time, guaranteed!”

As soon as the words landed, Lin Mo directly snapped on his mask.

“Crap, run fast!”

The prince’s face changed drastically and made a move to flee out of the house, while the poor Ding Li was seriously injured and couldn’t move at all, he could only stare in horror, desperately waiting for the baptism of death.

However, after Lin Mo put on the Lan Ling mask again, nothing happened, there was no more horrible hostility, no more suffocating feeling of oppression, nothing had changed.

What the hell, did we just have a hallucination?

Chapter 2723

Lin Mo looked at the crowd’s baffled appearance and cursed with a smile, “I’ve said there won’t be any surprises, I’m that unworthy of your trust.”

With that he slowly lowered his mask, after experiencing the first shocking change, he had almost figured out the effects of the Lan Ling mask, while drastically increasing the power of the divine soul and vision, it would also stimulate the hostile qi within the user’s heart.

But as long as the aura is used to suppress the hostility within it, it will appear to outsiders to be an ordinary mask, just a little hideous and ominous.

Of course, if a person is not strong-willed enough to use this mask, he or she will probably become a puppet of the mask and be reduced to a killing machine.

All in all, Lin Mo was still very satisfied with this mask.

“Young Master Ding, I like this gift very much, and as a thank you, I let can help you break free from this vortex.”

Although Ding Li didn’t know the function of the mask, after experiencing the terrifying storm just now, he also understood that this mask was definitely not simple.

Why, this was obviously something that Laozi had created, but now he had done it for his opponent.

He asked rhetorically with a body full of sourness.

“Are you so kind?”

“I think what you should be thinking about right now is your own situation, rather than caring about me being kind!”

Lin Mo's face straightened as he said with a serious tone.

"I'll give one last chance, tell me where did the Kong family get this from?"

"Also, the Kong Family Rongli's has a regular voyage at the end of every year.

And why does it take a month to complete a voyage that is clearly ten days away.

Is there some unknown secret in this?"

Ding Li looked at Lin Mo in horror, his breathing involuntarily thickened.

"You know all this?"

There was no way to walk by the river without getting your shoes wet, the Kong family's secret collusion using the Rong Li had already aroused the suspicions of the Ding family's main family.

Lin Mo looked at Ding Li quietly and admonished him word by word.

"Ding Li, this is your last chance, tell me all the inside information you know and I'll give you a chance to turn over a new leaf.

I'm not asking or torturing you, this is purely for the sake of this thing."

Lin Mo then held up the mask in his hand and waved it in front of Ding Li.

Ding Li had been repeatedly exposed by Lin Mo, and had gradually given up his defences in his heart, and by now he understood that he was not only inferior to his opponent in terms of strength, but also in terms of intelligence and strategy.

All in all, he could not play Lin Mo!

Ding Li took a breath and said slowly.

"Let them all go out, at this time I will only speak to you alone."

After the prince and Lin Mo exchanged a glance, they stayed their men and exited the room, closing the door behind them.

"I don't expect to roll over or not, I just hope that after speaking to you about this, you can return me safely to the main Ding family home."

"You guessed right, the Kong family's Rongli does carry out operations that are not known to the public.

I am not sure exactly what it is, but it is definitely related to the matter of the Black Box.

The elders on the main family's side have asked me to come and investigate the matter in the name of participating in the bet."

Lin Mo interjected with curiosity when he heard this and asked.

"Your main family's lineage is trying to take this Black Box's provenance back into their own hands?"

Just like this Lan Ling mask of his own, although it was said that it would affect the host's mind, the strength boost it brought was remarkable.

“That’s one aspect, right? Compared to that, the Ding family cares more about face, as far as money and personnel are concerned, they are rather secondary.

And for the Kong family to quietly dig in our Ding family’s waters is a complete re-blow to our family’s face.”

Lin Mo nodded in agreement, this was common to all the big clans, the matter of face was bigger than the sky, of course behind the face involved the issue of authority, Lin Mo could also understand this kind of doing practice of theirs.

Chapter 2724

On the other hand, in an old quadrangle in Hanoi, Wen Qiang was lazily enjoying the winter time sunshine.

“You’ve disappointed me!”

Although Wen Qiang’s words were calm, the men behind him were sweating coldly at this point, the more the master did this the more anger he had in his heart.

“The Golden Scale Blade was destroyed, and the top-notch concealed weapon that I flew so much effort to obtain was consumed by you.

You say to me that Ding Li is not dead? What use do I have for you!”

With a twist of his five fingers the teacup in Wen Qiang’s hand shattered straight down a little.

With a crisp sound, all of his men knelt down in unison, and Lei Hu, the leader, even begged for mercy in panic.

“Lord Lord spare my life, mainly because we didn’t expect that kid Lin Mo to hide so deeply.

Especially that longsword in his hand, it is incomparably sharp and has an overwhelming sword aura!”

Wen Qiang’s eyebrows scurried and a look of interest surfaced on his face, “Tell us!” ,

Waiting for Lei Hu to recount the battle.

The gentle rhythm of each blow was like a blow to the hearts of his men, causing cold sweat to break out.

“I have underestimated this Lin Mo, the sword has gone off the edge, retreating in order to advance, surprisingly removing himself completely from the centre of the vortex.”

Under Wen Qiang’s emotion, he did not feel any anger, instead a look of anticipation faintly passed through his eyes.

When he had fought at the Sea Defence City before, he had secretly kept an eye out and didn’t use his full strength, it was just that what he hadn’t expected was that this Lin Mo had hidden so deeply as well.

“As for you guys

Halfway through his words, Wen Qiang raised his hand towards Lei Hu and gave a wave, although they were three or four meters apart, with this move of Wen Qiang, the latter was directly slapped away by a distance of more than ten meters.

“I’ll give you one last chance to take Ding Li’s life, if you fail again, you’ll be on your own.”

As soon as Ding Li died, the Ding family would definitely refuse to give up.

At that time, the storm clouds of Da Qu would be slowly stirred up.

“Chaos, the more chaos the better, otherwise how will I, Wen Qiang, have the chance to fish in the water?”

Lei Hu responded with difficulty, rising with blood-red fingerprints on his face, and then hurriedly left with his men.

Ding Li did not know that he had been set up by his good big brother.

At this moment, he was still tired of dealing with Lin Mo’s various pressing questions.

“So the location of the Kong family’s Rongli salvage is known to your Ding family, right?”

Lin Mo had almost squeezed out all the valuable information from Ding Li, now all that was missing was the Rong Li.

Ding Li himself knew that he had already explained everything he should or should not say, and this was not all that was missing now.

“We have the general direction in mind, but the three Hanoi Tai Bao’s side has been giving them cover, so we can’t catch their tails at all.”

The thirteen branches of the Ding Family, also known as the Ding Family’s Thirteen Taipao, and the one on the Hanoi Province side was the Third Taipao of them.

After Lin Mo had gathered all the information, his mind raced with thoughts! And after Ding Li on the opposite side saw the bad smile on his face, he had a bad feeling in his heart.

“Do you want to turn over a new leaf?”

If it was before, Ding Li he would have agreed to come without saying a word, now that he was being watched by so many forces and the terrifying killer hiding behind him, he couldn’t sleep soundly at night. It was just that after being counted on by Lin Mo time and time again, he was also worried that he might jump from one pit to another.

Seeing this hesitant look on his face, Lin Mo reached out and heavily slapped Ding Li on the shoulder.

“Manly man, p*ssy, just say the word if you dare.”

After some hesitation, Ding Li still did not make up his mind.

“No, you have to explain the plan to me first before I make a decision.”

Lin Mo:

It's over, this one's gotten smart!

Chapter 2725

Lin Mo's plan, one after another, first drove Ding Li to a dead end, and then used the truth about the Rongli as blackmail, step by step, to entice Ding Li to reveal his secret, completely pinning him to death.

Ding Li was already scared of being pitched, so when Lin Mo's spoke of turning over, he didn't agree to it straight away.

"Your current trouble in a nutshell is actually two things."

"The first is pulling the scapegoat, you can rest assured that this, since I promised, I will definitely keep it a secret for you."

"The second thing is the murder case!

Now many people only suspect that you are the murderer, there is no conclusive evidence.

If you blow the whistle on the Kong family's excavation, do you think they will suspect blackmail?"

Ding Li looked stunned, "You mean the trouble leads to the eastern waters?"

"No, no, these are internal family matters, as the saying goes, family scandals must not be publicized.

If I were to expose this matter to the Kong family, the three tai pao of the Ding family would also be exposed together, and in the end, it would be my Ding family's face that would be disgraced."

Lin Mo smiled mysteriously, "Who said anything about exposing it!"

"Are you Ding Li a member of the main family?"

"Mm!"

"Did the Three Taibao branches deceive the main family and collude with outsiders?"

"That's right."

"As a member of the main family, if you investigate and find that something has indeed happened, shouldn't you teach a lesson and declare the majesty of the main family?"

"That's right!"

"So ah, when the time comes, if you confirm that the Three Taipao branches have colluded with the Kong Family to enrich themselves, and directly teach them a lesson, do you think you will still resist?"

Ding Li's face sank and his eyes carried a murderous look.

"They dare, the branch should have the consciousness of a branch, if they dare to make a move against me, then there is no need for their branch to exist."

Lin Mo saw that the padding was almost done, and with began to induce.

“So ah, you Ding Li found out that the branch was secretly colluding with the Kong family and struck a lesson.

Outsiders will only say that the Three Taibao branches ate their way out of the house, while you, Ding Li, were just upholding the prestige of the main family.”

“Besides, do you think they dare to risk secretly digging at the bottom of the sea, is it just this black box.”

Although all the other antique jewellery within the black box had been damaged except for the mask, it could be vaguely deduced through these inexpensive jewels that there must be a greater fortune hidden behind the black box.

Lin Mo saw that Ding Li’s face showed intent and went forward to add.

“Young Ding, these are all your spoils of war. When the time comes, the people in the main family which ones will look at you highly.

And once this matter is revealed, won’t the truth come out?”

Ding Li looked puzzled, “The truth will come out?”

“Or else what? The Ding family branch is eating out of the bag, unequal distribution of benefits with the Kong family, and blackmailing. And trying to silence you, the investigator.”

“Dig the trough! Lin Mo you are too cunning!”

Ding Li slapped his big hand on the edge of the bed, and his entire body almost jumped up.

According to Lin Mo, once this matter was implemented, the identity of this suspect could be transferred to the Kong branch and the Kong family, and he would also be able to put on a good show in front of the main family, and then he would have the strength to ask the main family to help track down the real culprit.

Three birds with one stone, perfect!

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders: “Young Ding, you’re too kind! So will you do this job?”

“f*ck it!”

After Ding Li had finished his speech with great vigour, he suddenly wilted again.

Lin Mo saw what he was thinking, leaned down and asked, “How many men can you gather now?”

“Almost a thousand or so, but basically they’re all limp-wristed and can’t make it to the top.”

After all, Ding Li had only just joined the main family tree, his heel was still unstable, and the forces under him were not strong either.

“Someone will do, just put them all on, just listen to my instructions when the time comes, I’ll guarantee you a bloody profit!”

Lin Mo said, then brought the mask straight up.

Finally there will be hooked, really nasty tired quite!

Chapter 2726

In the east waters of the Ding family, the faintly lit exploration platform is surrounded by patrol boats, which can be clearly distinguished from the forces of the Ding and Kong families in Hanoi by the clan emblems hanging on their prows.

The patrols were interlaced on the deck, either with swords or guns.

With nearly 10,000 men guarding the deck, it was impossible to enter within five kilometres of the exploration platform.

A bitter sea breeze was whipping up waves and dark clouds were rolling in from the sky, the wind was blowing and it was going to rain.

Just then, five lonely shadows on the distant sea level, slowly coming towards this area.

The battlefield dived sharply, snow-white waves following behind them.

After two days of consideration, Ding finally agreed to Lin Mo's proposal.

At this moment, he looked at the heavily guarded exploration platform in the distance with a heavy face.

"Lin Mo, are you sure that this solution is feasible? There won't be anything digging a hole for me!"

Once bitten by a snake, he was already afraid of Lin Mo, an old silver coin.

Lin Mo twisted his head and gave Ding Li a white look, with a disgusted tone, "It's all going to be here, you're still dwelling on a hammer."

"Are you suffering from some major illness, if not for the promise to help you turn over, I would have come here with you to take a chance?"

You think too highly of yourself if you lose your life and body to dig a hole for you!"

"You don't even think about it, if we succeed, you'll be cleared of suspicion and cleared of cursing, and you'll still be looked up to by the elders of the main family.

What did the old man gain? Just to fulfill a promise."

As Ding Li listened to Lin Mo's words, he also felt that there was some truth to them, but there was still some vague unease in his heart.

"Don't you have any selfish motives, like lending me a hand to get rid of the Kong family or something!"

The feud between Lin Mo and the Kong family had spread throughout Da Qu, and the two sides were immortal, and now that Lin Mo was helping himself so much, Ding Li couldn't help but be suspicious in his heart.

After Lin Mo turned his head, his face instantly darkened.

“Ding Li, do you think too highly of your own.”

“If I want to overthrow the Kong family, do I still need to use your hand?”

I can mobilise 100,000 Zhao Family Tiger Guards in a minute with just one word, so I still need to rely on you?”

“You’ve taken all the benefits and you’re still beeping here, gra*s, the more I think about it, the angrier I get, I’m quitting, give me a motorboat, I want to go back.”

After Ding Li was scolded by him so much, his heart was instead grounded, seeing Lin Mo turn to leave, he hurriedly stepped forward to stop him.

“Boss Lin, calm down, calm down, this is the first time I’ve faced such a scene, so I’m naturally scared, it’s normal to think a bit more.”

After Lin Mo coldly snorted, he waved his hand forcefully to shake off Ding Li.

“I don’t know what to do, I’m really dizzy in the head, why did I agree to help you turn over!”

Lin Mo complained before turning around with a disgruntled face and returning to his position at the front of the boat.

After apologising with a smile, Ding Li turned around and scolded his men, “What are you looking at?”

On the other hand, the patrols around the exploration platform had already spotted Ding Li’s ship from afar, and if they hadn’t seen the Ding family crest on the bow of the other ship, they would have opened fire.

When the two sides approached, Ding Genji, the head of the Ding family of the exploration platform project, hurriedly greeted them with a smile on his face.

“Young Ding, why are you out at sea in this winter?”

After his sweeping glance around, he saw the masked Lin Mo, his gaze lingered for a moment, although he felt that there was something unusual about this person, he didn’t pay much attention to it, after all, all his mind was converging on Ding Li at the moment.

Didn’t uncle say that the brat was now in a difficult position to protect himself, how come he still had the leisure to wander around outside, could it be that the main family had made a move?

The prince smiled coldly: “You’ll root for it!”

Ding Genji:

cao, you’re the one who’s f*cking rooted!

Chapter 2727

“This branch of yours seems to be very close to the Kong family?”

Ding Li asked meaningfully after skimming at the warships around him.

There were no less than a hundred ships of all sizes in front of him, and no less than half of them bore the emblem of the Kong family.

Ding Genji explained enthusiastically, “Young Ding, on this side of the Black Inner East Sea, our and branch has signed a cooperation agreement with the Ding Family.”

“Not only the construction of the docks, but also all kinds of aquatic products and ore exploration, we all have close cooperation.”

Ding Li looked past the heavily guarded training ship to the exploration platform in the distance.

“There’s no need to be nervous, I’m just casually asking.”

After saying this, he winked towards Lin Mo, who watched and walked forward with his mask on, lowering his voice in order to prevent being recognised by others.

“Young Master Ding Li has been ordered by the Lord’s Council of Elders to monitor the progress of the branches’ projects at the end of the year. Today it happens to fall at your Hanoi branch.”

Ding Genji’s face darkened: “Dog, what kind of fart is going on here, if there was a matter of monitoring, why didn’t my Hanoi Ding Family receive any written notice?”

He stared at Lin Mo with his eyes slightly narrowed as a killing spirit surged around him.

“Kid, if you dare to fabricate rumours about the Lord’s family, ten lives won’t be enough to kill you.”

Although Ding Genji was reprimanding Lin Mo, in reality he was also secretly knocking at Ding Li, reminding him not to mess things up.

Lin Mo did not get angry, he just raised his eyebrows towards Ding Li, meaning simply, I have already made up the reason for you, the next step is up to you to operate.

Ding Li secretly made an ok packing, and then sank his face.

“Ding Genji, since this is a matter of supervision, it is naturally done in secret.

Besides, do we have to report to you when our main family acts, what kind of a person are you.”

Ding Li straightened his back and looked proud.

Ding Genji’s face turned blue and white as he was disliked by Ding Li. In Hanoi, he was a towering figure, and whoever met him had to nod and bow and call him Master Ding respectfully. If it wasn’t for the fact that he was the young master of his family, he would have ordered Ding Li to be killed.

On the other hand, when Kong Ling, the fourth son of the Kong family, saw Ding Genji’s appearance, he had the intention to come forward to relieve the situation.

“After all, the exploration platform behind us is a top-secret project, and the master of the Hanoi Ding family has given a strict order forbidding anyone to enter.”

“Please do me a favour and let’s talk over a drink.”

With that, he gave Ding Li a look of understanding.

If it were in the past, Ding Li would have said yes, but today he was here for his own future, his own future.

“What the hell are you, a f*cking dead letter.

You’re a Ding family outsider who can enter this place, but I’m not allowed to enter the main Ding family lineage? Put the stinky dog sh*t of gift rations!”

“I’m telling you for the last time, get the hell out of my way. I, Ding Li, have come with a mission from the main family’s Council of Elders.”

Ding Genji’s face darkened even more when he saw Ding Li pressing on step by step.

“Young Master Ding, it’s going to rain soon, and this sea is very windy and rough, so you should pay attention to your safety.”

His implication was not to make us angry, or I would do anything.

Ding Genji, as the person in charge of the treasure excavation, how could he not know what was going on? If Ding Li found out, would they be able to survive?

Ding Li was suddenly threatened by the other party, his face instantly showed an embarra*sed look, before this he also boasted that the branch did not dare to make a move against him, now well, Ding Genji’s words are like a hand, slapped him hard.

That would be embarra*sing!

Chapter 2728

The premise of respecting and fearing the protagonist was based on their ability to live, if the excavation plan conspired with the Kong family was discovered, they would not be able to save their lives and still respect you.

“Young Ding seems to have failed to pretend to be a cup!”

Ding Li’s face was embarra*sed in the face of Lin Mo’s jibe, that’s not what you said when you snubbed me before. But this is not the time to be obsessed with this issue, looking at Ding Genji’s appearance is obviously impossible to let his own in.

“Lin Mo, do something!”

Ding Li gritted his teeth and asked in a quiet voice.

Lin Mo was full of care as he squeezed his crunching fingers, and after shaking his neck, he stepped forward and came to Ding Li’s side.

“Since the branch doesn’t listen, then let’s beat them until they do, fists are the eternal truth in this world.”

Why was the main Ding family lineage called the main lineage, wasn't it because he was the strongest? Don't be naive, if the main family ever appears to fall out of favor, the branches will surely swallow it up like wolves and take its place.

"Ha?"

Ding Li didn't react for a moment, the other side had nearly 100 ships and tens of thousands of men, with just a thousand people under his own command, fighting against the other side, what are you kidding?

But just as he was spitting in his heart, Lin Mo had already stepped forward and scolded in a stern voice.

"Bold branch, how dare you resist the orders of the main family, Ding Genji, do you really want to stop our Young Master Ding Li from entering this place for inspection today?"

Ding Genji simply broke the jar, no matter what he could not possibly get out of the way!

"How dare a guard bark in front of his master?"

"Young Master Ding Li, this man has evil intentions and wants to stir up relations between our main lineage branches, you must not be compelled by him."

After he gave a pretentious request towards Ding Li, he gave a direct order.

"Someone take this man down, chop him up and throw him into the sea to feed the fish.

If you dare to maliciously stir up trouble, I will let you die without a body today!"

Ding Genji had already seen that the masked man obviously occupied an important position in Ding Li's mind, perhaps as a beloved or personal bodyguard, but of course it did not matter exactly what his identity was, what mattered was that he wanted to kill this man to deter Ding Li from retreating.

When the time comes, they will have plenty of time to destroy the scene when the main family sends someone to monitor them again.

When Lin Mo saw that the other side still had people coming forward under Ding Genji's orders, trying to make a move on him, he directly cleared his throat and shouted.

"It's not good, the Hanoi branch of Ding Genji has rebelled, follow me to protect young Ding!"

At his shout, the men on both sides who were not clear about the truth immediately froze their expressions, Ding Genji had rebelled? How could this be possible?

The men on Ding Li's side, hearing that their boss was threatened, immediately flew around them.

"Protect Younger Ding, protect Younger Ding!"

Under a shout, it seemed to be slowly making full force of the fact that Ding Genji had rebelled, and in a moment the shutdown on both sides came to a tense halt.

And was Ding Genji shot up to catch Lin Mo search down, about to board the boat to capture Lin Mo, just as soon as the head was revealed directly by Ding Li's men found, it so happened that the other party is holding a blade in his hand, this time the rebellion of the matter is considered to sit down.

“D*mn it, the Hanoi branch really dares to a*sa*sinate young Ding, let’s chop them up.”

As the words fell to the ground, several of the men who had just boarded the boat were directly chopped to pieces.

As soon as the two sides saw blood, the already tense confrontation was instantly agitated.

“Take down Ding Genji the traitor though, and purge the Ding family’s family style.”

Lin Mo’s words were like a fuse that directly ignited the scene, and with a tremor, the warships underfoot rammed straight into Ding Genji’s fleet.

A bloodbath broke out between the two ships, and a disparity in numbers ensued.

Chapter 2729

The sound of incessant gunfire rang out across the battlefield.

Although Ding Genji’s side was far outnumbered by the opposite side, they were superior in firepower, and each warship was equipped with light heavy machine guns.

In just one encounter, Ding Genji’s men fell by the hundreds.

Ding Genji’s eyes were red with anger at the sudden clash in front of him, which was caused by the young man in the mask.

“Lao Tzu Cao Nima!”

If it wasn’t for the masked man, he would have had enough room to force and entice Ding Li to retreat from this place, but this boy had ruined everything.

And it was no longer up to Ding Genji to be in and out of cement.

“Young Master Ding Li has been kidnapped and compelled, brothers kill the kidnappers to save Young Master Ding!”

He naturally did not dare to kill Ding Li, or else the wrath of the main family’s side of their branch simply could not afford, but Lin Mo and Ding Li’s men, he would not be the least bit soft, as long as he slaughtered all these people, leaving Ding Li alone was simply not enough to justify.

In this way, poor Ding Li was used by Lin Mo and Ding Genji as a pawn to make his side’s name right, and the battle was instantly fought.

After all, Ding Genji’s side was only patrol boats, and with the cooperation of the two Ding Kong families, they thought they were sufficient to deter all the forces around Hanoi.

Therefore, in order to save costs, their patrol boats were not equipped with any heavy firepower, they even had a few scattered rifles and a few pistols, and they were suppressed by the firepower of Ding Li’s men for a while.

Lin Mo saw that the time was hard to come by, so he didn’t do any nonsense.

“Ding Li, hurry up and kill in with me!”

Only when his words fell, Ding Li didn't reply, he just stared at Lin Mo with these angry eyes staring deadly.

“Is this what you call following your plan? Letting our Ding family start an internal strife so that you can reap the benefits!”

“What do you want, Lin Mo?”

Ding Li's last words were almost a roar. In less than three minutes, no less than a thousand people had died in the firefight between the two sides, and hundreds of his own family members had fallen, all of which were his family's future assets to climb to the top.

If the firefight continued like this, there was no telling how many people would survive, and the main thing was that both sides, whether they were the main lineage or branches, were all members of the Ding family.

Lin Mo was also stimulated by Ding Li's reaction.

“You know your own identity, can't you really expect your mother to bring you a lifetime of glory and prosperity.”

“Look at these people in front of you, they don't kill you not because you are is Ding Li, simply because you are surnamed Ding, of the main family.”

“If your main lineage were to fall, these branches of theirs would eat you without hesitation and take your place.

If you want to move up the ladder, follow me and fight.”

“You are now in is getting rid of family thieves, clearing suspicions and clearing the door, if you want to turn over, follow me and kill in!”

Ding Li's body trembled, and his gaze gradually became hot, he could not easily have a chance to show his skills, if he missed it he would miss it for life.

“Lin Mo you tell me the truth, are you really just doing this purely to help me turn over a new leaf?”

Lin Mo did not turn around, “Does it matter?”

He raised his hand and flung the Xuan Needle like a bullet, directly killing the enemy who was hiding in the shadows ready to let off a cold shot.

“Yeah, it don't matter!”

“Brothers, though kill to clean up for the Ding family, for those who die in battle, I, Ding Li, will subsidise five million pensions, and those who live will eat and drink with me.”

As Ding Li gave the order, his men were as riveted as if they had been beaten with chicken blood.

“Clear the door!”

“Clear the door!”

With a loud shout, the momentum rushed to the sky!

Chapter 2730

After nearly half an hour of fighting, the double shot was exhausted, and it was a white-knuckle battle that began, with Ding Li’s men and horses in full force, facing four or five times as many enemies, and still charging.

Under the scorching battle, corpses were everywhere, blood turned the sea around them scarlet and limbs floated everywhere.

Although Ding Li was vulnerable to the Prince and Lin Mo, he had at least some disciples of the martial arts and was more than capable of dealing with some shrimps and crab soldiers, but he could not resist the number of people on the other side.

He had no idea how many people he had killed, it could have been thirty or fifty, he was already covered in blood, but fortunately with Lin Mo’s protection, he didn’t die!

“Lin Mo, I’m f*cking losing strength, I can’t take it anymore!”

Looking at the constant stream of enemies in front of him, he was in despair.

“D*mn it, I’m getting killed, even if you’re reckless yourself, why did you take me with you?”

He regretted, regretted that he shouldn’t have rushed inside the enemy in his head and put himself in a deadly situation.

“If I don’t take you with me, how can I justifiably slaughter in the name of protection, are you stupid!”

Compared to Ding Li’s tired state, Lin Mo was completely at ease at this moment, and he naturally had his own considerations for taking Ding Li with him, no matter what, he was only an outsider, and it was not good for him to take direct action as everything here was an internal matter of the Ding family.

But it was different when he brought Ding Li with him.

So all in all, Ding Li was just a mere tool.

Lin Mo took a look at the time and muttered, “It’s almost time!”

On the other hand, Ding Li, who was at the side, asked curiously.

“What’s almost done?”

“f*ck you, protect yourself, hold on, don’t blame me if you die!”

Ding Li didn’t even react before he felt a wave of pressure envelop him directly.

“f*ck, you could have at least warned me!”

After speaking, he then felt his body go limp and was directly pressed down on top of the ground overtime.

Lin Mo's enemy in front of him was almost in the same situation, the unbeatable King's Qi swept across the field, and the minions within a hundred meters Shun directly poured down.

Only to see Lin Mo's sword finger waving, nine Xuan needles like a bullet, a flash of light.

In less than ten seconds, more than three hundred enemies died directly at Lin Mo's hands.

When Ding Genji saw this scene, he was directly frightened to the point where his legs went weak.

What kind of evil magic was this!

And when he locked eyes with Lin Mo, he immediately felt as if his throat was being strangled, and his breathing became extremely agonising. Thankfully, Lin Mo did not pay any attention to him, and carried Ding Ge Li and flew to the exploration platform in the centre of the flotilla.

It wasn't that Lin Mo was kind-hearted, but once the Lan Ling Ghost Face was activated, it covered everyone around him indiscriminately, and Ding Li's body was so weak that it would probably not be able to hold up to the invisible pressure.

"You're really a drag, you toolman."

Ding Li was being lifted in Lin Mo's hands, although his qi and blood were depleted and his face was pale, when he still held on to his weakness and struggled to raise his middle finger.

"Childish!"

Lin Mo spat speechlessly after seeing the movement in his hand.

"Hang in there, you Ding Li will soon be turning over and rising!"

After Lin Mo finished speaking, he stuffed an elixir into Ding Li's mouth, before leading him to take a long leap and fall into the sea.

Under the dumbfounded eyes of Ding Genji and his men, Lin Mo led Ding Li with his feet tapping repeatedly as he stepped on the sea surface and flew closer to the exploration platform.

Seeing this scene, Ding Genji finally realised what the masked boy was up to, and with an anxious look on his face, he shouted at the top of his voice.

"Quickly inform the people over at the exploration platform, hurry up and destroy all the documents, we can't let Ding Li and the others get them!"
