Chapter 2741

The outsiders don't know what's going on and can only go by the information available so far.

Some speculate that Lin Mo actually did it, after all, his poor relationship with Ding Li is obvious to all.

Some suspected that the Ding family might have deliberately covered up some shocking secret and cut off their own arm to hide it from the public.

Some speculated that the Kong family might have secretly colluded with the Ding family branch, causing the main family to go on a killing spree in a fit of rage.

Bold Jean also believes that an outside mysterious force intervened to cause the ma*sacre.

With no clear evidence and no inside information, many people began to worry that Da Qu, which had been silent for a long time, might be in chaos.

"Big brother, there is no need for you to explain to them, we are the ones who killed the people, they dare to do anything to us."

The prince couldn't help but start complaining after gathering news from the four directions.

Lin Mo played with the little green shadow over and over, and replied carelessly.

"If I did nothing, it wouldn't take long for this matter to die down.

But it's different now, the blockage in the news will make more and more people start to be on edge."

"What good will that do us?"

Lin Mo glanced up at the window.

"Some people want to make Da Qu chaotic, and it just so happens that I have the same idea so I'm just going to go along with it.

Only the more chaotic Da Qu is, the more convenient it is for us to make our move!"

The crown prince suddenly thought of something and his gaze instantly lit up.

"You're planning to make a move against the Kong family?"

Lin Mo smiled mysteriously, "The Kong family is nothing, since we are going to play chess and fall, of course we have to think about eating the big dragon."

The prince didn't quite understand the meaning between Lin Mo's words, what he was more concerned about now was still Ding Li.

"Big brother, with you doing this, everyone's attention has shifted, so not many people are concerned about Ding Li's suspicions.

Is it a bargain for this one?"

The prince looked at Ding Li with extra displeasure, and he felt bad when the other party was better off.

Lin Mo laughed and scolded, "You should look farther ahead, Ding Li may still be of use in the future."

"If I don't give him a hand now, this foolish batch will be played to death sooner or later.

Let's just let him develop his own power while he recovers in secret."

"What use can this kind of waste be!"

The prince muttered, and then turned around to go about his business.

Meanwhile, Ding Li had finally returned to the Ding Clan Castle with his broken leg, and as soon as he stepped through the front door, his subordinates immediately informed him that the elders had summoned him.

The Elders' Council was the highest decision-making structure in the main lineage, a powerful existence that normally even his father did not have the right to enter or leave at will, let alone a group of juniors like them.

However, on second thought, it should be because he had taken great credit this time, not only had he uncovered the branch's conspiracy, but he had even captured Ding Genji alive, and the elders wanted to praise him, albeit with the help of certain external forces.

Ding Li walked into the large and spacious Elders' Council with a sense of excitement, and upon entering, he saw two old men staring intently at the chessboard in front of him.

Ding Li did not dare to disturb them, so he respectfully stood by the side and waited quietly. Although there were no words, and the two old men did not even glance at him, Ding Li felt unusually oppressed and stuffy.

It was only after an hour or so that the two old men stopped moving their hands, and one of them turned his head and spoke with a calm face.

"Coming!"

When Ding Li heard the old man's voice, his body involuntarily trembled, and after calming his mind a bit, he then dared to come forward to answer the words.

"Ding Li, greetings to the Third and Fifth Elders!"

Chapter 2742

"This matter is well done!"

The fifth elder lifted the cup of tea in his hand and shook his head and blew lightly, the white water mist slowly dispersed with the tea leaves on the surface, and in the process of speaking, he did not even glance at Ding Li.

After hearing the elder's praise, Ding Li was delighted: "I'm just contributing a little to the Ding family."

When he had finished, the Fifth Elder's face smiled.

"Good, you have a high awareness, you are not arrogant, you are not impatient, you are a great talent.

If there were more sons and grandsons like you in our family, our Ding family would have dominated Da Qiu long ago."

Such praise made Ding Li feel a little dizzy, saying that he was better than his peers in the family, but the next words of the Fifth Elder caused his pores to explode.

"I heard that you and that Lin Mo have a good relationship, not only did you clean up Ding Genji together, but you also shared the underwater treasures you dug up with him.

That Lin Mo is also a young talent, having a good relationship with him will be beneficial to our Ding family as well."

Ding Li looked at the other party's amiable smile and instantly his scalp tingled.

As a member of the Elders' Council, none of them were oiled lamps.

If he hadn't been cautioned by Lin Mo earlier, Ding Li might have simply responded.

But now that he sensed the abnormality, did the huge Ding family need to please Lin Mo? Obviously not.

Moreover, Lin Mo's men had blown up the Ding family's pier before, which was undoubtedly provoking the Ding family, and now they were taking half of the treasure that should have belonged to the Ding family, how could the Ding family give Lin Mo a good face.

As Ding Li thought of this, his brain raced, and in the blink of an eye his face was covered in hatred.

"The Fifth Elder doesn't know, I don't actually have a cordial relationship with that Lin Mo, once again we have clashed many times before."

The Fifth Elder raised his eyebrows and smiled, "Oh? Is that so? Then how come you two have come together this time."

"It's because that D*mned bd Lin Mo forced me to, after he brought me down from the Rongli, he kept me under house arrest."

After saying this, Ding Li lowered his head in shame, "I was not strong-minded enough, and under Lin Mo's torture, I told him about the investigation of the Ding family branch."

"After Lin Mo learned of this, he forced me to go with him, wanting to use my hand to kill the Kong family's men."

Lin Mo's enmity with the Kong Family was something that the whole of Da Qu knew about, so Ding Li said this to sort of round out the matter.

The Fifth Elder nodded and asked with a smile, "Then what about the treasure!"

At this time, Ding Li completely ordered what Lin Mo had said to him earlier, forcing himself to pretend to be angry, recalling the humiliation the Crown Prince had given him, his eyes were suddenly dissatisfied with blood, and his cheeks were suffocated with red.

“I’m angry just talking about it, this D*mned Lin Mo took advantage of our snipe fight and robbed a large amount of treasure with his men.”

“After I was done, I went after him to settle the score they even broke my leg!”

Ding Li finished and pointed to his broken foot.

It was only at this point that the Fifth Elder nodded in satisfaction, only to have the smile on his face put away as well.

“Young people are not strong-willed, they still need more exercise.

Also talents are missing a lot, from now on do everything over your head and don’t always get counted.”

After he finished his lecture, he put down the cup of tea in his hand.

“Indeed, the strength of the men is a bit poor, in a few days I will have the butler send you a batch of armed supplies.

Also on Lin Mo’s side, our Ding family will seek justice for you.”

When Ding Li saw the Fifth Elder put down his teacup, he knew the order to expel him, and hurriedly bowed and saluted.

“Thank you, Fifth Elder! Ding Li bids farewell!”

After saying that he left the place with quick steps, it was indeed as Lin Mo had said, although the Ding Clan had not made any moves on the surface, they had already set their eyes on Lin Mo in private.

“If I had just agreed to have a relationship with Lin Mo, I would probably be out of luck.”

Thinking about this, Ding Li subconsciously wiped a handful of cold sweat from his forehead.

Chapter 2743

When Ding Li left the Elders’ Council, only the two old men were left within the room.

“Old Fifth, this kid is not very honest!”

The third elder knocked on the chessboard in front of him.

The fifth elder opposite raised his hand with disinterest and waved, “It’s not a bad thing for young people to have their own ideas.”

He looked in the direction where Ding Li had left and picked up a black piece.

“These are all minor matters, let’s wait a little longer, since someone wants to stir up the entire Da Qu through the hands of my Ding Clan, we might as well see what else he has up his sleeve.”

“As for this kid

“It just so happens that our Ding Clan, lacks an external butcher’s knife, and he is quite suitable for that.”

When the fifth elder finished speaking, he dropped the black piece in his hand on top of the board, just in time to eat the white piece's big dragon cleanly.

Lin Mo's side had not made any move since he had made public the meticulous affair of the Kong family as well as explained his own innocence, he was also waiting, waiting for the next move of the black hand behind the curtain.

In the outside world, the ma*sacre in the Ding family's waters and the tragedy on the Rongli still continue to fester, but the condemnation of Ding Li by many forces has diminished, but anyone who has a heart can see that the two events must be related in some way.

Under the tide of darkness, spies from various forces lurking among the crowd began to collect information frantically, and even around the Chinese Medicine Museum, 'rats' began to appear one after another.

Lin Mo did not care much about all this, and every day, apart from taking Green Shadow around, he practiced his martial arts skills, sharpened his Nine Mysterious Needles, and waited for the development of the situation.

At noon, a top-of-the-line Bentley stopped at the entrance of the Chinese Medicine Center, and the car door opened, thinking that a tall woman with a delicate face got out of it, twisting her chiseled figure and walking into the Chinese Medicine Center.

The doctor and the patient stopped their actions instantly when they saw her, and looked straight at the gorgeous woman with fire in their eyes.

The woman did not feel any disgust at their appearance, but instead she deliberately straightened her back and showed off her majestic peak.

"Hello Mr. Lin Mo, my daughter Lilia, first time meeting!"

She stretched out her slender and flawless palm to Lin Mo's heel.

Lin Mo crowded this disgraceful look and coughed lightly to warn.

"Hello, what can I do for you, see a doctor or ask a question?"

He did not extend his hand, but merely gazed calmly at the demonic woman, his eyes clear without any hint of turbidity.

Lilia was secretly surprised to see Lin Mo's appearance, usually men were full of infatuation when they saw her, but this man in front of her did not have a single fluctuation.

The man in front of her was not the least bit smitten.

Lilita first withdrew her handshake without making a sound, and then took out a solid gold-sealed invitation and directly stated her intention.

"Mr. Lin Mo, my highness would like to invite you to his dinner party, and I hope you will be gracious enough to do so."

“His Highness?”

Lin Mo repeated curiously, “The Sixth Prince?”

After Lilia smiled and nodded, Lin Mo took the invitation, he had expected before that the other party would definitely seek him out again, but he didn’t expect it to drag on for so long.

After waiting for the woman to leave, the Crown Prince hurriedly came forward.

“Big brother, big brother, who is this woman, she’s too good looking!”

He said over and over again, with all the hotness in his eyes.

Lin Mo laughed and scolded, “Go go go, old pervert that’s the Sixth Prince of Wanxiang Kingdom’s person.”

The prince’s eyes lit up, “Can I come along? I heard that the Sixth Prince is surrounded by beautiful women! All of them are extremely beautiful.”

Lin Mo was a little surprised by the prince’s reaction, it was the first time he had seen the prince react like this to the opposite sex.

“I always thought you didn’t like women!”

The crown prince’s face flushed with embarrassment, before revealing a shrivelled smile, “Right, I only have big brother in my heart.”

His mischievous joke was only met with a disgusted flying kick from Lin Mo, which led to a hilarious scene.

Chapter 2744

As the residence of the Sixth Prince, Peter’s Castle is not only huge in size, it is also naturally decorated in a definitive style.

A garden of over twenty acres was covered with turquoise grass, in which all kinds of valuable greenery could be seen everywhere. At one foot of the garden there was also a giant elephant over four metres high wandering back and forth, while around the giant elephant a dozen attendants were carefully tending to it.

Lilia brought Lin Mo’s to Peterborough as well.

“Is there a flower on my face?”

Lin Mo found that this woman had been glancing at him from time to time on the way, although naturally handsome, but not to such an extent, right?

Lilia arched her eyebrows and smiled.

“Mr. Lin Mo, forgive me for being so presumptuous, but is this how you usually go to parties?”

In all the parties she had attended, this was the first time she had seen someone dressed so casually, with less than five hundred dollars all over.

Lin Mo also knew what the other party meant, but he just didn't care.

"I'm a rural boy like me, I haven't seen much of the world, this is the best I can wear."

He joked and passed the moment off.

It was just a party, so what was the point of dressing so formally, and the constricted feeling of formal wear really made Lin Mo squirm.

Lilia covered her lips and sniggered, "You are a very interesting man."

The guests at the banquet hosted by the Sixth Prince himself were all rich and famous people who wanted to dress up as the world's most famous people to show their respect for His Highness, but Lin Mo was doing the opposite, making it as simple as possible.

After walking for a while, Lilia stopped in her tracks.

"Mr. Lin Mo, welcome to Peterborough, if you need anything you can always greet your underlings.

You can take a tour here, or go to the castle and rest for a while."

With that she pointed to the European-style castle not far away, several dozen metres high and in a luxurious style.

"Someone will let you know when the dinner party starts!

I still have to go check on the dinner preparations, so excuse me for now."

After saying that, Lilia slowly left with a smile on her face, twisting her enchanting body.

Lin Mo, because he was worried that there was no leader on the Kazan side, had asked the Crown Prince to stay over there and instructed him not to step out of Moro Street.

Now he was alone on this side of the street, and it was a bit boring as he was unfamiliar with the place.

This was a dinner party hosted by the Sixth Prince, so who would dare to come here and cause trouble unless they were tired of living?

There were girls in heavy make-up, men in suits, all wearing expensive decorations and watches, all talking to each other with false smiles.

If he wanted to make contact with the Sixth Prince, he wouldn't have bothered to come all the way here to attend such a party.

The tall, high-cut dresses on either side of the entrance made Lin Mo frown, and he thought to himself, "What's wrong with this guy?"

Lin Mo didn't care about their contemptuous gazes, there are not many people who look down on others these days, so he shook his head and then stopped paying attention.

Just when he was about to turn around and sightsee the garden, a group suddenly came up behind him, and she saw that Lin Mo was blocking in front of him by a frown.

“You this gardener what is going on?”

Do not work well to come here to block the road what road, hurry up to give me to get aside, disgraceful thing.”

“A lowly subordinate like you, you dare to come here to join the fun, really bad luck.”

With his loud rebuke, the attention of the guests in the hall was drawn to the banquet, which was already boring to begin with.

Chapter 2745

Lin Mo, after all, had only shown his face once during the night, so although many people in Da Qu had heard of his reputation, they had not seen him in person, and with his current out-of-place costume, he avoided making people look down on him.

When the middle-aged woman saw that Lin Mo did not speak, she turned her head and called for the guardsmen inside the castle.

“You underlings this is too unruly!”

Several guards rushed forward to greet the woman politely when they saw her.

“Sister-in-law, what brings you here, the First Captain is out on patrol today, I’ll call over.”

The woman was the wife of the captain of the Kadrey guards, Kamino, and the guards who worked under the captain naturally had to give her face, and just as one of them was about to go and inform the captain, Kamino called out to him.

“Don’t bother, His Royal Highness’s safety is the top priority.

You guys help me get this unruly person out of here, I’m an eyesore to watch.”

She looked at Lin Mo with disgust and disdain written all over her face, she had gotten on Lin Mo’s bad side today, a servant even dared to disobey his mother’s words.

The guards knew that Kamenai was not a winner, even their captain had been tamed by this tigress, in comparison, the young man in front of them, who was dressed in ordinary clothes and had an ordinary temperament, was the perfect soft touch.

“Hello sir, may I see your invitation please?”

They were naturally familiar with all the faces in the castle, and were naturally aware that the young man’s in front of them was not a gardener, but the three officials in front of the Chancellor’s gate had to be taken by them even if they were guests.

When Lin Mo heard this, his face instantly relaxed: “On what grounds? Why don’t you let the mean woman show, just because I look good to bully?”

Lin Mo knew from listening to their chat that this woman had connections within the guard corps, so these few guards would be too open to pull the wool over their eyes like that.

Kamino's face changed when she heard Lin Mo dare to talk about her, "Watch your mouth, kid, dare to call me mean."

"What are you people doing, hurry up and get him out of here."

The guards were also screaming in their hearts, there were so many guests watching him, if they kicked him out without asking, it would not be easy to explain, but if they didn't do something, the tigress in front of them would be even harder to explain.

If they didn't do something, the tigress in front of them would be even worse off.

"Sir, this is the wife of the captain of our guard, so we know if you have an invitation.

Now, please show us your invitation, or we will have to be offended!"

If Lin Mo did not cooperate, they would have to take action.

A proud look appeared on Kamino's face as he was licked by the guards, while he looked at Lin Mo with a sneer, intending to watch him make a fool of himself.

Lin Mo raised an eyebrow: "Oh? I'd like to see how you are offended, I'd like to see how the Sixth Prince treats his guests."

The guards did not expect the young man in front of them to be so steel, originally they only wanted Lin Mo to take out the invitation, so that they would be able to save face for the other lady and settle the matter peacefully at this point.

But they were now being refused so strictly by Lin Mo, and with so many guests watching, several of them could not get off the stage for a while, so several of the guards looked at each other before secretly nodding their heads.

"Sir, since you are not cooperating, we can only use extraordinary means.

In my capacity as a member of His Highness' guard corps, I now suspect you of trying to sneak into the banquet and commit murder against His Highness."

"Please come with us!"

Lin Mo looked at their serious faces and snorted, "Pretending, aren't you just trying to help your captain's wife gain face?"

"No need to be pretentious, I don't regret attending this kind of banquet, bye bye you!"

With that he turned around with his hands in his pockets and was about to leave.

Chapter 2746

Lin Mo if the gray left at this point, the guard group your people also let him go, after all, their purpose is just purely to help Kaminai fight a face just.

But Lin Mo's few words before he left and irritated several people, they were afraid of Kaminai although it is true, but when is it the turn of an outsider to sneer.

"Brat, stop right there!"

At the sound of the words, several guards instantly surrounded Lin Mo.

"His Highness's castle is not yours to come and go as you please, take him down, he may be a thief, arrest and torture him."

When the guests heard the word "torture", their faces changed, this was a serious matter.

The Sixth Prince's men were known to be brutal and unreasonable, if they arrested and tortured him, he would lose his skin, even if he didn't die.

At this time, Lin Mo, who had gathered the focus of the audience, had a calm face, facing the aggressive few people, the corner of his mouth hooked.

"I am your Sixth Prince's honoured guest, are you sure you want to make a move?"

However, as soon as he said this, both the guards and the onlooking guests shook their heads in silence, now they knew they were afraid?

But this reason was too far-fetched, knowing that today's banquet, all of them had relied on their own connections and spent a huge amount of wealth to get an invitation, in order to make a face in front of the Sixth Prince, and if they were lucky enough to have a chat with the Sixth Prince, it would be a happy event of burning incense.

Apart from a few great witch doctors of the Wanxiang Kingdom, they had never heard of any noble guests.

"A noble guest? I'm your precious guest, take it down for me and I'll invite you to the interrogation room for tea later, so you can be your precious guest!"

Just as the guards were about to make their move, not far away several Great Witch Doctors dressed in animal skins also arrived at the castle.

The Great Witch Doctors naturally recognised Lin Mo, the Medical Saint of China, as a peer is an enemy!

"What's going on here?"

When the guards saw them, they hurriedly stopped what they were doing.

"Greetings, Lord Witch Doctors, this man tried to infiltrate the banquet and has an arrogant attitude, we suspect him of plotting mischief and are planning for you to take him down for trial."

They were naturally respectful to these special guests of His Highness.

White Wolf, as the leader of several great witch doctors, laughed dumbly.

“Ah, Doctor Lin, if you want to attend the banquet and want to climb up to His Highness Jiadrei just tell us.

There’s no need to be so dowdy and try to blend into the banquet, tsk tsk!”

The crowd reacted to this, not realising that this boy, who had an ordinary temperament, was a medical saint of China.

As they looked at each other, the guests could see the look of surprise in each other’s eyes.

A look of gloating filled White Wolf’s face, while several of his fellow Great Witch Doctors followed suit with mocking words.

“To do such an inferior thing when you’re a Medical Saint, you’ve also disgraced your Chinese physician community.”

“Just look at him as a medical saint and you can see the character of their medical saints, they can’t even behave well as human beings and still learn the art of medicine, shame on them!”

“A glimpse of the whole picture, such a person can become a medical saint, it can be seen how far the medical arts in China, have fallen.”

Under the words of several people, after all, they had belittled Lin Mo to the point of being worthless, even rising to the entire country of China.

Lin Mo looked at the few arrogant looking great witch doctors in front of him and smiled coldly.

“So, a few of you think that your witch doctor’s skills are better than our medical skills in the Kingdom of China?”

“That’s natural, I dare not say more, but it’s more than enough to crush a medical saint with a low moral character like you.”

After saying that, the white wolf proudly straightened his beast hair and glared at Lin Mo with his nostrils.

In his opinion, the Medical Saint Competition in China was just a group of juniors playing house, he had received the orthodox art of witch medicine and had been practicing it for decades, so how could he not be able to compete with a brat in medical skills.

“Well then, since you’re not second best, you might as well come and practise, there’s still some time before the banquet starts anyway!”

Chapter 2747

When White Wolf heard Lin Mo’s letter of battle, his heart burst with joy. They had come here mainly in response to Zat Baikha’s call to come together to solve the Sixth Prince’s pathological problems.

Now that Lin Mo had come to his doorstep to compete in the art of healing, Bai Wolf was naturally eager to do so, and defeating Lin Mo in public would raise his status in the Sixth Prince's mind to a higher level.

"It's natural if you want to compete in the art of healing, but isn't a light competition a bit too boring?"

Lin Mo raised an eyebrow and asked in an icy tone, "Then what kind of bet do you want to add?"

"It's simple, if I win, you will admit to yourself in front of everyone here that China's medical skills are inferior to ours in Wanxiang."

White Wolf's tone was contemptuous, "Of course if you're scared, just hurry up and get out, as a peer I don't want you to be racked out, it's too ugly."

Lin Mo didn't know where his confidence dared to speak so loudly, if it was in terms of enlightenment Lin Mo didn't dare to say much.

But medical skills! Sorry, I'm invincible!

"Yes, if I win, you can just leave the invitation behind.

I don't need you to admit yourself to anything either, our Chinese medicine way is so vast and profound that I feel ashamed to let you bunch of frogs in the well admit it."

White Wolf's face instantly darkened, "How dare you, boy! If you lose today, I want you to leave your hands behind."

Lin Mo laughed speechlessly, "Win me first, in so plus, do you still want me to give you the country of China ah."

At first, he said he would bet on the honor of a country's medicine, and now he wants to bet on his hands and feet, dead shameless.

"You"

White Wolf if not pulled by his companion would have rushed up to fight with Lin Mo, this kid was too infuriating.

"Don't you you me me me, how than quickly set down, everyone's time is precious!"

Lin Mo said impatiently, pulling out his ears.

After White Wolf calmed down, he and his companion looked at each other and nodded to each other.

"Since so many guests have come today, I, White Wolf, will simply provide a certain wave of benefits for everyone."

With that he turned around to face the crowd of guests.

"All of you present today, but anyone who is not feeling well, may come forward, but only to twenty people."

Before he finished speaking, the quickest guests in the crowd immediately rushed forward.

This White Wolf was a famous witch doctor in the Wanxiang Kingdom, and few people other than the royal family could hire him, so how could they give up the rare opportunity before them?

Only after White Wolf had gathered twenty people did he turn to Lin Mo and said.

“Kid, how about we each divide into ten people and see who is the fastest and most accurate in determining the patient’s condition and providing the best treatment plan?”

Lin Mo naturally responded straight away, “No problem, do as you please!”

Seeing Lin Mo agree to this, the guests who were watching the event were in high spirits, one side was the long-established Witch Doctor of Wanxiang, the other side was the Sage of Medicine of China, a medical competition of this magnitude was the only one they had ever seen!

After waiting for the twenty people to be randomly assigned into two groups, White Wolf made a condescending gesture of invitation.

“Medical Sage, after you?”

After Lin Mo swept through the circle, under his gaze, he paid extra attention to one of the middle-aged men with a red face.

This man’s qi and blood were not right, it was too exuberant!

Lin Mo thought over and over again as he went straight to the group of ten people on the left.

Without any medical equipment, nor any aids, after White Wolf’s cry to start, the two of them reached out to the patient in front of them at the same time.

It was just that there was still a big difference between the art of witch medicine and Chinese medicine.

After White Wolf touched the volunteer, he directly pierced his finger, took out a bit of blood, put it to the tip of his nose and smelled it, and the next moment he poured the blood directly into his mouth.

Many people at the scene were seeing the witch doctor’s healing methods for the first time, and now when they saw White Wolf doing this, they couldn’t help but feel a wave of nausea.

Chapter 2748

The White Wolf’s diagnostic technique, although bizarre, had real talent, and only three seconds after he poured the blood into his mouth, his eyes snapped open with closed eyes.

“Excessive alcohol consumption and decompensated liver function!”

At these words, the volunteers in front of him had a sudden look of surprise on their faces; this was too divine, to be able to accurately determine his condition with just a drop of blood.

“Great Witch Doctor White Wolf, you are really too powerful, when I went to the hospital for a check-up, the doctor told me about this condition.”

“Great Witch Doctor, you must think of something for me, my future job will depend on you if I can last.”

This man was always entertaining and the presence of alcoholic beverages was inevitable, but he did not dare to disregard the doctor’s admonition that life and health were the eternal opposites.

When he saw White Wolf now, he was like seeing a saviour, and his eyes were full of excitement.

And naturally, his reaction like this opened the eyes of the other guests for once.

“Is it really true? It looks so mysterious.”

“Drinking a mouthful of blood and being able to judge and, why am I so unconvinced, it can’t be a trust, right?”

“You’re crazy, the White Wolf Great Witch Doctor is an existence that can treat the Wanxiang royal family, need to ask for a trust, you’re afraid your brain is popped by a fart.”

“So impressive, worthy of being a long-established Great Witch Doctor, this masterpiece is exactly what makes people marvel.”

White Wolf’s face was full of smugness when he heard the crowd’s boasting.

“You don’t need to rush, since I can diagnose the cause of your illness, I naturally have a corresponding treatment plan.

Let’s talk about it after I finish the competition with this kid.”

If it were normal, White Wolf would not have been so gentle, but he was extraordinarily friendly at this moment because everyone was watching him and he wanted to show some respect in front of the Sixth Prince.

The next diagnostic technique used by White Wolf was still to draw blood to diagnose the disease, and under the exclams of the crowd, he quickly and accurately diagnosed the condition of the first five volunteers, while on the other hand, Lin Mo was still slowly checking the pulse of the second person in their team.

“I say, Uncle, your moderation, if you continue to be so reckless, you won’t be able to branch out in the future.”

As Lin Mo said this, he couldn’t help but look at the patient in the opposite group, and the uncle he was admonishing also scratched his head in embarrassment at this point.

“I can’t help myself, I have homework to hand in at home and tutorials to follow up outside, so I can’t do anything else.”

Lin Mo’s white eyes rolled, the old immodest one could even talk about raising a mistress with such subtlety, there was no one else.

“Your kidney water is already seriously insufficient, if you continue like this your kidney function will be completely broken.

By then, not to mention writing, you won't even be able to hold a pen, you'll only be able to get by with your eyes and hands."

"When the time comes, do you think you'll hire a tutor for that extracurricular tutoring?"

This comment hit the uncle right on the same point, and his face paled at the thought that the delicate, lovely goblin might hook up outside later.

"Little Mr. Medical Sage, you have to think of something for me, if I can't leave, that little fox may not be out there stealing hansoms."

He was panicking!

Lin Mo cursed the old imbecile in his heart.

"Lie down, I'll give you governance to stop the deterioration of your kidneys!"

"Lie down? Here?"

The older man looked and pointed to the gra*s at his feet.

"Or else, how about I prepare a luxury presidential room for you?"

Uncle subconsciously felt that this was a good offer, only to hastily shut his mouth after seeing Lin Mo's unkind countenance.

"Doctor Saint, my future happy life is in your hands, come on!"

After saying that, he lifted up a pair, his white beer belly directly exposed in front of the crowd, very greasy!

After observing the situation on Lin Mo's side, White Wolf smiled disdainfully, just Lin Mo's speed he was sure to win.

Chapter 2749

Under the curious eyes of the crowd, Lin Mo half squatted on the ground and spread out his silver needle and leather armor, while the uncle was neither afraid of the cold nor of being humiliated, just lying on the gra*s with his chest open, still letting Lin Mo apply needles on his waist area, with an expression of enjoyment on his face from time to time.

Lin Mo was naturally defeated by this uncle, originally he wanted to make this old pervert lose face, but he didn't expect that he didn't care at all, his eyes were only full of happy life.

If a tree has no skin, it will die, and if a man does not have a face, he will be invincible.

After Lin Mo finished applying the needles, he put away his leather armor. As for the uncle, after being stabbed by Lin Mo, he instantly felt relieved and his original feeling of depression dissipated.

As expected of a medical saint of China, there is really no such thing as a person with a reputation!

“This is the prescription, you can get the medicine from any Chinese medicine shop, one patch a day, take it for a month, and your kidney power will recover.

But you have to abstain from sex during this month.”

“Huh?”

Uncle snapped, this was going to kill the old man.

Lin Mo didn't bother to pay him any mind, “A month or a lifetime your choice!”

After he finished speaking, he went to the third patient and began to diagnose, while at that moment, White Wolf's side would soon be all but complete.

The cleverest thing about White Wolf was that when he finished diagnosing the first person, he did not rush to give a treatment plan right away, but waited until he was diagnosing the second volunteer, diagnosing the condition while conceiving the best treatment for the previous volunteer's condition.

With such an operation, his speed was naturally far faster than Lin Mo's.

When White Wolf came to the last person in their group his brow could not help but frown, this person's face was red and full of blood, there was no trace of illness, and after he had diagnosed the illness by drinking blood, his suspicions were even more confirmed.

“What mess are you in here to? In perfect health, do you think this witch doctor is idle.”

“Do you know what kind of existence the people who seek my medical treatment are? How dare you waste such a precious spot.”

White Wolf felt that he was being tricked, and his anger rushed to his head at once.

The middle-aged man tried his best to explain, “Mr. Great Witch Doctor, you have misunderstood, I am fine during the day, but when I go to bed in the middle of the night, I can't stop having cold sweats all over my body, and I often wake up with nightmares.”

The white wolf sneered, “That's because your blanket is too thick, go away, waste my time!”

The man saw that White Wolf's face was not good, and he did not dare to offend this VIP invited by the Sixth Prince, so he sighed and left unhappily.

“Wait a minute!”

Just as the middle-aged man was turning around, Lin Mo suddenly spoke up and called out to him.

“I will show you!”

White Wolf snorted coldly, “What Lord Doctor Saint, are you doubting the level of this Witch Doctor?”

Lin Mo gave him a glance, “Such a sloppy diagnosis, this is the art of your witch doctors? I don't know who taught you the art of healing from that vulgar man!”

White Wolf's face darkened and his gaze stared at Lin Mo fiercely.

“You Fine, fine, fine, since you think there's something wrong with my diagnosis, then you do it!”

“If you can’t tell me the truth today, this matter won’t be finished!”

White Wolf’s face was dissatisfied with the killing spirit, those who dare to insult his master, die!

When the crowd saw this look on White Wolf’s face, they knew that it would be difficult to end this matter today, and that blood would be spilled, so the guests stepped back, intending to stay away from this matter.

Lin Mo ignored White Wolf’s threats and simply walked up to the middle-aged man who was dressed in flamboyant clothes.

“Extend your hand!”

The man did not dare to say anything more when he saw Lin Mo’s serious face, and obediently lifted up his cuffs and brought his wrist to Lin Mo’s face.

Lin Mo frowned instantly after accosting the other man’s pulse, the pulse was stable, without any abnormality, except for the exuberant qi on his face that far exceeded normal people.

To put it simply, it meant that this person was far too healthy than a normal person.

Chapter 2750

As soon as White Wolf saw this frown on Lin Mo’s face, he secretly thought in his heart that this Lin Mo must be having difficulty in finding out his condition, while the other few companions of the Great Witch Doctor beside him were also wearing a look of contempt.

“Can you do it or not, Doctor Saint, everyone’s time is precious.”

Everyone watched as Lin Mo put his hand on this middle-aged man in a suit’s wrist for almost ten minutes already, and there were still no results, so naturally they started to get a little impatient, even the person in question was starting to get sore from holding his arm up all the time.

“Little sir, any results?”

Although his tone was calm, it was only because he had been in control, and he really couldn’t stop grumbling in his heart.

If there was a problem, there was a problem, if there wasn’t a problem, it was just a matter of words, dragging it out for so long, where was the fuss!

The white wolf looked around a fist secretly smug, the hairy boy even insulted his own master, today this matter definitely can not be easily solved.

“Lin Mo if you can’t check anything, just say so directly, it’s fruitless to drag on like this.”

“If you surrender now, kneel down and kowtow and admit your mistake, and never touch the path of medicine again, I will spare you the pain of breaking your hands.”

Not only did he want to make Lin Mo lose face in front of everyone, he also wanted to completely cut off his future path in medicine.

Lin Mo didn't pay any attention to the croaking White Wolf, loosened his grip and asked in all seriousness.

"What has been your main diet for the past six months."

Lin Mo had delayed for so long not because he could not see the middle-aged man's condition, on the contrary, the man's health was so bad that he was hanging on by a wisp of essence, if there was a word to describe it, it was a close call.

The white wolf at the side mocked the person before he could say anything, "I say, Doctor Saint, even if you can't do medicine, do you not even have the most basic common sense of life?"

"If people are not fed mainly with rice or mainly with noodles, then they are not living by eating dirt."

This remark instantly led to laughter from the onlookers, who couldn't help but look down on Lin Mo a lot.

"This divine doctor of China seems to have a false name!"

"Yes, I heard that the way they choose the Saint of Medicine over there is that a group of hairy boys are competing against each other."

"This is not a farce, who studies medicine every 30 to 50 years of sedimentation, even if you want to think of a genius level great witch doctor like White Wolf, also after more than 20 years of sedimentation before becoming famous."

"Probably just their country of China for the sake of face, randomly twisted to create a medical saint, into sleep"

Lin Mo's ears twitched as he mentally shook his head, the frog at the bottom of the well.

White Wolf looked at Lin Mo disdainfully, "How much longer do you want to delay taking?"

His eyes were awe-inspiring as he looked coldly at White Wolf: "When practicing medicine and asking questions, do not interfere, didn't your master teach you this when you were studying medicine?"

White Wolf's face turned blue and white when he was disliked, but interfering with other people's medical practice was a taboo for peers, and this was a recognized rule for all physicians around the world.

For a while, White Wolf was speechless, not knowing what to say in return.

The middle-aged man, who was the person in question, was indeed full of shock, and only he knew in his own heart that he had not eaten any rice or pasta for the past six months.

"Medical Saint Lin is right, I have been eating medicinal food for the past six months."

When this statement was made, the whole audience was in an uproar, just taking a pulse could even diagnose what the patient ate, fake, right?

Lin Mo nodded and sighed slightly, "Your body today is like a time bomb, once it detonates you'll die."

This diagnosis of his was so powerful that the middle-aged man could hardly end it for a while.

“This

“Little sir is there some misunderstanding in it, look at my hard bones, how could I be in danger!”

He said as he bent up his arms to show his strong body.
