Chapter 2771

Seeing that Lin Mo was so disrespectful, Ai Weiwei finally lost his patience, and the feeling of heartiness at the beginning dissipated in this.

“There are a lot of people who don’t give me face, but there aren’t many who can live!

Plus this account of touching my man, now let’s settle it properly!”

Since softness is not an option, let’s do it the hard way, the melon that is twisted is not sweet but it quenches the thirst!

As soon as the words left his mouth, a dozen of guards behind Avis’ face shook, their palms already pressed against the hilt of their swords.

The dinner party, which was still relaxed, suddenly became tense, and the surrounding guests even dodged away from the place.

“This kid is finished, relying on the Sixth Prince’s care, he dares to take on the Second Princess.”

“Who says otherwise, to be coveted by Her Highness Avis is something we can’t even envy, but I never thought this kid would be so insensitive.”

What was originally envy had now transformed into mean-spirited mockery.

As for Lin Mo, he was also ready to fight at any time, as long as the other party dared to take a step forward, he would definitely let him die on the spot.

It was in this tense atmosphere that neat footsteps were heard from outside the hall! When the crowd turned their heads, they saw the Sixth Prince Gadre arriving in full jeweled regalia, and all the guests gave way.

After he arrived on the scene, he first nodded towards Lin Mo, and then faced Second Princess Avis with an ingratiating smile.

“Second royal sister! Come here for a moment!”

Avis knew that Lin Mo was Sixth Brother’s guest of honour, it was just that although she was brash and capricious but she also knew how to maintain the face of the royal family, so when Jiade Lie called her, Avis simply grunted and followed Sixth Brother to the side.

“Second sister, this Lin Mo’s identity is not simple, if there is no deep hatred, let’s forget about this matter!”

Although she was not qualified to fight for the throne, she was the most favoured by her father, and not only Jiade Lie, but also the other princes had to lick the second princess.

Avis looked askance and spoke indifferently, “Is he Lin Mo not simple? What makes this princess simple?”

As a princess of a country, Avis had her own arrogance.

“My good sister, Lin Mo is very close to the Martial Alliance of China, and he is also the new Medical Saint of China, my brother-in-law still needs his help with his daughter-in-law’s persistent illness!”

“Sister Wang, give your brother face, let’s forget about this matter!”

Avis wasn’t stupid, the sixth prince had even brought his men here, he was obviously determined to help Lin Mo, if he insisted on finding trouble with Lin Mo, their sister and brother would only make a mess and let outsiders look at them as a joke!

“Like this?”

She hesitated for a moment, “Fine, then I’ll give you face, second sister.”

“Go back with this lady!”

Only then did Jade Lie sigh with relief, if this second sister of his and Lin Mo had gotten into a fight, his previous plans would have been all messed up.

But looking at his second sister, it was obvious that this matter would not be resolved so easily.

Hey, this is a mess!

At this time, the guests who were originally planning to watch the hilarity were disappointed and secretly shocked at the same time. They did not expect the sixth prince to personally come over to coordinate for this Lin Mo’s sake.

After dealing with his second sister, Jade Lie said hello to Lin Mo.

“Mr Lin, I haven’t finished my business over there, so excuse me for a moment, we’ll have a drink later.”

He was not pretending to be arrogant, he had just been discussing cooperation with Tong Hai and other world-class giants, and after learning of Lin Mo’s side of the trouble, Jade Lie hastily interrupted the negotiations.

Chapter 2772

Bai Shao’er had just experienced a heart-stopping scene and was just now coming back to her senses.

“Lin Mo, what exactly did you do ah?”

Lin Mo didn’t explain too much to Bai Shaoer, he just said that the Sixth Prince and himself were a bit pretentious, and put off the moment.

On the other hand, Zai Baiha had cleared all the snake venom from his face at this time, and although it was still visibly swollen, there was no longer any danger to his life.

The first thing he wanted to do after he was cured was to seek revenge on Lin Mo, if it wasn’t for this man, how could Avis have been disgusted with him?

However, he had come out in a hurry and had only prepared a highly poisonous golden-ringed snake, and now he could not take any more means to deal with Lin Mo.

“Which one of you has brought Five Poison Scatter or Three Step Pour?”

The few great witch doctors in front of him hurriedly shook their heads in panic when they heard this question.

Are you kidding! If the guards found out that they had brought such a poisonous substance to the banquet, they would have to be shot for either deliberately murdering the guests or murdering the royal family.

Zat Baikha also reacted at this point, if it weren't for the fact that he himself was the son of the Minister of Border Affairs, and the Second Princess's connections, his golden-ringed snake would not have been brought in.

“All right, what about the rest of the enchantments and such?”

It was only at this point that one of the great witch doctors' eyes lit up.

“Young Master Zat, I have a bottle of rosemary here, it can make people confused and lose their mind after taking it, I wonder if you can use it.”

Seeing that there was no better option, Zat Baikha could only reluctantly accept the rosemary incense, even if he could not understand Lin Mo's life, he would still make this man lose face.

“Lin Mo's side is now on guard against me, plus it is not good for me to go out.

Since the rosemary incense comes from your hand, you will do it for me

.....

The ball was coming to an end, the dinner was about to start, and all the guests in this matter were seated one after another.

The first floor of the luxurious private room, at this time bandaged half of the face of the Zat Baikha, is respectfully wait at the side of the second princess full of gloom, just now the sixth prince came to coordinate the commotion so much, Zat Baikha naturally also received the news.

“Your Highness, I have already arranged for manpower, although I cannot kill this D*mn Lin Mo, I can still make him lose face into it.”

With that said Zat Baikha's gaze fell on the crowded ground floor hall.

As long as the great witch doctor got his hands on him, under the effect of the rosemary incense, Lin Mo's female companion would definitely be in a scandalous state by then!

In the midst of the crowd, a small, thin man slowly leaned towards Lin Mo, but of course his target was not Lin Mo.

Because Zat Baikha had warned him that Lin Mo's medical skills were not low, and if he directly attacked him, he would probably be recognized.

“Excuse me!”

After being hit by someone, Bai Shaoer was subconsciously about to turn her head to see who was so unfaithful, however, by the time she locked eyes with the other party, a faint white powder suddenly appeared in front of her eyes, and in just one breath, she felt dizzy.

After Lin Mo sensed her abnormalities, he hurriedly came to Bai Shaoer’s side to hold her up.

“What’s wrong with you?”

With this sudden change, someone must have made a move.

As Lin Mo thought of this, his gaze darted around, while the young great witch doctor who had wielded the rosemary incense did not manage to flee the scene at first due to the crowd, and due to his weakness, he averted his eyes in panic after a glance with Lin Mo.

And this display of his weakness naturally fell into Lin Mo’s eyes.

“Did you do it?”

Without waiting for the other party to reply, Lin Mo held Bai Shao’er with one hand and grabbed the other party’s wrist with the other hand, seeing the small porcelain bottle in this person’s hand, he frowned.

“Rosemary!”

Chapter 2773

The young great witch doctor couldn’t help but panic in his heart as he looked at Lin Mo’s icy cold eyes.

“What are you going to do? I’m telling you, I’m one of Zaat’s people, if you dare to touch me, Zaat will not spare you.”

“Don’t know what to do! Zat Baiha is really lucky, he was bitten by a golden ringed snake and still hasn’t died!”

After Lin Mo finished using force in his hand and removed the wooden stopper from the small porcelain vase, he directly shoved it into the mouth of the terrified-looking great witch doctor.

“Blah, blah, blah”

After Lin Mo had done this, he turned around and began to check Bai Shaoer’s condition, for the rosemary that bothered him was not considered a poison, so the antidote did not have any effect at all.

Seeing that Bai Shao’er’s mind had already fallen into a coma, he directly inserted them into the latter’s heavenly spirit cover, and a continuous stream of spiritual qi began to remove the residual rosemary incense from Bai Shao’er’s body under the guidance of the Xuan needles.

Although this method was risky, and if one mistake was made, Bai Shao’er would probably be paralysed, this was already the best way to deal with the situation, and under Lin Mo’s careful manipulation, sweat began to seep out from Bai Shao’er’s body.

“Cough cough cough!”

With a sharp coughing sound, Bai Shao'er woke up leisurely.

“Lin Mo, why are you here, where are we?”

This was the after-effects of the rosemary, although she had woken up, she experienced a brief period of disorientation, but of course it was not a big trouble, it would heal with some rest.

“It's nothing, you haven't eaten for too long, you might have fainted from hunger!”

Lin Mo made a casual excuse and helped Bai Shaoer walk to the VIP room to rest.

The young witch doctor behind him had also woken up at this time, only his face was red and his eyes were mad, when he saw the noblewoman beside him, he reached out and tugged at the other party.

“Come on, pretty girl come and dance!”

The other party was naturally shocked by the sudden grabbing by the stranger.

“Ah, who are you, pervert!”

The woman reprimanded and drew back her arm, backhanding her with a slap, only the young witch doctor's whole being was even more exhilarated after being hit, since she was dancing to the party's music on her own hands.

When Avis on the first floor saw this scene, he was so angry that he broke into a cursing fit.

“Zat Baiha, you're the means by which you said you'd get back at Lin Mo, is that it?”

As her finger pointed in the direction, the young witch doctor had already started to undress by now.

Zat Baikha was also embarrassed, although the configuration of rosemary was simple, the antidote needed was different depending on the ingredients of the blend, this was also the source of his confidence, however what he never expected was that this Lin Mo had easily solved it with just three silver needles.

And the main thing was that the witch doctor he had sent out had even been hit himself.

By the time Zat Baiha looked again, the young witch doctor had by now begun to excitedly provoke a striptease, and the scene around him began to become panicked because of this bizarre move.

“Your Highness, this

Zat Baiha tried to explain, however he couldn't really think of any excuse.

“What, no more words are you, you are a waste yourself and your men are also a waste.”

After scolding angrily, Avis turned around and left the room, while behind him, his face still wrapped in bandages, this Zat Baiha could only follow bitterly.

At the same time, Jiade Li, who had finished discussing the matter, also took in what was happening on the ground floor.

“This Lin Mo is really good at healing!”

Jia De Lie had just talked to Tong Hai Hai about Lin Mo’s treatment of the latter not long ago, and now that he had seen Lin Mo’s swift treatment with his own eyes, he could not help but be even more amazed.

And beside him, Tege also followed the Sixth Prince’s words and said, “Indeed, Rosemary Solanum is not a highly poisonous substance.”

“But the antidote used is also very different because of the means used by the medicine man to make it and the ingredients that are not used.

It is not easy for this Lin Mo to cure his female companion with just three medical needles.”

Jiade Lie nodded while he had a plan in mind.

Chapter 2774

Because of the young witch doctor’s ‘striptease’, the banquet on the ground floor had become a chaotic mess, and what should have been an elegant and noble dinner party had become like a vegetable market.

Gadrei’s brow was furrowed as he watched this.

“Go and get this disgraceful thing out of here, and tell Zat Baiha to get out of here if he doesn’t want to attend the king’s dinner, and don’t blame me for not letting him be decent if he makes a mess again.”

When Teg had gone to the door, Gadre had added.

“Go and invite Lin Mo here, and tell her I have a personal matter for her.”

He was already completely sure of Lin Mo’s medical skills after the white wolf and the immediate incident with Rosemary.

Teg received the order and quickly rushed to the hall, and with a wave of his outstretched hand, five guards directly behind him surrounded the young witch doctor of Shi Le Zhi.

“Are you all here to dance together too?”

By the time the self-indulgent young witch doctor had finished, the only thing that responded to him was a rifle butt from the guards.

“Gentlemen, sorry for the laxity of the guard letting the madman slip in.”

“On with the music and on with the dance!”

As Tag’s words fell, the young witch doctor was then dragged out of the hall by one foot of each of the guards, and as for the scene, stability was restored.

On this side of the resting room, Bai Shao’er had fully recovered after Lin Mo’s treatment, but her spirit was somewhat depressed due to the effects of the rosemary, and her whole body was drowsy.

Lin Mo took care of her while relieving her, "You don't need to worry, it's just an after-effect, rest for a while and you'll be fine."

Bai Shaoer wrapped herself tightly in the blanket brought by the attendant and nodded weakly, her heavy eyelids slowly closing together.

Not long after, there was a knock on the door of the VIP room.

Lin Mo was not surprised to see Tag outside, as the Sixth Prince, who was the host of the party, would have sent someone over if there had been an accident.

As soon as Tag entered, he first asked with concern, "Mr. Lin, is your lady friend alright?"

Lin Mo shook his head, edging that there was nothing serious wrong.

"That's good, this matter was improperly supervised by us, on His Highness Gadre's side, he asked me to bring a gift to make amends."

Tege handed Lin Mo the gift box from the result of his men.

"A small token of appreciation, a small token of apology!"

Lin Mo did not push back, after all, Bai Shao'er was in trouble at their banquet, it was only right to receive a little compensation gift, it was indeed the other side's inadequate supervision, which was why they let someone bring something like rosemary into Peterborough.

And Peterborough as the Sixth Prince's residence, corner city his eyes, after Bai Shaoer was hit, this Tege only came out after nearly twenty minutes, the time of this is ambiguous.

"Sixth prince next time if you want to test me just say so directly, although rosemary on what big effect, but the aftermath is still quite troublesome."

When Tag heard this, his face looked embarra*sed, then immediately returned to normal.

"Mr. Lin's medical skills are second to none, so how could we doubt it.

It's just that there are too many things going on at the dinner party, so I can take care of it at once!"

Tiger secretly sighed in relief, it was too tiring to communicate with such smart people, any hint would be detected by the other party, but since Lin Mo had already accepted the gift box, it meant that he no longer counted on Prince Di Jia De Lie's temptation.

"Mr. Lin, since Miss Bai Shaoer is not in any serious condition, you might as well have your servant take him to his room to rest.

In addition, His Highness Gadrei has some personal matters for you to help me with over there, and would like to invite you over for a personal interview."

Lin Mo nodded, "Fine, I'll trouble you then!"

He also had many requests for reports that he needed to confirm with Gadrei, and that was the reason he had come to Peterborough for the dinner.

As the underlings took Bai Shao'er to rest, Lin Mo also went to Gadre's study with Tege.

Chapter 2775

The Sixth Prince's extravagance was notorious throughout the entire Wanxiang Kingdom, and it could be said that no one knew about it.

Even the major powers of Daqu. Even the major powers of Great Qu were well aware of this.

As the Sixth Prince's study, there was no need to say anything more about the level of luxury.

The room, covering an area of almost five thousand square feet, occupied almost the entire floor. The bookshelves are more than just decorative, they are all ancient books collected by the Sixth Prince's forces from all over the world, and many of the books are even unique.

There were books on history, medicine, humanities, society, warfare and so on, it was a small library.

Lin Mo looked at this spectacular scene in front of him and couldn't help but feel a sense of emotion.

"It seems that His Royal Highness is also a lover of books!"

Without waiting for Tag to reply, a voice came from a bookshelf not far away.

"Mr. Lin has over-complimented you, these books are just decorative items for the king, usually to decorate the facade!"

Lin Mo knew that this was a modest remark from the other party, many of the books along the way had left light yellow marks, marks that would only be left if they had been flipped through often.

And as the words fell to the ground, Jiade Lie slowly stepped forward to Lin Mo's body.

"I have been hearing about Brother Lin Mo's great reputation for some time now, and today I finally meet him in person."

"Meet me, this King Jia De Lie!"

At this moment, Jia De Lie was the complete opposite of the extravagant image that usually appeared in the public eye, at this moment, he was dressed in a plain robe, although ordinary, but overflowing with a strong bookish aura, coupled with those handsome cheeks, he was living the image of an ancient scholar.

Gadre waved his hand, and Tege's Tege at the side exited the room in a soft voice as he complied.

"This way, Mr. Lin."

When the two of them arrived at the tea room in the corner of the study, Gadrei seated Lin Mo on a solid wooden seat made of golden-beige wood, while he himself took the purple sand tea set that he had been raising for a long time.

"I didn't expect that His Highness, the Sixth Prince, who is known to be extravagant and lustful, would be so elegant in private."

Lin Mo did not expect that the private Jia De Lie would look like this, words can deceive people, but not temperament, like Jia De Lie such a strong literary temperament, must have been cultivated from the beginning.

He didn't think Lin Mo would speak so bluntly, but he didn't care, and his hands continued to clean the tea set methodically.

"One can't be perfect! A royal family is as deep as the sea!"

This was something Lin Mo agreed with. The royal battle had been predetermined from the moment Gadrei landed, either he would fight for the throne or be exiled or executed by his brothers.

And the most perfect one was bound to be the target of a host of brothers' attacks.

It was only to Lin Mo's surprise that this Jia De Lie had so touted his old ways when they first met.

"Your Highness is generous, it is a taboo to talk about the depths of a shallow friendship."

Lin Mo finished his speech and looked at the other party quietly, waiting for the Sixth Prince's reply, however, Jiade Lie only smiled calmly.

"Mr. Lin, you are also a wise man, what my king has sought you out for is to cooperate, covering up will only cause a gap in each other's hearts.

Are you not, Lord Lin!"

The simple words unveiled the formal encounter between the two sides, and the phrase 'my lord' hinted at the identity of Lin Mo Zhen Yue's envoy.

This was also the reason why Jia De Lie could be so polite, the Zhen Yue amba*sador already had half a foot in the Martial Union, and as long as he didn't die in the middle of the process, he would be a giant in the future, so his status was worthy of him putting down his stance and communicating on an equal footing.

Lin Mo is not surprised by this, as a king's son if his intelligence ability is not, Lin Mo will only directly give up and his intention to cooperate with him, turn his head and leave.

Chapter 2776

"Indeed, I also think it's better to be frank."

Lin Mo changed the subject directly after a perfunctory sentence.

"Your Highness, the art of tea is exquisite, without more than ten years of cultivation you would never have reached such a level."

Jiade Lie smiled lightly, a faint smile of complacency appeared on his face at the mention of this matter: "I usually have nothing else to do, so this is my hobby!

"This tea is a unique and precious product of Wanxiang, only ten catties are produced each year, Lord Zhen Yue, please!"

After saying this, Jiade Lie pushed the cup of tea in front of Lin Mo's body.

Inside the tea room, the two of them did not get any valuable report after the initial verbal probing.

However, as a king's son, Jiade Lie was able to bend down and offer his tea personally, an act that Lin Mo had not expected.

Of course, the lower the posture of such a man, the greater his plans, and this was perfectly verified by the Sixth Prince's self-stained image.

The two of them chatted for a long time before Gadrei brought the conversation back to business.

"Brother Lin, the main reason I asked you to come here this time is that I need your help to solve a tricky problem."

With a single sentence, Jiade Lie brought the two of them a layer closer together.

Naturally, Lin Mo did not forget about the other party's words of "brother".

"Your Highness, if there is anything you want to do, just tell me, as long as I can help, I will help."

I can't help you if I can't help you. If you ask me to help you fight for the throne when we first meet, that's a joke!

After pouring tea for both sides again, Jiade Lie said.

"In this matter, it is really only Mr. Lin who can help."

"The king's concubine seems to be suffering from health problems and has not been able to conceive an heir, so this matter has troubled the king for a long time, so I would like to ask brother Lin to help."

"If you can resolve this at this time, the king will owe you a favour."

Compared to the monetary reward, the matter of favours was obviously more important, and what Lin Mo wanted side was this promise from the other party, and of course he did not immediately agree to it.

"Your Highness is very kind, without a diagnosis, I wouldn't dare to pack my bags!"

Upon hearing this, Jiade Lie instantly understood: "Brother Lin, wait for a moment!"

After saying this, he reached out and pressed the switch that shielded the listening device by the coffee table.

"The Crown Princess has been invited over!"

As his words fell, in just four or five minutes' time, there was a knock on the door outside the study.

As the door opened, Bai Yi Na wiggled her sexy figure and walked in, sending a secret glance at Lin Mo as she passed by him.

Lin Mo saw this sticky rice action of the princess and twisted his head while waiting with a look of interest and raised his eyebrows.

This in turn made Jiade Lie on one side blush with embarrassment.

“Nana, brother Lin side is the new medical saint of China that I told you about before.”

“Not an outsider!”

As he explained this, Bai Yi Na also reacted, and Jia De Lie’s deliberate emphasis on Lin Mo being one of his own was clearly so that she didn’t have to pretend anymore.

Baiina instantly blushed with embarrassment, and her surrounding aura changed to one of dignity and elegance, which was her most essential appearance.

Lin Mo, on the contrary, looked even more highly at this royal concubine, in order to cover up for her husband, the originally gentle and elegant beauty disguised herself as a flirtatious and provocative model, it was really hard for her.

“Your Highness need not mind, it is a blessing for His Highness that you have given so much to Prince Gadre.”

The awkwardness of the scene was relieved by his words.

Baiina glanced at Lin Mo with gratitude and nodded her head in greeting.

“Lord Lin, with his good speech and handsome looks, I don’t know how many girls he’s going to wreck!”

Lin Mo faced with the praise of the princess to is not modest, directly acquiesced, after all, people say is the truth, why to sophistry.

“Nana you say so by people I but to eat the wrong!”

Jia De Lie put his arm around the crown princess’s shoulders and gave Lin Mo a wild wave of dog food.

Chapter 2777

After exchanging pleasantries, the two sides got down to business again.

Lin Mo asked his servant to fetch a thin silk handkerchief and put it on the wrist of the princess, Baiina, which instantly won Jia Bai Lie’s favour.

Lin Mo but did not think that much, he was just purely taking into account the relationship between the two sides of the man and woman.

And as he finished probing the Crown Princess’ pulse, his face gradually became grave, and with such an expression, he made Jia Bai Lie, who was at the side, instantly tense up.

“Brother Lin, but is it very troublesome?”

Jia De Lie had always hoped that Bai Yi Na would bear him an heir, so that he could have an advantage in his bid for the throne.

Without an heir, even if he succeeds in the throne, if he dies, the throne will be passed on to his nephews, who will then be inundated with bloodshed.

The importance of the heir in the battle for the throne is thus clear.

Compared to Gadre's worries, Baina was much more open.

"Your Highness, if it is not possible, let's stick to our previous plan."

He looked at her gentle smile and his heart sank. Because of the matter of the heir, his beloved Lilia and Tege, and even Baiina, had offered to let him take another princess, but Gadre had never agreed.

"What a silly thing to say, even if I search the world for a healer, I will cure you, don't worry."

To take another princess would be to throw Baiyna into the fire, and there was no way Gadre would agree to that.

Just as the two of them were in love, Lin Mo coughed lightly.

"I haven't even said the diagnosis yet, and you guys are so desperate?"

She just felt that the hidden disease in the crown princess' body was just more troublesome to treat, not that there was no cure.

When Jiade Lie heard this, his eyes suddenly lit up, "Brother Lin, so there is hope for Nana's body to be cured?"

Lin Mo nodded, "There is naturally hope, it's just that it's more troublesome."

"Speaking of which, did the Crown Princess suffer from some kind of dark injury in the past, and her body is extremely cold, I observe that the Crown Princess' condition is not congenitally formed."

At these words, Jiade Lie and his wife looked at each other, and both of them saw the shock in the other's gaze.

Apart from the members of the royal family, only the physician who treated her knew about Baiina's health condition, and the former would not reveal this until it was absolutely necessary, considering the face of the royal family, while the latter's grave was a meter high if they dared to talk about it.

Lin Mo was able to know the general condition of the patient simply by checking his pulse, which was like giving the two couples a shot in the arm.

Jiade Lie said excitedly, "Brother Lin is right, Nana fell into the ice cave after hours and was in a coma for a whole week, perhaps this is the reason for the formation of the dark illness."

"You all kept the prescriptions of the other physicians, right?"

Gadre nodded, "Yes, I'll have someone bring them to you."

Soon after, the underlings carried a thick pile of documents to the study.

"His Highness is truly devoted to the Crown Princess!"

Lin Mo praised as he flipped through the documents, which not only contained all the medicines the princess had taken, but also all the doctors' treatment information and even the treatment process, which showed how much care Jiade Lie had taken for his wife.

With a smile on his face, he gently stroked Baiina's hair with a look of endless tenderness in his eyes.

In her seat, Baines looked at her husband with a sweet smile.

Chapter 2778

After spending nearly two hours, Lin Mo finally went through all the information, and he did so in order to find out the medication that the princess had taken before.

What made Lin Mo laugh and cry was that the Princess had taken a large number of earthly remedies when she was treated before, which had caused her pulse to be extremely disordered and her body was full of all kinds of spiritual medicines, which made the treatment even more difficult.

And in the process of flipping through it, one of the partial prescriptions caught Lin Mo's attention in particular.

"Extract the heart blood of a hundred male babies born at the time of Yang, after taking it for a hundred days, it can cure the condition of the Crown Princess."

Lin Mo pulled this document out and asked curiously, "Your Highness this partial recipe, why haven't you tried it?"

Jiade Lie suddenly smiled awkwardly as he read the contents of the document.

"Those witch doctors all suggested that I adopt this method, saying that the heart blood yang energy of male children born at the Yang time is the most vigorous.

In this way the cold energy in Nana's body can be dispelled."

"But let's not talk about whether this method works or not, even if I did get Nana pregnant, it would still be a life loss for the child.

And if I adopt this remedy, what will the people of Wanxiang think of me.

I don't want to get a reputation for being inhumanly brutal."

This was an extinct remedy that Jia De Lie would not likely adopt as a last resort.

Lin Mo nodded secretly after listening to the Sixth Prince's explanation, if the other party really used this prescription, then there would be no need for the two sides to chat further.

"I have seen all the prescriptions and treatment procedures, if you want to treat the Crown Princess' body, you must first cleanse her body of all those residual miscellaneous tonic pills."

"After completing this step, the side has to use volcanic rocks that have been deposited for over a hundred years as the main medicine."

The miscellaneous tonic residues in Baiina's body not only could not give her any healing effect, but in the long run, it would even endanger her life, so in order to cure Baiina's dark illness, these things must be cleared out of her body first.

The main reason why Baiina had not been able to conceive a child was that too much cold energy had accumulated in her body, and this cold energy had seriously affected her body.

It was unheard of for Jia De Lie to use a rock to cure a disease, so he could not help but feel that it was a bit unbelievable.

“Brother Lin, does it have to be volcanic rocks?”

Lin Mo returned with a serious face with an unquestionable tone, “This is the most suitable and convenient method.”

“Thinking of blazing sun flowers, fire velvet gra*s, noon fire trees and the like would naturally work, but most of these things are extinct, so if you can find them, it would naturally be best.”

The more he listened to Lin Mo’s description, the more shocked he was. He had naturally read about the Flaming Sun Flower and the Flame Velvet Gra*s in his medical books, and he had also mobilized his forces to collect these two herbs, but there was no trace of these extinct species.

As for the Noon Fire Tree, Jia De Lie had not even heard of it.

When he thought of this, his brow furrowed: “What do you think, Princess?”

Baiyina smiled gently and nodded her head.

“Your Highness, we’ve tried so many methods, it’s not as bad as this one.

And I believe in Lord Lin’s medical skills!”

Although Lin Mo was young, from this treatment process, Baiina could see that Lin Mo’s medical skills were extraordinary, as she was able to know the condition of her body just by checking her pulse, and his knowledge of pharmacology was also very rich, such a person was much more reliable than those great witch doctors.

Baina’s words also gave Gadrei confidence.

“Brother Lin, I’ll trouble you over there!”

There was no harm in giving it a try!

After Jiade Lie had made his decision, he immediately sent his men to make preparations.

Chapter 2779

After arranging his men, Gadre led Lin Mo to a special treatment room with his own royal concubine.

“Anyone who excels without our orders will be killed!”

At the order, hundreds of armed guards stood at attention.

Baina was not only his beloved, but also a competitor for the throne, so he could not afford not to take it seriously!

“Mr. Lin Mo, let us begin! I’ve asked my men to prepare the volcanic rocks.”

Lin Mo nodded before taking out the Doktor Nine Needles, before he did so, in order to prevent the two of them from worrying, he made it clear in advance.

“Crown Princess Baiyina, later on I am going to channel out the residual messy medicinal residue in your body by bleeding it out, there will be a period of weakness during this process, but you and Your Highness don’t need to worry, it won’t have any effect on your health.”

Bai Yi Na and Jia De Lie looked at each other, and after both of them nodded, Lin Mo then proceeded to do so.

Lin Mo first placed the Princess’s hands flat on the table, and then, in order to prevent the Princess from dodging in pain, Lin Mo directly nudged Bai Yi Na’s acupuncture points.

As Jiade Lie watched, Lin Mo’s fingertips flicked and Bai Yi Na’s entire body came to a complete standstill, except for her ability to blink, she could not move her body.

After fixing Bai Yi Na, Lin Mo took out the Ji Ducuo Nine Xuan Needles, two needles fell on her shoulders, two on her knees, and the other five were stabbed into her back, corresponding to the five organs.

As Lin Mo continuously injected his aura into Bai Yi Na’s body through the Xuan needles, the latter’s skin gradually began to turn blood red. When Jia De Lie saw his beloved concubine’s face in pain, he could not help but also become nervous, his eyes constantly glancing at Lin Mo.

“Your Highness doesn’t need to worry, these medicinal dregs have remained in Your Highness’s body for many years, and if you want to completely dispel them, you must go through this process.”

The medicinal properties had penetrated deep into the bones and blood, and it was naturally painful to disperse them.

By the time Lin Mo finished explaining, Bai Yi Na’s hands had already started to fill with blood and the surface of her skin was gradually taking on a dark red colour.

At this time, Lin Mo once again took out a silver needle, and with a flash of residual shadow, dark red blood instantly seeped out from the tip of Bai Yi Na’s index finger that was placed on the table.

“This is the medicinal poison that is often said to be among the three poisons of medicine, the Crown Princess has taken too many tonic pills over the years, and naturally there is more medicinal poison accumulated in her body.”

In order to prevent the two of them from worrying, Lin Mo explained while treating them, and at that moment Bai Yi Na’s face also began to gradually pale.

Without waiting for Jiade Lie to ask a rhetorical question, Lin Mo once again took out a tonic medicine.

“Your Highness, give this medicine to Your Highness.”

In the process of handing over the medicine Lin Mo added another sentence.

“This is a blood-making pill, it will prevent the Crown Princess from losing too much blood.”

Without any hesitation, Jiade Lie directly gave the blood-making pill to Bai Yi Na.

After the Sixth Prince had waited anxiously for almost an hour, the blood that kept oozing out of the Crown Princess' fingertips finally ceased to be mixed with dark red as well.

In the process of bleeding, Lin Mo had to maintain the output of his spiritual power, constantly removing the dregs of the medicine from the Princess' body, and this was a delicate task.

By the time Lin Mo had finished removing the nine Xuan needles from Bai Yi Na's body, he was already sweating profusely.

"The step of removing the pill dregs is complete, the next step is to remove the cold Qi from the Crown Princess' body."

After saying that, Lin Mo unlocked the acupuncture points of the Crown Princess.

Jiade Lie rushed forward and asked with concern, "Nana, how are you feeling?"

Bai Yi Na had just finished letting out a large amount of blood, and at this moment, she was also weak.

"Your Highness, don't worry, I'm a little weaker but my body is indeed extraordinarily relaxed!"

Even she herself had not expected that with the massive loss of blood, he would instead feel a host of indescribable relief, as if the original heavy burden on his shoulders had suddenly dropped.

He was also relieved to see his face full of relief; this treatment was indeed a bit of a grind.

Chapter 2780

By the time Lin Mo's side was finished with the process, Jiade Lie's men had also prepared all the materials needed.

"Medical Sage Lin, take a look and see if these volcanic rocks meet the requirements.

If not, I still have a pair of men running to the thousand-year old dead volcano in the Japanese country, but there's still a little longer to wait."

When he finished speaking, a row of boxes full of volcanic rocks were neatly placed within the room, over a hundred years old, over two hundred years old, three hundred years old and so on, as long as the volcanic rocks could be taken, they were all collected by Jiade Lie's men.

This made Lin Mo feel that the rich and powerful were different.

"Remember these, the ones with too high a vintage will not be able to be carried by the Crown Princess' body."

Lin Mo originally only intended to use volcanic rocks that were over a hundred years old, but now there were so many reddish selectable rocks in front of him just for him to make a good selection in conjunction with the Crown Princess's body condition.

Ten minutes later, Lin Mo's stood up and picked up a piece of volcanic rock the size of an adult's fist in his hand.

"This is the one, the rest will be laid at the bottom of the hot spring, Your Highness and Your Highness will soak in it together, and I will then apply needles to regulate your bodies!"

Although Jiade Lie still had doubts about the stone healing, but now that it had still come to this point, he no longer dwelled on it and directly put all these dozen boxes of volcanic rocks into the artificial hot spring.

After filtering the ash from the soup, Lin Mo added a dozen of herbs prepared in advance to precipitate out the heavy metals and neutralise the toxic ingredients.

After half an hour of work, Lin Mo finished making the soup, and by then the sixth prince and the princess had also finished preparing it.

"You two take this bowl of medicine first!"

Jia De Lie looked at the golden vessel handed over by Lin Mo with a blank expression, "Brother Lin, I have to drink this too?"

The only one with a hidden illness was the Crown Princess, so what was the point of him following the treatment and drinking the medicine together?

Lin Mo shook his head with a bitter smile: "The king consort's cold qi is only used to concentrate in the lower palace, during your usual cloud and rain, the cold qi is then conducted through your lower body and then freezes to death your hundreds of millions of descendants..."

Jiade Lie saw that Desu was getting more and more revealing rushing to interrupt the conversation, "Brother Lin, I understand, stop it, I'll drink!"

After taking a glance at his already red-faced consort, he took the vessel and tilted his head to drink the medicinal juice directly from it.

Lin Mo looked at his anxious look and secretly groaned in his heart, it would have been better to cooperate like this earlier, wasting so much of his saliva.

Lin Mo waited until Bai Yi Na had also taken the medicinal juice, and then instructed.

"You guys soak in the hot spring for an hour first, wait until the yang energy has penetrated deep into your body, then I will apply the needles!"

After Gadre had taken the medicine, his head began to sweat for just a short while, and as the sweat beads continued to seep out of his body, he gradually felt the warmth in his body begin to fill his limbs, a feeling of pleasure that had not been felt for a long time, as if all the pores of his body had been opened.

"Your Highness, I can feel it, the cold energy in my body is slowly dissipating eh."

Baina, who had been afraid of the cold since she had fallen into the ice as a child, now felt the heat emanating from her body, a feeling she hadn't experienced in a long time.

Looking at his wife's flushed face and the tiny beads of sweat on her forehead, he began to believe Lin Mo's proposal for a rock cure.
