

Genius 2781

Chapter 2781

The Peterborough dinner is still going on, the original should be on the stage to speak to Gadrei because of Lin Mo's arrangements into the hot springs, the speech is replaced by Tege.

"Welcome to the dinner party, as His Highness is currently busy, he is unable to attend, so please eat well and drink well ....."

The dinner is boring and takes a lot of effort to set up, but this kind of appearance is necessary from time to time, and guests can also use such a party to find partners, and if they are lucky enough to reach a partnership with the royal family, that would be great too!

Outside the jovial scene, Zat Baikha hurriedly found the Second Princess after receiving news from Gabrielle's side.

"Your Highness, something big is wrong."

Avis was still angry at the moment, and when she saw Zat Baiha burst through the door, she chided impatiently, "What's all the fuss about?"

"My men have received news that Lin Mo has fooled Princess Baiina and His Highness Gadrei into using rocks to cure their illnesses, saying something about volcanic rocks.

How can rocks cure diseases?"

"If this matter is exposed, how will the world treat the Sixth Prince and what will the world think of the royal family."

These words were like pouring oil on a fire, making Avis, who was already angry, instantly furious.

"Jia De Lie said earlier that this Lin Mo's medical skills were unparalleled, I thought it was true, but it turns out that I was just fooled."

She had been upset before because of Gadre's appearance, using her own royal concubine's body as an excuse to hold Lin Mo he had been upset.

But because Bai Yi Na's hidden disease of infertility was Jia De Lie's demon, whoever stood in the way of Bai Yi Na's hope of being cured, Jia De Lie would definitely fight for his life.

And who knows who will be the next king of the kingdom, and if he were to offend him completely, he would be killing himself.

It was only then that Avis didn't go straight into a rage, and now that the opportunity to take revenge on Lin Mo was right in front of her, how could she let it go.

"You go mobilize your men and follow me to kill this demonic quack."

Zat Baiha couldn't help the sly smile that surfaced on his face after hearing this, as Avis' professional lick ..... The second princess is still arrogant and vindictive, so before he came to her, he had already mobilized a large number of men.

"As you command, Your Highness!"

With Avis backing him up, he would have to kill Lin Mo to avenge his disfigurement.

In the back yard of Peter's Castle, no one was allowed to approach as Gadre had given the order to do so.

Countless guards were standing by, and all exits were heavily guarded.

"Who is it?"

With a loud shout from the captain, all the guards instantly raised their rifles in their hands and aimed at the entrance in unison.

With a flurry of dense footsteps, a group of men led by Avis arrived directly outside Gadre's private spa.

"Are you all blind, how dare you point your guns at His Highness Avis?"

Zat Baikha, in a false sense of authority, stepped forward and slapped the captain directly, while Gadre's guards were too angry to say anything and immediately withdrew their guns.

"Greetings, Your Highness!"

"Don't bother, you guys get out of my way, I'm going to find my sixth brother."

At these words, a group of guards instantly looked embarra*sed.

"Back to Your Highness, His Highness Gadrei has ordered that no one is allowed to enter here!"

He knew in his heart that with Avis's style of handling things, it was going to be a difficult day.

As luck would have it, the next second Avis reached out and landed another slap on his face.

"Dog, how dare you stop me when my sixth brother is being wrecked by a quack doctor.

Somebody shoot this ungrateful dog right in the face."

Chapter 2782

At Avis's command, Zat Baiha's men instantly raised their blackened guns and aimed them at the group of guards in front of them.

Seeing that the other side was trying to break in, the guards of Gadrei could not just take the matter in hand, they might die if they offended Avis, but if they disobeyed the orders of His Highness, they would certainly die.

In a moment, the guards guarding the door also immediately raised their guns.

"His Highness has ordered that no one is allowed to enter."

Hundreds of men shouted in unison, a sound that ran through the whole of Peter's Castle, and they did so not only to build up their own momentum, but also to alert their companions who had taken his place, as well as their own master, Gadre.

As the two sides were tense and confronting each other, a group of men arrived at the door.

"b****ds, put down your guns."

The man who came was none other than Third Prince Gabriel, and as he approached, he rewarded the captain of the guards with a third slap straight away.

"You don't know what you're doing, Her Highness is not something you can intimidate with your guns.

If the Second Princess breaks a piece of skin today, you will all lose your heads to the ground."

After the loud and clear sound, Gabrielle then began to persuade Avis.

"Sister, calm down, sooner or later I'm going to have Sixth Brother kill them all, they don't have a clue."

And after such a reprimand from him, the originally furious Avis had calmed down quite a bit at this point.

"Why wait until later, I'm going to slaughter them all today."

"Sister, this is not allowed, as the saying goes, even if you beat a dog, you have to look at the master, after all, they are Sixth Brother's people, we as older siblings can't make our younger brother lose face like this.

When Avis was persuaded by Gabrielle, he was instantly dumbfounded, mainly because what Gabrielle said was indeed reasonable.

If she were to execute these guards now, it would be difficult to explain to Gadrei.

When Zat Baikha saw the second princess's face torn, he said that it was not good, but he did not dare to intervene at this moment.

This man is not only good at enlisting people, but he is also very dark. He may be laughing and joking with you one minute, but he will stab you the next.

After hesitating for a moment, Avis asked reluctantly, "Should we let that quack doctor who cures people with stones plague Sixth Brother?"

Jiabailiu knew his sister's temper well, saying that he was worried about the Sixth Prince, but in reality, he just wanted to take revenge on Lin Mo.

"Sister, you also know about Sixth Brother's awful affair, we might as well wait until he finishes his treatment and see the results of it, before considering what to do with Lin Mo."

"Otherwise, with Sixth Brother's stubborn temper, this matter will not be easy to resolve."

After a full speech, Avis finally nodded with an angry look on his face.

At this moment, Jia Bai Luo also revealed his trademark smile, he also knew a little bit about Lin Mo's identity, and he rushed over to stop his sister in such a hurry, on the one hand, he did not want his own sister to offend Lin Mo too much.

On the other hand, he wanted to convey his attitude to Lin Mo and gain his goodwill. Of course, the reason why Jia Bai Luo asked his sister to wait until after the treatment was over was that he also had his own plans.

If Lin Mo cured the Sixth Prince, he would be pleased at both ends, but if Lin Mo could not cure the Sixth Prince, the cooperation between them would almost come to an end, and even if they continued to cooperate, there would be a gap, and it would be even better if Lin Mo directly killed the Sixth Prince with a stone.

Chapter 2783

Although the Sixth Prince had always been perceived as extravagant and lustful, so had Gabrielle, and because Baiina had never been able to conceive an heir, the other princes had let their guard down.

It was only when the Sixth Prince started to make a big show of finding a cure for his concubine that they realised they had been deceived, but the Sixth Prince was already in power and it was too late to deal with him.

If Lin Mo could kill the Sixth Prince, he would have lost a powerful rival for the throne.

And that was why he was here, he was the one who would benefit from the outcome, no matter what it was.

As for Avis, seeing that he couldn't move Lin Mo, he planned to wait for a while longer, waiting for Lin Mo, as Gabriele had said, while Zat Baiha, who was beside him, was so angry that he touched the scar on his face and then came up to Avis with a murderous look in his eyes.

"Your Highness, since we can't do anything to Lin Mo at the moment, we might as well take his female companion first to prevent Lin Mo from escaping."

When Avis heard this, her eyes lit up.

"That's right, since this woman is Demon Doctor Lin Mo's companion, she must also be a demon woman.

You send someone to take him down and burn him straight away, so as not to endanger my Wanxiang people."

Since he could not move Lin Mo for the time being, he could simply take out his female companion first.

However, just as Zat Baiha turned around and prepared to go forward to capture Bai Shao'er, Jiabailiou once again spoke out to stop him.

"Wait a minute!"

Avis' face turned ugly as he was repeatedly stopped by his own brother.

“What, this won’t work and that won’t work, I am the Second Princess of the Wanxiang Kingdom, can’t I still take action against a demon girl.”

Jia Bai slightly patiently explained, “Sister, there’s no rush to make a move first, think about what if Lin Mo really heals sixth brother.”

“At that time, when his side heals the sixth prince, and our side directly takes down someone’s female companion, what will the world think of us?”

At this point in the conversation, both sides understood the implications, if Avis really did this, when the time came, ungrateful, wolf heart and dog lung a bashing is inevitable, although he is a princess of a country, but can not control the thousands of mouths of Wan Xiang.

“Okay, let’s wait a little longer, by the time Lin Mo fails to cure Sixth Brother, you can’t be standing in my way, or I’ll have to turn the other cheek.”

The fact is that even he, as a younger brother, thought that Avis had an incredible IQ. If she could put the general idea of hunting for women on top of asking for a report on the formation, she would not have acted so rashly.

He thought of this, his gaze could not help but fall on the talkative Zat Baiha, but Zat and his glance, after seeing his face this calm smile, suddenly felt the back of the understanding, the circumference of the body can not help but hit a cold war.

In his haste, he had forgotten that he had encouraged Avis and had forgotten that the smiling third prince was present, and that it was usually not a good thing when he was in his thoughts.

The thought of this made Zat Baikha regret it.

Inside the hot spring, Second Prince Gadre heard the commotion outside the door and frowned.

Since he had only heard the shouts of his men and not the gunshots, it meant that the visitors were either his royal brothers or his still-sexual second royal sister.

He thought he had no temper!

However, just as Gadre was about to call for his men, Lin Mo, who was applying needles behind him, suddenly spoke up.

“Relax your nerves, don’t be distracted.”

This was a crucial stage in the treatment, if something went wrong then all the previous treatment would be wasted.

Chapter 2784

After hearing Lin Mo’s instructions, Jia Bai Lie could only suppress the anger in his heart for the time being and slowly closed his eyes.

He then shivered as a cold sensation spread throughout his body, and then felt a sudden shock to his previously depressed spirit, which was suddenly refreshed.

It was an urge he hadn't felt in a long time, and it was extraordinarily strong, but now that there were outsiders present, he could only bitterly suppress this long-lost stirring.

"Brother Lin has great skills!"

She could not help but blush when she saw the young Jia De Lie with his head held high after her eyes shifted down along his toned body.

Now that her bones had healed and the chill that had tormented her body for so long had disappeared, she was a little overwhelmed by her husband's agitation, which had secretly aroused her.

At this moment, she couldn't help but marvel at Lin Mo's medical skill. The dark disease that she had spent so much effort to solve was solved so easily by Lin Mo.

Lin Mo looked at the restless couple in front of him and did not say much, after all, it was after his own hands to adjust the body bones, the physiological reactions brought about by Lin Mo naturally also knew everything.

"Your Highness, the treatment is over, you guys discuss your conditions with each other, I'll go and rest for a while."

As the words fell to the ground, Jiade Lie and Lin Mo exchanged a glance before the two of them nodded to each other with a bad smile that all men knew.

"Brother Lin, I will personally set up a banquet later to thank you haha!"

The only thing that answered him was Lin Mo's back as he waved his hand and left.

"Concubine, then we ....."

Nowadays, Jia De Lie was not only stiffer and more energetic, he was even more excited at the thought of Bai Yi Na after she became pregnant.

"Nasty, this kind of place, how can we."

By the time Baiyna had sheepishly finished, her body was already in the arms of Gadre.

"The whole Peterborough metropolis belongs to this king, nowhere!"

At that moment, the only sound that remained in the entire spa room was Gadrei's cheerful laughter.

The few experts who had been protecting the Sixth Prince in the shadows understood what was going to happen next, and after pa*sing a signal to each other, they were about to prepare to retreat.

However, before they could get up, several black shadows suddenly attacked Lin Mo and Gadre with tongues of fire at an extremely fast speed.

"No, it's a rocket!"

After a cry of alarm, several dark guards, with red eyes, inspired the fastest speed to block in front of Jiade Lie's body.

As for Lin Mo's side, all that could be heard was a "Watch out!" The next second, a deafening explosion shot up into the sky!

"Protect His Highness!"

Outside the spa, the guards who had heard the commotion instantly turned red, not expecting such a massive explosion under such tight security, and most importantly, who would have thought that someone who was not afraid of death would dare to attack Peter's Castle.

At once, the forces of the Sixth Prince, who had been stationed nearby, instantly closed in on Peterborough.

And the captain of the guards outside the spa room spoke directly to them with red eyes.

"Third Prince, Second Princess, the two temples are as follows Peterborough is under an unknown attack, for your safety, please return to your rooms."

After saying that he immediately led his men and ran quickly to where the Sixth Prince was.

"By what right, this princess is going back."

The sudden explosion that had just been heard in scared Avis too, if she too had been attacked by such an explosion, how could she have survived, at this moment he rushed straight back to her castle, only there she could feel at ease.

Chapter 2785

"Sister, let's just listen to them and stay!"

Third Prince Gabrielle slowly explained when she saw Avis' frightened and puzzled face.

"Now that Sixth Brother has suffered an unknown attack somewhere, all of us present are suspects."

"What suspects, we didn't do this, so why should they be suspected."

In the face of any of Avis's brutality, Gabriele no Noh shook his head helplessly.

"Although this attack had nothing to do with us, they wouldn't think so, if something had happened to Rokuji.

You believe me, his guards would do anything."

Putting his heart in his mouth, if he himself had been attacked and killed, and no longer able to find the murderer, all the guards would surely be ordered by the royal family to be buried with him, which was what the Sixth Prince's guards were facing today, and where would they care so much if they were dying.

To touch them again at this time would be tantamount to seeking death.

After listening to his brother's explanation, Avis nodded in agreement, and then the group left the dangerous area at a fast pace and returned to their respective rooms.

"Spread out all your eyes and give me the investigation, I want to see what kind of idiot my Wanxiang royal family is that could do such a brainless thing."

Once the Sixth Prince died in the attack, their dying father would do anything, and none of them would be able to get away with it.

With this in mind, Gabrielle slapped the coffee table beside her with fury.

As for the spa, the whole room was covered in dust after the explosion.

The explosion killed several of his guards who were in front of him.

"Bring the attackers back to me, I will cut them into pieces."

Jiade Lie hissed with endless fury.

After the members of the secret guards received it, several of them moved instantly and disappeared from the spot in the blink of an eye, while shouts suddenly came from the side.

"Leave them alive and follow the trail!"

As the figure gradually emerged, Lin Mo's wretched appearance appeared in front of the crowd.

At this moment, his body was covered in clothes that had been blown into strips of fabric, and blood was still flowing from the wound on his puffy cheek.

When Jiade Lie saw Lin Mo in this state, he couldn't help but sigh with relief. Not only did Lin Mo have a great kindness to him for curing his illness, his status was even more special.

"Brother Lin, how are you?"

Lin Mo shook his head to indicate that he was fine: "It's just a little superficial injury."

Originally, in the face of the rocket attack, he was capable of dodging it, or at least he would not be in such a mess as he is now, but what he did not expect was that someone else would dare to attack him in Peterborough.

A dozen seconds later, the guards returned to their original position, with several of the attackers' arms and legs in their hands, and their jaws dislocated by the guards to prevent them from taking the poison themselves.

"Lord Lin, what should we do with these people."

As secret guards, they knew that since the people who wanted to attack the prince in this way must be dead soldiers, it was impossible to wait for them to get any useful information from their mouths, and torturing them would only be an act of labour.

Lin Mo also knew exactly what they were thinking, and amidst the puzzled gazes of the crowd, he spoke indifferently.

“Since I asked you to leave them alive, I naturally have a way to pry their mouths open!”

If he didn't have the means to do so, how could he go out and make a living?

And along with Lin Mo's words, the whole room, whether it was Jia De Lie or the nearly thousand guards, all looked at Lin Mo in disbelief.

The name of a deadly warrior, how could it be for nothing.

Chapter 2786

With the sound of a violent explosion in Peterborough, the armed forces under the Gadgeteer flag instantly sealed off the entire ten kilometre area around Peterborough, not to mention people, but any bird flying by would have to be shot down directly.

All the guests in the castle were controlled by Tagg and told to sit quietly where they were and not to move.

“What the hell is going on? We're the Sixth Prince's guests.”

“Come on, don't you have any idea how we got our invitations? We're still in the VIP room.”

“It could have something to do with the explosion, could it be that Peterborough was attacked?”

“It's not impossible, otherwise you see the way they look now, it's likely that something very big has happened.”

“We didn't do it, why should we be held hostage here.”

“Ours are all suspects until the matter is investigated, but I advise you to be honest.”

At these words, many people's eyes fell directly on the loaded guards guarding the door, and their aggressive appearance immediately made those who were full of complaints meekly shut their mouths.

In the backyard of Peter's Castle, shortly after Lin Mo had force-fed an elixir to the attacker, the man's originally steely gaze gradually became lax, and the look of struggle on his face relaxed completely.

“Were you sent here?”

At these words, all the people shook their heads, it was a fool's errand to ask from the mouth of such a dead soldier, but because of Lin Mo's status, those present did not say much, except for Jiade Lie who asked curiously.

“Brother Lin, they won't say anything!”

He knew this best, after all, he had many such deadly soldiers under him. If not for the strength of his own secret guards, who were able to take them down before they could chew the poison in their teeth, they would have been a solid body long ago.

“Your Highness, don't worry, I naturally have my own methods.”

Lin Mo said as he came in front of his attacker, and as he reached out with a squeeze to attach the man's dislocated jaw, the dead soldier slowly spoke with a mute expression and a stiff face.

"We ..... We were instructed by the Kong family."

Surprisingly, he actually opened his mouth! A look of disbelief instantly highlighted the faces of the crowd.

As for the other few companions of the dead soldier, their faces were filled with a look of horror, what kind of sorcery had this young man in front of him used that he could actually make his companions cooperate meekly.

Lin Mo looked around the circle and smiled lightly, the effect of the Disperse God Pill was specifically aimed at this kind of stiff-mouthed dead soldier in front of him.

He was still gathering evidence of the collusion between the Kong family and the True Religion, but he never expected the other side to take the lead.

"How did you get into the vicinity of Peterborough."

Gadre asked coldly as he stared at the deadly a*sailant. As the main camp, Gadre knew clearly how strict the armed guards around Peterborough were, not to mention such deadly soldiers, even ordinary pa*sers-by could not even get close to this side.

Yet the latter just shook his head mumblingly.

"I don't know, the orders we received said that someone would clear the way for us, and it would be enough for us to just kill the Sixth Prince and Lin Mo."

At these words, Jiade Lie couldn't help but feel a chill down his back, he didn't expect that several of his brothers would have reached out to the inside of his forces.

"Take down Fire Chop for me and bring him to me!"

The cold tone of his voice exuded an endless murderous spirit.

The hearts of the people present were shaken at these words, but everyone knew that the Sixth Prince was now angry, so talking too much at this time would undoubtedly be an act of seeking death.

Chapter 2787

He was the chief of the Sixth Prince's armed forces, and he was a member of his inner circle, and the fact that His Highness had ordered him to be taken down showed that he didn't trust him anymore.

After receiving the Vulcan Order from Jia Jia De Lieh, several secret guards left without any hesitation in a flash.

"Brother Lin, I'm sorry, this matter is the result of my men's negligence, I will come back to make amends to Brother Lin when I'm done with it."

Although Jiade Lie was angry, he still suppressed his anger and squeezed out a smile towards Lin Mo.

“Your Highness, get busy first!”

After Lin Mo greeted him, he followed his subordinates and left the place. He could understand how Jia De Lie felt at this time, no one could tolerate the presence of a mole in his own men, let alone the son of a king.

At the banquet, Tege was informed by the Sixth Prince that he had made up a random excuse to apologise to the guests, and then prepared a generous gift for all of them.

Although many of the guests were disgruntled by the unexplained pledge, they did not dare to speak more than they had to, seeing the serious atmosphere in Peterborough, and could only leave quickly with their hearts full of doubts. Only a few representatives of forces that had cooperation with the Kong family were invited to have tea.

By the time Lin Mo had finished treating his injuries and cleaning his wounds, it was already around one in the morning, and he had not fallen asleep at all.

After this attack, there was no way the Sixth Prince would let the Kong family continue to exist.

That night, there was constant gunfire in Peterborough.

Early the next morning, there was a knock on Lin Mo’s door, and the visitor was really Tegel, the beloved of Gadrei.

“Mr. Lin, His Highness has asked you to come over, saying that he has if to talk.”

At this moment, a bit of haggardness appeared on Tege’s face, obviously he had not slept all night either.

After Lin Mo walked out of the room, he found that the entire Peterborough had completely changed, the atmosphere that was originally lively had now become serious and quiet, and the air could smell the strong smell of blood.

“Your Highness, Mr. Lin Mo is here.”

Tege, who was leading the way, came to Gadre’s throne room and knocked gently on the door, and soon afterwards a dull sound came from inside the room.

“Come in!”

Waiting for an answer, Tag turned towards Lin Mo and said, “Mr. Lin Mo, His Highness is inside, I have important business to attend to, so I will not accompany you.”

After greeting him, he left the room with a quick step.

When Lin Mo walked into the room, he saw a gloomy-looking Jade Lie, whose original easygoing smile had disappeared without a trace.

“Brother Lin, come, please have a seat.”

“Sorry for making Brother Lin look ridiculous, I never thought that even my king’s most trusted men would have an inside job.”

Although all the armed members of Gadrei's banner had not yet been ranked, a number of people with evil intentions had already been uncovered from them.

Lin Mo didn't answer, he just quietly waited for the rest of the story, after such a big incident, it was already very good that Jiade Lie didn't jump into a rage, and after he had a rant, he would turn to the main topic.

"Brother Lin has called you here this time because he wants to discuss with you how to deal with the Kong family."

At the mention of the Kong family, a hint of murderous aura flashed through Jia De Lie's tone, and the fingers holding the teacup were also deformed from the excessive force.

Lin Mo was slightly stunned: "Wouldn't it be easy for Your Highness to slaughter the Kong family?"

Although the Kong family was famous in Da Qu, they were nothing more than ants in the face of the Sixth Prince, and if Jia De Lie gave the order, the whole family would disappear within a day.

However, at this moment, Jia De Lie sighed: "Mr Lin does not know, although Da Qu has changed its chaos, its xenophobia is very serious."

"If I were to directly dispatch troops to move the Kong family, there would be a lot of resistance from Da Qu."

Chapter 2788

Although the eight provinces of Da Qiu are chaotic and disorderly, they are not trying to annex other people's powers, but they are also wary of other powers annexing them. However, they are particularly united with foreign powers, such as Wanxiang, Zhenla and Hua.

But whenever forces or armed forces from other kingdoms entered Daqo, after all, they were subject to fierce sniping from all sides.

This is where Gadrei's fears come into play. It is easy to deal with the Kong family, but if the Ding family or other superpowers hiding behind the scenes were to join forces, Gadrei would not dare to say that he would be able to stand up to them 100%.

On the other hand, there is also the Chinese state. No matter how chaotic Da Qu is, it is still nominally a Chinese territory, so if the armed forces are mobilised on a large scale, it is likely to arouse the discontent of the Chinese side.

After the Sixth Prince's explanation, Lin Mo suddenly understood.

"Does His Highness mean to say that I should take action?"

Jiade Lie nodded indifferently, "I can't stretch my hand too far without handling the anti-Daju within, so I still have to trouble Brother Lin in this matter."

"Of course, in terms of supplies, Brother Lin, whatever you need, just mention it to me, as long as I have it, I will definitely satisfy you."

Lin Mo smiled bitterly, "Your Highness, you are not doing this properly!"

Jiade Lie's face showed helplessness, "I can't help it, the rules of the game are like this, even I can only obediently comply."

"Besides, as you know, I have a mole under me now and I am already unable to take care of myself.

If any more accidents occur, I might have to lose all my old capital."

Although this attack was led by the Kong family, one could guess with one's knees that there must be a member of the royal family behind the scenes, otherwise no one else would have the ability to reach into his Jade's power.

Lin Mo also had his suspicions about this, but it was a matter for their royal family, not for himself.

"All right, I'll make a list of what I need and give it to Lilia or Teg.

When I do, I will send a signal to Your Highness."

"My king understands, when the time comes I will have someone cooperate with Brother Lin's actions."

"Alright then, remember that Your Highness owes me two favours, you'll have to return them later haha."

Jiade Lie could only shake his head helplessly as he looked at Lin Mo with a bad smile on his face.

"Brother Lin, it's a pity that you don't go to a treacherous business."

The Kong family already had an unending conflict with Lin Mo before, and now that he had slaughtered the Kong family, he actually still owed Lin Mo a favor, which gave the whole thing. However, this could not be helped, who let Jia De Lie's forces not dare to enter Da Qu on a large scale, and if they wanted to destroy the Kong family as soon as possible, they could only let Lin Mo, the nominal 'illegitimate son' of the Da Qu Zhao family, deal with it.

Faced with the Sixth Prince's joke, Lin Mo pretended to ponder, and then nodded in agreement.

"Your Highness's suggestion is not a bad one, in the future if I can't make it anymore, I will consider becoming a treacherous merchant."

Along with the duo's joke's, the plan of action to slaughter the Kong family slowly began to take shape.

.....

The story is divided into two parts.

The first of these is the one in which the family's family is being destroyed.

"No news from there yet?"

The Kong Li in front of him was already trembling in his heart, how much fake wine had his own father drunk when he struck out against Prince Wanxiang.

"Father, if we fail, the Kong family will be dead and buried."

Kong Jingtian's eyes landed in anger, if he wasn't his own son, he would have kicked her out long ago.

"What do you know, even if we don't make a move against them, Lin Mo and that Jia De Lie will make a move against our Kong family's."

"It's called striking first, and, and even if the operation fails, that Jiade Lie still dares to mobilise his troops to destroy our Kong family."

Although he spoke very stiffly, he was weak-minded.

Chapter 2789

Time went back half a month ago.

At that time, Kong Jingtian was still upset about stealing the Ding family's treasure and was on tenterhooks all day, fearing that the Ding family would strike at them, yet everything changed after the arrival of a black-robed man.

"Kong Jingtian the end of your Kong family is near."

When Kong Jingtian heard that the other party had already come to his door with such D*mning words, he directly intended to blow him out, but before he could say anything, the person came and said his fate.

"If you offend the Ding family, the big deal is to compensate for the profit you made from the treasure under the sea.

But you should not have been a wallflower, licking the Sixth Prince while secretly having an affair with the True Family."

The two of them have been working together in secret, and the Kong family usually has Wu Daoyi out to carry out arms deals and shipments in addition to negotiations, but the man in front of him knew about it. The man in front of him knew about it.

"The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

"You think you're doing it unnoticed, but you forget that it's impossible for those thinly-held industries under your Kong family name to support your entire family's huge spending."

"The Wu family and you are very close personal friends, plus the Wu family has been smuggling arms, do you really think that the people being are all fools?"

When Kong Jingtian heard this, his heart trembled, yet he still had a fluke in his heart.

"You are sent by the Wu family aren't you, it must be that b*****d Wu Daoyi who has been complaining that his side's share is too small.

So he sent you to blackmail me, just your little schemes and tricks won't deceive me."

The black-robed man smiled coldly, "Kong Jingtian, if you want to continue to deceive yourself and others, then I can't save you either."

"Farewell!"

Seeing the other party turn to leave, Kong Jingtian suddenly panicked, if what the other party said was true, then their Kong family would really not be far from extinction.

"Wait!"

"What, has the Kong family head still figured it out?"

Kong Jing Xian's face was gloomy as he asked in a deep voice, "Who exactly are you?"

"It doesn't matter who I am, what matters is that I'm giving you a way out now, do you want to listen?"

"Why should I trust you, someone who doesn't even dare to show his true face."

The black-robed man smiled coldly, "Without revealing my true face, you will only die faster if you know my true identity."

"Besides do you really think that Kong Xian Zhuo, the eldest son of the Kong family, died at the hands of Lin Mo?"

Kong Jingxian looked stunned, "Isn't that so?"

The black-robed man threw back his head and laughed loudly, "So it would not be unfair at all if your Kong family was exterminated by the Sixth Prince."

"Kong Xianzhuo died at the hands of the Sixth Prince's beloved Tege, and the reason why outsiders say that Lin Mo killed him is because he was afraid of the Sixth Prince and did not dare to offend him.

His laughter was extraordinarily harsh and fell like a slap on Kong Jingtian's face, making him furious.

Kong Jingtian slapped his hand on the table and angrily chided, "That's enough, everything is just your credulity."

"Someone, take this person down for me, I want to see what dares to come to my Kong family and pretend to be a god."

The black-robed man was not the least bit afraid in the face of Kong Jingtian's sudden flip-flop.

"Kong Jingtian, you will know if it is true or not if you investigate it yourself. Of course, if you investigate clearly and don't want the Kong family to be exterminated, tie a red ribbon outside the Kong family's gate, I will naturally come back to save your family when I see it."

As the words fell to the ground, the black-robed man disappeared directly into place.

After this incident, Kong Jingtian proceeded to investigate when his eldest son died, and there were not many people who witnessed Tiger killing Kong Xianzhuo, and after a simple investigation he got the truth that Kong Jingtian did not want to know the most.

Chapter 2790

“Father, father!”

Kong Jingtian was awakened from his memories by Kong Li’s call to his thoughts.

“Li’er, it is not that my father wanted to make a move against the Sixth Prince, but he can only be blamed for pushing us too hard.”

“Your elder brother Xian Zhuo was killed by Tiger, and the Sixth Prince also knows about the secret collusion between our Kong family and the True La’s. If he joins forces with Lin Mo, it will be difficult for our Kong family to move forward.

Kong Li’s face flushed with anger as he said, “Father, we have treated the Sixth Prince with respect and have always responded to everything we have asked.”

“Now just because of this matter, he wants to put our Kong family to death, why should we grovel to such a man.

We are united on the side of Zhenla and are not afraid of his Sixth Prince.”

Kong Jingtian sighed helplessly, “Hey, you’re still too young, Jinla might help us a little out of favours.”

“However if we have to fight the Sixth Prince they will definitely abandon us.”

“Father, we bring so much revenue to them every year from True La, would they just stand by and watch our Kong family perish?”

Empty Jingtian shook his head helplessly, “In the end, we are just a middleman, right? Without the Kong family, there are still the Wu family, Sun family, Wen family, Ding family, etc. They have the supply of goods and are not worried about not having a cooperative force.”

“That’s why we have to strike first and kill them, and as soon as this is done, our Kong family will have a bigger backer.”

Kong Li still carried a slight uneasiness in his heart when he heard this, according to his plan, the Kong family put aside the hatred with Lin Mo for the time being, several of his elder brothers were dead, he was the steady heir of the Kong family, why should he fight with Lin Mo and the Sixth Prince in blood.

“Father, is there any room for retention? Can we not try to shake hands with Lin Mo and make peace?”

When Kong Jingtian heard this, his face instantly turned gloomy, and Kong Li subconsciously shrank back when he saw his father’s ice-cold eyes.

“Father what I mean is that our first let Lin Mo and the Sixth Prince let their guard down and wait until the time is ripe to wipe them both out in one fell swoop.”

“No need to wait, now is the best time, someone is opening the way for us, and the ones I’ve sent out are all dead soldiers.

Even if we fail we don’t have to worry, they won’t know it was our Kong family’s that moved.”

Only when he said this did Kong Li feel a lot more at ease, as long as it did not affect his succession to the position of the Kong family head.

At this moment, Kong Jingtian was still unaware that he had been exposed and was still dreaming of being reappointed by the big man after killing Lin Mo and the Sixth Prince.

On the other hand, after Lin Mo and the Sixth Prince had finished agreeing on a plan to deal with the Kong Family, Lin Mo first went to visit Bai Shao'er for a while.

"You're awake, are you feeling alright?"

Bai Shao'er nodded slightly, "Not bad, just feeling a little dazed in spirit."

"You've been sleeping for too long, just take a break."

"Right, I have some things to go back first, you just rest well over here, I've already greeted the Sixth Prince's side, if there's anything, you can go directly to Teg, or Lilia."

Regarding the matter of the attack, Lin Mo did not explain it to Bai Shao'er.

"Alright, I get it!"

"By the way, someone asked me to pass on something to you."

Lin Mo paused in his steps and turned back curiously, while Bai Shao'er spoke to himself.

"The Xie family's side has already started to mobilize their forces on a large scale, for the battle on the high seas tomorrow, if you think it's not doable, don't risk it, the Bai family will bail you out."

"Okay, I know, mention me to thank her."

After saying this Lin Mo walked straight out, while inside the room Bai Shao'er took out her mobile phone straight away.

"Rong Rong, your sweetheart, heart is living a very prosperous life, you don't need to worry about it, besides your words I have already conveyed them for you."

"Thank you shallow child, I have some things I can not contact with outsiders, I can only trouble you ....."
