

The Killer 71

Chapter 71

Brother's suicide note and gift

A few hours later.

Hedy was woken up by the vibrating mobile phone, the sun was shining outside the window, it was already nine o'clock in the morning.

Preston is still sleeping, his sleeping face is as handsome as a god.

Hedy gently removed the hand on his waist, and turned to look for the mobile phone on the table.

Caller ID "Emily ".

She walked to the balcony and connected the phone. Emily 's voice came from the receiver,

"Hedy, are you resting? Teacher Tim said that in order to celebrate our victory, he paid us to go to the playground at his own expense!"

Hedy looked back at the eye bed Preston said in a low voice,

"You guys go, I want to sleep some more, I'm too tired from answering the questions." She didn't intend to tell

Emily about the love potion in the lemonade.

"Okay then... If you're hungry, there's a phone in the room to order food." Emily hung up the phone.

The phone here just hung up, and a new call came in, and this time the caller ID was "Sun".

0.00%

"Coddess Hedy, congratulations for being the champion of this Mathematical Olympiad!"

Nun's tone was both excited and proud.

Lowell High School has issued a related announcement, and the whole school knows the good news

"Thank you" Hedy said calmly

"Actually, hey, I have something I want to ask Goddess Hedy."

"Say "

"D City, there is a psp game console that is holding a joint limited event. If you miss this time, you won't be able to buy it. I want Goddess Hedy to Help me do the shopping... Of course, if Goddess Hedy doesn't have time, just forget it!"

"Send me the model number."

Sun has helped her so many times, and it doesn't matter if she runs around

“Thank Goddess Hedy! Goddess Hedy is the best!”

Sun hung up the phone and transferred the model and money to Hedy.

She glanced at it, put down her phone, picked up the medical kit and went to the bedside to change Preston’s dressing.

It may be that Preston hadn’t woken up because he tossed too hard last night.

With light steps, she unbuttoned his shirt and cut off the blood–stained bandage.

13718

After a night of soaking and ignoring, the wound festered and became inflamed, which was horrible.

Hedy’s heart skipped a beat.

It sounded in my ears again, and Preston’s words of “feeling for her”

seemed like he would be a very good friend,

She treated Preston’s wound as quickly as possible and re–packed it,

After finishing all this, she left the presidential suite and went to ChUrania Road to help Sun buy a joint limited–edition game console,

The moment she closed the door, the man pretending to be asleep on the bed opened his eyes.

His bony hands

touched the bandages wrapped around his shoulders, and the corners of his thin lips evoked a gentle smile,

Hedy stood in line for two hours and finally got the game console Sun wanted,

Standing in the shade of a tree, she stared at the packaging of the game console, feeling a wave of turpentine oil in her heart.

She suddenly realized that she was very lucky.

In this life, she has parents, a brother, classmates, friends, freedom, and the chance to revive her brother.

As if favored by the goddess of luck, the luck is so unreal,

“I hope I can finish the task quickly so that Cooper can be revived sooner. He must also want to live like a normal person.”

Hedy’s eyes burst into a firm color, and he took a step forward.

“Beep–”

A small blue pickup truck drove past Hedy quickly.

The trunk of the pickup truck was crooked, and there were many wooden boxes of different sizes, shapes and colors.

The rear of the car is painted with large characters, Welcome to South Motorsports.

Hedy's pupils shrank sharply.

Not because of the South Circuit, but because of the pile of wooden boxes, there is a red box the size of a diary, which is something from her previous life!

In the previous life, she and Cooper met to escape from the organization, and Cooper stunned her and turned back halfway to delay her time.

When she woke up on the other side of the ocean, there was only a wooden box beside her.

The box contained a letter and a necklace for ladies.

The letter was Cooper's suicide note, and the necklace was a gift he made for her.

In the end, she took the wooden box back to the organization for revenge—she didn't wear the necklace on her body, because she didn't want the necklace to be stained by the blood of the people in the organization.

Who would have thought that not only did the box not burn in the flames, but it appeared in her field of vision again.

The feeling of regaining what was lost filled Hedy's chest.

The suicide note and necklace mean a lot to her, and she wants the box back!

Just as she was about to take action, a female voice as soft as spring water came from her ear,

“Dad, what was on the pickup truck just now, is this the championship blind box at the South Circuit?”

Hedy turned around and found that the person who spoke was The owner of a street flower shop.

The boss is a woman of about twenty-five years old, with delicate features like a narcissus doll.

She was wearing an off-white dress, with black hair hanging down to her hips, and a beautiful beach hat. Her complexion was as pale as a baby's.

She is a fragile beauty with a sense of fragility.

The middle-aged man next to the weak beauty nodded,

“Well, South's reward mechanism is quite special. The champion has no bonus and can only pick a blind box.

Maybe there are priceless diamonds in the box, or nothing.”

“I know that.” The weak beauty smiled like a lily in her hand,

“A professional racing driver won the championship at the South Circuit before, picked a blind box, opened it, and there was only a smelly sock inside.

He was so angry that he tweeted, As a result, the South Circuit has become an online celebrity check-in point in the racing world.”

The middle-aged man laughed, but his cloudy eyes were full of bitterness.

The beauty said again, “Is the racing venue where Dad and Rock made an appointment this time also at the South Circuit?”

“Well, when Dad wins Rock, I will pick you a blind box and come back.” The middle-aged man patted his daughter on the shoulder.,

“If you win him, he won’t force you to marry him.”

“But are daddy’s eyes really, okay? Will there be any danger?” The beauty’s tone was worried,

“I would rather marry you than let daddy take risks.” Give it to Rock.”

“My eyes are very good!” The middle-aged man laughed, and his attitude was very relaxed,

“When your father and I broke various records in the racing field in Central South Province, Rock was still breastfeeding, he is not me Don’t worry about your opponent! I’m leaving first!”

The middle-aged man turned into the alley, a beam of strong light shot in front of him, and the intensity of the light source burned his eyeballs.

He quickly covered his eyes, leaving physiological tears.

“Can this be called ‘very good’?” Hedy stepped out from the side, holding the phone in his hand.

The light just now was refracted through the phone screen.

“What’s none of your business?” The middle-aged man wiped away his tears, his father’s love faded from his wrinkled face, replaced by majesty and fierceness, ”

Who are you? What are you doing with my eyes? Did Rock send you?!*

After a few questions, Hedy didn’t answer, but said calmly,

“Your eyes can’t stand the strong light at all. If you go racing, you will either die or be injured. It’s better to let me go.

I can win the championship, but the blind box of the championship belongs to me

Chapter 72

This beautiful high school girl in front of me is indeed not an ordinary person.

Hedy plans to cooperate with a strange middle-aged man.

South Motorsports is a check-in spot for Internet celebrities, so the business is bound to be booming. The race reservations in the stadium are not known for what year and month.

She didn't want to wait, and she was also afraid that her box would be chosen by others.

It just so happens that middle-aged men also have reasons to win, so it is better to cooperate and win-win together.

"You can win the championship? What a bold tone!"

Lucas opened his eyes again, intending to see who was so confident. After a closer look, he wished he was blind!

He thought that standing in front of him was at least a female racing driver over the age of 30, with rich racing experience and a firm face.

As it turned out, she was an eighteen-year-old high school student, and she was still wearing San Francisco's Math Olympiad team uniform!

Beautiful is beautiful, but immature is outrageous!

"I'm just stating the facts." Hedy said calmly,

"Based on your current situation, going to the car race is either dead or disabled. At that time, not only will you not be able to win, but your daughter will still marry that man named 'Rock'.

Having poked Lucas' sore spot, he sneered,

"You can win if you go, right? All right, report your name in the racing industry and let me see how capable you are!" "

You have a problem with logical thinking." Hedy said slowly,

"Not everyone who can race cars has to participate in official competitions and leave their names behind."

For racers, racing is a way to gain honor and pursue excitement.

But for the killer, the racing car is a tool to control life and death.

She drove a racing car into a plane, and also drove a racing car over the roof of a train, just to chase down the target person.

She doesn't know how her driving skills are in regular competitions.

"I can only tell you that I accidentally broke into the World Car Championship and left behind all the top car champions from all over the world."

Hedy frowned slightly.

It was an incident that time, and she was on a mission.

“It’s just you? You broke into the world car championship and left behind the top car kings in every country in the world? Girl, stop reading online novels!” Lucas only thought that

Hedy was obsessed with reading novels, he knew that now of young people like to read novels.

He was not interested in acting with a high school student, so he took out the Knife hidden in his coat and drew out the handle to threaten Hedy,

“Get out!”

He wanted to scare Hedy away.

But how could Hedy be intimidated by him?

She raised her leg high and kicked the Knife in Lucas’ hand, and the Knife flew out and hit the iron pole of the street lamp at the entrance of the alley. The tip of the knife collided with the iron rod to create sparks.

The effect of the force caused Knife to fly obliquely, swinging back and forth between the left and right walls of the narrow alley, and every time it moved, the blade emitted a cold light.

Lucas narrowed his eyes and instinctively leaned back, fearing that his throat would be cut by the out-of-control knife.

In a blink of an eye, Hedy stretched out his hand and precisely grasped the handle of the Knife. With a twist of his wrist, he stood the Knife vertically, and slowly inserted it back into the scabbard held by Lucas. She said indifferently, “When you are older, don’t be irritable, it will hurt your body.”

This set of actions scared

Lucas. He has been on the road for most of his life, and he knows what kind of strength this set of movements represents!

The beautiful high school girl in front of me is indeed not an ordinary person!

She is most likely a hidden boss!

“You why are you willing to help me with the car?” Lucas said in a worried tone.

“I want the blind box I chose.” Hedy said bluntly.

“Tell me the time, opponent, and rules of this game.”

Hedy’s concise and clear words made Lucas feel ashamed, and he swallowed.

“Follow me.”

The two came to a hidden chess parlor.

When the people in the chess parlor saw Lucas, they respectfully called him “Deputy Gang Leader”,

When I saw Hedy, I was amazed again, but she behaved very politely without harassment or contempt.

"Sit here." Lucas led Hedy into the back room, sighed, and began to complain.

"My name is Lucas, and I'm the deputy leader of the Black Gang." "The Black Gang wasn't called the Black Gang at first. It was just a place for a group of migrant workers to report to the group for warmth.

"I was always bullied by the locals while working part-time."

"Everyone was fed up with the bullying, so they tried to gather strength to resist, and it was indeed effective, but the other way around, something changed." Hedy nodded, "Tu Long Those who would eventually become evil dragons."

"Indeed." Lucas smiled wryly,

"The small group became a gang, and they did what they hated the most, killing and arson, and doing all kinds of evil. Retiring to the back, holding the title of deputy gang leader, and doing some small business."

I want to be independent from the world, and the gang leader's son is the young gang leader Rock, but he has a crush on Snow, the daughter of my flower shop."

"Young gang leader Rock? He Did you get involved in a crime of intentional injury a while ago?"

Hedy suddenly thought of the money behind his brother's ex-girlfriend

John. According to reports, his name is someone.

The few people who came to Geary Village gave him a note, "Young Gang Master".

"A while ago? It seems that there was such a thing, but I don't know the specifics." Lucas asked,

"Is there any problem?"

"No, you continue." Hedy lowered his eyes to hide the killing intent.

Unexpectedly, Margaret and Rock are a pair of brother and sister. She and her elder brother provoked Margaret and Margaret's elder brother respectively.

Lucas nodded,

Rock mentioned to me several times before that he wanted my daughter to marry him, and I made a fool of myself."

Recently, he put pressure on me to race with him, saying that if I lose Be his father-in-law."

"I know he's not the type to let it go easily, so I agreed to it, thought it through, and fought him."

Hedy asked, "Don't you think about running away?"

“The core members of the gang, all I used to be a good brother who knew everything, who knew where his hometown was, where his ancestral grave was, where his relatives were, and where his friends were, all of them were clear.” Lucas lowered his head, “I can be displaced, but I can’t implicate my family and friends

Friend.”

“So you plan to die at South Speedway,” Hedy commented.

Lucas was poked in the sore spot again, powerless, “At least I tried my best to protect them before I died.”

“Racing time, rules.” She already knew who the enemy was and needed other information.

“At eight o’clock tonight, at the South Circuit, the rules are the common rules of the circuit, each of the m fights, and the first place wins, but...”

Lucas paused, and looked up at Hedy,

“But Rock will bring five henchmen, and You play together.

In other words, this game will change from 1v1v1v1v1v1 to you alone, 1v6 at any time.”

He carefully looked at Hedy’s face, and as soon as Hedy showed the slightest worry and timidity, he would immediately see off the guests.

He is not related to others, so there is no reason for others to take risks.

He saw Hedy lazily raised his eyelids, parted his red lips lightly, and uttered a word,

“Yes.”

Chapter 73

Girls are not suitable for racing cars.

Hedy’s answer made Lucas stand up suddenly from his chair, his tongue seemed to be tied,

“You, are you not afraid of death at all?”

Racing itself is a dangerous competition.

Rock brought five more confidants up, which means that he wants to play tricks out of ten, which also means that this car will be more dangerous.

Even if Hedy has better eyes than him, if he is a little careless, he will still face the end of death or disability.

How could she agree so lightly!

“You have something you want to protect with your life, and so do I.”

After Hedy finished speaking, the image of his younger brother Cooper flashed in his mind.

Cooper was born in winter.

After the grandfather who taught her to read and write passed away, her world was in darkness.

No one will greet her with care.

In fact, this is also true.

Her life is as cheap as grass, and she is lucky to have her grandfather take care of her for a while.

After the grandfather left, she should also return to her own track, and be buried in a high garbage dump as a qualified waste product.

Cooper's birth, she just felt sad.

Because there is an extra child in the family, the little bit of food that can be distributed to her will become less, or there will be no food at all.

Either way, she would starve to death.

She hasn't eaten for two days.

She thought that she should learn from the boy next door and kill her newborn brother-kindness cannot survive in the slums, only cruelty will do.

Besides, even if she didn't kill him, with the disposition of those parents, he wouldn't live long, would he?

With a cold face, she reached out to the sleeping baby.

The baby happened to wake up, and the small palm wrapped her frostbitten index finger, and the warmth she dreamed of was continuously coming from him.

He giggled, his eyes were pure and innocent, like a mirror, reflecting her despicable and cold-blooded face.

She panicked and wanted to pull her finger away.

But he clung to it tightly and smiled even more happily.

Like the long-lost sunshine, it shines on the deep pool of eternal winter and night, rescues her who is about to drown, and makes her cry loudly because she can survive.

Cooper was her brother and needed her protection.

It is also her redemption, her last light.

Boom!

The door of the inner room was pushed open by Lucas' daughter Snow, her face was pale, she held a hospital certificate in her hand, and her voice trembled,

"Dad, you lied to me! Your eyes are not good at all, you can't go racing, I don't agree! Isn't it just marrying Rock, I'm marrying!"

Snow..." Lucas remembered that he had left the medical certificate at the flower shop, and he was in a complicated mood, pointing to Hedy,

"Dad stopped racing, she replaced Dad Come on."

"Who is she?"

"Hedy."

"Ms. Ellis, I hope you think about it again!" Snow 's body tensed into a string, and said heavily,

"Rock is a very bad man. I hit and killed an opponent in the field, and said that he can afford to pay for a life!"

I'm fighting for myself, so you don't need to be nervous and blame yourself." Hedy looked up at her.

At 7,30, Hedy drove Lucas and Snow to the South Motor Speedway in Lucas' black Ferrari. This Ferrari is Lucas' favorite car, which has been modified several times and was born for the track.

Before entering the field, Lucas and his daughter got out of the car to go to the auditorium, and Hedy drove the car into the track by himself.

In the commentary booth, there is a male and female commentator who sorting out the materials, and there is a big screen next to them.

There are many surveillance cameras on it, which exist in different sections of the track, which is convenient for commentators and spectators to grasp the game trends.

The auditorium is already full of spectators.

Some of them are anchors and plan to bring their fans to the world.

Some are people who can race cars and want to learn skills from the masters.

There are also general audiences.

Margaret and Vincent belong to the latter.

Vincent was brought in by Margaret. Last night, Margaret had been keeping an eye on Vincent, and if Vincent felt unwell, she would pull him away to have sex.

She waited and waited until Vincent was fed and left, but before Vincent's medicine took effect, she was so angry that she slapped Lily twice.

If one plan fails, she will try again.

Two hours ago, when Vincent came back from the playground, she pretended to run into him at the corner, broke the watch, and demanded that Vincent pay her a million dollars.

Vincent naturally couldn't afford one million, so she took advantage of the opportunity to invite him, asking him to accompany her to watch the racing car as collateral for compensation.

Vincent could only agree.

It's just that after coming to the arena, Vincent has been absent- minded.

Margaret thought he was worried about the Mathematical Olympiad competition, and said in a low voice,

"Vincent, I really don't know why the head of the organizing committee keeps overtime. Will you believe me?"

Yes." Vincent didn't bother to tell the truth Margaret responded perfunctorily, thinking only of Hedy

I don't know if she has rested well, if she has eaten well, if she feels uncomfortable somewhere, and whether she should see a doctor.

"Really?" Margaret was secretly delighted, pointing to the starting line. of the track.

At this moment, there are several sports cars parked on the starting line, among which the red Pagani is the most expensive, worth tens of millions.

Rock was dressed in an expensive white suit, leaning against the side of the car with a human appearance, hugging two beauties on the left and right, taking advantage of each other from time to time, making the beauties scream.

There were five social youths around him, nodding and bowing to him, flattering and flattering.

“That’s my brother Rock, how’s he handsome?” Margaret’s tone showed off.

“Hmm.” Vincent continued to perfunctory.

“No matter how handsome you are!” Margaret went on to say,

“You boys like racing cars, don’t you? In fact, I like racing cars very much, but my family said that racing cars are too dangerous for girls to play, so they didn’t let me learn. .”

Regarding the fact that racing is too dangerous for girls, Vincent nodded in agreement.

“Look, my brother’s opponent, Lucas, the deputy head of the Black Gang, is here! Lucas is very famous in the racing industry, and most of the audience is here tonight for him!”

Vincent who came introduced the relevant process,

“When Lucas stops the car before the starting line, people have to get down and let the track staff check whether the car is safe before starting the race.”

Under the eyes of everyone, the Ferrari door slowly opened.

The first thing that catches everyone’s eyes is a white sneaker, which is cheap.

Followed by a pair of long and slender legs, many men’s noses felt hot and their hearts were restless.

Finally, the owner of the beautiful legs leaned forward.

She has a beautiful appearance, full red lips, clear eyes, and a single ponytail tied behind her head like black black silk, she is beautiful and rustic.

Compared with her stunning appearance, what shocked people even more was the T-shirt she was wearing!

The words "San Francisco High School Mathematical Olympiad Team" on it silently revealed that she was still a female high school student!

Vincent stood up straight away with shock in his eyes.

"Hedy? Why is she here?" Margaret also stood up, with a hint of sternness in her tone.

track. Seeing that the person who got off the bus was a beautiful female student,

Rock felt greedy and asked doubtfully,

"Who are you?"

Chapter 74

Comparing with this group of trash, it doesn't matter what car you use

"Hedy."

Hedy generously revealed her name, and looked at Rock coldly, "I will compare you for Lucas." She was not afraid that Rock would know her identity,

"Hedy? Your brother is Josh?"

Rock's pupils narrowed, he remembered John's ex-boyfriend's sister, named Hedy.

"Yes." Hedy admitted, his eyes glinting under the light.

Rock immediately thought of the photos of the seven corpses he had received on his mobile phone, and felt deep fear in his heart.

Those seven people were sent by him to kill Hedy, Buddy, and Malina.

But they died halfway, and the person who killed them took a group photo to warn him.

For this reason, he has been worried for a long time, and has also observed the major news websites for a long time.

He thought he would find news like "seven corpses appeared in a certain village, the murderer is unknown", but he found nothing.

Seven people, seven corpses, disappeared out of thin air.

What's even more frightening is that the traces of the SIM cards of the seven people's mobile phones were all erased, and the location of the victim could not be found.

Like a mist, it evaporates in the world.

All of the above indicated that the murderer was not an ordinary person, at least a little more powerful than Black Gang.

He made an assumption that this person was related to the Ellis Family, and the purpose of killing seven people was to protect the Ellis Family.

But-

Rock looked Hedy up and down, full of doubts in his heart.

Hedy has a whole body, and the most valuable thing is the team uniform for the Mathematical Olympiad. She is not rich.

If the Ellis Family knew such a powerful person, how could they still be in such a miserable state?

It seems that the murderer has nothing to do with the Ellis Family, the seven people sent out just accidentally provoked people who shouldn't be provoked.

Thinking of this, Rock was relieved.

He raised his chin towards Hedy, and said in a contemptuous tone,

Why did Lucas ask you to help with racing? Do you know about racing?”

Ellis Family is very poor, and children from poor families cannot get in touch with racing. This is something rich people can afford game.

It's not uncommon to drive, as long as you have a driver's license.

“Whether I understand racing cars or not, you will find out later.” Hedy leaned on the Ferrari and said lightly.

“It's pretty cool?”

Rock laughed, and his snake-like eyes fell on Hedy's chest,

“I don't like to bully girls, how about this, if you are willing to stay with me for a night, I will give you the championship, A hero is sad for a beauty.”

Lucas and his daughter can run away from the monk but not the temple, so he is not in a hurry.

It was Hedy who made his eyes shine.

He didn't expect Hedy to be so beautiful.

In addition to being beautiful, her aloof temperament made his heart itch even more.

He fell in love with John at the beginning because John was pretending to be noble.

Hedy was colder than

John, which he liked. The colder the woman he got, the more he felt a sense of accomplishment.

“Hero?” Hedy repeated these two words, and looked at him lightly, as if looking at a piece of garbage,

“You also deserve these two words?”

The air seemed to be frozen.

Rock's face turned blue, and he gave the beauty in his arms a look.

The beauty appreciated it, walked up to Hedy on stilettos, raised her hand and slapped,

"Give it to the shameless bitch!"

Before she could slap her, Hedy kicked her stomach first, and she knelt down On the ground, he kowtowed to Hedy!

"Idiot with no brains."

Hedy withdrew his legs and leaned back on the Ferrari again, with his hands crossed over his chest, his expression icy cold.

Rock 's face turned greener.

During the conversation between the two, the staff of the racetrack opened the front cover of the Ferrari to check.

He only glanced at it, and then yelled,

"The modification of this car does not comply with the rules of our racing track, so it cannot be raced."

This is a play arranged by

Rock in advance. He spent money to buy off the staff of this race, in order not to let this Ferrari play. Before his eyes were broken, Lucas was a prominent figure in the racing circle in Central South Province.

This black Ferrari, which has accompanied Lucas in too many races, has been modified to a very sophisticated level. He wanted to cut off

Lucas ' "wings" before the game and let him fall into a losing position.

It's just that Lucas didn't come, it was Hedy who came, and the staff took the money and continued to do what he should do.

Rock 's confidantes immediately cooperated and sang together around the hood of the Ferrari,

"Yeah, this, this, and this, modified ones are not acceptable."

But the race is about to start, what should I do?" "

It seems that only I'm using the spare car from the racetrack, I don't know if this Ms. Ellis is willing." The staff asked Hedy, gloating.

"It doesn't matter." Hedy said calmly,

"Compared to this group of trash, any car is the same."

If a player doesn't even have the courage to compete fairly, he can only be described as trash.

If the arrogant words fall to the ground, then Rock is not alone.

The faces of all the contestants turned green!

They exchanged glances with each other, and there was only one thought in their minds, never give Hedy any good fruit later!

Soon, Lucas 'Ferrari was driven down by the staff.

The spare vehicles at the racing track were also driven from the garage to the starting line by the staff.

This is a silver Mercedes-Benz with a market price of no more than 200,000, and it has not been modified.

The appearance of the spare vehicle made the audience who didn't understand the situation whisper and couldn't figure out what was going on.

They were far away from the track and couldn't hear the conversations on the other side of the track.

He could only see the woman in the arms of the leader of the Black Gang, trying to hit the female high school student, but was kicked down by the female high school student. Then the staff opened the front cover of the Ferrari, checked it, and drove the Ferrari away.

"Dad, this..." Snow held his father's hand, feeling extremely nervous.

"Trust her." Lucas shook his daughter's hand back, eyes determined.

Although he and Hedy only spent half a day together, Hedy's calm gestures and confidence in just a few words made him feel that Hedy was not an ordinary person.

She said that she had left behind all the top car kings in various countries around the world.

Then she is leaving the world's top car kings behind!

With such technology, driving a car without modification can still beat Rock!

In the commentary seat, after understanding the situation from the staff, the male and female commentators looked at each other and started to explain.

"Friends in the audience, welcome to the South Circuit. There is a small problem in tonight's game." The voice of the female commentator was sweet and sweet. The male commentator nodded, "Mr.

Lucas Bai, who was originally preparing to play, was unable to participate in the competition due to eye disease, so he chose Hedy Ms.

Ellis to take part in the competition." The female commentator, "At the same time, the Ferrari driven by Ms., she chose to use the spare vehicle at the racetrack."

The auditorium exploded on the spot.

“Hedy? What the hell, I’ve never heard of it before!”

“Mum knows racing too? Go back to your mother’s womb and breastfeed!”

“RNM get your money back! I’m here to see professional racing cars, not female students’ exams. Driver’s license!”

“The spare car at the racetrack is rented out to novices during the day for practice, can this also be used for racing?”

I don’t think Lucas’s eyes are broken, but his brain!”

Chapter 75

Human-vehicle integration, the highest realm of racers!

The spectators at the racing track were very unhappy with Hedy’s appearance. For the Lucas VS Rock game, South Motorsport has been warming up for a long time on its official website.

The former is a big shot in the racing circle of Central South Province, and the latter is a rookie in the racing circle of Central South Province. Everyone wants to know who is better, so they spend money to buy tickets. Who knew that

Lucas would not be playing after tickets were bought and people came ? He found a female high school student to help him in the race, not to mention, he also built a spare car for the racetrack... What’s wrong?

Is there any suspense in this game?

No suspense!

No suspense game, no spectacle!

“Refund!” “Refund!” “Refund!”

Amidst the voices of refunds, Margaret put her arms around her chest in a leisurely manner, and her tone was full of sarcasm, “Although I don’t know how Lucas knew Hedy, it’s too funny to ask Hedy to help my brother compete. It’s a little bit.

Even people like me don’t know how to race cars and don’t dare to race cars, let alone Hedy, she can’t beat my brother.”

Vincent didn’t speak, but worriedly clutched the railing, his palms dripping with sweat.

He doesn’t care who wins or loses, he just prays that Hedy will never be in danger.

-Seeing

that the voices of the audience asking for “refunds” intensified, the female commentator knew something was wrong, and quickly shifted the focus.

Okay, let’s not talk too much, hand over the camera to the runway, and invite the protagonists to come on stage!”

The shot on the big screen, slowly moved to the starting line.

The staff put the code “No. 1-7” on the hood of each sports car, so that the audience and commentators can distinguish the race situation more intuitively.

Rock’s Pagani is “Number 1” and Hedy’s spare Mercedes is “Number 5”.

Hedy didn’t talk nonsense, and directly sat in the Mercedes-Benz driver’s seat.

Rock sneered, and lowered his voice to tell his confidants,

“It’s okay to cripple Hedy, but don’t do it to death.”

He originally wanted to be sympathetic, but unfortunately Hedy is a hard bone.

In this case, she needs to be dealt with severely. When she realizes the reality, she will be honest.

“Understood!” The confidantes laughed lewdly,

“I definitely won’t kill her, the young master hasn’t played with her yet!”

After finishing speaking, the six of them got into their sports cars.

The referee pressed the flare gun, and as soon as the order sounded, Rock took the lead in stepping on the gas pedal!

He looked at the rearview mirror on the left, and found that the five cars of his confidant were all behind him, so he couldn’t help but groaned triumphantly.

He is known as a rookie in the racing circle of Central South Province. but he is not a vegetarian.

As for Hedy... I’m afraid he’s still eating farts behind his confidants!

For a female high school student to dare to compete against him, she really doesn’t know what to do.

While being happy, the loud sound of the engine starting came from Rock’s ear. He looked to the right, only to realize that Hedy was next to him!

Hedy in the driver’s seat didn’t look sideways, the front of the Mercedes-Benz was even a little ahead of him!

“How is this possible!”

Rock's pupils shrank sharply!

The price of his sports car, plus the modification fee, is close to 20 million. Hedy's Mercedes is only 200,000. It hasn't been modified yet, so why can it be ahead of him? Could it be...

Rock suddenly thought of what a professional racer said to him, Car modification can only enhance the chances of winning a racer from the perspective of external hardware.

What is really difficult to improve is the driver's own strength.

In addition to the most basic vision, resolution, and emergency handling capabilities, there is also a tacit understanding between the racer and the car he is driving.

The specific concept of familiarity is too general to describe with existing vocabulary.

If it's a bit more fantasy, it can be described as "human and vehicle in one".

This is the pinnacle of racing.

"Human and car in one..." Rock sullenly stepped on the brake lightly, deliberately lagging behind Hedy.

When he met his brothers, he glanced over.

He didn't know where a little Hedy got such great skills.

All he knew was that he couldn't lose to Hedy! Whether it's for face, or for the Lucas father and daughter hiding behind Hedy!

In the commentary seat, the voice of the female commentator was excited,

"The No. 5 female driver is leading for the time being, and her speed is very fast. It is unbelievable that she is actually faster than the male driver!" This greatly exceeded the expectations of the commentators, and also greatly exceeded the audience. expected!

The eyes of the people who were clamoring to "refund the ticket" were wide-eyed, and their eyeballs were about to fall out.

"Fuck, this female high school student is too fierce, she starts like lightning, I'm dazzled?"

She only drives a 200,000 Mercedes-Benz, how can she throw away other sports cars worth at least a million dollars?" Behind!"

“She’s already two corners ahead guys, we’re superficial, Lucas has found a boss!”

“She has a big advantage, no accidents, she’s sure to win!”

“Mom, I can actually see such a strong female racing driver in my lifetime!”

On the big screen, the scene of the third surveillance intersection was enlarged.

No. 5, who was originally riding a silver Mercedes, was suddenly bumped into the guardrail by No. 6 rushing over from a blind spot!

The two cars squeezed into the corner, and the remaining sports cars raced against the clock, drifting and cornering one by one.

The male commentator commented very fast,

“No. 6 violated the rules! The driver crossed the track and hit No. 5, who was temporarily leading, so that No. 1 seized the opportunity to complete the lead! Although No. 6 was about to be sent off, the female driver No. 5 had already passed the race.” Be the last!”

Lucas’ father and daughter’s heart twitched.

“I knew Rock’s henchmen were going to attack her, a bunch of bastards!” Lucas yelled.

On the screen, driver No. 6 was sent off, and the car was driven away by the staff.

At this time, the No. 5 car driven by Hedy has room to move around.

Another staff member came to check on Hedy with a microphone.

Seeing that she was in good condition, except for a little dent, there was no major damage to the car body, so he asked her,

“Will you continue to compete? You are already far behind.”

His microphone went straight to the auditorium, and both the commentator and the audience could hear it.

“Continue to compete.”

With a clear voice of disgust and disappointment, Hedy conveyed it to every audience’s ear through the staff’s microphone,

“I thought they would have such superb skills, so it turned out that this is it.”

She thought, They could at least give her a little bit of the speed of life and death.

“Huh?” The staff were dumbfounded,

Hedy didn’t say any more, stepped on the accelerator and restarted the Mercedes.

After a few more bends, she overtook the No. 3 and No. 4 cars.

When car No. 3 and car No. 4 saw Hedy, they turned around and drove towards Hedy side by side, as if their father-killing enemy had appeared!

The female commentator raised her voice,

“No. 3 and No. 4 have violated the rules! There is only a narrow road with a width of less than one meter left for female driver No. 5! The other side of the narrow road is a cliff, what should she do!

“When the two cars came; Hedy looked as usual, turned the steering wheel calmly, and stepped on the accelerator.

With a row of tires falling on the narrow road and a row of tires falling on the mountain wall, he crossed this layer of obstacles sideways.

The metal car body rubbed against the rock wall, making a harsh sound of “zi la la”, sparking all the way!

Chapter 76 Shout and Worship for Hedy!

“No. 5 is too powerful! This is a skill that only professional players dare to do! She rushed over!”

The tone of the male commentator was unbelievable!

No. 3 and No. 4 were also stupid. They could only watch Hedy disappear in the rearview mirror, and they were sent off by the staff.

In the auditorium, many people saw the clue.

“Tonight’s game is not going to be a group of men deliberately targeting a woman, right?”

If No. 6’s violation is mentioned, it can be described as “accidental”.

The violations of No. 3 and No. 4 cannot be counted as accidental.

Almost as soon as they saw Hedy, they both turned around tacitly, as if they had discussed it long ago!

Combined with what Hedy said before, everyone can easily infer,

Tonight is indeed a game of bullying the few with the more!

Rock found five people to escort him!

And Hedy came to participate in the competition knowing the consequences!

“Damn it, these bastards are really embarrassing for men!”

The man with a sense of justice spat on the ground, feeling angry.

the surveillance footage of the big screen, Hedy followed up with No. 2 and No. 7.

They are like twins, driving side by side normally, with enough space in between for others to overtake.

Hedy sneered and stepped on the accelerator even deeper.

When the overtaking was about to be completed, the two “good babies” suddenly squeezed inward, as if they wanted to squeeze Hedy flat!

Yet Hedy knew they would do it.

She directly slammed on the brakes, feinted a shot, and let the good babies hit herself!

The expressions of the two drivers were ugly, they were tricked by Hedy!

“It’s okay, we’ll just guard here, if she dares to overtake, we’ll hit her!”

The two drivers communicated.

Next, Hedy had a very cordial and friendly meeting with the two drivers.

The beautiful eyes of the female commentator were fixed on the screen, for fear of missing a wonderful scene.

“Number 5 is overtaking! Number 5 is back! Number 5 is overtaking again! Number 5 is back again! Number 5 is overtaking again! Number 5 is back again! Number 5 is overtaking again! Number 5 is overtaking again!”... No, she overtook!

Number 2 and Number 7 are like monkeys in a circus, being played around by female drivers!”

Awesome

a man stood up in the auditorium and shouted at the top of his voice, Excited.

The male commentator was also very excited,

“The vehicles No. 2 and No. 7 collided four times in a row, and they were almost scrapped, so they had to leave the field. Now No. 5 has only one opponent, No. 1. Can she catch up?!” The car driven by Rock On No. 1, there is only one last bend left before the finish line.

As for the number 5 driven by Hedy, there are still seven curves left before the finish line.

“It’s too difficult!” The female commentator shook her head, her tone lost,

“Unless her engine is a rocket thruster, she can’t catch up!”

What a pity.

No. 5 is far above this group of people in terms of driving skills, courage and intelligence.

But she still lost.

She lost because she was only one person.

She loses, she is not as shameless as Rock!

The male commentator showed a helpless smile, and the next words were extremely cryptic, “Actually, even if I lost, I think female driver No. 5 won everyone’s applause and respect.

Sometimes, the process is more important than the result, isn’t it?”

This sentence is to comfort the audience, but also to comfort myself.

Number 5 has won.

She is their champion!

If it wasn’t for the fact that he was the young leader of the RockBlack Gang, he would have scolded Rock for being a stinky idiot!

“Wait, what does female driver No. 5 want to do? She rushed into the valley, did the brakes break? Call an ambulance!” The female commentator suddenly stood up.

In the surveillance footage, the No. 5 car is full of power and rushing towards the valley!

On the other side of the valley is the last bend!

Rock’s No. 1 car has passed the curve and is only one step away from the finish line!

Under the night, among the mountains and rivers.

The silver Mercedes-Benz code-named 5 jumped out, like a new moon, slowly rising!

This scene shocked everyone’s soul.

The car body just passed the surveillance probe.

Her profile clearly appeared on the big screen.

She is beautiful, with delicate features and a cold expression.

She has a very good temperament, and her whole body is unbreakable, but she feels a little lonely.

She is still young, a high school girl, and should have a bright future.

No one will forget this scene.

They felt that this was probably the last swan song of the female driver. At such a height and speed, she would turn into a puddle of flesh at the bottom of the cliff.

But she didn’t turn into a meat paste!

The silver Mercedes landed precisely on the track opposite the valley, and with the help of force, it rushed straight to the finish line with lightning speed!

“The championship is mine! Haha!”

Rock laughed loudly as he looked at the finish line. He was sure of winning, but a lightning-like white afterimage appeared beside him, stepping on the line at a faster speed!

Click-

the most critical scene is captured by the induction camera, and then presented on the big screen.

In the camera, the girl is holding the steering wheel with one hand, propping her face with the other hand, leaning her elbow on the window of the car, her blue hair flying!

The relaxed and calm movements made it hard to believe, what a crazy thing she did just now!

Her car stepped on the line first!

On the other side, Rock smiled wildly and was full of joy, but when the girl stepped on the line, the front of his car was still one centimeter away from the finish line!

How ridiculous!

Snapped.

On the commentary seat, the male commentator stood up with a dazed expression, and the chair fell to the ground without realizing it.

The female commentator covered her mouth and lost her voice briefly.

The audience was silent.

It's as quiet as a silent movie from the last century.

Hedy stopped the car, opened the door, and leaned out.

The spotlight at the finish line is very bright, it illuminates here as bright as day, and also illuminates her facial features are beautiful, her temperament is as cold as a winter Goddess Hedy!

"Hedy!"

Someone broke the silence, and the cheers revived.

"Hedy! Hedy! Hedy!"

The audience all stood up, waving their arms in unison!

This is a cry to the king!

This is the worship of the king!

She is the king of racing!

So I against 6, using basic spare vehicles, defeated 6 racing kings with well-modified sports cars!

Vincent squeezed the railing tighter.

Only in this way can he bear the excitement brought about by the violent beating of his heart.

He lowered his head and didn't look at Hedy, because Hedy had already been engraved in his mind!

His ears were red, and he smiled refreshingly, his voice full of love.

"Vincent..." Margaret called Vincent's name feebly.

"You know, you will never be as good as Hedy."

Vincent didn't intend to be perfunctory. He suppressed his smile and turned to look at Margaret with a cold face,

"You teamed up with the person in charge of the Mathematical Olympiad to trip Hedy, and Hedy won.

Your brother Gather five drivers and set up many levels for Hedy, and Hedy still won. The despicableness of your brothers and sisters is useless in front of Hedy.

The schemes and tricks you use against her will only make her win more glory and let her win. She is worshiped by more people.

I don't like you, never will.

Because I, Vincent, like Hedy!"

Chapter 77 Thugs in suits, Preston restrained

Margaret to stay where she was, her face pale.

Vincent is someone she really likes.

There are not many people in this world who can bear such words from the person they like.

Mist gathered in her eyes, and she was so sad that she was about to cry.

Vincent saw it and didn't feel distressed. He left her and walked towards Hedy.

"Vincent, stop!"

Margaret took two steps forward, crying loudly.

Vincent ignored her and disappeared into the emotional crowd in the auditorium.

Margaret finally shed tears. She wiped away the tears, turned her head to look at Hedy who was about to get on the podium, and gritted her teeth,

"Hedy Ellis!"

No one can compete with me, Hedy.

You wait for me!

podium.

The male and female commentators came from the commentary booth according to the procedure, and called Hedy to the stage with a microphone,

“Let’s invite tonight’s champion, Hedy Ms. Ellis, to come on stage!”

Enthusiastic whistles and cheers immediately rang out from the auditorium.

Everyone really looked down on Hedy before.

Because racing has never had a decent female driver.

Everyone really admires Hedy now.

Because she conquered the track with her strength, and also conquered everyone!

Hedy takes the stage.

The female commentator took the initiative to greet her, her face flushed, and she was very excited,

“Won the championship, what do you want to say about Ms. Ellis, or what do you think of your opponent’s strength?” This is a question that every champion will face.

The conventional answer is nothing more than,

“I’m pretty strong, and my opponent is also pretty good, but I’m a little bit more lucky. Friendship comes first, and competition comes second.”

Hedy Evan frowned slightly when he came to Hedy, and commented truthfully,

“Trash.”

Including Rock The six people included were so rubbish that she couldn’t think of a better adjective.

The female commentator froze, screaming inwardly,

Ms. Ellis, do you know that your opponent is the Young Master of the Black Gang! Did you know that Black Gang is the king of the underground world in Central South Province!

You know, Rock is still on the track!

Is it appropriate to be so crazy!

The reaction of the audience was different from that of the female commentator.

Everyone came from all over the world, with different identities and statuses. Hearing Hedy's comments made one's blood boil.

They shouted in unison,

"Garbage! Garbage! Garbage!"

The courageous ones even threw their drink bottles and fruit peels at Rock .

A banana peel hangs from Rock's head.

"Who!"

Rock angrily tore off the banana peel, wanting to see who was so bold to kill his whole family.

Looking up, he found that almost everyone was looking at him with contempt and disgust.

With a sullen face, he suppressed his anger and got into the Pagani, driving the car off the track.

The male commentator led Hedy to the large glass cabinet where the championship blind box was placed, and introduced,

The championship rewards at the South Circuit are partly unowned boxes obtained from different channels, and partly custom-made boxes by ourselves.

There may be value in them. Pricy things, maybe only a pencil, which one do you want to choose?"

Hedy immediately locked on what he wanted.

She pointed to the red wooden box the size of a diary in the second row in the third row, and her flat voice trembled after listening carefully, "

This."

The female commentator opened the cabinet and handed the wooden box to Hedy,

"This box is from outside. Obtained from the channel, there is a combination lock similar to that on a suitcase, Ms. Ellis may need to find an expert to open it." "I'll try."

Hedy pretended not to know, turned the digital lock wheel, clicked, The lid pops open automatically.

"This...you're lucky, don't you just try it?" The male and female commentators widened their eyes.

The two leaned over and found that there was nothing good in the box.

On the left is a letter with the words "from my sister".

On the right is a women's silver pendant necklace in the shape of a teardrop made of broken diamonds.

Judging from the workmanship and texture, the market price of this necklace will not exceed five hundred at most.

Such a reward is really not worthy of Hedy's performance tonight.

The male and female commentators looked at each other, intending to comfort Hedy.

However, Hedy stretched out her slender and white fingers, picked up the necklace and rubbed it carefully, a gentle expression appeared on her delicate and cold face, and tears glistened in her eyes.

The male and female commentators were taken aback for a moment, and understood that this was a mistake.

Hedy likes this necklace so much that she shed tears.

lounge for drivers.

Rock kicked open the door, threw the sports car keys on the sofa, and went to the counter to pour wine.

His five confidants did not dare to say anything behind them.

The TV hanging on the wall is showing the picture of Hedy stroking the necklace on the podium.

After drinking a glass of wine, Rock slammed the glass on the counter surface with a bang.

"Go, grab Hedy, he'll break his tendons and hamstrings."

With his back to the five people, he waved his hand and issued orders, his tone was extremely cold, and his eyes were filled with cruelty.

Call me rubbish, right?

I'll just abolish you, let's see who is the trash!

"Yes, Young Master!"

Five people took orders and walked out of the lounge.

"Be careful not to fuck her up, take a breath, I'll make you guys feel good after I rape her!"

Rock turned around, intending to tell his henchmen to be merciful, but one of his henchmen smashed through the door of the lounge, straight He flew back and landed at Rock's feet, spitting blood.

Rock backed away in fright, raised his head, and found a tall and straight man in an expensive black suit standing in front of the door.

The man was extremely handsome, even though his face was icy cold, the lines of his facial features were still the most proud work of God.

"...Preston!"

Rock's tone was shocked, how could this King Family heir, the richest man in the entire USA, appear here!

And...

Rock looked down, and found that the remaining four confidantes were lying unconscious at Preston's feet... Did Preston beat them all?

Isn't he just a shopping mall overlord, how could it be...

"Repeat what you said earlier." Preston opened his thin lips, his voice was low and magnetic, and his eyes fell on Rock like looking at a dead thing.

"What, what?"

Rock was completely dumbfounded, he had no idea when Black Gang offended Preston! This man's aura was much stronger than his. He was frightened and tried to recall what he had said before.

He tentatively said, "I want to rape Hedy..."

Before the word "double" was uttered, Preston walked quickly, raised his long legs and kicked and stomped with such force that the kicking Rock backed up again and again, pushing The wooden bar behind him was overwhelmed and crushed!

The broken stake pierced Rock's body, and he screamed loudly, sweating coldly from the pain.

"Young master!"

Seeing this, the confidant who was lying on the ground got up raised his fist with a sandbag to attack Preston.

and

Preston's long and narrow eyes flashed violently, he turned around and kicked, and his henchman flew out again, hitting the TV on the wall.

Click.

The TV was shattered and blacked out, smoked and destroyed.

The confidant fell to the ground, vomiting blood and foaming at the mouth, and lost the ability to move and speak.

The lounge was in a mess, with wine stains and blood stains fused.

In the chaos, Preston's suit was neat, not stained with a drop of blood, nor wrinkled an inch, still an elegant gentleman.

He turned and walked out of the lounge, holding the tie with one hand, and pushing up the loose tie with the other, his handsome face was not at all warm,

Cut off the hands and feet, and send them all to foreign refugee camps.”

“Yes.” Aiden, who was hidden in the dark, bowed his head and responded.

The people in that place really like Rock, a young man with delicate skin and tender flesh. The rest of Rock’s life will definitely be painful, but what can be done about it.

Who made him so undead that he moved Ms. Ellis, whom Childe King likes.

Childe King was originally here just to watch Ms. Ellis race...

Chapter 78

The queen’s reappearance, the prelude to the killing podium.

Hedy put away the necklace, closed the wooden box, and retreated to the driver’s aisle amidst cheers. At the end of the passage, besides

Lucas and his daughter, Vincent was waiting for her.

“Hedy, I watched your car race, you are very handsome.” Vincent smiled warmly,

“Go back to the Sunshine Hotel now? Teacher Tim and the others ordered a big meal, and we will have dinner when we go back.”

He didn’t confess his love to Hedy.

Because he knows that he is not worthy now.

“Yes.” Hedy agreed, and turned to look at Lucas and his daughter.

Lucas said gratefully, “Ms. Ellis, we owe you a kindness. If you need us in the future, just tell us.

Snow nodded with long hair.

“No, we don’t owe each other.”

Hedy shook the wooden box in his hand, took a taxi with Vincent, and returned to Sunshine Hotel.

Since Vincent was nearby, Hedy was inconvenient to go to the presidential suite where Preston was, so she went back to her room, locked the wooden box and put it on the table.

After doing all this, she turned off the lights and closed the door, pulled out the room card, went downstairs with Vincent to the restaurant, and met Luke and others.

The hotel cleaning aunt pushed the cart and walked towards the room where the cleaning service was ordered.

Walking to the corner, she was stopped by a young and pretty girl.

The little girl wore twin ponytails, her hair gradually changed from pink to blue on the other side, which was really pretty.

“What’s the maiter, miss.” Auntie greeted her with a smile.

“I cut my hand and it hurts.” Margaret raised her clenched fist.

“Let me see.” Auntie Cleaning was very enthusiastic.

Margaret suddenly opened her five fingers and sprinkled the drug in her palm into her aunt’s nose.

As the daughter of the leader of the Black Gang, she is very familiar with this shady drug and always keeps it with her.

Aunt Baojie was stunned on the spot and passed out on the ground, revealing the universal card around her waist.

Universal card, special hotel room card, can open every door of the hotel.

It is generally configured on the cleaning staff and the front desk.

Margaret took the universal card, dragged the cleaning aunt into the utility room, and complained in a tone of voice,

“I really don’t know where my brother died. The phone calls are not answered, and WhatsApp are not answered. I have to do it myself.”

She originally planned to contact her brother and let him My brother sent someone to help clean up Hedy.

However, her brother lost contact suddenly, so she had to go back to the hotel. Not long after, Hedy and Vincent also came back.

Vincent’s attention was on Hedy, and Hedy’s attention was on the red. wooden box in her hand.

This made Margaret think,

Hedy took away the Vincent she cared about, why didn't she take away the things Hedy cared about too?

Although she didn't understand, what's the point of a broken blind box necklace.

But wouldn't it be nice to ruin something Hedy loves and make her sad?

Think of it as a "pre-dinner dessert" for Hedy!

"Hedy's room, here."

Margaret came to the door of Hedy's room, and opened the door with the master card.

She went in quickly, closed the door and turned on the light, and soon saw the red wooden box on the table.

"I don't know the code, but I brought a knife." Margaret drew out her sharp dagger and stabbed it down hard.

After a few pokes, a big hole was poked out on the top of the simple wooden box.

This was what Margaret expected.

But no matter how good the quality of the box is, it is impossible to be reduced to the South Circuit and be regarded as a champion blind box.

She reached in and took out the letter.

"Sister's letter"? It's still a letter that has been opened. Could it be that Hedy opened it on the way back?"

Margaret found that the seal of the letter had been opened.

She took out the letter inside, glanced at it roughly, and frowned, "What the hell?"

Margaret tore the letter into pieces and scattered it at her feet.

She reached out to take out the necklace again, put it in the palm of her hand and observed it for a moment, her eyes full of disgust.

Whether it is style or material, this necklace is too rubbish.

It is completely incomparable with the Swarovski crystal necklace she usually wears.

"After all, I'm a rural person. I haven't seen the world. It's ridiculous to treat a necklace of this grade as a treasure."

Margaret also lost the idea of monopolizing the necklace. She held the chain with both hands and pulled it slightly, and the necklace broke in two..

“Let you and I rob Vincent, let you and me rob Vincent!”

Unhappy, she tore the two necklaces into four, and the four necklaces into eight.

When there was nothing to talk about, she threw the broken necklace on the ground and stepped on it hard.

She left Hedy’s room, broke the master card and threw it in the trash can, and left the Sunshine Hotel in a vehicle.

Luke spent a lot of money to buy a super king crab, and he treated the four of Hedy to a feast.

When everyone asked Vincent why he went back to the hotel with Hedy, Vincent told about the South Raceway. This made Luke and the others dumbfounded.

Can Hedy still race cars?

Still won the championship?

While pestering Vincent for details, they asked Hedy for confirmation.

Hedy, who took back the wooden box, was in a good mood, so he chatted for a while.

But this good mood only lasted until she was on her way back to her room after dinner.

She found her door open.

Some of the hotel staff stood at the door and some stood inside.

wooden box!

Hedy took a breath, and ran in quickly. What caught his eyes was a wooden box with a broken roof, a pile of scraps of paper, and a pile of broken necklaces.

Her pupils constricted, the grief after joy rushed straight into her brain, her lips turned white and lost their blood.

“Ms. Ellis...” the staff tried to call her.

She couldn't hear, and knelt on the ground, trembling hands, quickly picked up the scraps of paper in her palms.

But there were too many scraps of paper, she picked them up, and a broken necklace appeared in front of her eyes.

This small half necklace has a teardrop pendant.

She gently picked up the pendant, and wiped off the footprints on it with her thumb.

Slap.

Something slid down her cheeks and onto the teardrops.

Slap.

It was also raining outside the window.

A gust of wind blew in through the half-open window, blowing all the scraps of paper away from her palm.

She hurriedly grabbed it, but didn't leave a single piece.

"I assure you, we will definitely give you a satisfactory answer. Sunshine Hotel will repay you twice for the damage you have suffered." When he said this, the manager's eyes flashed a thick chill. gas.

Sunshine Hotel is a bridge connecting the killer world and the ordinary world.

Anyone who dares to provoke trouble at the Sunshine Hotel will not end well.

"I can handle it myself."

Hedy stood up, clenched the only teardrop pendant in his palm, and his beautiful face was peaceful.

Only she knows how manic and bloodthirsty rolls beneath the calmness.

The manager nodded, "We respect Ms. Ellis' choice. If Ms. Ellis needs anything, you can tell us, and we will cooperate with all our strength." "Gun."

Hedy spat out a word.

"What?" The manager pretended not to understand.

He was familiar with this word, but he didn't know Hedy's identity, so he didn't dare to answer rashly.

"I want a gun." Hedy repeated.

The murderous look in her eyes made the manager Susan stand up

Boom!

Outside the window behind Hedy, there was a thunderstorm, a sudden storm, and lightning.

Chapter 79 Going to the meeting alone, clearing up the Black Mango (1)

The room fell into deathly silence.

All the hotel staff including the manager straightened their backs with the same shock in their hearts.

Lucifer, nicknamed queen, is the number one ace in the killer world.

Not long ago, the organization she was loyal to tortured and killed her younger brother, and she died with the organization.

People say that she was buried in the flames, and the legend has come to an end.

-but.

She appeared here as a female high school student.

And ask Sunshine Hotel for a gun.

"You...what's your password?"

A waitress kept the process in mind and asked Hedy for the password.

"There is no need to check the identity, she is the queen herself." The manager stopped his subordinates from doing so.

Before Hedy came, he saw a few words on the scraps of paper, namely, “sister”, “brother”, “do it yourself”.

Combined with Hedy’s emotional changes, the answer is already obvious, Hedy is Lucifer!

Lucifer is the queen!

The letter is her brother’s relic, and the necklace is a gift made by her brother himself and given to her! Margaret, who ruined all of this, is already beyond the reach of gods.

“Master Lucifer, please follow me to the basement.” The manager stretched out his hand to invite.

Hedy spread out his palms, put the teardrop pendant back into the box gently.

She couldn’t let the blood of that group of people stain it.

Putting the pendant away, she left with a cold face and the hotel manager.

in the room.

A staff member planned to help Hedy pick up the scraps of paper, thinking of salvaging them and maybe putting them back together.

“Don’t pick it up, the gust of wind just now blows out several scraps of paper, it’s useless, Master Lucifer himself gave up.” The others sighed.

On the other side, Hedy and the manager took the private elevator to the basement below the underground parking lot.

The basement is brightly lit, and the walls on both sides are covered with different types of guns. There are light weapons such as pistols, grenades, and daggers in the cabinets beside the walls.

Going further inside, there are also heavy weapons such as grenade launchers and machine guns.

In addition to guns and ammunition, the hotel also provides men’s suits, women’s evening dresses, and a few car keys.

“We have found out that Margaret is the daughter of the leader of the Black Gang. After leaving the hotel, she went to the Black Gang headquarters, Prime Bar.

This is the 3D map of the bar, as well as the photos and information of Margaret’s father, Jason, the leader of the Black Gang.” The manager pointed After a few clicks on the tablet, hand the tablet to Hedy.

The screen is split into two, a 3D image of the bar appears on the left, and a photo of Jason appears on the right.

Jason is a middle-aged man with average appearance. There are criss- crossed scars on his face, some are deep and some are shallow, and his eyes are fierce. It can be seen that he did a lot of shopping when he was young. Under the photo, all Jason's information is recorded in detail, including weight, height, blood type, and private phone number.

"I don't know which gun Mr. Lucifer is looking for? I recommend this new one..."

The manager walked to the wall, turned around and was about to introduce Hedy, but found that Hedy had already left.

The tablet rested on a glass cabinet, missing a pistol and a car key.

"Just a pistol?" The manager was a little taken aback, and then laughed, with admiration and respect in his eyes,

"That's right, for the ace killer queen, a pistol is enough."

Just don't know Black Gang, get ready to meet Is it death?
the basement.

Hedy sat in the driver's seat and dialed the Black Gang leader, Jason's personal phone.

Within ten seconds, the call was connected.

On the other end of the phone, came a deep male voice, "Who are you?"

"I want your daughter's life, you will bring it here, or I will pick it up." Hedy said concisely, with a cold voice.

She didn't use a questioning tone.

Because this is a unilateral notice from her.

Jason obviously didn't expect to get this answer.

He paused for a moment, then asked again, "Who are you...?"

"Lucifer."

Snap.

It seemed to be the sound of a wine glass falling to the ground.

Jason remained silent for a longer time, and after a while, he asked with a trembling voice,

"Me, my daughter Margaret, what did she do?"

Twist the car key, step on the accelerator, and rush out of the basement into the rainy night.

Prime Bar.

Jason looked at the hung up call interface on his phone, his mind was buzzing, and the scarred face that was still majestic just now was only panicked.

“what’s the matter?” The confidant stepped forward and asked.

“Call Missy here.” Jason tried to look calm.

“Yes.” The confidant nodded.

After a while, Margaret came, holding a PSP game console in his hand.

“Tell Dad, what did you do today?” Jason ‘s heart was pounding.

“I didn’t do anything. If there’s nothing else to do, I’ll continue playing games.” Margaret lowered her head to operate the game console. She was in a happy mood and didn’t notice her father’s abnormality.

She guessed that Hedy had finished eating by now and saw the masterpiece she left behind.

As long as she thinks of Hedy’s broken and sad appearance, she will fly with joy.

Snapped!

Jason slapped his daughter, slapped his daughter on the sofa, and asked loudly,

“You didn’t do anything, how could Lucifer want your life! Tell me the truth!”

The father suddenly raised his voice, scaring Margaret’s heart With a flick, she immediately lost the idea of the game, asked,

“Lucifer wants my life? Who is she?”

Jason was so annoyed by his daughter’s stupid look, he held his forehead and walked back and forth in front of the sofa Pacing, expression tense.

Margaret faintly sensed that something was wrong.

Ever since she was born, her father has always been calm and calm, in charge of the big role of life and death of others, and has never been so flustered!

She also panicked, “I just...just knocked out the hotel cleaning, entered Hedy’s room with a universal card, ruined a necklace for her, tore a letter...other than that, I didn’t do anything!”

She didn’t kill anyone, and she didn’t set fire to it. Even if this kind of thing was investigated, wouldn’t it be settled with tens of thousands of dollars?

Why should that Lucifer kill her!

“What was written in the letter?” Jason grabbed the point and asked.

“I, I didn’t look carefully, I just remembered that there were the words. ‘my sister’s love’ on it.” Margaret answered honestly.

Hearing this, Jason's face lost all color!

He raised his hand and slapped Margaret hard on the face again!

After two slaps, Margaret's ponytails were messed up, and the corners of her mouth were bloodshot.

"Dad, what the hell is going on? Who is that Lucifer? Why did you beat me like this for her!" Margaret was aggrieved and scared.

"I remember I told you that the Black Gang is king in the underground world of Central South Province, and they are nothing if they leave Central South Province."

Jason stopped walking and brought up the old matter again.

"I have." Margaret nodded, and replied obediently,

"You also said that as the leader of the Black Gang, you are not even the head of a village in the underground world on a global scale.

The person who really controls the dark world is A coalition of international assassins."

Chapter 80 Going to the meeting alone, clearing up the black gang

Margaret remembered that her father had always wanted to make connections with the killer world.

My father also often said that in front of the group of killers born from the darkness, the core and most capable thugs of the Black Gang are just newborn babies, vulnerable and vulnerable.

"But what does that have to do with Lucifer?" Margaret didn't understand.

Jason gave a low laugh, which contained emotions such as despair, fear, and anger.

He looked at his ignorant and pathetic daughter, and said calmly,

"Lucifer, people in the killer world, respectfully call her 'Queen', and recognize her as the number one ace,

She has a younger brother who depends on each other. In order to protect her younger brother's safety.

Two months ago, her younger brother was tortured and killed by the organization. She wiped out the entire organization by herself, and then disappeared.

Two months later, my dear daughter tore up her brother's last letter..."

At the end, Jason could no longer pretend to be calm. He grabbed his daughter's hair, lifted her from the sofa, and squeezed out a sentence between his teeth,

"He fucking ruined her necklace!"

"Ah... Woohoo!" Margaret cried out in terror.

Whether it was her father's attitude or his words, she was so frightened that her mind was split and she burst into tears.

After all, she is his beloved daughter, Jason softened his heart, let go of her hair, and said in a stern tone,

“Lucifer will come to you, you can do nothing but be afraid, go upstairs and hide!”

He Jason, After so many years of being the king and hegemony in Central South Province, there is absolutely no reason to give up his daughter on his own territory!

And...

there are quite a few people in the killer world who hate the queen, so why not kill her as a token of honor and get on the big ship of the killer world?

As the saying goes, a strong dragon can't beat a local snake, isn't it?!

Margaret ran in hastily as if she had been pardoned, but because her legs were weak, she took two steps and knelt down, her back in a panic.

“Find a reason, drive out all the guests in the bar, call all the gang members, and all return to defense!”

Jason dug out the sniper rifle in the drawer and assembled it,

“Young gang leader can't be contacted.”

Rock, the young gang leader, disappeared.

“I'm sure he's going to have fun again, just leave him alone!” Jason scolded his son in his heart.

The bar was cleared quickly.

The luxury cars parked outside the bar gradually drove away.

The torrential rain is still falling and shows no sign of abating.

Fifteen minutes later, at the door of the cold Prime Bar, a black car drove up.

Hedy opened the car door and leaned out.

The bar that should have been noisy was unusually quiet, and the sound of Hedy's footsteps seemed particularly abrupt.

Hedy stood at the door of the bar, unconsciously, the contents of that letter emerged in his mind.

–Sister, see the words as you see them.

She strode forward, gun in her left hand, and walked into the bar.

On the first step inside, the cold muzzles of a pistol were pressed against each temple.

–When you read this letter, I have already returned to the old place.

Hedy moved swiftly, raising the arm of the enemy on the right with his right hand, and at the same time, kicked with his left leg sideways, kicking away the wrist of the enemy on the left.

The enemy shot twice with bang bang, all of which were empty.

–Sorry for confusing you, I have no choice.

She seized the opportunity, shot a headshot with the left hand holding the gun, turned around, raised her leg, and hit the enemy's abdomen on the right with her knee. At the same time, she intercepted the pistol in his hand.

-They planted a locator in my heart, wherever we escape, they can find it.

Hedy walked forward.

The person hiding behind the load-bearing pillar took a breath, raised his gun, and predicted where Hedy was going.

As soon as Hedy appeared in his field of vision, he would shoot.

But he waited for a while, but Hedy did not appear. The next second, the back of his head was pressed against the muzzle of the gun, and Hedy was behind him.

This is not true freedom.

“Lucifer! Today is your death day!”

A large group of armed people appeared in front of them, and the leader shouted and rushed over.

Hedy shot the headshot of the person in front of him, kicked the corpse on the back, and let the corpse rush up to block the gun for himself. At the same time, with two guns in hand, he fired several shots in succession to finish off the first batch of enemies.

-For so many years, they have been using me to blackmail you.

The shield body fell to the ground, and Hedy flipped forward with one hand, dodging the long-aimed bullet behind him, and brushed the bullet with the tail of his hair.

The moment she landed, she kicked away one of the second batch of enemies rushing over, turned around and kicked away the second one, and then “bang bang” two shots, killing them.

– Now, it's time to put an end to all of this.

Enemies poured in from all directions, and Hedy changed the bullets, as if walking in the back garden of his own house, shooting one at a time.

A strong man rushed over, Hedy jumped up and kicked him at the collarbone, kicking him back again and again.

As he retreated, Hedy's eyes were full of murderous intent, and he fired with both hands until the bullets were empty.

–See the necklace next to it?

Seeing that Hedy's pistol was out of bullets, one person was overjoyed and attacked with a rifle.

Hedy squatted down, knocked him down with a sweeping kick, grabbed the rifle in his hand, squatted on the ground, and fired at the tide of enemies one after another.

Then he turned the gun backwards without looking at it, and killed the owner of the rifle behind him.

—I made it with my own hands. I hope you can fly away with it, try to do what you want to do, and try to love someone who can be loved.

A red laser light slowly moved from the wall to Hedy's face.

Hedy kicked his feet, ran out, stepped on the load-bearing column, did a backflip, hid behind the bar booth, and avoided the sniper bullets from the second floor.

The opponent's bullet missed, she immediately stood up, held the rifle, and shot Jason in the head.

-Brother, Cooper.

So far, all core members and gang leaders of the Black Gang have been killed! The bar was quiet again.

Hedy dropped the rifle, picked up a pistol, and walked upstairs slowly.

The sound of footsteps echoed in the empty hall, like a spell calling for death, stimulating Margaret's heart bit by bit.

Margaret, who was hiding in the room, had already learned about the situation downstairs through the indoor surveillance.

She covered her mouth to suppress her screaming, tears flowed down the back of her hands, her body trembled like a sieve.

The core members of the gang are all dead, and so is Dad!

The murderer is Hedy! It's Lucifer! It's Queen!

If she knew that Hedy had such a heavy identity, she would absolutely never offend Hedy!

Hedy was looking for her upstairs.

She wants to escape!

Yes, she wants to escape!

But damn it, she was so weak that she couldn't even get a little strength to walk!

Boom!

The closed door was kicked open by Hedy.

"Ahhh!"

Margaret couldn't bear it any longer, and screamed desperately, looking at Hedy's eyes full of fear.

It was like seeing the Grim Reaper!

Hedy walked towards her.

She kept backing, backing, until she reached a corner from which she could not retreat.

Hedy raised his pistol.

Margaret shook her head, pleading, "That's just an item..."

Bang

Before she could finish speaking, flowers splashed on the wall.

Hedy averted his indifferent gaze, took a step back and turned to leave.
