

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2371

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2371-“When we encounter the phantoms later, don’t make a move. Let me handle it on my own. You two step in only when I can’t handle it alone,” Jared said to Archer and Skyler.

The two nodded. Since slaying the phantoms was Jared’s way of cultivation, they would leave the phantoms to him. After walking for a while, they saw a large group of phantoms approaching.

Leading them was a phantom in battle armor, followed by what Jared presumed were his soldiers. All the phantoms were dressed in ancient clothing and held spears, clearly resembling an ancient army. This group was most likely a fallen army. Their souls had lingered and transformed into phantoms.

Upon seeing the sudden appearance of this large group of phantoms, Archer and Skyler went pale. Only Jared’s eyes were filled with excitement. For him, this was a plentiful resource of Ultimate Force.

“Take care of yourselves,” Jared said to Archer. and Skyler. Then, he leaped, charging into the group of phantoms, wielding Dragonslayer Sword. The phantom in battle armor, wielding a long knife, looked at Jared and shouted, “Attack!”

The other phantoms, with spears in their hands, let out deafening screams and rushed toward Jared. In mid-air, Jared swung his Dragonslayer Sword, and a golden light slashed through the sky.

In an instant, a significant number of phantoms in front of him were slain, and imperceptible traces of Ultimate Force flowed into Jared’s body.

Jared was overjoyed. Holding Dragonslayer Sword, he dashed into the chaotic phantom army and slashed them fiercely. Though these phantoms were once soldiers, they had become enemies of the living, and Jared showed no mercy.

Moreover, by slaying these phantoms, they could be released from their torment and reincarnate, escaping the bitter fate of being phantoms that hung around the world.

Skyler and Archer watched Jared's valiant figure with a touch of emotion. In such a short time, Jared had transformed from the person they once looked down upon into someone with capabilities they couldn't even hope to reach.

When they first encountered Jared, he was barely clinging to life after being beaten by Garthor. "Perhaps this is talent. Well, you and I are no match for him." Archer sighed softly.

At this moment, Jared became more and more excited as he fought. There was no sign of fatigue or exhaustion. However, just as Jared was engrossed in the battle, the phantom in battle armor, wielding his long sword, quietly approached from behind Jared, intending to launch a surprise attack.

Seeing this, Archer and Skyler panicked. "D*mn it! These phantoms are sentient!" Archer cursed when he saw the phantom in battle armor attempting to ambush Jared.

It was too late to warn Jared, so Archer and Skyler attacked the phantom in battle armor together. Archer's fist struck, enveloping the phantom, while Skyler's sword emitted light.

The phantom in battle armor was enraged and let out a furious growl. His body was shrouded by lethal intent, neutralizing Archer and Skyler's attacks in an instant.

Its long sword cleaved through the air, unleashing a terrifying glint. Skyler hastily blocked with her sword but was sent flying. Archer gritted his teeth, leaped forward, and struck the phantom with a powerful punch.

However, the phantom in battle armor remained unmoved and counterattacked. Instead, he sent Archer flying. "This phantom is too powerful. It's simply abnormal..." Archer slowly got up, his brows furrowed.

He is so d*mn strong! No wonder he is the leader and the only one in battle armor! "Even Master struggled to slay one of these with battle armor. It seems we are no match for it," Skyler said, concern etched over her face.

"Anyhow, we can't let him harm Mr. Chance. Attack!"

Archer leaped up again, followed closely by Skyler, as they both launched an assault on the armored phantom.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2372

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2372-Meanwhile, Jared had heard the sounds of the battle. After swiftly beheading several phantoms that were nearby, he turned his gaze and noticed Archer and Skyler engaged in combat with the armored phantom that was apparently the leader of the group. It was evident that Archer and Skyler were at a disadvantage, with both of them sustaining varying degrees of injuries.

Upon witnessing this, Jared immediately charged forward, his Dragonslayer Sword ablaze with raging flames. With a powerful swing, he struck the leader fiercely. The flames engulfed the leader, who let out roars of agony while struggling to break free.

Jared felt a pang of pity at the sight. The armored phantom had once been a general who sacrificed himself for the country. However, Jared had no choice.

After all, death was a form of release for these phantoms. Just as the flames raged on, a dark and sinister lethal intent emanated from the phantom, extinguishing the burning spiritual fire, despite the fire's ability to set anything ablaze.

The surrounding air seemed to solidify, and chilling gusts of wind blew, engulfing Jared and his companions in an icy grip. Jared furrowed his brow slightly, realizing the formidable nature of the lethal intent.

In response, he unleashed the Power of Dragons within his body, causing a beam of light to shoot out from his Dragonslayer Sword. The light transformed into a golden dragon that soared through the air, spewing torrents of flames as it began to attack the phantom leader in battle armor.

The murderous intent emitted by the phantom clashed with the spiritual fire from the golden dragon. Jared's Power of Dragons surged relentlessly, intensifying the flames emanating from the dragon.

Gradually, the lethal intent emitted by the phantom began to weaken and eventually caught fire. Soon, the phantom leader ceased all movements, and a radiant speck ascended into the sky before hurtling rapidly toward Jared.

"Watch out, Mr. Chance!" Archer and Skyler were unaware of the situation and suddenly saw a speck of light charging right at Jared. They rushed to shield him, but the light pierced through their bodies and entered Jared's body instead. "The phantom leader's Ultimate Force is indeed strong..."

To his delight, Jared realized that he now had two marks of Ultimate Force. As he attained the mark, Jared felt the spiritual energy within his elixir field surging relentlessly. Am I on the precipice of breaking through?

Jared was stumped and hastily sat cross-legged on the ground, immediately entering a state of cultivation. "What's the matter with Mr. Chance?" Archer was perplexed by Jared's sudden decision to sit and cultivate. He couldn't understand why Jared would start cultivating at this moment..

"Mr. Chance must be on the verge of a breakthrough. This is the critical moment that prompted him to start cultivating suddenly. We must protect him," Skyler said. She realized what was going on and explained it to Archer.

The latter nodded. They positioned themselves on either side of Jared, guarding him diligently. Unbeknownst to them, a day and night had passed as they protected Jared without moving an inch. Meanwhile, Jared remained motionless.

At this moment, the sound of footsteps began drawing closer to Jared and his companions, causing Archer and Skyler to grow anxious. Phantoms made no sound when moving, so the approaching footsteps indicated the presence of humans.

However, Archer and Skyler didn't know who they were and dared not employ their spiritual sense lest their whereabouts were exposed to the other party.

Now Archer and Skyler could only fervently pray that these people were not the ones led by Wrey but were the ones led by Matthew and his group instead.

However, as the footsteps grew nearer and the figures became clearer, Archer and Skyler's hearts sank. It was indeed Wrey and his group. Though Archer and Skyler felt disheartened, they remained steadfast, standing by Jared's side to guard him.

Upon seeing Jared, Wrey and his group were taken aback. They had assumed Jared would have escaped long ago, perhaps even left the secret realm. However, to their surprise, he was still there.

“Haha! It seems luck is on our side, as we have encountered him here without any effort.” Wrey let out a chortle.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2373

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2372-Jared, with his eyes still tightly shut, was seemingly oblivious to the events unfolding around him. Archer and Skyler anxiously watched Wrey and his group, their aura rising and their stomachs bulging like inflated balloons. Archer and Skyler knew that relying on just the two of them to stop Wrey and his group was mission impossible. It simply could not be done.

Hence, from the beginning, their plan had been to self-destruct, using it as a bluff to deter Wrey and prevent him from resorting to any rash actions. “Wrey, if you dare to harm Mr. Chance even slightly, we will self-destruct, and no one will survive,” Archer shouted loudly at Wrey.

Observing Archer and Skyler’s determination, Wrey responded with a cold, disdainful smile. “You two little brats think your self-destruction will frighten me? Your self-destruction is nothing more than setting off firecrackers, incapable of causing us any harm. If you don’t believe me, go ahead and try. We’d be happy to listen to the two of you pop.”

The others around Wrey wore mocking smiles on their faces. “Young lady, you are so charming and delicate. It’s a shame to see you self-destruct. Behave obediently, and I promise you a life of luxury and indulgence. I’ll feed you my enhancement pill every day, ensuring both of us reach heights of pleasure and desire,” Isaac from Alchemical Sect leered at Skyler, his eyes filled with lust. Skyler’s face flushed with anger as she shot a death glare at the lewd man, hoping she could tear the shameless man to his death.

“Isaac, how dare you insult Skyler! I’m going to fight you to the death today!” Archer was livid. He let out a low growl and charged right at Isaac, intending to perish together with the scoundrel.

Archer had always liked Skyler, and they had long been recognized as a couple by Luminous Sect. However, Archer’s beloved was now being humiliated in such a manner. Any man would jump at that.

However, as soon as Archer moved, Wrey waved his hand, enveloping Archer in an overwhelming aura. The force acted as shackles, rendering Archer completely immobile.

“In my presence, neither of you have the right to move. Do you think you can intimidate me with self-destruction? Do you really think you’re capable of doing that?” Wrey sneered at Archer, his tone dripping with disdain.

Archer and Skyler both flushed with anger and were at a loss for words. In view of the huge discrepancy between their powers and Wrey’s, they couldn’t even make a move to sacrifice themselves.

“Mr. Lindt, hand over that beauty to me. You may deal with the rest as you see fit,” Isaac said. “All right, but you’ve got to be gentle. There are people lining up to enjoy her after you,” Wrey replied, letting out a cold cackle.

“Don’t worry. She will be more than capable of serving us all after I give her my enhancement pill.” Isaac smiled lecherously as he walked toward Skyler.

“Isaac Bachman, f*ck you! If you dare to lay a hand on her, I will haunt you to eternity!” Archer warned. Boiling in fury, Isaac shook uncontrollably as he roared at Isaac. “Kill me right now if you dare! Kill me now!”

“I get more excited the more you curse at me like that. I’m going to let you witness how your girl turns into a sit later. What a shame that your master, Matthew, isn’t here. Otherwise, I’d really like him to watch how his female disciple serves my men. Hahaha!” Isaac broke into raucous laughter at his own words.

The others erupted into laughter as well. They eyed Skyler and Archer like a predator eyeing its helpless prey. Skyler was mortified. However, she was under the control of Wrey’s aura, immobilized and unable to even self-destruct to save her dignity.

“Freaking animals! I won’t let the lot of you get what you want! You will never get to humiliate me like that! Over my dead body!” Skyler shouted. Then, she attempted to end her life by biting down on her tongue.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2374

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2374-However, before Skyler could bite her tongue, Isaac stopped her by grabbing her chin. “Even if you want to die, you can only do so after we’ve had our way with you...” he bellowed before stepping forward to scoop the woman up.

Boom! Just as Isaac was about to lift Skyler into his arms, a gust of wind hit him so suddenly that he couldn't dodge it in time. As he was sent flying backward, he slammed into dozens of trees before finally crashing to the ground, blood trickling down from the corners of his mouth. Wrey furrowed his brow. "Who is it?"

Needless to say, the rest of the group was also on edge as they scanned their surroundings frantically. If so many of them had failed to notice the person approaching, that could only mean one thing—they were up against a formidable opponent!

"I can't believe you guys are abusing your power and bullying a young lady. Have you no shame? So much for calling yourselves members of righteous sects... You're even worse than Demonic Cultivators! Thankfully, I've never aligned myself with the likes of you. In fact, I'll kill you all..."

In the distance, an elderly man dressed in a flowing gray robe began walking out. Everyone present instantly felt the suffocating aura and tensed up.

They could tell how powerful their surprise visitor was, to the point where it struck fear into their hearts. Archer and Skyler, on the other hand, beamed with excitement.

"Mr. Songscloud, please save us and Mr. Chance..." they shouted, having recognized the man as Yashur Songscloud from the island. With a gentle wave of his hand, Yashur removed the aura restraining Archer and Skyler, thus setting them free. "Who are you? Why are you meddling in the affairs of the hidden realm?" Wrey asked.

"My name's Yashur Songscloud. I'm the old monster you guys in the hidden realm often talk about. I can ignore most of your nefarious activities, but if you want to lay a finger on him..." Yashur said as he pointed at Jared. "I'm afraid I'll have to step in."

Upon hearing that, the crowd paled. Everyone in the hidden realm was aware of the old monster who patrolled the seas, and even though no one had seen him or learned his name, they knew he was real. That was also why most people chose not to travel by sea because those who did would never make it back alive!

"Ah, you're Mr. Songscloud. Jared Chance killed my son, so why can't I make him pay with his life? It's an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. I hope you'll stay out of this, Mr. Songscloud. Once the matter is over, I'll be sure to get our hidden realm sects to shower you with gifts and resources," Wrey replied, hoping he could buy Yashur off instead of sparring with him.

Well, let's hope that'd be enough to get him off my back! Yashur, however, curled his lips into a half smile. "So what? Even if Mr. Chance had killed your mother, I still wouldn't let you hurt him in the slightest. If you do, I'll send you straight down to hell..." he said firmly, making it clear that there was no room for discussion.

After all, Jared was his overlord, and he'd do everything to protect the former, even if it cost him his life! For a moment, Wrey was stunned, but it didn't take long before his expression turned grim.

I don't know why this old monster is so protective of Jared, but there's no way I'll let him humiliate me in public! Besides, I'm not alone. With all our hidden realm sects gathered here, we can take on this old monster!

"Listen here, old monster. I've tried to reason. with you, yet you refuse to back off. Since you don't know what's good for you, don't blame us for taking drastic measures," Wrey warned. "You may be powerful, but you're also on your own. I doubt you can take on the combined strength of our hidden realm sects! Let's fight to the death, then! By hook or by crook, I'll kill Jared Chance today!"

With that, Wrey began unleashing his aura, prompting the others to follow suit and prepare for action.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2375

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2375-In an instant, several bursts of terrifying aura engulfed Yashur. The man frowned ever so slightly. He wasn't afraid of the people before him, but if they really were to fight, it'd be hard for him to ensure Jared's safety.

However, he also knew that he couldn't show. any signs of fear or weakness. Otherwise, Wrey and his cronies would lunge at him and tear him to pieces!

"Hahaha! Fight to the death, huh? Are you sure? You guys are nothing to me..." Yashur mocked as a cloud of aura gradually rose from his body and exploded mid-air.

A storm started brewing almost immediately, and the sky plunged into darkness. There was a continuous distortion of the space around the crowd while spatial turbulence ravaged the land, making it look like the apocalypse had begun.

Not only was the aura from Wrey and his group instantaneously destroyed, but they could also feel the air and earth vibrating. As they stared at the apocalyptic sky above them, they couldn't help but feel a sense of dread. Hugh's eyes widened in fear. "Manifestor? I-Is he a Manifestor?"

Isaac, too, couldn't stop himself from trembling. "I can't believe Manifestors really do exist!" "Manifestors are at the top of their game, and their power is beyond belief. No wonder he says we're nothing to him!" an ashen-faced Yona muttered before turning around to run for his life.

Sh*t! Manifestors can easily smash us to smithereens, so I'd better escape before he launches his attack! Soon, many other people followed Yona's lead and fled.

At that moment, nobody cared about anyone else or the alliance. All they wanted was to protect themselves and stay alive! Wrey continued staring dazedly at Yashur while his posse, who was raring to go just a few minutes ago, disappeared into the distance. As if it wasn't bad enough that his legs were still shaking and big drops of sweat were pouring down his face, he had also wet his pants.

Then again, how could he not? Wrey stood the nearest to Yashur, so naturally, he felt the brunt of the latter's fearsome power and the fear that it induced.

When the poor man finally snapped out of his daze, he turned and ran as fast as his legs could carry him until he disappeared into the horizon. Once everyone was gone, the terrifying aura dissipated, and the surroundings gradually returned to normal.

Yashur merely remained in his spot, his face devoid of any expression. Meanwhile, Archer stared at the elderly man in bewilderment. "Mr. Songscloud, these men have been hunting Mr. Chance down for the longest time. Why did you let them go instead of killing them?"

Mr. Songscloud's a Manifestor, for goodness" sake! Killing those men would be easy as pie! The next second, however, Yashur grimaced and spat a mouthful of blood!

His face had turned to an ashen hue, and his aura was significantly weaker. Scared out of their wits, Skyler and Archer hurriedly stepped forward to help him. "Mr. Songscloud, what's the matter with you?"

"I'm fine. I'll feel better after some rest. In the meantime, please watch over Mr. Chance. I doubt those people would be back anytime soon," Yashur mumbled before closing his eyes and settling into a meditative state.

As it turned out, Yashur wasn't a Manifestor at all! He had merely channeled every bit of his internal energy to create a similar aura. Everything Wrey and the others had witnessed was nothing more than a charade, and the truth was, he wouldn't have been able to attack!

Even though the act of desperation couldn't kill the horde, it'd be enough to drive them away, which was what Yashur was counting on. Unfortunately, he had used up so much internal energy that he sustained several severe injuries.

Archer and Skyler stared anxiously at Yashur and Jared. All they could do now was hope for the latter to achieve his breakthrough soon. Otherwise, they wouldn't be able to hold Wrey and the others off if they were to return.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2376

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2376-A while later, Jared's body began to glow as a powerful and intimidating aura emanated from within him. He opened his eyes slowly, revealing a gaze so deep that one could not tell what he was thinking. "You've broken through, Mr. Chance?"

Archer and Skyler grew excited as they felt the change in Jared's aura. Jared got up slowly and nodded. Feeling the changes in his own body, the man finally had a look of joy on his face. He had never expected Ultimate Force to be this powerful.

All he did was attain the second stage of Ultimate Force, and that immediately upgraded his cultivation level to that of a Sixth Level Martial Arts God. In other words, he had now achieved a Spirit Replicator cultivation level of six.

Who knows what I would achieve in my cultivation level if I brought my Ultimate Force to the ninth stage? As of now, there were phantoms everywhere in this secret realm. Jared was using them as his source of cultivating Ultimate Force.

“How long have I been cultivating, Archer?” he asked Archer. “It’s been one day and one night, Mr. Chance. Wrey was here with his men just a while ago. We would’ve all been killed if Mr. Songscloud hadn’t shown up in time,” Archer responded.

“Yashur?” Jared stilled briefly before spotting the said person nearby. The latter’s face appeared pale, and his eyes were shut tightly.

“What’s going on?” Jared knew what Yashur was capable of. Wrey shouldn’t be any match for him, but why does he look like he’s severely injured? “You see, Mr. Chance...”

Skyler explained how Yashur had forcefully activated his internal energy to pretend to be a Manifestor. He wouldn’t have been able to scare Wrey away if not for that.

Realization dawned on Jared as soon as he heard Skylar’s explanation. Then, he placed a hand on Yashur’s shoulder and unleashed his spiritual energy into the latter’s body to examine him thoroughly.

Yashur’s eyes flew open in that instant, and he hastily rose to his feet upon noticing that Jared had woken up. “M-Mr. Chance! You’re awake.” “Sorry to trouble you, Yashur.”

He wouldn’t have had to chase Wrey away if I weren’t busy cultivating. I could’ve lent a hand. Sadly, I was in an unconscious state during cultivation. He had to fight while trying to protect me, so he was obviously outmatched. That’s why he had to resort to pretending to be a Manifestor.

“I wouldn’t mind losing my life as long as it’s for you, Mr. Chance,” Yashur replied with a faint smile. “Your organs are severely damaged, so don’t activate your internal energy for now. There are lots of herbs here. Let me get some and make you a few pills so you can recover faster.”

“Thank you, Mr. Chance.” Yashur nodded gratefully. “Mr. Chance, Mr. Songscloud, I think we should get out of here as soon as we can. Wrey might come back soon,” Archer urged.

Jared nodded, and they all left quickly. Meanwhile, Wrey and his men had long fled over a hundred miles. That scene back there had frightened the guts out of them.

While resting atop a hill and catching their breath, they exchanged glances without uttering a word. None of them cared for anyone when escaping, so the concept of looking out for one another or even working together didn't exist.

Humans were selfish in the face of death, so none of the men said anything. Drenched in sweat, Wrey was the last to arrive at the hill. His pants were now damp, for he had wet himself from the horrifying sight earlier.

Even so, no one laughed at how disheveled he looked. After all, there was nothing embarrassing about being utterly terrified by a Manifestor.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2377

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2377-“Are you all right, Wrey?” Hugh walked over to the man, looking concerned. Yet, he did not even spare the latter a glance while fleeing. “I’m fine.” Wrey shook his head in dismay.

His chances of exacting revenge were practically zero now that Jared had a Manifestor protecting him. “Since you’re okay, I think you should get changed...”

Hugh pointed toward Wrey’s pants. It was now that the latter finally realized the wet warmth staining his crotch area. Feeling awkward, he hurriedly found a spot to change his clothes. “D*mmmit! I can’t believe that geezer is actually a Manifestor, and he’s even protecting Jared like that! Who the hell is Jared?” Wrey cursed.

“I’m just as confused. Since when has there ever been a Manifestor? But still, that old monster’s a killing machine, and yet he let us off instead of attacking us. That’s really strange,” Hugh remarked.

“Do you guys think that geezer was just putting on an act?” Isaac chimed in. “He could’ve wiped us out with just a wave of a hand, but he didn’t.”

Yona walked over at that very moment. “That’s highly likely. I know that a Level Eight Martial Arts Sovereign can conjure up an image of a Manifestor if he forcefully activates his martial energy, but he’d only look like a Manifestor. He wouldn’t have the same power.”

Wrey and Hugh shot him a cold glance and said. nothing, but Isaac spoke up. "You talk as if you weren't the first one to run out of there, Yona."

"I could say the same about the rest of you, so save it," Yona clapped back. "I don't think that geezer's actually a Manifestor. He was probably just trying to scare us."

Everyone fell silent, and Hugh added a while later, "Yona might be right. I find it weird too. That old monster put up an act just to make us run away."

"Well, sh*t! Let's head back to where they were. If they're gone by the time we get there, that means they were definitely just trying to scare us. I won't let that old fart off if I see him again," Wrey declared frostily.

"If it were just an act, that geezer's organs: would be damaged by now. We'd have nothing to fear," Isaac surmised. The group quickly headed back, only to find no trace of Jared anymore.

"Sh*t! They really had us back there. I won't let them off. We're going after them!" With that, Wrey and his crew began the hunt of Jared and his gang. Elsewhere, Jared and the others had converged with Matthew after picking some herbs.

They found a relatively secluded place where Jared produced some pills and gave them out to Yashur, Matthew, and the rest so they could heal more quickly.

Meanwhile, Great Diviner sent out Divination Sect to guard their surroundings. That way, if Wrey and his men were to pursue them, they would find out in the shortest possible time. Jared would then often hunt for more phantoms on his own to strengthen his Ultimate Force.

A few days passed in a blink of an eye as he remained hiding from Wrey while continuously working on his Ultimate Force by killing more. phantoms. At the same time, cold mist continued to surge. from the dark abyss, indicating the endless number of phantoms crawling out of there.

Screams echoed from underneath the altar in the valley of the abyss. This was the place that harbored the most powerful lethal intents and where the phantoms originated from.

It was akin to a gateway to hell, through which the phantoms crawled over. In its deepest trenches where the phantoms emerged non-stop, a shadow clone sat there quietly.

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2378

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2378-All the phantoms crawled around the shadow clone fearfully. The shadow clone emanated such darkness that he looked as if he donned a suit of black armor.

As a vortex started spinning within the shadow clone, the lethal intent around him was absorbed into his body! Suddenly, the shadow clone opened his eyes, which were glinting coldly.

When the phantoms passed by the shadow clone, they stopped their movements and knelt down simultaneously because they seemed to have sensed something.

Watching the kneeling phantoms, the shadow clone slowly stood up, his jet-black hair fluttering in the wind. "This abyss is such a good place. It's a pity that I have to be summoned back so soon."

As the shadow clone slowly raised his head, an exquisite face was revealed. If Jared were there to witness it, he would surely be surprised because it was none other than Skylar, who had fought him for a long time but then suddenly disappeared!

Skylar was sent by Tanner to cultivate in the abyss, but he was now summoned back because he was needed for the latter's recovery of spiritual energy. As Skylar felt the lethal intent surging through his body, his eyes filled with excitement. When he clenched his fists, a raging aura burst forth.

"Jared, I wonder if you've missed me. If I ever run into you again, I'll let you have a taste of hell... By that time, the entire mundane world will bow to me. I am a Demonic Cultivator, I have the Inferno Devil's Form, and I am born to rule..."

Skylar cackled arrogantly, his voice echoing in the valley. Beneath him, a large number of phantoms were sprawled on the ground, trembling....

As Skylar slowly raised his right hand, the surrounding lethal intent started to swarm toward him. The abyss, which was originally dark, began to brighten up all of a sudden. After all the lethal intent was absorbed by Skylar with his palm, a gigantic black vortex. was formed! Skylar glanced at the kneeling phantoms and smiled. "Farewell, my subjects. You are free to slaughter everything you see now..."

With that said, Skylar slowly walked toward the black vortex. Soon, he disappeared within it. After Skylar disappeared, the phantoms crawled out of the abyss. Meanwhile, Wrey and the others couldn't find Jared in the secret realm. Instead, they were attacked by the phantoms constantly, which was extremely frustrating. "This is f*cking strange. Why does it feel like we can't kill these phantoms? There seems to be more of them as time passes!" Wrey cursed.

Instead of seeing any trace of Jared for the past few days, they encountered several groups of phantoms. Although these phantoms were not very powerful and could be easily dealt with when they joined forces, this endless battle had already exhausted them. Disciples from every sect had suffered injuries!

Most importantly, killing these phantoms was not beneficial to them at all! If the phantoms were demon beasts instead, they could at least obtain their beast cores by killing them! However, besides the fact that the phantoms. were annoying, killing them was a waste of energy!

"Looks like although there are abundant resources in this secret realm, there are too many phantoms. We can't stay here for long..." Hugh said after killing a phantom with a palm strike. If they were to set up camp here in the future, they would be constantly bothered by an overwhelming number of phantoms.

"Since we've been attacked by phantoms, I believe that Jared and his group wouldn't fare well either. They might have been already killed by the phantoms..." Isaac speculated optimistically.

However, they had no idea that Jared wished to encounter more phantoms because all the phantoms that were previously in the area. where he and his group were hiding had long been vanquished..

In fact, Jared had to travel hundreds of miles to find phantoms every day. To Jared, those phantoms were the best resources!

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2379

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2379-“This is such a nice place. I really don’t want to leave...”

Jared felt a little emotional when he looked at the area where he had slain countless phantoms. At that moment, Jared already had three Ultimate Forces, and soon it would be four!

However, he realized that it would only become more difficult to increase his Ultimate Forces in the future. When he killed a leader of a group of phantoms just now, he found that his Ultimate Force didn’t increase much. It was evident that he would have to slaughter phantoms on a larger scale to enhance the force in the future. “This area has already been wiped out of phantoms. I’ll have to find a new place...”

Jared left to find other phantoms to kill. But soon after he left, a group of people unexpectedly appeared. “Yona, we’ve been searching for almost half at day, but why does it seem like there are no phantoms in this area?” Isaac asked Yona.

“The phantoms here have just been slain. Jared and his group must have left this place recently, Yona replied as he studied the surroundings.

Ive been wondering why you’re being so secretive and making me accompany you to search for these phantoms everywhere. What kind of resources are these phantoms?”

Isaac was displeased because Yona took him away from Wrey and the others. At least when they were together, they could look out for each other whenever they encountered a large army of phantoms.

If it weren’t for Yona promising him a large number of resources, Isaac wouldn’t have left with him! “These phantoms may be useless to you, but I have discovered that my martial energy improves after killing phantoms!”

“This must be related to the Demonic Cultivation I practice. I can absorb the lethal intent from these phantoms, but you cannot!” Yona explained everything directly to Isaac without leaving out anything. “D*mn it, why didn’t you mention this good news earlier? Can you teach me?”

Isaac’s eyes were filled with envy upon hearing. Yona’s explanation. The thought of improving one’s cultivation level by killing phantoms was truly exhilarating. “This is not a suitable place to teach you. I’ll teach you when we find somewhere safer”

After that, Yona and Isaac left with the disciples from Alchemical Sect and Scorching Heaven Sect following behind. However, shortly after Yona and Isaac left, Wrey and the others also arrived at the location. Wrey’s face went black when he spotted Yona and the others walking away.

“Yona must be hiding something from us. No wonder he wanted to separate from us. These phantoms must be resources to him,” Hugh said angrily. “Let’s go! Let’s follow them. If we can master the Demonic Cultivation that Yona mentioned, then these countless phantoms here will become our best cultivation resources.”

With that, he immediately followed them. Meanwhile, Jared continued searching for phantoms. He would kill any phantom he came across! Before he knew it, he found himself going back to the abyss.

Jared’s eyes lit up when he saw the phantoms crawling out of the abyss. “Oh, why am I so stupid? I was searching for phantoms everywhere when there are countless phantoms right here in this abyss. I can just kill them as I please here!”

Jared slapped his forehead, feeling frustrated for not realizing it earlier. Then, as he wielded Dragonslayer Sword, a beam of light shot out and instantly turned the crawling phantoms into ashes. Without hesitation, he jumped into the abyss. As he descended into the abyss and gazed at the densely packed phantoms, his heart filled with excitement.

“Yes!” Jared showed no trace of fear when he faced the army of phantoms. As he brandished Dragonslayer Sword, he charged forward. The phantoms were instantly reduced to ashes. upon contact with Jared’s sword. Following that, countless Ultimate Force surged into Jared’s body.

“Marvelous!” The more he killed along his way into the valley, the more fervent he became!

Read A Man Like None Other Chapter 2380

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2380-However, just as Jared was getting into the groove of his killing spree, several auras suddenly attacked him! Jared frowned. He could sense that these were not the auras of phantoms. Rather, they were auras of someone attempting to ambush him! As Jared struck back with a swing of his sword, a dazzling light flooded the entire valley. Boom...

Followed by a loud clash, Jared's light collided fiercely with the auras! The immense recoil force caused Jared to stumble a few steps back. "I never thought you will be hiding here, you bast*rd..."

Several shadow clones slowly emerged from the dim black mist. Yona and Isaac stood at the front side by side while their disciples stood orderly behind them.

Seeing this, Jared furrowed his brow. He hadn't expected them to find this place. Now that he was trapped here, he seemed to have no chance of escape. "Haha, what a pleasant surprise! We came here to kill more phantoms, but I didn't expect to run into this bast rd." Isaac laughed heartily.

Jared felt puzzled upon hearing this because he didn't understand why Isaac and the others were seeking out phantoms and killing more of them. Can it be...?

Jared narrowed his eyes slightly and shifted his gaze to Yona. Yona was a Demonic Cultivator, and it seemed that killing phantoms would enhance their cultivation. That was probably why they wanted to kill more phantoms!

"Jared, are you hiding here to escape from our pursuit? Where is Matthew? And where is that old monster?" Yona asked Jared. However, Jared remained silent and surveyed his surroundings instead to search for an escape route. "Don't waste time talking to him. Just kill him right away so you can quickly teach me the technique..."

Isaac couldn't wait to learn about Yona's Demonic Cultivation. Then, Isaac was about to make a move on Jared when Yona stopped him. At that moment, there were only Yona and Isaac present. If Matthew, the Great Diviner, and Yashur were also here, Yona knew that the two of them would easily be wiped out.

Although Yashur wasn't a Manifestor, he was still not someone they could handle. If all these people were in the abyss, Yona would quickly retreat without laying a finger on Jared! Looking at Yona's expression, Jared suddenly sneered. "Why is it just the two of you? Where are Wrey and the others?"

“Wrey and the others are still behind. They will arrive soon. Just wait to be trapped and die here...” Yona coldly snorted. However, Jared laughed as he looked at Yona. “I guess you two have separated from the other sects? If that’s the case, your death won’t be too far away...”

After Jared finished speaking, his aural exploded. Yona furrowed his brow because he didn’t expect Jared to see through his plan. “Jared, even if it’s just the two of us, you’re no match for us. I don’t think Matthew and the others are here to help you, right?” Yona asked tentatively.

“They are in the valley. They are here...” Jared replied. Upon hearing this, Yona burst into laughter. “Jared, are you trying to deceive me? If you had said they weren’t here to lure us into attacking you, I would have believed they were here. But you told me that they are here directly. Are you trying to scare us away? We were scared away once already, but it won’t happen again.”

After that, Yona raised his hand and grabbed into the void. Instantly, lethal intent condensed into a spear in Yona’s hand. The entire valley shook as the malevolent aura surged from the spear.

Jared frowned upon seeing this. He hadn’t expected Yona to be so meticulous. Seeing that Yona was prepared to fight, Isaac’s aura strengthened as he assumed a fighting stance. Jared was instantly overwhelmed by the presence of the two Martial Arts Sovereigns!