

Chapter 51 - Wild Love With My Triplet Mates

Shianna's POV

I stayed for dinner and was introduced to the alpha triplet's parents. Their son's had mindlinked them to inform them of why I was here. I was amazed at how much food was at the table. I grabbed some grapes and a small portion of salad to eat. Rico, my mate, looked at me with concern. "Is there something else you would like to eat, my love? I can make you anything you want." He said flashing a bright smile my way.

"Um no it's ok. I'm content with the grapes and salad. Fruits and veggies I find in the woods are what I normally eat regularly. Along with the occasional kill I would catch from hunting." I said. It was a completely normal response for me to make, but everyone at the table turned their heads to me. I fidget in my seat and poked at my salad with my fork. Then Jess came over to me and cut a slice of the meat in the center. She then cut it into small pieces and brought one to my lips. "Here try this. I'm sure you'll like it." It smelled amazing.

I grabbed it and ate it. It was so much better than the small game I would catch in the woods and roast over an open fire. "Mmmmm. What is that?" I asked her. She smiled and said. "It is smoked ham with a honey glaze. Shianna." I looked up at her when she called my name. "I hope you will learn to trust us and your mate. Rico would never do anything to harm you. You can express yourself here." "Is that an order as the luna?" I asked her.

"No, it is a request as a friend. We all had our troubles, some just have more than others. Like you and me. I was completely on my own until I went to Thunder Mountain. I know it will be hard at first, but if you just give a real pack a chance then you will be happier." Jess placed a hand on my shoulder and gently squeezed, Silver was wagging her tail at the kindness coming off from everyone here at the table. "I will try Jess." I felt lighter, and the corners of my mouth tipped up. It shocked me and I covered my mouth. Jess giggled. "First time smiling?" she asked.

I nodded, then I saw a little glint in her eyes. "Then let's see it again." She said as she then pounced on me and started to tickle my sides. We rolled onto the floor and I gasped and squealed with laughter. "What in the world? Were those sounds coming from me?" I thought to myself and I heard the room fill with more laughter. I felt tears in my eyes. I haven't cried since William gave me this scar, and these were not tears of pain. I actually felt happy. I felt Jess remove her hands and opened my eyes.

Then I noticed that one of her alphas had grabbed her and tossed her over his shoulder. She squealed and giggled herself. "Zero! Put me down. Hahaha." He growled playfully at her and turned on his heel. Heading out of the dining room. "I think it is time for my brothers and I to enjoy our own dessert." He said as his brother followed him out the door. Everyone else was snickering to themselves. "I bet that she is going to end up with a ton of pups from those three." Sasha said.

I finished supper with Rico and we went back to his room. "Shianna, my love, are you sure about going out tonight?" Rico asked as he wrapped me in his big strong arms. His scent was intoxicating for Silver and I. I never felt more relaxed in my entire life, than I do when he is holding me. "Yes Rico. Once I convince William to the plan, then I will be back." Rico gripped me a bit tighter. "I know you worry about me Rico, but I have lived with William and Tasha since birth. I can fool them long enough for three more months." He nodded in the crook of my neck. "How ever long it would be. I would be here for you." he said, inhaled my scent. Silver purred with comfort.

The clock read 10:00pm. "I should get going. By the time I get to the den, it will be around midnight. I will see you tomorrow." I got up and out of his arms, but he spun me around and crashed his lips on mine. I felt fireworks through the kiss. My eyes were wide then they naturally closed on their own within seconds. I melted into Rico and Silver was purring up a storm. She didn't want to leave his side, but we had work to do. I gently pulled away from him and looked up.

"I promise I will be back. Alright?" I asked while rubbing my hands up and down his big strong arms. "Alright" he muttered. I kissed the tip of his nose before I turned to leave. "Surprise me with something for breakfast tomorrow. I'll be back." I called out before I left the room. I found an empty hallway and jumped out the window. If William was having me watched then I needed to play the part outside the packhouse.

Once out in the woods, I strip down and shift. Silver then picks up my clothes in her mouth and we dash off to the den. Silver must want to get this over with quickly, because she is running faster than ever before. We get to the den within about an hour and a half. I shifted then got dressed before I entered. I make my way down to the throne room that William had built underground. I knocked and waited for a response.

He growled from inside. "What the hell do you want mutt?!" I internally roll my eyes. "Alpha, I come with good news about the girl. May I enter?" I speak through the door. No one enters without his permission, unless they have a death wish. "Enter." he called out. I walked in and got down on my knees and bowed lower to him. "Good evening Alpha. I hope you will be pleased with what I have to offer." I speak low so he would not confuse my voice with anger or disrespect. "What did you find out mutt?" he demanded. "I not only found the new pack she is in, but I have found a way to infiltrate the pack and keep a much closer eye on her." I paused. "Continue." "So far so good girl. Just breathe." Silver said to me.

"While I was tracking her, I ran into some pack warriors. They were about to kill me, when she intervend. Being their luna, she saved me and offered me a place in their pack. If I could stay in the pack house I can watch her carefully, until her birthday. I will also make sure she turns farel when the time is right." I felt him come closer to me. He gripped my hair and yanked me back to face him "And how pre-tell would you do that mutt?" he growled.

I winced at the pain a bit. “She has three alpha mates. I will help their bond deepen for the next three months and then just before the time is right I will shatter it. No wolf can withstand their mate bond breaking. Especially if she marks them and they mark her.” I say while looking at just his mouth. He gave me a sickening grin. “What a clever mutt you become. Fine! We will proceed with this plan of yours, but if you mess up even once. I will kill you. Are we clear mutt?” He said as he yanks my hair tighter. I gasped a bit before answering him. “Crystal Alpha.” He throws me to the ground and before he leaves and looks back at me.

“One more thing, you are to report your progress at the end of every week.” “Yes Alpha.” Then he walks away. ‘We did it Silver.’ she yelps and barks happily in my mind. Be prepared William, your days are numbered. I think to myself as I walked to my room to pack. I want to go home now.

Chapter 52 - Wild Love With My Triplet Mates

Zero’s POV

I wake up to the damn sun shining through our windows. I groaned. I was never a morning person out of the three of us. That was more for Leo and Hero. I was the main one that had no issues doing pack work or business work all night long. ‘Now we have to work during the day so we can be with our mate at night. We can’t let our brother’s have all the fun.’ Lucifer said. His voice was just as groggy and husky as mine was in the morning.

I then looked around and noticed I was the only one in bed. I heard the shower running. I poked my head into the bathroom to see if Jess was in there, and I guess it was my lucky day. She was standing in the big shower, working the hot water through that gorgeous black hair of hers, and she was all by herself. I walked in and opened the shower door to join her. I surprised her when I slipped my arms around her lean and tightened waist that she got through training. Pulling her to me and me under the water.

“Good morning, sweetheart.” I purred to her. I never thought as an alpha I would be purring so much, but just looking at Jess’s beautiful body and seeing her bare my mark always does it to me. “Good morning baby. Leo and Hero each left a note. Leo wanted to get ahead on some pack work while we waited for Shianna to return and Hero said he went to set up some sort of surprise for me.” she said as she leaned her head back and gently rubbed her head on my shoulder. I love having her scent on me, but I noticed that Leo had her mark. I was a bit jealous. She didn’t mark Hero or I in bed last night.

I spun her around and kissed her. She giggled against my lips and wrapped her arms around my neck pulling me closer. I kept one hand on her waist and with my other, I slowly traced her body until I got to her sweet little pussy. It made my cock rock hard when she widened her legs on her own to give me better access to her core. “Mmmm, are we feeling empty this morning sweetheart?" I ask as I trace her jawline and neck in small kisses. She whimpers at the sweet torture that she is feeling in my hands already, and I haven't even slipped a finger inside yet. "I always feel empty without at least one of you three. Please Zero?" I growled at her begging and would have missed it if I didn't have wolf super hearing.

I gently leaned her against the shower wall and then quickly lifted her up and put her legs over my shoulders so her delicious pussy was sitting right in front of my hungry mouth. "I'm gonna have a snack before breakfast." I growled and dived my tongue deep into her depths. She arched her back against the wall and her hands tangled in my hair. She always tasted so sweet, I could never get enough. She was like my own personal drug and I needed my fix now. I zoned in on her clit and sucked while moving one hand to her ass and caressing her other tight hole with a finger.

"Zero. More. Please." She wiggled her hips against my face. It was so hot for me to hear her beg. She always enjoyed whatever my brothers and I did to her body. I pushed one finger into her ass and gently nipped at her clit before I flicked it with my tongue. She jolted and shivered as I toyed with her body. I looked up at her with my eye, not moving my mouth away from her juicy center. Her eyes were filled with love and lust. For wolves, when we find our mate. Lust usually happens first then comes love and I may never say this in front of my brothers, but I fell in love with my little luna. Even more so when she came to us from being broken from her past and I will tell her today.

I increased my attention on her clit and she screamed out my name as she shook against my face and squirted. Coating my tongue, lips, and chin with her scent and juices. I let her down and gave her a wet kiss. "I love you Jessabelle, forever until my last breath." I whispered in her ear. I looked into her eyes and she smiled. "I love you too Zero." she nuzzled her nose to mine and then caught me by surprise with her canines piercing my neck. I growled and grabbed her hips tight. Once she released me and licked her mark to seal it, she looked at me with a cocky smirk I usually give her. "Jump." I half growled, half commanded. Even though she was my luna and my equal. She could not be commanded by me, but she still hummored me.

Jess wrapped her arms back around my neck and jumped. With one fast movement I plunged my hard cock into her as she wrapped her long toned legs around my waist. Even after taking three alphas the last few days she was still so tight. Her pussy swallowed my dick over and over as I pounded into her. She was our little warrior, she loved how rough we could be. I moved her faster and harder. I licked the mark that was mine on her neck and she shivered again. "Zero." she was breathless as she called my name.

I couldn't hold on much longer. She felt so tight, so good. After a few more hard thrust into her I bit down on my mark. She screamed again as she came all over my dick. Her pussy clenched down on me like a vice that I came right after she did. I released my bite and licked her neck. I looked at her with my usual smirk. "Now sweetheart. Let's get you cleaned up and get you some breakfast." She was still a bit in a daze, but nodded and I helped her get all clean again.

Note: Hey everyone sorry for only one chapter this week. I lost my sister a few days ago and haven't really had the time write with taking care of my family. I promise I will still be working on the story. I love writing and I love all the wonderful comments. You guys make me feel better when I read them.

Setting up a Surprise

Chapter 53 - Wild Love With My Triplet Mates

Hero's POV

I woke up early to plan a special date for just me and Jessabelle. I wanted some time alone with her. 'You just want to give her the chance to mark us like she did with Leo yesterday in his office.' Loki snarked at me. I rolled my eyes at him. 'Like you wouldn't want that. If she marked us you would be connected even more to Midnight.' I countered. He let out a huff.

I finished setting out the blanket and some clothes for us. Sasha told me she would bring over the basket with snacks and drinks for Jess and I to enjoy. I was feeling Leo trying to mind link me. So I opened my mind to let him in.

H: What's up big brother?

L: Shianna is back. We are meeting in Zero's office in 15 minutes.

H: Alright, I am on my way. Give me an extra 5 minutes. I am out by the falls right now.

L: Why are you all the way out there?

H: Just setting something special for our warrior luna. The calm before the storm as they say. Knowing mom and dad the Luna Ceremony will be all set up within the next few days.

L: True, in that case. We should set up a special dinner some time soon with all three of us to 'pop the question together'. What do you think?

H: Sounds great. The three of us can talk about it later when she is busy training. See ya in a bit.

I cut the link before he went into a planning mode. I shifted and rushed back to the pack house. The sooner we met with Shianna and got the report, the sooner I could take my mate out on a nice lunch date. I get back and pull on some basketball shorts and a tank top from one of the stashes of clothes which we keep all over the pack lands.

Once I got to Zero's office and saw that everyone was there except Jess. "Where is Jessabelle?" I asked. "She went for a run after morning training. I linked her and she should be here soon." Sasha said. I run my hand through my hair and turn to grab a water bottle from the mini fridge. Just as I turned around the doors opened and Jess crashed right into me. 'Owww, ok that hurt a bit.' I said to Loki. She must have been running at full speed because she hit me with enough force to knock me down to the floor. I opened my eyes and she was right in front of my face.

I took a quick glance and saw that she landed completely on top of me. Straddling me in front of everyone. I felt myself becoming harder by the second. "Couldn't wait for tonight to jump me honey?" I asked with a smirk. She was adorable and blushed a deep crimson red when she saw the positions we were in, and in front of everyone to boot. She tried to scramble off me, but I held her in place and nuzzled her neck. Then quick as a flash I tossed her up in the air and she squealed. I jumped to my feet and caught her bridal style.

"Hero!?! I am not a rag doll to toss around." she growled at me. I laughed. Her growl was more a purr compared to mine and my brothers. I leaned down to her ear and playfully growled, "As long as one of us is here to catch you, you should never worry about falling baby." She shivered, seeing her react to everything we do to her is always a turn on. I heard someone clear their throat to pull us back to the real world.

"Think you guys can come back to the land of the living so we can get this meeting over with." Sasha jokes. "Like your one to talk... How much of your time does Nathan take up now?" Jess asks with a smirk on her face. Sasha turns bright red and throws a nearby book at us. Jess laughs as she catches it with her powers. Sasha growls at the embarrassment. Everyone, except for Shianna, busts out laughing while Nathan pulls his spit fire of a mate into his lap.

I sit down with Jess in my lap. Shianna is looking at everyone in confusion. "You ok, Shianna?" I asked. She snapped her head to me and bowed. "Yes Alpha. I'm alright." she said in a monotone voice. 'Man can this girl sound anymore like a robot?' Loki asked. I mentally shrugged my shoulders. 'Looking at the scars on her body, I can take a guess she never really had a happy life at home.' I answer back. He growls at the thought. As alphas we take pride in taking care of our entire pack as if they were family. To see an alpha do something like this, and to his own daughter at that, made me sick to my stomach. William is the kind of monster that gives true alphas a bad name.

"So how did things go with William, Shianna?" Leo asked. She looked in our direction, but never met our eyes. She always looked either at our lips or our chest. She turned from me to Leo and answered him. "William thought I was finally good for something. He agreed with the plan, so the rest of you can just move through the day like normal. He will not strike until her birthday in 3 months. I am to report to him at the end of every week." I felt Jess tense up a bit.

"What is the matter honey?" I asked her. "Midnight. She wants to talk to your wolf." Shianna straightens up and closes her eyes. Her breathing changed and then when she opened her eyes, they were different. It was like a mirror. The eye that was yellow was now silver and the eye that was silver was now yellow. "Luna." She said as she bowed. I felt Jess's breathing change as well. Then she got up and walked to Shianna. I sensed that Jess's wolf was in control.

Midnight lifted Shianna's head so that she was looking into her eyes. "What is your name?" she asked. With Midnight in control Jess's voice was slightly deeper and more graceful than her normal voice. Never breaking eye contact with Midnight, Shianna's wolf answer. "My name is Silver, Luna.” Midnight smiled. “Silver, a fitting name. I would like to know. Does William know that Sabrina is alive?” Silver shakes her head. “No, but I know that he will have a couple of his trackers keep poking around. Blood or not, that monster doesn’t trust anyone. He is too far gone from sanity and I believe that if he succeeds in taking your powers Luna, then I fear William will destroy everything. Humans or Supernatural.” Midnight nods then turns to Sabrina.

“I think it would be best for you to train her in some underground training area for magic. If we can keep Sabrina as an ace up our sleeve we can catch them both unguarded for magic attacks.” Sabrina nodded “We will mostly be meditating to start with her magic energy. I will also place a protection spell on her before she leaves to report to William.” Midnight nodded and started walking back towards us, before Sabrina continued. “Though you should not take over Jess’s body often Midnight. The power that is held inside you right now is strong enough for a wolf, but Jess has just started training. Your aura can be too much for her human body for now.” Midnight looked to be in thought for a moment.

“That is true. I only needed to see this new wolf for myself. I feel no threat from her, but Jess has just made a home here. I would die before I let her lose it again.” I felt Loki howl and stir in my mind. I glanced at my brothers and it seems to affect their wolves too. Midnight’s Luna aura was crazy strong for the short time her powers were unlocked. Midnight returned Jess’s body to my lap before her aura completely changed back into Jess’s natural aura.

“Are you ok princess?” Leo asked. Jess turned to him and smiled. “I’m fine. Midnight is just very very protective over me and our past.” Then she turned Silver, who was still in control of Shianna’s body. “Even though you are new, Silver, I do not want you or Shianna to be cowardly in fear of me or my alphas. You have never lied to us, and the Moon Goddess has paired you with our beta for a mate. You are home now.” Jess said in a gentle voice. Silver’s eyes widened then she teared up. “Thank you Luna. I live to serve you and this pack. On my honor.” Silver said having a new determination look in her eyes.

“Well if that covers the William issue for now, I need to steal Jess for some ‘one on one’ time.” I said mischievously and scooped Jess up in my arms and rushed out. “Hero, hahahaha You can’t skip out on work and I have training.” She laughs out. Man I love it when she laughs and smiles. “True, but with the shit show of the last fews days with this bastard, William. I think some fun is in order. It is time to stop and smell the roses.” I say with a dashing smile.

Marked 3 out of 3

Chapter 54 - Wild Love With My Triplet Mates

Sorry for the late post. Thank you all for your support! It means the world to me.

I took her out to the back garden and told her to shift and follow me. Jess gave me a suspicious smirk. “What are you up to Hero?” She asked. I gave a devilishly charming smile and said “Well if you want to know baby, I guess you are going to have to follow me and find out. Now don’t you?" I wiggled my eyebrows and she just laughed. She shifts into her sexy wolf and I shift and let Loki take over.

Midnight comes up to us and rubs her body all over Loki, purring. Loki playfully growls at her. It felt like Midnight was smirking at us. She then gently nipped at Loki's ear and dashed off into the woods for a little game of tag. Loki growled and chased after her at full speed. Out of the three of us, Loki and I were the fastest. Though I guess now Midnight and Jess take that from us. They were moving gracefully and fast that it felt seductive for Loki and I. 'She keeps this up and I am going to tackle her and mount her.' Loki growled out. 'Hey you can't do that until Jess marks me. That way the bond between you and Midnight is stronger.' I told him. 'I know that. But I can still have dirty thoughts about my mate just like you dorks can.' he snarled back.

Ok true. Though I think Loki is just as jealous as I was to see Jess's mark on both Leo and Zero. I want her to mark me too. I get pulled out of my thoughts when Midnight tackles us. We roll a bit and she is on top of us. "Keep zoning out on me love and I'll get you again." Jess said through our mate link. Loki licks her muzzle and she climbs off us. Loki and I get up and motion with our head for her to follow us.

Midnight chases us to the waterfall, all the while nipping and teasing Loki. 'Oh she is going to get it after this date.' he growled, trying to control himself. I laugh a bit as we shift back and I put on the shorts I left here. Jess shifted back and I handed her the sundress. She slipped it on. It hugged her curves like a second skin. I can't believe my brothers and I got so lucky to have her as our mate. She never asks for anything, yet she deserves the moon and the stars. She is always so kind, strong, and she is sexy as all hell. Being a warrior on top of that is both a blessing and a curse though. I am pulled from my thoughts as Jess starts talking to me.

"Hero, this place is beautiful. Oh I can't believe how fresh and clean the air and water is around here." She says while walking to the waterfall. I snake my arms around her and pick her up. "Now close those gorgeous eyes of yours honey." She smiled and closed them. I gave her a quick kiss and led her over to the picnic that I set up for her. Just like Sasha promised, snacks and drinks were waiting for us. I hugged her back to my chest.

"Now you can look baby." I said, whispering in her ear. I could feel her opening her eyes then she gasped. "Hero. Is this a date?" she asked, she looked at me a bit giddy like a teenage girl. "Yes honey. A special date just for you." She spun around in my arms faster than ever and jumped on me. Wrapping her arms around my neck, her legs around my waist, and crashing her lips to mine. I growled against her lips and felt her smile. She pulled back and smiled brightly. "Thank you so much, Hero. It is perfect. This is honestly my first date." Loki and I were both happy and upset at the thought that she never got to have fun like other girls. I nuzzled my nose in her neck. "Well this is the first of many to come. I promise that my brothers and I will spend forever making you the most loved luna in the world."

She giggled and hugged me closer to her. I carried her over to the blanket and sat down with her in my lap. There were some sandwiches, fruit, some chocolate, and some lemonade. I picked up a strawberry and held it to Jess's sexy full lips. She giggled and opened her mouth and took a bite of the strawberry. "Mmmm" she moaned as she chewed. I was in a trance staring at her lips as she ate and licked the juice off her lips. “You are going to be the death of me honey.” I groaned out. She giggled and held out an apple for me.

We spent the next 30 minutes feeding each other and cuddling. I nuzzled her, All of a sudden she wiggled out of my arms and took her sundress off. I growled at seeing her body exposed for me to see everything. She looked back at me over her shoulder and smiled. “See something you like, baby?” I growled again. “Not really,” I smirked as she raised her dark brow.

I stood up and dropped my shorts. “I see something I love very much.” She laughed and then jumped down the waterfall into the lake below. “Jessabelle, are you crazy?!” I shouted as I ran to the edge. Jess made a clean dive into the lake and when she surfaced again she looked up at me and smirked. “Hahahaha the face you're making is adorable, Hero.” She yelled. ‘Yup we have one crazy mate.’ I said to Loki. ‘Maybe, but she is the one for us and our brothers. She is perfect for all of us.’

Jess just swims around and looks up at me. “Hero, are you going to join me? I’m feeling a bit lonely down here.” she gave me a little pout. I groan, this woman will surely be the death of me. I jump into the water below, just like Jess did. As soon as I resurfaced from the cool water I looked around for Jess. I couldn’t see her. “Jess, honey?” I called out.

Then I felt someone jumping on my back. “Got you.” She whispered in my ear, then she gently bit it. That's it, I couldn’t take her teasing anymore. I used my alpha reflexes and quickly grabbed her. I pulled her off my back and had her in front of me now with her back towards me. I rammed my cock into her tight pussy. She gasped, but she smirked at me while looking over her shoulder. I stayed still inside her and pulled her closer so her back was resting on my chest.

“You have been a nuahty girl teasing me all day honey.” I said in a husky voice, that made her shiver. I start to pound into her from behind as the forest around us fills with her moans. I had one hand rubbing her clit, the other was kneeing her breast, and I planted open mouth kisses along her shoulder and up her neck. When I touched my mark on her neck, Jess pulled away from me.

Loki whined in my mind. Before I could say anything Jess spun around again wrapping her legs around my waist. She pushed me back inside her and shoved her face into my neck. I felt her tongue run over my marking spot. I groaned and started to pound into her again. Then as we both reached our peaks, Jess bared her canines and dug them into my marking spot. I roared as I came inside her, filling her with my seed. I felt as if I went blind for a few minutes. Jess released her bite and licked to seal my mark. “Now you and your brothers all belong to me.” She said panting as she smirked.

Panting myself, I had no words. “We have always been your honey. Since the day the Moon Goddess blessed your parents with your existence.” I purred, as I gently nuzzled my nose against hers. We finish swimming when Jess wants to go take a nap before meditation training later. We get out and clean up the picnic. Then we shift and I let Loki take over.

Chapter 55 - Wild Love With My Triplet Mates

Loki POV

Hero finally got our mate to mark him in human form. Now I can take and mark Midnight. For alphas the mate bond becomes even stronger with our luna if the marking and mating process is complete on our humans' end, but if we as wolves also complete the marking and mating with our luna's wolf... Then the strength and power we feel will increase 10 fold. Lucifer, Fang, and I all want to mark Midnight because of that bastard.

No matter where he tries to hide her, the mate bond will lead us to her. "Midnight?" I call out to her using our mate link, that was established the night that our humans marked Jessabella. She stops drinking the water from the lake and looks toward me. "Yes Loki?" Her voice was like a prue melody to me and her dark black fur looked shiny in the sunlight. I put down the basket I was carrying back and walked over to her.

I lick her muzzle and rub my head on her. I stand taller than her, so she fits perfectly underneath my head while she nuzzles into my neck. "I want to complete the mating bond in wolf form as well, but only if you wish for it as well." I felt her purr underneath me. She lifted her head and gently nibbled on my ear, causing a growl to come from me. "Why do you think I was teasing you on the way here?" Was all she said before she flicked my nose with her tail and dashed off into the woods.

The female will never stop surprising me. I chased after her. Out of the three of us alphas, I was the fastest. Lucifer was the strongest and Fang was more clever with strategy. Midnight was indeed really fast. I don't remember the last time I had to go full speed to catch my prey. I chased Midnight into a small clearing of wildflowers. I pounced and tackled her to the ground.

The momentum of our running speed caused us to roll. When we stopped I had her pinned to the ground underneath me. Midnight looked at me with her gorgeous and hypnotizing different color eyes. She purred and rubbed her nose against mine. "Just like our humans have told Jessabelle. We will protect you with our lives and love you forever." I said to her as I let her up.

Midnight stood up and bent forward. Without hesitation, I sped around behind her and mounted her. I heard her whimper softly as I entered her. "Loki." she called out to me like our humans did when they felt the pleasure of becoming one. I could no longer hold it. I bit down on her marking spot, just above her collarbone. While my teeth were marking her, Midnight let out a powerful howl. I release her and lick my mark. Once I dismount her she spins around and bites me on my marking spot. I growl in pleasure. Midnight and Jessabelle are the only ones allowed near our necks.

Alphas never let anyone, except for a mate near their neck. The neck is the weakest spot on the wolf and is the quickest kill shot in a fight. A mate would only touch or bite us here and only for pleasure. “Now that we have taken care of that. Let's get home. Jess is extremely tired now.” Midnight says. I nod and we race off, back to home.

Becoming the Official Luna

Chapter 56 - Wild Love With My Triplet Mates

Jess's POV

As soon as I got back to the pack house with Hero, I dashed to our room and took a nice hot bath. ‘I didn't know marking and mating in both human and wolf form could really do a number on the body.’ Midnight giggled in my mind. ‘What did you expect sweetie? Marking someone and being marked takes quite a lot of energy out of you. Remember when the triplets all marked you at once? You passed out for a little bit.’ I rolled my eyes at her playfully.

‘Yes I remember, but now you and Loki started marking and mating on the wolf's end. Give me a day or two before you mark and mate with Lucifer and Fang, please?’ ‘Of course Jess. Your body is mine as well. I feel just as sore as you.’ I smiled. I finished my bath and dried off. I am too sore and lazy to get dressed so I jump into bed and under the covers. Falling asleep as soon as I hit the soft cozy pillow.

I wake up to someone running their fingers through my hair. I slightly groaned and opened my eyes to see that it was Layla. My eye snapped open and I rushed to sit up, but she stopped me. “I didn't mean to startle you dear. I came to check on you since I didn't see you at dinner. Did my sons wear you out?” I giggled as Layla continued to play with my hair. “Not just them, their wolves too. Loki and Midnight started the marking and mating process on their side, saying it will increase our bond more.” I said and she smiled gently at me.

“I just felt a little more drained than when I was marked in my human form and it was only Loki this time. When all three of your sons marked me in human form at once I passed out for a little bit, but just Loki alone made my body sore and energy drained.” Layla then repositioned herself to start massaging my shoulders and back. Cracking a few of my joints in the process and relieved the tension in my body. “I know all too well how much alpha wolves can be horn dogs, but I only had to deal with one. You my dear have three. They love you very much and I have never seen them so happy since they brought you home.” She finished messaging me and I sat up, wrapping the sheet around my body. “I think you should finish the marking with the other two after your Luna Ceremony.” She said.

I tilted my head in confusion. “Why?” I asked. I can't believe I still feel so naive about some pack stuff. I mostly focused on fighting and working over in Thunder Mountain. “Well just like the alpha is like the father of a pack, the luna is the mother. Making the connection with your pack fills your spirit with energy. I did the wolf mark and mate with Fleix after I became his luna and I didn't get tired out.” I nod at her words. “So the other two won't completely drain me if I complete the process after officially becoming the luna of this pack?” She smiles and nods.

“Which we have everything in order. I just need to know the date you want and get you fitted for a luna gown.”

I smiled. Layla and Felix really took care of everything, and so fast too. They really have been looking forward to their sons bringing their mate home. “How about this Saturday? That gives other packs 5 days to arrange to come.” She smiles and hugs me tightly. “Yes, Saturday will work perfectly. Though to make sure you are not tired the day of the party, my sons will be sleeping in their own rooms the night before.” She playfully glares and I burst out laughing. “Deal.” I said as I hugged her back.

Where did the Time Go

Chapter 57 - Wild Love With My Triplet Mates

The week went by faster than I thought. Training has progressed really well. I can now use my powers to do a lot of simple tasks. Like I helped get the giant ballroom decorated for the ceremony tomorrow. Rico was very impressed with how my control has become. I have slowly gotten my meditation pretty well too. Shianna was very helpful. She took me to the training grounds instead of the quiet garden like Sasha did. Shianna said that being around a place that truly calms you helps. I found that listening to the warriors train and toss each other around, took me back to the time it was Jorge, Ryan, Raphael, and me rough housing around together.

The memory helped ease me into a state where I could feel that energy from nature like Sasha told me about before. So since then, I have taken my meditation training in the training grounds instead of the garden like Sasha. With my mind becoming a bit stronger, I was able to start using my illusion powers. Though only small ones right now. Just this morning I made Brandon turn beet red with a small illusion I made him see alone.

He was teasing my mates because Layla was sticking to what she said before. Tonight the triplets will be in their own rooms, so I will get a full night's rest. The triplets have been sulking all day. After my little illusion he stopped. Everyone was dying to know what I made him see. Brandon just shot me a glare as if saying ‘don’t even think about it.’ I laughed and zipped my mouth. Sabrina would kill me if she knew.

I was pulled from my thoughts of the past week when Felix came over and called my name. “Jess, Layla says that they are ready for you in the luna’s office for your dress fitting.” He said with a sweet calming smile. “Oh that's right, I forgot about it.” I chuckled nervously. I didn’t really forget, but I hate dresses with a passion. Plus I promised both Layla and Leo that I would wear the proper dress for the ceremony, as long as I get to change into something more comfortable afterwards. Felix grins and playfully winks.

I can’t be surprised anymore by Felix and Layla. They know me just as well as my family and new friends here in Raven Moon. I entered the office that Layla said will be mine after tonight. She and Sohpie were waiting for me. “Ah there you are dear. Come on in and strip, we need to do the final check on the dress.” I sigh and strip down to my underwear. Sophie helps me get the dress on and zips up the back. It is a flowing silver dress with black and bluegreen. Silver and black were the pack colors, but I wanted something to represent me in a way. So Layla thought of using my eye color as part of the trim.

The dress was made of silk, so it wasn’t itchy and allowed my body to breathe. It had long sleeves, but left my neck and shoulders exposed. It went all the way to my ankles and hugged my waist and chest gently. I wiggled around in it to get a feel for it. Sophie laughs at me. “You know it is mostly for the ceremony, you are not going to be fighting in it.” I shrugged and smirked. “Well when you get targeted by some undead bastard, then you can tell me what to fight in. You should always be prepared.” I giggled at my slightly dark joke. Sophie and Layla both smiled and rolled their eyes at me.

Sophie’s eyes glazed over for a minute. “Roy, Alex, and Selena are here. Shall I tell them to come up?” I nod as Layla pulls out the shoes she picked for tomorrow. “Jess! You look stunning.” I smile as Selena ditches my brother to run over and give me a hug. Roy and Alex looked over at me smiling. Roy then pulled Sophie into a tight hug. “So will there be a tournament in your honor too?” Alex asked with a smirk.

I rolled my eyes at him and gently hit his arm. “No, the triplets wouldn’t do that because I would enter and we all know what happened last time.” I said in a smart ass tone of voice. Alex looked over at Roy and smiled. “Yeah you would kick everyone’s ass while almost breaking all of your own bones.” Alex shot at me, while Roy started to laugh. I faked innocence at his remark. “Now big brother that is not me in the slightest. What ever gave you that impression?” I said with big puppy dog eyes. Roy doubled over and Alex rubbed his chin as he remembered last time.

“Oh don’t even try missy. Remember you laid my ass out cold in our match. Plus I saw all the notes that the doctor had on you. It filled 3 huge binders.” I groaned at the thought of that pain in the ass doctor. “He also hit me upside the head because I was related to you.” Alex said, raising an eyebrow. I shrugged and smiled. Alex then pulled me into a tight hug.

“Jessabelle?” I froze in Alex’s arms. I peeked around him and there I saw them. Mom, dad, and Roy’s father, Marcus. Out of relex I tighten my hold onto Alex’s shirt. He began to rub small circles on my back “Mom I thought I asked you guys to wait in the lounge. We didn’t want her to freak out,” Alex said softly. Feeling the bond between me and my twin made me feel just as safe as when I am with my mates or their parents.

Just as mom was about to protest, Layla stepped around Alex and me. Standing between us and our parents. “I understand that there are still some family disputes to sort out, but my daughter has a lot of stuff to do for tomorrow’s ceremony.” Layla kind of emphasized the ‘daughter’ part as she gave my parents a semi cold glare. “Now Sophie dear, will you please show them to their rooms?” She turned and smiled at Sophie. “Yes ma’am.” Sophie said as she led everyone, including Alex, out of the room.

It was just Layla and I now. Layla turned to me and smiled gently like she always does. “Now sweetie, I know in your heart you truly forgive them, but I also know that the pain is still there.

There is nothing wrong with taking things slow. You talk to them when you are ready.” She said as she wrapped me into a hug. “They made you suffer all alone for 5 long years, they can wait until you are ready to speak with them on your terms. Not like it is going to kill them.” I softly cried into Layla's shoulder and clung to her. “Thank you mom.” I whispered.

Forgiveness Sets You Free

Chapter 58 - Wild Love With My Triplet Mates

Shianna's POV

I am walking to the luna's office. I have spent the week helping Lady Layla and Master Felix get everything ready for the ceremony. When I am not training with Aunt Sabrina or being dragged around by Sophie and Sasha for what they call 'sister time'. I sigh and then I catch Sophie's scent hitting my nose. I look up and I feel frozen to my spot. Walking towards me was Sophie along with people I saw often when I would watch Jess at Red Moon. The only ones I knew by name were Roy and Alex since they were Jess's main bullies back then.

I gulped. Silver shrunk in the back of my mind like a scared puppy. I felt sick and dropped to my knees. Sophie was the first to see me and rushed to my side. “Shianna?! Are you alright?” She gently laid her hand on my shaking shoulders. It was getting hard for me to breathe. “Shianna, listen to my voice. You are having a panic attack. Calm down and breathe in your nose and out your mouth.” I tried to listen, but Sophie's voice sounded so distended.

Then all I saw in front of me was a clear forest waterfall with a full moon shining down. “Breathe Shianna.” I heard a gentle voice coo. I could slowly feel my chest feel lighter and I could finally breathe. I felt so calm and at peace. Then I looked around. I saw Jess, her eyes were glowing green. “This is an illusion?” I asked. She smiled and nodded. “You were having a panic attack from running into Roy and his father. I know you still blame yourself for what happened to Lady Isabella, but you can't be chained to the past.” I felt like Jess was speaking for both of us.

“I don't know. This pack life is all still so new to me.” I said sheepishly. Jess just smiles. “It took me time too when I was at Thunder Mountain. Just when you are ready, speak to Roy and Marcus. They honestly have changed.” I nodded and slowly the illusion disappeared and I was met with the worried faces of everyone in the hallway. Jess and Sophie helped me up. Then I was wrapped in a pair of strong arms and felt someone nuzzle in the back of my neck. ‘Rico.’ Silver purred with contentment and I slightly smiled. “I'm fine Rico.” I said. His arms tightened around me and then Sophie joined in the little group hug.

I looked up and the one I know to be Roy. The former luna's son, and now the current alpha of the Red Moon pack. I bowed my head since Sophie and Rico's hold prevented me from kneeling to him. “Hello Alpha Roy.” I said. He looked at me with a confused look in his eyes, then when he finally met me dead in the eyes a look of shock consumed his face. “Y-y-y-you are...” Jess cut him off before he could finish stammering out. “Let us talk back in the office. Roy, Rico, and Shianna come with me. Sohpie, show the rest of our guests to their rooms please?”

Rico let go of me and the three of us bowed to Jess. “Yes Luna.” we said in unison. Lady Layla chuckled at the sight of Jess already using her luna tone. Roy, Rico, Lady Layla, and I entered the office. Jess was the last one and locked the door. “Okay so Roy please sit and listen before you say anything, alright?” Jess asked. Alpha Roy nodded his head and sat down on the couch. Layla was still examining the dress for tomorrow as Jess introduced me. “This is Shianna Darkwood, William’s daughter and Rico’s mate. She has been here for the last week helping us with a plan to kill William and Tasha.”

Alpha Roy was quiet while Jess explained everything. After she was done, I pulled away from Rico and kneeled before Alpha Roy, not looking him in the eye. “I already told the triplets and Jess that after we kill William and Tasha, I will accept any punishment you wish for what I did to your mother.” Alpha Roy gently placed one of his hands on my shoulder and the other on the bottom of my chin, to make me look into his eyes.

“Shianna I was blinded by rage and pain in the past. That led me to hurting Jess for something that she never even did, for five long years. Then when she left. Alex and I were in more pain when we realised our wrongs and we couldn’t even make them right.” He took a deep breath and looked over to Jess. “We lived for another five years looking for her so we could make things right. Even if I have the right to kill you for killing my mother, a luna. I won’t kill you.”

My eyes widened in shock. An alpha that wasn’t going to kill, even when it was within his full right. I never knew such alphas existed. “W-w-why? I’m the reason your lives were all turned into hell.” My voice cracked. Alpha Roy just gave me a sad and gentle smile. “When we saw Jess’s memory of that day, I promised your aunt that if you can be reformed, I will let you stay with her. Plus killing you would just bring more sadness into the hearts of those who love you.”

I stiffened at the word... ‘Love?’ Is that what everyone has been showing me this past week? I broke eye contact with Alpha Roy and looked over my shoulder at Jess, then at Rico. Jess smiled and nodded her head. Rico’s eyes were filled with nothing but kindness and that same spark he has shown only to me since we met. I see the same look in the triplet’s eyes when they look at Jess. That must be love. I felt something warm trail down my face.

I wiped my hand on my cheek, it was wet. I looked back at it in shock. Was I crying? I have never cried without feeling pain, and even then I haven’t cried since I was a pup. There wasn’t any pain, in fact I never felt lighter in my life. I looked back at Alpha Roy and he helped me stand up. “So how about we start off with a clean slate? After all, we are going to be family in the near future.”

I looked at him confused. Family? Rico wrapped one of his arms behind me and used his free hand to wipe away my tears. “Sophie is Roy’s second chance mate. So once you and I are married and Roy marries my little sister, he will be your brother too.” “Oh.” was all I could muster. I never felt like this before. I had butterflies in my stomach and at peace with my past for the first time. I wiggled out of Rico’s arms again and before I could think I wrapped my arms around Roy and hugged him like Sophie does to me. “Thank you.” was all I could say as I cried more into his shoulder.

Roy gently returned my hug and it truly felt like the nightmare of the past that hunted me was finally gone. I was free from the guilt and pain that had been stuck with me since that horrible day. I was happy and loved.

Restless

Chapter 59 - Wild Love With My Triplet Mates

Jess’s POV

Shianna was actually smiling. I don’t think she even realized it. Rico grabbed her and whisked her away out of the office. I turned to Roy. “Well I guess you did grow up huh?” I teased. Roy’s cheeks started to turn a shade of pink as he scratched the back of his neck. “Well I honestly learned it from you. You forgave us when we made your life a living hell. How could I not show the same courtesy to Shianna. Even I could tell she has suffered more than we have having William as a father.” He growled at the last part.

Layla, who had been quiet this whole time, finally spoke. “Well it is nice that everything is starting to come together, but I will have to ask you to leave Roy. Jess needs to change out of her dress and I don’t think Sophie and my sons will be very happy if you were in the room while she did that.” She said while raising an eyebrow. Roy’s face was priceless, it was as red as a tomato for a second then flashed to almost pure white at the thought of the other four hearing he saw me without clothes on. Roy booked it out of the office, leaving Layla and I to double over laughing.

I changed into some training clothes and went to the training grounds. Raphael and everyone from Thunder Mountain are going to be here around dinner time. It feels like forever since I saw them, even if it has only been a couple of weeks since the whole tournament and finding the triplets. I spot Nathan and Brandon fighting in the ring. I jumped up on the fence and sat down. It looked more to me they were just going through the motions. I was bored watching so I decided to have some fun.

“Hey boys, wanna fight with me? 2 on 1?” They looked conflicted. Before they could come up with a reason to reject me, I glared at them. “Do I need to use my luna tone?” they gulped and shook their heads. I smiled. “Good then get into position, and don’t hold back.”

Marcus’s POV

Roy had told me everything about Shianna and what happened all those years ago. I still feel empty without my loving Isabella with me, but Roy made the right call as alpha. The pain of loss and sadness needs to end. It takes a strong wolf to overcome their own pain and put others first.

I was walking around when I heard grunts. 'I guess I am near the training grounds. Might as well check things out.' I make my way over to the grounds and see Jessabelle having a match between two strong looking men. One with blonde hair and one with black hair. They must be a couple of the top fighters of this pack. I mind link Randy and Rachel (Jess's Parents) to come to the training grounds. They showed up within a few minutes along with a girl that looked like Sophie.

"What is wrong Marcus?" Randy asked. I smiled and pointed over to the ring where Jess was having her match. The girl looked at the scene and laughed. "Oh boy, Layla is going to have a cow if she sees this." Randy and Rachel just watch in shock and awe as Jess fights two strong men all on her own.

"Nathan, you need more leg training. I thought the tournament would have taught you that." Jess yelled at the blonde hair man, as she gave him a hard kick in his right leg. He groaned and landed a punch in her arm. I could tell it was a hard punch, but Jessabelle showed no emotion that it hurt her. She grabbed a hold of his shoulders and spun around and roundhouse kicked him in the side of the head. "Ouch, Nathan's going to be feeling that later." the girl spoke up.

Then the man with black hair lunged at Jessabelle. She ducked under his attack and swiped his legs out from under him causing him to lose his balance and topple over that Nathan person. Then the girl that came with Rachel and Randy clapped her hands. "All right Jess, that is enough of kicking the mens ass. Layla will kill all of us if you have bruises showing tomorrow." "Awww, come on Sasha. I was feeling restless. How about we go for a round?" Jess laughed and smiled as she turned around.

I don't remember the last time I saw her smile. She was a serious girl when she was just ten, and then all the hell we put her through I never saw her smile once. Now she is smiling ear to ear and fighting just like an alpha. Jessabelle saw me and her parents again, but she didn't panic like a few hours ago. She slightly bowed her head to me then turned back to the girl, Sasha.

"So Sasha, what do you need?" Jessabelle asked while using a towel, the black haired man handed her, to wipe off the sweat and bits of dirt. "I came looking for you because your horn dog alphas are looking for you. They want to spend the afternoon with you since Layla is kicking them out of the bedroom tonight." Sasha said with a wink. Jessabelle turned red and rubbed the back of her neck. I heard a growl from behind me. I saw Randy clenched his fist, so tight they were turning white. "Auntie Jess!!" two little voices cried out of nowhere, then the next thing I saw, Jessabelle was tackled by two children. A small boy and a little girl.

"Auntie Jess, we found you." the little girl shrieked in joy. Jessabelle laughed as she hugged the kids. "You did. Wow you guys are great trackers already. I think you will put that old man of yours to shame." She cooed to the children. They had huge grins on their faces. "HEY! Who the hell are you calling old Jessabelle Simons?" A deep voice called out in a growl. We all turned to see a man about the size of Alex coming towards us.

"You!" Jess laughed as she wiggled out of the kids' hold. She jumped the fence and ran up to the man giving him a tight hug. "Hey! Don't forget about us now Jess." Another voice called and a few more people were walking towards us. How many friends did Jessabelle make after she left

Red Moon, I wonder. “Oh how could I forget about my precious little Star? What kind of a godmother would I be if I did that?” Jessabelle said while taking a young pup out of a she-wolf’s arms.

Jessabelle blows kisses on the toddler and giggles fill the air. “JESSABELLE SIMONS!!” We hear a woman shout. I turned to see Alpha Raphael from the Thunder Mountain pack and his mate, Luna Odette, coming our way and Luna Odette did not look happy. “UH-oh” Jessabelle mumbled under her breath as she handed the pup back to her mother.

“What on earth are you doing here at the training grounds?! Your Luna Ceremony is tomorrow and you are already covered in scraps and bruises. Are you out of your mind!?” Luna Odette starts to scold Jessabelle, but she sheepishly smiles and takes off running. Randy, Rachel, and I watch in confusion and shock as Luna Odette takes after Jessabelle, while everyone else, including Alpha Raphael, is bent over laughing so much they start crying. “Jess you get your ass back here right now. I am so not finished with you.”

I looked a bit worried, but then I felt a small tug on my shirt. I looked down and was met with the little girl that tackled Jessabelle in a hug a little bit ago. “You don;t need to be worried sir, this kind of stuff is normal between Auntie Jess and Auntie Odette.” She said with a sweet smile. I gently smile in return. Then Alpha Raphael cleared his throat. “Well while Odette and Jess are busy catching up, how about we move to the dining room for lunch and get acquainted?” He suggests and with everyone nodding in agreement, we all head back inside.

Family Drama

Chapter 60 - Wild Love With My Triplet Mates

Jess’s POV

‘Oh man, Midnight. Odette is really pissed this time.’ I said as I was literally running for my life. Midnight just laughs at me. ‘It was kind of your own fault doll. You know that it will be worse once Layla finds out.’ I shuddered at the thought. “Jessabelle, just wait until I get my hands on you...” Odette growled out as she ran faster after me. Odette may not be a fighter like me, but she was about just as fast as me if she pushed herself.

I couldn’t shake her off my tail no matter what so I made a dash for the pack house. I know Raphael will help if I find him before she catches me. I burst in through the doors to the dining room and raced past Raphael with Odette still hot on my heels. Out of the corner of my eye I saw that Raphael had snagged Odette into his arms and set her on his lap. I chuckled to myself, but then I felt a strong pair of arms snake around my waist, and the next thing I knew I was also in someone’s lap.

I looked up and saw Leo smirking down at me. “Now princess, what did you do to be in so much trouble with my sweet cousin over there?” he asked while nuzzling into my neck. “Sweet? I was being chased by a mad wolf, Leo. What is so sweet about that?" I said, while throwing a teasing grin over at Odette. She growled from her spot on Raphael's lap. "I wouldn't be such a mad wolf if a certain tomboy luna wasn't pounding male warriors into the ground earlier." She snapped. 'Shit!'

"WHAT!?" I heard Layla shriek. 'Shit, shit, shit!' I kept repeating in my head. Midnight was rolling over laughing at me in my head. 'Oh shut up Midnight. You were just as restless as I was.' My thoughts with Midnight were interrupted as Layla started to scold me. "I told you Jessabelle. Today you were to do no training of any kind. You need to rest and relax for today, so you have plenty of energy for the ceremony tomorrow."

I shrink back and try as much as I can into Leo's chest. I glance over at Felix as a cry for help. He smiles and chuckles under his breath. "Oh sweet heart. Let the girl be. You know she is a very active person. Asking her to take a complete day off from training is hard for someone like her." Felix cooed to his mate. It worked and Layla let me off with a final glare. "Fine." she sighed. I breathed in relief and smiled over at Felix and mouthed a 'thank you' to him.

I grabbed a glass of water to rehydrate after being chased around. "I think the boys need to put a pup in her so she will learn to sit still." Odette blurted out. Causing me to choke on my water. Leo starts hitting my back hard to help me cough up the water. "That is a bit early cuz." Hero said with a slight chuckle. I was finally able to breathe again and glared at Odette from across the table.

"What do you mean early? Jess is covered in your guy's scent already. Plus if she had a pup she would have to take better care of herself." She said in a teasing tone. I pout and turn to Layla and Felix. "Mom, dad. Odette is being pushy today." They laugh. "Oh sweetie, but I would love to have grand pups sometime in the near future." Layla said with a wink. I felt myself blush a deep red. "Not you too. Stop teasing me already." I whine and cover my face with my hands.

I felt Leo chuckle under me. I looked up at him to glare but I was met with a deep kiss. I softly growled into his lips. I was never really able to stay mad at any of the triplets for long. As soon as Leo pulls away from my lips he stands up with me in his arms, and starts walking out of the dining room. "I guess we can work on that now, since we are banned from the room later tonight." he said in a husky voice. I blushed and then I noticed that Hero and Zero were hot on his heels as they dashed to our room. I giggled and Midnight purred for what was coming.

Alex's POV

I rolled my eyes and chuckled as the triplets dashed out of the dining room with Jess. Seeing Jess so happy now makes me feel a bit better, but I still miss her like crazy. I lost so much time with my baby sister. Now I have to keep reminding myself that she is no longer just my baby sister. She is a strong and beautiful she-wolf that has three mates that love and care for her. I looked across the table and saw my parents just looking down at their food, poking at it as they were lost in thought. I mind linked them to see what is bothering them now.

(Mindlink conversation. A=Alex, D=Dad, and M=Mom.)

A: Ok, what is wrong with the two of you now? Mom, dad?

M: I don't really like how Luna Layla called Jess her daughter earlier and that she glared at us and sent us out of the room.

D: Jess also just called them 'mom and dad' how do you expect us to feel about this Alex? We are not happy that your sister is ignoring us right now.

I just stare at them for a moment... I was in disbelief in what I heard for a minute. "Do you guys honestly think she will be happy go lucky with you again after what happened at Red Moon?" I asked them outloud. My parents glared at me and dad growled. Making everyone look our way, but we ignored them.

"What do you mean Alexander? You and Roy actually did harm her and she is not ignoring you two. Your father and I never touched her." Mom snarled. Before I could say anything Luna Layla cleared her voice. "Mrs. Simons. It is not about the physical wounds that Jess endured that is why she has become distant from you. It may be true you never harmed her, but did you ever protect her?" She asked with coldness in her voice and eyes.

Mom tried to open her mouth to speak, but Luna Layla cut her off with a harder glare. A glare that had me cowering in my seat. "You two could have given her love despite what the pack was doing, yet you turned a blind eye to it all. She was hurting everyday and you two did nothing to take that pain away." Damn if looks could kill, my parents would be cold in the ground by now.

Mom shot up from her seat and glared back at Luna Layla. "What would you have done if you were in our position. She was charged with killing my best friend and Luna!?" She screamed at her. Luna Layla rose from her seat and looked my mother dead in the eye. "I would have loved my child and been there for her!" She yelled back. "I would have killed anyone, even my own mate, if it was for the well being of my children and Felix would do the same. A child comes first before anything and everything." Then Alpha Felix rose to his feet. "You are here because we know how important you are to our Jess, but if you do not mind your manners in our home, then you should go to the human town during your stay. I will not allow anyone to harm MY DAUGHTER anymore." he said never once breaking eye contact with my parents.

"As parents you should think about how Jess felt all those years. How she felt when you loved Alex more, when you were there for him and not her, when you ignored her very existence in your household. You truly don't know what you have until it's gone." Luna Layla said. I could see sadness and anger mixed in her eyes. They turned to walk out of the dining room but before they left, Alpha Felix took one last look at my parents. "Also do not corner her to speak with you. You should wait until she is ready to speak with you about the past, just like she did with Alex and Roy at Thunder Mountain." With those final words they left.

I looked back over to my parents. They were ashamed, mad, and hurt. I just couldn't tell if the emotions were directed to themselves or others, but Luna Layla and Alpha Felix were right. They needed to give Jess time and come to them when she was ready. I just hope that Jess doesn't kick their asses like she did me before she would speak to me.
