

The Mans Decree Chapter 2411 -

Kai went to a Teleportation Array and was transported to the demon beasts' secret realm right away. When the demon beasts in that secret realm sensed the arrival of a human being, they started stirring.

The auras of demon beasts drew increasingly nearer to him. But when the demon beasts had gotten close to him, they froze. With mighty roars, they then parted and welcomed him.

Amidst their roars, a gigantic bird on Demon Beast Mountain took to the sky before landing in front of the man. It flapped its wings, prompting him to hop on.

Kai leaped onto the bird. Subsequently, the bird soared up to the sky and flew toward Demon Beast Mountain. At the sight of the familiar hut, Kai jumped off the bird's back and rushed into the structure.

"Master!" Feenix was still in the hut without a stitch on her. She regarded the man with a smile on her face. Seeing that she was safe and sound, Kai inwardly breathed a sigh of relief.

"Was it you who saved me back when I sustained an injury and fell unconscious, Feenix?" he queried. He was in a coma at that time and knew nothing at all, merely postulating the chain of events later.

Feenix dipped her head in admission. "Left with no recourse back when you were injured, I could only force my soul and sense out before coupling with you to form the Power of Dragons and Phoenixes. It was only then that you could be healed, Master. I hope you don't hold it against me, for I had no choice!" Sure enough, I was intimate with her while unconscious. But then, I can't blame her either since she only did it to save me!

"I don't hold it against you. After all, you did it to save me," Kai reassured. A smile curved Feenix's lips when she saw that the man did not condemn her. She asked, "Is something the matter that you came here to the demon beasts' secret realm, Master?"

Kai swiftly explained the purpose of his visit. Unexpectedly, Feenix's expression turned somber after hearing it all. "What's wrong?" Kai questioned upon glimpsing the look on her face. "Master, I'm willing to do anything for you. But at present, I can no longer leave Demon Beast Mountain,” Feenix revealed.

“Why?” Kai asked in puzzlement. “In a bid to save you back then, Master, I gave my soul and sense up to be imprinted in you. As such, I’m defective now and am bound to this place,” Feenix explained.

Hearing that, Kai frowned slightly. “What should we do, then? I’ll return your soul and sense to you. I’ve got far more power now.” “You can return my soul and sense to me, Master. But... But we’ll have to again...”

Feenix flushed bright red as the words were stuck in her throat. Nonetheless, Kai understood her meaning at once, knowing that she meant that he would have to bed her again if he wanted to return her soul and sense.

“I got it.” Right after saying that, he pounced on her without an ounce of hesitation. It was not their first time anyway, and he gave free rein to his desires. Since he had saved his mother, he was determined to bed all the women around him. In a flash, the entire hut was enveloped in a golden light.

A dragon and phoenix soared into the sky. before flying circles above the hut. Countless demon beasts from Demon Beast Mountain flocked over from all directions, worshipping the dragon and phoenix in the sky with their eyes fixed on the two creatures.

Throughout it all, cries of pleasure drifted out of the hut. The dragon and phoenix hovered in the sky for a long time. It was only when the sounds from the hut ceased and the golden light slowly faded that they also gradually dissipated.

In the hut, Feenix nestled in Kai’s embrace with gratification etched across her features like a docile kitten. “Wait for my news. At that time, charge to Gate of Thunder’s secret realm with your demon: beast subordinates,” Kai instructed.

“Don’t worry, Master. Your wish is my command.” Feenix bobbed her head. Later, Kai got dressed and went back to Gate of Thunder’s secret realm.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2412 -

“How did it go, Kai? Have you come up with a plan yet?” Hailey anxiously asked when she saw that Kai had returned. If he can’t do anything about it, Violet Cloud Palace will likely be doomed!

Santiago and Roanna likewise stared at Kai nervously. After all, no one wanted to die. If the man had a solution, they would not have to resign themselves to death anymore.

Holding Hailey's hopeful gaze, Kai nodded and replied, "Don't worry. If Brad and Claus dare to come tomorrow, I'll ensure they never leave here alive."

"Are you really confident of victory, Kai?" Santiago queried, not quite daring to believe it. "Of course. Since I've said as much, I certainly have the confidence to back it up!" Kai asserted confidently. At his confidence, relief suffused Santiago..

All that was left then was to await tomorrow's arrival. When night fell, Santiago asked Kai to spend the night at Violet Cloud Palace. Meanwhile, Beatrice and the others stayed at the cave as there would be a battle tomorrow. Despite being confident of victory, Kai would never be able to forgive himself if his mother were to be accidentally injured.

For that reason, he had Cecilia and the others protect her while he went to Violet Cloud Palace to deal with Brad and Claus, who would be coming tomorrow.

"Hailey, you're not young anymore. There are some things you need to understand. Although there are many women around Kai, he's a rare talent. You've got to seize this opportunity. If he can really help Violet Cloud Palace to overcome this crisis, we should also repay him. Do you get what your mother and I are trying to say?"

Both Santiago and Roanna were trying to counsel Hailey. Familiar with their daughter's temperament, they were worried that she would develop a sense of aversion toward Kai after seeing that he had many women. In response, Hailey nodded slowly. "Mom, Dad, I know what you both meant. Actually, I like him as well."

"Since you like him, you've got to be more proactive, silly. Tonight is a good time. If there were other women around him, when do you think it'd be your turn? You've got no experience at all, and that will put you at a great disadvantage at that time," Roanna quickly suggested. Hailey's face turned crimson. Biting her lower lip hard, she abruptly shot to her feet and mumbled, "I know what to do now."

After saying that, she left the room. Santiago and Roanna looked at each other and smiled. Right then, Kai was lying in bed, devising a plan to deal with Brad and Claus tomorrow.

Out of the blue, his room door was lightly pushed open. On the heels of that, a feminine fragrance wafted into the air. Without having to look, he could tell who it was. Feigning sleep, he closed his eyes.

Hailey walked up to Kai in her birthday suit. As she gazed down at the man, who was already asleep, hesitation played on her face. But in the end, she gritted her teeth and lay down beside him before slipping under his covers. She rested her head against his chest. Only then did a sense of security engulf her.

Kai, on the other hand, enjoyed the scent of her feminine fragrance and the smoothness of her tender skin. Having had a taste of pleasure, he could no longer suppress the desire blazing within him. Flipping over, he pinned her under him. Panic swamped Hailey. Just when she was about to speak, Kai captured her lips.

“Ahh!” A cry of pleasure rang out from Kai’s room and reverberated around the entire Violet Cloud Palace. The instant Santiago and Roanna heard that, they could tell that it was their daughter’s voice.

They both breathed a sigh of relief and swung their gazes in the direction of Kai’s room. The room glowed with a golden light so strong that it blanketed almost the whole Violet Cloud Palace.

As Santiago gaped at the blinding golden light, amazement showed on his face. “Kai is really something else. It seems that we made the right choice,” he murmured.

“Exactly! I could already tell at first glance that he was far from being a simple man!” Roanna was all smiles, looking like a mother-in-law who was increasingly pleased with her son-in-law.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2413 -

The following day, Brad and his son arrived at Violet Cloud Palace once more as Hailey didn’t show up despite a long wait. “Santiago, how dare you fool me? It’s too late even if you agree to hand us your daughter now. I’m going to destroy the entire Violet Cloud Palace!” Brad exclaimed angrily, feeling deceived.

On the other hand, Santiago was no longer afraid of Brad, as Kai had promised to protect them. Snorting, he responded, “Brad, do you think you have the ability to destroy Violet Cloud Palace? Dream on!”

Brad was taken aback, and his expression turned into a frown. “Seems like you’ve found someone to support you. Otherwise, you wouldn’t have dared speak to me like this. But let me make one thing clear: no matter who comes to your aid, you won’t leave here alive unless you submit to the Evil Heart Sect. No one can save you!” “Really? Can I save him, then?”

Right then, Kai strode out, holding Hailey’s hand. Hailey’s cheeks were flushed red, and she looked feminine. It was apparent what change she underwent last night.

“Hailey, you...”

Claus was livid to see Kai and Hailey holding hands. “Kai?” Brad’s surprise was evident as he laid eyes on Kai. After all, Kai had showcased his impressive abilities during the Secret Realm Conference in front of everyone’s eyes.

“Santiago, don’t tell me you’ve grown arrogant just because this young man is here to assist you. With his current abilities, I can easily crush him with one hand,” Brad remarked dismissively.

Kai’s performance at the Secret Realm Conference may have been commendable, showcasing his capabilities, but it was merely at contest among young individuals. Brad assumed that Kai wouldn’t be able to match his own strength.

Alas, Brad had no idea Kai wasn’t the same person as he was a few months ago. Kai had reached the level of a Top Level Compounder and possessed the powerful Divine Bow, so he had the upper hand and could easily defeat Brad.

Instead of replying to him, Santiago turned to look at Kai. He didn’t know the extent of Kai’s strength and whether or not Kai was capable of defeating Brad. Besides, Brad had brought along hundreds of disciples, while Kai was alone.

“You can try to crush me to my death with one hand then. See what happens,” Kai declared with a cold smirk. “If you have a death wish, I’ll take your life first before destroying Violet Cloud Palace.” Brad’s narrowed eyes emitted an icy glint as he prepared to take Kai down.

“Dad!” Yet, his son Claus intervened, stopping Brad in his tracks. Claus then turned his furious gaze toward Hailey. “Hailey, we’ve been childhood sweethearts. You know how deeply I love you. If you agree to marry me, I’ll do everything in my power to convince my father to spare Violet Cloud Palace. I don’t get it. How is Kai better than me?” he hollered, on the verge of losing his sanity.

“Claus, just give up. I belong to Kai now,” Hailey responded as she gave Kai a shy look. It was clear that Kai had won her heart last night. Claus was struck with disbelief.

“No, that’s impossible. You must be lying to me. You’re not a loose woman. For years, you didn’t even let me hold your hand. You’re an innocent girl, aren’t you?” he demanded incredulously. refusing to believe that Hailey had slept with Kai.

“Wake up, Claus. I didn’t let you hold my hand because I never liked you. I’m willing to sacrifice everything for the man I love!” Hailey’s answer successfully provoked Claus.

“Ah!” Claus roared like a madman. “Kai, I will kill you and tear you to pieces!”

With that, Claus unleashed his aura completely and charged toward Kai. “Ha!” Kai’s icy snort filled the air. Without glancing at Claus, he swiftly raised his leg and unleashed a powerful flying kick aimed directly at Claus.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2414 -

Claus’ body was sent flying backward before crashing heavily onto the ground. “My son!” Shocked, Brad quickly went after him.

Santiago stared at Kai in astonishment, his eyes widening in disbelief. He had no inkling that Kai had attained such extraordinary strength. Though Claus was not the most formidable young martial artist, he still possessed considerable skill. Yet, Kai effortlessly sent him hurtling through the air without even bothering to direct his gaze toward him. It was a clear testament to Kai’s exceptional prowess.

Hailey gazed at Kai, clearly besotted with him. Oh, Kai is so hot! “My son! Oh, my son! I will kill everyone here!” Brad’s anguished cry reverberated throughout the area. The sheer intensity of his aura was so overwhelming that it caused the nearby houses to tremble and shake.

Santiago and the others rushed outside, only to be greeted by a harrowing sight. Claus lay motionless on the ground, his lifeless body covered in blood as his eyes stared blankly into the distance. Santiago could barely hide his shock. Did Kai kill Claus with a mere kick?

“Kai, I’ll rip you into pieces! I swear I will!” Brad hollered as a terrifying aura emanated from his body. Slowly, a black mark appeared in the middle of Brad’s forehead. The entire sky turned dark as black mist filled the sky.

Brad’s clothes were ripped apart as a purple robe emerged on his body. His face became blurry as a black mist descended on his head. “A purple-robed emissary?” Kai’s lips curved when he noticed Brad’s outfit. “Perfect. Today, I shall settle the long-standing grudge between me and the Evil Heart Sect once and for all.”

“Kai, don’t be arrogant. You’re only alive at the moment because the Spiritual Energy Restoration Formation needs you. Once the formation is activated, and your divine soul is used as sacrifice, you’ll suffer a fate worse than death.”

Brad glared at Kai coldly, his entire being shrouded in the black mist, looking like a devil. “Spiritual Energy Restoration Formation?” Kai was confused, not knowing what he meant by that formation.

Right then, Santiago explained, “The Spiritual Energy Restoration Formation has been in existence for a considerable period. It was initially established by the leader of the Divine Quest Sect. However, before its activation, the entire Divine Quest Sect was mysteriously annihilated. The activation of this formation requires the participation of eight individuals with unique constitutions, combined with a unique incantation. I am unsure why the Evil Heart Sect possesses the capability to activate this formation.”

As Santiago’s words sank in, Kai’s mind quickly connected the dots and recalled the events that unfolded in the Divine Quest Sect’s secret realm. Josephine and the others were trapped there with a few individuals possessing unique constitutions. It suddenly dawned on Kai why the Evil Heart Sect was so desperate to capture them all.

Furthermore, Kai himself possessed a unique constitution, making him a valuable target. The memories of the stone statues within the cave of the secret realm resurfaced, and Kai instinctively knew that those statues must be related to the activation of the formation.

“It turns out that the Evil Heart Sect has been behind this elaborate scheme all along. They want to conquer the entire mundane world,” Kai said slowly.

“Ha! That isn’t it. Our goal isn’t just to conquer the mundane world,” Brad revealed with an icy snort. “No matter what goal you have in mind, it won’t succeed. Today will be the day you meet your doom,” Kai declared.

He slowly began to unleash his aura. However, Kai’s aura wasn’t as strong as Brad’s. “I can’t believe you have the audacity to challenge me,” Brad sneered.

He reached into the air, and the black mist turned into a hammer in his hand! The hammer gave off a chilly vibe, seemingly able to freeze the air surrounding it.
