

The Mans Decree Chapter 2415 -

Brad leaped into the air and thrust his hammer at Kai. The surrounding air turned white, pinning Kai to his spot.

“Kai!” Hailey screamed, intending to help him. She had not expected that Kai would be at a disadvantage the minute the fight began.

As Kai’s beloved, she refused to remain a passive observer while Kai faced the threat of death. If fate dictated that Kai would meet his demise, she would willingly die alongside him. Santiago grabbed Hailey as he knew she would die if she were to join the fight.

“Don’t go, Hailey. I’ll do it,” he said. Santiago decided to save Kai. He might not be as capable as Brad, but he was determined to save Kai at all costs.

Right when Santiago was about to take action, he discovered red bursts of flames appearing around Kai. The initially frozen space immediately cracked. Kai swung his Dragonslayer Sword upward, and a horrifying light charged toward Brad.

Boom! With a deafening blast, the hammer composed of swirling black mist shattered into countless fragments, and the sheer force of the impact propelled Brad forcefully backward, his body hurtling through the air. Kai snorted icily and declared, “How dare you threaten to kill me with your mere ability?”

Sent hurtling through the air, Brad crashed onto the ground, staggering a few steps backward before finally coming to a halt. “How can you possess such unimaginable power?” he demanded in disbelief.

Santiago grew excited when he saw Kai backing Brad into a corner with just one move. I made the right decision by allowing Hailey to be with Kai. The young man has a bright future ahead of him!

“You’re the one who is too weak,” Kai declared, raising his Dragonslayer Sword. As the golden light soared into the air, Kai brandished his sword and directed its tip downward, unleashing a mighty force.

The surging light surged forth like an unstoppable tsunami, catapulting toward Brad with unparalleled intensity, ready to engulf him completely. Veins popped out of Brad's face as he sensed the surmounting pressure. He began to howl, "I'm not weak! I'm the strongest!"

With a swift and forceful motion, his palm struck the air with a resounding slap, causing a shockwave to ripple through the sky. In response, a chilling howl pierced the air, and the dark mist coalesced into the form of a menacing and ferocious dog that was descending from above.

The creature's piercing howl resonated with destructive power, easily shattering Kai's golden light. Brad leaped into the air to stand on the dog's body, towering above Kai.

"Kai, this is a hellhound. No one can escape from its jaws," Brad declared frostily. "Ha! This entity made of negative energy hardly deserves to be called a hellhound. It's quite amusing that you would even attempt to claim such a title," Kai retorted, his confidence unshaken.

"You have a death wish!" Brad immediately commanded the hellhound to attack Kai. The hellhound let out a roar, and frosty energy emanated from its body to freeze the surrounding air. A thick layer of frost emerged around Kai, trapping him within.

This time, the frost was stronger than the one Brad created earlier. As Santiago and Hailey observed the unfolding situation, their concern for Kai intensified. They had underestimated Brad's abilities and were caught off guard by his unexpected maneuver.

As Brad rode on the back of the hellhound, closing in on the immobile Kai, a sharp cry echoed through the sky, piercing the tense atmosphere.

A blazing phoenix appeared above Kai's head, its huge body shielding Kai from danger. As the phoenix flapped its wings, the frosty energy, along with the frost covering Kai's body, disappeared in an instant.

"That is a phoenix!" Hailey exclaimed excitedly. Santiago was taken aback, unable to comprehend why a phoenix would unexpectedly appear to aid Kai in his dire situation.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2416 -

A look of disbelief crossed Brad's face when he saw the phoenix flapping its wings. Kai's phoenix was a real creature, embodying the essence of a majestic phoenix, while Brad's hellhound was nothing more than a manifestation of negative energy.

"Kai, I can't believe you received help from a phoenix, which is a mythical beast." Brad couldn't figure out why Kai was able to obtain help from a mythical beast with his current cultivation level.

After all, phoenixes only existed in the Ethereal Realm or the Immortal Realm. After successfully resolving Kai's predicament, the phoenix gracefully circled in the air, taking a human form as it touched the ground next to Kai.

Everyone could barely hide their shock at seeing the phoenix turning into a young woman. After all, any beasts, including both demon beasts and mythical beasts, would need to possess incredible power to be able to transform into human form.

"Master, how dare this hellhound bully you? Let me destroy it!" Feenix declared. With a graceful wave of her arms, Feenix summoned balls of blazing fire from the heavens above. These fiery orbs descended swiftly, their intense heat and power aimed directly at the colossal hellhound.

Before the hellhound could even let out a single howl, the balls of fire struck their mark. Within moments, the hellhound transformed into a dissipating cloud of black mist, vanishing completely from sight.

"Brad, if you have other tricks, feel free to try them!" Kai announced, staring at a completely dumbfounded Brad. Brad was sporting a grim look. "Kai, you made me do this!" he hollered. Without warning, he spat a mouthful of blood onto the ground.

As the blood seeped into the ground, a profound tremor reverberated through the earth. A deep crack emerged beneath Brad's feet, rapidly expanding in all directions. From the depths of the crack, a swirling mass of black mist emerged, followed by five towering figures.

The five demon beasts possessed an ominous aura, their entire bodies shrouded in darkness. Negative energy emanated from their snarling mouths:

"Kai, these aren't demon beasts formed by negative energy. They are real demon beasts from hell. Even if you have a phoenix's help, you won't be able to escape!" Brad declared vehemently as the five demon beasts surrounded

Kai and Feenix. Seeing that, Santiago tried to step forward to offer help, but Kai stopped him from doing so.

“Mr. Hargreaves, just you wait and see. You don’t have to take action against Waxing Crescent Castle as I am perfectly capable of doing so, Kai announced confidently. He showed no fear even when five demon beasts from hell were standing right before him.

“Kai, you’ve already slept with Hailey. Why are you still addressing Santiago as Mr. Hargreaves? That’s too formal. I’m already waiting for the arrival of my grandchildren,” Roanna told Kai. Hailey’s cheeks turned pink. “Mom, what are you talking about?” Feenix turned her gaze toward Kai, who bore a slightly embarrassed expression.

“I want to give birth to a baby dragon for you too,” she told him in a low voice. Kai hung his head, not knowing what else to say. When Brad realized that Kai wasn’t nervous or worried at all despite being surrounded by so many demon beasts from hell, he flew into a fit of rage.

“Kai, I can’t believe you’re still flirting around when you’re about to meet your doom. I’ll send you to hell to keep my son company!” he uttered menacingly.

With that, he directed the five demon beasts from hell to attack Kai and Feenix. Feenix cast Brad a contemptuous look. “How dare mere demon beasts show my master disrespect?”

Her screech pierced through the air, casting a dark shroud upon the sky while the air trembled in response. From within the depths of the darkness, more than a dozen eerie shadows emerged. Eagles, leopards, tigers....

They were demon beasts with exceptionally strong auras! The demon beasts, which appeared out of nowhere, created an instant protective circle around Kai and Feenix.

Roar! Brad stood in stunned silence as the deafening roars of the newly arrived demon beasts echoed through the air, instilling fear in his own five demon beasts from hell. He was left utterly bewildered by the unexpected turn of events.

“Aren’t these demon beasts from the demon beasts’ secret realm? Why are they here?” Brad couldn’t understand why the demon beasts from the demon beasts’ secret realm would leave their secret realm.

Most of these demon beasts had become sentient and could understand human language. However, they couldn't travel using the Teleportation Array. He was baffled to see them at Gate of Thunder's secret realm.