

The Mans Decree Chapter 2419 -

“Did I say you could leave?” When Kai noticed Brad leaving, he leaped into the air to pursue him. Seeing that, Tanner gently waved his hand, and a massive force instantly flung Kai away.

“If it weren’t for the Spiritual Energy Restoration Formation needing you, do you think you would have survived until now, brat?” Tanner said contemptuously as he stared at Kai.

The latter returned Tanner’s stare, his right fist clenched tightly as the Power of Dragons within him surged to the extreme.

“Sacred Light Fist!” Kai roared. There was a flash of dazzling golden light, and a massive golden dragon appeared. The dragon’s aura gushed out with a mighty roar, heading straight for Tanner.

“You still wish to resist?” Surprisingly, Tanner was unfazed by the golden dragon. He merely waved his hand lightly again, and his aura surged forth to collide with the dragon’s aura.

Boom! Following a thunderous explosion, the golden dragon vanished, and Kai was sent flying back by the immense rebound force. Even if Kai threw a punch with all his strength, he could not fight back against Tanner.

However, when his body was sent flying high into the air, a magical bow suddenly appeared in his hand. Gathering the Ultimate Force to the center of his palm, Kai drew the Divine Bow.

Countless spiritual energies converged upon the Divine Bow, forming a golden arrow. Santiago and the others were stunned when they saw the Divine Bow appearing in Kai’s hand, disbelief written all over their faces.

This was because the aura emanating from the bow was enough to crush all of them! Tanner, too, was slightly taken aback when Kai pulled out the Divine Bow.

Whoosh! Before anyone could react, Kai shot an arrow. The golden arrow shot out at breakneck speed like a shooting star, trailed by a raging flame. However, it was not aimed at Tanner but at Brad, who had already run more than ten miles. At that moment, the latter was still rejoicing over his escape.

Even so, he knew that he had used up his last life-saving token, and his status in the Evil Heart Sect would be inferior to the other purple-robed emissaries in the future.

Brad had no idea there were purple-robed emissaries in every secret realm. To this day, he still did not know the true identities of the other purple-robed emissaries.

All of a sudden, he sensed a dangerous aura approaching, the overwhelming sense of oppression causing him to turn around. The very instant he did that, he saw a dazzling golden light heading toward him.

Before he could react, the light penetrated his body. Brad's eyes widened as he looked down at his body in disbelief. He was not physically injured, nor did he feel any pain.

Brad froze, and before he understood what was going on, his body suddenly began to swell.

Boom! Following a resounding explosion, Brad's body was blown to bits. Even his soul did not remain, and he could never recreate his body. Kai stared at the smoke from the explosion at a distance with a hint of a smile on his lips as his body slowly fell.

Even though Kai had made a move on Tanner earlier, he did not think he could defeat the latter. All he wanted was to make Tanner lower his guard so that he could attack Brad without him expecting it.

Meanwhile, Tanner instantly understood what was going on upon hearing the explosion in the distance, but there were no signs of anger on his face.

"The Divine Bow. I didn't think you would obtain the Divine Bow... Looks like those old geezers like you. They even passed on the Ultimate Force to you!" Tanner sounded somewhat surprised.

"Cut the crap and come at me!" Kai drew the bow, and another arrow appeared.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2420 -

Tanner burst out laughing. "Hahaha! I already said I wouldn't kill you, so why would I do anything? Once the Spiritual Energy Restoration Formation activates, you will come to realize that you are nothing but a clown!"

He then slowly faded away after saying that. Kai slumped to the ground after Tanner was gone. He had sustained internal injuries after that clash with Tanner earlier.

"Master!"

"Kai!" Feenix, Hailey, and Santiago rushed toward him. "Don't worry, you guys! I'm fine!" Kai reassured them with a smile and a wave.

Santiago shuddered in fear as he exclaimed, "Tanner is way too powerful! I felt as though I couldn't even move a muscle when facing him. earlier!" "That was just one of his shadow clones. The real Tanner is probably a lot more powerful!" Kai said.

Everyone fell silent upon hearing that. If Tanner really is that powerful, then Kai is no match for him at all!

Having witnessed Tanner's power, Kai realized that he probably wouldn't stand a chance even with his Divine Bow. Tanner is just as powerful as those demons! Judging by what he said earlier, I bet he knows them as well!

"Just who is Tanner of Evil Heart Sect?" Kai mumbled to himself and fell into deep thought. Beatrice, Cecilia, and the others showed up by then. Fearing for Kai's safety, they came running over immediately after hearing the commotion.

"Kai! Are you okay?" Beatrice asked worriedly when she saw the weary look on his face. "I'm fine, Mom!" Kai replied with a smile. Everyone breathed a sigh of relief when they saw that Kai was fine.

Santiago had wanted to have Kai rest at Violet Cloud Palace for a few more days before leaving, but Kai was in such a hurry to return to Jadeborough that he didn't even stay over.

Kai then had Feenix lead the demon beasts: back into their secret realm. He knew that he would still require Feenix's help in the future, as he had only dealt with one out of the Eight Major Secret Realms.

“You’re one of Kai’s women now, Hailey. Remember to serve him well and curb that temper of yours,” Roanna reminded Hailey.

Hailey nodded. “I will, Mom!”

After saying goodbye to Santiago and Roanna, Kai and the others teleported back to Jadeborough. When Beatrice returned to the Deragon residence, she saw that it had been given a complete makeover. As for Deragon Sect, it had become the largest sect in all of Jadeborough.

Beatrice was incredibly happy when she saw Kai’s accomplishments. Cecilia knew that Kai and Beatrice would have a lot to talk about since they were finally reunited, so she led the girls away to give them some space.

Kai and Beatrice spent the entire night catching up. “Mom, what kind of person was my father like? I’m really curious because a lot of people have been calling me the son of a dragon.’ What does that mean? Also, Mr. Draco said my father left us. Is that true?” Kai asked.

He was genuinely curious about the kind of person his father was. Kai wanted to know why his father had abandoned them and got Beatrice confined in the Deragon residence for over twenty years. Beatrice went into deep thought after hearing that.

Kai figured he had triggered some sad memories when he saw how quiet Beatrice had gotten. “It’s okay if you don’t feel like talking about it, Mom. I’m just glad that we’re finally reunited.”

Granddad might still be alive today if it weren’t for this as well!

“It’s nothing I can’t talk about...” Beatrice glanced out the window as she continued, “Your father was a great hero, so please don’t hate him. He must have had his reasons for abandoning us. That Dragon Ring and your cultivation technique belonged to your father. I know he must be someone of great importance, but I never asked who he truly was. Regardless, nothing he did will change the fact that he is your father.”
