

The Mans Decree Chapter 2439 -

“Kai!”

“Kai!” At that sight, Josephine, Melanie, and Renee unleashed their spiritual energy in unison, preparing to rush toward Skylar. However, they stopped the next instant and looked at Kai in a daze. Skylar’s claw strike didn’t result in blood splattering or any visible wound.

Kai sneered and riveted his eyes on Skylar disparagingly. The smile on Skylar’s face froze and was replaced with a look of utter disbelief. He had exerted all his strength in that claw strike earlier, and Kai had taken the hit head- on, yet he still failed to injure Kai.

Skylar couldn’t cause his opponent the slightest harm, even as the latter stood unmoving in his spot. “H-How is this possible? No way!” Resentment filled Skylar’s eyes as he looked at Kai.

In order to defeat the man, Skylar had even undergone the most brutal training. Now that he had completed his training, Skylar thought he could triumph over and take revenge against Kai effortlessly.

In the end, he still wasn’t Kai’s match. Not only was he not a match, but he also couldn’t even wound Kai in the slightest. The turns of events caused Skylar to be disheartened and dumbfounded..

He wasn’t the only one to feel that. The six purple-robed emissaries also shared his sentiment and frowned after witnessing that.. They didn’t expect Kai’s capabilities to grow so powerful in such a short time.

“Do you think you’re the only one who has been cultivating and has improved during this period? Let me tell you. You will never surpass me.” Kai chuckled coldly.

Then, he sent Skylar flying away with a single kick. Skylar’s body was launched into the distance like a kite with a broken thread before landing heavily on the ground.

Pfft! Skylar spat a mouthful of blood on the floor, the reflex partly prompted by his injury and partly because of extreme anger. “Why? Why is this happening?” he lamented at the sky, feeling that the heavens were being unfair to him. I've trained so hard and even subjected myself to the harshest environment and most brutal torments, yet all the efforts were in vain.

The devastating blow was too much for Skylar to bear. Gazing at the dazed Skylar, Kai fathomed the setback had ruined the man, so he smirked and said, "Instead of letting you live in such agony, I shall just grant you a swift death!"

With that, Kai raised his palm and swung it at Skylar. He wanted to do away with Skylar because the latter was too cunning. As long as Skylar was alive, Kai would never have peace.

However, just as Kai was about to hit Skylar, a figure suddenly showed up in a flash and shielded the latter while exchanging a ferocious palm strike with Kai.

Bang! After the thunderous sound rang out, the purple-robed emissaries took three steps back. While Kai's body merely swayed a little. That purple-robed emissary was astounded. Seeing that, the other purple-robed emissaries immediately surged and first surrounded Kai and the others.

"What's the matter? Are you planning to gang up on me?" Kai asked frostily while sweeping his eyes across the six purple-robed emissaries.

One of the purple-robed emissaries walked up to Kai and said, "Kai, we won't kill you, but you'd better stay put obediently. Otherwise, don't blame us for being unmerciful."

Kai thought the voice sounded familiar. Then, he suddenly remembered whose voice that was. It's Quindon! Kai didn't expect the most powerful member of the Eight Major Secret Realms, Quindon, to be one of the purple-robed emissaries.

"You still need me to activate your Spiritual Energy Restoration Formation, so you won't dare to kill me. In that case, why should I listen to you? What can you do to me if I refuse to comply? I insist on leaving." Kai strode in the direction of Divine Quest Sect.

After he heard that, Quindon's countenance flushed crimson in anger, and he shouted, "Stop him! We can't kill him, but that doesn't mean we can't cripple him. Cripple him, and let's see if he can still behave so arrogantly!"

With that, the few purple-robed emissaries charged at Kai.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2440 -

Kai's confidence was long doused as he faced the six purple-robed emissaries. Just as he was racking his brains for a way to deal with them, a roar sounded behind him. Skylar stood up angrily, yelling, "Stop fighting.. you all! Hand Kai to me. I'm going to cut off his limbs!"

When the six purple-robed emissaries turned around, they noticed a cloud of lethal intent around Skylar, who seemed to have grown bigger in size. Black fog condensed behind Skylar the next second and transformed into a colossal hell deity.

The hell deity held two swords as it glared at them, its expression ferocious. The six purple-robed emissaries jumped at the sight of the creature before them, and they scrambled to make way for Skylar. Skylar walked toward Kai. Every time he made a step, the hell deity behind him did the same, its oppressive energy closing in on Kai.

"Kai, don't forget that I have Inferno Devil's Form. My body is different from that of normal people," reminded Skylar while staring daggers. at Kai. The closer Skylar got to Kai, the bigger the hell deity behind him grew.

"Kai, time for you to die!" he bellowed. The hell deity also let out a howl and clashed its two swords against each other, releasing an immense wave of power.

Yet, just as it was about to charge toward Kai, the sky darkened. An enormous hand emerged from the clouds and landed on the hell deity, which dissipated in an instant.

"Are you disregarding everything that I told you?" Tanner's voice boomed from the sky. Upon hearing Tanner's voice, Skylar shivered. He was indeed overcome with rage and the desire to kill Kai just now.

If he had really done that, he would be in great trouble. He hurriedly kneeled down and pleaded, "Lord Tanner, I'm so sorry. Please forgive me just once..."

"Kai totally outclasses you right now; his capabilities far surpass yours. You must keep cultivating. Set aside your thoughts of revenge and focus on cultivation," advised Tanner.

“Lord Tanner, Kai killed my father. He’s been bullying me all this time. The reason I cultivated so aggressively is to defeat him and avenge my father. I have Inferno Devil’s Form. Once I activate it, Kai will be no match for me!” Skylar shouted.

He believed that the reason he couldn’t beat Kai was that he didn’t activate his Inferno Devil’s Form. Otherwise, Kai would be no rival for him. Tanner did not respond, and his huge hand slowly disappeared. It was also then that the hell deity materialized again and returned to its spot behind Skylar.

As if understanding Tanner’s intention, Skylar stood up and turned to Kai with a murderous look. “Kai, I’ll make you experience what it feels like to be living in hell.”

Right after he said that, his body glowed and merged with the hell deity. Then, the gigantic hell deity approached Kai while swinging its swords. Kai swiftly flipped his right hand. Dragonslayer Sword appeared on his palm, and he thrust it forward to shield himself from the hell deity’s swords.

However, Kai could feel his Dragonslayer Sword vibrating abnormally. It was quivering so violently that he could not even control it. No matter how hard he tried to infuse the Power of Dragons into the sword, he couldn’t manage to communicate with the sword spirit.

Crack. Crack. Crack.

Following the small noises, Kai noticed tiny crevices showing up on the Dragonslayer Sword.
