Married At First Sight Chapter 2847-Julian paused his work and looked up at his secretary.

The secretary came over with a bouquet of flowers.

Julian said, "Put it on the coffee table over there for me."

The secretary: "Okay."

The secretary turned and walked away holding the bouquet, walked to the sofa, gently placed the bouquet on the coffee table, stood up straight, looked at Julian, and asked, "Mr. Bucham, do you have any other instructions?"

Julian said, "No more for now; go do your work."

The secretary: "Okay, then I'm going to do something."

When the secretary saw Julian lowering his head to deal with documents, he left the office.

Julian finished the work as quickly as possible, then he closed the computer and picked up his mobile phone and car keys. He bought a new car for the convenience of taking Kiera out for a ride.

Walking over, Julian picked up the bouquet of roses. After examining it for a moment, he felt that it was more beautiful than the bouquet he had randomly bought for Elisa before.

Next time, he would buy flowers in person.

Was it enough to just buy a bouquet of flowers?

Julian remembered that Josh often sent bouquets of flowers and jewelry to Jasmine.

But it was definitely not appropriate for him to give jewelry to Kiera, and Kiera would not accept it from him. He also wanted to give Kiera a mansion and a luxury car, but he had to accept it if Kiera was willing to accept it.

"Let's test the waters first." Julian muttered to himself.

He thought of sending a bouquet of flowers first to see Kiera's reaction. If Kiera accepted it happily, he would then slowly change the gift, step by step.

Julian walked out of the office holding the bouquet of flowers.

The secretary: "Mr. Bucham."

Julian: "I'm off work. Don't call me at night as long as the sky isn't falling."

Don't affect his relationship with Kiera.

No matter how important his job was, it was not as important as his life events. The main reason was that he was different from others. If others break up, they can still find someone else. If he can't catch Kiera, he will have to be a bachelor for the rest of his life.

"Okay." The secretary had long known that Julian would accompany Kiera at night. He had the good fortune to meet Kiera several times and also saw Julian's dotting on Kiera, but Kiera seemed to have no feelings for Julian.

Seeing that Julian specially asked him to help buy a bouquet of flowers, he must be confessing his love to Kiera.

Julian left happily.

A few minutes later, he drove out of the company and went to buy barbecue for Kiera and the children. He packed a lot of barbecue, bought a lot of snacks for the children, and finally bought a few boxes of chrysanthemum tea.

Mrs. Caron was always worried that they would get angry after eating barbecue, so she bought several boxes of herbal tea for everyone.

Of course, they still couldn't let Mrs. Caron know.

They know he and Kiera could be talked about until their ears fall off.

It's very cold outside.

Yonsburg was not like Wiltspoon. The lunar calendar was in its eleventh month. Wiltspoon had experienced a few days of cold weather, but the temperature had warmed up. During the day, simply dress in autumnal attire. Some people even wear short sleeves, but dress like a rice dumpling in Yonsburg.

With the heater on in the office, Julian didn't feel too cold. When he came out, he got out of the car to buy things for the children. He couldn't help but shrink when the north wind blew.

Married At First Sight Chapter 2848-An hour later, Julian arrived at the Caron family martial arts gym.

It's already dark; actually, it's still early, but in winter, the days are short and the nights are long, so it gets dark quickly.

Kiera was in charge of the class, which had just ended.

“Uncle Bucham is here.”

A child saw Julian’s car and shouted, and then the group swarmed out.

“Don’t run out; it’s windy outside.” Julian laughed and shouted, but everyone still ran out.

He then gave the several large bags of snacks he bought to a few older children to carry into the martial arts gym, and he gave the packed barbecue to the younger children for them to take in.

Kiera walked out, holding a thick coat while putting it on.

When she saw Julian, she smiled and said, “Before you came, I was the most popular person in the martial arts gym. After you came, you became the most popular.”

Kendrick followed Kiera out, and he took over what she said: “Kiera, you are so stingy; if you are as generous as Julian and treat everyone in the martial arts gym to eat every time you come over, I guarantee that everyone will like you the most like before.”

Kiera said, “It’s not that I’m stingy. How many times can I treat everyone to dinner with such a small amount of money? Julian runs a big company and is the big boss. I don’t want to compete with Julian for this.”

After Kiera finished speaking, she suddenly said, “It seems to be snowing.”

Kendrick looked at the sky and said, “It seems to be snowing. What’s weird about snowing? After the winter, it snows every now and then. It’s normal.”

Julian said, “Brother, come here; here are some boxes of chrysanthemum tea for you. I bought a barbecue and came here. I was afraid that everyone would get angry after eating it, so I bought a few boxes of chrysanthemum tea.”

Julian unloaded the boxes of chrysanthemum tea and summoned Kendrick rudely.

Kendrick went up to his car and took a look at it. He saw the bouquet of flowers placed on the passenger seat. His eyes flickered, but he didn’t say anything.

Julian had lived in their Caron family for such a long time, and the family had a clear understanding of Julian’s character and conduct.

Julian had a cold side and a gentle side. That cold side had never been shown in front of the Caron family, but the Caron family could tell that he was not as gentle as he appeared.

How could the big boss of a large group be such a gentle person after more than ten years of experience in the business world?

The Caron family felt that he had a bottom line in terms of conscience and would not do anything illegal or harmful to others. In addition, his sweet talk made the two elders of the Caron family fall in love with him more and more. His purpose for Kiera was of great concern to the Caron family. It was all tacit and allowed for the two of them to develop freely.

However, Julian was a bit older, which made the Caron family a little concerned.

Mrs. Caron often made soup for Julian to drink recently.

In order to take good care of Julian's body so that Julian could live a long life, he could accompany Kiera to the end.

Julian didn't know the real purpose of Mrs. Caron's making soup for him to drink every day.

"Julian, my mother has infected you. You are afraid of getting angry after eating some barbecue. Look at what kind of weather it is. The north wind is blowing, it is snowing, it is freezing cold, and you are still afraid of getting angry. The people here are just like you. The city is different; we eat chili peppers every day without getting angry, but you people in Wiltspoon say you get angry when you eat spicy or fried things."

Julian smiled and said, "Habitual.

In Yonsburg, I also feel that no matter how much I eat, I won't feel the heat. It's a climate problem."

Yonsburg was cold.

"The kids probably won't want it." After Kendrick said that, he carried the boxes of chrysanthemum tea into the martial arts gym. There was heat in the martial arts gym. When the children practice martial arts, they all wear the uniforms issued by the martial arts gym. They were not too thick. Otherwise, it would look clumsy, and it would be inconvenient to practice martial arts.

"There is also chrysanthemum tea. If you need it, come and get it yourself." Kendrick put the boxes of chrysanthemum tea on the ground and spoke to everyone in a loud voice.

"Coach, I want a bottle. Bring me a bottle."

"I want it too. I want it too."

Everyone was eating barbecue and wanted to drink water. There was chrysanthemum tea, which was just right.

Married At First Sight Chapter 2849-Kendrick simply gave everyone a bottle of chrysanthemum tea. He was thinking that, in order to let them say good things in front of Kiera, Julian was also very generous. Every time he came over, he would treat everyone in the martial arts gym to eat. He would bring it to everyone if they wanted to eat, and everyone would have a share. Not only that, sometimes they couldn't finish eating.

The amount of money that so many people need to spend every time is really not a small amount of money for ordinary people.

In Kiera's words, with her little income, how many times could she treat everyone in the martial arts gym to food?

Kendrick thought to himself that his income was the highest among the many coaches in the martial arts gym, and he could not be like Julian.

As expected of the boss of a big company, Julian was so inhumane.

Kendrick paid attention to Julian and Kiera outside. Seeing that Julian and Kiera had not come in yet, he cursed in his heart that Julian must have fallen in love with his sister at first sight.

Julian traveled all the way to Yonburg. Although Julian was on a business trip, it seemed that he didn't have to socialize in the evening. All the business matters had been taken care of, but he wouldn't leave. He acted like he wanted to stay with the Caron family for the New Year. What did he mean?

It was aiming at his sister, of course. Also, Julian and his sister had just met, and even if his sister had helped Julian, Julian said it was a life-saving grace.

Kendrick felt that his sister helped Julian because he acted too quickly and was nosy. In fact, with Julian's skills, the speedsters who stopped Julian that night were probably no match for Julian.

In this way, his sister became Julian's savior. His sister was interested in the love between Zachary and Serenity, so Julian came all the way to pick her up and attend their wedding.

The Carons were far away in Yonburg, but the Yorks in Wiltspoon are too loud. They could learn about the York family in Wiltspoon by searching the Internet.

The head of the family, Zachary, could Kiera attend his wedding?

If Julian had not been with him, and if Julian's status was not high, he would not have been able to satisfy Kiera's curiosity, nor would he have helped Kiera and the eldest mistress of the York family become good friends.

Julian didn't know what his future brother-in-law was thinking about him. Everything in his car was empty except for the bouquet of flowers placed on the passenger seat.

Kiera took a look at the car and asked him, "Have you finished moving everything?"

“Your luxury car feels like a truck when you drive it. It’s packed with stuff every time you come over.” Kiera teased him.

Julian said with a smile, “I bought a sedan just so I could stuff things in it. Otherwise, I would have bought a convertible.”

He walked around the car and came to the passenger seat, opened the car door, picked up the bouquet of flowers, and picked up an insulated lunch box. Then he turned around and handed the insulated lunch box to Kiera, who was following him, and said to her, “I’m afraid you won’t be able to beat them, so I prepared some for you and put them in an insulated lunch box. They should still be warm.”

Kiera took the lunch box and said with a smile, “Do you always have an insulated lunch box in your car?”

Every time he came over to give her something to eat, he always used an insulated lunch box.

“It is always prepared. You don’t need an insulated lunch box in Yonsburg because it’s too cold. It will quickly become cold.”

With that said, Julian handed the bouquet of flowers to Kiera, his eyes locked deeply on Kiera’s pretty face, and he said gently, “I passed by the flower shop and saw those beautiful flowers, so I bought a bouquet and gave it as a gift. Here you go.”

Kiera didn’t think much and took the bouquet with a smile. “It’s very beautiful. I liked it at first sight. Thank you, Julian; I like this bouquet very much.”

Julian smiled narrowly and said, “As long as you like it.”

Just afraid she won’t like it.
