

Married At First Sight Chapter 2969

Married At First Sight Chapter 2969– Tatum’s face was still red. Seeing him like this, Serenity didn’t understand anything. She asked curiously, “What’s her surname? Where is she from?”

Tatum looked into the room first, and after making sure his parents would not come out, he replied, “She’s from Annenburg in Province X, with the compound surname Ormond.”

“Province X is so far away.”

Serenity was stunned. Grandma May actually went to Province X in order to choose a granddaughter-in-law.

Province X...

“Is Annenburg in Province X far from Havenmill?”

“Quarantine City is not that far away, but Annenburg is the provincial capital.”

Tatum replied that he didn’t quite understand, “Sister-in-law, why would you ask if you have any friends from Havenmill?”

Serenity smiled and said, “No, my best friend is Jasmine. How can I have friends in Havenmill? I just heard from someone that there is a very old family in Havenmill.”

Tatum snorted and said, “I don’t know about this. After I go to Annenburg in Province X, I can help my sister-in-law find out about the ancient family in Havenmill.”

“Have you seen that, Miss Ormond?” Serenity asked, gossiping.

Tatum shook his head and said, “Grandma only gave us photos and not arranged for us to meet real people. If we want to meet real people, we have to act on our own.”

“In addition to her recent photos, the information my grandma gave me also included a few words. Miss Ormond has a particularly picky mouth, but she also loves to eat. I heard that none of the dishes cooked by the family chef are to her liking. Her family is now looking for chefs everywhere, and I want to give it a try.”

Tatum felt that grandma would really choose a wife for him.

Choosing a girl who loved to eat but was picky didn't give him a chance to show off his superb cooking skills.

Let him grab the opponent's stomach first, so that the opponent can't escape from his grasp.

“Then go ahead and give it a try. Mom said that among your brothers, you are the one who likes cooking the most. Your own business is also related to the catering industry. I believe you can successfully apply for the Ormond family's chef job.”

Serenity encouraged Tatum. She was also very confident about whether Tatum could apply for the job.

Not to mention Tatum, who loved cooking the most, and Zachary's cooking skills, would probably be able to apply for the job.

Among the nine young masters of the York family, the one who was slightly worse at cooking was Rowan.

Rowan was not yet a minor and was a high school student. He was in the most important stage of study, so he had much less time to practice cooking.

No matter how cunning Grandma May was, she would not disturb Rowan's study at this time.

Rowan was under the heaviest academic pressure because the eight brothers above him were all very good and had been admitted to key universities. If he failed to get into a key university, he would feel that he had lost the face of the York family.

“I like cooking the most, and I have studied the recipes of various factions, but my cooking skills are not as good as those of the third brother, Kevin.”

Tatum was a little worried that he would not be able to apply for the job.

Serenity smiled and said, “No, even your eldest brother's cooking skills are not bad, let alone you, who like cooking. Your third brother rarely shows off his skills anymore. He no longer has much enthusiasm for cooking. Unlike you, no the same.”

Married At First Sight Chapter 2970-“Do what you like to do with your heart, and you will get the best results. Tatum, believe in yourself.”

Tatum said, “Thank you, sister-in-law. My sister-in-law said this, and I have confidence again. Also, the food my eldest brother cooks is delicious. I cook more than him, and I like it more. I am more attentive. I think I will not be worse than others.”

He also invested in the catering industry and often traveled around the country to taste food from all over the country and learn to cook dishes from various factions.

Sometimes he would make a dish over and over again, striving to make it the best.

He was also good at cooking at home.

There were also a variety of exquisite snacks.

In short, he liked to dabble in anything related to eating.

It should be possible to take down Miss Ormond’s stomach.

Serenity said, “That’s right, as the sons of our York family, we must not lose our self-confidence. Believe in yourself and in Grandma. Grandma has chosen Miss Ormond for you, so she knows that you are capable enough to win her over.

“You see, she enjoys eating but is quite particular about what she eats, whereas you have a passion for cooking and can prepare an assortment of delectable dishes. They are a match made in heaven. Her stomach is probably just waiting for you to feed her.”

Tatum blushed. “Sister-in-law, it’s a little early to say that now. I don’t know her well yet, and I don’t know what her temperament is like. When marrying a virtuous wife, it mainly depends on her temperament and how she behaves.”

It's not just about appearance.

In terms of appearance, Miss Ormond was not a great beauty. She was a good-looking person, and the more he looked at her, the better she looked.

As soon as he saw her photo, he fell in love with her.

"I told you to trust Grandma. The candidate she picked for you will not be bad. Grandma must have inspected it before making a decision. However, you still have to get to know her. After all, you are the one who wants to marry a wife. You want to spend your whole life with her.

You have to understand her, get along well with her, have common topics, and be with her for a lifetime so that you won't be lonely."

Tatum just planned to use the opportunity of being a chef to get in touch with Miss Ormond and get to know her. The most important thing was to make her fall in love with him.

"Sister-in-law, don't tell my parents about Miss Ormond. Who knows if I can catch Miss Ormond? If not, it would be embarrassing to go alone and come back alone."

Tatum was still young and energetic and worried about being embarrassed.

Even his parents didn't want to tell him because they were afraid that if he failed to pursue his wife, everyone would laugh at him and lose face.

Serenity readily agreed: "I won't tell your parents, but when I tried to persuade mom just now, I mentioned it. I said that you suddenly wanted to work as a cook for someone else. Maybe there was a marriageable person in that family. Daughter, Grandma has chosen you as your wife. Then mom said, 'You are in this world.' Whatever you want to do, just do it. She can't control that much."

Tatum: "Sister-in-law, you are really good at guessing."

He never talked about it. He didn't even tell his eldest brother, Zachary, but his sister-in-law, Serenity, guessed it.

Serenity smiled and said, "You are already in your twenties. Grandma often travels around. She said that Tatum and River are still young, but in fact, she has carefully selected them for you. River is indeed a bit younger. He is only twenty-three or four years old.”

“But you are two or three years older than River. It will take some time to chase a wife. By the time you get married, you might be thirty years old. If you are less than thirty years old, you will still be thirty if you round up.”

Tatum: “Grandma infected my sister-in-law and she said that people our age always like to use the rounding method. I am already thirty now.”

Serenity chuckled. “Time flies so fast. You feel you are still very young, but in a blink of an eye, you are middle-aged.”

“Sister-in-law, don’t tell your parents where the girl is from or what her surname is. That way, even if my mother knows that I am chasing my wife, as long as she doesn’t know about Miss Ormond, I can pretend to be a chef.”

“When the time comes when I fail to pursue my wife and I come back, I will be told that I was fired by my employer.”

Serenity smiled and said, “Okay, I won’t tell. I promise not to tell.”
