Chapter 2801

When Wu Yi saw Lin Mo's cloudy appearance even at this point in time, he only felt that the other party was being strong and calm.

"Let me remind you, if you walk out of this gate now, the Longevity Pill and the chance for me to strike for free will be gone."

Wu gave a snort of laughter, "Kid, you're still pretending to be a fool at this point in time, Longevity Pill? You're afraid you're not teasing me!"

"Don't listen to his nonsense, if there really was such a pill, he, Lin Mo, would have made a fortune with it long ago."

Many people also scoffed at the Longevity Pill.

"Medical skills? I've been putting up with this liar for a long time."

"Let's go, let's go, a waste of breath."

Before Wu Yi left he didn't forget to taunt Lin Mo: "Young Lin, then we'll leave first, you guys continue."

After the words also did not forget to sweep a glance at the other guests left behind, these people side are people who have made enemies with the Kong family or the Wu family, now as well as tearing the face simply impossible to pull together, and he also unremittingly pulled them together, really need to have the strength to make a move on the two families long ago, the little minions only.

"Hahahaha, with you bunch of trash also want to achieve, slippery world."

"They don't even have anyone on their hands, how can they talk about making things happen?"

"You can't say that, this kid has two small ships in his hands, there's still a chance for shipping."

The crowd laughed out loud.

Once this incident spreads out, this party will definitely become a joke of Da Qu, and they are the ingredients of the joke.

The people then look at Lin Mo at this time still cloudy look, no ripples sipping the tea in his hands, as if everything in front of him and he has nothing to do with.

And just as Wu Yi and the others were about to turn around and leave, a chirping sound came from outside the door.

"Who said that Mr Lin Mo had no one on his hands!"

The accompanying words rang out as a delicate figure slowly stepped into the room.

"Zhao Family, Zhao Ziyang has come to Mr. Lin Mo's aid with the White Tiger Order."

When Zhao Ziyang walked into the hall, Zhao Yu, who was inseparable from him behind him, held a gift box and walked together to Lin Mo.

“Mr. Lin, this is the Zhao Family White Tiger Order that my grandfather ordered me to bring to help Mr. Lin.”

Although his voice was not loud, it was like a thunderstorm in the crowd’s ears.

All of them, including Wu Yi, only thought that Lin Mo was only on good terms with the Zhao family.

Who would have thought that Lin Mo was really a junior of the Zhao family, as rumours had it, or else how could they have brought Lin Mo the White Tiger Order, which was the highest token that could move the Zhao family guards at will?

The crowd was instantly filled with regret, they were going against the Zhao family, wasn’t that a death wish?

Lin Mo was also surprised by this, originally he was only thinking of relying on the Longevity Pill to bring in a group of people to deal with the Kong family, but he didn’t expect the Zhao family to directly send the White Tiger Order.

However, before everyone could calm down, another group of people walked in outside the door!

“Hello Mr. Lin, I am Tong Xiaohe, the general manager of the International Ocean Group’s Da Qu region.”

The person who walked through the door was a man in his early thirties, although his looks were popular, his temperament was extraordinary, and at a glance he was a big shot from the upper cla*s.

At the mention of the Sino-Ocean Group, Lin Mo’s first thought was of Tong Hai, whom he had met at the Sixth Prince’s banquet.

After both sides covered their hands, Tong Xiaohe directly stated the purpose of his visit.

“Mr. Lin, we are here to deliver the cruise ship! I wonder if it’s convenient for you to go through the handover procedures now?”

Chapter 2802

Hearing the other party’s intention of coming, the prince was curious and came up to Lin Mo.

“Big brother, you’re still buying a cruise ship?”

This was also what the crowd wanted to ask, it was at a time like this that Lin Mo still had the leisure to buy a cruise ship.

Tong Xiaohe smiled politely and replied, “It’s like this, Mr. Lin is a VIP who holds our Oceanic Group’s Ocean Card.”

“And according to our group’s rules, we give top VIPs like Mr. Lin an A-cla*s cruise ship for free.”

Hearing the three words Oceanic Card, Wu Yi looked stunned, the International Oceanic Group was a completely untouchable existence to them, it was a top power that could produce warships, although they never participated in the fights between local powers, but holding the Oceanic Card side was having a channel to purchase warships.

As for the guest who sarcastically said that Lin Mo only had two small ships, at this point his old face turned red, battleships understand!

“Mr. Lin, my eldest uncle Tong Hai Hai asked me to convey my apologies.

Although the Oceanwide Group is not involved in battles between powers, we can mention supplying Mr. Lin with the battle ships he needs.

Of course if it is Mr. Lin who needs them, we can make an exception for you once.”

A simple sentence was like a nuclear bomb landing, everyone present was shocked dumbfounded, cross volume with the Oceanic Group? All the people on Wu Yi’s side put together were not enough to fight each other.

Lin Mo also did not expect that this Tong Hai would be so righteous, to know that although a top group like the Sino-Ocean Group was powerful, the huge system naturally had many worries, to exist like them relied on reputation and credibility, making an exception for him was simple to say, but it was to break the credibility of the whole group for decades.

“General Manager Tong is very kind, mention that I want your uncle to pass on my thanks, it’s just a matter of dealing with the Kong family, there’s no need to make a big fuss.”

“No matter, Eldest Uncle gave a special explanation before I came, Mr. Lin doesn’t need to be polite, if there’s nothing else, then I’ll leave first.”

After greeting Tong Xiaohe, he quickly left, as the general manager of Da Qu he was also busy with many things, if it wasn’t for Tong Hai’s order, he wouldn’t have been able to come to Heshan City personally.

After his thunderous departure, Wu Yiyi and the others were still in shock and could not recover for a long time.

Looking at their dumbfounded appearance, the prince smiled coldly, “What are you doing here? Hurry up and get lost!”

He had put up with this group of wallflowers for a long time.

The group of people were instantly awakened by the crown prince’s rebuke, and the group of people who were still attached to Wu Yi, after seeing Lin Mo’s terrifying circle of connections, were filled with a torn expression, they should have known that they should have stuck to themselves, and now after being fooled by Wu Yi, they had given up such a thick thigh like Lin Mo.

The thought of this, everyone looked at Wu Yi Yi’s gaze was full of resentment, and as for him personally at this time, his face was ashen, it’s over, barbie q! This Lin Mo is also the Kong Family Kong Family White Tiger Order, and the Oceanic Group’s Oceanic Card, what can they do to fight with him.

The more the prince looked at the twisted expressions on their faces, the happier his heart became.

“Wu Yanyu is it, since you are already planning to be tied up with the Kong Family, then be good and go back and wait for death.

When the time comes, not only the Kong family, but also your Wu family will not have an easy time.”

Wu Yi Yi gritted his teeth, his heart full of hatred, but really had no words thought, he knew clearly that Lin Mo did have the strength nowadays, instead of bickering with the prince he should rush back to the clan earlier and think of a countermeasure.

“Humph, this matter is not over!”

The matter’s tough mouth was just his last stubbornness, under the watchful eyes of the crowd, Wu Yi fled quickly, and with his departure, the many guests who originally intended to climb in were at this point at a loss for words, but a few thick-skinned ones once again replaced their faces with a warm smile.

Chapter 2803

“Mr. Lin, I’m sorry, we got carried away for a moment, please be magnanimous and give us another chance”

After seeing Lin Mo’s network of connections, the regretting guests wanted to fight a little more, wanting to hug this super thigh again.

Just how could Lin Mo possibly give them another ride.

“Gentlemen just now I have given me your chance, you just didn’t cherish it, now you want to turn back, don’t you think it’s too childish?”

He understood the merchant’s desire to chase profit, but this kind of wallflower still coldly mocked after falling, this was something Lin Mo could not accept.

When the prince saw that they were still shamelessly standing in place, seemingly wanting to fight for more, his violent temper instantly flared up.

“Hurry up and get lost, if my big brother hadn’t stopped you today, I would have broken the legs of you wallflowers.”

The crowd was shocked at the thought of this ruthless man who had broken Ding Li’s leg, and seeing that there was no hope of pleading with Lin Mo, they could only leave the scene in silence.

The few remaining guests were in a different frame of mind, for if nothing else, they had already listed a super thigh.

Lin Mo’s attitude towards them was also extremely polite, after screening those wallflowers, the few people in front of him were the future collaborators.

“Thank you for your support, now that there are only a few of us, there is no need for this first meeting to go on.

We might as well take a break and wait for the official banquet in a few days, then we can talk in detail about bringing down the Kong family.”

At this point in time, Lin Mo no longer had to cover up.

“Then Mr. Lin, you are busy, we will leave now!”

Although the conflict at the first meeting had come to an end, what had happened here spread with the speed of lightning, and some of the forces in Da Qu who were still watching decided to join Lin Mo’s camp, while those who were on their way were frantically speeding up, trying to get to He Shan City as fast as possible.

While the tide was dark on the Daqu side, the Wanxiang royal family was also unsettled.

As the helicopter came to a halt, a young man in black robes emerged from it, and as soon as he landed, the maid at the reception greeted him quickly.

“Mr. Wen, the Grand Prince is already waiting for you!”

The black-robed Wen Qiang nodded calmly before following this Grand Prince’s personal maid into the luxurious grand villa.

When he entered, the grand prince with a magnificent figure and a cold, handsome face was already waiting here.

“Mr. Wen, please sit down! It’s been a hard time for you!”

Wen Qiang was an important part of the Grand Prince’s layout of Da Q. In addition, Wen Qiang’s excellent planning in both literature and martial arts was highly valued by the Grand Prince, so he was usually referred to as Mr. Wen.

“Your Highness is very kind, it is an honour for me to serve Your Highness.”

After a polite word, Wen Qiang began to report all the recent intelligence and mission progress.

“Nowadays, almost all of the maritime forces on Jade Lie’s side are mobilised, using the name of drill and training to completely seal off the Kong family’s maritime transport.”

The Grand Prince sighed indifferently after hearing this.

“That sixth brother of mine has a hard life, but unfortunately, not only could she not send him to his death, that Lin Mo also escaped by her.”

“By the way, I observe the movement on the sixth prince’s side, it seems that he has already known that it was the Kong family that moved, otherwise with his character there is no way he would be in such a hurry to make a move against the Kong family.”

Wen Qiang also understood what the First Prince meant, and once the other party finished speaking, he explained.

“I have only revealed a little bit of information on the Kong family’s side, he can only know that I work for the prince, he can’t guess on the Grand Prince.”

The Grand Prince nodded in satisfaction at his words.

“I naturally feel at ease when Mr. Wen does his work!

By the way, how is the situation over in Zhenla?”

In the past few years, Chenla has been eyeing Vientiane with great interest. The reason is that the King of Vientiane is now old and may die at any time, but he is clinging to the throne and refuses to let go, and has not appointed a new king.

Once he dies, the princes will fight for the throne, and when the Vientiane royal family is in chaos, it will be a good time for Jinla to enter Vientiane.

Chapter 2804

The princes were well aware of the fact that they were being watched by their elderly father, who refused to relent, but they could do nothing about it.

The throne has become a tempting cake, and since they know that it may contain poison, if they don't grab it, they will die of hunger.

Wen Qiang also knows this clearly in his heart, but this is a royal battle he can watch, but not judge.

“The words on the side of Zhenla received a letter of distress from the Kong family, and now they have hoarded their armed forces on the border of Da Qu and Zhenla.”

“And those on the Da Qu side, like the Ding family, the Zhao family and other top forces, have also begun to mobilise their forces at the border to prevent Zhen La from marching into Da Qu.”

In this way, Da Qu, Zhen La and Wanxiang were restrained by each other, and although Da Qu was the weakest, it could not help but have China behind it. Unless there is an excellent opportunity, the two countries on the border are unlikely to risk making a move against Da Qu, and their current mobilisation of troops is just a show of muscle.

Although the major powers of Da Qu know this, it is still necessary to take precautions.

The Grand Prince's face suddenly turned cold after hearing this, “The more mixed up the situation is, the better, so that we can have a chance and lay out Da Qu.”

The old king of Vientiane had become a time bomb, and as long as the Grand Prince could get Da Qu in his pocket before his father's violent death, he would be assured of the next king's throne, and not only that, he would be able to consolidate Da Qu's forces and Vientiane into one, and then take over Chenla directly.

Of course, the other princes had thought of such a plan, and even Chenla had the same intention.

But while Da Qu may seem to be a fish out of water for the two sides, it has its own plans, to gain refuge under the guise of joining China and to provoke the two countries into conflict.

By then, they will be able to break away from China completely and even develop into a powerful alliance.

With the opening of Lin Mo's operation against the Kong family, the three powers have to deter each other, but only to deter each other.

The players are ready to play, now all that is missing is how to play each other's pieces.

"What about the Kong family, what is the situation?"

The corners of Wen Qiang's mouth twitched at the mention of this matter by the Grand Prince.

"The moment the armed forces of True La move, that Kong Jingtian's tail will be sticking up to the sky, he is so naive as to think that True La is helping him."

"Cut it out, let this kind of brainless person fend for himself, he's no longer of use anyway.

Also keep a close eye on Lin Mo, he's the only outlier on this board."

Wen Qiang was about to agree, when he suddenly added another word.

"Just before coming here, I received news that Tong Hai Hai's side has given Lin Mo the top VIP card of the Sino-Ocean Group, and promised to make an exception for Lin Mo once."

"Oh, a shipbuilder also builds ships properly, how dare he meddle in the battle of local powers."

The Grand Prince did not have a good feeling towards Tong Hai, and the reason was also very simple, when Tong Hai appeared on top of the Sixth Prince's banquet, he had already made his attitude clear, the friend of the enemy was naturally the enemy.

"Tell Count Zat to come to me!"

With an order from the Grand Prince, the Minister of Border Affairs, Zat Wanliu, arrived shortly afterwards.

Chapter 2805

Under the cloudless sky, a huge maritime convoy built by nearly twenty cargo ships with a capacity of five thousand tons was moving slowly over the calm sea.

"General Zhang, after crossing this strait, we will be able to reach the waters of Da Qu."

Zhang Qian nodded with a smile on his face when he heard his men's report, he had already smashed his entire fortune for this huge deal, and of course as long as this batch of jade silk was transported to Da Qu, there would be a profit of at least three hundred million.

"It's a great day!"

Zhang Qian's face was full of smiles against the sea breeze, but this smile did not last long, the fleet had just sailed into the sea of Da Qu, the sky slowly appeared dense black dots, when Zhang Qian looked through the ship's binoculars, instantly shocked.

Dozens of heavy firepower warships were coming at them with great force.

“Who is the leader get out.”

After both sides got close, the warships directly forced the transport fleet to a halt.

Zhang Qian took a few deep breaths to brace himself before he stepped forward to answer. Looking at the blackened heavy machine guns on the other side’s ships, not only did his legs go weak, but his heart was filled with worry at the same time, but he could only silently pray that the other side was not here to intercept the ships.

“I am Zhang Qian, a merchant from China!”

As soon as he opened his mouth, Zhang Qian explained his Chinese identity, trying to deter the other party.

However, the ponyboy did not eat this at all: “I don’t care which country you are from, we have received a report that you are carrying dangerous goods into Daqu, so we need to check it.”

At these words, Zhang Qian’s heart instantly went cold, the inspection was just an excuse, the other party’s purpose was definitely to pick up the ship.

“This little brother, these boats of ours are all hired from Ocean Group, and the staff of Ocean Group had already checked them before they left.”

“There is absolutely no way that there is any contraband.”

After saying that, he hurriedly took out the Oceanwide Group’s inspection document from his pocket, intending to hand it over to the other party, only to wait for the pony boy to shred it directly without even looking at it after the resultant proof document.

“How dare you forge the certificate? There is no need to check, this shipment of yours is definitely hiding something fishy, someone detain them for me. We need to check them over carefully.”

When he heard this, Zhang Qian’s face turned pale and he felt the sky was spinning, this was his entire fortune, if this group of bandits detained it, how could there be any possibility of returning it, just when he was about to fight for it, the horse boy also lost his patience.

“If you give me one more word of nonsense, I’ll just shoot you.”

Zhang Qian felt the coldness coming from the icy pistol on his temple, and his heart suddenly felt like death.

At this moment, on top of the warship at the opposite end, a tall, fierce-looking man cloaked in an overcoat came out of the cabin, and as soon as he saw this, the horse boy immediately put away his fierce intent and ran up to the man’s side.

“8th Master, we have finished with this, are we going to kill these people or keep them?”

What? They actually wanted to kill and silence them?

All the crew members' hearts shuddered violently when they heard the horse boy's question, pirates D*mn well knew the fine print, they actually planned to kill.

Pah, not even worse than pirates!

Hooray for the eight-faced Buddha who didn't give the order to silence them: "Kill them? Why should we kill them, these people are all money for nothing."

With a little effort, he grabbed Zhang Qian by the collar and lifted him up: "Consider this shipment as a token of respect to your grandfather, and take the money for the men.

After saying that, the eight-faced Buddha flung Zhang Qian directly on top of the deck, and then left with a big smile.

Chapter 2806

Zhang Qian sat in his kayak watching his boat and his crew drifting away, his face was already written with despair, his heart was deadly grey, his house, car, coffin book were all in it, and now it was all mercilessly snatched away.

"It's over, it's all over!"

The other side had not only taken away his goods, but they even wanted him to pay a ransom, thousands of crew members and hundreds of millions of dollars!

The more he thought about it, the more desperate he became, Zhang Qian violently stood up, the a*sistants at the side were also quick-witted, seeing that Zhang Qian wanted to throw himself into the sea they hurriedly stopped him.

"Mr. Zhang, don't think about it! If you lose your money, you can still earn it again, but if you lose your life, you will lose everything."

"Don't stop me, that's my life, D*mn bd Eight-faced Buddha, I won't let you go even as a ghost."

Seeing Zhang Qian's eyes hissing in pain, the a*sistant suddenly thought of something.

"Mr. Zhang, there is still a chance, there is still a chance, I heard that the divine doctor Lin Mo of China is in the city of Heshan, not far from here.

And I heard that he has a good friendship with Tong Hai Tong, so if we ask for his help at this time, there might still be a chance to turn around."

"Lin Mo?"

When Zhang Qian thought of this person, a light of hope suddenly derived from his originally desperate gaze.

.....

The first meeting of Lin Mo was exposed in Heshan City, and more and more people rushed to this place. With the Zhao family as the backer, the Ocean Group as the backer, and with the secret help of the Sixth Prince, Lin Mo had already become the new nobleman that a bunch of forces were kneeling to.

“Brother, there are many people visiting you outside!”

“Push it off, that means I’m busy arranging important matters, the matter of cooperation will wait until after the official banquet begins.”

After saying that, Lin Mo closed his hands, a faint fragrance of medicinal herbs slowly overflowed from the alchemy furnace in front of him, another furnace of ‘Longevity Pill’ was completed, no more, no less than exactly nine pills, the colour was excellent.

“Not bad, would the Prince like one?”

The prince shook his head as he saw the full-coloured pills that had just come out of the furnace.

“Big brother, you can still save it for them to eat.”

The fearful expression on his face clearly showed a strong resistance to this ‘Longevity Pill’, not that it was ineffective, but on the contrary, it was very effective in healing the body by eliminating the turbid Qi and harmful deposits in the body, thus regulating the body to achieve a longer life span.

However, the bad thing was the process of elimination. After the Prince had taken one of these pills, although he felt much more comfortable, the feeling of squatting in the toilet until his feet went numb was really unbearable.

“Cut, other people are scrambling for it, and you still refuse, you don’t know what you’re doing.”

After Lin Mo spat out, he handed the freshly baked pills to Little Green Shadow and the others to pack, there was no way this was something she had taken the initiative to fight for.

Green Shadow held the cactus in one hand, while the other carefully placed the ‘Longevity Pill’ into the pill box, then the box was covered, before nodding contentedly, while hundreds of delicate and small pill boxes were already densely visited in front of her, neatly and tidily.

These were all to be given to the guests who would be dealing with the Kong family shortly afterwards.

Lin Mo shook his head with a bitter smile after taking a glance at them, and then turned his gaze to the Crown Prince.

“Di Yun and the others should be arriving at He Shan today, so send someone to meet them.”

This group of children who had fled to Panyang City had been under Chen Jin’s training for some time, and now that they had to deal with the Kong family, Lin Mo happened to have a shortage of manpower under him, so he simply mobilised them to this side of He Shan to test the results of their training.

He had not yet experienced the cruise ship he had been given by the New Ocean Group.

As for Lin Mo, he continued to work on the refining of the ‘Longevity Pill’ and was busy until the evening when he stretched his back in satisfaction.

“Finally, it’s time to call it a day!”

Chapter 2807

After Lin Mo had finished refining the required longevity pills, the sky outside the window was already completely dark, and the little green shadow that had been playing around was already lying on the table, whistling in sleep.

When Lin Mo was about to reach out and pick up Green Shadow to go and rest, there was a loud noise from outside the villa.

“Please, please let me see Mr. Lin Mo.”

With a pleading look, Zhang Qian spoke to a few of his men who were guarding the villa.

“Get lost, if everyone has to think like you, our boss must be busy, hurry up and get lost!”

“I really have something urgent”

The first thing that happened was that he raised the barrel of his gun and pointed it at him, “If you don’t leave, I’ll kill you!”

He was already thinking about which crooked-necked tree he could hang himself from, but before he could take a few steps, there was a voice behind him.

“Wait a minute, Uncle!”

As soon as he saw Lin Mo, Zhang Qian immediately recognised him, he had seen him on TV during the Medical League Competition.

“Mr. Lin Mo, please save me.”

Zhang Qian said and knelt directly in front of Lin Mo, pleading with tears streaming down his face.

Lin Mo was also baffled on one side in the face of this man’s unexpected move: “Uncle, what’s the matter get up and let’s talk inside!”

Once the two of them had entered the villa, Zhang Qian recounted the matter of his transport ship being robbed.

“..... , Mr. Lin Mo, what we were selling was just a bathroom silk ah, just a huge amount!”

“Don’t be anxious yet, what is the other party’s origin?”

Although the interception of the ship can make a fortune, but this is completely killing the chicken to get the eggs, once this matter spreads Da Qu’s reputation can be completely infamous, outside merchants do not come to this side to do business, Da Qu will not be able to develop in this life.

So Lin Mo also wanted to know which side of the force was so brainless as to do such a retarded thing.

“I know the one in the lead, it’s Guan Yao’s henchman, Eight-faced Buddha!”

Lin Mo instantly frowned after learning the identity of the other party, although he had not had much contact with Guangyao, he understood this man's style of doing things, this kind of brainless operation did not seem like something he could do.

"By the way, have you contacted Sino-Ocean Group's side?"

Since Zhang Qian had chartered a vessel from the Sino-Ocean Group, the Group had to step in and coordinate the matter for reasons of reason.

Zhang Qian shook his head bitterly, "I've already contacted them, but the Ocean Express branch on Da Qu's side said that it had been registered and that it would be resolved in time."

"Mr. Lin Mo, I have no choice, if the Ocean Shipping Group side keeps dragging its feet, I am afraid that before the matter of the transport fleet is resolved, those bandits will finish my goods."

The more Lin Mo listened, the deeper his frown became, originally it was just a matter of intercepting a ship, but everything in it revealed this bizarre.

"Boss Zhang, don't worry I will help you deal with this matter, you give me a copy of your contact information and address, I will let you know when it is dealt with."

The reason why Lin Mo agreed so readily was because of the friendship between fellow countrymen, and also for the sake of Da Qu's reputation, this matter had to be dealt with as soon as possible.

The prince had just mingled with Di Yun when he rushed over to Lin Mo's side in a frenzy again.

"Big brother, what's wrong, so anxious to find me."

Lin Mo asked in a straightforward manner, "Has there been any change in the Da Qu Ocean Group during this period of time?"

The prince scratched the back of his head for a few seconds before returning, "I heard that they seem to have offended someone these days and have been hara*sed by unknown forces."

"There are always people causing trouble in the shipyard, at the docks, and on the routes, and it's been hectic."

Only then did Lin Mo understand, it wasn't that they didn't want to help Zhang Qian, but that they themselves were distracted these days.

"Which side of the forces, have you investigated?"

The prince shook his head, "Haven't investigated in depth, but this group of people are definitely not local to Da Qu."

Knowing the position of the Oceanic Group, no one within Da Qu would be so thoughtless as to touch them.

Chapter 2808

After Lin Mo briefly understood the situation, he arrived at Hai Fang City by helicopter early the next morning, only that instead of waiting for him to see Guan Yao, he ran into an old acquaintance, Ding Li.

“Why are you here?”

After listening to Wen Qiang’s persuasion and receiving Lin Mo’s affirmation, Ding Li first consulted the Elders’ Council. The entire Ding family’s focus was on the confrontation with Zhenla and the Wanxiang border, so they didn’t have the heart to care about such trivial matters and directly – agreed to Ding Li’s action.

“I had planned to temporarily bring people to station at Hai Fang, but I didn’t expect such a coincidence that I ran into you just as I arrived at my destination.”

Obviously his relationship with Lin Mo was not good, so in order to avoid suspicion and keep his distance from Lin Mo, he came straight to this side of Haifang City, intending to temporarily stay on Guangyao’s side.

Lin Mo nodded, this fellow seemed to have become wise.

After the two met and chatted for a few minutes, they arrived at the villa together, and as soon as Guan Yao saw Lin Mo he only hit the other party as he had come to ask for help.

“Mr. Guan, I won’t talk too much about small talk, you should be clear about why I am visiting you!”

At these words, Guan York’s face also showed bitterness: “Why don’t we sit down and talk?”

After the two of them entered the room, Ding Li also followed and sat down, facing the gaze cast by Guan Yao, he grinned.

“You guys talk about yourselves, I’m just here to join in the fun, don’t mind me!”

Seeing that Lin Mo did not say anything, Guan Yao did not dare to offend Ding Li and explained himself.

“Brother, regarding the matter of the eight-faced Buddha under me, I have just guessed to get the news.

Do you believe me when I say that this matter was not ordered by me?”

Lin Mo had an idea in his mind that it was unlikely that Guan Yao would rush out to do such a stupid thing.

“Naturally I believe it, that’s why I came to ask you to confirm the matter, where is that man of yours?”

“I have summoned him back, it shouldn’t take long for him to arrive.”

“Wait a moment, then.”

Within half an hour, a dull footstep came through the door, “Boss Guan, what’s the hurry in calling me back?”

The eight-faced Buddha had an impatient look on his face as soon as he entered the door, and after looking around, his gaze fell on Lin Mo, before he sat himself down across the table.

That arrogant and domineering look could not help but cause Guan Yao’s face to sink.

“That shipment from the Chinese merchant, you intercepted it, didn’t you?”

The eight-faced Buddha pulled out his ears and replied carelessly.

“Yes, it was me who intercepted it, my men were so hungry they couldn’t afford to wear clothes, and if I didn’t find a way to make a living, everyone would starve to death.”

“Hmph, who gave you the guts to act without permission, hurry up and return that shipment to me, plus apologise to the owner of the lost goods.”

The eight-faced Buddha smiled disdainfully in the face of Guan York’s order, “It was robbed by me, why should I return it, if I had to return it, why would I bother to rob it. Don’t you think that’s right, Boss Guan.”

His mouth called him Boss, but from his words and actions, he did not have an ounce of respect for Guangyao at all.

“This is my order, give it back to me, I’ll give you one last chance.”

Guangyao narrowed his eyes as his murderous intent surged out.

“Che, calling you a boss is just giving you Guangyao face, you really think you’re a character.”

Under the gaze of Lin Mo and Ding Li, the eight-faced Buddha laughed coldly, and after shaking his neck, he directly stood up and walked out of the room on his own.

These words and actions directly angered Guan Yao’s face, “I told you, you’ve been behaving abnormally for a while now, you seem to have grown bold.”

“Someone, pull this person out and shoot him.”

As the words fell to the ground, the eight-faced Buddha stopped in his tracks and as he turned around, that cold smile was still on his face.

“Guangyao, try touching me today if you have the guts.”

After saying this, he took out a metal token from his pocket, and upon seeing this object, Guan Yao’s face suddenly changed.

Chapter 2809

When Lin Mo saw the Sea Defence Order held by the eight-faced Buddha, he instantly understood the reason for it.

The Sea Defence Order was a token of the Universal Sea General, and since this eight-faced Buddha had obtained it, it meant that he had already colluded with this Sea General.

Thinking of this Lin Mo’s gaze towards Guan Yao couldn’t help but take on a hint of sympathy, the man he had worked so hard for years to cultivate had mutinied, this was a great shame for any power.

“Boss Guan, for the sake that you’ve treated me well all these years, I’ll call you a boss.

To tell you the truth, I am now engaged with General Hai.”

“If you dare to touch a hair on my head today, you should know the consequences.”

At these words, Guan Yao stared deadily at the mutinous man in front of him, and his eyes were filled with fury.

The man he trusted so much was a wolf, and now he was making him look bad in front of outsiders, but as the Eight-faced Buddha had said, although he was furious, there was nothing he could do about it.

He was trembling with anger at the thought of this, but there was nothing he could do about it.

After taunting Guan Yao, the eight-faced Buddha turned his attention to Ding Li and Lin Mo.

“You two brats are here to show up for that Zhang Qian, aren’t you?”

How dare you stand up for someone when you haven’t even grown hairy, hurry up and go back to drinking milk.”

“Oh, yes, the sea is very dangerous these days, so you two should be careful.

It would be a pity to die young if the boat is tipped over by a big wind and wave.”

He finished with a hearty laugh as he took big steps and walked out of the Guan family villa, by now the courtyard was already stained with Guangyao’s men, only none of them dared to move.

When the eight-faced Buddha left the straight call, Guan York forced down his anger and squeezed out a reluctant smile.

“Brother Lin, sorry to make you look funny, this white-eyed wolf has someone backing him up, there’s nothing I can do about it.”

“Mr. Guan doesn’t need to care, there’s a reason for injustice, I’ll handle this matter myself, then I’ll leave you alone for now.”

Lin Mo also got up and left the room, as for Ding Li, seeing that there was no more action to see, he chased after him.

“Lin Mo, you’re just going to leave?”

“Or what? Do I have to rub salt in Guangyao’s wounds?”

“That’s not what I mean, I mean that eight-faced Buddha, how dare he threaten us, shall we finish him off?”

Lin Mo stopped in his tracks and asked curiously, “You still dare to touch someone, he is one of General Hai’s men, he has a big man behind him.”

Ding Li heatedly smiled, “Naturally I wouldn’t dare, but isn’t there still you here?”

“Lin Mo, the meaning of his words was obvious, he wanted to kill us, can you even tolerate this?”

Originally he had only come to watch the fun, but he didn’t expect that the eight-faced Buddha would mock and threaten him along with him, this was something he couldn’t stand!

Lin Mo looked at Ding Li with deep meaning in his eyes, and the latter was also furious than this gaze of his.

“What’s wrong, why are you looking at me like that?”

“Amazing, you’ve actually learnt something bad, you even know how to use a knife to kill people and sow discord.”

This bd even knew how to play with his heart, it seemed that he had been a pawn for a long time and had started to metamorphose.

After Ding Li’s mind was revealed, his face changed and he immediately explained.

“Not at all, I’m just fighting for us!”

After saying that, he secretly felt that he was really still too young, playing tricks in front of Lin Mo was simply an act of looking for yes.

“Alright, don’t dwell on it, it’s your ability to grow up.

Even if you don’t say anything, that eight-faced Buddha I won’t let him off the hook.”

By the time Lin Mo and Ding Li walked out of the Guan family villa, the sound of Guan Yao’s angry smashing came from behind them.

Chapter 2810

As soon as the Crown Prince heard that someone had dared to threaten his big brother, he immediately started to call for all his men.

When the Prince arrived at the high seas with Di Yun and his party, Zhao Ziyang Zhao Yu and 5,000 Zhao tiger guards were already waiting in their destroyer battleships.

After seeing Lin Mo, Di Yun and the others flew to arrange their formation, and in the blink of an eye over eight hundred men were already lined up in a neat square.

“Salute!”

With a loud roar from Di Yun, the entire Featherwood Guards squared up with one hand hammering their chests in a neat and tidy movement, their aura soaring.

“The Featherwood Guards have come to report for duty!”

The loud and clear sound was deafening and shot up to the sky.

Lin Mo saw this group of children again after a period of time with behavior written all over their faces, from the initial meeting that when the face is no vegetable, thin and bony appearance, now each one is strong as a bear general, especially the leader Di Yun one meter nine big tall, plus a tendon meat, the whole person is like a tower of iron general.

Even the well-trained Zhao family guards on the battleship were full of admiration when they saw such a Founder. Although these children were young, their aura was not inferior to that of professional combat troops, and they were so young that their future was unlimited.

As for the Crown Prince and his men, they could only feel the goose bumps exploding on their bodies and the strong envy, but it was only envy, it would be better to let this group of free and habitual people undergo such strict quality training than to kill them.

“Not bad, it seems that you guys have been very attentive this time.”

After Lin Mo praised him, his words turned, “This is the target we are dealing with is the Sea General of the Wanxiang Kingdom, the other side is comparable to us in numbers and has a camp to rely on.”

“At the same time, this is also your first real combat action, watch your lives, understand?”

Although these children had the two top-notch heart techniques provided by Lin Mo, and were now able to take on two or three adults by themselves, bullets were blind on the battlefield, and if they were not careful, their lives would be in danger.

The other side are all experienced veterans in combat, even though they may be less skilled, they have enough marksmanship to beat this gun kid by several blocks.

As for the others, like Prince Fei and the Zhao family tiger guards, Lin Mo had no need to worry at all, as these people had long been as slippery as loaches when faced with hot weapons.

The feathered guards led by Di Yun did not show the slightest bit of fear, instead they replied in unison with faces full of longing.

“Understood!”

“Alright, then let’s set off!”

With a command from Lin Mo, dozens of search warships led by the Prince slowly sailed out in the night.

.....

On the other hand, at Wanxiang Bay, on top of the brightly lit island, a pair of patrolling guards were checking security back and forth with their guns raised, while within the camp the eight-faced Buddha was drinking heavily with General Hai.

“You’ll do well to follow me. A small man like Guangyao would only dare to show off in a small place like Daqu.

I’m not going to lie to you, I have not only the Minister of Border Affairs, Lord Zat Wanliu, but even the Grand Prince.”

General Hai was boasting with his arms around the Eight-faced Buddha, as his faction was now in need of men, and bringing the Eight-faced Buddha and his thousands of men into his camp was a great achievement.

The main thing is that this Eight-Faced Buddha is good at what he does. He intercepted more than two billion of supplies and pulled them all down to his own territory, and the Eight-Faced Buddha only needs 30% of it.

The eight-faced Buddha lifted his gla*s of wine with a face full of ingratiating intent.

“Lord General, then I will have to rely on you to take care of me in the future.”
