Chapter 2831

The banquet continued and when Lilia entered the hall, most of the attention was focused on her.

On the one hand, it was because the woman's face and figure were so outstanding that many of the male guests' mouths watered; on the other hand, it was because of the identity of the woman, the Sixth Prince's right-hand man.

"Mr. Lin, his Highness had to deal with the big gift you sent him, so he and Mr. Tiger couldn't come.

So there can only be this little woman, me, as a representative."

As soon as General Hai died, the place where he was stationed was taken directly by Gadre, and it was because of this sudden change that the two needed to re*sign their layout.

"Mr. Lin, it's been a few days since we last parted, did you miss me?"

The more Lilia said, the closer she came to Lin Mo's cheek, and by the time he finally did, his lips were almost on Lin Mo's ear.

"Miss Lilia, it's not good for you to be like this in public, if there's something wrong, you can talk to my brother."

Facing this old p*ssy who liked to play with fire, Lin Mo directly sacrificed the prince.

Lilia also didn't expect Lin Mo to come back like this, and when he was dumbfounded and locked eyes with the Crown Prince, the latter looked arrogant and raised his chin.

"I'm a thief fierce!"

He even raised his eyebrows provocatively after saying that.

Although Lilia was not very old, her experience was not subtle, so she understood the Prince's dirty jokes as soon as she heard them. After spitting secretly, she lowered her head and blushed, that shy and lovely look instantly drew a crowd of wolf friends to wail.

But Lin Mo knew that this b*tch was just pretending, the bad wife was bad!

Seeing that the joke was almost done, Lilia changed the subject to the main topic.

"Mr. Lin, His Highness asked me to remind you to be safe.

According to the news we've received, Grand Prince Garvin might be coming to your side to cause trouble!"

Lin Mo did not have any worries about this news, if he came, he would come, was he not afraid of him.

"The Third Prince of the Wanxiang Kingdom, Jia Bai Luo, has arrived!"

The sudden singing of the name interrupted their exchange, Lilia she knew that the third prince also had a strong desire to pull Lin Mo, there was no way the identity of the Zhen Yue ambassador represented too many things.

But she did not say anything more, she just quietly stepped aside, with Lin Mo's talent in mind, there was no need for her to remind him.

The scene, on the other hand, rose in an uproar.

"The third prince has even come in person, didn't he say that Lin Mo was on good terms with the sixth prince?"

"What do you care about all that, it shows that our president is powerful, even the princes of the Wanxiang Kingdom are giving him face."

"Wonderful!"

In between the whispers of the crowd, Jia Bailiou led two expert guards to Lin Mo, although he was a king's son, Jia Bailiou did not put on any airs, his tone and demeanour were all down to earth.

"Mr. Lin, congratulations! At my sixth brother's banquet last time, Mr. Lin left in a hurry and I didn't even have the chance to have a drink."

He said with a regretful face and shook his head.

The third prince deliberately spoke of the banquet without the intention of reminding him.

"Your Highness is welcome to come and join us in person, a small banquet like ours.

Last time Your Highness came to your aid, you didn't even have the chance to thank Your Highness properly."

"Take this opportunity to make up for it today, please!"

Gabrielle replied with a smile, "Mr. Lin, you are being modest, if this is even considered a small banquet by you, then we don't even have one to hold."

The exchange between the two was calm and with enthusiasm, rather like two old friends who hadn't seen each other for years and were being subtle with each other.

"Greetings, Third Prince!"

Gabriella, faced with Lilia's respectful salute, only nodded lightly, and was neither displeased nor kind, but merely returned the salute with a faint electric nod.

Chapter 2832

With the arrival of the uninvited Carpenter himself, all the invited guests were present and the dinner began.

It was then that the main event of the dinner, the inauguration of the Merchant's League, began, and by the time the four council members had taken the stage, fireworks had shot up from beyond the hall.

The dark night sky above the city was instantly illuminated by the fireworks, and even the streets of the city centre became as white as day under the fireworks, with bursts of sound carrying gorgeous firework patterns weaving back and forth in the night sky.

At this moment, the entire city of Heshan went out to enjoy a visual feast that they had never seen before.

The fireworks kept going for nearly half an hour or so, and had it not been for the fear of affecting the progress of the dinner, Master Gan would have been prepared to let him go for two hours.

"Thank you all for your kindness, and I will not say any more nonsense."

"I declare that the Grand Quotidian Business Alliance is exactly what it was founded to be!"

As soon as the words fell thunderous applause resounded through this dinner party, and as the four Lin Mo slightly pulled the red rope in their hands, the huge red silk slowly floated down from mid-air, and the plaque that had been hidden for a long time quietly appeared.

"Crap, it's made of golden silk wood."

With a gasp from the guests who saw it, the crowd also stared in awe.

The plaque was about six metres long and two metres high, and it was still carved directly without any splicing, which meant that to make this plaque one had to use wood that was more than two metres so far, which was intimidating.

This is a very large piece of wood that no one has ever heard of, let alone seen, and it is not too much to say that this plaque is priceless.

As for the plaque, the words 'Da Qu Commercial Union' were in pure gold, but not many people paid attention to it.

Even the person in question, Lin Mo, could not help but suck in a breath of cold air after seeing this object, this Jia De Lie is also too generous, before he heard the prince say that the matter of the plaque of the merchant alliance was wrapped up in him, originally Lin Mo only thought that the other party would send a piece of pure gold, did not think that the pattern was still small.

The only person who knew the origin of the material used to make the plaque was perhaps the third prince, as he had seen it in the treasury before, and he had coveted this rare treasure at first.

It was only when his father said that he intended to use it for his own birthday coffin that Jia Bailiu gave up on the idea of obtaining it, but what he had never expected was that this golden silk nan wood would be made into a plaque by his sixth brother and given to Lin Mo.

"Hmph, that's a big gesture, just what exactly did Father think."

Jia Bailiu, who had been on cloud nine, felt disturbed after seeing this object, but the expression on his face remained unchanged in the slightest.

“Everyone, please be quiet for a moment.”

Amidst the waiting eyes of the crowd, Lin Mo took a deep breath, this should be the biggest thing he had ever done.

“I, Lin Mo, intend to restart the Hanoi Province Martial Alliance!”

As soon as these words were spoken, the whole scene fell into dead silence, the only movement was the sound of their breathing, but all those present were clear about how the Martial Alliance of Hanoi Province had been established and how it had disappeared.

The existence of the Martial Union had hindered the interests of many people and prevented the expansion of their power, so some people did not want it to exist, and such people were super giants.

The establishment of the merchant alliance has already caused so many big forces to fill the cloth, now if the restart of the martial alliance, how big a challenge will it face, how can these small bodies of theirs stand up to it, even the Zhao family.

Chapter 2833

Lin Mo had already expected such a reaction from the crowd from the beginning, and there might even be people who would quit on the spot, but it still couldn’t stop Lin Mo’s determination, after all, he didn’t come to Da Qu for a holiday, the two provinces of Hanoi and South Vietnam must be brought under his jurisdiction before he left, and all the saboteurs had to be wiped out.

This is an unbreakable plan, worrying about the obstruction, Lin Mo will never be merciful, the Kong family is the first monkey to kill the chicken, if not for the consideration of the extermination of the clan triggered the rebound of other forces you, Lin Mo’s methods will not be soft, of course, the battle damage is also an aspect.

“Those big names in the Reboot Martial Union will definitely not stand by and do nothing.”

“Yes, yes, these people are almost treating themselves as earth emperors, now suddenly someone to manage to restrain them, how can they possibly endure.”

“When the time comes, we, the small forces, won’t be used as cannon fodder, I don’t want to send my life away!”

Under the crowd’s discussion, many people felt like retreating, the things involved in the Martial Alliance were too much and too deep, it was simply not something that they, the little people, could afford, and some people even slipped out of the banquet without saying a word.

All this Lin Mo naturally saw in his eyes, but he did not step in to stop it, those who want to leave can leave, people have their own will, and they are also right, once someone makes a move, they may also be affected.

This is a big gamble, become a merchant alliance, martial alliance patriarch general existence, from now on receive the shelter of the double alliance, if not then it is a defeat, as to how to bet depends on personal choice.

Under the oppressive atmosphere, some people watched their companions beside them slip out, some followed and some stood silently in place.

“Young Lin, I don’t mean anything else, it’s just that there is so much involved in the matter of the Martial Alliance.

I hope you can give us a bottom line so that we have something in mind.”

“Fine, then I won’t hide it anymore, my identity as the Divine Doctor of the Kingdom of China is clear to you all, in addition I am also the head of the Zhen Yue Amba*sadors of the Martial Alliance of the Kingdom of China, the Taishan Amba*sador.”

As the words fell to the ground, the crowd looked at each other, and as they looked at each other, they all saw a strong look of shock in each other’s eyes.

They had always thought that Lin Mo’s current body was already bullish enough, but they didn’t expect there to be something even more bullish.

If you don’t die, you will be a Martial Union elder in the future, and if you have the ability, it’s not impossible to be a great elder.

The fact is that when you know Lin Mo’s identity, although everyone is worried, the bottom line is a lot stronger. This is also the reason why Lin Mo revealed his identity, it is useless to shout slogans alone, without some actual background, who will work with you.

“Young Lin, are you planning to restart the Martial Union in just one province of Hanoi, or the whole of Da Qu.”

“Naturally the whole of Da Qu, of course the rice has to be eaten one bite at a time and the road has to be taken one step at a time.”

In this regard Lin Mo did not hide anything the guests present were not stupid, since the relaunch of the Martial Union was naturally all-encompa*sing, indifferently setting up a Martial Union in Hanoi province was cheating the hell out of them.

“Of course there is no need for everyone to worry too much, the relaunch of the Martial Union is a great trend, but all those who have evil intentions will be crushed into powder under this great trend.”

“Since you have chosen to belong, you will follow the rules of my country, China.”

All at once, Lin Mo’s body shook, a majestic aura directly swept across the entire banquet, and for a while some guests with poor minds only felt their breathing couldn’t help but be a few points heavier, and their chests seemed to be pressed with a big stone.

“Of course, once the Hanoi Province Martial Union is established, other places I dare not say, but in this Hanoi Province I Lin Mo can guarantee to everyone.

All the dark forces, malicious suppression, protection fees, and so on will all vanish into thin air, and everyone will do business in peace.”

A single-minded suppression would only arouse the resentment of the people, a stick in one hand and sugar in the other was the eternal truth of those in power.

Chapter 2834

As Lin Mo’s words fell, the crowd began to exchange pleasantries, and soon afterwards everyone in the room split instantly into two factions, with most of the businessmen maintaining a supportive attitude.

If the Martial Alliance is relaunched, they will be subject to regulation and their annual profits will be reduced by at least 30%.

The scene was silent for a long time, whether they agreed or disagreed, every one came forward to express their opinion, after all, no one wanted to be the bird in the head.

Lin Mo was not in a hurry either, just quietly scanning the whole room.

“Since Da Qu is still attached to China, it is only a matter of time before this matter of the Martial Alliance comes to a head.”

The person who spoke was none other than Third Prince Jia Bai Luo: “I support the establishment of the Martial Alliance, there are no rules.”

“Although I am an outsider, I still have to remind everyone, now you are only facing Lin Mo, many things can be discussed and dealt with, if you wait until later, when the Martial Alliance loses patience and the army enters, there will be no room for negotiation.”

When the Third Prince finished speaking, Lin Mo looked at the former with surprise, not expecting that the first person to speak for him would be Jia Bailiou.

If Lin Mo lost, the Martial Alliance’s policy of being gentle would have to be changed into an iron-blooded approach, and all the marginal industries would be wiped out, and those families that had crossed the bottom line would be purged.

The words of the third prince were like a thunderbolt to the ears of those who were still torn or opposed to the idea, and when they thought of the future appearance of the Martial Alliance itself, their faces turned white.

“I support the restart of the Martial Alliance!”

“I also support it!”

“I support

In the blink of an eye everyone came forward to show their agreement and support, most of the people there were forces or businessmen from Hanoi Province, so the restart of the Martial Union in Hanoi Province was considered settled, as for the others they would wait until the Martial Union was established.

If they are recalcitrant and can't fight please come and have a cup of tea, they should be able to meekly cooperate The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you want to do.

Of course, now that the news of the establishment of the Martial Union has come out, it also means that Lin Mo has officially declared war on those behind the scenes who are blocking the establishment of the Martial Union, which will certainly be a big obstacle in the future.

"Thank you all for your help, I'll take this favor down, in addition, according to the merchant alliance's previous statement, I will give my hand to all of you for free once to remove the disease, such a good opportunity you can't waste, remember to make an appointment in advance."

"As long as the disease is not terminal, I can cure it!"

This irrelevant sentence directly made the crowd freeze what, but with the sentence Lin Mo added later many people came to understand that it was not the person who was sick but the power.

Combined with the words of the third prince, it could be understood that this cure was merely an excuse, and that the qi cure was for those shadowy things that were allowed to exist under the power.

After understanding this, many people nodded towards Lin Mo in a heartfelt manner, this kind of matter was sooner rather than later, since they had already chosen to support it, let's walk down a road to the black.

"Lin Shao, Lin Shao, restarting the Martial Union must require a lot of manpower, I have a few juniors in my family who have good qualifications and character, if possible, I hope Lin Shao can give an opportunity for them to come and play."

As this person's words fell to the ground, the crowd's hearts cried out, everyone's attention had been focused on the pros and cons of the relaunch of the Martial Alliance, completely ignoring such a good opportunity to go through the back door right now.

Chapter 2835

With the first ghostly guest speaking up, the scene was once again agitated, and many people rushed to Lin Mo's side to loudly recommend how excellent their juniors were, as if they were saying that it would be a great loss to the Martial Union if Lin Mo did not recruit them.

"Everyone be quiet for a moment, there's no need to rush."

After Lin Mo roared even, the excited crowd then calmed down, and pairs of expectant eyes stared deadily at Lin Mo, anxiously waiting for his reply.

“Don’t worry, all of you, since we are all members of the merchant alliance, the younger generations of each family are naturally given priority.

As long as you all have forces under your names, your heels are clean and you have not committed any major mistakes, you can all be recommended to come over.”

When they received such a reply, cheers instantly rang out, and all sorts of sounds of thanks and rainbow farts were heard one after another.

This scene not only made Lin Mo fall into reflection, had he known this, he would have just laid out this condition, why did he waste so much verbal and mental effort before.

This is also because Lin Mo does not yet have children formed cognitive busy going, can not experience that kind of parents for the sake of their children at all costs, the initial stage of the creation of the Martial Union, naturally need a lot of manpower, join which the threshold will naturally relax a lot accordingly, the opportunity is naturally large.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Elder Gan, who had never opened his mouth, at that moment, those two round eyes shone with a brilliant light.

“Young Lin, I have quite a lot of real estate over here in Heshan City, if Young Lin needs it, I can donate it to Young Lin for free for the construction of the Martial Union.”

Throw, this old man was so shrewd, he was starting to pave the way for his back.

With him leading the way how could the other guests be willing to do so.

“I have properties all over the place, I even have a special construction and decoration company, Young Lin, if you need to order at any time, the fees are all free.”

“For publicity, I can do it for you.”

Each and every one of them looked enthusiastic, simply more positive than Lin Mo, his side of the plan scheme had not even been perfected, all of them had already wrapped up all the formalities of the Martial Union creation process, which also directly made Lin Mo cry and laugh.

This directly made Lin Mo cry and laugh.

However, just as Lin Mo was about to respond, a group of figures walked in outside the door.

“Yo, it’s so lively, what’s so happy, share it with me too!”

The frivolous words instantly caused the members present to frown, at such a joyous moment, that unblinking dog had rushed in to cause trouble.

Only when they turned to look, they saw the Grand Prince of the Wanxiang Kingdom, Jia Wen, accompanied by the arrogant Second Princess, representatives of the three branches of the Ding family and several men in black robes. They were so aggressive that they looked like they had come from a bad place.

At the sight of such a stance, everyone immediately retreated to the side, such a big man was not something they could afford to mess with, except for Gabrielle and Lilia who stepped out from the crowd.

“Greetings to His Highness the Long Prince!”

“Greetings to the King’s brother!”

“Wanxiang so many things do not go to deal with, run here to join in what hilarious, not doing your job.”

“What, still want to kneel down to someone else’s Lord Zhen Yue Amba*sador?”

The two people he was reprimanding with a completely superior look, and such blunt and sarcastic words immediately made the third prince’s face sink.

As royal sons, they fought in secret, and now the words of the First Prince had directly embarra*sed Gabriella, but while the First Prince could do so, Gabriella could not.

“The King’s brother has taught us a lesson!”

Chapter 2836

Lilia’s body was bowed in such a way that he did not dare to stand up straight until the Grand Prince had spoken.

In the silence, Garvin looked at Lilia in silence without saying a word, and the latter’s back was aching from the prolonged bending of her body, her delicate cheeks gradually turning red and her forehead beaded with sweat.

Many people were moved by this scene, but no one dared to step in because of the status of the Grand Prince.

Only Wen Qiang, dressed in black robes beside the Grand Prince, looked at Lilia’s face full of pain and frowned, only before he could persuade Jia Wen, opposite Lin Mo spoke up.

“Your Highness, why make things difficult for a woman!”

The first time they met, Lin Mo could see how this Grand Prince acted, arrogant and brutal and unscrupulous.

Originally, he had thought of giving the other side a face, no matter what enmity the two sides had in private, but it was the default unspoken rule to give each other faces on the stage, but now it seemed that the other side did not want to give faces even if they did.

“A woman?”

Jia Wen smiled coldly: “It’s just a servant of my royal family, who doesn’t know the rules and naturally needs to be punished.”

The implication of his words was that this was a matter for the royal family and you, an outsider, should not meddle in it.

But he seemed to have forgotten where he was.

When Lin Mo faced the threatening eyes of the Grand Prince, he also looked straight at him coldly, undaunted.

“Your Highness, all comers are guests, in my Lin Mo’s banquet, all are equal, there is no distinction between inferiors and superiors!

If you want to show off your Grand Prince’s honourable status, please go back to Wanxiang and show it off recklessly.”

Because of the incident with General Hai, the Grand Prince Jiawen was already full of ill feelings towards Lin Mo, and this time he had naturally come to cause trouble, Lin Mo was also clear about this, so there was nothing polite to say between the two sides in their words.

He was not wrong on this point, Lin Mo was the one who had the intention of developing Da Qu into his own power in the future, but not at the moment.

Lin Mo had long been displeased with the b*tch, at the previous banquet in Jiade Lie, this human heart b*tch, began to target himself, how could Lin Mo give her a good look at this time.

And his words immediately blocked the eldest prince and the others speechless, especially the second princess angry proud bosom up and down, angrily stared at Lin Mo, as if the gaze could kill.

Seeing Lilia’s face torn, Lin Mo secretly shook his head, this was all because he was too deeply poisoned by the royal family, his waist was too light, thinking of this Lin Mo paid his respects and gave a look towards the crown prince, the latter instantly understood, and directly went forward to hold Lilia’s wrist and brought her to Lin Mo’s side.

“Thank you, Mr. Lin Mo.”

Lin Mo did not turn around when he heard the subtle sound of thanks, still looking straight at the Grand Prince and his party with a cold, icy gaze, yet the latter suddenly burst out laughing.

“Oh, very good, very good then, this is the first time someone has dared to speak to this king like this in all the years of his reign.”

“Killing my general and still daring to be so rampant, do you really think that there is no one in my Wanxiang Kingdom?”

For General Hai’s death, Lin Mo you must give me an explanation today.”

As soon as the words fell, several black panther men behind the Grand Prince, whose faces could not be seen, slightly leaned forward a few points, ready to strike at any time.

Chapter 2837

Lin Mo lifted his feet and slowly walked up to the front, his gaze biting looking at the Grand Prince.

“What about the matter of General Hai taking my Chinese merchant hostage and wanting a ransom, His Highness did not mention it.

A mole under the sword deserves to die, it’s good that I’m not looking for trouble from you, what more do you want an explanation for.”

The Grand Prince shivered and shook the bright red fleece cloak on his shoulders.

“Lin Mo today in front of this outsider, I won’t make things difficult for you, as long as you bring the Merchant Alliance and the Martial Alliance to my use, I can forgive the death of General Hai and help you grow the Twin Alliances.”

There was no meaning of negotiation in his words, and he was completely ordering Lin Mo around with an air of superiority.

Unlike the Third Prince’s and Sixth Prince’s wishy-washy approach, the Grand Prince was trying to use his power to overpower others and make Lin Mo submit to him.

If the merchant alliance and the martial alliance were to come under his name, the members of the two alliances would only be tools of the great prince’s conquest, and there would be no dividends to speak of.

Even a ruthless man like Guangyao Dingli did not dare to be fierce in the face of the Grand Prince and bowed his head in silence.

“Put your mother’s bullsh*t, what are you, you don’t P*ss and see your own heart.

Still want to collect the merchant alliance martial alliance, just you f*cking deserve it!”

The prince had long looked at Jia Wen with displeasure, and when he heard the other party’s intentions, his temper of exposure came up at once.

Even though the Grand Prince was in a calm state of mind, his face instantly turned gloomy after hearing the Prince’s insults.

“Pull out his tongue for me, his mouth is unstoppable.”

Before the words were finished, a black-robed figure behind Jia Wen disappeared in a flash, and in an instant, he was in front of the Crown Prince’s eyes. Such a figure was already far beyond the Crown Prince’s ability to react, and he could only watch as the other party’s sinister tiger claws reached for his neck.

In the nick of time, he saw a cold maneuver directly in front of him.

As soon as several black-robed men entered the door, Lin Mo sensed the extraordinary aura on their bodies, and he knew without having to make a move that these people must be experts, so Lin Mo’s attention was always focused on them.

After saving the prince, Lin Mo’s one hand was powered up, and with a fierce jolt of his sword, he directly picked the black-robed man’s tiger claw, and when his sword was ready to stab the other side, the black-robed man dodged Lin Mo’s attack with a flick of his foot.

With such an agile stance, even Lin Mo naturally had to be a few points weaker.

After the two sides separated, the black-robed man turned his head to look backwards, asking the Grand Prince what he meant.

“Mr. Shan, it’s hard for you, just trouble to leave this kid a breath, I’ll see how hard they can still be after becoming a prisoner most.”

Lin Mo is the Martial Union’s Zhen Yue ambassador, the Grand Prince naturally does not dare to kill, but imprisoned he does dare, can not defeat the Martial Union wants people when, let them go, but before that a torture is inevitable.

But and abusive others never ended well.

After the black robed man received the instructions from the Grand Prince, he did not reply just turned his cheek to face Lin Mo squarely.

“Kid, if you want to restart the Martial Union, I don’t know if your body is up to scratch.”

A hoarse voice, like sandpaper rubbed at the same time, and hard to hear and blurred.

Lin Mo could not see his opponent’s expression beneath his black robe, but he could guess a thing or two from his opponent’s overflowing fierce aura.

From the exchange between the Grand Prince and his opponent, Lin Mo unexpectedly discovered that the two were not subordinate to each other, and that the Grand Prince had a lot of respect for the black-robed man.

However, as the two sides were currently at war, it was not the time for him to think about this issue.

Chapter 2838

After confronting his opponent for a few seconds, Lin Mo eventually dropped the Tai Ah in his hand.

It wasn't an opponent he despised, on the contrary he valued it, but there were too many guests at the scene, and the slightest inattention to Tai Ah's biting sword Qi would have to ripple through them.

The prince was also resourceful, and when he saw Lin Mo put down the divine weapon, he instantly understood what his elder brother meant.

"Everyone move back a little, beware of being accidentally injured."

At first, the group of laymen didn't care much, what could be rippled or not rippled with their bare hands and fists, but seeing the prince's crimson eyes, they didn't dare to bleep much and obediently retreated a dozen metres or so, leaving the central field completely empty.

"Please!"

After Lin Mo lifted up his sleeves, his face was stony as he looked at the black-robed man opposite him, he didn't want to make a move at the banquet site if he could, it was just that he was clear that the other party wouldn't give him that chance.

As soon as the words fell, the black-robed man took the lead, his agile stance making him like a cheetah, but in the blink of an eye he had reduced the distance between the two to less than a metre, his fierce finger claws carrying the shocking gap whistling.

Lin Mo's pupils shrank, this man's agile body technique was even faster than just a few moments ago, but fortunately he did not harbour any contempt at the beginning, facing this move of the black tiger hollowing out his heart in front of him, Lin Mo's right hand turned into a fist and smashed over.

With a muffled sound, the shockwave from the exchange of blows directly overturned the dinner plates on the table beside him, and the guests who were some distance away from Jing Yi were poured with vegetable soup and dishes, and there were still a lot of vegetable leaves on top of their heads.

At this moment, the crowd finally clearly understood the Prince's good intentions in telling them to back off, marvelling at the two men's terrifying skills while everyone coincidentally stepped back several metres.

The next second, his whole body hurriedly took to the air, and under the rapid rotation, his whip leg whistled down as if it was a battle axe.

Lin Mo crossed his arms against his chest, although he caught the counter attack, and the tremendous force shook him backwards for a distance of five or six metres before he could stabilise himself.

After landing on the ground, the black-robed man shook his shoulder blades.

"Hmph, is this all that the younger leaders of the martial arts path are capable of, precisely disappointing."

The words were filled with disdain in contempt.

When the Grand Prince saw the black robed man gain the upper hand, the corners of his mouth couldn't help but grin, it was no thanks to the person who came out of whatever place he came from, a random one would be able to abuse Lin Mo.

Lin Mo didn't know where this man had come from, when was he the leader of the younger generation? Among the people of his age he had met, like Du Qi and Xue Lian, although they had never fought, Lin Mo knew that they were not below him in terms of skill and talent.

The white dragon's shadow of Nalan Xingchan, Du'er's angry Luohan, and Li Jiange's unseen sword skills, Lin Mo thought he could not resist, and this was only what he had seen.

He also D*mned the leading figure of the young generation, lead your grandmother's legs.

Although Lin Mo had suffered a hidden loss in his stance in the first encounter, he did not have any worry on his face, instead he was slightly excited.

Although the other party's voice was hoarse, Lin Mo could hear that the black-robed man was not too young, and should not be more than a few years different from himself, and it had been a long time since he, Lin Mo, had had a good fight with an expert of his generation.

"Disappointed? You'll know despair later."

Lin Mo finished moving his body, and after a rattling sound of bones rubbing together, he slowly stretched out his hands, and with a tremor of his ten fingers, a majestic aura rushed straight through the entire banquet.

He hadn't used his full strength before as he had been in a hurry to receive the move.

Chapter 2839

The black robed man felt Lin Mo's rising aura and his body slowly crouched down.

"That's a bit of fun, show your full strength or you won't have a chance later."

Although he had promised the Grand Prince that he wouldn't put up a deadly fight, fists and kicks had no eyes. Of course even if there were no accidents, he didn't care, he wouldn't be at the bottom of the mountain for long anyway, he had already enjoyed what he needed to enjoy, so let the Grand Prince take the blame.

The dark aura continued to surge around the black-robed man, forming the shape of a faint tiger, and the fierce aura that seeped out from it caused the guests watching the battle to stagnate in their breath, and goose bumps instantly exploded all over their bodies, as if there was a fierce beast staring them in the face.

"This black robe is too scary, is this still a human being?"

"I just took one look at him and I felt as if my soul was going to be drawn out."

"He's so strong, Young Lin is no match, right?"

Many of the people present were seeing this level of combat for the first time, and there was inevitably some worry in their hearts, if Lin Mo lost, he would be taken down by the Grand Prince, and by then, not to mention the Martial Union, the Merchant Union would have to collapse.

As the prince listened to their chatter, his face darkened, "What kind of fart are you all talking about, how could my big brother lose."

"Back off again if you have the sense to do so, a bunch of limp-wristed shrimps, still questioning my big brother, when it affects you later, I will not collect your corpses."

After being reprimanded by the prince, the crowd knew they had said the wrong thing, both sides hadn't even fought, and they started cursing their own people.

Lin Mo and the black-robed man moved at the same time, and when they fought again, the people watching the battle could no longer see their moves, only a burst of residual shadows flashed past their eyes.

After the black-robed man's black claws were dodged by Lin Mo, the hard wooden dining table became like drinking tofu.

After dozens of rounds, the black-robed man's face was blue, but the erosive power of his Black Severing Tiger Technique, which had been unbeatable, could not help Lin Mo even a little bit.

Every time he fought with Lin Mo, he could clearly feel a fierce dark energy, if not for his high strength, his arms would have been ruined after these dozens of rounds.

Lin Mo was secretly amazed as he performed this Bai Family Scattered Hands, but what surprised him was not the strength of his opponent, but the style of his moves.

Although there were millions of martial arts under the sky, all of them had their similarities, but the black-robed man's moves and techniques were like nothing Lin Mo had ever seen before.

After a hundred strokes, the two sides were still indistinguishable from each other.

As they continued to fight, the guests were scared into a corner.

The black-robed man also scratched the steel pillar like tofu and made a row of gaps.

The side of the GuanYao at this time is both shocked and happy, shocked is Lin Mo surprisingly strong to such an extent, if they can survive a round on the field, it is already the blessing of the Buddha.

He was glad that he had the foresight to tie up with Lin Mo in advance, otherwise he would have been left out in the cold, and it would have been better for him to fight the black-robed man than to give him a dagger to kill himself.

After more than a hundred rounds, the two sides were still neck-and-neck, and neither could help the other for a short time.

Chapter 2840

The black-robed man thought the same thing, but after the two sides exchanged blows, his face changed in shock as a wave of dark energy overturned the sea and struck him violently.

The black-robed man was unable to defend himself against the fierce attack, and the terrifying force shook him straight out of the air, only to be accompanied by a tiger's whistle that rose out of thin air, and the black-robed man dared to withdraw a few steps before stopping his form.

When Lin Mo saw that his opponent was unharmed, he couldn't help but burst out a foul mouth. He had been holding back his strength to paralyse his opponent before, in order to prepare the ground for the attack he had just delivered, but even so, the dark power he had used with all his might was still easily defused by his opponent.

This made Lin Mo even more certain that there was definitely something wrong with his opponent's martial arts, and that the tiger's whistle should have unloaded the dark energy just now.

I don't believe you can unload it every time. Although the Bai Family's Scattered Hands Dark Power is a martial art that hurts a thousand enemies and damages eight hundred, Lin Mo can heal himself and doesn't panic at all!

The black robed man was actually not as unharmed as Lin Mo thought, the Black Severance Tiger Kung Fu only removed part of the dark energy, in fact his inner body had already been traumatized, only because through the black robe, could not see the blood at the corner of his mouth.

With his agile body, he dodged the attack while slowly drawing Lin Mo to the edge of the clearing, while behind him were the guests watching the battle.

As long as Lin Mo's attack deviated or was dodged by him, it would definitely affect them, and with their fragile bodies, as long as they were affected by the aftermath of the battle, they would be half crippled if not dead.

Lin Mo naturally noticed this, his face instantly darkened and his brows knitted together.

Although he had guessed that the black-robed man could not always remove the dark energy, this opponent was too D*mn insidious to use an ordinary man as a meat shield.

The difference in strength between the two sides was so great that Lin Mo instantly fell into a disadvantage, and the more he fought, the more difficult it became.

After a few rounds, Lin Mo had already been hit several times by his opponent and blood was slowly seeping out of the corners of his mouth, so if his body had not been tempered many times he would have collapsed.

The prince who was watching the battle also gradually noticed the end of it, and his violent temper broke into a direct curse.

“f*ck you, insidious villain, how dare you use ordinary people as shields, can you have some f*cking shame.

The black robe also did not expect that this ploy of his would be directly pointed out by the bystander, and that it would be said in such an unpleasant manner, and as anger rose in his heart, he skewed at the prince with a murderous look.

However, when he was distracted, Lin Mo found a flaw and smashed a straight fist heavily into the opponent’s abdomen. Although it was not a full force blow, it still hurt the black-robed man and made him grimace.

And the black-robed man’s verbal counterattack also aroused the prince’s elegance.

“Pulling out your father’s tongue, you unfilial son, how dare you try to plot against your lord father, aren’t you afraid of being struck by lightning from heaven?”

“If I had known that I had given birth to such a thing as you, I should have shot you in the bin, angry at my father.”

The young generation’s leading mouth-breather, except for Lou Changqing, has no rival so far.

The black-robed man’s anger was getting stronger and stronger as the prince gave him a frenzied output, the first time in his life that someone dared to insult him like that.
