Chapter 2871

“Not necessarily!”

Sitting on the side of Zhao Nan Yue opened his mouth and said, “Our scouts in Zhen La and Wan Xiang did not find any abnormalities.”

He remembered the traces of the scene downstairs that day his face turned unusually serious, swept away the Zhen Yue Amba*sador cost too much, is completely provoking the Martial Union, the brain flashed one by one through the various forces, he could not guess for a moment.

After pondering for a long time, he spoke.

“I think there is a possibility that we are looking in the wrong direction, is there this possibility that Lin Mo has been taken into the deep mountains.”

The crowd listened with pensive faces, Da Qu millions of square kilometers of territory, half of which is occupied by mountains and rivers, so what Old Master Zhao said is not without reason.

“What are you still standing there for? Hurry up and take your brothers into the mountains to find someone!”

“If sister-in-law’s side knows about this, how the hell should I explain.”

The prince, like to Xu Hanxia headache, he and Lin Mo said is the superior subordinate, in fact, is the brother relationship, now his brother are lost, Xu Hanxia side how to explain.

These days, the prince has received several phone calls Xu Hanxia, in order to keep his sister-in-law worried he can only say that big brother in seclusion training, but can not always be so hidden, must find big brother as soon as possible.

A Fei was about to set off when the door was pushed open, seeing the visitor the prince sat up in shock.

“Sister-in-law, why are you here? Big brother is in seclusion, it will take a few days to see you.”

The prince while lying, the heart while secretly shouting bitter, I tap horse people numb ah, it is afraid of what comes what.

“Prince brother, I have arrived here, you still plan to hide it from me ah?”

The prince was stunned: “sister-in-law you know all?”

“Originally I didn’t know, but seeing you so flustered, I was sure something had happened to Lin Mo.”

Xu Hanxia originally felt distracted, plus Lin Mo did not contact himself for several days in a row, his heart secretly felt bad. Now a look at the prince’s nervous expression her heart suddenly burst, the nose can not help but feel sour.

But he did not cry out, after a few deep breaths, tears have been held back by him.

The crown prince at this time like slapping himself a few, he what key moment dropped the chain, and when he looked up to Xu Hanxia, the latter out of the face a little haggard, but also no panic look, the crown prince also slightly relieved.

“Sister-in-law, it’s my fault that I couldn’t take care of my big brother and let him be robbed.”

“How did my husband go missing, can you tell me exactly?”

Xu Hanxia forced a smile on his face, Lin Mo disappeared he was more worried than anyone else, now the strong appearance is just his disguise, after all, he came all the way to the city of Heshan but to help rather than add to the chaos.

After waiting until the prince finished the situation that night, Xu Hanxia was only slightly relieved.

“Since the other party only took my husband, then they did not want his life.

Prince, at this point you don’t need to blame yourself, since the other party has the ability to take him away, you can’t stop it.”

“Please copy me a copy of the search information!”

She who shouldn’t be vulnerable looked extraordinarily strong at this time.

“Okay sister-in-law, you go upstairs to rest for a while, I have news on my side I will notify you first.”

“That’s hard work for you!”

Xu Hanxia returned, and after greeting and thanking all the people present, he went to Lin Mo’s room on the second floor alone.

Open the closet, looking at the inside still a few ordinary clothes Xu Hanxia faint smile.

“You are still so unconcerned about appearance!”

After muttering a sentence to herself, the tears at the corners of her eyes finally failed to hold back and slowly fell! No matter how strong the disguise is, he is just a woman who is a human wife.

Chapter 2872

Xu Hanxia stared at the closet, fuming for a long time, although her mouth said in Lin Mo will not have any life-threatening, but that is only to comfort others, to comfort their own words, did not see the real her hanging heart will never fall to the ground.

Wait until, outside the room knocking on the door, she hurriedly wiped a tear.

“Sister-in-law, we have finished our deliberations over there”

After the crown prince walked into the room, saw Xu Hanxia’s slightly red eyes, the guilt in his heart, became more intense, he always felt that he did not protect his big brother, this has nothing to do with strength.

Xu Hanxia noticed the Prince's abnormality, took a deep breath, slowly exhaled, and then squeezed a smile on his face.

"What's wrong, what are the arrangements on your side, I will try my best to cooperate."

When Xu Hanxia confirmed the disappearance of her husband a matter, reason told her that she should return to Panyang City or back to China, since someone is focusing on Lin Mo, he, the wife will probably also be affected, she came to Heshan City will only add to the burden of the Prince and them.

But she couldn't make up her mind, before that he had trouble sleeping and eating, and now that she learned of her husband's news, she could only do something to distract herself from her own thoughts.

She couldn't collapse herself!

And her emotional state also made the prince feel slightly more at ease.

"Sister-in-law, it's like this, here's what we're going to do"

.....

Early the next morning, the disappearance of Lin Mo's wife Xu Hanxia's visit to the city of Heshan spread rapidly within Da Qu, and all of a sudden the members within the merchant alliance heard the news and surged towards the city of Heshan.

"Miss Xu welcome to visit Da Qu, this is a little meeting gift, I hope you don't mind."

"Miss Xu, this is the five-color pearl I brought back from a foreign country, I hope your like it."

"Imperial green jade pendant, I hope Miss Xu is safe and happy."

An endless stream of wealthy businessmen carried luxurious gifts and visited their doors, and since Lin Mo's side neither accepted gifts nor money, they put their minds on his wife.

And Xu Hanxia still came and welcomed them with a smile.

"Thank you all, then I'll be polite."

"Everyone sit down first, I'll go get Lin Mo, really there are guests at the door and still there in seclusion, don't know any manners."

As soon as the crowd saw Xu Hanxia get up, her face turned white with fright and hurriedly dissuaded her from coming down.

"Sister-in-law Lin, make it impossible, make it impossible."

"Sister-in-law, it's important for young Lin to be in seclusion, our must not disturb."

They just wanted to send gifts through Xu Hanxia to win Lin Mo's goodwill, now if they were to disturb someone's seclusion, then what kind of goodwill would they be able to win.

After hesitating for a moment, Xu Hanxia twisted her head and looked at the crown prince: "Is that so?"

"Sister-in-law, it is true that if you go to disturb big brother's retreat now, it is very likely to go into the fire."

Xu Hanxia smiled after receiving this answer and said to the guests who came to the door to give gifts, "Sorry, then I can only wait until my husband comes out of seclusion, then I will let him give a banquet to everyone to express his gratitude."

"It's fine, it's fine, it's important for young Lin to get busy with his business first."

After the pleasantries and politeness, the scene gradually cooled down.

When the prince saw that the topic was cold, he stepped forward and proposed.

"Sister-in-law, during this period of time, there is nothing much for you to do in Heshan City, why don't we take you out for a walk?"

Anyway, it will be some time before big brother closes down, and the Martial Union restarts, we can't help much."

After Xu Hanxia nodded her head in agreement, the people offered their advice.

"Why don't we go to the city of Hezhong to have some fun, we have countless famous places and monuments there."

"There are many new zoos and sea worlds on my side."

.....

Xu Hanxia pushed back everyone's proposals, saying that she only wanted this to go climbing mountains to see the landscape.

Chapter 2873

"Sister-in-law, this move of ours to retreat can make them relax for a while, so let's go as planned next."

"Tomorrow morning we will leave, I will call you then!"

There was no talk all night.

The next day, just after dawn, the prince's side began to methodical preparations, which must be done slowly, panic will only attract suspicion.

"Sister-in-law, then let's go! Fei's side they have already left during the night."

So, the crown prince followed Xu Hanxia, with a few subordinates around to drive off, and the villa side has Zhao Yu with a group of guards to hold down, outsiders seem to be protecting the closed Lin Mo.

Song Zhilan stood in front of the office bed quietly looking out, now the city of Heshan in Gan Lao's construction can be described as rapidly changing, the original chaotic streets and alleys have now become wide and clean streets, as far as the eye can see everywhere is a busy construction site.

One of the most conspicuous is located in the center of the city, that a martial arts alliance general office building construction site.

Song Zhilan remembered that Lin Mo had said to her that if He Shan City really had this ability, the headquarters of the Martial Union of Hanoi Province would be built here.

Once she thought of this matter, Song Zhilan's mind couldn't help but float that cheek that was cloudy and breezy in the face of anything, only that he was nowhere to be found.

If it were possible, Song Zhilan would also like to put down all the work at hand and take people along to look for Lin Mo, so that he would not be so distracted, but when she looked back at the desk full of documents, as well as the busy staff of the Martial Union in the opposite building, she could only let out a bitter smile and sat back down at the office desk.

Someone has to stay to collect this Noida's organization for Lin Mo!

On the other hand, after driving out of the city of Heshan, the crown prince and his group did not stop and ran directly to the land of the mountains.

According to Elder Zhao's speculation, Lin Mo may have been taken into the mountains, all the people searching for them intended to divide into two ways.

Elder Zhao's forces, secretly continue to search between various cities and towns, while the crown prince and his party used the name of the trip to search for traces of Lin Mo in the mountains and rivers.

Taking this opportunity, Di Yun and others can just as well go to their old home and receive their parents and relatives to live in Heshan City or Pangyang City.

After the convoy stopped, A Fei, Chen near and others are already waiting here, the next journey will have to completely rely on the double walk to explore.

Between the mountains, the road is not only narrow and muddy, and occasionally some dry sections, a variety of gravel but separated by the heart of the foot pain unbearable.

Departure but half an hour, the Prince will walk a belly fire, not to mention the delicate Xu Hanxia behind him.

"Sister-in-law, why don't you wait for us at the bottom of the hill, this mountain road is really D*mn hard to walk, the old man's feet are rubbed and bleeding."

"It's okay, I have not the little girl, not so delicate, continue walking."

The prince saw Xu Hanxia tone firm, simply no longer persuade, with a large knife to continue to open the road in front.

"Brother Prince, up ahead is Luofeng Mountain."

"Okay, let Di Yun and the others open the way, we can just rest and rest too."

After the prince gave an order, the crowd accelerated the speed of opening the road, and soon after, they saw the rising rush of smoke not far away.

With Di Yun as the leader of the feathered guards and others who had left their hometown for a long time, and now seeing their village again, there was a surprisingly tense feeling once and for all.

“Go on, go see your family first, hurry up, later we have to continue to set out to find Lin Mo.”

“Yes, thank you, Brother Prince!”

After Di Yun said thank you, then excitedly dashed towards the village, this scene is slightly washed away some of the suppressed emotions of the crowd in the past few days.

Chapter 2874

Fallen Phoenix Mountain, Fallen Phoenix Village.

The remote area, coupled with the mountains surrounding it, has led the villagers in this area to live on farming for generations, relying on a mu of land to barely support the family, but of course all this presupposes that there is no group of bandits from the city.

Since the village was known to outsiders, every three months there will be a large group of people with knives, guns and sticks into the village smashing, food and the few cash as long as the valuable things, they are scavenged empty.

Later they saw nothing valuable things, simply forced the villagers to plant tobacco for them, and to buy at very low prices, so the villagers were already living in straitened circumstances, but even worse.

Even want to pull the village youth out of the coal mining, so forced to the desperate villagers also tried to resist, but in the other side of the knife and gun, resistance is just an egg on the stone.

On this day, it was the day that this group of city people, called ‘bandits’ by the villagers, went to the mountains to cut the leeks.

Dozens of hooligans wearing brand names slowly walked towards the village of Lok Fung, and the leader was cursing.

“D*mn, what a bloody bad luck, to be lined up to this primitive tribe in the collection.”

Seeing this, the dog-leg behind him immediately nodded and rushed forward, the scars at the corners of his eyes became more pronounced with his smiling face.

“Dog brother, come to smoke a cigarette to kill the fire.”

“You’re not letting the old man how to kill the fire, I they just bought more than 20,000 Mette four Bonneville shoes are worn skin, feet are worn out blood blisters.”

“Dog brother, later we go to those villagers home, soak a foot is much better, by the way try the local specialties here.

Outside those dais are mended up, but this mountain is different ah, that is the original ecological.”

Said the dog’s eyes with deep meaning raised an eyebrow.

“Native products?”

After muttering a sentence, the dog immediately reacted, and then revealed a hidden smile.

Inside the village.

After the young girl saw Dog and his group, she hurriedly ran to her father who was working.

“Dad, they’re here again?”

Di Lao-san looked up and his face suddenly turned gloomy: “Bah, a group of bandits.”

Seeing them Di Lao San are full of anger, originally calm and quiet village, because of the arrival of these people, all to the destruction, just this half year, do not know how many villagers because they can not stand the oppression, fled out of the mountains, leaving them these bad bones, or the old man, stay here to die.

“Dad, you should not say anything! It would be bad if they heard.”

“So what if they heard, if it wasn’t for them, your brother wouldn’t have been forced to flee the village, and now there’s no news, still don’t know if he’s dead or alive.”

At this point, Di Laosan’s eyes were covered with blood.

However, his voice roared, not far from the dog and his party is also heard clearly.

After hearing that dog’s day, the dog’s face immediately darkened.

“Bring me that old bd.”

A command, the boys rushed over aggressively, and in a short while, the beaten and bruised Di Lao San was brought to Dog.

“I’ll f*ck your mother, if you have the ability to kill me!”

Di Laosan is originally a violent temper, plus his son was forced by this group of people do not know life and death, for a long time there is no idea about life, if not for his daughter in, he would have fought with each other.

The dog frowned, directly kicked in the stomach of Di Lao-san, Di Lao-san’s face was white, bowed with a white face.

The first time I saw him, I saw his father’s face, and I hurriedly stopped him in front of him.

“You bds, stay away from my father.”

Chapter 2875

Di Xiaohua itself belongs to the kind of relatively clean shape, at this time the tear-filled appearance, but even more added a few delicate.

After staring at her face for a while, the dog brother and the dog leg beside him looked at each other, and then smiled wickedly.

“A few brothers are giving way, dog brother is going to do exactly that.”

With a reminder from the dog's leg, several young brothers also instantly reacted.

"Dog brother mighty, later on can let the little brothers have a mouthful of soup ah."

"Don't worry, absolutely nothing less than you guys!"

After a big laugh, the dog licked his lips and walked towards the innocent beauty in front of him with a lecherous smile.

When Di Xiaohua saw this look on their faces, she panicked, how could she not have it in her heart.

On the ground, Di Laosan struggled to stand up with the huge pain on his small abdomen.

"Little flower, you rush to run!"

"But dad, what about you?"

"Your brother is gone, I have not wanted to live for a long time, you hurry up and run, I fought with them."

After saying this, Di Laosan spat out a mouthful of blood spit and rushed towards the leader of the other side, but he was a kind of old man how could be the opponent of the dog such a practitioner.

The old man didn't even get close to the other side, he was kicked directly away.

And at this time, Di Xiaohua was also controlled by Dog's men.

"Brother Dog, penetrate her, we have not tasted this kind of wild food for a long time."

"You guys, it's exactly the old pervert."

While joking with his brothers, Dog began to take off his jacket, and then he stretched out his disgusted hands.

"b*ds, you guys let go of me!"

Di Xiaohua struggled desperately, but her hands were held by the strong man and she could not move at all.

The dog heave a smile, then began to unbutton her, see Di Xiaohua neck that snow-white batch of goods, he only felt dry mouth, just when he intended to speed up the movement of his hands, not far out came a roar.

"b*d, let go of my sister!"

A violent sound echoed throughout the valley.

The next moment, he only felt his nose count, a sharp pain rushed straight to his brain.

"Featherwood guards, listen to the order, give me all take down!"

"Yes!"

The person who came was none other than Di Yun, after putting down Dog, he rushed to, Di Xiaohua's body with one healthy step, two great sweat just about to strike, a stabbing pain came from his waist, his body went limp and collapsed directly to the ground.

Dog but a few dozen people, facing 800 feathered guards, there is no room for resistance, but an exchange of blows, all of them were put down.

"Sister, are you all right!"

After Di Yun took off his jacket, he hurriedly put it on for Di Xiaohua.

The original has been desperate Di Xiaohua, at this time to see someone to save, but also her long-lost brother, emotional instant collapse directly on the shoulders of Di Yun cried.

After choking for a few seconds, he looked panicked: "Xiao Yun, hurry to see our father!"

Di Yun followed the direction pointed by Di Xiaohua and saw his father, who was dead or alive, on the ground, and with his eyes red, he immediately ran to Di Laosan's side.

Di Yun stretched out a finger to explore, see breathing father breathing is still stable, just unconscious, he was immediately relieved a lot.

The dog side, after slowing down, did not even look at the surrounding battle, directly opened his mouth and shouted to.

"F*ck, that one who is not afraid of death dares to spoil my good deed."

The only thing that responded to him was a punch cannon, and Dog's eyes went black as a mouthful of blood spurted out violently.

"Dare to touch my father, you deserve to die!"

Di Yun's red eyes, step by step towards the fallen and unconscious Dog, without waiting for the other party's nonsense, a foot directly stepped on the other party's arm, after a painful wail, Di Yun frowned and raised his foot to fall down violently again.

Until after the other party's arms and legs were all broken, Di Yun was about to cut off Dog's neck when a sound came from behind him.

"Let's leave him a dog's life first!"

Chapter 2876

After Dog's group was taken down, the Crown Prince briefly asked about the power behind this person, and it so happened that the power behind them happened to be the partner of an old acquaintance, the Ding family.

The crown prince learned the whole story frowned at the thought, not that he was worried about the Ding family's retaliation, purely because he did not expect that people nowadays could do such underhanded things for the sake of profit.

“No wonder big brother said, Da Qu must be a comprehensive overhaul, this looks good on the surface of the private all rotten.

It’s not even like they treat people like human beings!”

After murmuring a sentence in a low voice, the prince sought out Di Yun.

“This is the external wound elixir that big brother left for me before, you take it to your father.

Also, those scum, you take care of them yourself.”

“Thank you, Brother Prince!”

After receiving the elixir, Di Yun’s heart could not help but be warm, if not for the master’s acceptance, their group of people would have starved to death, now they have changed greatly, the group of bandits that were feared like tigers at the beginning, in front of themselves already used to be general lambs to be slaughtered.

After dealing with these trivial matters, the prince ordered everyone to rest in place for a while.

Taking advantage of this gap, several people took Lin Mo’s photo and began to ask the villagers for information, but the result was nothing.

After a haphazard lunch, the group set off, and the next road, because it was all village to village roads in the mountains, was much better.

“Brother Prince, we do not wait for Di Yun and the others?”

Prince Ah Fei took away the departure, curiously asked a question.

“First let them send their families to the city of Heshan, by the way have not seen their relatives for a long time, let them have a good reunion.”

“Tong Jun you take everyone, scout the surrounding area, find anomalies directly send a signal.”

The next way is to really enter the mountainous area of Daqu, and their intelligence only up to the fallen phoenix mountain, the safety of the back, can only look at Tong Jun as well as up under the snipers to explore.

“Yes!”

After Tong Jun sounded, the whole team scattered like a beehive.

The evening was as thin as the west.

The prince and his party have passed more than a dozen villages, and near the depths of the mountains, the living conditions of the mountain residents are not only increasingly barren, for the prince’s attitude will become more and more resistant, from the beginning, the love and care to later even directly copy the guy to drive people away.

“Eh, sins ah! Those forces, how inappropriate ah, the original simple villagers have been forced into what kind of.”

After a long sigh, the prince saw that the sky was getting dark, the prince could only order the tent to be set up in place.

There is no way, the attitude of the villagers, not to mention staying overnight, meet not to move things is already very good.

On the side of Xu Hanxia is indeed preoccupied look.

“Prince, have you found, these villages have a strange common denominator.”

“It seems that in each village, there is a human-shaped stone statue.”

The prince’s mind had been on the search for Lin Mo, but did not pay much attention to this aspect of things, at this time by Xu Hanxia this reminder, he also remembered this unusual phenomenon.

And when the appearance of the stone statue came to his mind, he always felt as if he had seen it there.

“Sister-in-law, the appearance of those stone statues, I always have a feeling of déjà vu.”

Xu Hanxia nodded: “I also have this feeling, but I just can’t remember who it is?”

Just as the two were talking, Tong Jun, who was in charge of scouting, also rushed back to the team.

“Crown Prince, we secretly investigated those villages and found nothing unusual.”

The crown prince had long been numb to such findings.

“Okay, hard work, let’s stop here for today, you guys rest first, just leave the vigilance to my men.”

Chapter 2877

The night in the deep mountains is beautiful, away from the pollution of the city, and the stars are much clearer.

The prince did not sleep, he just leaned on the tree branch long, while responsible for vigilance around, while enjoying this rare beauty, or he was too preoccupied to sleep it.

It seems that for the first time in his life, he was worldly because he was worried about a person.

“Really childish, being swept away also do not know to leave some clues, let us run around like headless flies.”

After spitting a word to himself, he was about to close his eyes to rest, when a soft call came from Fei under the tree.

“Boss, we shot some game, want to come down and try it.”

The prince’s nose twitched, smelling the fragrance of roasted meat in the air, he directly spit out the bamboo leaves on his mouth, a vertical body will be more than ten meters high from the branches of the tree landed steadily.

“Tonight it will be hard for you to guard, must not take it lightly, sister-in-law is still in the team.”

After the prince admonished a sentence, took the roasted rabbit meat open mouth is a bite.

“Not bad, just a bit of wood, if

The words have not finished, the prince instantly stopped, the men were just about to ask, they saw the prince made a gesture of forbidden body, the silence, only the crackling sound of burning flames.

Not long after, a rustling sound came from not far away.

The sniper’s squad was out of Tong Jun, and the others were lightly armed with only pistols, and after hearing the noise, several people immediately pulled out their waist pistols, and the black muzzle of the robbery was gathered in the direction of the noise.

In the bright moonlight, a figure slowly pa*sed out of the full woods, slowly towards the Prince and his party.

“Stand still, what man!”

“Amitabha Buddha! Prince monk, long time no see!”

Hearing this familiar voice, the crown prince first froze, and then his eyes lit up.

“My Cao, you’re Little Baldy!”

After the visitor approached, the firelight also shone clearly on his cheeks, it was none other than the little sama Watanabe who had not been seen for a long time.

“Hurry up and put away all the guns, old acquaintances.”

It is indeed a happy thing to meet an old friend in another country, the old Kyoto parting has now pa*sed almost half a year.

The prince with a face full of smiles, dragged the ferry disease, came to the campfire.

“Little baldy, how come you are on this side of Da Qu?”

“Amitabha Buddha, my monk traveled all the way south and saw that the villagers here were suffering, sick without good medicine, life and death were up to heaven, so I stayed here for a while.”

The prince took a look at the empty feet of Du Qi and the thin and tattered plain clothes, and froze:

“Walked all the way here?”

Watanabe did not speak, just calmly nodded.

The prince couldn’t help but roll his eyes: “You little bald guy, why are you still so deadheaded.”

Although he admired this transcendent mortal spirit of Watanabe, it still did not hinder his spiteful heart.

“Right little bald head, my big brother Lin Mo did not give you a set, of outer clothing, why do not you wear.

Intend to keep as a family heirloom?”

Mentioned at this point, Watanabe revealed a faint smile, and then unhurriedly took off the faded package behind.

“Lin Shiyi’s kindness, the little monk has been carrying it with him!”

The prince saw the new and clean set of plain clothes and cotton jacket and laughed bitterly: “Then you put it on instead.”

“The warmth of the heart is enough, the hot and cold of the body is just to refine the heart and practice!”

After showing the brand new jacket, Watanabe carefully folded it flat and then rewrapped it.

The prince also knows that the character of the ferry disease, even Lin Mo can not persuade let alone him.

Thinking about this the prince, directly changed the subject.

“Little baldy, how did you find us?”

Watanabe bluntly returned: “Listen to the hunters in the village said that inside the mountain came a group of bandits who came outside to exploit them

Chapter 2878

As it turns out, Watanabe was just wandering between villages in the mountains, performing the task of healing and removing diseases, but on the way, he heard someone say that a group of city people had come to poison them.

Watanabe then thought to come to persuade some, hope that these people to perform compa*sion, unexpectedly is to meet the Prince and his party.

Talking about this topic, the prince frowned, slowly will Lin Mo missing matter, as well as people searching for traces of the matter and Du Qi repeated a wave.

After listening to that, the original calm face, there was a hint of the unusual expression, just quickly disappeared again.

“Amitabha Buddha, I think the crown prince monk you are looking in the wrong direction.”

“In this big mountain, the strongest ones are those hunters, it is impossible to swipe away the Lin monk.”

He had been in the mountain for a few months, and he knew the villages very well, a group of villagers who were not clothed or fed in the mountain, and there were no experts at all.

On their state, want to plunder Lin Mo, it is still impossible to do.

“Cao, what then, is big brother really swept abroad to come.”

With no results in the mountains and no news within the city, the crown prince's gaze couldn't help but shift to outside the country.

"Almighty, calm down a moment, if there is a place near Da Qu that can take away Master Lin without a sound, perhaps there is only one place."

When the prince heard this, his eyes lit up, "Where?"

"Bashar Divine Mountain!"

"What?"

The prince has lived these twenty years, or the first time to hear this this place.

"Little baldy, what is this Barsha divine Mountain again?"

"The specific situation, I'm not too clear, before I just heard the master is said.

Only know that it is rumored that above the divine mountain, are independent of the world's experts, however, although they are strong, but rarely contact with the outside world."

Waiting for Du Qi to finish, the crown prince's brow tightly wrinkled into a ball, could it be that Lin Mo's disappearance is really related to this power called Bashar divine Mountain.

"No matter, when the time comes to go and see, we will know."

"Little baldy, do you know the way over there?"

Watanabe nodded.

"That's fine, let's go over there first thing in the morning."

Since there is no clue in the middle of the mountain, then let's go over there and see, if there is no result in, then we can only listen to the fate of God.

The next day early in the morning.

The prince will take the ferry disease to find Xu Hanxia, will explain the situation, a few people immediately agreed, the troops directly out of the mountain.

There was an update on the search here, and the prince contacted Zhao Nan Yue by phone at the same time.

"Basha divine Mountain?"

This place Zhao Nan Yue also knows, but this place is uncontested, transcendent and independent, Lin Mo and they also do not have any interactions, the other party can not make a move against Lin Mo ah.

"All right, since there is no result within the mountain, you guys can go over there and take a look, but it is said that the divine mountain has people who guard the realm.

You guys should be careful in all things when you go over there."

The higher the martial arts realm, the higher the eyesight, the same scruples are naturally more, Zhao Nan Yue although he knows the existence of the Bashar divine Mountain, but has never been there, if it provokes the big man over there, even he, the patriarch's can't eat.

After hanging up the phone, Master Zhao took the opportunity to speed up the construction of the Martial Union to increase its manpower again, and its detectives kept thinking about the direction of Da Qu neighboring countries.

He is also very anxious about the disappearance of Lin Mo, Lin Mo is not only his old friend's closed door himself, but also has a life-saving grace to him, if he can not find Lin Mo as soon as possible, he is also sleepless.

On the other hand, the crown prince immediately finished packing up the equipment, with Xu Hanxia, A Fei and other people also towards the destination in a hurry.

Just they do not know that a storm is slowly brewing.

Chapter 2880

Inside the palace of King Wanxiang.

At this time out in the center of the storm, the new king consort, is kneeling on both knees, patiently to the king Jiayuan I rubbed feet.

If Lin Mo once again a glance will be able to recognize that this woman is the Yin Xiao Boa, the only bloodline of the Pan Yang Yin family, who jumped into the sea and fled at the beginning.

"Ah, this kind of thing, just leave it to the underlings to do a good job.

Why do you have to work so hard?"

Jiayuan I looked at the tired and sweaty royal concubine in front of him and said heartily.

In terms of face value, the royal harem casually find a, even if the older princess can throw her 18 streets, and let Jia Yuan I is moved by the woman's heart for her.

The first time they met, with the royal royal doctor behind the apprentice, once she heard her lower limbs accumulated bruises need to be released, she did not hesitate to kneel on his body, with the mouth personally for him to suck bruises.

This kneeling, at the same time also kneeling in the heart of Jiayuan I, even though the minister prince has been persuaded by this daughter's unknown origin, he gave up the intention to establish a concubine.

A sixth prince from the sea to pick up the woman's feet are not known, how to let afford such an honor.

However, he still argued with the public and announced the establishment of Yin Xiao Boa as the princess.

Yin Xiao Boa wiped the beads of sweat on her forehead, looked up and the king looked at each other, and then smiled sweetly.

“It’s okay, that group of subordinates are clumsy, I don’t feel comfortable with them.”

After complaining, she continued the ma*sage movements on her hands.

“Your Majesty, ah, you call this just need to let him activate more blood, so that the can make it heal faster.”

Jiayuan I looked at her gentle eyes, a warmth suddenly surged in his heart, only shortly after, he put away his smile and sighed long.

“Eh, can’t get well, my own body, I know myself, the person who is dying is just, time is not long.”

Yin Xiao Boa looked up with a sad glance at the king: “Hmph, net nonsense, the country’s ten thousand miles of rivers and mountains, but also rely on you to grow stronger and stronger.”

“You can’t say these unlucky words.”

Jiayuan I frowned, and the haze on his face was a little less, this little wife’s form was extraordinarily lethal to him.

“Come, you do come beside this king.”

Yin Xiao Boa is unknown, twisted the luscious body to sit over obediently.

“Eh, this rivers and mountains, this country, perhaps only you sincerely hope that this king will live a few more years.”

“Your Majesty how is this possible, you still have so many excellent princes, and so many powerful ministers.

They all wish you a long life, no, a long life.”

“Hahahahaha!”

Jiayuan I laughed out loud as he wrapped his arm around Yin Xiao Boa’s thin waist.

“They? Oh, it’s good enough that they don’t expect me to return to the West soon.”

The original laughter had a few more hints of icy murderousness in it, but it disappeared again after just a blur.

As the king, he others know more about the cold-blooded and ruthless, a royal family is as deep as the sea, their own throne is how to come, he remembered clearly, which of the generations of kings is not stepping on the corpses of thousands of people to climb up it.

Deeply inhaled a straight breath, Jiayuan I calmed down his emotions.

“Concubine, speaking of this matter, who do you think is the most suitable among all the princes to take over my throne?”

Yin Xiao Boa's heart suddenly startled, after forcibly controlling his panicked emotions, he pursed his lips.

"In terms of personal feelings, I naturally want the sixth prince to take over, after all, she has saved my life."

"But the matter of the country involves millions of nationals, and the matter of the head of a country is too much.

So from the national level, boa can only say, I don't know either, huh?"

"How about, Your Majesty take me to introduce and introduce, and then I will advise Your Majesty?"

After saying that, Yin Xiao Boa spat her tongue mischievously.
