

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2709-When had Evie suffered such a grievance? She had never met such an unreasonable person.

She was so worried that she almost cried.

The young man seemed to enjoy dominating her.

Seeing Evie's charming appearance made his heart itch even more.

He vowed that he must get the Elven woman in front of him.

He wanted to bring her back no matter J the cost.

David could not stand this anymore.

However, he also got a lot of useful information from Evie's conversation with the young man.

One was that the Elves were not doing very well.

The Elven Princess could not do anything even when she was harassed on the Elves' territory, and this explained the problem.

If the Elves were stronger than the other side, who would dare to act so recklessly here? After learning that Leila only had ve Overlords, David felt no pressure at all.

No matter what power was behind the young man, he was not afraid.

At most, they only had one Overlord.

David was not even afraid of Heavenly Overlord Lu an, so the other should not even think about threatening him.

Just when David was about to speak, he suddenly sensed the arrival of someone else.

So, he swallowed his words again.

He wanted to see how many people would come today.

Anyone who dared to bully Evie would suffer and he would take them all down in one fell swoop.

At this time, a voice came from far away.

"Lyle, what are you doing here?" Upon hearing this voice, the young man who had just spoken to Evie was shocked and quickly looked up to the source of the voice.

He saw a team of 30 people approaching.

After seeing the leader clearly, the young man's heart trembled and he quickly greeted him, "Greetings, Ambrose." The other team had 10 more people than the young man had.

It meant that the statuses of the two people were not on the same level.

Bringing 30 people into the Elven Forest was already the limit of the number of people specified by the Elves.

It showed that behind this person was one of the top forces in Leila, and it was also the one that the Elves valued most.

When he saw Evie, the eyes of the man known as Ambrose lit up.

He thought to himself, "What a beautiful Elven woman.

'Although all Elven women are not bad in appearance, the one in front of me is a level higher than other Elven women.' "Lyle, what's going on? Are you in trouble?" Ambrose turned his attention to the young man and asked.

"Ambrose, I didn't encounter any trouble.

I just stopped here for a while.

I didn't expect to run into you here," Lyle replied with a smile on his face.

"Lyle, it seems you're lying to me." Ambrose smiled.

Seeing this smile, Lyle's heart shook again.

He replied, "A- Ambrose, I-I just came back from the Grand Canyon and I ran into these two people.

After learning that the Elven woman was untouched, I wanted to take her back, but she didn't agree, so we had a stalemate here.

I was about to take her to see the Elven Queen." Lyle did not dare to hide anything from Ambrose, the heir of one of Leila's top forces, the Loughy family.

He could not afford to offend him.

Even though the power behind him was only slightly different from that of the Loughy family, the difference was still miles apart.

It meant that the Loughy family had a strong partial Overlord in charge, while Lyle's family, the Berlin family, did not.

One must know that a partial Overlord could easily destroy other forces that did not have a partial Overlord.

That was the difference.

At the same time, Lyle also thought sadly.
