A Man Like None Other Chapter 2941-“Where am I?” Jared was slightly dazed.

Soon, Mason’s figure appeared and comforted Jared, “Mr. Chance, don’t be afraid. This is my nascence space.”

The initially dim space began to quiver, and clusters of radiant light slowly rose up.

Jared noticed that some rooms inside the palace were filled with multicolored lights, while others were just gray.

“What I’ve comprehended is the ice nascence. Those multicolored lights are nascence aura, while those gray rooms are still lacking nascence aura,” Mason explained to Jared.

“Mr. Mason, have you already broken through the realm of Tribulator and advanced to Ultimate Realm?” Jared asked in astonishment.

Mason shook his head. “I haven’t broken through the realm of Tribulator yet. However, I’ve comprehended ice nascence in advance. Still, after so many years of hard work, I only managed to refine this little amount of nascence aura. I hope when I break through the realm of Tribulator, I can fill up my nascence space. I wish to expand my nascence space, making it as vast as a city. That would be ideal.”

“Mr. Mason, does everyone’s nascence space take the form of a palace?” Jared wondered if a cultivator’s nascence space was like their elixir field, uniform for every individual.

“Of course not. The spaces formed from comprehending nascence vary. Some take the form of an ocean, some ponds, and others might just be small houses. Not every cultivator who grasps nascence space is formidable. It also depends on the size of the nascence space. The larger the nascence space, the greater one’s potential and future achievement,” Mason elaborated.

“In that case, does everyone comprehend a different nascence?” Jared continued asking curiously.

“Yes. There are many types of nascence, such as ice, fire, water, thunder, lightning, and so on. What kind of nascence one can grasp depends on their comprehension ability.”

“Can one person grasp multiple nascences, then?” Jared asked again.

“Absolutely. There are those who comprehend two, three, or even five nascences. The more nascences one grasps, the greater their accomplishments. That’s something beyond doubt. However, it’s difficult for some people to comprehend even one nascence, let alone many.”

“Mr. Mason, what about the nascence aura you mentioned? What type of nascence is that?”

Jared was intrigued. What is the type of nascence aura emanating from the Golden Tome?

Mason furrowed his brows. “I only know it’s nascence aura, but I’m not sure which one. Don’t you know the nascence aura within your own body?” Mason was perplexed. How could he not know his own nascence aura?

“I…” Jared appeared somewhat embarrassed. “I also don’t know where that aura came from just now.”

Mason gazed at Jared with his eyebrows raised. “Your body is indeed peculiar. It’s one thing for you to possess the Power of Dragons as Golden Dragon’s True Form, but you also carry this unique aura within you! You have the auras belonging to the human race, demons, and even the beast race. Now, there’s even a nascence aura in your body. I really don’t know how to describe you.”

Jared couldn’t help but knit his brows. “Mr. Mason, y-you know who I am?”

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2942-Jared was completely stunned after listening to Mason’s speech.

“Is this all premeditated for the sake of deceiving me?” Jared was baffled.

“We’re not trying to deceive you. We merely wanted to exploit your identity. Since you can refine the demonic fire, that is a fatal threat to the demons. In fact, the far north isn’t as peaceful as it seems. There are many demons roaming about, and there is also the presence of some secret organizations. It’s just that the most widely known factions here are the Tall family and the Archaic Body Cultivation clan. Now, there are signs that the demons intend to rule over the entire far north. Therefore, we must find a way to curb the expansion of the demons’ influence, and you happen to be the perfect pawn to suppress the demons!” Mason came clean, even telling Jared the truth that he was a mere pawn.

“Mr. Mason, I don’t understand. Your strength far surpasses mine, so why don’t you personally lead a team to eradicate the demons at their stronghold?”

Jared failed to wrap his mind around the situation. Mr. Mason is so powerful, and there are countless experts in the Tall family, so why doesn’t he just lead them to wipe out the demons?

“Do you think eradicating the demons is that simple? These demons hide in the shadows while we operate openly. It’s almost impossible to get rid of them fully. The treasure hunt this time can not only attract many cultivators, but it can also spur those demons into action. After all, these cultivators can be turned into cultivating resources for the demons. I believe Inferno Devil will definitely be restless upon sensing so many human cultivators in the far north.”

It sounded to Jared as if Mason had already discussed the plan with the Archaic Body cultivators. Most of the cultivators that come to the far north are just baits to lure out the demons. Although this method adopted by Mason and the Archaic Body cultivators is somewhat cruel, those cultivators have no choice but to take the risk if they want to acquire resources in Ethereal Realm!

“What is the relationship between the countess of Jipsdale and the Archaic Body cultivators? Who is she?” Jared asked Mason.

When Jared asked Roman about that previously, the latter had refused to tell him.

He directed the same question at Mason, figuring he should probably know as well.

“I think it’s best if you ask the countess of Jipsdale in person regarding this matter.” Mason flashed a faint smile, then waved his hand, bringing Jared out of the nascence space.

The conversation with Mason deepened Jared’s understanding of the far north.

After leaving, Jared was lost in deep thought. It seems imperative for me to enhance my capabilities as soon as possible. Otherwise, I’ll face a tough time ahead when dealing with stronger opponents in the future! Fortunately, Mason isn’t evil. If he truly intended to target us, we wouldn’t stand a chance against him, considering the great disparity in our cultivation levels.

By the time he got back to his residence, the sky had turned dark.

Feenix was already waiting for Jared impatiently on the bed. Upon seeing his return, she said, “Master, I know you’ve been exhausted. Let me serve you and help you recover.”

Feenix planned to cultivate with Jared via copulation to aid Jared’s swift recuperation.

Leering at her fair figure, he abruptly lunged at her.

Amidst their intimacy, Jared realized there was another person there. Aislin was also present, but he didn’t notice her earlier.

Without a second thought, he engaged in coitus with both girls, slowly regaining his strength.

That night, Jared felt thoroughly rejuvenated. Feenix, too, seemed invigorated and was in high spirits.

Aislin, on the other hand, struggled to keep up as that was her first time.

The next morning, Feenix chirped, “Master, you should have been more considerate of Aislin. Look at her. She can’t even get up now.”

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2943-“Okay, stop messing around. You two need to focus on your cultivation. With your current strength, you won’t be able to move around in the Ethereal Realm. Since the Tall residence is still relatively safe, you should hurry up with your training. I’ve got a few heavenly thunder fruits here. Each of you can have one. It should give you a significant boost,” Jared said, handing over two heavenly thunder fruits to them.

“Heavenly thunder fruits? Aren’t those only found on Thunderhawk’s heavenly thunder tree?” Feenix asked in surprise. “Master, how did you get your hands on them? Thunderhawk treasures them dearly.”

“You’re familiar with heavenly thunder fruits?” Jared was slightly taken aback. How did Feenix know about heavenly thunder fruits?

“Master, have you forgotten that I originally belonged to the Ethereal Realm? After making a mistake, I was banished to the mundane world, so of course I know about heavenly thunder fruits,” Feenix explained.

Realization dawned on Jared and he said, “I picked a few while Thunderhawk was away. They’re quite tricky to get.”

“Feenix, Jared’s right. We need to focus on our cultivation. With our current strength, being with Jared will only hold him back.” Aislin spoke up.

Feenix nodded. “All right, I’ll go cultivate now...”

The two girls went off to cultivate with their heavenly thunder fruits, while Jared started restoring his strength by entering a state of cultivation.

He needed to make a breakthrough as soon as possible. Otherwise, even if they found the real treasure, he was afraid he wouldn’t be able to obtain the Ice Soul Pill.

Jared first absorbed the ice soul fragments given by Mason, calming his mind and immersing himself in refining the ice soul fragments.

His absorption speed was quite fast, so this refining process didn’t take long.

While Jared and the girls were engrossed in their cultivation, hundreds of kilometers away from the Tall residence, a towering ice mountain collapsed.

In its place, a golden door adorned with runes was revealed, exuding a mysterious aura.

Gathered around the door were many cultivators.

“This must be the real treasure trove. There’s no doubt about it. Didn’t you see the missing emerald badge that is supposed to be on the door?”

“Just from the aura alone, I can feel that it’s definitely a treasure trove!”

“Who would’ve thought that the treasure trove would be beneath the ice mountain? If it weren’t for its collapse, we might never have found it.”

Everyone was discussing animatedly.

However, due to the protective arcane array on the door, only the emerald badge could unlock it.

“I have the key to open the treasure trove. Is there anyone willing to cooperate with me?”

Suddenly, a Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator spoke up.

This person was Beau, whose life had been saved by Jared. He also had an emerald badge, claiming it was the key to the treasure trove.

Upon hearing that Beau had the key, everyone gathered around.

Since many had attempted to forcibly open the door to no avail, they were all eager to see if Beau’s key would work.

“Back off...”

As people closed in on Beau, a stern voice suddenly rang out, which instantly aroused the displeasure of the crowd.

The crowd quickly turned to see five figures approaching. They were dressed in black robes with dark gold insignias embroidered on their sleeves.

Seeing these five individuals, the discontented cultivators dispersed in an instant. It was evident that they knew these five people and were afraid of them.

Among the five, a middle-aged man at the forefront spoke. “We are the Five Slayers of the Demon Seal Alliance. I am Typhon Yellow. Now hand over the key to the treasure...”

Beau looked at the middle-aged man before him, his expression tense. His face turned pale. Cold sweat instantly trickled down his forehead.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2944-The Demon Seal Alliance was an organization whose members were scattered across various corners of the Ethereal Realm. They were easily recognizable by their black robes adorned with dark gold insignias.

This alliance was founded by individuals dedicated to hunting and eliminating demons. As their ranks grew, they became a formidable force.

With the growing strength of the Demon Seal Alliance, many cultivators chose to avoid encountering them.

Labeling someone as a Demonic Cultivator was often enough to lead to their capture.

Beau was also wary of the Demon Seal Alliance. He couldn't help but feel reluctant to hand over the key he had obtained through great effort.

Seeing Beau hesitate, Typhon furrowed his brows slightly and asked, "What's the matter? You don't want to hand it over?"

"I..."

Beau struggled with the decision. Faced with the members of the Demon Seal Alliance, he knew he was utterly outmatched. If they decided to take it by force, he would have no means to resist.

Just as Beau was about to reluctantly produce the key, a frosty voice rang out.

"You people from Demon Seal Alliance really have some nerve, huh? Are you trying to snatch the key by force in broad daylight?"

A young man strolled forward, followed by a group of elderly men.

This young man was none other than Kaison, the second son of the Tall family.

Mason had sent him and Jerison for two reasons: to keep an eye on the Demonic Cultivators' movements and to search for the location of the treasure.

When Typhon spotted Kaison, he furrowed his brows and sneered, “Who are you? How dare you speak against the Demon Seal Alliance? Are you seeking death?”

“Even if I am, what can you do to me?” Kaison snorted, then turned to Beau. “Hello, I’m Kaison, the second son of the Tall family. I don’t want your key. I only hope you’ll consider working with the Tall family. Let’s look for this treasure together, shall we? You see, here in the far north, the Tall family’s power reigns supreme. It’s wise to partner with us!”

Upon learning that this young man was a representative of the Tall family, the crowd erupted into a flurry of chatter.

Beau, on the other hand, couldn’t have been more delighted. He hastily nodded.

After all, the Tall family did hold significant influence in the far north, and they were surprisingly open to collaboration with him.

Compared to the Demon Seal Alliance’s attempt to seize the key, working with the Tall family seemed far more sensible for him.

“D*mn it! You dare defy the Demon Seal Alliance? Are you courting death? What’s the Tall family got that’s so special? Once you step outside the far north, you’re just a bunch of nobodies...”

Typhon seethed with anger.

“How dare you insult the Tall family!”

Kaison, a brash and spirited young man, wasn’t about to let anyone insult the Tall family. He threw a punch.

“Hmph!”

Typhon snorted and retaliated with a powerful punch.

Boom...

Kaison’s strength fell short. He staggered back, only stopping when supported by the elders he’d brought along. Thanks to them, he managed to avoid falling to the ground.

“Hah, is that all you’ve got? How dare you act so arrogant? Back off right now, or you’ll suffer!” Typhon warned Kaison menacingly.

“Mr. Morar, beat them up. They come to the far north and act all cocky. Haven’t they heard of our strength here?” Kaison waved his hand, sending Morar, the second elder of the family whom he had brought into action.

Indeed, Kaison was no match for Typhon.

Morar nodded and leaped into the air. In an instant, he was hovering in the air, and then he delivered a mighty blow downward.

This blow carried endless frost energy, instantly freezing the air around and creating a flurry of falling snowflakes.

Seeing this, Typhon swiftly made his move. He conjured a sword in the air, and in a flash, a light shot upward.

The light pierced through the falling snowflakes, instantly dispelling the frost energy.

“Swordnado of the Five Slayers, Typhon Yellow, really lives up to his name...” Morar muttered as he descended, his eyes fixed on Typhon.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2945-“I’ve heard of you before, but I’ve never witnessed a display of your power. I want to see if you truly live up to your name,” said Morar coldly.

“Very well. Since you wish to know if I deserve the title of Swordnado, allow me to demonstrate my power!” Typhon swung his blade, creating a sword flower.

Soon after that, the void surrounding him began to tremble.

Although he had only waved his weapon, that action instantly caused tens of thousands of blades to appear in the void.

Those blades then shot toward Morar.

“Hmph! If this is the best you can do, then you don’t deserve the title of Swordnado,” Morar sneered before he formed a white shield around himself with frost energy.

At the same time, he swung his fist, causing the void to explode. That single, terrifying action was enough to turn all the blades into nothingness.

Upon seeing that, Morar smirked.

However, just as he was feeling smug, he felt as though the frost energy around him was being pierced by something. The shield unexpectedly disappeared at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“Do you really think I got the name of Swordnado for nothing?” Disdain was scribbled all over Typhon’s face.

The smirk on Morar’s face was swiftly replaced by a scowl.

Typhon’s swordsmanship was unusual. Some of the blades had come pretty close to touching Morar, but he didn’t notice it, and his shield had been shattered by the blades.

“You’re pretty good, but don’t think I’m afraid of you!” Morar shouted, then lunged at Typhon while gathering a massive amount of frost energy in his palm.

The storm of spiritual energy mixed with frost energy caused the surrounding space to be frozen.

When the people around saw that, they hastily retreated so as not to be turned into an ice block.

An ice wall began to form in the middle of the air, and it was rapidly heading toward Typhon to encircle him.

Typhon waved his sword to generate waves of heat.

Seeing that Morar was taking the fight seriously, Typhon shouted, “I have no intention of fighting the Tall family to the death, so I hope you’ll stop. If both of us got hurt, we’d be making it easier for others to snatch the treasure.”

Typhon was afraid that his conflict with the Tall family would lead to both sides suffering from severe injuries.

That would inadvertently allow others to obtain the treasure more easily.

“This is the far north, the Tall family’s territory! And you want us to stop?” Morar didn’t stop at all.

He threw punches at Typhon, his frost energy freezing many things instantly.

“Don’t just stand there and watch! Fight!” Typhon genuinely didn’t want to keep fighting Morar.

After all, they weren’t there to eliminate the Tall family but to get the treasure.

Typhon’s companions made their move, immediately cornering Morar.

Seeing that, Kaison led the other members of the Tall family into the battle.

The others who weren’t involved sprinted far away from the battleground, afraid that it would affect their lives.

Suddenly, chaos descended upon the location as different energies clashed against each other.

However, aside from Morar, none of the other members of the Tall family were a match for Typhon and his companions.

After a few minutes of exchanging blows, the Tall family was starting to lose.

Morar was the only one supporting the Tall family. If he fell, then there was a good chance that the Demon Seal Alliance would kill them.

“Just you all wait. I won’t allow anyone to bully us in the far north!” Realizing his side stood no chance against his adversary, Kaison led his family members and escaped.

“Tsk! A bunch of cowards...” Typhon spat before turning to the crowd. “Who else is unhappy with us?”

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2946-Typhon stretched out his arm. Beau immediately understood his intention and handed the emerald badge over.

That was the only way Beau could guarantee his safety. If Typhon’s team attacked, Beau would be dead.

Seeing how obedient Beau was, Typhon didn’t trouble him. He simply pressed the emerald badge into the empty spot on the gate.

The emerald badge fit perfectly into the hole. Soon, the ground trembled, and the gate leading to the treasure began to glow in gold.

Everyone retreated far away from the entrance. They didn't know if there were any traps behind this gate.

The ground shook, and the gate slowly opened. Following that, a wave of heat gushed out from within where the treasure was hidden.

Any cultivators who wished to stay at a place as freezing as the far north had to use spiritual energy to shield themselves from the weather.

An ordinary person would die quickly from the cold if they went there.

Feeling the warmth, everyone was shocked. They felt relaxed.

"What's in this treasure trove? There's even heat coming out from it." Typhon stared at the entrance from afar instead of rushing in.

"Who cares? Let's just check it out first. How dangerous can the treasure of Archaic Body cultivators be?" Woodley walked straight in.

The other four of the Five Slayers promptly joined him. When the other cultivators saw that, they also went in. Surprisingly, the Five Slayers didn't stop them.

After a moment of hesitation, Beau gritted his teeth and walked into the treasure land.

Right after he did so, over a dozen people with concealed aura appeared at the door.

They studied the entrance before entering the place as well.

Meanwhile, Kaison had returned to the Tall residence in a huff.

Mason asked, "Why are you so angry? What happened?"

"We've discovered the location of the treasure, Mason!"

"I see." Mason nodded and did not look quite excited. "If you found it, why did you come back?"

“The people from the Demon Seal Alliance demanded the key to the treasure, so we fought with them. However, they were too strong, and we lost. Where’s Mr. Ambrose, Mason? I need to bring more men over so I can destroy those b*stards from the Demon Seal Alliance! This is our turf! I won’t allow them to flaunt their might here!” Kaison said through gritted teeth, desperate to restore his dignity.

Mason stared at Kaison coldly before furrowing his eyebrows. “Can you be a little smarter? Will it kill you to stop murdering people and playing with women all day? In any case, I want you to stay at home for now. Once Mr. Chance recovers, lead him to the treasure.”

“Mr. Chance? What Mr. Chance?” Kaison was flabbergasted because he had never seen his brother refer to another individual with such respect before.

“The two women you captured are Mr. Chance’s friends. If Quinn hadn’t stopped you in time, you would’ve brought a lot of trouble to our family. Once Mr. Chance awakes from his cultivation, I want you to apologize to him earnestly. Even though you two are peers, he’s so much better than you. You should be ashamed of yourself,” Mason reprimanded.

Kaison wasn’t happy with that arrangement, but he dared not show it on his face. “Understood...”

“Go on now and cultivate. Look at yourself. Your cultivation pace is no faster than a snail’s. So many resources have been wasted on you.” Mason waved his hand.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2947-Jared, who was cultivating in the courtyard of the Tall residence, exhaled and slowly opened his eyes.

“Now that I’ve finished absorbing the ice soul fragment, the heavenly thunder fruit is next.”

The speed at which he absorbed the ice soul fragment was faster than anyone else, yet he still thought it was too slow.

At that moment, he felt weak and was desperate to increase his power as quickly as possible.

However, each minor cultivation level he achieved required thousands of times more resources than others. and that greatly troubled him.

Even though his body was incredibly tough and the object of envy to many, the resources he required to grow stronger were some of his biggest obstacles.

If he relied only on absorbing the spiritual energy in the environment, it might take him forever to reach another minor cultivation level.

Upon scanning his environment, he noticed Feenix and Aislin were still in the midst of cultivation. A single heavenly thunder fruit was enough for them to cultivate for around ten days.

However, the number of levels they could achieve with the help of the heavenly thunder fruit would depend on their talents.

Feenix would likely break through many levels. After all, she was a celestial beast from Ethereal Realm. She was only weakened because she was thrown into the mundane world.

If she wished to strengthen herself, she could do so quickly.

“I wonder if this heavenly thunder fruit can help me reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm.” Jared felt uneasy.

If he could become a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator, he wouldn't need to escape from Lynette should they meet again. In fact, he would be able to face Lynette and fight her head-on.

With that thought in mind, he pulled out the heavenly thunder fruit.

He could have absorbed all three of the heavenly thunder fruits. However, he would be depriving Feenix and Aislin of their opportunity to grow stronger.

Ethereal Realm was a place littered with danger. If Feenix and Aislin failed to increase their power, their lives would be threatened.

Even a random, insignificant cultivator could easily defeat them.

Jared couldn't protect them at all times. To decrease the likelihood of them getting hurt, he had allowed the two of them to absorb the heavenly thunder fruits to enhance their strength.

He stared at the heavenly thunder fruit in his palm. Arcs of electricity could be seen jumping on it, and he could feel the power of lightning swirling within it.

A moment later, Jared took a bite of the fruit.

If anyone witnessed that scene, they would be startled because that was practically an act of suicide.

Heavenly thunder fruit was a type of resource that needed to be absorbed slowly. If anyone else attempted Jared's method, they would likely die because their bodies couldn't handle a sudden influx of power.

Feenix and Aislin had been absorbing power from the heavenly thunder fruits for a long time. Yet, the heavenly thunder fruits had only just shrunk a little.

Jared didn't want to waste any more time. He was confident his cultivation and body could handle the raw power of the heavenly thunder fruit. That was why he consumed it as such.

Thunderhawk would probably be furious if he saw Jared eating the heavenly thunder fruit as though it were an ordinary apple.

After Jared finished the entire heavenly thunder fruit, he felt his head explode.

Arcs of electricity began to dance on his body.

He stared at his hands and saw the power of lightning being continuously emitted from his palms.

Lightning could be seen crackling above the courtyard Jared was staying in.

That unusual phenomenon attracted the attention of many members of the Tall family.

"What's going on? Why are we seeing the power of lightning here?"

"Yeah! I haven't seen this in many years!"

"I've only ever witnessed snowy weather. I don't think I've seen this before, but it's pretty."

The members of the Tall family began discussing the strange phenomenon in the sky.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2948-Unbeknownst to Mason, his guess was absolutely correct. Jared had eaten the heavenly thunder fruit directly instead of absorbing its power slowly.

“I wonder if I can open my own nascence space with the power of the heavenly thunder fruit.” After Jared learned about nascence aura, he desperately wanted his own nascence space.

However, as much as he wanted to comprehend nascence aura, he was only a Body Fusion Realm cultivator. It would be no easy feat for him to achieve.

Tribulator cultivators who could create a nascence space were exceptionally talented and extremely rare.

If Jared could accomplish that while only being a Body Fusion Realm cultivator, he would be considered a genius among geniuses.

Jared calmed himself down as he felt the power of lightning within his body that was once contained inside the heavenly thunder fruit. If only I could gain the ability to create nascence space! If I can't, well, I guess I'll continue cultivating. It's not like I have to do it right now.

As he dived into his consciousness field, he gazed at the Golden Tome. He hoped that the Golden Tome would activate and help him in earning the ability to create nascence space.

However, no matter how hard he tried, it didn't work, and the Golden Tome remained unmoving.

“Maybe it's because my cultivation is still too low to learn this power...”

Seeing that he couldn't succeed, Jared began cultivating again. Let's see if I can reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm now!

The power of lightning was continuously refined by Jared's Focus Technique.

As he did so, clouds began to gather above him.

The clouds were heavy and the thunder and lightning were loud and clear. The tremor seemed to shake the entire Tall residence. In the clouds, arcs of electricity shot through them as though they were preparing for something.

“What is this? Is a Demonic Cultivator sneaking up on us?”

“This is terrifying! Is it really a demon?”

“This is a lightning tribulation! Someone’s about to achieve a breakthrough!”

“Who? Whose breakthrough resulted in such terrifying lightning tribulation? Is it Mr. Mason?”

The Tall family members were shocked.

Kaison was in a bad mood after being scolded by Mason, so he was drinking in his courtyard.

When he saw the terrifying lightning tribulation clouds above the Tall residence, he was startled. “Is Mason about to reach a breakthrough?”

Kaison didn’t know who was about to make a breakthrough that there would be such a terrifying lightning tribulation.

He hurried to Mason’s courtyard. If it really is Mason, then this is good news! He hasn’t made a breakthrough in many years!

Upon arriving at Mason’s courtyard, Kaison shouted excitedly, “Mason! Did you—”

At that moment, he noticed Mason exiting his room.

Realizing Mason wasn’t the one achieving the breakthrough, Kaison was stunned. “Mason, who in our family is achieving a breakthrough? What’s with all the commotion?”

Mason glanced at the lightning tribulation clouds and said, “It’s Mr. Chance...”

“Mr. Chance? What is his cultivation level? Is he ascending to Tribulator from Body Fusion Realm?” Kaison was puzzled.

Mason shook his head. “He’s only a Third Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator. Right now, he should be breaking through to Fourth Level.”

“What?” Kaison was in disbelief. “That’s impossible! How can the ascension from Third Level to Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm be this dramatic? I don’t believe it!”

“It’s your choice whether to believe it or not. Don’t assume others share the same opinion as you. Also, don’t think I don’t know you’ve been drinking all day instead of cultivating.” Mason glowered at Kaison.

Kaison was so frightened that he scurried away.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2949-Right after Kaison left, Mason turned his gaze toward the lightning tribulation clouds gathering above Jared.

“What strange lightning tribulation clouds. Could it be...”

Suddenly, his eyes sparkled.

“Mr. Ambrose!” he shouted.

Ambrose quickly appeared before Mason anxiously. “What’s the matter, Mr. Mason?”

It was the first time Ambrose had seen Mason being that excited.

“Tell everyone to get out of their room right now and head to the courtyard! A great opportunity has come!” Mason was so excited that his body was trembling slightly.

Dumbstruck, Ambrose asked in a small voice, “What do you mean, Mr. Mason?”

“Just do as I say! You’ll know soon enough. Quick!”

Soon, Ambrose had everyone stand in the courtyard.

Kaison was no exception. He grumbled, “Is Mason crazy? Why can’t we stay inside our rooms? Also, why does he keep saying a great opportunity has come?”

Other members of the Tall family were wondering about the same thing. They didn’t understand what Mason meant by a great opportunity.

Just as the crowd was discussing, they heard an explosion.

Boom!

The first heavenly thunder could be heard from the lightning tribulation clouds, followed by a flash of lightning that struck Jared's courtyard.

Everyone's heart trembled slightly when they witnessed that lightning tribulation.

When the first lightning tribulation struck, Jared opened his eyes and rose into the air.

The lightning tribulation struck Jared's body, causing golden light to flash all around him.

The second lightning tribulation hit him immediately after the first, not giving him the slightest chance to catch his breath.

That one tore Jared's clothes into pieces, revealing his body that was covered in a layer of golden scales.

Jared had activated Golem Body because he knew that many more lightning tribulations were waiting for him.

If he couldn't survive it, his efforts would be for naught. Not only would he fail to grow stronger, he might even be injured.

Each lightning tribulation that struck Jared was more powerful than the last.

Yet, as Jared floated in midair, there was no fear in his eyes.

"T-This is ridiculous! How many lightning tribulations have he endured at this point?"

"Nine. I counted. This is his ninth lightning tribulation!"

"Oh my god! Even a Tribulator cultivator can't withstand nine lightning tribulations! This guy's insane!"

The Tall family members discussed the scene before them, envious of Jared's tough body.

Kaison, who had looked down on Jared, lifted his gaze. Admiration swirled in his eyes as he watched Jared endure the lightning tribulations without fear.

Mason smiled, looking at Jared wordlessly.

“One more. There’s still one more lightning tribulation. I’m sure you can fight it,” Mason mumbled.

Right as he said that, the tenth lightning tribulation struck Jared.

At that moment, Jared’s body began to shake.

The crowd’s mouths were wide open as they watched in disbelief. Ten lightning tribulations! This is insane!

The last lightning tribulation was especially vicious because the bolt was as thick as a trunk. It was unlikely that anyone in the crowd could survive that.

However, Jared did. Despite the trembling of his body, he still endured the last lightning tribulation.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2950-Just as the crowd looked at Jared in shock, someone detected a drop of rain on their cheek.

“It’s raining?”

“What? This is the far north. The only weather we have here is snow!”

“It really is raining!”

“It’s raining! Look! It’s raining!”

Suddenly, it began to drizzle.

The Tall family members were startled because none of them had witnessed rain before. After all, the weather there was so cold that any water in the sky would’ve turned into snowflakes when it hit the ground.

“What’s going on? How can it be raining?” Kaison stretched out his hand to catch a raindrop in confusion.

However, when the raindrop fell on his palm, it vanished instantly. He felt the spiritual energy in his body moving.

“This is...” Kaison widened his eyes in disbelief.

At that moment, Mason flew into the air and faced his family. “This is what I meant by a great opportunity. What you see before you isn’t rain. It’s spiritual water. It's spiritual energy condensed into liquid. This spiritual water is thousands of times more powerful than spiritual energy. Heed my words, members of the Tall family. Initiate your cultivation immediately and absorb this rare spiritual water."

Only then did the Tall family members understand why it was raining.

It turned out that the liquid falling from the sky wasn't ordinary water but spiritual water. No matter how cold the temperature was, the spiritual water would never turn into snow.

The Tall family members promptly sat down and began cultivating, absorbing the spiritual water falling from the sky.

Everyone's strength soared at a meteoric rate as they absorbed the drizzling spiritual water. Even the ones who were injured were recovering rapidly.

Mason watched his family members grow stronger at high speed and grinned with satisfaction.

"To think a Third Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator can summon ten lightning tribulations and cause spiritual water to rain from the sky. What a miracle this is," Mason said, looking up at Jared.

When he did, he was stunned because the lightning tribulation clouds didn't disappear.

In fact, the clouds were getting thicker.

"What's going on?" Mason frowned, slightly panicking. "Are there more lightning tribulations to follow?" I don't understand. Jared has survived ten lightning tribulations. Why are the clouds still around? Does this mean there's an eleventh lightning tribulation? That doesn't seem likely. Even if a Tribulator cultivator like me reaches Ultimate Realm, I still won't attract eleven lightning tribulations. This is ridiculous!

Upon sensing the power concealed within the lightning tribulation clouds, Mason quickly retreated far, far away from Jared.

At that moment, Jared was still floating in midair and feeling restless inside.

He had endured ten lightning tribulations, but he had yet to reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm.

And now that the lightning tribulation clouds hadn't dispersed, he wondered if there were more lightning tribulations.

He knew he would not be able to endure it if he had to withstand one more lightning tribulation.

After all, he had barely survived the tenth lightning tribulation.

At that point, he was exhausted, and Golem Body had been destroyed during the tenth lightning tribulation.

If there was an eleventh lightning tribulation, he would be turned into ash.

Godd*mmmit! Are the heavens trying to kill me? I didn't expect this breakthrough of mine to attract such powerful lightning tribulations!

Mason could tell that Jared was exhausted. He lifted his palm into the air and enveloped Jared in a powerful aura.

When Jared lowered his head, he saw Mason helping him.

With Mason's assistance, Jared regained some confidence. Although receiving external support during a lightning tribulation would cause the benefits to decrease, it was still better than dying.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2942-Jared was completely stunned after listening to Mason's speech.

"Is this all premeditated for the sake of deceiving me?" Jared was baffled.

"We're not trying to deceive you. We merely wanted to exploit your identity. Since you can refine the demonic fire, that is a fatal threat to the demons. In fact, the far north isn't as peaceful as it seems. There are many demons roaming about, and there is also the presence of some secret organizations. It's just that the most widely known factions here are the Tall family and the Archaic Body Cultivation clan. Now, there are signs that the demons intend to rule over the entire far north. Therefore, we must find a way to curb the expansion of the demons' influence, and you happen to be the perfect pawn to suppress the demons!" Mason came clean, even telling Jared the truth that he was a mere pawn.

"Mr. Mason, I don't understand. Your strength far surpasses mine, so why don't you personally lead a team to eradicate the demons at their stronghold?"

Jared failed to wrap his mind around the situation. Mr. Mason is so powerful, and there are countless experts in the Tall family, so why doesn't he just lead them to wipe out the demons?

"Do you think eradicating the demons is that simple? These demons hide in the shadows while we operate openly. It's almost impossible to get rid of them fully. The treasure hunt this time can not only attract many cultivators, but it can also spur those demons into action. After all, these cultivators can be turned into cultivating resources for the demons. I believe Inferno Devil will definitely be restless upon sensing so many human cultivators in the far north."

It sounded to Jared as if Mason had already discussed the plan with the Archaic Body cultivators. Most of the cultivators that come to the far north are just baits to lure out the demons. Although this method adopted by Mason and the Archaic Body cultivators is somewhat cruel, those cultivators have no choice but to take the risk if they want to acquire resources in Ethereal Realm!

"What is the relationship between the countess of Jipsdale and the Archaic Body cultivators? Who is she?" Jared asked Mason.

When Jared asked Roman about that previously, the latter had refused to tell him.

He directed the same question at Mason, figuring he should probably know as well.

"I think it's best if you ask the countess of Jipsdale in person regarding this matter." Mason flashed a faint smile, then waved his hand, bringing Jared out of the nascence space.

The conversation with Mason deepened Jared's understanding of the far north.

After leaving, Jared was lost in deep thought. It seems imperative for me to enhance my capabilities as soon as possible. Otherwise, I'll face a tough time ahead when dealing with stronger opponents in the future! Fortunately, Mason isn't evil. If he truly intended to target us, we wouldn't stand a chance against him, considering the great disparity in our cultivation levels.

By the time he got back to his residence, the sky had turned dark.

Feenix was already waiting for Jared impatiently on the bed. Upon seeing his return, she said, "Master, I know you've been exhausted. Let me serve you and help you recover."

Feenix planned to cultivate with Jared via copulation to aid Jared's swift recuperation.

Leering at her fair figure, he abruptly lunged at her.

Amidst their intimacy, Jared realized there was another person there. Aislin was also present, but he didn't notice her earlier.

Without a second thought, he engaged in coitus with both girls, slowly regaining his strength.

That night, Jared felt thoroughly rejuvenated. Feenix, too, seemed invigorated and was in high spirits.

Aislin, on the other hand, struggled to keep up as that was her first time.

The next morning, Feenix chirped, "Master, you should have been more considerate of Aislin. Look at her. She can't even get up now."

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2943-"Okay, stop messing around. You two need to focus on your cultivation. With your current strength, you won't be able to move around in the Ethereal Realm. Since the Tall residence is still relatively safe, you should hurry up with your training. I've got a few heavenly thunder fruits here. Each of you can have one. It should give you a significant boost," Jared said, handing over two heavenly thunder fruits to them.

"Heavenly thunder fruits? Aren't those only found on Thunderhawk's heavenly thunder tree?" Feenix asked in surprise. "Master, how did you get your hands on them? Thunderhawk treasures them dearly."

“You’re familiar with heavenly thunder fruits?” Jared was slightly taken aback. How did Feenix know about heavenly thunder fruits?

“Master, have you forgotten that I originally belonged to the Ethereal Realm? After making a mistake, I was banished to the mundane world, so of course I know about heavenly thunder fruits,” Feenix explained.

Realization dawned on Jared and he said, “I picked a few while Thunderhawk was away. They’re quite tricky to get.”

“Feenix, Jared’s right. We need to focus on our cultivation. With our current strength, being with Jared will only hold him back.” Aislin spoke up.

Feenix nodded. “All right, I’ll go cultivate now...”

The two girls went off to cultivate with their heavenly thunder fruits, while Jared started restoring his strength by entering a state of cultivation.

He needed to make a breakthrough as soon as possible. Otherwise, even if they found the real treasure, he was afraid he wouldn’t be able to obtain the Ice Soul Pill.

Jared first absorbed the ice soul fragments given by Mason, calming his mind and immersing himself in refining the ice soul fragments.

His absorption speed was quite fast, so this refining process didn’t take long.

While Jared and the girls were engrossed in their cultivation, hundreds of kilometers away from the Tall residence, a towering ice mountain collapsed.

In its place, a golden door adorned with runes was revealed, exuding a mysterious aura.

Gathered around the door were many cultivators.

“This must be the real treasure trove. There’s no doubt about it. Didn’t you see the missing emerald badge that is supposed to be on the door?”

“Just from the aura alone, I can feel that it’s definitely a treasure trove!”

“Who would’ve thought that the treasure trove would be beneath the ice mountain? If it weren’t for its collapse, we might never have found it.”

Everyone was discussing animatedly.

However, due to the protective arcane array on the door, only the emerald badge could unlock it.

“I have the key to open the treasure trove. Is there anyone willing to cooperate with me?”

Suddenly, a Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator spoke up.

This person was Beau, whose life had been saved by Jared. He also had an emerald badge, claiming it was the key to the treasure trove.

Upon hearing that Beau had the key, everyone gathered around.

Since many had attempted to forcibly open the door to no avail, they were all eager to see if Beau’s key would work.

“Back off...”

As people closed in on Beau, a stern voice suddenly rang out, which instantly aroused the displeasure of the crowd.

The crowd quickly turned to see five figures approaching. They were dressed in black robes with dark gold insignias embroidered on their sleeves.

Seeing these five individuals, the discontented cultivators dispersed in an instant. It was evident that they knew these five people and were afraid of them.

Among the five, a middle-aged man at the forefront spoke. “We are the Five Slayers of the Demon Seal Alliance. I am Typhon Yellow. Now hand over the key to the treasure...”

Beau looked at the middle-aged man before him, his expression tense. His face turned pale. Cold sweat instantly trickled down his forehead.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2944-The Demon Seal Alliance was an organization whose members were scattered across various corners of the Ethereal Realm. They were easily recognizable by their black robes adorned with dark gold insignias.

This alliance was founded by individuals dedicated to hunting and eliminating demons. As their ranks grew, they became a formidable force.

With the growing strength of the Demon Seal Alliance, many cultivators chose to avoid encountering them.

Labeling someone as a Demonic Cultivator was often enough to lead to their capture.

Beau was also wary of the Demon Seal Alliance. He couldn't help but feel reluctant to hand over the key he had obtained through great effort.

Seeing Beau hesitate, Typhon furrowed his brows slightly and asked, "What's the matter? You don't want to hand it over?"

"I..."

Beau struggled with the decision. Faced with the members of the Demon Seal Alliance, he knew he was utterly outmatched. If they decided to take it by force, he would have no means to resist.

Just as Beau was about to reluctantly produce the key, a frosty voice rang out.

"You people from Demon Seal Alliance really have some nerve, huh? Are you trying to snatch the key by force in broad daylight?"

A young man strolled forward, followed by a group of elderly men.

This young man was none other than Kaison, the second son of the Tall family.

Mason had sent him and Jerison for two reasons: to keep an eye on the Demonic Cultivators' movements and to search for the location of the treasure.

When Typhon spotted Kaison, he furrowed his brows and sneered, "Who are you? How dare you speak against the Demon Seal Alliance? Are you seeking death?"

"Even if I am, what can you do to me?" Kaison snorted, then turned to Beau. "Hello, I'm Kaison, the second son of the Tall family. I don't want your key. I only hope you'll consider working with the Tall family. Let's look for this treasure together, shall we? You see, here in the far north, the Tall family's power reigns supreme. It's wise to partner with us!"

Upon learning that this young man was a representative of the Tall family, the crowd erupted into a flurry of chatter.

Beau, on the other hand, couldn't have been more delighted. He hastily nodded.

After all, the Tall family did hold significant influence in the far north, and they were surprisingly open to collaboration with him.

Compared to the Demon Seal Alliance's attempt to seize the key, working with the Tall family seemed far more sensible for him.

"D*mn it! You dare defy the Demon Seal Alliance? Are you courting death? What's the Tall family got that's so special? Once you step outside the far north, you're just a bunch of nobodies..."

Typhon seethed with anger.

"How dare you insult the Tall family!"

Kaison, a brash and spirited young man, wasn't about to let anyone insult the Tall family. He threw a punch.

"Hmph!"

Typhon snorted and retaliated with a powerful punch.

Boom...

Kaison's strength fell short. He staggered back, only stopping when supported by the elders he'd brought along. Thanks to them, he managed to avoid falling to the ground.

"Hah, is that all you've got? How dare you act so arrogant? Back off right now, or you'll suffer!" Typhon warned Kaison menacingly.

"Mr. Morar, beat them up. They come to the far north and act all cocky. Haven't they heard of our strength here?" Kaison waved his hand, sending Morar, the second elder of the family whom he had brought into action.

Indeed, Kaison was no match for Typhon.

Morar nodded and leaped into the air. In an instant, he was hovering in the air, and then he delivered a mighty blow downward.

This blow carried endless frost energy, instantly freezing the air around and creating a flurry of falling snowflakes.

Seeing this, Typhon swiftly made his move. He conjured a sword in the air, and in a flash, a light shot upward.

The light pierced through the falling snowflakes, instantly dispelling the frost energy.

“Swordnado of the Five Slayers, Typhon Yellow, really lives up to his name...” Morar muttered as he descended, his eyes fixed on Typhon.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2945-“I’ve heard of you before, but I’ve never witnessed a display of your power. I want to see if you truly live up to your name,” said Morar coldly.

“Very well. Since you wish to know if I deserve the title of Swordnado, allow me to demonstrate my power!” Typhon swung his blade, creating a sword flower.

Soon after that, the void surrounding him began to tremble.

Although he had only waved his weapon, that action instantly caused tens of thousands of blades to appear in the void.

Those blades then shot toward Morar.

“Hmph! If this is the best you can do, then you don’t deserve the title of Swordnado,” Morar sneered before he formed a white shield around himself with frost energy.

At the same time, he swung his fist, causing the void to explode. That single, terrifying action was enough to turn all the blades into nothingness.

Upon seeing that, Morar smirked.

However, just as he was feeling smug, he felt as though the frost energy around him was being pierced by something. The shield unexpectedly disappeared at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“Do you really think I got the name of Swordnado for nothing?” Disdain was scribbled all over Typhon’s face.

The smirk on Morar’s face was swiftly replaced by a scowl.

Typhon’s swordsmanship was unusual. Some of the blades had come pretty close to touching Morar, but he didn’t notice it, and his shield had been shattered by the blades.

“You’re pretty good, but don’t think I’m afraid of you!” Morar shouted, then lunged at Typhon while gathering a massive amount of frost energy in his palm.

The storm of spiritual energy mixed with frost energy caused the surrounding space to be frozen.

When the people around saw that, they hastily retreated so as not to be turned into an ice block.

An ice wall began to form in the middle of the air, and it was rapidly heading toward Typhon to encircle him.

Typhon waved his sword to generate waves of heat.

Seeing that Morar was taking the fight seriously, Typhon shouted, “I have no intention of fighting the Tall family to the death, so I hope you’ll stop. If both of us got hurt, we’d be making it easier for others to snatch the treasure.”

Typhon was afraid that his conflict with the Tall family would lead to both sides suffering from severe injuries.

That would inadvertently allow others to obtain the treasure more easily.

“This is the far north, the Tall family’s territory! And you want us to stop?” Morar didn’t stop at all.

He threw punches at Typhon, his frost energy freezing many things instantly.

“Don’t just stand there and watch! Fight!” Typhon genuinely didn’t want to keep fighting Morar.

After all, they weren’t there to eliminate the Tall family but to get the treasure.

Typhon’s companions made their move, immediately cornering Morar.

Seeing that, Kaison led the other members of the Tall family into the battle.

The others who weren’t involved sprinted far away from the battleground, afraid that it would affect their lives.

Suddenly, chaos descended upon the location as different energies clashed against each other.

However, aside from Morar, none of the other members of the Tall family were a match for Typhon and his companions.

After a few minutes of exchanging blows, the Tall family was starting to lose.

Morar was the only one supporting the Tall family. If he fell, then there was a good chance that the Demon Seal Alliance would kill them.

“Just you all wait. I won’t allow anyone to bully us in the far north!” Realizing his side stood no chance against his adversary, Kaison led his family members and escaped.

“Tsk! A bunch of cowards...” Typhon spat before turning to the crowd. “Who else is unhappy with us?”

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2946-Typhon stretched out his arm. Beau immediately understood his intention and handed the emerald badge over.

That was the only way Beau could guarantee his safety. If Typhon’s team attacked, Beau would be dead.

Seeing how obedient Beau was, Typhon didn’t trouble him. He simply pressed the emerald badge into the empty spot on the gate.

The emerald badge fit perfectly into the hole. Soon, the ground trembled, and the gate leading to the treasure began to glow in gold.

Everyone retreated far away from the entrance. They didn't know if there were any traps behind this gate.

The ground shook, and the gate slowly opened. Following that, a wave of heat gushed out from within where the treasure was hidden.

Any cultivators who wished to stay at a place as freezing as the far north had to use spiritual energy to shield themselves from the weather.

An ordinary person would die quickly from the cold if they went there.

Feeling the warmth, everyone was shocked. They felt relaxed.

"What's in this treasure trove? There's even heat coming out from it." Typhon stared at the entrance from afar instead of rushing in.

"Who cares? Let's just check it out first. How dangerous can the treasure of Archaic Body cultivators be?" Woodley walked straight in.

The other four of the Five Slayers promptly joined him. When the other cultivators saw that, they also went in. Surprisingly, the Five Slayers didn't stop them.

After a moment of hesitation, Beau gritted his teeth and walked into the treasure land.

Right after he did so, over a dozen people with concealed aura appeared at the door.

They studied the entrance before entering the place as well.

Meanwhile, Kaison had returned to the Tall residence in a huff.

Mason asked, "Why are you so angry? What happened?"

"We've discovered the location of the treasure, Mason!"

"I see." Mason nodded and did not look quite excited. "If you found it, why did you come back?"

"The people from the Demon Seal Alliance demanded the key to the treasure, so we fought with them. However, they were too strong, and we lost. Where's Mr. Ambrose, Mason? I need to bring more men over so I can destroy those

b*stards from the Demon Seal Alliance! This is our turf! I won't allow them to flaunt their might here!" Kaison said through gritted teeth, desperate to restore his dignity.

Mason stared at Kaison coldly before furrowing his eyebrows. "Can you be a little smarter? Will it kill you to stop murdering people and playing with women all day? In any case, I want you to stay at home for now. Once Mr. Chance recovers, lead him to the treasure."

"Mr. Chance? What Mr. Chance?" Kaison was flabbergasted because he had never seen his brother refer to another individual with such respect before.

"The two women you captured are Mr. Chance's friends. If Quinn hadn't stopped you in time, you would've brought a lot of trouble to our family. Once Mr. Chance awakes from his cultivation, I want you to apologize to him earnestly. Even though you two are peers, he's so much better than you. You should be ashamed of yourself," Mason reprimanded.

Kaison wasn't happy with that arrangement, but he dared not show it on his face. "Understood..."

"Go on now and cultivate. Look at yourself. Your cultivation pace is no faster than a snail's. So many resources have been wasted on you." Mason waved his hand.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2947-Jared, who was cultivating in the courtyard of the Tall residence, exhaled and slowly opened his eyes.

"Now that I've finished absorbing the ice soul fragment, the heavenly thunder fruit is next."

The speed at which he absorbed the ice soul fragment was faster than anyone else, yet he still thought it was too slow.

At that moment, he felt weak and was desperate to increase his power as quickly as possible.

However, each minor cultivation level he achieved required thousands of times more resources than others. and that greatly troubled him.

Even though his body was incredibly tough and the object of envy to many, the resources he required to grow stronger were some of his biggest obstacles.

If he relied only on absorbing the spiritual energy in the environment, it might take him forever to reach another minor cultivation level.

Upon scanning his environment, he noticed Feenix and Aislin were still in the midst of cultivation. A single heavenly thunder fruit was enough for them to cultivate for around ten days.

However, the number of levels they could achieve with the help of the heavenly thunder fruit would depend on their talents.

Feenix would likely break through many levels. After all, she was a celestial beast from Ethereal Realm. She was only weakened because she was thrown into the mundane world.

If she wished to strengthen herself, she could do so quickly.

“I wonder if this heavenly thunder fruit can help me reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm.” Jared felt uneasy.

If he could become a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator, he wouldn't need to escape from Lynette should they meet again. In fact, he would be able to face Lynette and fight her head-on.

With that thought in mind, he pulled out the heavenly thunder fruit.

He could have absorbed all three of the heavenly thunder fruits. However, he would be depriving Feenix and Aislin of their opportunity to grow stronger.

Ethereal Realm was a place littered with danger. If Feenix and Aislin failed to increase their power, their lives would be threatened.

Even a random, insignificant cultivator could easily defeat them.

Jared couldn't protect them at all times. To decrease the likelihood of them getting hurt, he had allowed the two of them to absorb the heavenly thunder fruits to enhance their strength.

He stared at the heavenly thunder fruit in his palm. Arcs of electricity could be seen jumping on it, and he could feel the power of lightning swirling within it.

A moment later, Jared took a bite of the fruit.

If anyone witnessed that scene, they would be startled because that was practically an act of suicide.

Heavenly thunder fruit was a type of resource that needed to be absorbed slowly. If anyone else attempted Jared's method, they would likely die because their bodies couldn't handle a sudden influx of power.

Feenix and Aislin had been absorbing power from the heavenly thunder fruits for a long time. Yet, the heavenly thunder fruits had only just shrunk a little.

Jared didn't want to waste any more time. He was confident his cultivation and body could handle the raw power of the heavenly thunder fruit. That was why he consumed it as such.

Thunderhawk would probably be furious if he saw Jared eating the heavenly thunder fruit as though it were an ordinary apple.

After Jared finished the entire heavenly thunder fruit, he felt his head explode.

Arcs of electricity began to dance on his body.

He stared at his hands and saw the power of lightning being continuously emitted from his palms.

Lightning could be seen crackling above the courtyard Jared was staying in.

That unusual phenomenon attracted the attention of many members of the Tall family.

"What's going on? Why are we seeing the power of lightning here?"

"Yeah! I haven't seen this in many years!"

"I've only ever witnessed snowy weather. I don't think I've seen this before, but it's pretty."

The members of the Tall family began discussing the strange phenomenon in the sky.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2948-Unbeknownst to Mason, his guess was absolutely correct. Jared had eaten the heavenly thunder fruit directly instead of absorbing its power slowly.

“I wonder if I can open my own nascence space with the power of the heavenly thunder fruit.” After Jared learned about nascence aura, he desperately wanted his own nascence space.

However, as much as he wanted to comprehend nascence aura, he was only a Body Fusion Realm cultivator. It would be no easy feat for him to achieve.

Tribulator cultivators who could create a nascence space were exceptionally talented and extremely rare.

If Jared could accomplish that while only being a Body Fusion Realm cultivator, he would be considered a genius among geniuses.

Jared calmed himself down as he felt the power of lightning within his body that was once contained inside the heavenly thunder fruit. If only I could gain the ability to create nascence space! If I can't, well, I guess I'll continue cultivating. It's not like I have to do it right now.

As he dived into his consciousness field, he gazed at the Golden Tome. He hoped that the Golden Tome would activate and help him in earning the ability to create nascence space.

However, no matter how hard he tried, it didn't work, and the Golden Tome remained unmoving.

“Maybe it's because my cultivation is still too low to learn this power...”

Seeing that he couldn't succeed, Jared began cultivating again. Let's see if I can reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm now!

The power of lightning was continuously refined by Jared's Focus Technique.

As he did so, clouds began to gather above him.

The clouds were heavy and the thunder and lightning were loud and clear. The tremor seemed to shake the entire Tall residence. In the clouds, arcs of electricity shot through them as though they were preparing for something.

“What is this? Is a Demonic Cultivator sneaking up on us?”

“This is terrifying! Is it really a demon?”

“This is a lightning tribulation! Someone’s about to achieve a breakthrough!”

“Who? Whose breakthrough resulted in such terrifying lightning tribulation? Is it Mr. Mason?”

The Tall family members were shocked.

Kaison was in a bad mood after being scolded by Mason, so he was drinking in his courtyard.

When he saw the terrifying lightning tribulation clouds above the Tall residence, he was startled. “Is Mason about to reach a breakthrough?”

Kaison didn’t know who was about to make a breakthrough that there would be such a terrifying lightning tribulation.

He hurried to Mason’s courtyard. If it really is Mason, then this is good news! He hasn’t made a breakthrough in many years!

Upon arriving at Mason’s courtyard, Kaison shouted excitedly, “Mason! Did you—”

At that moment, he noticed Mason exiting his room.

Realizing Mason wasn’t the one achieving the breakthrough, Kaison was stunned. “Mason, who in our family is achieving a breakthrough? What’s with all the commotion?”

Mason glanced at the lightning tribulation clouds and said, “It’s Mr. Chance...”

“Mr. Chance? What is his cultivation level? Is he ascending to Tribulator from Body Fusion Realm?” Kaison was puzzled.

Mason shook his head. “He’s only a Third Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator. Right now, he should be breaking through to Fourth Level.”

“What?” Kaison was in disbelief. “That’s impossible! How can the ascension from Third Level to Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm be this dramatic? I don’t believe it!”

“It’s your choice whether to believe it or not. Don’t assume others share the same opinion as you. Also, don’t think I don’t know you’ve been drinking all day instead of cultivating.” Mason glowered at Kaison.

Kaison was so frightened that he scurried away.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2949-Right after Kaison left, Mason turned his gaze toward the lightning tribulation clouds gathering above Jared.

“What strange lightning tribulation clouds. Could it be...”

Suddenly, his eyes sparkled.

“Mr. Ambrose!” he shouted.

Ambrose quickly appeared before Mason anxiously. “What’s the matter, Mr. Mason?”

It was the first time Ambrose had seen Mason being that excited.

“Tell everyone to get out of their room right now and head to the courtyard! A great opportunity has come!” Mason was so excited that his body was trembling slightly.

Dumbstruck, Ambrose asked in a small voice, “What do you mean, Mr. Mason?”

“Just do as I say! You’ll know soon enough. Quick!”

Soon, Ambrose had everyone stand in the courtyard.

Kaison was no exception. He grumbled, “Is Mason crazy? Why can’t we stay inside our rooms? Also, why does he keep saying a great opportunity has come?”

Other members of the Tall family were wondering about the same thing. They didn’t understand what Mason meant by a great opportunity.

Just as the crowd was discussing, they heard an explosion.

Boom!

The first heavenly thunder could be heard from the lightning tribulation clouds, followed by a flash of lightning that struck Jared's courtyard.

Everyone's heart trembled slightly when they witnessed that lightning tribulation.

When the first lightning tribulation struck, Jared opened his eyes and rose into the air.

The lightning tribulation struck Jared's body, causing golden light to flash all around him.

The second lightning tribulation hit him immediately after the first, not giving him the slightest chance to catch his breath.

That one tore Jared's clothes into pieces, revealing his body that was covered in a layer of golden scales.

Jared had activated Golem Body because he knew that many more lightning tribulations were waiting for him.

If he couldn't survive it, his efforts would be for naught. Not only would he fail to grow stronger, he might even be injured.

Each lightning tribulation that struck Jared was more powerful than the last.

Yet, as Jared floated in midair, there was no fear in his eyes.

"T-This is ridiculous! How many lightning tribulations have he endured at this point?"

"Nine. I counted. This is his ninth lightning tribulation!"

"Oh my god! Even a Tribulator cultivator can't withstand nine lightning tribulations! This guy's insane!"

The Tall family members discussed the scene before them, envious of Jared's tough body.

Kaison, who had looked down on Jared, lifted his gaze. Admiration swirled in his eyes as he watched Jared endure the lightning tribulations without fear.

Mason smiled, looking at Jared wordlessly.

“One more. There’s still one more lightning tribulation. I’m sure you can fight it,” Mason mumbled.

Right as he said that, the tenth lightning tribulation struck Jared.

At that moment, Jared’s body began to shake.

The crowd’s mouths were wide open as they watched in disbelief. Ten lightning tribulations! This is insane!

The last lightning tribulation was especially vicious because the bolt was as thick as a trunk. It was unlikely that anyone in the crowd could survive that.

However, Jared did. Despite the trembling of his body, he still endured the last lightning tribulation.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2950-Just as the crowd looked at Jared in shock, someone detected a drop of rain on their cheek.

“It’s raining?”

“What? This is the far north. The only weather we have here is snow!”

“It really is raining!”

“It’s raining! Look! It’s raining!”

Suddenly, it began to drizzle.

The Tall family members were startled because none of them had witnessed rain before. After all, the weather there was so cold that any water in the sky would’ve turned into snowflakes when it hit the ground.

“What’s going on? How can it be raining?” Kaison stretched out his hand to catch a raindrop in confusion.

However, when the raindrop fell on his palm, it vanished instantly. He felt the spiritual energy in his body moving.

“This is...” Kaison widened his eyes in disbelief.

At that moment, Mason flew into the air and faced his family. “This is what I meant by a great opportunity. What you see before you isn’t rain. It’s spiritual water. It's spiritual energy condensed into liquid. This spiritual water is thousands of times more powerful than spiritual energy. Heed my words, members of the Tall family. Initiate your cultivation immediately and absorb this rare spiritual water."

Only then did the Tall family members understand why it was raining.

It turned out that the liquid falling from the sky wasn't ordinary water but spiritual water. No matter how cold the temperature was, the spiritual water would never turn into snow.

The Tall family members promptly sat down and began cultivating, absorbing the spiritual water falling from the sky.

Everyone's strength soared at a meteoric rate as they absorbed the drizzling spiritual water. Even the ones who were injured were recovering rapidly.

Mason watched his family members grow stronger at high speed and grinned with satisfaction.

"To think a Third Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator can summon ten lightning tribulations and cause spiritual water to rain from the sky. What a miracle this is," Mason said, looking up at Jared.

When he did, he was stunned because the lightning tribulation clouds didn't disappear.

In fact, the clouds were getting thicker.

"What's going on?" Mason frowned, slightly panicking. "Are there more lightning tribulations to follow?" I don't understand. Jared has survived ten lightning tribulations. Why are the clouds still around? Does this mean there's an eleventh lightning tribulation? That doesn't seem likely. Even if a Tribulator cultivator like me reaches Ultimate Realm, I still won't attract eleven lightning tribulations. This is ridiculous!

Upon sensing the power concealed within the lightning tribulation clouds, Mason quickly retreated far, far away from Jared.

At that moment, Jared was still floating in midair and feeling restless inside.

He had endured ten lightning tribulations, but he had yet to reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm.

And now that the lightning tribulation clouds hadn't dispersed, he wondered if there were more lightning tribulations.

He knew he would not be able to endure it if he had to withstand one more lightning tribulation.

After all, he had barely survived the tenth lightning tribulation.

At that point, he was exhausted, and Golem Body had been destroyed during the tenth lightning tribulation.

If there was an eleventh lightning tribulation, he would be turned into ash.

Godd*mmmit! Are the heavens trying to kill me? I didn't expect this breakthrough of mine to attract such powerful lightning tribulations!

Mason could tell that Jared was exhausted. He lifted his palm into the air and enveloped Jared in a powerful aura.

When Jared lowered his head, he saw Mason helping him.

With Mason's assistance, Jared regained some confidence. Although receiving external support during a lightning tribulation would cause the benefits to decrease, it was still better than dying.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2943-“Okay, stop messing around. You two need to focus on your cultivation. With your current strength, you won't be able to move around in the Ethereal Realm. Since the Tall residence is still relatively safe, you should hurry up with your training. I've got a few heavenly thunder fruits here. Each of you can have one. It should give you a significant boost,” Jared said, handing over two heavenly thunder fruits to them.

“Heavenly thunder fruits? Aren't those only found on Thunderhawk's heavenly thunder tree?” Feenix asked in surprise. “Master, how did you get your hands on them? Thunderhawk treasures them dearly.”

“You’re familiar with heavenly thunder fruits?” Jared was slightly taken aback. How did Feenix know about heavenly thunder fruits?

“Master, have you forgotten that I originally belonged to the Ethereal Realm? After making a mistake, I was banished to the mundane world, so of course I know about heavenly thunder fruits,” Feenix explained.

Realization dawned on Jared and he said, “I picked a few while Thunderhawk was away. They’re quite tricky to get.”

“Feenix, Jared’s right. We need to focus on our cultivation. With our current strength, being with Jared will only hold him back.” Aislin spoke up.

Feenix nodded. “All right, I’ll go cultivate now...”

The two girls went off to cultivate with their heavenly thunder fruits, while Jared started restoring his strength by entering a state of cultivation.

He needed to make a breakthrough as soon as possible. Otherwise, even if they found the real treasure, he was afraid he wouldn’t be able to obtain the Ice Soul Pill.

Jared first absorbed the ice soul fragments given by Mason, calming his mind and immersing himself in refining the ice soul fragments.

His absorption speed was quite fast, so this refining process didn’t take long.

While Jared and the girls were engrossed in their cultivation, hundreds of kilometers away from the Tall residence, a towering ice mountain collapsed.

In its place, a golden door adorned with runes was revealed, exuding a mysterious aura.

Gathered around the door were many cultivators.

“This must be the real treasure trove. There’s no doubt about it. Didn’t you see the missing emerald badge that is supposed to be on the door?”

“Just from the aura alone, I can feel that it’s definitely a treasure trove!”

“Who would’ve thought that the treasure trove would be beneath the ice mountain? If it weren’t for its collapse, we might never have found it.”

Everyone was discussing animatedly.

However, due to the protective arcane array on the door, only the emerald badge could unlock it.

“I have the key to open the treasure trove. Is there anyone willing to cooperate with me?”

Suddenly, a Fifth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator spoke up.

This person was Beau, whose life had been saved by Jared. He also had an emerald badge, claiming it was the key to the treasure trove.

Upon hearing that Beau had the key, everyone gathered around.

Since many had attempted to forcibly open the door to no avail, they were all eager to see if Beau’s key would work.

“Back off...”

As people closed in on Beau, a stern voice suddenly rang out, which instantly aroused the displeasure of the crowd.

The crowd quickly turned to see five figures approaching. They were dressed in black robes with dark gold insignias embroidered on their sleeves.

Seeing these five individuals, the discontented cultivators dispersed in an instant. It was evident that they knew these five people and were afraid of them.

Among the five, a middle-aged man at the forefront spoke. “We are the Five Slayers of the Demon Seal Alliance. I am Typhon Yellow. Now hand over the key to the treasure...”

Beau looked at the middle-aged man before him, his expression tense. His face turned pale. Cold sweat instantly trickled down his forehead.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2944-The Demon Seal Alliance was an organization whose members were scattered across various corners of the Ethereal Realm. They were easily recognizable by their black robes adorned with dark gold insignias.

This alliance was founded by individuals dedicated to hunting and eliminating demons. As their ranks grew, they became a formidable force.

With the growing strength of the Demon Seal Alliance, many cultivators chose to avoid encountering them.

Labeling someone as a Demonic Cultivator was often enough to lead to their capture.

Beau was also wary of the Demon Seal Alliance. He couldn't help but feel reluctant to hand over the key he had obtained through great effort.

Seeing Beau hesitate, Typhon furrowed his brows slightly and asked, "What's the matter? You don't want to hand it over?"

"I..."

Beau struggled with the decision. Faced with the members of the Demon Seal Alliance, he knew he was utterly outmatched. If they decided to take it by force, he would have no means to resist.

Just as Beau was about to reluctantly produce the key, a frosty voice rang out.

"You people from Demon Seal Alliance really have some nerve, huh? Are you trying to snatch the key by force in broad daylight?"

A young man strolled forward, followed by a group of elderly men.

This young man was none other than Kaison, the second son of the Tall family.

Mason had sent him and Jerison for two reasons: to keep an eye on the Demonic Cultivators' movements and to search for the location of the treasure.

When Typhon spotted Kaison, he furrowed his brows and sneered, "Who are you? How dare you speak against the Demon Seal Alliance? Are you seeking death?"

"Even if I am, what can you do to me?" Kaison snorted, then turned to Beau. "Hello, I'm Kaison, the second son of the Tall family. I don't want your key. I only hope you'll consider working with the Tall family. Let's look for this treasure together, shall we? You see, here in the far north, the Tall family's power reigns supreme. It's wise to partner with us!"

Upon learning that this young man was a representative of the Tall family, the crowd erupted into a flurry of chatter.

Beau, on the other hand, couldn't have been more delighted. He hastily nodded.

After all, the Tall family did hold significant influence in the far north, and they were surprisingly open to collaboration with him.

Compared to the Demon Seal Alliance's attempt to seize the key, working with the Tall family seemed far more sensible for him.

"D*mn it! You dare defy the Demon Seal Alliance? Are you courting death? What's the Tall family got that's so special? Once you step outside the far north, you're just a bunch of nobodies..."

Typhon seethed with anger.

"How dare you insult the Tall family!"

Kaison, a brash and spirited young man, wasn't about to let anyone insult the Tall family. He threw a punch.

"Hmph!"

Typhon snorted and retaliated with a powerful punch.

Boom...

Kaison's strength fell short. He staggered back, only stopping when supported by the elders he'd brought along. Thanks to them, he managed to avoid falling to the ground.

"Hah, is that all you've got? How dare you act so arrogant? Back off right now, or you'll suffer!" Typhon warned Kaison menacingly.

"Mr. Morar, beat them up. They come to the far north and act all cocky. Haven't they heard of our strength here?" Kaison waved his hand, sending Morar, the second elder of the family whom he had brought into action.

Indeed, Kaison was no match for Typhon.

Morar nodded and leaped into the air. In an instant, he was hovering in the air, and then he delivered a mighty blow downward.

This blow carried endless frost energy, instantly freezing the air around and creating a flurry of falling snowflakes.

Seeing this, Typhon swiftly made his move. He conjured a sword in the air, and in a flash, a light shot upward.

The light pierced through the falling snowflakes, instantly dispelling the frost energy.

“Swordnado of the Five Slayers, Typhon Yellow, really lives up to his name...” Morar muttered as he descended, his eyes fixed on Typhon.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2945-“I’ve heard of you before, but I’ve never witnessed a display of your power. I want to see if you truly live up to your name,” said Morar coldly.

“Very well. Since you wish to know if I deserve the title of Swordnado, allow me to demonstrate my power!” Typhon swung his blade, creating a sword flower.

Soon after that, the void surrounding him began to tremble.

Although he had only waved his weapon, that action instantly caused tens of thousands of blades to appear in the void.

Those blades then shot toward Morar.

“Hmph! If this is the best you can do, then you don’t deserve the title of Swordnado,” Morar sneered before he formed a white shield around himself with frost energy.

At the same time, he swung his fist, causing the void to explode. That single, terrifying action was enough to turn all the blades into nothingness.

Upon seeing that, Morar smirked.

However, just as he was feeling smug, he felt as though the frost energy around him was being pierced by something. The shield unexpectedly disappeared at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“Do you really think I got the name of Swordnado for nothing?” Disdain was scribbled all over Typhon’s face.

The smirk on Morar’s face was swiftly replaced by a scowl.

Typhon’s swordsmanship was unusual. Some of the blades had come pretty close to touching Morar, but he didn’t notice it, and his shield had been shattered by the blades.

“You’re pretty good, but don’t think I’m afraid of you!” Morar shouted, then lunged at Typhon while gathering a massive amount of frost energy in his palm.

The storm of spiritual energy mixed with frost energy caused the surrounding space to be frozen.

When the people around saw that, they hastily retreated so as not to be turned into an ice block.

An ice wall began to form in the middle of the air, and it was rapidly heading toward Typhon to encircle him.

Typhon waved his sword to generate waves of heat.

Seeing that Morar was taking the fight seriously, Typhon shouted, “I have no intention of fighting the Tall family to the death, so I hope you’ll stop. If both of us got hurt, we’d be making it easier for others to snatch the treasure.”

Typhon was afraid that his conflict with the Tall family would lead to both sides suffering from severe injuries.

That would inadvertently allow others to obtain the treasure more easily.

“This is the far north, the Tall family’s territory! And you want us to stop?” Morar didn’t stop at all.

He threw punches at Typhon, his frost energy freezing many things instantly.

“Don’t just stand there and watch! Fight!” Typhon genuinely didn’t want to keep fighting Morar.

After all, they weren’t there to eliminate the Tall family but to get the treasure.

Typhon’s companions made their move, immediately cornering Morar.

Seeing that, Kaison led the other members of the Tall family into the battle.

The others who weren’t involved sprinted far away from the battleground, afraid that it would affect their lives.

Suddenly, chaos descended upon the location as different energies clashed against each other.

However, aside from Morar, none of the other members of the Tall family were a match for Typhon and his companions.

After a few minutes of exchanging blows, the Tall family was starting to lose.

Morar was the only one supporting the Tall family. If he fell, then there was a good chance that the Demon Seal Alliance would kill them.

“Just you all wait. I won’t allow anyone to bully us in the far north!” Realizing his side stood no chance against his adversary, Kaison led his family members and escaped.

“Tsk! A bunch of cowards...” Typhon spat before turning to the crowd. “Who else is unhappy with us?”

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2946-Typhon stretched out his arm. Beau immediately understood his intention and handed the emerald badge over.

That was the only way Beau could guarantee his safety. If Typhon’s team attacked, Beau would be dead.

Seeing how obedient Beau was, Typhon didn’t trouble him. He simply pressed the emerald badge into the empty spot on the gate.

The emerald badge fit perfectly into the hole. Soon, the ground trembled, and the gate leading to the treasure began to glow in gold.

Everyone retreated far away from the entrance. They didn't know if there were any traps behind this gate.

The ground shook, and the gate slowly opened. Following that, a wave of heat gushed out from within where the treasure was hidden.

Any cultivators who wished to stay at a place as freezing as the far north had to use spiritual energy to shield themselves from the weather.

An ordinary person would die quickly from the cold if they went there.

Feeling the warmth, everyone was shocked. They felt relaxed.

"What's in this treasure trove? There's even heat coming out from it." Typhon stared at the entrance from afar instead of rushing in.

"Who cares? Let's just check it out first. How dangerous can the treasure of Archaic Body cultivators be?" Woodley walked straight in.

The other four of the Five Slayers promptly joined him. When the other cultivators saw that, they also went in. Surprisingly, the Five Slayers didn't stop them.

After a moment of hesitation, Beau gritted his teeth and walked into the treasure land.

Right after he did so, over a dozen people with concealed aura appeared at the door.

They studied the entrance before entering the place as well.

Meanwhile, Kaison had returned to the Tall residence in a huff.

Mason asked, "Why are you so angry? What happened?"

"We've discovered the location of the treasure, Mason!"

"I see." Mason nodded and did not look quite excited. "If you found it, why did you come back?"

"The people from the Demon Seal Alliance demanded the key to the treasure, so we fought with them. However, they were too strong, and we lost. Where's Mr. Ambrose, Mason? I need to bring more men over so I can destroy those

b*stards from the Demon Seal Alliance! This is our turf! I won't allow them to flaunt their might here!" Kaison said through gritted teeth, desperate to restore his dignity.

Mason stared at Kaison coldly before furrowing his eyebrows. "Can you be a little smarter? Will it kill you to stop murdering people and playing with women all day? In any case, I want you to stay at home for now. Once Mr. Chance recovers, lead him to the treasure."

"Mr. Chance? What Mr. Chance?" Kaison was flabbergasted because he had never seen his brother refer to another individual with such respect before.

"The two women you captured are Mr. Chance's friends. If Quinn hadn't stopped you in time, you would've brought a lot of trouble to our family. Once Mr. Chance awakes from his cultivation, I want you to apologize to him earnestly. Even though you two are peers, he's so much better than you. You should be ashamed of yourself," Mason reprimanded.

Kaison wasn't happy with that arrangement, but he dared not show it on his face. "Understood..."

"Go on now and cultivate. Look at yourself. Your cultivation pace is no faster than a snail's. So many resources have been wasted on you." Mason waved his hand.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2947-Jared, who was cultivating in the courtyard of the Tall residence, exhaled and slowly opened his eyes.

"Now that I've finished absorbing the ice soul fragment, the heavenly thunder fruit is next."

The speed at which he absorbed the ice soul fragment was faster than anyone else, yet he still thought it was too slow.

At that moment, he felt weak and was desperate to increase his power as quickly as possible.

However, each minor cultivation level he achieved required thousands of times more resources than others. and that greatly troubled him.

Even though his body was incredibly tough and the object of envy to many, the resources he required to grow stronger were some of his biggest obstacles.

If he relied only on absorbing the spiritual energy in the environment, it might take him forever to reach another minor cultivation level.

Upon scanning his environment, he noticed Feenix and Aislin were still in the midst of cultivation. A single heavenly thunder fruit was enough for them to cultivate for around ten days.

However, the number of levels they could achieve with the help of the heavenly thunder fruit would depend on their talents.

Feenix would likely break through many levels. After all, she was a celestial beast from Ethereal Realm. She was only weakened because she was thrown into the mundane world.

If she wished to strengthen herself, she could do so quickly.

“I wonder if this heavenly thunder fruit can help me reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm.” Jared felt uneasy.

If he could become a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator, he wouldn't need to escape from Lynette should they meet again. In fact, he would be able to face Lynette and fight her head-on.

With that thought in mind, he pulled out the heavenly thunder fruit.

He could have absorbed all three of the heavenly thunder fruits. However, he would be depriving Feenix and Aislin of their opportunity to grow stronger.

Ethereal Realm was a place littered with danger. If Feenix and Aislin failed to increase their power, their lives would be threatened.

Even a random, insignificant cultivator could easily defeat them.

Jared couldn't protect them at all times. To decrease the likelihood of them getting hurt, he had allowed the two of them to absorb the heavenly thunder fruits to enhance their strength.

He stared at the heavenly thunder fruit in his palm. Arcs of electricity could be seen jumping on it, and he could feel the power of lightning swirling within it.

A moment later, Jared took a bite of the fruit.

If anyone witnessed that scene, they would be startled because that was practically an act of suicide.

Heavenly thunder fruit was a type of resource that needed to be absorbed slowly. If anyone else attempted Jared's method, they would likely die because their bodies couldn't handle a sudden influx of power.

Feenix and Aislin had been absorbing power from the heavenly thunder fruits for a long time. Yet, the heavenly thunder fruits had only just shrunk a little.

Jared didn't want to waste any more time. He was confident his cultivation and body could handle the raw power of the heavenly thunder fruit. That was why he consumed it as such.

Thunderhawk would probably be furious if he saw Jared eating the heavenly thunder fruit as though it were an ordinary apple.

After Jared finished the entire heavenly thunder fruit, he felt his head explode.

Arcs of electricity began to dance on his body.

He stared at his hands and saw the power of lightning being continuously emitted from his palms.

Lightning could be seen crackling above the courtyard Jared was staying in.

That unusual phenomenon attracted the attention of many members of the Tall family.

"What's going on? Why are we seeing the power of lightning here?"

"Yeah! I haven't seen this in many years!"

"I've only ever witnessed snowy weather. I don't think I've seen this before, but it's pretty."

The members of the Tall family began discussing the strange phenomenon in the sky.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2948-Unbeknownst to Mason, his guess was absolutely correct. Jared had eaten the heavenly thunder fruit directly instead of absorbing its power slowly.

“I wonder if I can open my own nascence space with the power of the heavenly thunder fruit.” After Jared learned about nascence aura, he desperately wanted his own nascence space.

However, as much as he wanted to comprehend nascence aura, he was only a Body Fusion Realm cultivator. It would be no easy feat for him to achieve.

Tribulator cultivators who could create a nascence space were exceptionally talented and extremely rare.

If Jared could accomplish that while only being a Body Fusion Realm cultivator, he would be considered a genius among geniuses.

Jared calmed himself down as he felt the power of lightning within his body that was once contained inside the heavenly thunder fruit. If only I could gain the ability to create nascence space! If I can't, well, I guess I'll continue cultivating. It's not like I have to do it right now.

As he dived into his consciousness field, he gazed at the Golden Tome. He hoped that the Golden Tome would activate and help him in earning the ability to create nascence space.

However, no matter how hard he tried, it didn't work, and the Golden Tome remained unmoving.

“Maybe it's because my cultivation is still too low to learn this power...”

Seeing that he couldn't succeed, Jared began cultivating again. Let's see if I can reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm now!

The power of lightning was continuously refined by Jared's Focus Technique.

As he did so, clouds began to gather above him.

The clouds were heavy and the thunder and lightning were loud and clear. The tremor seemed to shake the entire Tall residence. In the clouds, arcs of electricity shot through them as though they were preparing for something.

“What is this? Is a Demonic Cultivator sneaking up on us?”

“This is terrifying! Is it really a demon?”

“This is a lightning tribulation! Someone’s about to achieve a breakthrough!”

“Who? Whose breakthrough resulted in such terrifying lightning tribulation? Is it Mr. Mason?”

The Tall family members were shocked.

Kaison was in a bad mood after being scolded by Mason, so he was drinking in his courtyard.

When he saw the terrifying lightning tribulation clouds above the Tall residence, he was startled. “Is Mason about to reach a breakthrough?”

Kaison didn’t know who was about to make a breakthrough that there would be such a terrifying lightning tribulation.

He hurried to Mason’s courtyard. If it really is Mason, then this is good news! He hasn’t made a breakthrough in many years!

Upon arriving at Mason’s courtyard, Kaison shouted excitedly, “Mason! Did you—”

At that moment, he noticed Mason exiting his room.

Realizing Mason wasn’t the one achieving the breakthrough, Kaison was stunned. “Mason, who in our family is achieving a breakthrough? What’s with all the commotion?”

Mason glanced at the lightning tribulation clouds and said, “It’s Mr. Chance...”

“Mr. Chance? What is his cultivation level? Is he ascending to Tribulator from Body Fusion Realm?” Kaison was puzzled.

Mason shook his head. “He’s only a Third Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator. Right now, he should be breaking through to Fourth Level.”

“What?” Kaison was in disbelief. “That’s impossible! How can the ascension from Third Level to Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm be this dramatic? I don’t believe it!”

“It’s your choice whether to believe it or not. Don’t assume others share the same opinion as you. Also, don’t think I don’t know you’ve been drinking all day instead of cultivating.” Mason glowered at Kaison.

Kaison was so frightened that he scurried away.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2949-Right after Kaison left, Mason turned his gaze toward the lightning tribulation clouds gathering above Jared.

“What strange lightning tribulation clouds. Could it be...”

Suddenly, his eyes sparkled.

“Mr. Ambrose!” he shouted.

Ambrose quickly appeared before Mason anxiously. “What’s the matter, Mr. Mason?”

It was the first time Ambrose had seen Mason being that excited.

“Tell everyone to get out of their room right now and head to the courtyard! A great opportunity has come!” Mason was so excited that his body was trembling slightly.

Dumbstruck, Ambrose asked in a small voice, “What do you mean, Mr. Mason?”

“Just do as I say! You’ll know soon enough. Quick!”

Soon, Ambrose had everyone stand in the courtyard.

Kaison was no exception. He grumbled, “Is Mason crazy? Why can’t we stay inside our rooms? Also, why does he keep saying a great opportunity has come?”

Other members of the Tall family were wondering about the same thing. They didn’t understand what Mason meant by a great opportunity.

Just as the crowd was discussing, they heard an explosion.

Boom!

The first heavenly thunder could be heard from the lightning tribulation clouds, followed by a flash of lightning that struck Jared's courtyard.

Everyone's heart trembled slightly when they witnessed that lightning tribulation.

When the first lightning tribulation struck, Jared opened his eyes and rose into the air.

The lightning tribulation struck Jared's body, causing golden light to flash all around him.

The second lightning tribulation hit him immediately after the first, not giving him the slightest chance to catch his breath.

That one tore Jared's clothes into pieces, revealing his body that was covered in a layer of golden scales.

Jared had activated Golem Body because he knew that many more lightning tribulations were waiting for him.

If he couldn't survive it, his efforts would be for naught. Not only would he fail to grow stronger, he might even be injured.

Each lightning tribulation that struck Jared was more powerful than the last.

Yet, as Jared floated in midair, there was no fear in his eyes.

"T-This is ridiculous! How many lightning tribulations have he endured at this point?"

"Nine. I counted. This is his ninth lightning tribulation!"

"Oh my god! Even a Tribulator cultivator can't withstand nine lightning tribulations! This guy's insane!"

The Tall family members discussed the scene before them, envious of Jared's tough body.

Kaison, who had looked down on Jared, lifted his gaze. Admiration swirled in his eyes as he watched Jared endure the lightning tribulations without fear.

Mason smiled, looking at Jared wordlessly.

“One more. There’s still one more lightning tribulation. I’m sure you can fight it,” Mason mumbled.

Right as he said that, the tenth lightning tribulation struck Jared.

At that moment, Jared’s body began to shake.

The crowd’s mouths were wide open as they watched in disbelief. Ten lightning tribulations! This is insane!

The last lightning tribulation was especially vicious because the bolt was as thick as a trunk. It was unlikely that anyone in the crowd could survive that.

However, Jared did. Despite the trembling of his body, he still endured the last lightning tribulation.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2950-Just as the crowd looked at Jared in shock, someone detected a drop of rain on their cheek.

“What? This is the far north. The only weather we have here is snow!”

“It really is raining!”

“It’s raining! Look! It’s raining!”

Suddenly, it began to drizzle.

The Tall family members were startled because none of them had witnessed rain before. After all, the weather there was so cold that any water in the sky would’ve turned into snowflakes when it hit the ground.

“What’s going on? How can it be raining?” Kaison stretched out his hand to catch a raindrop in confusion.

However, when the raindrop fell on his palm, it vanished instantly. He felt the spiritual energy in his body moving.

“This is…” Kaison widened his eyes in disbelief.

At that moment, Mason flew into the air and faced his family. “This is what I meant by a great opportunity. What you see before you isn’t rain. It’s spiritual water. It's spiritual energy condensed into liquid. This spiritual water is thousands of times more powerful than spiritual energy. Heed my words, members of the Tall family. Initiate your cultivation immediately and absorb this rare spiritual water."

Only then did the Tall family members understand why it was raining.

It turned out that the liquid falling from the sky wasn't ordinary water but spiritual water. No matter how cold the temperature was, the spiritual water would never turn into snow.

The Tall family members promptly sat down and began cultivating, absorbing the spiritual water falling from the sky.

Everyone's strength soared at a meteoric rate as they absorbed the drizzling spiritual water. Even the ones who were injured were recovering rapidly.

Mason watched his family members grow stronger at high speed and grinned with satisfaction.

"To think a Third Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator can summon ten lightning tribulations and cause spiritual water to rain from the sky. What a miracle this is," Mason said, looking up at Jared.

When he did, he was stunned because the lightning tribulation clouds didn't disappear.

In fact, the clouds were getting thicker.

"What's going on?" Mason frowned, slightly panicking. "Are there more lightning tribulations to follow?" I don't understand. Jared has survived ten lightning tribulations. Why are the clouds still around? Does this mean there's an eleventh lightning tribulation? That doesn't seem likely. Even if a Tribulator cultivator like me reaches Ultimate Realm, I still won't attract eleven lightning tribulations. This is ridiculous!

Upon sensing the power concealed within the lightning tribulation clouds, Mason quickly retreated far, far away from Jared.

At that moment, Jared was still floating in midair and feeling restless inside.

He had endured ten lightning tribulations, but he had yet to reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm.

And now that the lightning tribulation clouds hadn't dispersed, he wondered if there were more lightning tribulations.

He knew he would not be able to endure it if he had to withstand one more lightning tribulation.

After all, he had barely survived the tenth lightning tribulation.

At that point, he was exhausted, and Golem Body had been destroyed during the tenth lightning tribulation.

If there was an eleventh lightning tribulation, he would be turned into ash.

Godd*mmmit! Are the heavens trying to kill me? I didn't expect this breakthrough of mine to attract such powerful lightning tribulations!

Mason could tell that Jared was exhausted. He lifted his palm into the air and enveloped Jared in a powerful aura.

When Jared lowered his head, he saw Mason helping him.

With Mason's assistance, Jared regained some confidence. Although receiving external support during a lightning tribulation would cause the benefits to decrease, it was still better than dying.

"Mr. Morar, beat them up. They come to the far north and act all cocky. Haven't they heard of our strength here?" Kaison waved his hand, sending Morar, the second elder of the family whom he had brought into action.

Indeed, Kaison was no match for Typhon.

Morar nodded and leaped into the air. In an instant, he was hovering in the air, and then he delivered a mighty blow downward.

This blow carried endless frost energy, instantly freezing the air around and creating a flurry of falling snowflakes.

Seeing this, Typhon swiftly made his move. He conjured a sword in the air, and in a flash, a light shot upward.

The light pierced through the falling snowflakes, instantly dispelling the frost energy.

“Swordnado of the Five Slayers, Typhon Yellow, really lives up to his name...” Morar muttered as he descended, his eyes fixed on Typhon.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2945-“I’ve heard of you before, but I’ve never witnessed a display of your power. I want to see if you truly live up to your name,” said Morar coldly.

“Very well. Since you wish to know if I deserve the title of Swordnado, allow me to demonstrate my power!” Typhon swung his blade, creating a sword flower.

Soon after that, the void surrounding him began to tremble.

Although he had only waved his weapon, that action instantly caused tens of thousands of blades to appear in the void.

Those blades then shot toward Morar.

“Hmph! If this is the best you can do, then you don’t deserve the title of Swordnado,” Morar sneered before he formed a white shield around himself with frost energy.

At the same time, he swung his fist, causing the void to explode. That single, terrifying action was enough to turn all the blades into nothingness.

Upon seeing that, Morar smirked.

However, just as he was feeling smug, he felt as though the frost energy around him was being pierced by something. The shield unexpectedly disappeared at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“Do you really think I got the name of Swordnado for nothing?” Disdain was scribbled all over Typhon’s face.

The smirk on Morar's face was swiftly replaced by a scowl.

Typhon's swordsmanship was unusual. Some of the blades had come pretty close to touching Morar, but he didn't notice it, and his shield had been shattered by the blades.

"You're pretty good, but don't think I'm afraid of you!" Morar shouted, then lunged at Typhon while gathering a massive amount of frost energy in his palm.

The storm of spiritual energy mixed with frost energy caused the surrounding space to be frozen.

When the people around saw that, they hastily retreated so as not to be turned into an ice block.

An ice wall began to form in the middle of the air, and it was rapidly heading toward Typhon to encircle him.

Typhon waved his sword to generate waves of heat.

Seeing that Morar was taking the fight seriously, Typhon shouted, "I have no intention of fighting the Tall family to the death, so I hope you'll stop. If both of us got hurt, we'd be making it easier for others to snatch the treasure."

Typhon was afraid that his conflict with the Tall family would lead to both sides suffering from severe injuries.

That would inadvertently allow others to obtain the treasure more easily.

"This is the far north, the Tall family's territory! And you want us to stop?" Morar didn't stop at all.

He threw punches at Typhon, his frost energy freezing many things instantly.

"Don't just stand there and watch! Fight!" Typhon genuinely didn't want to keep fighting Morar.

After all, they weren't there to eliminate the Tall family but to get the treasure.

Typhon's companions made their move, immediately cornering Morar.

Seeing that, Kaison led the other members of the Tall family into the battle.

The others who weren't involved sprinted far away from the battleground, afraid that it would affect their lives.

Suddenly, chaos descended upon the location as different energies clashed against each other.

However, aside from Morar, none of the other members of the Tall family were a match for Typhon and his companions.

After a few minutes of exchanging blows, the Tall family was starting to lose.

Morar was the only one supporting the Tall family. If he fell, then there was a good chance that the Demon Seal Alliance would kill them.

"Just you all wait. I won't allow anyone to bully us in the far north!" Realizing his side stood no chance against his adversary, Kaison led his family members and escaped.

"Tsk! A bunch of cowards..." Typhon spat before turning to the crowd. "Who else is unhappy with us?"

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2946-Typhon stretched out his arm. Beau immediately understood his intention and handed the emerald badge over.

That was the only way Beau could guarantee his safety. If Typhon's team attacked, Beau would be dead.

Seeing how obedient Beau was, Typhon didn't trouble him. He simply pressed the emerald badge into the empty spot on the gate.

The emerald badge fit perfectly into the hole. Soon, the ground trembled, and the gate leading to the treasure began to glow in gold.

Everyone retreated far away from the entrance. They didn't know if there were any traps behind this gate.

The ground shook, and the gate slowly opened. Following that, a wave of heat gushed out from within where the treasure was hidden.

Any cultivators who wished to stay at a place as freezing as the far north had to use spiritual energy to shield themselves from the weather.

An ordinary person would die quickly from the cold if they went there.

Feeling the warmth, everyone was shocked. They felt relaxed.

“What’s in this treasure trove? There’s even heat coming out from it.” Typhon stared at the entrance from afar instead of rushing in.

“Who cares? Let’s just check it out first. How dangerous can the treasure of Archaic Body cultivators be?” Woodley walked straight in.

The other four of the Five Slayers promptly joined him. When the other cultivators saw that, they also went in. Surprisingly, the Five Slayers didn’t stop them.

After a moment of hesitation, Beau gritted his teeth and walked into the treasure land.

Right after he did so, over a dozen people with concealed aura appeared at the door.

They studied the entrance before entering the place as well.

Meanwhile, Kaison had returned to the Tall residence in a huff.

Mason asked, “Why are you so angry? What happened?”

“We’ve discovered the location of the treasure, Mason!”

“I see.” Mason nodded and did not look quite excited. “If you found it, why did you come back?”

“The people from the Demon Seal Alliance demanded the key to the treasure, so we fought with them. However, they were too strong, and we lost. Where’s Mr. Ambrose, Mason? I need to bring more men over so I can destroy those b*stards from the Demon Seal Alliance! This is our turf! I won’t allow them to flaunt their might here!” Kaison said through gritted teeth, desperate to restore his dignity.

Mason stared at Kaison coldly before furrowing his eyebrows. “Can you be a little smarter? Will it kill you to stop murdering people and playing with women all day? In any case, I want you to stay at home for now. Once Mr. Chance recovers, lead him to the treasure.”

“Mr. Chance? What Mr. Chance?” Kaison was flabbergasted because he had never seen his brother refer to another individual with such respect before.

“The two women you captured are Mr. Chance’s friends. If Quinn hadn’t stopped you in time, you would’ve brought a lot of trouble to our family. Once Mr. Chance awakes from his cultivation, I want you to apologize to him earnestly. Even though you two are peers, he’s so much better than you. You should be ashamed of yourself,” Mason reprimanded.

Kaison wasn’t happy with that arrangement, but he dared not show it on his face. “Understood...”

“Go on now and cultivate. Look at yourself. Your cultivation pace is no faster than a snail’s. So many resources have been wasted on you.” Mason waved his hand.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2947-Jared, who was cultivating in the courtyard of the Tall residence, exhaled and slowly opened his eyes.

“Now that I’ve finished absorbing the ice soul fragment, the heavenly thunder fruit is next.”

The speed at which he absorbed the ice soul fragment was faster than anyone else, yet he still thought it was too slow.

At that moment, he felt weak and was desperate to increase his power as quickly as possible.

However, each minor cultivation level he achieved required thousands of times more resources than others. and that greatly troubled him.

Even though his body was incredibly tough and the object of envy to many, the resources he required to grow stronger were some of his biggest obstacles.

If he relied only on absorbing the spiritual energy in the environment, it might take him forever to reach another minor cultivation level.

Upon scanning his environment, he noticed Feenix and Aislin were still in the midst of cultivation. A single heavenly thunder fruit was enough for them to cultivate for around ten days.

However, the number of levels they could achieve with the help of the heavenly thunder fruit would depend on their talents.

Feenix would likely break through many levels. After all, she was a celestial beast from Ethereal Realm. She was only weakened because she was thrown into the mundane world.

If she wished to strengthen herself, she could do so quickly.

“I wonder if this heavenly thunder fruit can help me reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm.” Jared felt uneasy.

If he could become a Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator, he wouldn't need to escape from Lynette should they meet again. In fact, he would be able to face Lynette and fight her head-on.

With that thought in mind, he pulled out the heavenly thunder fruit.

He could have absorbed all three of the heavenly thunder fruits. However, he would be depriving Feenix and Aislin of their opportunity to grow stronger.

Ethereal Realm was a place littered with danger. If Feenix and Aislin failed to increase their power, their lives would be threatened.

Even a random, insignificant cultivator could easily defeat them.

Jared couldn't protect them at all times. To decrease the likelihood of them getting hurt, he had allowed the two of them to absorb the heavenly thunder fruits to enhance their strength.

He stared at the heavenly thunder fruit in his palm. Arcs of electricity could be seen jumping on it, and he could feel the power of lightning swirling within it.

A moment later, Jared took a bite of the fruit.

If anyone witnessed that scene, they would be startled because that was practically an act of suicide.

Heavenly thunder fruit was a type of resource that needed to be absorbed slowly. If anyone else attempted Jared's method, they would likely die because their bodies couldn't handle a sudden influx of power.

Feenix and Aislin had been absorbing power from the heavenly thunder fruits for a long time. Yet, the heavenly thunder fruits had only just shrunk a little.

Jared didn't want to waste any more time. He was confident his cultivation and body could handle the raw power of the heavenly thunder fruit. That was why he consumed it as such.

Thunderhawk would probably be furious if he saw Jared eating the heavenly thunder fruit as though it were an ordinary apple.

After Jared finished the entire heavenly thunder fruit, he felt his head explode.

Arcs of electricity began to dance on his body.

He stared at his hands and saw the power of lightning being continuously emitted from his palms.

Lightning could be seen crackling above the courtyard Jared was staying in.

That unusual phenomenon attracted the attention of many members of the Tall family.

"What's going on? Why are we seeing the power of lightning here?"

"Yeah! I haven't seen this in many years!"

"I've only ever witnessed snowy weather. I don't think I've seen this before, but it's pretty."

The members of the Tall family began discussing the strange phenomenon in the sky.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2948-Unknown to Mason, his guess was absolutely correct. Jared had eaten the heavenly thunder fruit directly instead of absorbing its power slowly.

"I wonder if I can open my own nascence space with the power of the heavenly thunder fruit." After Jared learned about nascence aura, he desperately wanted his own nascence space.

However, as much as he wanted to comprehend nascence aura, he was only a Body Fusion Realm cultivator. It would be no easy feat for him to achieve.

Tribulator cultivators who could create a nascence space were exceptionally talented and extremely rare.

If Jared could accomplish that while only being a Body Fusion Realm cultivator, he would be considered a genius among geniuses.

Jared calmed himself down as he felt the power of lightning within his body that was once contained inside the heavenly thunder fruit. If only I could gain the ability to create nascence space! If I can't, well, I guess I'll continue cultivating. It's not like I have to do it right now.

As he dived into his consciousness field, he gazed at the Golden Tome. He hoped that the Golden Tome would activate and help him in earning the ability to create nascence space.

However, no matter how hard he tried, it didn't work, and the Golden Tome remained unmoving.

"Maybe it's because my cultivation is still too low to learn this power..."

Seeing that he couldn't succeed, Jared began cultivating again. Let's see if I can reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm now!

The power of lightning was continuously refined by Jared's Focus Technique.

As he did so, clouds began to gather above him.

The clouds were heavy and the thunder and lightning were loud and clear. The tremor seemed to shake the entire Tall residence. In the clouds, arcs of electricity shot through them as though they were preparing for something.

"What is this? Is a Demonic Cultivator sneaking up on us?"

"This is terrifying! Is it really a demon?"

"This is a lightning tribulation! Someone's about to achieve a breakthrough!"

"Who? Whose breakthrough resulted in such terrifying lightning tribulation? Is it Mr. Mason?"

The Tall family members were shocked.

Kaison was in a bad mood after being scolded by Mason, so he was drinking in his courtyard.

When he saw the terrifying lightning tribulation clouds above the Tall residence, he was startled. “Is Mason about to reach a breakthrough?”

Kaison didn’t know who was about to make a breakthrough that there would be such a terrifying lightning tribulation.

He hurried to Mason’s courtyard. If it really is Mason, then this is good news! He hasn’t made a breakthrough in many years!

Upon arriving at Mason’s courtyard, Kaison shouted excitedly, “Mason! Did you—”

At that moment, he noticed Mason exiting his room.

Realizing Mason wasn’t the one achieving the breakthrough, Kaison was stunned. “Mason, who in our family is achieving a breakthrough? What’s with all the commotion?”

Mason glanced at the lightning tribulation clouds and said, “It’s Mr. Chance...”

“Mr. Chance? What is his cultivation level? Is he ascending to Tribulator from Body Fusion Realm?” Kaison was puzzled.

Mason shook his head. “He’s only a Third Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator. Right now, he should be breaking through to Fourth Level.”

“What?” Kaison was in disbelief. “That’s impossible! How can the ascension from Third Level to Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm be this dramatic? I don’t believe it!”

“It’s your choice whether to believe it or not. Don’t assume others share the same opinion as you. Also, don’t think I don’t know you’ve been drinking all day instead of cultivating.” Mason glowered at Kaison.

Kaison was so frightened that he scurried away.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2949-Right after Kaison left, Mason turned his gaze toward the lightning tribulation clouds gathering above Jared.

“What strange lightning tribulation clouds. Could it be...”

Suddenly, his eyes sparkled.

“Mr. Ambrose!” he shouted.

Ambrose quickly appeared before Mason anxiously. “What’s the matter, Mr. Mason?”

It was the first time Ambrose had seen Mason being that excited.

“Tell everyone to get out of their room right now and head to the courtyard! A great opportunity has come!” Mason was so excited that his body was trembling slightly.

Dumbstruck, Ambrose asked in a small voice, “What do you mean, Mr. Mason?”

“Just do as I say! You’ll know soon enough. Quick!”

Soon, Ambrose had everyone stand in the courtyard.

Kaison was no exception. He grumbled, “Is Mason crazy? Why can’t we stay inside our rooms? Also, why does he keep saying a great opportunity has come?”

Other members of the Tall family were wondering about the same thing. They didn’t understand what Mason meant by a great opportunity.

Just as the crowd was discussing, they heard an explosion.

Boom!

The first heavenly thunder could be heard from the lightning tribulation clouds, followed by a flash of lightning that struck Jared’s courtyard.

Everyone’s heart trembled slightly when they witnessed that lightning tribulation.

When the first lightning tribulation struck, Jared opened his eyes and rose into the air.

The lightning tribulation struck Jared’s body, causing golden light to flash all around him.

The second lightning tribulation hit him immediately after the first, not giving him the slightest chance to catch his breath.

That one tore Jared's clothes into pieces, revealing his body that was covered in a layer of golden scales.

Jared had activated Golem Body because he knew that many more lightning tribulations were waiting for him.

If he couldn't survive it, his efforts would be for naught. Not only would he fail to grow stronger, he might even be injured.

Each lightning tribulation that struck Jared was more powerful than the last.

Yet, as Jared floated in midair, there was no fear in his eyes.

"T-This is ridiculous! How many lightning tribulations have he endured at this point?"

"Nine. I counted. This is his ninth lightning tribulation!"

"Oh my god! Even a Tribulator cultivator can't withstand nine lightning tribulations! This guy's insane!"

The Tall family members discussed the scene before them, envious of Jared's tough body.

Kaison, who had looked down on Jared, lifted his gaze. Admiration swirled in his eyes as he watched Jared endure the lightning tribulations without fear.

Mason smiled, looking at Jared wordlessly.

"One more. There's still one more lightning tribulation. I'm sure you can fight it," Mason mumbled.

Right as he said that, the tenth lightning tribulation struck Jared.

At that moment, Jared's body began to shake.

The crowd's mouths were wide open as they watched in disbelief. Ten lightning tribulations! This is insane!

The last lightning tribulation was especially vicious because the bolt was as thick as a trunk. It was unlikely that anyone in the crowd could survive that.

However, Jared did. Despite the trembling of his body, he still endured the last lightning tribulation.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2950-Just as the crowd looked at Jared in shock, someone detected a drop of rain on their cheek.

“What? This is the far north. The only weather we have here is snow!”

“It really is raining!”

“It’s raining! Look! It’s raining!”

Suddenly, it began to drizzle.

The Tall family members were startled because none of them had witnessed rain before. After all, the weather there was so cold that any water in the sky would’ve turned into snowflakes when it hit the ground.

“What’s going on? How can it be raining?” Kaison stretched out his hand to catch a raindrop in confusion.

However, when the raindrop fell on his palm, it vanished instantly. He felt the spiritual energy in his body moving.

“This is…” Kaison widened his eyes in disbelief.

At that moment, Mason flew into the air and faced his family. “This is what I meant by a great opportunity. What you see before you isn’t rain. It’s spiritual water. It’s spiritual energy condensed into liquid. This spiritual water is thousands of times more powerful than spiritual energy. Heed my words, members of the Tall family. Initiate your cultivation immediately and absorb this rare spiritual water.”

Only then did the Tall family members understand why it was raining.

It turned out that the liquid falling from the sky wasn’t ordinary water but spiritual water. No matter how cold the temperature was, the spiritual water would never turn into snow.

The Tall family members promptly sat down and began cultivating, absorbing the spiritual water falling from the sky.

Everyone's strength soared at a meteoric rate as they absorbed the drizzling spiritual water. Even the ones who were injured were recovering rapidly.

Mason watched his family members grow stronger at high speed and grinned with satisfaction.

"To think a Third Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator can summon ten lightning tribulations and cause spiritual water to rain from the sky. What a miracle this is," Mason said, looking up at Jared.

When he did, he was stunned because the lightning tribulation clouds didn't disappear.

In fact, the clouds were getting thicker.

"What's going on?" Mason frowned, slightly panicking. "Are there more lightning tribulations to follow?" I don't understand. Jared has survived ten lightning tribulations. Why are the clouds still around? Does this mean there's an eleventh lightning tribulation? That doesn't seem likely. Even if a Tribulator cultivator like me reaches Ultimate Realm, I still won't attract eleven lightning tribulations. This is ridiculous!

Upon sensing the power concealed within the lightning tribulation clouds, Mason quickly retreated far, far away from Jared.

At that moment, Jared was still floating in midair and feeling restless inside.

He had endured ten lightning tribulations, but he had yet to reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm.

And now that the lightning tribulation clouds hadn't dispersed, he wondered if there were more lightning tribulations.

He knew he would not be able to endure it if he had to withstand one more lightning tribulation.

After all, he had barely survived the tenth lightning tribulation.

At that point, he was exhausted, and Golem Body had been destroyed during the tenth lightning tribulation.

If there was an eleventh lightning tribulation, he would be turned into ash.

Godd*mmmit! Are the heavens trying to kill me? I didn't expect this breakthrough of mine to attract such powerful lightning tribulations!

Mason could tell that Jared was exhausted. He lifted his palm into the air and enveloped Jared in a powerful aura.

When Jared lowered his head, he saw Mason helping him.

With Mason's assistance, Jared regained some confidence. Although receiving external support during a lightning tribulation would cause the benefits to decrease, it was still better than dying.

As he dived into his consciousness field, he gazed at the Golden Tome. He hoped that the Golden Tome would activate and help him in earning the ability to create nascence space.

However, no matter how hard he tried, it didn't work, and the Golden Tome remained unmoving.

"Maybe it's because my cultivation is still too low to learn this power..."

Seeing that he couldn't succeed, Jared began cultivating again. Let's see if I can reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm now!

The power of lightning was continuously refined by Jared's Focus Technique.

As he did so, clouds began to gather above him.

The clouds were heavy and the thunder and lightning were loud and clear. The tremor seemed to shake the entire Tall residence. In the clouds, arcs of electricity shot through them as though they were preparing for something.

"What is this? Is a Demonic Cultivator sneaking up on us?"

"This is terrifying! Is it really a demon?"

"This is a lightning tribulation! Someone's about to achieve a breakthrough!"

"Who? Whose breakthrough resulted in such terrifying lightning tribulation? Is it Mr. Mason?"

The Tall family members were shocked.

Kaison was in a bad mood after being scolded by Mason, so he was drinking in his courtyard.

When he saw the terrifying lightning tribulation clouds above the Tall residence, he was startled. “Is Mason about to reach a breakthrough?”

Kaison didn’t know who was about to make a breakthrough that there would be such a terrifying lightning tribulation.

He hurried to Mason’s courtyard. If it really is Mason, then this is good news! He hasn’t made a breakthrough in many years!

Upon arriving at Mason’s courtyard, Kaison shouted excitedly, “Mason! Did you—”

At that moment, he noticed Mason exiting his room.

Realizing Mason wasn’t the one achieving the breakthrough, Kaison was stunned. “Mason, who in our family is achieving a breakthrough? What’s with all the commotion?”

Mason glanced at the lightning tribulation clouds and said, “It’s Mr. Chance...”

“Mr. Chance? What is his cultivation level? Is he ascending to Tribulator from Body Fusion Realm?” Kaison was puzzled.

Mason shook his head. “He’s only a Third Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator. Right now, he should be breaking through to Fourth Level.”

“What?” Kaison was in disbelief. “That’s impossible! How can the ascension from Third Level to Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm be this dramatic? I don’t believe it!”

“It’s your choice whether to believe it or not. Don’t assume others share the same opinion as you. Also, don’t think I don’t know you’ve been drinking all day instead of cultivating.” Mason glowered at Kaison.

Kaison was so frightened that he scurried away.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2949-Right after Kaison left, Mason turned his gaze toward the lightning tribulation clouds gathering above Jared.

“What strange lightning tribulation clouds. Could it be...”

Suddenly, his eyes sparkled.

“Mr. Ambrose!” he shouted.

Ambrose quickly appeared before Mason anxiously. “What’s the matter, Mr. Mason?”

It was the first time Ambrose had seen Mason being that excited.

“Tell everyone to get out of their room right now and head to the courtyard! A great opportunity has come!” Mason was so excited that his body was trembling slightly.

Dumbstruck, Ambrose asked in a small voice, “What do you mean, Mr. Mason?”

“Just do as I say! You’ll know soon enough. Quick!”

Soon, Ambrose had everyone stand in the courtyard.

Kaison was no exception. He grumbled, “Is Mason crazy? Why can’t we stay inside our rooms? Also, why does he keep saying a great opportunity has come?”

Other members of the Tall family were wondering about the same thing. They didn’t understand what Mason meant by a great opportunity.

Just as the crowd was discussing, they heard an explosion.

Boom!

The first heavenly thunder could be heard from the lightning tribulation clouds, followed by a flash of lightning that struck Jared’s courtyard.

Everyone’s heart trembled slightly when they witnessed that lightning tribulation.

When the first lightning tribulation struck, Jared opened his eyes and rose into the air.

The lightning tribulation struck Jared's body, causing golden light to flash all around him.

The second lightning tribulation hit him immediately after the first, not giving him the slightest chance to catch his breath.

That one tore Jared's clothes into pieces, revealing his body that was covered in a layer of golden scales.

Jared had activated Golem Body because he knew that many more lightning tribulations were waiting for him.

If he couldn't survive it, his efforts would be for naught. Not only would he fail to grow stronger, he might even be injured.

Each lightning tribulation that struck Jared was more powerful than the last.

Yet, as Jared floated in midair, there was no fear in his eyes.

"T-This is ridiculous! How many lightning tribulations have he endured at this point?"

"Nine. I counted. This is his ninth lightning tribulation!"

"Oh my god! Even a Tribulator cultivator can't withstand nine lightning tribulations! This guy's insane!"

The Tall family members discussed the scene before them, envious of Jared's tough body.

Kaison, who had looked down on Jared, lifted his gaze. Admiration swirled in his eyes as he watched Jared endure the lightning tribulations without fear.

Mason smiled, looking at Jared wordlessly.

"One more. There's still one more lightning tribulation. I'm sure you can fight it," Mason mumbled.

Right as he said that, the tenth lightning tribulation struck Jared.

At that moment, Jared's body began to shake.

The crowd's mouths were wide open as they watched in disbelief. Ten lightning tribulations! This is insane!

The last lightning tribulation was especially vicious because the bolt was as thick as a trunk. It was unlikely that anyone in the crowd could survive that.

However, Jared did. Despite the trembling of his body, he still endured the last lightning tribulation.

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2950-Just as the crowd looked at Jared in shock, someone detected a drop of rain on their cheek.

"It's raining?"

"What? This is the far north. The only weather we have here is snow!"

"It really is raining!"

"It's raining! Look! It's raining!"

Suddenly, it began to drizzle.

The Tall family members were startled because none of them had witnessed rain before. After all, the weather there was so cold that any water in the sky would've turned into snowflakes when it hit the ground.

"What's going on? How can it be raining?" Kaison stretched out his hand to catch a raindrop in confusion.

However, when the raindrop fell on his palm, it vanished instantly. He felt the spiritual energy in his body moving.

"This is..." Kaison widened his eyes in disbelief.

At that moment, Mason flew into the air and faced his family. "This is what I meant by a great opportunity. What you see before you isn't rain. It's spiritual water. It's spiritual energy condensed into liquid. This spiritual water is thousands of times more powerful than spiritual energy. Heed my words, members of the Tall family. Initiate your cultivation immediately and absorb this rare spiritual water."

Only then did the Tall family members understand why it was raining.

It turned out that the liquid falling from the sky wasn't ordinary water but spiritual water. No matter how cold the temperature was, the spiritual water would never turn into snow.

The Tall family members promptly sat down and began cultivating, absorbing the spiritual water falling from the sky.

Everyone's strength soared at a meteoric rate as they absorbed the drizzling spiritual water. Even the ones who were injured were recovering rapidly.

Mason watched his family members grow stronger at high speed and grinned with satisfaction.

"To think a Third Level Body Fusion Realm cultivator can summon ten lightning tribulations and cause spiritual water to rain from the sky. What a miracle this is," Mason said, looking up at Jared.

When he did, he was stunned because the lightning tribulation clouds didn't disappear.

In fact, the clouds were getting thicker.

"What's going on?" Mason frowned, slightly panicking. "Are there more lightning tribulations to follow?" I don't understand. Jared has survived ten lightning tribulations. Why are the clouds still around? Does this mean there's an eleventh lightning tribulation? That doesn't seem likely. Even if a Tribulator cultivator like me reaches Ultimate Realm, I still won't attract eleven lightning tribulations. This is ridiculous!

Upon sensing the power concealed within the lightning tribulation clouds, Mason quickly retreated far, far away from Jared.

At that moment, Jared was still floating in midair and feeling restless inside.

He had endured ten lightning tribulations, but he had yet to reach Fourth Level Body Fusion Realm.

And now that the lightning tribulation clouds hadn't dispersed, he wondered if there were more lightning tribulations.

He knew he would not be able to endure it if he had to withstand one more lightning tribulation.

After all, he had barely survived the tenth lightning tribulation.

At that point, he was exhausted, and Golem Body had been destroyed during the tenth lightning tribulation.

If there was an eleventh lightning tribulation, he would be turned into ash.

Godd*mmmit! Are the heavens trying to kill me? I didn't expect this breakthrough of mine to attract such powerful lightning tribulations!

Mason could tell that Jared was exhausted. He lifted his palm into the air and enveloped Jared in a powerful aura.

When Jared lowered his head, he saw Mason helping him.

With Mason's assistance, Jared regained some confidence. Although receiving external support during a lightning tribulation would cause the benefits to decrease, it was still better than dying.
